Montclair State College's homecoming weekend will begin tonight and continue through Sunday, November 20. The theme of homecoming this year is "Cartoon Caravan." The events scheduled for the three days include the building of floats, a pep rally parade, football game and concert on Saturday; and an open house for all dormitories and concert on Sunday. The homecoming co-chairs are Diana Brackett, class of '67, and Lenny Elovitz, class of '66.

Tonight, float construction will begin at 5:00 in the freshman parking lot. Students are requested to remove their cars from that lot before 2:00. Float construction will continue until 12:00 Friday night. During construction time, a pep rally will be held in the amphitheater under the direction of Nancy Gross, captain of cheerleaders. Following the pep rally, a bonfire sponsored by the freshman class will be held behind Maloney Hall. A sock hop will follow in the gymnasium.

On Saturday morning at 8:00, float construction will be resumed. The float parade will begin at 11:30, on Normal Avenue. It will then follow Valley Road to Bellevue Avenue and Bellevue Avenue to Park Street where it will travel back to the college.

When the floats return, preliminary judging will take place. Ten of the floats will be chosen as finalists. The parade marshals and judge will be Grace M. Freeman, class of 1948 and President of the Alumni Association. Other judges will be Dr. T. Richardson and Mayor Robert Ferris of Montclair.

Discouraging a variety of backgrounds of the Lovin' Spoonful is now one of the nation's leading musical groups. Their newest hit, "Rain on the Roof," is currently one of the top ten.

Diversity can summnmarize the backgrounds of the Lovin' Spoonful:

John Sebastian, twenty-one, plays guitar, harmonica, and a 4 1/2 autoharp. Born and raised in Greenwich Village, John later lived in New York for five years. After a year as a guitar-maker's apprentice, he worked with some of the young city-country blues musicians and jug bands. Driven to despair by the power of his music, John retired to Marblehead, Massachusetts, where he intended to paint; so he returned to New York and combined forces with Danpclon's brother. He also maintains that he has never once owned the Times-Tower building in Manhattan and one of Delaware. Steve started playing guitar rhythm at seventeen after a n accident which had him in traction for two and a half years. For several years played rock and roll. After his return from Europe, Stevie got a job in New York and combined forces with John and Zal.

"They really didn't have much choice at the time I was the only person they knew who lived in the Village who didn't play. Joe Butte, twenty-one, was born in Glen Cove Long Island. He started playing drums in a group accompanying an accordion player when he was thirteen. After high school Joe went to college, and played and sang in a twist band in several of the chic clubs in Long Island. He met Stevie Boone while playing on the Island and they became friends. He moved to New York where he was working with a band in the Village; and he and Stevie met John and Zal.

The emergence of The Lovin' Spoonful immediately they dived into the famous Greenwich Village folk music gestalt. However, their engagement with the Night Owl Cafe met with little success. They retreated to the basement of the Albert Hotel. Each day they would take the subway home to New York. Their music is folk-styled, ballad-like, but already they are an obscure or nonappreciated instrument and music.

The group consists of: "Fon­der T Bird" on washboard, 2nd kazoo, mouth harp, and vocals; "He used to play the washboard on pictures, he was the one leaning against the wall playing the harmonica." "Guino Pyle on lead vocals, 1st kazoo, tambourine, and harmonica; "He used to be Nixon's campaign manager; he used to be an executive." "Sandy Loomis" on washboard, "the ecchilly dancer"; "Ted" on banjo, "He used to play 3rd pic­colo for the M. Player in the Arkansas Philharmonic." "T. M. Bear" on guitar, "...used to be a guitar player; he would look like a kid punched him in the mouth he didn't smile!" "Mapleleaf Vibhormon" on jug, jaws harp.

Sinfonia To Stage "Musical Two Composers To Attend"

The Lambda Mu Chapter of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, the national professional music fraternity, announces that it will present Musical America V on Wednesday evening, November 30 in Memorial Auditorium. As an added feature, the chapter has revealed that two of the composers whose works to be performed will be in attendance.

The program, which shall commence at 8:30 p.m., will open with Clifford Williams' concert inarch. Mr. Williams utilized material from his recent performance in Hall Sinfonia in this composition.

