CAR THEFT WARNING
ISSUED BY CALABRES

As evidenced by the increase in car thefts and damage in recent weeks at Montclair State College, it seems that some people have just never learned to respect the Fifth Commandment.

"I wish to make the students aware of this problem and to have them report immediately thefts of suspicious occurrences to the Business Office," stated Mr. Vincent Calabrese, director of Business Services at the college.

The reason for the increasing administrative concern was the thefts of two cars within the last two weeks and an attempted third theft in addition to the theft reported last month. The administration seems to feel that the thefts may be the work of a professional group of car thieves.

Mr. Calabrese, in conjunction with Mr. Joseph McGinty, traffic coordinator at the college, urges MSC students to take certain precautionary measures to avoid any further thefts:

1. Make certain all valuable items are placed on the floor of the car, not left on the seats. This is just an invitation to thieves.
2. Lock all car doors.
3. Take care not to leave keys in cars.

Mr. Calabrese also disclosed the fact that student volunteers are now patrolling the parking lots in the hope of discovering the prospective vandals or car thieves.

Students who have any information concerning this matter should contact the Business Director by dialing 746-9500, Extension No. 244 before 4 P.M. or Extension No. 321 after 4 P.M.

SGA Committee Investigates
Campus Opinion of 'Galumph'

Through the SGA legislation a committee has been set up to evaluate MSC's humor magazine, GALUMPH.

A resolution discussed at last week's SGA meeting brought about the formation of the group to investigate the campus attitudes toward the magazine. The committee, headed by Joseph Valenti and Steve Costic, will include Harry Freeman, editor-in-Chief of GALUMPH and several other members of the SGA legislature. Any interested students may also become members of this committee.

SURVEY PLANNED

The committee will try to contact a representative sampling of the student body by preparing a questionnaire and distributing it to a certain number of students in each department.

The questions will be answered on a one to five point evaluation scale. Sample questions may include: Do you read GALUMPH? Do you find GALUMPH humorous? RECOMMENDATIONS?

The results of the representative survey and the recommendations for future legislative action, if any, will be announced at future SGA meetings.

Larsen Appoints Monda
Editor of 'Quarterly'

Robert Monda, a junior English major, has been appointed editor-in-chief of 'QUARTERLY, Montclair State's literary magazine. The appointment was made by resigning editor-in-chief Paul Larsen. Paul states:"In the year I have been the editor of QUARTERLY, I have had some of the most rewarding experiences of my life. I want, now, to give someone else the chance to help the magazine to grow. I have known Bob for almost three years and, through working with him, know him to be a dependable and responsible person. The kind of leader a magazine must have in order for it to continue growing."

Appointments were also made to posts vacated as a result of Bob's appointment. George Woodington, a junior English major, was made literary editor. His former position as submissions editor was filled by Ron Micici, a sophomore English major.

By CHERYL MEYERS

President of Agora, Michael Fratello, performed the annual ritual of crowning Agora's Queen of Hearts Friday night, March 1, when he presented the trophy to Cindy Morton.

Cindy Morton, a junior biology major from Hawthorne, was chosen runner-up, and was also presented with a trophy.

This is the third year that the men of Agora have sponsored the contest and dance, both of which are held for the benefit of the Essex County Heart Fund. Dr. Redd, a member of the board of trustees of the Essex County Heart Association, supervised the activity working with Domenick Bizzarro, chairman of the dance.

The dance was held in Life Hall Cafeteria, with music provided by the "Gerrriemen."

The men of Agora personally pick the eight girls they want to compete for the title of Queen of Hearts. The Heart Fund limits the number of contestants to eight.

Radio's No. 1 'Philosopher' Shares Witty Views

He then took a radio commentator's job at WSAI in Cincinnati in 1949 where, he says, his free-form style of show "just evolved." He came to New York in 1955, and while working the rounds of agents and producers was offered an all-night radio job at WOR. Except for a short-lived show on WOR-TV in 1960, he has been on radio ever since.

He is unique, not only in his ability to talk to much, but in his sheet artistry with the spoken word. His monologues, which usually ramble in fits and starts through patchwork fields of nostalgia, satire, and incisive observation, invariably include at least one beautifully told story in which he provides not only the narrative, but sound effects and evocative imagery that uncannily awakens the memories and imaginations of his listeners.

