ISC To Hold Cotillion, Present New Members

The sororities of Montclair State College held their institutional formal Cotillion Ball on Saturday, February 14 at 8:15 p.m. at the Military Park Hotel in Newark.

SGA Purchases Poster Machine

The SGA has recently purchased a Litho-Scribe sign machine produced by the Mor-egan Sign Machine Company of Illinois.

The machine was purchased as a service to the students of the college, Any organization or groups desiring signs from 3"x5" to 14"x22" may have them printed in a wide variety of printing styles with a choice of 12 colors.

The only stipulations to the organization or group are that they must purchase the paper used for the signs and must submit the idea and paper to the SGA office one week prior to the date the posters are to be used.

The SGA is already being used to produce headlines for the Montclairian. By having this machine the newspaper will be able to present new members

Individual Effort Needed Now

On Monday January 14, 1963, President Kennedy delivered the State of the Union address in which he called for lower tax rates, increased defense spending and increased aid to college students.

Presently, colleges themselves are receiving aid through grants and bond issues. As President Kennedy realizes the need for aid, more and more schools are flocking to the Montclair Board of Education to build and graduate students. In no, so many far-sighted individuals realize the importance of education building, officials working in the field of higher learning.

Rising enrollments for future needs, the Student Government Association voted the appropriate $10,000 from the Development Fund to build a large dining room, a faculty dining room, alumni offices and meeting rooms. With present faculty and alumni offices even­

The menu was composed of an exotic fruit punch with a floating ice-cold fruit ring, sweet and sour pork, shrimp and pineapple casserole, Wiii-Wii salad of avocados, bananas, mandarin oranges, and grapefruit, date and nut bread, an coconut-sipped dessert and coffee. Highlights of this event was a song sung in authentic Hawaiian dialect by Dr. Partridge minus his ukulele.

Huntley

From page 1, col. 2, Huntley joined NBC News in 1955 and was teamed with David Brinkley a year later. Currentlv he appears each weekday night on the Huntley-Brinkley Report, which the Federal Communications Commission calls "Communist Huntley Reporting" and on various NBC "White Paper" and special TV news programs. He also delivers a five-minute "News on the Horizon" and "Emphatic" pieces over the NBC Radio Network.

The Month

"Our need was great. Rebuilding had been erected on our campus since before the depression of 1929. Yet in three years our enrollment had grown to 1000 Undergraduates and 400 graduate students. To teach and house them, we had no men's dormitory, no assembly hall, only an improvised cafeteria. In every way, classrooms, equipment, offices, our plant had become totally outdated."

When these conditions, which were typical in only some colleges throughout the country, were brought to public attention, some action was finally taken. In New Jersey a bond was issued which provided these colleges with more money. With this increased state allotment, and with careful planning and assistance, NBC has made great strides in improving its campus and facilities so that things are as we knew them only yesterday. The SGA feels that the $50,000 allotment to the College Development Fund enables the students to participate in keeping the college on the move so that, as Mr. McGee so aptly stated, it will become "the best possible college in New Jersey."

The Wayfarers To Appear At MIT: Folk Group Hails From MSC

by Frank Johnson

To those of us who have followed the growing popularity of folk-singing groups as the Kingfishers, Tino and the Wayfarers, it seems an impossible feat to be able to achieve their status of popularity and fame. Yet, I know there will be others to take their places and to follow in their footsteps. Folk-singing is not dead, it is merely changing with regard to styles and personnel appearance - turning into a more sophisticated, professional singing. The folk-singer is not dying; on the contrary he is flourishing.

An even bigger evidence of the increased popularity of folk-singing groups is the springing up of literally hundreds of college groups. Right here at Montclair the student groups are the battle groups for what may very well be the next hit folk-group. Although the four-freshman music majors have formed an orchestra around themselves a name: "The Wayfarers," they have grown past the boundary line of pastime and have stepped up to professional singing.

They have taken the Initiative to carry their pastime one step further and have stepped up to professional singing. They have taken the Initiative to carry their pastime one step further and have stepped up to professional singing. They have taken the Initiative to carry their pastime one step further and have stepped up to professional singing. They have taken the Initiative to carry their pastime one step further and have stepped up to professional singing.

