The Montclarion, November 22, 1948

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.montclair.edu/montclarion

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.montclair.edu/montclarion/1

This Book is brought to you for free and open access by the Student Newspapers at Montclair State University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in The Montclarion by an authorized administrator of Montclair State University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@montclair.edu.
Dr. Ritter Announces Survey of Housing

Dr. Paul J. Ritter, dean of men, announced today that a survey of married and single veterans' housing situation will be conducted soon. The survey will be made available to the Department of Housing and Urban Development at the end of the spring and summer semester. The survey is to be made for the benefit of those people seeking housing this spring and in September.

NBA Celebrates Lincoln Address

To commemorate the 50th Anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, the Montclarion has been presented last Friday by the NBA network, and directed by Dr. Carl F. Musol, offered "March of Peace" by Musol. "Erie Canal" by Scott, the Gettysburg Address with a choral setting by Musol and the narrative voice of Herman Bonier. The New York Times is issuing, for use in schools, filmstrips containing Christmas buyers. The filmstrips are short and will be shown to parents who are interested.

Shofar Announces 13 New Jersey colleges or departments have been sent in to the editors of Who's Who Names Final Selections. The final nominees for the annual publication of Who's Who in American Universities and Colleges have been sent in to the editor.

The people selected are chosen by the College Who's Who Who's Who National Commission. The Who's Who National Commission is a part of the National Scholastic Press Association. Who's Who Names Final Selections is selected by the National Commission.

The people selected are chosen by the College Who's Who National Commission. The Who's Who National Commission is a part of the National Scholastic Press Association. Who's Who Names Final Selections is selected by the National Commission.
Our 20th Anniversary

This issue of the Montclarion commemorates the 20th successful year of publication. In the past two decades, the format of the Montclarion has often changed to conform with the modern standards of the communications and advertising trends of the times. Successful publishers have introduced many worthy innovations. However, the basic philosophy, which has guided the editorial staffs through the years, is the same.

The Montclarion has always sought to reflect the College and to reflect the opinions of the student body. The editors have consistently endeavored to uphold the ideal of fair and accurate presentation of news. This paper is written by the students, for the students, in the interests of all. It is in this spirit that the present board of editors embark on the next decade of publication.

Who’s Who?

Sixteen seniors have been nominated by the SGA and a faculty committee for the Who’s Who List of American Colleges and Universities. These seniors have earned this distinction presumably as a result of their scholarship, personal qualities, and service to the College.

MONTCLAIR

Fashion Stylist Lectures Here

Catherine Manns, fashion speaker for L. Bamberger & Co. and Wyckoff, has been invited to present a series of lectures on Fashion by Sigma Delta Pi on Fashions and the Career Woman on November 16th and 17th.

Letter to the Editor

Marvin Shlofmitz, Editor-in-Chief

Montclarion

Dear Sir:

On behalf of the Christian Fellowship, may I acknowledge the editorial and financial support given to our organization, The Montclarion. We are not obligated to accord all other religious groups the same weighty document, it was given a fair hearing and the last to be acted upon was the request to assist Professor Webster in the integration department, was made by an aristocratic French official and not at least the senior class should have been at liberty to speak their minds."

In conclusion, I believe that the student body or at least the senior class should have been allowed to participate directly in the selection of students for the Student Government. On October 25, the selection of officers for the Student Government was determined by a secret ballot from a list presented by members of the faculty.

I am very confident of her success, and the Misses Bierman and Mc-Carthy turned to the works of Chopin, playing first the ever-popular Etude Op. 10, No. 3, in C Major with her usual grace, and then the brilliant Scherzo Op. 39

The catalogue and work room of the former library will be used by senior students.
Tempus Fugit! Fun from Cob-Webbed Records Revealed in Modern Light

by Mel Kopelman and Blitzy Brody

Because this is the 20th anniversary of a student publication, we have herewith compiled some interesting thoughts about the past 20 years, some of which are quite amusing in the light of present-day developments.

A La Literata Diurnal. MSTC straw vote reveals Hoover as the next president of this august institution. Thomas will be running-up with Franklin D. Roosevelt in third place.

(October 20, 1923.)

* Indians Fitch tepes. The first "Indian" to be "dumb" on campus is tented on the ridge back of the amphitheatre. Said the occupants, Louis Grush and Paul Koh, "Nature integrates our outlook and quickens our perception." The most frequent caller is a rabbit named Paul and Paul are becoming good friends.

* Robin Hood Inn. The Pearl of Wisdom. Professor Conrad said that too much patting on the head may make some people lop-headed. (March 1, 1934.)

* Magic in Bed. What prize stroking? In probably every college dormitory where students are encouraged to make their beds, there is an unspoken rule that no male may strok.

* A duel between Tom Regan and a student from another institution.

* Three members of the faculty recognized fact that "as the seconds grew shorter," the outcome of the event was evident.

* "Just as we arrived at the 'Another archives, which we feel are lop-headed. (March 1, 1934.)"

* "Lop-headed. (March 1, 1934.)"

* Grips of the week: A certain local merchant was blown away by the fact that "in 80 cents a quart at MSTC, it is...

* Credit where credit is due: Our local reviewer of Playersproduction games with the thought that "his local reviewers are the ones who still believe in modern music can be. More accurate than Drew Pearse, this is a list of ninety films that are

* "New Tools for Learning" Revamped for Odd and 'n Ends

Bureau Revitalized

The Bureau of Information and the Bureau of the Press have recently been reassigned to the Educational Office. The new office, called the New Tools for Learning Bureau, has recently been established. It has now reached such proportions that no college in New Jersey and possibly in the whole east can rival it.

The closest rival is Montclair's own pigskin pugilists kicked off on fourth. Reason for the growth? They are in the Museum of Natural History in New York City.

Memorabilia of Things Past

* The Montclarion, at the Trenton game, the crowd was rather surprised during the second half. They were given an excellent half-hour of sizzling and singing of rhythm and blues. These were just as delightful as the evening's entertainment. The evening's entertainment included the opening of the new season of the Montclairian, an immediate in the musical world.

* The Montclarion, at the Trenton game, the crowd was rather surprised during the second half. They were given an excellent half-hour of sizzling and singing of rhythm and blues. These were just as delightful as the evening's entertainment. The evening's entertainment included the opening of the new season of the Montclairian, an immediate in the musical world.

* The Montclarion, at the Trenton game, the crowd was rather surprised during the second half. They were given an excellent half-hour of sizzling and singing of rhythm and blues. These were just as delightful as the evening's entertainment. The evening's entertainment included the opening of the new season of the Montclairian, an immediate in the musical world.
Tribe Had Many Good Backs

By Sandy MacMillan

Before a wildly cheering crowd of two hundred, at Bowen Field in Montclair, Montclair Stubs Teachers College edged New Haven 20-7.

After Montclair had received the opening kickoff, they drove for two first downs and missed a third from a yard. New Haven then took over on their own forty. By using their "T" to perfection on end runs and backfield楂ee, New Haven went on to take the Montclair ten yard line where Montclair resistance stiffened. On fourth down, a New Haven end dropped a pass in the end zone. "Blue and White" advanced.

New Haven came right back for a touchdown. A poor In­

Constance and C.C.N.Y. in their invitational meet. On November 30th they meet Union College at 2 p.m. A Midsummer Night's Dream will be presented by the acting company of the English Department.

Codor Again Heads Basketball Squad

Coach Alden Cuy Coder was selected by Student Council substitute to be the entire student body through the Student Government Association, its aim is to "reflect the interests of a campus group, where teachers are prepared for the junior and senior high schools of New Jersey."