Besides hosting one of the liveliest radio shows in the country, Mr. Shepherd is also an accomplished writer. He is the author of a book, IN GOD WE TRUST, ALL OTHERS PAY CASH, several screenplays and a forthcoming Broadway play. Also, he has been a contributor to many leading magazines, including PLAYBOY, where one of his short stories won the 1965 Humor/Satire Award.

MODERNDANCEGROUP EXECUTES ENSEMBLE

The modern Dance Club of Montclair State College presented a "Concert of Dances," an excellent program which ranged from jazz to Frederick Chopin, and included social satire to slapstick comedy. The entire concert, under the direction of Mr. Chester, was well performed with an exceptionally professional tone aided greatly by the effective lighting of Joe Kenney.

"Flags," a comment on social conformity, was highlighted by a section called "Flags" in which the dancers grew increasingly weary of following every banner that came along, to the strains of Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever."

Solo by Cindy Stewart, Linda Stevens and Linda Hoffmann exhibited original movement and dramatic performances.

Paroxysms," a farcical abstraction of such common occurrences as sneezes, yawns and hiccoughs, drew much appreciative laughter from the audience.

The MSC music department wishes to announce its spring semester concert series program to be held every Thursday afternoon at 4 P.M. in Memorial Auditorium. This series is given in conjunction with the "Introduction to Music" course in the coming weeks: March 14, Murray Present, piano; March 21, Edward Szabo, cello; March 28, Fine Arts Trio of Drake University, chamber music; April 4, Allan Schieler, violin; April 11, MSC Orchestra, Arthur Christmann, conductor; April 25, Montclair string quartet, chamber music; May 2, operatic excerpts, Jack Sather, director; May 9, MSC concert band, Ward Moore, conductor; May 16 MSC concert choir, Dorothy Morse, conductor; May 23, MSC music department faculty chamber concert.

The following is a list of the concerts to be offered during the spring semester concert series program to be held every Thursday afternoon at 4 P.M. in Memorial Auditorium. This series is given in conjunction with the "Introduction to Music" course and is being made possible through a grant from the College Development Fund.

Chapin Lounge Takes A Spanish Accent

Chapin Hall is Spanish, it was decided to carry this theme through in furnishing the lounge.

To create a Spanish air the dominant colors are red and white with shades of gray and black and accents of gold. The drapes which are printed in a red and white ceduna design and the rich red carpeting are set off against the white walls.

The chairs and sofa are covered with either black or gray material and are arranged in conversational groupings. Gold accents are furnished by two large portable brass serving trays, which are set on legs.

The main colors of the lounge, red and white, are the school colors of MSC. For this reason and because of the elegance of the lounge, Chapin Hall's lounge will serve as the formal receiving room for the college. The Dean's Tea, which will take place on May 1, will be held in this room. It is hoped that one of the alumni classes will donate pictures to complete the lounge.

Frat Sponsors
Queen Contest

Phi Lambda Pi will sponsor the third annual Miss Montclair State Pageant at which MSC's ideal girl will be selected for her talent and attractiveness. The contest will be held on Sat., March 9, at 8 P.M. in Memorial Auditorium.

Preliminary judging was held on Feb. 22 and the three judges, Dr. George Horn, Mr. William Sawin, and Mr. Karl Moll selected the ten finalists. The girls trying for the title are Carol Adamski, Rosemary Petullo, Susan Lake, Lorraine Williams, Patricia Matuzka, Carol Tintel, Lillian Hofman, and Judy Boomsma. Five semi-finalists will be chosen by judges sent to MSC from the state, as the contest is in conjunction with the Miss America Pageant. The girl chosen as Miss MSC will compete in the Miss New Jersey Contest to be held at Cherry Hill in mid-July, and she will receive a trophy and a $150 scholarship as well as $25 in expenses for her trip to Cherry Hill.

Judging will actually begin at 3:00 P.M. on March 9 when the girls are interviewed by the judges and then they will be treated to a steak dinner before the pageant. Student producer of the pageant is Robert Rolak and the director is Larry Markowitz.

