ART AND DESIGN/FOUNDATIONS

	Course Description	Consideration of a specific problem relating to creating a sensuously exciting and stimulating city and community form.
AREV421	Title	Community Form as Art, Advanced.
	Prerequisites	AREV 321.
	Special Fee	Special fee.
	Number and type of credits	1.50 hours lecture, 1.50 hours studio.
	Course Description	Continuation of AREV 321. May be repeated for a maximum of nine credits.
ARFD121	Title	Foundations I: Concept, Process and Application.
	Special Fee	Special fee.
	Number and type of credits	2 hours lecture, 4 hours studio.
	Course Description	Students will be challenged and guided in the development of their critical and conceptualizing skills as they apply to art and design processes.
ARFD121	Course Description	Foundations I is a problem-solving course in which the student investigates the dynamic visual forces involved in composing in a variety of media. Students explore the interrelationships of composition, process, perception, and intent. Through the understanding of concepts, processes, and visual language, students broaden their skills in idea development, research strategies, and technical application. This course advocates and utilizes the model of a learning community to effectively introduce students to ideas, issues, and practices in contemporary art and design. Foundations I further connects creative research and practice to socio-political and cultural ideology, allowing students opportunities for integration of ideas outside the disciplines of art. This will be accomplished through lectures, exercises, student team assignments, discussion, and exploration in and outside of the classroom. This course is required during the first semester for all freshman and undergraduate transfer students majoring in BA Studio and BFA Studio.
ARFD122	Title	Foundations II: 2D Design.
	Special Fee	Special fee.
	Number and type of credits	2 hours lecture, 4 hours studio.
	Course Description	Foundations II introduces students to the principles of 2-dimensional design in a variety of media. Major principles covered include composition, line, shape, volume, movement, value, rhythm, repetition, variation, scale, size,

The course content consists of a variety of projects focusing on critical, theory-based problem solving, together with lectures and demonstrations. Foundations III: Visual Organization - 3D Design. Special fee. 2 hours lecture, 4 hours studio. An introduction to the 3rd dimension of the world that we inhabit ("made" things, natural forms, and the occupation of space). Three-dimensional sensibility is progressively developed when basic components are manipulated by the effective use of direction, balance, axis, orientation, and relationship; in other words, organization (composition). Assignments in light, shape, shadow, depth, form, and movement are examined in a natural progression from 2D knowledge to 3D. Activities include lectures, conceptualization, observation, creation, discussion, and critical analysis for each project. The aesthetic consideration of materials and tools in this context add to the expressive output of three-dimensional study. The process may begin with concept, material or observation; it continues by way of lecture, demonstration, critical analysis and class discussion until each project is crafted to completion. chiaroscuro, and the figure in differing spatial constructs will be explored.

ARFD124	Course Description	Although weekly thematic ideas will be presented, most classes will include an interweaving and repetition of a wide range of concepts.
ARFD125	Title	Foundations V: Color, Light and Time.
	Special Fee	Special fee.
	Number and type of credits	2 hours lecture, 4 hours studio.
	Course Description	Color functions in many ways - as a visual phenomenon of light, as a perceptual occurrence, as a pigment with specific mixing properties, and as an element with powerful expressive and symbolic potential. It is important that artists and designers understand the principles and properties of color for use in their work in any medium. This course introduces students to the history, theory, and interdisciplinary use of color and color systems via lectures, demonstrations, and exercises.
ARFD261	Title	Sources: Exploration of the Creative Process.
	Number and type of credits	4 hours studio.
	Course Description	The fundamental awareness which underlies all artistic endeavors (art, music, drama, poetry literature). Releasing the creative blocks and inhibitions through exercises and assignments to stimulate the imagination and awaken the core creative self.
ARFD262	Title	Technique: Increased Perception.
	Number and type of credits	4 hours studio.
	Course Description	Exercises designed to increase perception through intense observation, the resulting insights developed into being a personal form of self expression. Emphasis on the process of art rather than the product.
ARFD360	Title	Color Studies II.
	Prerequisites	ARFD 260.
	Special Fee	Special fee.
	Number and type of credits	1 hour lecture, 3 hours studio.
	Course Description	Continuation of ARFD 260.
ARFI200	Title	Fibers and Fabrics, Beginning I.
	Special Fee	Special fee.
	Number and type of credits	6 hours studio.
