SHAKESPEARE'S 'MACBETH' PRESENTED
BY PLAYERS AS FIRST PRODUCTION

Last night Players opened its season with Shakespeare's tragedy 'Macbeth'. Written in 1606, the plot was taken from Holinshed's "Chronicles of England, Scotland, and Ireland" (1577). The real Macbeth, an 11th-century Scottish thane, plotted the murder of his king and his wife, Banquo. When adapting the story, though, Shakespeare realized that it would be impossible for him to present Banquo, the ancestor of King James I, as a rebel and regicide. Therefore, he altered history and portrayed him as the innocent victim of Macbeth's ruthless ambition.

When writing 'Macbeth', the author was also very much aware of the popular belief in natural effluents (apparitions, "daggers in the air" and witches) particularly delighted James I, a confirmed witchhyster. By presenting a hero who consciously chose to follow the forces of evil, Shakespeare was following the then current belief that those who ally themselves with fiendish creatures are doomed to fall.

But like other historians, Shakespeare also believed in man's free will. In 'Macbeth' the audience sees a basically good man who makes a fatal choice. He was a loyal subject of the king and a brave warrior but became a monstrous wicked man when he chose to follow the dictates of his overwhelming ambition. This tragic flaw causes him to perpetrate a series of murders and ultimately creates for him a living hell. The atmosphere around him becomes one of darkness and desolation. As he becomes isolated and alienated from his friends, Macbeth sinks into deep depression and pessimism. With his vivid imagination, he envisions the deeds he has committed and is obsessed by haunting voices within his soul telling him that he shall "sleep no more."

Slowly, the outer and inner forces close in upon Macbeth. The witches have betrayed him; their prophecies have given him a false sense of security. Birnam wood is moving toward Dunsinane. Finally, he stands face to face with the man who knows he will ultimately kill him.

The degenerate Macbeth bravely meets his adversary and accepts his doom. It is perhaps ironic that a statement which earlier described the death of the traitorous Thane of Cawdor aptly suits Macbeth's final moments: "Nothing in his life became him like the leaving it."

Charles Croce who will portray Macbeth in Players first production of the season.

21 Seniors Selected for 'Who's Who' Honors

Twenty-one seniors have been selected to represent Montclair State College in the 1968 edition of 'Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities.' These outstanding students are: Jeffrey Balkus, Elizabeth Best, Donald Bowers, Theresa Bowman, Judith Breshow, Kathleen Bruno, Charles Croce, Alan Da Conzo, Richard Davis, Leonard Elovitz, Anita Garrity, Bruce Greenwood, Joseph Kline, Sharon Koval, Venkatakrishnan, Phillipotti, Vladimir Samohutin, Ronald Szabo, and Joseph Valenti.

To be eligible for election to 'Who's Who' honors, candidates must possess outstanding achievements in scholarship, participation and leadership in academic and extra-curricular activities, citizenship, service to the school, and professional promise. The maximum number of students for admission during any one academic year is limited to two per cent of the total enrollment of the senior class.

Voting Procedures

Voting procedures were as follows: An original voting list, consisting of the entire membership of the senior class, was compiled by Mr. Raymond M. Stover, assistant director of students. This list was distributed for the primary balloting to the selection committee for the purpose of eliminating the names of any students who were not considered for final consideration. The selection committee consisted of the members of the Student Government Association, the Student Government, the Executive Board, and the college administration, including the department chairmen and the personnel department.

The semi-finalists were notified and asked to submit a list of what they considered their four most significant contributions to the campus. Their cumulative averages were also considered.

The second and final ballots were considered by the same selection committee. These ballots were then counted by Mr. Stover and two representatives of the SGA legislature.

Stop the World—To Appear at College Nov. 16 and 17

Stop the World—I Want To Get Off. The beguiling British musical that delighted Broadway audiences for 16 months, is coming to Montclair State College on November 16 and 17, at 8:30 P.M. in Memorial Auditorium.