The class of 1971 recently held its first meeting of the second semester to hear reports and news of upcoming activities. Class treasurer Jeff Snyder gave the freshman balance of funds as $1765.48 and announced the future formation of a ways and means committee. Representative Jerry Bem reported on matters discussed at the most recent SGA meeting.

Freshman activities reports were next on the agenda for the meeting. With Mr. Richard Taubald advising, preparations are now being made to select 20 members of next semester's freshman orientation committee. Also a freshman-sophomore committee is now planning a hayride and picnic tentatively for April 27.

However, the feature freshman activity this semester is to be a semiannual dance to be held on Sat. March 16. Dance chairman Sue Bay announced that as this is the day before St. Patrick's Day, the theme "Emerald Isle" has been chosen. It will be open to all classes and cost $2 per couple.

"Co-chairman Kathy Elson asks fine arts majors to help decorate, as the dance will be using the cafeteria and the upper and lower lounges of Life Hall.

Independent Study

In the registration booklet for this spring semester an independent study section is provided for students interested in the study of a subject not currently offered as a regular course. The students interested in this type of study must secure the approval of the faculty member under whose direction they wish to study. The faculty member will then recommend the student for approval to the Committee on Independent Study.

The independent study student will work under the guidance of a faculty member and will be required to meet regularly with that member. The student will be assigned a grade for the work that is done. The grade will be based on the quality of the work and the student's progress in completing the required assignments.

The independent study student will be required to submit a formal proposal for the study. The proposal will include a statement of the objectives of the study, a description of the materials to be used, and a plan for the evaluation of the student's progress.

The independent study student will be required to complete a minimum of 12 credits of work in the independent study program. The student will be required to submit a final report of the work done at the end of the semester.

The independent study program is designed to provide students with an opportunity to study a subject in depth and to develop their own unique approach to the subject. The program is open to all students who are interested in studying a subject not currently offered as a regular course.

Liberal Arts at MSC

MSC initiated a liberal arts program by accepting a certain segment of the incoming class of 1968 as liberal arts majors. Webster's Dictionary defines the liberal arts as the general education of a person with a view to further study in some special subject. The liberal arts education could be defined as a college curriculum which is designed to provide students with a broad and comprehensive education in the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences.

The liberal arts program at MSC is designed to prepare students for graduate study and for professional careers. The program is also designed to provide students with a broad and comprehensive education in the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences.

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR'S NOTE: Unfortunately, we realize the "five-o'clock Fri­day" conditions prevalent on campus. However, we maintain idealism and thus make continuous appeals to the student body to remedy these existing situations.

PRO WAPALANNE

DEAR EDITOR:

This letter is in reference to Camp Wapalanne. I know many other dorm majors and myself had an enjoyable time on the trip. As for myself, it was an experience to remember. Certainly we went up with a fine group, the music majors, that helped make our stay a happy one and, I hope, vice versa.

Being the humanity students that they are, it was an appropriate situation for art and maj ors to be put into close to nature and people. We all benefited, especially in making new and better friendships, and in gaining new understandings of people by working and playing together, in experiencing a completely different atmosphere from college, and in seeing another side of ourselves and others including a happy and likeable one.

I definitely recommend Camp Wapalanne and other major type of comic reaction to which I have this opinion of my MONTCLARION.

Sincerely yours,

STANLEY JAKUBIK’70

COMMEN T:

Letters To The Editor

DEAR EDITOR:

I am not a commuter but I am concerned over clerical difficulties of registration. There were many students that brought the situation to a head and pointed out the real problem—the lack of funds allocated by New Jersey to higher education in general, and the shortage of funds at Montclair State College in particular. We want recognition of the fact that MONTCLARION is in desperate need of classroom facilities, that our classrooms are overcrowded, and putting an additional burden on our professors, not to mention the effect this has on the quality of education the student receives.

As a result of the lack of state funds and the ensuing conditions mentioned above, students have been blocked out of their required courses and have had considerable difficulty in obtaining enough credits to maintain their full-time status. With these conditions existing, students cannot receive the education they have their parents—the voters are paying for. In order to demonstrate the situation of this letter to demonstrate that the students and faculty of Montclair State College are in this current present conditions caused by the lack of allocated state funds to higher education. More than this, we determine to do something about it by bringing this shocking situation to the attention of the proper parties—the Board of Trustees of Montclair State College, the State Department of Higher Education, the elected officials of the state, and most important the voters of the State of New Jersey.

