‘Disneyland’ Theme for Carnival this Weekend

As you leave school this afternoon, you will probably notice the carnival taking place in front of College Hall between College High and Annex two. This will be the site of the 20th annual Carnival to be held to-night and tomorrow.

The theme of this year’s event is “Walt Disney: A Man and His Myth.” Activities will be presented in honor of the many contributions Walt Disney made to show business and the world in general. Since Disney’s influence has spread to many areas, officers, Tom Stepnowski and Lois Vance, have tried to narrow the activities down to his older movies and cartoons, ideas for future technology and adventures in history and nature.

Carnival’s Purpose

Besides serving as entertainment for the student body, Carnival’s purpose is to raise money for our school. With this in mind, the fraternities, sororities and other organizations hold booths to compete for the top prize of Best Moneymaker, with a beautiful trophy for recognition of their efforts. In addition there are trophies for authenticity of both, with a first, second and third place to Best All Around booth which is divided into the categories of food, souvenir, entertainment and game.

GRACE FREEMAN, BENEFACCTOR AND FRIEND, PASSES AWAY

The state of New Jersey owes much to Miss Grace M. Freeman, teacher, assemblywoman and civil rights advocate. Miss Freeman, who died on April 19, 1967, had an outstanding role in public service.

Grace Freeman’s career Montclair State College in 1918 and after receiving her B.S. and M.A. degrees from Columbia University, she taught history and civic education in the secondary schools of Montclair and Caldwell and held classes in adult education at Upsala and Bloomfield Adult School.

She was elected to the State Assembly in 1946 and served until 1951. During this period, Miss Freeman vigorously supported a $15,000,000 College Bond Issue and also a Civil Rights bill which provided for arbitration and mediation in place of public prosecution in cases of discrimination.

Grace Freeman did much to advance the cause of Civil Rights. She was co-chairman of the Women’s Committee, American Brotherhood, of the New Jersey Region of the National Conference of Christians and Jews

All were asked to submit a budget based on $46, one based on $50, and a ration al for the difference. The rep resentatives agreed to notify members of their organizations of the merits of the increase. The value of the increase was clearly seen.

The Hypocrite Tartuffe.

Tartuffe Provides Delightful Glimpse Into the Follies of Man

by Leslie Anne Hair

As the house-lights dimmed, four "seventeenth century spectators" slowly walked down the aisles of Memorial Auditorium and took their box seats. Meanwhile, a young actor "ill" the "candles" at the foot of the stage. Within a few moments, the audience at Players' recent production of Moliere's Tartuffe became a part of the elegant and rowdy world of seventeenth century France.

Moliere's play is the story of the "pious" Tartuffe, a religious hypocrite who gains control of the household of the deluded and gullible Orgon. Tartuffe not only has Orgon make him heir to all his lands, but also attempts to seduce his own wife, Elmire.

Moliere is not protesting against the nature of society. Instead, he is commenting on human nature. "I may be a hypocrite, but I'm human too. I'm no angel," says Tartuffe. "No one is," Moliere seems to say.

or the state of society, indeed, he is commenting on human nature. "I may be a hypocrite, but I'm human too. I'm no angel," says Tartuffe. "No one is," Moliere seems to say.

The pen and ink drawings in the exhibit are very fine, detailed calligraphy. The oil paintings, however, have a very thick texture in comparison. One oil, "Burning Night," seems to be composed of thick layers of monochrome yellows to reds applied to the matte. This oil piece is an important step in the artist's development, because the works dated immediately after show the use of a very original technique.

In these later works, the artist uses enameled cardboard glued to a colored matte surface. These constructions have wonderful visual and tactile qualities because of their depth. "Sunset City" for example, captures beautifully the setting sun glinting of New York's man-made skyscrapers. The use of this technique reaches its highest sophistication in the portrait "Florine." This work is composed of strips of cardboard built into contrasting facial contours, painted oils. This is a very interesting individual artist, and his works are definitely worth seeing.