The feature of the first half will be two compositions by the noted American composer, Robert L. Sanders. The first of the Sanders' compositions will be the Symphony for Band in B flat, which will be performed on November 30.

Sanders' Symphony for Band in B flat will be the second of the Goldman Band under the direction of the composer, this composition has remained relatively unknown, in spite of its musical value. Mr. Sanders makes full use of the tone color and the individual areas of the wind ensemble. The performance is being given from the composer's manuscript.

Robert L. Sanders, currently at Brooklyn College, has divided his talents between teaching composition, and performance. Among the awards that have been presented to him are a Prix de Rome, a New York Philharmonic Composition Award, and a Guggenheim Fellowship. Mr. Sanders is planning to attend the performance.

After the Intermission, when refreshments will be served by the Sinfonians, Sinfonia Men's Chorus will perform four choral works. Among these will be Miss Koumarakis was the recipient of 1936, this quartet is a good representation of Freedom by Randall Thompson. The God Who Gave Us Life and I Shall Not Die Without a Hope. The work by Randall Thompson is based upon the writings of Thomas Jefferson.

Robert Harry Williams, composer of Happy in the Man, is the former chairman of music at Teachers College, Columbia University and is presently National President of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia. He is also planning to attend Musical America V.

Two works will complete the second half of the program. The first is the String Quartet Op. 11 of Samuel Barber. Dating from 1938, this quartet is a good representation of Barber's style. The adagio section of the second movement is particularly known as the Adagio for Strings, one of the most powerful books of music of all time.

The Sinfonia quartet will perform in its entirety and in original form. The remaining work is Igor Stravinsky's Ragtime for Eleven Instruments. Preceding Milhaud's La Creation du Monde and his own L'histoire du Soldat, Stravinsky pioneers the introduction of Jazz elements into serious music and creates an important influence on the music of the following fifty years.

Tickets for the performance are available from any Sinfonia or Music Center office, and will be available at the Fishbowl and Ticket Office two weeks prior to the performance. All seats are reserved and there is a donation of one dollar for each ticket.

Miss Koumarakis is a graduate of the Juilliard School of Music (B.M. and M.S. degrees) and also studied at the Yale School of Music, The Berkshire Music Center at Tanglewood, the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and the Mozarteum in Salzburg, Austria. She has appeared as recitalist and soloist in opera, oratorio, and summer stock productions throughout the eastern United States. Miss Koumarakis was the recipient of the New York Singing Teachers Foundation "Young Artist Award" and has appeared with leading brass ensembles in this country and abroad.

The concert will start at 8:30 p.m. in Panzer Gym. Student tickets are 50 cents, and adult tickets are $1.00. Only a limited number of tickets will be available at the door.

Students measured for this year's Freshman Class Blazer may pick up their blazers on Friday, December 1, in the Davilla Mills Room between the hours of 12:00 noon and 4:00 p.m.

There will be a reorganizational meeting on Wednesday, November 30 at 1:00 p.m. in the Montclarion office.

There are reasons for the delay in contacting the interested student who will be open in December. The adviser, Mr. Greco will discuss briefly the various types of paid varied journalism. dents mail letters to the MONTCLARION kindly limit them to 200 words and submit them typed, double-spaced.

To the Editor:

There has been a lot of talk lately about the Marching Band and its effect on school and athletic programs. It seems that the condition of the Band is 1,000 times better than the state and status of the Montclair Athletic Department. In the past, the faculty and student groups were responsible for the spirit displayed by the student team play at its best, you won't be able to help but remain that way for the rest of the game. After playing a tough first half, the team came out fired up to play spirit-called for the rest of the game. Unfortunately, who or what did they have to play for? There was no one to let them know, win or lose, that somebody was behind them to the end. When Delaware scored, the spirit on the bench stumped out any help but retain that way for the rest of the game. So this week when all you "fans" begin to criticize the Montclair students who submit letters to the MONTCLARION kindly remember that we are not sending

 INTERSOCIETY COUNCIL

Conducts Pledge Night

On Tuesday evening, November 29, the Inter Soverity Council will hold its traditional Welcome Pledge Night.

The purpose of this event is to welcome the girls who will comprise the fall pledge class. Many members here will also use this time as a first place meeting.