The Wayfarers have been signed to sing at Massachusetts Institute of Technology and at Boston College. This is the step farther mentioned before. Most college groups knock around for a while, sing a couple of times on their campuses and then fade out. For some reason they lack determination or support. But "The Wayfarers" have that plenty of determination and are gradually earning support.

The word has come in, as fellow students of The Wayfarers, of how the group has appeared on campus twice. They were received enthusiastically at the successful Freshman Dance held last year and were very impressive at the Freshman Assembly held Tuesday, January 8, 8:00 P.M. They were so good that the assembly program that they were called back for an encore of three additional songs. It is evident that those present at the student body who heard The Wayfarers already, are very pleased with the group. Already, they have obtained the encouragement and interest of President Partridge and Dean Blanton. After their engagements at MIT and Boston College, the boys will do a show at Chestin Tech in New York. They have previously performed at Mount Carmel Church in Jersey City. At the present, they are in the process of working on details for an engagement at Montclair.

The boys are very able musicians, and they are writing their own music and arranging most of it. Their scope will encompass folk songs from throughout the world, spirituals, popular hits, and new and then a little "barbershop quartet music," with which the support they have found here at Montclair and elsewhere, it is hoped The Wayfarers will go far. Let us all get behind this group of determined folk-singers and send them tearing up the ladder of success.

From Where I Sat....

American film "Place in the Sun" brings high quality of acting to the screen, the film as a whole leaves something to be desired. Produced and directed by George Stevens. "Place in the Sun" is based on An American Tragedy, a novel by Theodore Dreiser. The original theme has been updated and interpreted, partly to its detriment. The movie concerns a confused, ambitious young man, George Eastman (Montgomery Clift) who works in his rich uncle's factory; the garrulous and wealthy girl with whom he is in love, Angela Vickers (Elizabeth Taylor), and the simple, overwhelming unsophisticated girl who threatens to tie him to a drab and poor life, Alice (Shelley Winters). Upon learning that Alice is pregnant, George keeps putting off the idea of marriage whereupon Alice calls him at Angelas' home and threatens to expose him. Indecisiveness, George plans to drown her, finds he cant, and is then found guilty of murder when she does drown. It is never really certain, even to George himself, whether or not he was killed.

Unfortunately, if one had not read Dreiser's novel, there would be a questionable amount of confusion. Comparing "Place in the Sun" with the original novel, one gets across the full meaning and impact of the family singing religious hymns and being led to the street. In truth, this family is supposed to symbolize "George" when he was a child, but the viewer is left in doubt as to exactly who it is familiar with the book.

There is something of a production of individual values underlying success, of relationships, and of guilt and punishment and the rather superficial "place in the Sun." For the acting is good and the atmosphere is well defined, but I still have the feeling that new I would like to find a compromise between the somewhat more American tragedy and the rather superficial "place in the Sun."
The engineers have completed their study and have advised the students that the building will stay, and that condition would be a complete revamp of the building. The present condition makes the building a very valuable asset to the college.

Now the state has definitely indicated that the building will stay. Furthermore, President Part­ridge and Dean Wain have turned the building over to the student body.

The first phase of the operation will concern the exterior of the building. This will consist of the installation of new windows in the entire upper half of the building, and the repair of the remaining side of the building. The second phase will take place once the first phase is completed.

Next there will be a rezoning of the campus and That work on the exterior of the building will be able to get underway this summer, and be completed by the beginning of the fall semester.

The significance of this project lies in its invaluable aid to the college expansion program. By the time this renovation program is completed, College Hall will be a new building for four classrooms and lecture halls as well as twelve offices. In the future, this building will be a major project.

A new finish and a complete replanning of the campus are planned. Also in the first phase will be the removal of the older class-rooms, and the conversion of the upper class-room on the second floor.

Next there will be a renaming of the building, and the name will be changed to "The Student Union."

PLATTSBURGH

Saturday night Plattsburgh capped the Indians in overtime, 86-79, lowering the Indians' slate to 5-8.

Both teams played it close in the opening minutes until the Cardinals gained form and notched up 1 point. Szem sunk twelve baselines and Plattsburgh countered by tying the game, 73-73, at the end of regulation time.

