About the Company
Over the past 40 years the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company has shaped the evolution of contemporary dance through the creation and performance of over 140 works. Founded as a multicultural dance company in 1982, the company was born of an 11-year artistic collaboration between Bill T. Jones and Arnie Zane. Today, the company is recognized as one of the most innovative and powerful forces in the modern-dance world. The company has performed its ever-enlarging repertoire worldwide in over 200 cities in 40 countries on every major continent. In 2011, the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company merged with Dance Theater Workshop to form New York Live Arts, of which Bill T. Jones is the artistic director and Janet Wong is the associate artistic director.

The repertoire of the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company is widely varied in its subject matter, visual imagery, and stylistic approach to movement, voice, and stagecraft and includes musically driven works as well as works using a variety of texts. Some of its most celebrated creations are evening-length works including Last Supper at Uncle Tom’s Cabin/ The Promised Land (1990, Next Wave Festival at the Brooklyn Academy of Music); Still/Here (1994, Biennale de la Danse in Lyon, France); We Set Out Early…Visibility Was Poor (1996, Hancher Auditorium, Iowa City, IA); You Walk? (2000, European Capital of Culture 2000, Bolgna, Italy); Blind Date (2006, Peak Performances at Montclair State University); Chapel/Chapter (2006, Harlem Stage Gatehouse); Fondly Do We Hope…Fervently Do We Pray… (2009, Ravinia Festival, Highland Park, IL); Another Evening: Venice/Arnesale (2010, La Biennale di Venezia, Venice, Italy); Story/Time (2012, Peak Performances); A Rite (2013, Carolina Performing Arts at the University of North Carolina-Chapel Hill); and Deep Blue Sea (2021, Park Avenue Armory).

New York Live Arts
Home of Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company (BTJ/AZ), Live Arts is a commissioning and presenting center of diverse artists notable for their conceptual rigor, formal experimentation, and active engagement with the sociocultural currents of our time. Artists at all stages of their careers are supported through residencies, commissions, and artist services. BTJ/AZ, founded in 1982 by Bill T. Jones and Arnie Zane (1948–1988), is recognized as an innovative force, having performed in over 200 cities and 40 countries. We at New York Live Arts acknowledge and offer deep gratitude to Lenapehoking, where our theater sits—the land, and waters of the Lenape homeland.

Arts + Cultural Programming (ACP) produces and presents dance, music, theater, opera, and circus performances in the Alexander Kasser Theater, on the campus of Montclair State University, for MSU students and the general public. Through its internationally acclaimed live performing arts series PEAK Performances, ACP defies convention by supporting new performance ideas without compromise. ACP believes that for the performing arts to be sustainable, audiences must evolve and that the way to achieve this goal is to empower the best artists of our time. Artists at all stages of their careers are supported through residencies, commissions, and artist services. ACP gratefully acknowledges our student staff and volunteers.

About the Artists

Bill T. Jones (Artistic Director/Co-Founder/Choreographer: Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company; Artistic Director: New York Live Arts) is a multitalented artist, choreographer, dancer, theater director, and writer. He has received major honors ranging from the Human Rights Campaign’s 2016 Visibility Award and 2013 National Medal of Arts to a 1994 MacArthur “Genius” Award and Kennedy Center Honors in 2010. Jones was honored with the 2014 Doris Duke Performing Artist Award, recognized as Officier de l’Ordre des Arts et des Lettres by the French government in 2010, inducted into the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 2009, and named “An Irreplaceable Dance Treasure” by the Dance Heritage Coalition in 2000. His ventures into Broadway theater resulted in a 2010 Tony Award for Best Choreography in the critically acclaimed FELA!, the new musical co-conceived, co-written, directed, and choreographed by Jones. He also earned a 2007 Tony Award for Best Choreography in Spring Awakening as well as an Obie Award for the show’s 2006 off-Broadway run. His choreography for the off-Broadway production of The Seven earned him a 2006 Lucille Lortel Award. Most recently in 2022, he was awarded another Lucille Lortel Award for his choreography for Black No More. Jones has been nominated for the 2022 Tony Awards for his work on Paradise Square.