This event is part of a new system of distributing bids to replace the former system of putting bids on the Life Hall Bulletin Board. This year, the first time, invitations to pledge will be sent through the mail over the Thanksgiving weekend. Pledging may start at any date after the Welcome Pledge Night.

The place of each sorority's reception will be included in the bids.

Alpha Chi Beta

The women of Alpha Chi Beta are currently planning for their Hoagie Sale to be held on November 22. It is hoped that it will be a success. Pledge mistresses for the fall semester will be Sandy Ring and Lorraine Kadar. This year's chairman for Homecoming is Pat Brown.

The sisters are practicing for this year's Greek Sing. Jane Gill is this year's able leader.

Because of M.A.C.'s make up five faculty members who serve year after year and four students who may serve up to three and a half years, and because of the type of activities MAC controls, a different set of other class "A" organizations. It can not be handled the same way. When the S.G.A. Montclair Athletics are at a critical stage. They will begin either to vastly improve or quickly degenerate. It depends on what you, the student body, and your SGA do now.

DEAR REB:
I'm a regular Renoir on the canvas, but I just don't seem to make the scene. There was one campus canvas not used to admire my paintings, but now she's too busy admiring some guy's new Dodge Dart. She says riding in this guy's Dart is like art; every time they go out, they draw a crowd. What can I do? I just have to see this girl again. It's not that I'm in love with her. I haven't finished her portrait yet. Dart. She says riding in this guy's Dart is like art; every time they go out, they draw a crowd. What can I do? I just have to see this girl again. DEAR COLOR ME BLUE:
Make your next sitting at your Dodge Dealer's. After you find out how easy it is to own a Dart, you'll be out painting the town. And don't worry about finishing the portrait. With Dart, you'll find you have many styles to choose from. Get the picture?

Players Introduce New Meeting Series

As a means of better preparing its members to take part in future productions, Players is introducing a new series of programs at its monthly meetings. Each program will consist of either lecture, discussion, or demonstration and will explore facets of direction, interpretation, acting, and technical phases involved in producing a play. These informal instructional demonstrations will supplement the meetings which formerly consisted of business affairs and entertainment. Usually, the program has been planned in order to fulfill several purposes: to help present members improve upon talents or abilities which they have already shown; to encourage members to work on a variety of backstage activities; and to interest students in becoming active members of Players by exposing them to the facets of play production as individual fields of endeavor. So that students need not feel inadequate to participate in Players productions, instruction will be offered in such fields as lighting, makeup-up, costuming, work with properties and set construction.

These lectures and demonstrations will be presented by faculty and students as well as by guest speakers involved in professional theater. The first of these programs, presented at Players November meeting, was a discussion entitled "Murder in Retrospect," which examined the manner in which stylization versus periodization through direction, set design, and costume. All students are invited to attend future Players meetings, which will be held on the second Wednesday of each month. Announcements of time, place, and program will be posted via strategic bulletin boards on campus.

College of New York University. He worked with the Ecuadorian Ministry of Education for twenty months, during which time he taught English and physical education at all levels of school in Ecuador. He also served as a director of a camp for city slum children and set up a "Little League" style baseball program. During his assignment, Mr. Aquino, who speaks Spanish, traveled to Colombia, Peru, Chile, Brazil, Ecuador, Uruguay, Argentina and Mexico.

The Peace Corps representatives were available. They instituted a program consisting of two films: an Indian "What Did You See?" and Kenyan "This Land." The slides, shown in the Alumni Lounge, were sponsored by the Student Peace Union and SEAM. Language aptitude tests to measure one's ability to learn a foreign language were administered in the Davilla-Mills Room. The representatives also spoke of their experiences to many classes.

Thanks to the hard work of Miss Anita Uhl, Assistant Director of Student Placement and Teaching, the Peace Corps program was a huge success. All the representatives expressed the opinion that the interest rate at MSC was "extremely high" and were pleased with the students' enthusiasm and response.

Soccer Meet Ends In Tie

With 51 seconds remaining in the fourth period, Clark Issen of Montclair State scored the tying goal. He passed two defending Pratt Institute players in a hotly contested game at Brookdale Park.

