Academic Literacy

Course Description

Audiology. Permission of Graduate Advisor required.

Once students have acquired 12 credits of CSND 900 Dissertation Advisement, they must enroll in 1 credit of CSND 901 in every semester in which they intend to work on the dissertation, up to and including the semester of the defense. Credits are reported as IP (In Progress) while the dissertation is being written. At the conclusion of the dissertation defense, a final grade of Pass or Fail will be recorded. CSND 901 may be repeated until the time limitation for completion of the doctoral program as specified in the Doctoral Policy Manual has been reached.

CWER099

Title

Academic Literacy.

Number and type of credits

3 hours lecture.

Course Description

For incoming first-year students, this course focuses on acquiring academic literacy skills and practices. This course teaches analytical and critical reading, research, lecture and note taking, discussion techniques, analytical writing, presentation, and peer feedback and critique. Students will become familiar with a range of text types and participate in inquiry learning using multimedia resources. This course will be taught as a hybrid; the class will be conducted both in face to face meetings and asynchronously online. The goals of this course are (1) to enhance one's ability to read and write at the college level; (2) to acquire a repertoire of strategies for enhancing academic literacy; (3) to learn and apply fundamental practices for peer review; and (4) to develop a critical perspective on issues presented in assigned readings. Credit not usable toward graduation. This course is offered as a Pass/No Credit only.