Art Show Opens In Life Hall by David Hughes

A one-man show of 20 recent drawings, portraits and constructions by Florian Jenkins is currently on display in Life Hall. The show, sponsored by the Mid-Block Art Service, runs from April 20 to May 7.

Mr. Jenkins graduated from Arts High School, Newark, in 1964, and from Newark School of Fine and Industrial Arts in 1966. He also attended the Arts Students League and Newark College of Engineering, where he studied plastic technology. He has had exhibitions at the World's Fair Paris Pavilion, the Cultural Exchange Center in New Delhi, India, and elsewhere. Presently, he is represented in many fine collections of contemporary art both here and abroad.

Commencement Announcements

John Van Zonden, president of the senior class, has announced that the seniors will have two formal graduation announcements free. Extra announcements can be purchased at the Fishbowl. The cost is $1.25 each, 3 for $3.00.

Veterans Organize New Fraternity

A new fraternity, Alpha Sigma Mu, has been formed on campus for veterans of the armed forces. The purpose of this fraternity is to unite and better acquaint veterans with college life at Montclair State and to discuss the problems that they have not been faced with since they were last in school. They are usually older than the average Alpha Sigma Mu held its first formal meeting on Friday, April 30 and elected temporary officers. Elected were: Frank Reuther, president; Will Johnson, vice-president; Cliff Whigam, recording secretary; Steve Heitz, corresponding secretary; and Charles Clume, treasurer.

Although only 15 people attended the meeting, many problems were discussed—among them, financial problems and the problem of publicizing meetings. In the future, the meetings will be announced in the Commuter Chronicle, Montclarion, and through the Voice of Montclair State.

The veterans will erect a booth at Carnival this year where prospective recruits can learn what the different branch offices of the fraternity have to offer. Slides will be shown from time to time of Paris, the Ho Chi Minh Trail and other parts of the world. The fraternity of Alpha Sigma Mu intend to dedicate themselves to helping future veterans who will come to Montclair State College.

More than 400 participating students proved that there was "Much Ado About Something" at Montclair State College, when the 27-Hour Marathon was held from 8 p.m. Fri., April 14, to 11 p.m. Sat., April 15.

The purpose of the Marathon was to stress the need for a new student union building on campus. Life Hall, the present student union building, was originally built to accommodate 1800 students. With an expanding enrollment of over 4000, the students now need larger facilities. The proposed building will provide lounge areas for students and faculty members, a snack bar, television rooms, recreation rooms, organization work and file center, a V.I.P. room, snack bar and an information area.

The Marathon project was planned since Fall. To stress the need for this building, many students contributed their time and devoted hard work to the Marathon committee. Headed by Joseph Kline, the committee had worked since last summer to plan the 27-hour program.

They began publicizing the event by sponsoring a contest to name the Marathon. Bonnie Marranoa and William Ort were awarded an alarm clock for their winning title, "Much Ado About Something." The Marathon itself consisted of entertainment in the forms of speeches, various musicals, comedians, children's shows, comedians and a panel discussion and a sing along. The entire entertainment program was coordinated by Bonnie Marranoa and Andy Paterna.

Basketball Game Breaks

During the scheduled performances, the fraternity brothers of Gamma Delta Chi played a continuous basketball game to break the intercollegiate basketball record of 398 miles using between 15 and 20 gallons of gasoline. The car traveled a total of 306 miles using between 15 and 20 gallons of gasoline.

A 27 hour "Stay-Awake Com- test" was featured with 23 participating students. The winner was Linda Bippel, representing Delta Omicron Pi.

The entire Marathon was broadcast over WFMU, the radio station of Upsala College. This was arranged through Edward Helvey, chairman of the Voice of Montclair State. Newspaper coverage of the event was planned by Richard Langheim, John Finegan and Frank Cripps. Stories of the Marathon appeared in the Newark Sunday News, Newark Star Ledger, Montclair Times, as well as the Montclairian.