Called a "new-style" musical, Stop the World follows no previous pattern for American stage entertainments—being somewhat along the lines of an adult English pantomime. The humor of the drama has unusual width, ranging from broad to sharply-pointed, from frivolous to stinging satire, in the English music ballad style of mixing corn with clever commentary.

The show came into being as a result of a flipant remark by William S. Rice, president of Warner Bros. "What of Newley what kind of part he would accept. "A one man revue with ten girls," said Newley, kid¬ dingly expressing every actor's dream. Defiantly surprised re¬ plied that he would put on such a show if Newley could find one. With this promise in mind, New¬ ley and his well-qualified friend, Leslie Bricusse, wrote Stop the World.

The musical is a satirical chronicle of the life of a twenty¬ century panjandrum, a member of Parliament in order to become a business man with no other assets except his dapper, little blank of a man. The humor of the drama has unusual fun to stinging satire, in the previous pattern for American stage entertainments—being somewhat along the lines of an adult English pantomime.

Welcome ACU

The Association of College Unions begins its region three conference here at MSC today. We of the Montclarion would like to welcome the delegates to the conference and extend our best wishes to those of the College Life Union Board who have worked so hard to plan this event.

We have taken a great deal of pride in much which the College Life Union Board has done in the past. For the past three years CLUB has created programs which have added to many areas of the college community. Lectures, films, and Broadway shows concerts, Human Relations Laboratory, Alley Club, open recreation. Homecoming and Carnival have all expanded the range of student interest and activity. CLUB has been fortunate to have a dedicated and competent group of workers. It has developed through the guidance of its advisers, an efficient way of planning programs. We at Montclarion are fortunate in having a separate organization, planning activities. In many colleges it is handled, very inefficiently, by the student government or the administration of other local "powers that be." We welcome the independence that CLUB does have on this campus. We hope that such independence is appreciated by the organization.

We hope that the dedication, perseverance, and taste which have characterized CLUB in the past continue to be part of CLUB's actions. We again send our best wishes to those attending the conference. You are most certainly welcome.

Notes

We extend best wishes to Players for every theatrical success with Macbeth. We welcome the Bard's inclusion in the dramatic repertoire.

The Student Government Association Legislature has seemed to finally overcome most of its problems and appears to be an efficient, working body. HURRAH!

Our congratulations to those newly elected officers of the freshman class. We remind them of what e. c. cummings wrote: "Politics is the art upon which everyone has sat and sweated. Discouraged, freshmen? Don't be. Good Luck!"

We are glad that the field in front of Webster Hall has finally been roped off. Grassy grass and shrubs will definitely add more beauty to the campus then did the tire tracks and muddy ruts.

Here it is November; the semester's almost gone. Time goes so quickly when one's having fun!

The Marching Band

Last year at this time we were writing editorials criticizing the college's marching band. We can't say we were wrong in writing such editorials; the marching band did not seem to improve much. However, these editorials written did seem to improve the situation. Anyone who has attended any of the football games this year can easily see a definite improvement in the marching band. Their selections are more advanced and they have developed more of a "Big Ten" band flavor. With the aid of new uniforms the band will truly be an asset to MSC.

We wish to congratulate those responsible for the improvements in the band. We extend our thanks to the student government officers of this and last year who have worked with the music majors, band officers, and student government. We again send our best wishes to those attending the conference.

A Fitting Tribute

Once again the time has come to commemorate and congratulate those seniors who because of their outstanding accomplishments and service to MSC have merited national recognition.

Who in American Colleges and Universities. We of the Montclarion staff join with the entire administration and student body in recognizing these 21 students and the well-willed home which they have shaped. Their fine character, genuine school spirit, tremendous leadership abilities, and fine scholastic attainments exemplify the kind of ideal spirit of which MSC can be proud.