Jones began his dance training at the State University of New York at Binghamton (SUNY), where he studied classical ballet and modern dance. After living in Amsterdam, Jones returned to SUNY, where he became co-founder of the American Dance Asylum in 1973. In 1982 he formed the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company (then called Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane & Company) with his late partner, Arnie Zane. Jones is currently artistic director of New York Live Arts, an organization that strives to create a robust framework in support of the nation’s dance and movement-based artists through new approaches to producing, presenting and educating. For more information, visit http://www.newyorklivearts.org/.

His work in dance has been recognized with the 2010 Jacob’s Pillow Dance Award; the 2005 Wexner Prize; the 2005 Samuel H. Scripps American Dance Festival Award for Lifetime Achievement; the 2003 Dorothy and Lillian Gish Prize; and the 1993 Dance Magazine Award. His additional awards include the Harlem Renaissance Award in 2005; the Dorothy B. Chandler Performing Arts Award in 1991; multiple New York
Dance and Performance Bessie Awards for his works The Table Project (2001), The Breathing Show (2001), D-Man in the Waters (1989), and the Company’s groundbreaking season at the Joyce Theater (1986). In 1980, 1981, and 1982, Jones was the recipient of Choreographic Fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts, and in 1979 he was granted the Creative Artists Public Service Award in Choreography.

Jones was profiled on NBC Nightly News and The Today Show in 2010 and was a guest on The Colbert Report in 2009. Also in 2010, he was featured in HBO’s documentary series MASTERCLASS, which follows notable artists as they mentor aspiring young artists. In 2009, Jones appeared on one of the final episodes of Bill Moyers Journal, discussing his Lincoln suite of works. He was also one of 22 prominent black Americans featured in the HBO documentary The Black List in 2008. In 2004, ARTE France and Bel Air Media produced Bill T. Jones–Solos, highlighting three of his iconic solos from a cinematic point of view. The making of Still/Here was the subject of a documentary by Bill Moyers and David Grubin entitled Bill T. Jones: Still/Here with Bill Moyers in 1997. Additional television credits include telecasts of his works Last Supper at Uncle Tom’s Cabin/The Promised Land (1992) and Fever Swamp (1985) on PBS’s Great Performances series. In 2001, D-Man in the Waters was broadcast on the Emmy-winning documentary Free to Dance.

Bill T. Jones’s interest in new media and digital technology has resulted in collaborations with the team of Paul Kaiser, Shelley Eshkar, and Marc Downie, now known as OpenEnded Group. The collaborations include After Ghostcatching—the 10th-anniversary re-imagining of Ghostcatching (2010, SITE Santa Fe Eighth International Biennial); 22 (2004, Arizona State University’s Institute for Studies in the Arts and Technology, Tempe, AZ); and Ghostcatching—A Virtual Dance Installation (1999, Cooper Union, New York, NY).

He has received honorary doctorates from Yale University, Art Institute of Chicago, Bard College, Columbia College, Skidmore College, the Juilliard School, Swarthmore College, and the State University of New York at Binghamton Distinguished Alumni Award, where he began his dance training with studies in classical ballet and modern dance.

Jones’s memoir, Last Night on Earth, was published by Pantheon Books in 1995. An in-depth look at the work of Bill T. Jones and Arnie Zane can be found in Body Against

In addition to his Company and Broadway work, Jones also choreographed Sir Michael Tippet’s New Year (1990) for Houston Grand Opera and Glyndebourne Festival Opera. His Mother of Three Sons was performed at the Munich Biennale, New York City Opera, and the Houston Grand Opera. Jones also directed Lost in the Stars for the Boston Lyric Opera. Additional theater projects include codirecting Perfect Courage with Rhodessa Jones for Festival 2000 in 1990. In 1994, he directed Derek Walcott’s Dream on Monkey Mountain for the Guthrie Theater in Minneapolis, MN.