Money Pledged

Throughout the Marathon, announcements of money pledged for the building were made. A total of $800 has already been received out of $2000 that had been pledged. The Marathon ticket sales amounted to $333. One personal donation of $4 by an anonymous Paterson State girl was given with the statement, "The students of PSC are envied because the facilities at Paterson are worse than at Montclair. Here's $4 anyway."

Congratulations Extended

Many congratulatory letters were received by the Marathon committee commending the work they had done. President T. Richardson, in his opening statement at the Marathon said, "I am happy to give the Marathon my endorsement and support and I congratulate the president of the Student Government and all those who worked in the committee."

From Charles W. Hamilton, president of the MSC College Development Fund, a letter was received stating, "On behalf of the Board of the College Development Fund, I wish to thank you and all the members of your committee for the splendid success of the 27-hour Marathon last weekend . . . All of us on the CDF Board have had many opportunities to realize the merits of Montclair's students. Again, in this instance, you have shown yourselves to be a superior group of young citizens."

Mrs. Lois Redd expressed her interest in the Marathon by writing, "I want to give you my heartfelt congratulations on the Marathon project. I listened on the radio and was absolutely thrilled with the Montclair spirit..." Mrs. Mary McKnight wrote, "Congratulations to everyone connected with the Marathon for a magnificent job. You not only helped our own college but also gave a lift to the cause of the American student everywhere."

Another letter of congratulations from Mrs. Anthony Graniato of Newark said, "I was listening to the Upsala radio station . . . I was so proud of all of you . . . When the news came on television after 11 o'clock Saturday night, I saw the films of the march in New York against the war in Vietnam. I wished that I could get up and shout the good news about the students at Montclair and what they were doing . . . My very best wishes to all of you."

Many other congratulatory letters were received by the committee from such people as Dr. Harry Sprague; Graeme Reid, mayor of Essex Falls; and Robert Ferris, mayor of Montclair, as well as letters from parents you and all the members and those who just listened on WFMU.

Donations Still Accepted

The Marathon committee is still accepting donations from all those who desire to contribute to the goal of a new student union building on Montclair's campus.
Professor Thomas Millard Seeks Orange Council Seat

Thomas L. Millard of the department of sociology at MSC is a candidate for the South Ward council seat of Orange, N. J. Mr. Millard feels that it is his duty as a professor to take part in community affairs.

This candidacy means many things to the college. "Educators have held back from the community too long," says Mr. Millard. They have been in "ivory towers." These people have talents and they should offer them to the community for its benefit, theirs, and that of their students.

There is a great cry today for professors to move away from "book-oriented" teaching courses. One cannot speak solely on theory. One must have experience to integrate practical examples in his classes. The professor who is active in community affairs inspires his students to do likewise.

Mr. Millard is clearly not the only professor who feels this way. Several other faculty members at MSC have run for political office.

The professor adds that especially in his area, sociology working with people is of vital importance. The subject is people. He says that this election and politics will be discussed in his courses. Win or lose, Mr. Millard reiterates, he will be much more experienced and intelligent in that area.

Mr. Millard is being assisted in his campaign by Mr. Lawrence Riley, a history department. These professors are setting an example for us: the greatest contribution that we at Montclair State College can make is the sharing of our skills and talents.

Students needs and interests fan out into every corner of the campus and beyond. As our student body and beyond the possibility of increasing student activities has become a pressing reality.

The first question one might ask is whether or not student activities should exist at all. dressing itself to this point when it states: "Organized stu- dents activities in higher educa- tion are viewed as being essen- tial to the overall educational univer- sity." Add to this administra- tive approval the obvious sup- port expressed through ad- vances, and student, through membership and participation— a consensus of the college commu- nity is attained.