Welcome Additions

Recent additions to the ever-increasing list of facilities for the use and enjoyment of the MSC student body are the indoor swimming pool in the newly-completed Panzer wing and the new tennis courts located behind the parking area in back of Finley Hall. We of the Montclarion staff, on behalf of the student body, would like to extend our thanks and gratitude to the administration and especially to the faculty of the Panzer School for making these facilities available. We hope students will respect and use the swimming pool and tennis courts which have been provided for their benefit.

Positions are now open to all students who are interested in working on the Montclarion staff. Applications are welcome from members of the Freshman class. The positions available are:

- Managing Editor
- Business Manager
- News Editors
- Features Editors
- Sports Editors
- Magazine Editors
- Make-up Editors
- Art Directors
- Research Editors
- Tally Editors
- Photography Editors
- Circulation and Sales Editors
- Advertising Editors
- Journalistic Adviser
- Financial Adviser
- Assistant Editors

The Coordinating Council has to present the views of the three principal representatives on campus. For many years Montclair has had an Administrative Council, Faculty Councils and Student Legislatures. These groups, in representing their constituents, usually deliberated, decided and functioned in isolation from each other and MSC. This is no longer the problem in the past, but now it becomes increasingly obvious that our modern college requires such greater coordination of its various sections. This is the reason for the creation of the Coordinating Council.

Membership is as follows: Representing the student body:

- Thomas Stepnowski, President
- Robert Hillenbrand, Vice President
- Bonita Marranca, Secretary

Representing the Faculty:

- Mr. Herbert Freeman
- Dr. Ward Moore
- Professor James Pettigrove

The Coordinating Council will meet soon. The first item on its agenda may be an interesting illustration of the kinds of problems with which this group may deal. Right now there are two (perhaps more) different student dress codes which exist on campus. The system of those codes was adopted by the student government last year; they have not been published in the faculty handbook, and it seems likely that various individual faculty members may have their own standards of dress.

All of the representatives on the Coordinating Committee have heard discussions within their separate groups about the problems of the student dress code. They will, therefore, be better able to form their own parent body when they meet. This issue is not a burning concern, but it does cause inconsistencies and contradictions to exist, it seems desirable for the Coordinating Council to work in groups with conflicting ideas to meet an attempt to resolve the problem.

Communication and coordination are fundamental essentials to the effective participation of all of the groups in deciding campus policy. This Coordinating Council may eventually evolve into a very different kind of group. Its creation seems like a good beginning. The student body, the various councils and the entire college faculty will give full support and encouragement.

Thomas H. Richardson
To The Editor:
A student of this college for two and one-half years, I have noticed that the student body here holds several conflicting views. A recent concert of rock music at the Coliseum, I was hit by a student who apparently was disturbed by the music. As a result, I was struck by the thought that I and other students may be the victims of our society's ideas of what constitutes acceptable behavior. It seems to me that this behavior is a manifestation of the values that we hold as a society. What are our values? Are they truly the values we want to teach our children? Do we want to teach our children that violence is a solution to our problems? Or do we want to teach them that nonviolent solutions are possible? If we do not teach our children these values, how can we expect them to learn them?

Dear Editor,

I write to you about the recent concert at the Coliseum. I was among those who attended the concert, and I was disturbed by the behavior of some of the audience. I feel that this behavior is unacceptable and should not be tolerated. I urge you to take steps to address this issue and to ensure that our community is a place where everyone can feel safe and respected.

I am a member of the Montclair State College Student Government Association (SGA) and I am committed to working towards a more positive and respectful community. I encourage all members of the college community to join me in this effort.

Sincerely,

Phil Ochs has his own point of view, and after all, is entitled to be a country of free speech. Because various students do not agree with him, does not entitle them to behave rudely and show just how immature they really are.

Phil Ochs offered to discuss his point of view quite openly. Consequently, it is entirely within the rights of one of the "outrage objects" to call for the concert to stand up and speak.