Arnie Zane (Co-Founder/Choreographer) (1948–1988) was a native New Yorker born in the Bronx and educated at the State University of New York (SUNY) at Binghamton. In 1971, Arnie Zane and Bill T. Jones began their long collaboration in choreography and in 1973 formed the American Dance Asylum in Binghamton with Lois Welk. Zane’s first recognition in the arts came as a photographer when he received a Creative Artists Public Service (CAPS) Fellowship in 1973. Zane was the recipient of a second CAPS Fellowship in 1981 for choreography as well as two Choreographic Fellowships from the National Endowment for the Arts (1983 and 1984). In 1980, Zane was co-recipient, with Bill T. Jones, of the German Critics Award for his work Blauvelt Mountain. Rotary Action, a duet with Jones, was filmed for television, co-produced by WGBH-TV Boston and Channel 4 in London.

Barrington Hinds (Performer) is from West Palm Beach, FL. He began his training at the School of Ballet Florida under the direction of Marie Hale. Hinds holds a BFA in Dance from SUNY Purchase College and has worked professionally with VERB Ballets, Northwest Professional Dance Project, and the national tour of Twyla Tharp’s Broadway show Movin’ Out. In 2011 Hinds was honored as a finalist for the Clive Barnes Award for young talent in dance. He has worked with leading choreographers including Lauri Stallings, Edgar Zendejas, Sarah Slipper, Helen Pickett, Thaddeus Davis, and Cherylyn Lavagnino, to name a few. Hinds has also danced with the Stephen Petronio Company and has freelanced in commercial, TV, and print work.
In addition, Hinds is also a choreographer and teacher. His work has been shown at Purchase College, Dixon Place, Warwick Summer Festival, Arts On Site, and The Tank. Hinds has been a performer with the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company since 2017. Follow him @bar_hinds and barringtonhinds.com.

Dean Husted (Performer) from Virginia Beach, VA, began his training at Denise Wall’s Dance Energy and later earned a BFA from NYU Tisch in 2019. During his time at NYU, he performed works by Merce Cunningham, Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane, and Christina Robson. He was selected for the Summer 2017 Contemporary Program at The School at Jacob’s Pillow, where he performed works by Marguerite Donlon, Jae Man Joo, Milton Myers, and the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company. In 2018, Husted studied in Berlin under the direction of Pamela Pietro and teachers Judith Sanchez-Ruiz, Ayman Harper, and Erion Kruja. Recently, he has started a project-based dance collective named Connective Tissue in Brooklyn, NY, with his partner Alonzo Blanco (@connectivetissuedance). Husted joined the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company in 2019.

Jada Jenai (Performer) was born and raised in Brooklyn, NY. She has worked professionally with A.I.M by Kyle Abraham, Helen Simoneau, Peridance Contemporary Dance Company, and WyckoffCollective. Jenai earned a BFA in Dance from SUNY Purchase Conservatory of Dance, studying under Jonathan Riedel, Kyle Abraham, Kevin Wynn, Dylan Crossman, and Jean Freebury (Merce Cunningham Change of Address). She also studied at Western Australia Academy for Performing Arts and Springboard Danse Montréal, working with Jonathan Alsberry and Shamel Pitts. Jenai attended Fiorello H. LaGuardia High School and is a freelance model. This is her first season with the Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Dance Company.

Shane Larson (Performer) was raised in Minnesota, where he received his early training at the St. Paul Conservatory for Performing Artists. He graduated from NYU’s Tisch School of the Arts with a BFA in Dance and a minor in Child and Adolescent Mental Health Studies. He also studied at SEAD in Austria. Since living in New York City, he has branched out to collaborate with punk musicians, film makers, improvisational music ensembles, and site-specific visual artists. He is also a multimedia video artist who makes collage-based work about memory. Larson joined the Company in 2015.