Student activities necessitate student activity fees. And of course, there is a direct relation- ship between them. It is precise- ly this relationship which has come under close attention. Be- cause of the ever expanding role of student activities the quan- tity of raising the student activities fee must be considered. The bare fact of the matter is that you can only have so many activities when you have the use of only so much money. The question to be put before each student is: DO SPECIFIC IN- CREASES IN STUDENT ACTI- VITY FEES MIGHT ARISE FROM INCREASE IN STUDENT AC- TIVITY FEES. A referendum will be held on Thursday, May 11 in conjunction with Class and Legislatu- re election. A "yes" vote will be a vote for increas- ing the student activities fee from $25 to $30 per semester. A "no" vote is a vote to retain the present fee.

Do you want more and bet- ter sports programs, more club concerts, better plays, more publications, a continued college broadcasting station, better polit- ical speakers, better Senior ac-

Need Revived for Increase in the SGA Activities Fee

The Personnel Department ad-theses that every student activity and more. These services are in your best interest. But one thing you have to consider is what you are willing to pay for these services. If you do not desire these services at the increased expense, you should vote "no." If, on the other hand, you wish to have the stated services at the increased expense he should vote "yes.

A brief background on the procedure through which the issue has and will have to pass may shed some light on the question of increasing the fee itself. The need was first realized by the Budget Committee upon receipt of budget requests from member organizations requesting an increase of approximately $300,000, while the treasury of the Student Government stood short of the $200,000 goal. After a thorough examination of all the requests—worthy as their causes may have been—they were not granted.

More recently the need for increased funds was brought to the attention of the executive committee. Here, by unanimous consensus, work began on increasing the fee. Meetings were held then, to which all Class I organizations were invited.

Work was begun on substantiating the need for an increased fee. At present all Class I organizations, with the exception of the academic classes, have submitted tentative budgets based on the application of a $3 per semester activities fee.

If, then, the resolutions to be pasted by the Student Legislative, the Student Body, and the Student Government need of Higher Education. But by far the major phase in the development of this measure is held in the hands of you, the student body. Its knowledgeable before you vote either way. It is our confidence that a knowledgable vote is a "yes" vote.

\textbf{QUARTERLY REVIEWED}

by Thomas Manning

The spring issue of Quarterly came out last week. Students of Montclair State College viewed Quarterly with individualistic feelings ranging from the predictable, "What a waste!" to "The best one yet." Justifiably, however, just Quarterly with a single phrase justifies the publication, "waste," they might have felt. This is "it's my own fault." Quarterly has the character that it does, precisely because of the character of the group that contributes to it and represents that character.

But let us speak of this issue of Quarterly. The publication of the spring, 1967, does not seem to contain the best products of its contributors. Earlier editions of the Quarterly can create the impression that superior examples from most of the students.

Poetess Marilyn, by Paul Larsen, in Quarterly, Spring, 1967, is vastly more successful than any of his work this year. Unchanged and As the Circle Stayed Unbroken are at best weak attempts in the present issue. Table lady and The 8:30 Special are cute but only for one reading.

"Everyday..." by Don Bradford does not approach the quality of Coronation column... from Winter, 1966.

"Door on a Downbeat," by David L. Condit.

The climate of the poem is the highest truth. Reality exists there where it rests on nature or whether it rests its own intangible abstract quality. We have heard much of the probe before, and have seen much better from Sophia Pasieka, such as Stay at her ease every day of the month. With Tampax tampons.

Tampax tampons help a girl stay at her ease every day of the month. Their reliability in place internally they never touch the tampon, and both the tampon and its silken-smooth applicator can be flushed away.

You can dance, ride, swim or wear your most attractive clothes any time—and rest assured that your secret is your own. Wouldn't that make you more confident?

\textbf{Home Ec. Majors Tour Cedar Grove Shop Rite}

The Cedar Grove Shop-Rite became a "living laboratory" for freshmen home economics students at Montclair State College recently, when two groups toured the store as part of their Introduction to Foods course.