Everything is supposed to be bigger and better in America! What an absolute lie! Just looking at the concert presented on October 3, 1967, I feel I must say how disgusted I am with your views. In fact, they realized that such immature students compose a part of the audience for the Homecoming concert. The Homecoming concert was not to be a forum for the display of such a rude display as was seen Saturday night. It was had enough that about half of the students saw fit to walk out on Phil Ochs while he went on with his performance. The remaining students who attended the concert were the ones that were willing to hear the music that the concert was supposed to be.

The sickening group was not the audience, but the Homecoming committee that allowed it to occur. If they want to have the Homecoming concert, then they must let the duly appointed committee of the audience have the right to hear what they want to hear. I am ashamed to admit that I am a member of this community, and I do not care what anyone's opinion is. It is not up to me to say that Mr. Ochs was right or wrong, nor is it the duty of every student or any other person to say what they think. If you want to have the Homecoming concert, then let it be as the committee of the audience sees fit. If you do not want it, then do not go to it. It is none of your business what the other students think.

To say the least, I was ashamed and shocked, and I hope that all of your students will see that this is not what a good school should be. I hope that the committee of the Homecoming committee will take this into consideration when planning future events.

Sincerely,

Dear Editor,

I was at the concert during the week of October 3, 1967, and I was very disappointed with the behavior of some of the audience. I feel that this behavior is unacceptable and should not be tolerated. I am a member of the Montclair State College Student Government Association (SGA) and I am committed to working towards a more positive and respectful community. I encourage all members of the college community to join me in this effort.

GUARANTEED BANK LOANS

FINANCING OF LOANS

Loans are by a qualified lending institution in New Jersey which has agreed to participate by having loans made guaranteed by the New Jersey Higher Education Assistance Authority.

RATES AND TERMS OF LOANS

A student borrows from a sory notes as needed for each academic year. Certain qualified students attending approved post-secondary institutions of higher education are eligible to have the full interest paid on their behalf by the federal government while in full-time enrollment. During the repayment period which begins no later than nine months following graduation or withdrawal from school, the student pays 3% simple interest.

Students who are eligible to borrow but not eligible for federal interest subsidy must pay the full interest on these loans while the loan is received. The maximum rate per controlled by law is 6 simple interest.

When the total loans to any student exceed $2000, repayment of such loans shall be made in installments over a period of not more than ten years (unless school is under repair) or more than ten years. The minimum payment permitted by authority is $30 per month. It is to the student's advantage to repay this obligation as soon as possible.

Maximum loan amounts are:
Freshman year, $1000; junior year, $1500; senior year, $1500; each graduate year, $1500.

Total undergraduate loans may not exceed $5000. Total loans including graduate work may not exceed $7500.

APPLICATIONS

1. Obtain a loan application at the lending institution of your choice and send this form to us. These may be obtained from:

New Jersey Higher Education Assistance Authority
225 West State Street
Trenton, New Jersey 08625

2. Complete the sections to be filled out by the applicant and his family.

3. Submit the application to the financial aid officer or registrar of your school for completion and certification of educational status.

4. The completed application then is submitted to the participating lending institution and the "Certificate of Eligibility" is issued to the student in the presence of a bank officer.

5. Students are required to pay an insurance premium directly to the authority in order to qualify for the loan. In the event the application is submitted to a lending institution other than the authority, the application must be sent with a check payable to "Treasurer, State of New Jersey Higher Education Assistance Authority" to 1250 State Street, Trenton, New Jersey 08625.

6. The Bank interviews the applicant, reviews and forwards the application to the New Jersey Higher Education Assistance Authority.

7. The New Jersey Higher Education Assistance Authority reviews the application and, if eligible, makes its decision. The decision is not binding on the institution, the college and the student of its decision.

8. After approval, the student signs a student agreement and note. Only the student's signature is required, except in the case of married students, whose spouse must co-sign. Copies of the note are kept by the student and the lending institution.

9. If eligible, the student must complete an Application for Federal Interest Subsidy which is mailed directly by the lending institution to Washington, D.C.

