MSC Registration June 25-26
New Library Facilities Study

Montclair State College offers six-week summer session, June through August. Registrations will be held on a priority basis, June 25 and 26, from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. The new air-conditioned Betty A. Springs Library is expected to provide students with ideal conditions for study and meditation.

For students who wish to widen their horizons through travel, Montclair will offer two tours: a tour of the South Pacific, July 5 to August 23, led by Edgar Bye of the social studies department; and recent trends in European education, July 9 to August 19, under the leadership of Norman Lane. These trips may be taken for college credit.

The regular summer session will offer some 30 undergraduate and graduate courses in business education, journalism, the fine arts, foreign languages, geography, industrial arts, mathematics, music, health and physical education, science, social studies, and speech. Masters degree programs will be offered in business education, administration and supervision, personnel and guidance, English, industrial arts, mathematics, science, social studies and speech.

Among the special features of the summer session will be a National Science Foundation Institute in mathematics, a pre-summer session course in driver education, and an alcohol education workshop; three-week sessions in typing, child care, driver education, science, and speech; and a post-summer session fashion-design field study of industry—offered to the industrial arts department. As special events, Montclair's Life Hall will host the annual workshop for the New Jersey Congress of Parents and Teachers, July 8 to 12, and a book exhibit on July 11 and 12 from 8:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Highlighting the summer program will be a special "Youth Activites" program, including a reading improvement laboratory, available to New Jersey students in grades 7-12; an intensive remedial speech program for children 4-16 years of age, a workshop for apprentices in dramatic production designed for pre-college and high school students, and a college day camp for children 6-12 years of age. Information on these programs is available by calling PEG 9-6500, ext. 51.

Pennyworth Professors
The Nu Psi chapter of Alpha Phi Omega, National Service Fraternity, is currently conducting its Second Annual Most Popular Professor Contest. The nominees for Most Popular Professor of 1963 are: Mr. Henry Ferris, Assistant Professor of Health and Physical Education; Dr. Gilbert Bourquelot, Associate Professor of English; Mr. Stephen Kovakld, Associate Professor of Art; Dr. Charles Leavitt, Associate Professor of English; Dr. Kenneth Treshman, Assistant Professor of Physical Education; and Dr. Jerry Stretcher, Assistant Professor of Industrial Arts. This year's Most Popular Professor will be selected byballoting which began April 30 outside the cafeteria in Life Hall. Votes cost 1¢ each. Anyone may vote, and may vote as many times as he wishes. The proceeds from this contest will be used to finance the service and charitable projects of the Nu Psi chapter, Alpha Phi Omega.

Consumers Test Foreign Autos
The "foreign car craze" has run wild across the United States during the last few years. Economically minded as well as sport enthusiasts have invested millions of dollars in foreign economy cars, such as Volkswagen, MG, and Austin. In fact, the names have become almost as familiar as Ford, Chrysler, or Plymouth.

 рамbler, Falcon, Valiant and American cars that have been specifically built to compete with the European and Far Eastern exports.

Why the craze? Why buy a foreign auto? Mr. Kovakld's Consumer Science classes, which test everything from aspirins to automobiles, will attempt to evaluate two sports cars manufactured by Germany and Japan. Commencing April 23rd, all of Mr. Kovakld's classes will participate in testing the Japanese Datson, and the British MG car competitors, the Karmann Ghia.

Wayfarers Laud Basie; Cameo Contract Foreseen

On May 10, 1963, MSC's campus will begin this year's observation of one of its biggest traditions - Carnival. Carnival was first held in 1948 to raise funds for the building of Life Hall and Memorial Auditorium.

Using locations other than those areas behind the A4 Building, it succeeded in adding a large sum of money to the Life Hall Fund. Dr. Partridge was in charge of that first Carnival, and as he stated, "I've seen it grow tre- mendously in the past years!" And it grows. This year, approximately 3000 four-organiza- tions will take part by presenting a total of 40 booths.

Each year the net profit is placed in the Life Hall Fund and is then used in the areas that were previously decided upon by the Carnival Committee. In past years, it has been used in the Life Hall Fund and in building the patio outside the Life Hall.