Another group will participate in the program in the near future. The store is located at 387 Pompton Ave., Cedar Grove, N.J.

The tours, arranged by Larry Pick, Supermarket Director and General Corp., Personnel Representative and Assistant Professors S. Shuman and Elizabeth Kelly of Montclair State, concentrated on the perishable food operations of the store.

Frank Tucker vice president, Larry Pick supermarket director, and Sam Armano, store manager, led the tours. After a brief orientation session in the store's offices, the students were shown how food is received, prepared, packaged and displayed by the department manager.

The home economics majors were then introduced to the appetizer department, where an explanation of foods handled and market trends was given. Group suggestions were presented by the department manager.

The home economics majors were then introduced to the appetizer department, where an explanation of foods handled and market trends was given. Group suggestions were presented by the department manager.

A demonstration of produce trimming, washing and packaging was presented to each of the groups composed of about 20 students. A question and answer period and coffee break were held in the office after the tour.

Larry Ficks in evaluating the program said he was very pleased with the tours and hoped other groups would visit Shop Rite Supermarkets. "We feel it's very important for these students to have an understanding of the supermarket business, and the tours we have given them provided an excellent opportunity to gain insight, both for the girls and ourselves."
Tra-lá! It's Spring!

"Spring is sprung, the grass is rife: This certainly no time for studying is." Although this jingle may bring many a frown from grammarians, there are, no doubt, numerous students who must smile at the familiarity of the above sentiment. Spring seems to be a prime time to cut classes, ride motorcycles, play tennis, go for a ride around the campus in a convertible, lie on the freshly-mowed lawn in front of — in short, anything but study and attend classes. Those unfortunate enough to have a spring fever complex especially, a particularly beautiful afternoon, may find it extremely difficult to disengage themselves from their guitar— or card-playing, but with characteristic faithfulness and dedication of the typical student, they grudgingly saunter over to their classes. (Sometimes, if the conflict is great, one may arrive severally late.)

Teachers are sometimes intolerant of the common seasonal malady, and often demand explanation for the student's apparent lack of interest for his class work. He is often caught staring out the window or drawing pictures of cars or trees in his notebook. His daily listlessness and dedication of the dormitory named in her honor; she was lovely, refreshing and justly praiseworthy.

Grace Freeman, in so many ways, gave herself to Montclair State College. She will deeply be missed, but we are sure that her spirit will always be with us.

The Activities Fee

Sammy Davis Jr. is appearing at a neighboring college. Arthur Schlesinger Jr. is lecturing at another college in the state. Some colleges are publishing student research papers in a campus periodical. There are full athletic programs at other colleges. Still other colleges have musical programs broader in scope than those sponsored here at MSC. Others have bigger and more advanced athletic and social activities.

The need for the proposed increase in the SGA fee is rather apparent. We urge all students to give serious thought to this increase in the amount of the fee. It is important that we give this thought to the proposed fee because it will affect all of us, but is money you have a voice in how much you are assessed, on May 11 — VOTE.

SGA Elections

Student Government Association elections have once again come and gone. They came rather peacefully this year; no mud-slinging, merely a good campaign pitting high caliber people against each other. There were many good ideas expressed in the SGA election campaign. Some of these were not expressed by the winning candidates. However, such ideas should not be overlooked. We would hope that next year's officers would incorporate some of these ideas into their programs.

We wish to congratulate the winners of the elections. There is much work ahead of them. As one of the new officers has noted, "there are only "twelve-odd days before the final and he had better start knocking down." (This may seem rather obvious information to the victim of spring fever who has been counting the hours of the remaining classes since he returned from spring recess.)

What Time Is It?

It seems to writer that the question of "what?, of "time," of "Is," of "It" underlie many of the worthwhile discussions wagoned in classes, at club meetings, in the snark bar, in the amphitheater. Ironically, we all thought we knew the answer when we were in the sixth grade. The majority of us, reared in the Judaeo-Christian tradition, accepted the idea that Father God was our Supreme Being and that this world, in which we were His instruments, was merely a preparation for the next world. Et cetera, et cetera.