FILING OF APPLICATION

Normally, applications should cover the needs for the student's entire academic year and should be submitted during the two months prior to the beginning of the academic year for which the loan is needed. They may, however, be submitted at any time.

No application may apply to expenses in more than one academic year. For the next few years, the student may reapply for a new loan.

For further information concerning this program, please see Mr. Neume, in the Student Personnel Office.

7 Churches Unite To Form MSC Community
by Jane Stack

Seven churches in the Montclair area are united ecumenically to carry out the Christian ministry at MSC as the Montclair Church Council. Laymen from: Anglican, United Church of Christ (Congregational), Reformed, Episcopal, Presbyterian and Methodist. Foundation advisers on the campus is the Rev. John Tews.

Already this year ethnic seminars focused on the world today held by the organization. Three members of each class at Mont­ clair State were chosen as re­ presentatives for the Protestant and Catholic students. The Council which meets every two weeks to review ways in which students can more effectively exercise the Christian ministry.

Council members met for the first time with Rev. Harris on Oct. 12 at the Robin Hood Inn for dinner and discussion on the areas of Christian Worship, Study Life and Witness, and how they could be related to the situation at Montclair. At the meeting it was suggested that a short worship service be held during the week, since it is felt that many students have trouble getting to church on Sunday. The service will be held at first on Wednesdays and, with hymns and following plus a short sermon, will last about half an hour.

It was also agreed that this weekend, Nov. 3-5, freshmen students will be attending a conference on ‘Christianity and the World’ by the Institute of the Christian faith as well as the question, “What does it mean to be a Christian today?” will be explored. Students will leave Life Hall at 3:30 P.M. Friday and return at 2 P.M. Sunday.

At the second Council meet­ ing on Oct. 26, Rev. Harris asked students to consider matters for the week’s service, celebrating Thanksgiving, will be held on Nov. 15, from 4-6 P.M. and be followed since there will be none the following week. Three of the Coun­ cil members are planning the service.

Other activities yet to be or­ ganized are to be done in co­ operation with Newman Club and its adviser, Father Tom Dav­ is.

One is a series of “living room” meetings in which Catholic and Protestant students will con­ verse on subjects of interest and concern to both faiths. The oth­ er activity outlined for the Prot­ estants and New members this year is a discussion of foreign movies shown on the campus dur­ ing the week with special empha­ sis on movies. Both activities will probably be held at the Newman House.

After the second meeting, three of the Council members are: the Rev. John Tews, chair­ man of the physics department, but they must be involved in the weather that may be the most obvious bene­ fit. On this date the courts were officially opened.

MSC can now number eight tennis courts among its field of dreams. Although baskeball sneakers are not harm ful to the courts, ten­ nis shoes when used regularly will be the most obvious bene­ fit. The initial work­ shop will be followed by four more work­ shops, two on Friday evening and two on Saturday. To help each group establish itself, there will be a discussion in understanding the group process.

On Friday evening the con­ference banquet will be held. It will be at the Hotel Mont­ clair, 550 Bloomfield Ave., Mont­ clair. The service will be given by the Rev. Thomas Da­ vis, Montclair’s Newman Club. Highlighting the even­ ing’s program will be a keynote address by the Very Rev. Vic­ tor R. Yantelliti, S.J., president of St. Peter’s College, Jersey Ci­ ty. Montclair College Life Un­ ion Board has arranged a special sti dnoon dinner with speakers. This session is a part of the uni­ form ats rendered by the follow­ ing MSC sororities: Sigma Delta Psi. Delta Sigma Chi, Kappa Sig­ ma, Kappa Rho Upsilon, Lambda­ ßa Omega Tau, Delta Theta Psi, Delta Sigma Chi, Kappa Sig­ ma, Rho, Theta Chi, Rho, and Dalpach. The previously men­ tioned conference session will be held between the two workshop sessions on Friday night. The conclusion is a special Alley Club for con­ ference officers in the group process.