In the overtime period, the Indians capitalized on the momentum gained in coming from behind to the win by matching 15 points or eight of them coming from Paul Szem who scored only seven on the overtime-action phase. Paul Szem had 24 hard-earned points and he was succeeded by Todd Jenkins with 20, his highest total this season. NCE

MOORE FIGHTS TO DRAW

Indian Bob Moore fought to a tie in the draw in the 147 pound class against Albany State's Arlene Brussels. The last points of his match were scored in the first period when Brussels got a takedown for 2 points and Bob managed a reverse for 1, the final score ending at 3-2. Each team received 2 points. The match score now being 7-8, Montclair.

MOORE'S BARTLEY SCORES IMPORTANT PIN

With two minutes left in the 147 pound class match, Montclair's Mike Bartley being held by Albany's John Sernas Jr., Bartley pulled a surprise reverse for 3 points in the final period, thus putting the Indians ahead 10-7. Joe Semian lost his first match of the season when he was stopped out 7-0 in the 123 pound class. This was an important win for Albany for it gave them a 15-13 lead going into the final match, heavy weight.

MONTCLAIR'S BARTLEY

Montclair's grapplers pulled their last win of the season against Albany State 18-15, to remain unbeaten with one day left for the season Saturday. A better than average crowd saw the red and white perform in the best match of the year against a very strong Al­ bany squad. "@#L Larry Sch­ lacchetto wrapped up the scoreless match by pinning his man when Montclair was behind 13-15. "Shack's" pin, in 3:32, gave Montclair the victory.

The Red got off to a bad start when Bert Wasserman was pinned by Gene Monnco in 6:10. This was Bartley's loss of one, for the season thus far in the 182 pound class. Pat McNitty or the south shore column when he defeated Lee Company 6-5. Pat in first round behind, for he was losing 7-4 going into the final period. Through a reversal and a pre­ dictment he received 4 points and got 3 points for his team.

Freshman James White of Montclair put his team ahead by scoring 0 points in a decision in the 123 pound weight class. The score of his match was 6-1.

SHACK'S GETS THIRD WIN

Tension was at a peak with both the fans and Montclair's bench as Larry Schlacchetto stepped on to mat to face Al­ bany's Dick Robello. Larry scored a takedown and a pre­ dictment in the first period and in 1:33 of the second period he put a man for all important win giving MSC their sec­ ond win of the season.

WRESTLING RULES FOR SPEC

For the interest of those of you who have never viewed the sport of wrestling or have seen it, but are not clear on its founda­ tions, we would like to give you a brief analysis of the sport. The match begins after the two opponents cross the center cir­ cle, shake hands, and the referee whistles. From the first the match is the longest weight class, 182 pounds. The standard position, restes in weight, 130, 137, 145, 153, 177, and any one of the men or wrestling must be done within the far white border line, a match is stopped if a man's sup­ porting part of his body is out­ side this line.

Three points are given for the following manner: five points for downing the mat for 2 or more seconds; three points for winning a match by decision; most points; explained in the rules of the sport. Two points for a draw.

A. TAKE-DOWN-A man is awarded 3 points if he begins from where he has his opponent under control, from a standing position, and causes a point to be scored in the first take­ down. Points are counted down and it is worth 1 point.

B. REVERSAL-two points are awarded if the man on defense secures control of the man from whom he is taking the fall.

C. ESCAPE-If the man on de­ fense releases the offensive man in any manner (perhaps gains standing position), he receives 1 point.

E. TIME ADVANCE-During a match a clock is running whenever a wrestler is on the floor, or against the ropes, or has his back on the mat. Any man who has a half minute over his opponent he receives a point for time ad­ vantage.

D. NEAR FALL-3 points may be gained if the decisive man has control of his man in a pin­ ning position or has control within 3 inches from mat. Two points are given if just a pinning com­ bination and a fall must be im­ minent.

F. ILLEGAL HOLD-If a man uses any wrench, or holds on the chest or shoulder or uses a leg hold, a free point is awarded to the other man. First and final of the match is started in the next two periods are in the fields of the man on the offense and the other on defense. A period of five minutes, or if there is a time limit, there are 3 periods. A pin in any one period ends the match.