Along comes the Rising Sun (a real live Montclair State College student) with his tongue in his cheek screaming: "This is not the time for the famous 'La 'La' La Ala' La Ala' Ala'. Why?" The answer is irrelevant. Let us all be sun-worshippers!

The absurdity of this conclusion is that we are ignoring the fact that our sixth-grade beliefs ARE sixth-grade beliefs. Having never gone beyond the grammar school level in religious thinking, what we reject is not what is, but what we think. Such a rejection cannot be valid. It can also be foolish, if what we are rejecting could be very crucial in not necessarily answering all our questions, but in providing a basis for action.

Grace M. Freeman

Grace M. Freeman spent her life working for the things in which she believed. As an assemblywoman, her efforts on behalf of education resulted in notably a better Montclair State, but a system better New Jersey education. She provided an insight into education and its problems which is rare for a legislator.

Speech Freeman was always a part of Montclair State College. As an alumna, she was an active supporter of the Alumni Association. At homecoming, as grand marshal, she possessed a smile as beautiful and as genuine as that of any homecoming queen. At the dedication of the dormitory named in her honor; she was lovely, refreshing and justly praiseworthy.

Grace Freeman, in so many ways, gave herself to Montclair State College. She will deeply be missed, but we are sure that her spirit will always be with us.

The Activities Fee

Sammy Davis Jr. is appearing at a neighboring college. Arthur Schlesinger Jr. is lecturing at another college in the state. Some colleges are publishing student research papers in a campus periodical. There are full athletic programs at other colleges. Still other colleges have musical programs broader in scope than those sponsored here at MSC. Others have bigger and more advanced athletic and social activities.

The need for the proposed increase in the SGA fee is rather apparent. We urge all students to give serious thought to this increase in the amount of the fee. It is important that we give this thought to the proposed fee because it will affect all of us, but is money you have a voice in how much you are assessed, on May 11 — VOTE.

Student Government Association elections have once again come and gone. They came rather peacefully this year; no mud-slinging, merely a good campaign pitting high caliber people against each other. There were many good ideas expressed in the SGA election campaign. Some of these were not expressed by the winning candidates. However, such ideas should not be overlooked. We would hope that next year's officers would incorporate some of these ideas into their programs.

We wish to congratulate the winners of the elections. There is much work ahead of them. As one of the new officers has noted next year is a "year of transition." The college is in a state of flux; big changes are being made. The future legitimacy of this institution will depend upon the decisions made in the next few years. There is a great responsibility placed upon the newly elected officers. We wish them well.

To all the candidates, our congratulations on a well-conducted and serious campaign.

I think continually of those who were truly great.
Who, from the womb, remembered the soul’s history
Through corridors of light where the hours are suns
Endless and singing.  Whose lovely ambition
Was that their lips, still touched with fire,
Should tell of the Spirit clothed from head to foot in song.
And who hoarded from the Spring branches
The desires falling across their bodies like blossoms.

What is precious is never to forget
The essential delight of the blood drawn from ageless springs
Breaking through rocks in worlds before our earth.
Never to deny its pleasure in the morning simple light
Nor its grave evening demand for love.
Never to allow gradually the traffic to smother
With noise and fog the flowering of the spirit.

Near the snow, near the sun, in the highest fields
See how these names are feted by the waving grass
And by the streamers of white cloud
And whispers of wind in the listening sky.
The names of those who in their liyces fought for life
Who wore at their hearts the fire’s centre.
Born of the sun they travelled a short while towards the sun,

Dear Sir,

I am a member of the Class of 1968 and I have written many opinions in the past, either as an editor or on class apathy. This topic is of concern to me both as a student who has already left school and but in my opinion the inactivity of the members of the Class of 1968 is by far greater than that of any other that I have known.

