CLUB To Present The Four Seasons

The Four Seasons will be presented tonight in the final CLUB sponsored concert for this school year. The concert, scheduled for 8 p.m., will be held in Panzer gymnasium.

The Four Seasons began with Frankie Valli, first tenor, Bob Gaudio, second tenor, Nicky Massi, bass, and Tommy De Vito, first baritone. They represented a blending of talent from two other groups, Frankie and Tommy, with the latter's brother, had recorded under the name The Four Lovers, and Bob originally sang with the popular Royal Teens. Bob wrote "Short Shorts," which became an overnight success and gave the group its first hit.

By 1960 all four young men were looking for new directions for their careers. The Four Lovers were thinking of disbandment, and Bob had quit the Royal Teens to concentrate on writing. The future Four Seasons quite naturally got together in New Jersey where they were practically neighbors. Bob was prevailed upon to resume performing and join the others in forming a new group. He was also encouraged to continue writing with the idea that he might provide the group with fresh recording material...an idea that has proved to be very successful.

The new group began performing in small clubs, and subsequently came to the attention of Bob Crewe, an independent record producer. He first used them to provide vocal backing for other recording artists, until 1962 when Bob Gaudio came up with a song that seemed a perfect vehicle for the Four Seasons' debut. It was recorded and released on the Vee-Jay label in August 1962. Within one month it became a "hit."

The song was "Sherry" and it sold over a million copies and earned the group its first gold record. After that one hit followed another, most of these written by Bob. A listing of these include "Big Girls Don't Cry."

Students Vote To Increase Fee Jaeger, Uscherson, Stefanik Win

As the result of the school-wide referendum held on May 11, 1967, students at Montclair State College will pay an activity fee of $60.00 next year instead of the usual $46.00. The students also voted on the abolition of the dress code. Elections for class officers and representatives to the Student Government Legislature also took place at this time.

Jaeger to Lead Seniors

Ernest Jaeger was elected to the office of Senior Class president. Ernest is Editor-in-chief of the Montclarion, former editor of the Quarterly, lecturer chairman of the College Life Union Board and a member of the SGA Executive Board. Terri Bowman, a biology major, will serve as vice-president. Terri is currently vice-president of the class of 1968 and will participate in the Experiment in International Living this summer.

Brad Lakefield was elected treasurer of the class. A biology major, he is also a member of Gamma Delta Chi. Kathy Bruno will serve as class secretary. Kathy was secretary to the SGA this year. She is also a member of Delta Omicron Pi.

A master of ceremonies was John Van Emden, president of the class of 1967. He announced the gift of the class of 1967 to the college. The class will have three portraits painted of two past presidents of the college and of Dr. Richardson.

The following were the awards presented to the students: New Jersey Bell Telephone Company Scholarships presented by Dr. Thomas H. Richardson to Anita Garrity and Ernest Jaeger; the Who's Who certificates presented by Dean Lawton Blanton to John Aggar, Charles Barraclough, Diana Brackett, Diane Bylch, Nancy Dierk, Eric Engel, Edward Helvey, Patricia Litton, Josephine Mazza, Albert John Moncrief, Sue Nielsen, Karen Sellick, Joan Swickard, Nancy Skirka, Richard Trani, John Van Emden, Murray Weiner and Karen Wolfe.

The Delta Gamma Award for the outstanding senior woman was presented by Dr. Thomas Richardson to Diane Bylch. The Delta Omicron Pi Award to the outstanding senior man was presented by Mr. Raymond Conover to Edward Helvey.

Award Assembly Honors Seniors and Carnival

The annual awards assembly was held yesterday to honor the outstanding seniors of the 1967-68 school year. The annual assembly, initiated in 1949, recognizes the achievement of these seniors for the work they have done throughout their four years at Montclair State College.

The program began with several songs by the MSC symphonic band under the direction of Mr. William Shadel.

The master of ceremonies was John Van Emden, president of the class of 1967. He announced the gift of the class of 1967 to the college. The class will have three portraits painted of two past presidents of the college and of Dr. Richardson.

Newman Hosts Summer Studies

New Jersey Province of the National Newman Social will sponsor a "Newman School of Catholic Thought" to run June 11 to June 15 at the College of St. Elizabeth, Convent, N.J.

The Newman School is a week of Christian experience through education, liturgy and community living. Settled in an atmosphere of opportunity to explore fundamental problems in various fields of Christian thought, to? light of Christian philosophy; to mental problems in various work with fellow students toward the solution of spiritual academic and social problems peculiar to the campus community.

Three courses—"The Modern Church," "Skeptic Ethics," "Life in the Church"—will be taught by instructors especially qualified in their fields to come colleges in the East. Also on the schedule are workshops, seminars, private study and films and a bootcamp.