Jones and his company since 1985. Projects include Blind Date, Another Evening: I Bow Down, Still/Here, You Walk?, Last Supper at Uncle Tom’s Cabin/The Promised Land, How to Walk an Elephant, and We Set Out Early… Visibility Was Poor. Other works with Bill T. Jones include projects at the Guthrie Theatre, Lyon Opera Ballet, Deutsche Oper Berlin, Boston Ballet, Boston Lyric Opera, the Welsh dance company Diversions, and London’s Contemporary Dance Trust. Wierzel has also worked with choreographers Trisha Brown, Doug Varone, Donna Uchizono, Larry Goldhuber, Heidi Latsky, Seán Curran, Molissa Fenley, Susan Marshall, Margo Sappington, Alonzo King, and JoAnn Fregalette Jansen. Additional credits include national and international opera companies, Broadway, and regional theater. Wierzel is currently on the faculty of New York University’s Tisch School of the Arts and the Yale School of Drama.

Janet Wong (Associate Artistic Director/Video Designer) was born in Hong Kong and trained in Hong Kong and London. Upon graduation she joined the Berlin Ballet, where she first met Bill T. Jones when he was invited to choreograph on the company. In 1993, she moved to New York to pursue other interests. Wong became rehearsal director of the Company in 1996, associate artistic director in August 2006, and associate artistic director of New York Live Arts in 2016.

Megan Dechaine (Production Stage Manager) is a New York City–based stage manager originally from Washington State. She graduated from Western Washington University with a BA in Theater. She has worked with the American Dance Festival, Sleep No More, Mimi Garrard Dance, Jody Oberfelder Projects, The Anthropologists, Sara Juli, Time Lapse Dance, Dance Lab NY, Eric Taylor Dance, University of the Arts Winter and Spring Dance Series, Bellingham Repertory Dance, Kuntz and Company, Bellingham TheatreWorks, and iDiOM Theater. Dechaine joined the Company in 2022.
Hannah Emerson (Producer) completed her BFA in Contemporary Dance from the University of North Carolina School of the Arts in 2011. She moved to New York City shortly after being awarded the William R. Kenan, Jr., Fellowship at the Lincoln Center Institute. Choosing to remain in the northeast, she has held arts administrative positions at New York Live Arts and The Yard. Emerson joined Bill T. Jones/Arnie Zane Company in 2014 as company manager and now serves as a producer for New York Live Arts.

Hillery Makatura (Director of Production) graduated from Stephen F. Austin State University with a BFA in Theater. She has been touring both internationally and throughout the US since 2006. She has worked as production manager for The Actors Studio, Big Art Group, Theater Mitu, and Trisha Brown Dance Company.

Kyle Maude (Producing Director) graduated from Drake University with a BFA in Theater. She has worked with Ballet Tech/Feld Ballets New York, The Royal Ballet School of London, Buglisi-Foreman Dance, and Lesbian Pulp-o-Rama! Maude joined the Company in 2003 and served as the Company’s production stage manager for ten years, then director of producing and touring for three years before becoming producing director for New York Live Arts in 2016.

Shay Watson (Sound Supervisor)—Leshay “Shay” Watson—has been a recording and live sound engineer since 2012. Graduated from the Institute of Audio Research in 2015, since graduation she has had the privilege to work at some amazing venues like Apollo Theater, Jazz at Lincoln Center, The Shed, Barclay Center, PlayStation Theater, and Lehman College. She has also worked with many popular artists and on TV shows like Showtime at the Apollo, Kelly Clarkson, 2021 Heisman, Wildin’ Out, Law & Order SVU, The Marvelous Mrs. Maisel, and many more.

Serena Wong (Lighting Supervisor) is a Brooklyn-based freelance lighting designer for theater, opera, and dance. Her designs have been seen at New York Live Arts, Danspace, Irontale Arts Center, and Jacob’s Pillow. She is the resident lighting designer for New York Theatre Ballet and enjoys beekeeping and bread baking.