I have been a member of class council for three years and I feel that I may be qualified to talk on the participation of junior students in our class council meetings.

There are, I know, many students who are lazy and unwilling, or is it because they don't know about it? I don't want to mislead you, but I don't think they are lazy. I have been a member of senior class council meetings for the last two years and I have always attended these meetings. These profound "folks" are a fine example of our student body. I remember as a past writer for the Montclarion that our class council meetings were very run down. But now, we have a very active and more important class council. I believe our class could be made more active if we could get active participation from the students.

I have another question to ask the members of the Class of 1968. Do you think it's fair that your activities be determined by a council of ten students? If so, great ... we try harder. If not, why not come to class council meetings? No one ever usually holds every other week and see if you can't add something (even if it is only to give us a quorum).

Sincerely yours,

Joe Kloos

Dear Editor:

As this academic year has come to an end, we are in the midst of elections for SGA officers, class officers, and the揖dit & Production Government Student Associate Director of SNCC. This means (has) we believe) moved at a rapid pace. The SGA has, as usual, presented you with a well-balanced program of concerts and lectures, Players and Players, etc., on campus. Broadcasting, full-length movies and a host of other essential activities have been for a good college program. Many students have worked on these programs and even more have attended. It has been a good year in that aspect.

Attending a commuter college is not the easiest task, yet many of us have made up our minds to enjoy the activities, despite the inconvenience of a drive. Of course we have had to get used to having to be on time and get nothing out of college and go nowhere afterwards! "He's a real nowhere man sitting in his nowhere land." Then again, when we think of the reality of WORK. This is a shame.

From my own experience working nights, as a freshman, I could suggest that you do not work hard work long hours while going to college if it is not necessary. If you can get the same response from the students, they are truly interested and capable. This elite group really wants the support of the students who are lazy and unwilling, or is it because they don't know about it? I don't know what to do. I don't think they are lazy. I have been a member of senior class council meetings for the last two years and I have always attended these meetings.

I have another question to ask the members of the Class of 1968. Do you think it's fair that your activities be determined by a council of ten students? If so, great ... we try harder. Cause of Clean-Up Failure

"I am disappointed, defeated, dissatisfied and a number of other adjectives I wouldn't want quoted in the Montclarion," with these words, Mr. Gary Leo, Director of Life Hall, described his reaction to the apparent failure of the recent commuter cafeteria clean-up campaign. This project, which was initiated last March, was designed to help the students wish to live like pigs, I will let them. I don't in ten a grade school approach with college students. The cafeteria is, after all, seen as to place the maximum amount of responsibility on the students, and many students will not accept it. I ask for

The credit is available to any person who pays the tuition. Thus, it would be available to all students and workers alike as well as to parents and other relatives of students. With more than one child in college or graduate school, any family could get a separate credit for each.

"Over two-thirds of the benefici­atees have reported their families earning less than $10,000 a year," Ribicoff said. A third of them, he reported, have the amount of the credit available to high bracket taxpayers.

In offering the tuition tax credit amendment, Senator Ribicoff said there is an urgent need for tax relief for persons faced with the increasing costs of higher education. "In the long run," he said, "my amendment would serve students. Rosen, Greece Honored At Wrestling Banquet

The annual dinner of the Montclair State wrestling team was held honoring Jeff Rosen, Jim Grieco as most valuable wrestler and Jimmy Groce as most improved wrestler. Head coach Henry Ferris, Jr. coach Jerry Lewis and assistant coach Jerry Lewis and assistant coach Jerry Varks were on hand to remind the team of their very successful season.

This year’s matmen had the most wins on through to win in the District 31. He also took a fifth place in the Bank State Sophomore Jim Grieco, last year’s outstanding freshman for the team for the most improved wrestler.

Jim showed continued improvement throughout the season and did much to bolster the entire team. Grieco, who wrestled at 167, took a second place in the Monts, the district 31 tournament and went on to take fifth place in the National NAIA Tournament.