Saturday’s program includes an excursion, the final two work­ shops, a coffee and sandwich break, and the conference bus­ iness meeting. The conference adjourn will at 12:30 P.M.

The many people involved in the planning of the conference were: chair­ man of the Executive II Steering Committee, Paul J. Lang, Rider College; regional representative, Rev. Dean J. John Wong, Rutgers University; vice-chairman and Student Host, Jeff Balkus, MSC; host direc­ tors, Mr. Gary A. Lee and Mr. Edward V. Yee; professional consultant, Dr. Alfred Gorman, MSC.

Other MSC students involved include: registrations, Alan Da­ Cunzo; program director, Don­ ald Bowers; staff secretaries, Linda Suydam (Trenton), Ani­ ela Anger, Tot.— MSC’s Bos­ ton conference, Anita Garrity; coordinator of meal services, Agnes Galli; banquet program, Paul J. Lang; travel committee, Robert Finney; motel reservations, James Hoyt; displays, Pat Com­ planet; guides, Sandy Pietranik.

LaCampana’ Presents Organization Pictures

The schedule for the organizational photos for the 1968 issue of LaCampana has just been completed. Photography will begin on Nov. 13 and run through Nov. 20. The photos will be taken from 9 A.M. until 5 P.M. for the six-day period. The day each organization will be photographed as follows:

[List of organizations and their respective days]

A complete schedule including time and place has been sent out to each organization president. A schedule will also be posted on the main bulletin board of Life Hall. The staff urges all organizations to have all of their members there on time. Full cooperation will be appreciated in this matter. If there are any questions conf­licts concerning the photography, please contact Donna Evans, communications editor, or Robynn Shand, editor-in-chief.

The third general session, Friday, will feature noted commentator and television host, Martin Agronsky, CBS television news analyst, who will speak at 10:30 in the Convention Hall Ballroom.

Joe speaks at Daphne's cottage only to find her in a nightgown hanging decorations from atop a ladder, Daphne then wheels out a portable bar so Joe can fix himself a drink. He is amazed at the enormous supply of liquor (at least fifty bottles) but Daphne reassures him by reciting some of the cleverest lines in the play, "I didn't know what kind you liked, so I bought all of everything... I don't think... only on rare occasions..."

Sandy Dennis is excellent as the errant-minded young woman. Her sensitivity and approach to the role prompts a truly significant performance. The facility of her movements, her ease and grace, that she belongs on the "living fantasy world, an unreal world, a world apart..."

This is only a very brief fantasy, a musical and Miss Dennis will also speak at Friday afternoons general session of "Justice and the Press."

Mrs. Elizabeth McGonigle, NJEA president, will also speak at the Press dinner meeting on the vital issues facing teachers today in New Jersey.

The Musical Gala, Friday evening will be Larry Wilde famous for his "Tonight Show" appearances.

Student NJEA will sponsor a meeting for all convention-goers on the effects of poverty and cultural deprivation on school children. James Farmer, former CORE director; Dr. Frank Condoco, professor of education at MSC; Dr. Leonard Simon, Rutgers Center of Urban Studies; and Mrs. Eleanor Ross, education consultant for SPWilliam B. DELTA OMICRON PI

Our Fall Tea will be held on Nov. 13 at 8:00. Our guest speaker will be Dr. Max M. Aletsky who will be discussing "The Challenge of Contemporary Mathematics.

The tea will be attended by Mrs. Aletsky and her four children. Ron, Kathy Bruno, Jane Troyano, and Carol Ely.

The sisters wish to congratulate all the new officers of the freshman class. These are: Darlene Rippel and Sharon Meadows. The theme of the tea is "An Underwater World." Our officers are very excited about this event and are looking forward to a successful tea.

PHI SIGMA EPSILON

The men of Phi Sigma Epsilon are looking forward to attending the Teachers' Convention in Atlantic City this year.