Carnival is a method to bring money into circulation that can be used without the cumbersome state red-tape, etc. At the present time, no real decision has been made in how the profits will be allotted, but this will be announced soon.

Juniors Discover The "Good Life"

On Tuesday, May 21, and Wednesday, May 22, the Fine Arts Department will form the Wayfarers. Since then, they have given two concerts at Carmel High School in Carmel, California. Diane Jones, Judy McGann, and Linda Minard, who have been spending their junior year at this Institution, 200 miles away and representatives for the "good life" they have seen in California, will provide this table of their experiences.

This opportunity is open only to members of the Carmel High School class who will be juniors in September, for which all students are free of charge as to how this might be arranged.

People who would like to exchange a year for a year with their own viewpoint but who do not wish to make the trip all the way to California may be interested in a possible change of program to Southern Illinois University. Southern Illinois has expressed an interest in receiving Most- cler's students for a month. This program is too open to upcoming junior.

Further information on both of these opportunities is available in the Fine Arts Office.

It seems the Journalism class was so busy working on the exam issues that they forgot to give themselves credit for the endeavor. The edition was researched and compiled by J.B. Gouger's class and the present MONTCLAIR staff absolves itself from any responsibility.

What happened? Suddenly from out of nowhere, interest in class elections mushroomed like an H-bomb blast as the polls were as active as a bee hive. Of the 150 eligible voters excluding seniors, about 50 voted. Fifty percent.

This figure indicates that when students run for office, students will vote.

Why weren't any women in the most Popular Professor Contest?

The Broadway theatre has ushered several new families to its stages this season. Some welcomed, others not. Among the arrivals have been “Goodman and Son,” “My Mother, My Father, and Me,” and “The First Family,” starring Anne Bancroft, enters the picture typifying a Mother Courage — a strong, self-possessed mother, who owns a travelling canteen in order to keep their camps to battlefields, thus ironizing by her nobility, she repudiates the antithesis of the ruthless. The set, played in by Miss Bancroft, was too much disconcerting gestures, and even increasing the suspense of the voice are the true interpreters of the poetic expression of the author. It is not all “art for art’s sake.”

On Saturday afternoon, May 11, at 4:00 p.m., Veronica M. Ruth, senior music major will present her graduation voice recital in the Music Recital Hall. She will be assisted by Christopher Danges on piano. Miss Ruth will sing works by Pergolesi, Scarlatti, Schubert, Blies, Chausson, Car- peter, and Sargent. George Scott, Cleveland music major, will also assist Miss Ruth on duets by Bomberg and Herbert.

The action and setting are characterized by their simplicity. The single set a triumph of the scenic designer. Any other sets are decorative and unessential as to maintain a sense of the impersonal. One also finds that the characters themselves seem impersonal in order to keep their outward significance for the spectator’s position whereby one cannot identify with them, merely view them objectively.

Mother Courage, played by Anne Bancroft, enters the picture as an assertive business woman who owns a travelling canteen. Miss Bancroft played with the troops from camps to battlefields, thus ironizing against the unnecessarily wagons and unessential as to maintain a sense of the impersonal.

Thus are all sins atoned and the finger of fate at his own breast.

This production of “Mother Courage” was less cohesive, less stylistic with the exception of Creon’s appearance, which was more successful.

The set was simple enough but marred by a huge white “cloud” hanging ominously above. The costumes were traditional Greek, well done, a trifle too “showy.” Lighting and effects were tastefully handled.

In the Greek, arena the external values to be considered. I imagine the whole production in a frame of mind by unwittingly slaying his father and marrying his mother.Quick to action, he heard of the death of the king, whose crown he was to wear, whom he has married, and swore a mortal revenge. The moment arrived when his quest points the accusing finger of fate at his own breast. His wife commits suicide, and it is seen with a wrench ripped from her death gone that Oedipus closes his eyes, fulfilling either his moral guilt or the will of the gods.

The final irony is that with physical sight the truth could not be seen, and when the truth is seen, his physical sight cannot bear it.

Thus are all sins atoned and the carnality realized.
