World Premiere! Tattooed in Snow by Du Yun

February 8, 2015 • 3:00pm

Alexander Kasser Theater
Program Notes

Tattooed in Snow explores the temporary and fragile crystallization of art in nature and in space, often formed by the repetition of a small idea or process over a long period of time. The four players of the quartet form the four pillars of a musical space, and as a chant begins to move among them, it layers, repeats, and takes shape in the manner of a sculpture in sand, or snow. Inspired by these delicate art forms, as well as by chant and poetry, and building on my work with both visual artists and spoken-word artists, this piece provides a nuanced multilayered narrative trajectory.

Our final day has sunk from the sky to the salty main. That moment will never return which once has been.

—Du Yun, Composer

About the Artists

Du Yun

Born and raised in Shanghai, China, and currently based in New York City, Du Yun is a composer, multi-instrumentalist, and performance artist. Her music exists at the intersection of orchestral and chamber music, theater, opera, cabaret, storytelling, pop music, visual arts, and noise. Known as “protean” and “chameleonic,” she was listed by NPR as one of 100 composers under 40.

Hailed by the New York Times as a leading figure in China’s new generation of composers, Du Yun has had her music championed by some of today’s finest performing artists, ensembles, orchestras, and organizations. Selected commissions include from the Seattle Symphony Orchestra, Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Mann Center for the Performing Arts, American Composers Orchestra, Berkeley Symphony, Whitney Museum of American Art, Fromm Foundation, Meet the Composer/Commissioning USA, Chamber Music America, and Shanghai Electronic Music Week. Du Yun’s music has also been presented by Festival d’Avignon (France), Muzykgeboe van’t IJ (The Netherlands), Musica Nova Helsinki (Finland), Ultima Oslo Contemporary Music (Norway), Internationale Ferienkurse für Neue Musik Darmstadt (Germany), Festival Internacional Cervantino (Mexico), Shanghai Symphony Orchestra, Lincoln Center, Carnegie Hall, BAM Next Wave Festival, violinist Hilary Hahn, cellist Matt Haimovitz, and flutist Claire Chase, among others.

An avid performer, Du Yun has appeared in many assorted holes and halls across New York, nationally, and abroad. Her onstage persona has been described by the New York Times as “an indie pop diva with an avant-garde edge.” Her solo engagements as a performance artist include the 2012 Guangzhou Art Triennial (China) at the Guangzhou Opera House and the National Academy Museum (USA). Her ongoing collaborations of installation-performance-video with the Pakistani visual artist Shahzia Sikander have been on view at the Shanghai Rockbund Art Museum, the Tokyo Contemporary Museum of Art, San Francisco Art Institute, Pace Foundation (San Antonio), the Sharjah Biennial (United Arab Emirates), Auckland Art Triennial (New Zealand), Istanbul Biennial (Turkey), and Dhaka Art Summit (Bangladesh), as well as upcoming at the Bilbao Guggenheim in July 2015.

Du Yun’s music can be heard on New Focus, OXingale, ATMA Classique, and Deutsche Grammophon. An alumna of Shanghai Conservatory of Music, Oberlin College (BM), and Harvard University (MA, PhD), Du Yun is currently on the faculty of SUNY-Purchase. Since 2014, she has served as the artistic director of MATA, a pioneering organization dedicated to commissioning and presenting young composers from around the world.

Shanghai Quartet

Renowned for its passionate musicianship, impressive technique, and multicultural innovations, the Shanghai Quartet has become one of the world’s foremost chamber ensembles. Its elegant style melds the delicacy of Eastern music with the emotional breadth of Western repertoire, allowing it to traverse musical genres. Formed at the Shanghai Conservatory in 1983, the Quartet has worked with the world’s most distinguished artists and regularly tours the major music centers of Europe, North America, and Asia. Recent festival performances range from the International Music Festivals of Seoul and Beijing to the Prague Spring Festival, the Beijing Festival, the Bergen International Festival, the Atlanta Music Festival, Donaueschingen, and the Budapest Spring Festival. Also popular in the United States, the Quartet has performed at Carnegie Hall, the Brooklyn Academy of Music, the Berliner Philharmonie, the Aix-en-Provence Festival, the Montclair Festival, and the Aspen Summer Music Festival.

The Quartet has a long history of championing new music and juxtaposing traditions of Eastern and Western music. The Quartet’s 30th-anniversary season brought five new commissions: Bullycide, for piano, string quartet, and bass by David Del Tredici (co-commissioned by Peak Performances); Fantaisie, a piano quintet by Australian composer Carl Vine; a concerto for string quartet and orchestra by Jeajoon Ryu; Verge Quartet by Lei Liang; and Scherzo by Robert Aldridge, commissioned by Yu Long and the Beijing Music Festival. The tradition continues in 2015–16 with the premiere of a quintet for strings, percussion, and piano by Yu Long and the Beijing Music Festival.