The total cost for the week is $38, including room and board. Many scholarships are available.

For additional information contact Lorraine Borkowski, MSC Chairman, 1108 Ellis Ave, Paterson, N.J. (600-0796) or via the Newman Plaque in Life Hall.

Newman Apostolate
by Eileen Stoele

Newman is in the process of becoming a "new man" for all students at MSC. Many students on campus realize the need for some kind of a program through which Christians can come together with others who are thinking and feeling and who are interested in the community at Montclair. The members of Newman have been thinking about what they want to present. The organization is trying to take on a new appearance and the action is the result of this change in emphasis.

First of all, because there is no little opportunity for students to talk to others about their own feelings and thoughts, Newman is sponsoring discussions every Tuesday at 4 p.m. in the Alumni Lounge for students of all faiths. The project is directed toward higher education and others from the project and was awarded a Newman Plaque in Life Hall.

Quarterly "PUBLISHERS CHAPBOOKS"
by James Bussing
Quarterly, your literary acquaintance with "little" magazines in the United States, and after winning first prize in the New York City High School Magazine Contest with its own publication of Chapbooks.
A Chapbook will contain essays, poems, stories, or other writings, printed in an enlarged repertoire and suitable for the writer and the student in whom the writer will learn much from the writings of others. The Chapbooks, therefore, will be a very valuable teaching aid creating a better understanding between the student body and the writer working at MSC.
Possibly, the Chapbooks can even be used as a teaching aid in the classroom, especially in those courses involving creative writing, forms of literature, and contemporary poetry. Quarterly is presently using the Chapbooks as a teaching aid.
Miss Doris Reinhardt, Resident Program Director, and Mr. Raymond Stover, Assistant Director of Students, have announced the selection of the new Resident Assistants (previously known as Wing counselors or Condules) for the 1967-68 academic year. The resident assistants include: Candy Bishop, Donald Bowers, Theresa Bowman, Susan Boettner, Lillian Hoffman, Joe Knapp, Ann Arbor, Mich. in the last column of the Montclarion for the school year 1966-67, I would like to express my appreciation to the college and the students for the harmonious atmosphere that has characterized this year. We have had many problems in academic and social life of the college. We cannot take credit for all these accomplishments as our SGA Presi­ dents sit in the classroom in the last column of the Mont­ clarion.

As fine as this year might have been, however, there is an attitude among some students which does annoy us greatly. This entire year has been a special one for everyone, for in the past three years there have been no "incidents." There seem to be two major camps of opposition: one which Miss Freeman displayed in abundance, and about which we are bringing to trial those who killed mil­ lion of people under order from Hitler on Sept. 11-13 and those who sympathized with the latter group.

The Chairman of the Carnival co-chairmen. As most of you know carnival was "washed out" on Saturday. The Carnival turned out to be a financial success financially and considering the handicaps this was indeed a great feat. I congratulate all of the students and staff involved.

Miss Grace Freeman

Much well-deserved tribute has been paid to Miss Freeman and these comments were frequently brought to my attention. I do want to add my humble tribute to this great lady, how­ ever, for in the past three years I have known her longer and better than most of you know her.

I want not dwell on those qual­ ities of goodness and leadership which Miss Freeman displayed in abundance, and about which many complimentary statements have been made. The thing that impressed me most about Miss Grace Freeman was her indi­ viduality. In our age of rubber­ stamp, carbon-coppy people, this lady was startlingly an individ­ ual. One could never anticipate exactly what Grace Freeman would say or how she would say it. She was a colorful person. I do not remember attending a single meeting in which she par­ ticipated which turned out to be a dull meeting.

Miss Grace Freeman's educa­tional success, political and community leadership all point to the fact that she will always remember her as a unique per­ son full of sparkle and wit and color.

Many Boards and groups which meet here at Montclair State College do not know what it is like to have interesting meetings and interesting people. Miss Grace Freeman will long be remembered with a smile and with the knowledge that she was unique.

Thomas H. Richardson

Before I become a "has been" president of the Student Government I would like to take this opportunity to com­ ment on a few of my observations concerning some varied aspects of college life at Montclair.

First, I would like to congratulate Tom Stepniowski and Lois Nauck for a fantastic job as chairman and co-chairman. As most of you know carnival was "washed out" on Saturday. The decision was made to move carnival into Life Hall. I am sure all students, many Boards and groups which meet here at Montclair State College. A recent inci­ dent exemplifying town spirit to­ ward MSC occurred prior to the Marathon when a reporter was barred from coming to the college to give the marathon preliminary coverage because he was asked to leave the campus. A recent inci­ dent exemplifying town spirit to­ ward MSC occurred prior to the Marathon when a reporter was barred from coming to the college to give the marathon preliminary coverage because he was asked to leave the campus.