Pratt Institute’s only goal came with 11:8 in the first period by Roman Mychajluv, who took a long pass from his right corner post, and kicked the ball into the net.

After the goal by Pratt, 1, 0 a game settled down to a battle-attrictly between the Goalies. Both teams attempted several penalty goal shots, but failed to net them. In the first half, Montclair State had three such shots. Dazzling net tending was performed by our Goalie, Pete Baubles, who barehanded a goal shot by Pratt hit our right shoulder separations occurring in many goal shots in bidding for the Eastern division nod to the Jets. Then the Jets in their first five games, won four and tied one. Most of the “experts” began writing as if the Jets had everything sewn up. So much so was this the case that it seemed the Jets started believing it themselves. The result has been disastrous for he Jets. They have lost their last four games and are now in third place. This tune is changing again and most likely the Bills will be re-favored. Predictions do not always have as great an effect as mentioned above, but with today’s widespread publicity, it can hurt a player’s performance on the field and start his thinking off the field; that’s dangerous.

Before every major sports season, the so-called experts come out with their predictions for the coming season. They go to great lengths to give sports readers the “ifs”, “whys” and “hwows” of each particular team and exactly why one team will finish in first place, and how much. Usually, however, most of the “experts” are wrong. As a matter of fact, most of the predictions parallel the previous year’s standings. In 1964 the world champion Chicago Bears were unquestionably supposed to repeat as world champs. They didn’t, however; they were beaten out by the Colts. Then, in the championship game, the Colts were supposed to be definitely much too strong for the Cleveland Browns. The Browns, to everyone’s surprise, completely outplayed the Colts and beat them 37-0.

Therefore, there are many instances of the “experts” making mistakes, but one still sticks out in this writer’s mind. In 1964, during the thick of the national league pennant race in late August, the St. Louis Cardinals seemed completely out of the race, and so in the national sports magazine appeared an article discussing any chances the Cards might have had. It was all topped off by the last sentence: “But no mesmerizing, not even a miracle, will be the outcome this time.”

The third quarter was played even terms, but in the fourth quarter M.S.C. erupted to Hal Bell for two points. The third quarter was played even terms, but in the fourth quarter M.S.C. erupted. The last two games were the out-standing defensive play of Carmen Cosciano, who was converted from linebacker to middle guard and has been dogging the opponent’s backs for losses. After losing to Trenton State 7-0, the Indians walloped the “Profs” of Glassboro State 31-6. Glassboro State closed out the season with a record of 1-7. Glassboro was unable to make use of their quarterback, John Adams’, pass, which hit on 18 out of 30 for a total of 230 yards. Four times he matched the Profs down the field into scoring position and four times Montclair State’s defense held. For the afternoon, GSC gained only 8 yards rushing. Glassboro drew blood in the game when Adams hit Wayne Harris, who tossed to Jim Doyle for an 82 yard touchdown. Also in the first period, Dave Rogers kicked a 36 yard field goal for M.S.C.

Montclair State’s football team will be hoping to even its record at 4 wins and 4 losses when the Bridgewater University Knights pay a visit to Sprague Field tomorrow for the annual Homecoming game. Kickoff time is 1:30 p.m. and the game is rated as a close one. M.S.C. is a doubtful starter for the game because of an injury suffered in the Glassboro State contest. Coach Hank Per- ria has a more than able replacement in freshman Bill Ull- kowski. One bright spot in the last two games was the out-standing defensive play of Carmen Cosciano, who was converted from linebacker to middle guard and has been dogging the opponent’s backs for losses.

In last week’s action, the soccer team suffered a setback and a tie ball game against Trenton State 2-2 and 5-5. The Indians were unable to score while the Lions put across five goals. It seemed that Trenton wanted the ball a little more than us. They outthrifted us often and time after time but we kept the ball in our half. The team looked better in its three-three tie with Paterson State. Arvi Saar scored the first goal with an assist from Warren Matson. Saar leads the team in scoring. Clark Issen scored the second goal. The final goal was scored by Pete Baubles and may possibly be an inter-collegiate record. Baubles, playing goalie, pushed the ball some 90 yards and the ball ended up in Paterson’s goal.