The highlight of the evening was when Coach Ferris presented the awards for this year’s efforts.

Senior co-captain Jeff Rosen received the most valuable wrestler award. As the coach presented him the trophy, he remarked on Rosen’s having broken two school records, (most points in a season and most pins in career), and having won 101 of 131 meets in 1 season.

Rosen, defending champion in the 196 weight class, took a second in the Monts and came with the team the most wins on.

Recent Wins Boost Track Team Record

Montclair State’s track and field team upset its season long nemesis on May 3 by beating Jersey City State and Monmouth College 117-75, 251 and 34 at Sprague Field April 20.

Running varsity and junior varsity combined, the Indians captured 12 of 17 events. The opponents captured only one of the ten running events. The lone victor was Ray Herman from Jersey City State in the 150 yard high hurdles with a time of 16.2 seconds.

Montclair had a triple winner with Jim Busch in the triple jump, broad jump and javelin. Busch won the broad jump with a leap of 24 1/4 triple jump with a 41 1/4” leap and the javelin with a distance of 119 feet. Landfried was clocked in winning times of 10.4 for the 100 yard dash and 23.4 seconds in the 220 yard dash.

Landfried also combined with Dave Bell, Jim Limbo and Dave Withner to run the 440 yard relay in 45.1. Edwin List beat Inian teammate Dave Bell to win the 400 yard run in 53.2 seconds. James Santimier won the 880 yard run in 2:00.25 by edging freshman teammate Jim Cummings. James Harris out-distanced teammates Ralph Ver- nanich and Louis Cotton to win the mile run in 4:32.3. Rodney Hamilton captured the 440 yard intermediate hurdles in 60.2 with teammate Mike Scarelli and Charles Troccoli finished third and fourth respectively.

The two mile run provided plenty of excitement when fresh- man Dale Rodgers kicked the last 220 yards to edge veteran teammate Ralph Vernanich with a time of 9:30.2.

The mile relay combined List, Hamilton, Harris and Santinier in a winning time of 3:28.9.

Victors for the opponents included Zilincic (Monmouth) in the shot put with a toss of 39 1/4”, O’leary (Monmouth) with a heave of 142 5/8” in the discuss butteman (Monmouth) with a height of 11’ 4” in the pole vault and Sallie’s (AC) 5’ 10” in the long jump.

Newark State Routed 11-1

With Frank Rosen cracking his second homer of the season, Coach Bill Dioguardi and his Indians swept Newark State, 11-1, at Sprague Field.

Pitching the first five innings and getting the win was Bob Bobutano who allowed only five hits, two of them in the fifth inning when the Squires scored their only run. Doing the major part of the job, however, was Jim Downing with two hits; Dick Shute with two hits; Mike Sallihan with two hits; Frank Ross and Pete Baudles had three hits each.

Strong relief pitching by Pete Jerald, John McNulty and Joe Combs aided in the victory.

14 Hits Attack Downs Trenton 13-4

Montclair built up a 7-1 lead after the first three innings en route to its third conference victory, Downing archival Trenton State, 13-4, at Hillwood Lake.

Pete Jerald, the starter and winner was given a 5-0 lead in the first inning as Dick Shute walked, Frank Ross singled and two outs later, Bud Van Petit tripled to right. It was 6-0 after McS’s second turn at bat, with singles by Tom McCormick and Jerald, around an infield error filling the bases. An infield out, a sacrifice and a stolen base made another Indian hit in two more and Ross- ans single delivered the fourth run of the inning.

Montclair Falls 7-3

The Indians used strong pitching to defeat the Montclair College Holyoke, 7-3, at Sprague Field. In the first inning, McS took a 3-1 lead in Jim Down- ing’s leadoff triple and Pete Baudles sacrificed fly and later a run producing single by Bud Van Petit.

Pitchers Joe Combs, Pete Jerald, Fred Kennel and Bob Bibo- bano scattered five hits.