Concerning the "college town" I do not mean to say Montclair is no place to live. There are many fine people in Montclair. I do mean to say Montclair is not a place to live. There are many fine people in Montclair.

On May 24, noontime the final Peace Vigil at the college by glancing indoors, the students of MCS liked it. Letters To The Editor

Dear Friend:  We are all concerned about the rapidly escalating Vietnam war. On every side we hear the same questions. Is victory possible in Vietnam? Is the war worthwhile? Should we pull out now, or will South East Asia fall?

What really will bring this war to an end?

We of clergy and laymen concerned have been agonizing over these questions. If you too are troubled over these and similar questions, then may we invite you to discuss them with us? We will meet you in the auditorium of the George In- east Asia fall?

Conference Features Cordasco As Speaker

"The use of available funds for the improvement of teacher education has met with continual resistance from the teachers and administrators," said Dr. Frank Cordasco, professor of education at Montclair State College at a panel discussion entitled "Teaching and Learning," which he organized at the Teachers' College, Columbia University, recently. Cordasco's statement was the outgrowth of the panel's ongoing concern about financial aid to teacher education and its impact on the quality of education being delivered to the students.

Cordasco indicated that the panel was comprised of educators from across the country and that they were concerned about the lack of funding for teacher education programs.

"We are in a period of fiscal constraint," Cordasco said. "The funds that are available are not being used efficiently or effectively. We need to look at the current system of funding teacher education and determine what can be done to improve it."

Cordasco also discussed the importance of federal funding for teacher education, and noted that several states have been successful in securing federal aid through innovations such as the Title II program. He emphasized that it is crucial for educators to continue to advocate for increased funding and to find new ways to access financial resources.

"We must continue to press for increased funding for teacher education," Cordasco said. "It is critical that we invest in the future of our students and our country."

ed the best record in its 39 year intercollegiate history in 1966-67 winning 31 of 36 games.

The Indians, with five sophomores starting for most of the season figure to be one of the best small college teams in the East in 1967-68.
Watkins to Accept Post At Dickinson

Dave Watkins, who led Montclair State College to the best record in its basketball history last season with a 21-5 mark, has resigned in order to accept the head coaching position at prestigious Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania.

Regarded as one of the fastest rising young basketball mentors on the East coast, Watkins' departure came as a surprise to MSC officials.

Watkins became the Indians head basketball coach three years ago when Henry Schmidt, the Indian's director of athletics, stepped down after a ten year career.

Hardworking and extremely personable, Watkins did a massive recruiting job in the three years. While building the fine 1966-1967 team, Montclair State succeeded in the two losing seasons of 11-13 and 12-14, before hitting the jackpot this year.

He will leave the foundation for a very fine team. The first six players from this year's varsity will be back, along with the Indian freshman team which posted an undefeated 19-0 mark.

In addition, Watkins has recruited another top-flight group of New Jersey high school players this year which figures to give MSC a solid team for the next two or three seasons.

In addition to his success with the varsity basketball team Watkins also coached the junior varsity to a 13-0 record in three years as coach.

The varsity soccer team also prospered under the watchful eye of Watkins and produced a record of 21 wins, 14 defeats and 3 ties.

No successor has yet been named to replace Watkins. The sports staff of the Montclairian hopes that Mr Paul Stemm, the former Indian cage star and current freshmen basketball coach, will be selected. In his first two seasons as coach

Cagers Enter TourneyBout

Montclair State College has accepted an invitation to take part in the Western Carolina Holiday Basketball Tournament to be played at Asheville, North Carolina, between Dec. 7 and 9, 1967.

The Indians will be one of four teams taking part in the round-robin tourney. Other schools taking part are Union College of mont Abbey of Belmont, North Carolina; and the host school, Western Carolina College.

Each team will meet the other three teams entered in the playoff with action slated for Dec. 7, 8, and 9.

Indians Claim Successful Season Victories Added By Team Effort

by John Danton

April showers may bring May flowers, but don't mention them to Montclair State College baseball coach Bill Dioguardi. This year the April showers have continued well on into May and they have managed to turn Montclair's baseball schedule topsy-turvy.

Between the raindrops, however, Montclair managed to continue its all winning ways as the Indians extended their record to 9-0 with victories over Fairleigh Dickinson, Jersey City, Paterson and Newark State.

The Indians first contest saw heavily worked Joe Comiba take the mound for Montclair against a Fairleigh Dickinson squad which had only managed one win in nine previous ballgames.

However, Knight hurler Bill McDonnell refused to surrender without a fight.

McDonnell limited the Indians to five runs through his nine inning tenure. On normal days this performance would have been more than enough to nail down the victory but Fairleigh found themselves trailing 3-0 after eight and a half innings.

Montclair's team has been getting exceptional pitching this year and has found that Comiba's hurling today would be no