The members would like to congratulate our new president, Barbara Sternenberger. Our new advisor, Mr. Lawrence Riley, of the sociology department, will be speaking at our tea on Oct. 22. He will be speaking on "West Side Story."

The annual Alumni Dinner Dance will be held at Don Dowd's on Oct. 22. There will be 70 couples attending. Music will be provided by Greg Pizano and Carl. An alumni fund was instituted, and a plaque was given to Mr. Pizano for his efforts.

The student government will be discussing plans for the alumni dinner dance. They will be deciding on a location and time for the event.

APHESTON

Apheston, the local chapter of Kappa Mu Epsilon, the national mathematics honor society, met at the home of Professor John A. Czaya. Mr. Czaya, who set up "Old Glory," our guest speaker for the evening, will present the topic Men of Mathematics. The annual meeting will be held on Nov. 13 at 8:00. The meeting will be held at the home of Professor Paul Jefferson, chairman of the math department.

The alumni meeting will be held on Dec. 11. Elections will be held on Jan. 8. The theme for this year is "Proof and Application of Bolzano's Theorem."

Iota Gamma Xi

Tonight is our Annual Maxi quade and we are expecting a big turnout and a successful evening. See you there.

Our tea, based on the theme of "West Side Story," was held on Oct. 11. Immediately following the smoker, a mixer was held with the alumni of Dalpaci, Iota, and Lambda Chi. The members enjoyed the music provided by the band "The Band" and the drinks were served by the sisters. It was a great success.

Mu Sigma

We would like to thank all the alumni who presented "Old Glory." Our tea coordinator, George M. G. F. N. and Jonny Vroegindewey, did an excellent job implementing a feeling of patriotism and unity.

An air of hush and mystery prevailed at our meeting on Oct. 11. Congratulations to Gloria Beerman, Joan Stahl, and Carol Ely. They were elected our Officers.

Sinfonia Concert. Tickets for the concert will be available within the next week.

MSC TEAM DEFEATS NYIT, HARRIS STILL UNDEFEATED

Montclair State's cross-country team scored an easy victory by defeating New York Institute of Technology, 15-40, at Van Cortland Park in New York, Saturday, October 21.

Jim Harris remained undefeated for the season as he finished first with a very slow time of 28:04. It was the ninth victory for the 1967 season, for the Newark social studies major.

Paul Bennett, freshman Industrial Arts, and Jim Currie, sophomore, French, continued to show improvement as they finished second and third in 28:54 and 30:09 respectively.

Senior Jim Nichols, freshman Joe Hibbs, and Joe Evans were fourth, fifth, and sixth finishers to complete the shut out against the components.

Cleveland Williams was the seventh and lone finisher for NYIT. Bruce Kinter, a freshman, was the eighth finisher for the Indians.

Dale Rodgers, Montclair's second runner, was unable to run because of an ankle injury.

The victory gave Dr. George Horn's team a 5-4 record for the season.

Soccer Team Defeats Glassboro, Loses to Fairleigh and P T C by Brad Lakeside

The MSC soccer team has been having its problems. After an impressive 3-1 win over Glassboro, the team suffered a 2-0 setback to Fairleigh Dickinson in Rutherford and Philadelphia Textile College.

MSC LEADS CONFERENCE

In beating Glassboro State, the MSC forged into the lead in the competition for the New Jersey Intercollegiate Athletic Conference play, have scored 17 goals and allowed only one. In beating Bloomfield, the team showed a sense of unity that is lacking in the FDU and Philadelphia teams.

This unity was especially shown in the final minutes of the game. Glassboro, with a record of 2-0 in conference play, have scored 13 goals and allowed 27. Our team, with Allan leading the team, finished first with a very slow time of 28:04. It was the ninth victory for the 1967 season, for the Newark social studies major.

Even though the ball crossed the goal line, the referees ruled that the FDU and Philadelphia teams had lost. This unity was especially shown in the final minutes of the game.