With New Jersey's reputation of being so rich in resources, we would like to know why we have been placed in a position of the barrel of higher education!

MSC Students Tutor For Upward Bound

A group of approximately 30 Montclair students has volunteered to assist with the Saturday morning Upward Bound sessions. Upward Bound students from Passaic and New Jersey are on the campus every week for special help in their high school subject area. They are trained to serve as tutors and work either individually or in small groups with their teachers.

The basic objective of Upward Bound is to motivate disadvantaged youngsters to continue their education. The tutoring activity with Montclair students enables the high school students to bring the college students is especially valuable and can do much to "turn on" the disadvantaged community.

The following MSC students are presently engaged in the program:

BIOLOGY: Dede Marcis

ENGISH: John Burke, John Hird, Maryann Kudrewicz, Judith Tusch any, Robert Martinez, Martin McElwain, Anne Scott and Quentin Young.

FRENCH: Betty Murdock, Valerie , Phil, Home ECONOMICS: Sherry Borden.

SOCIAL SCIENCE: Mary Jean Agusunday, Susan Banks, Russell Bedford, Dennis Cervenka, Stan Gunki, Florence Pignatello, Stan Jacshik, David Coeyman, Pat O'Kelly, and maybe then they might show the students that they care.

It's a pity that I, a student, have this opinion of my administration.

DENNIS CERVENKA, ’70

ON VIETNAM

DEAR EDITOR:

The stand taken by the United States in Vietnam is no longer just a question of how to use to repel Communism and Vietnam seems to be the place where the hardship the commuter has to suffer it is imperative that the students use the common sense they and their parents—the students viewpoint. Therefore, we anxious to represent the college along with the administration. I wish that students utilize the common sense existence to remember.

We of the Dirdy Birdies Jug want the real interested students. We can ask, "Will the real interested students please stand up?" We can also ask, "Will the real interested students please stand up?"

Topical Film Scores Little

By JANET CARUSO

The performance of General Ernest Goodbody, convincingly portrayed by Michael Crawford might have won the war, even if it didn't win this reviewer's accolades. Richard Lester's production HOW I WON THE WAR expresses the increasingly more familiar anti-war theme—its futility, depravity, and brutality. The film is a delightful fairy tale in certain parts, the satire blundered badly by poking fun at some other aspects. For example, upon rushing into the battle scene to find a soldier in anguish with both legs severed by a mine explosion, a woman begins to moralize, half-mocking, about the brutality and cruelty of war. When the soldier interrupts her by crying out that it hurts, she retorts, "Well, run under the tap, love." The movie did make its point, however, according to General Goodbody, "War is the noblest of games." By means of flashbacks to England, detailed photo-sequences at such places as Alamein and Dunkirk, the viewer could be much more concerned with the gory and tragic aspects of war.

Touches of humor did appear, especially when the perfect bit part as the slightly loony Sgt. Gripweed and also in the minor role of a British general, who fancied himself a Nazi general. This movie could be complimentary for its excellent casting and insight into the psychology of men at war. Its synthetically written score is really evident in Goodbody's plan to win the war by making a deal with the Nazi leader.

In conclusion, the film was generally in poor taste and did little to complement the ability of the actors. There is a great variety of choices in the fashion scene of today, such as has been rarely the case before. There is also a certain internationality. Less than five years ago, there was a marked difference among French, British, Italian and American fashion for example. Now, fashion is the same.

The women of today have a very embarrassing choice to make about how many inches above the ground they are allowed to wear their skirts. It can be anywhere from the maxi length to the mini length.

It used to be that the dressmaker had very authoritative orders in regard to what a woman should look like, and most women followed orders. Now, finally, the choice is ours! We can look either like an outer-space explorer or like a nineteenth century romantic; like a Russian cossack or an African. But, nice or nasty, we would like your great-grandmother, or your future great-granddaughter.

CONWAY JONES

The FISH, one of the finest rock groups out of California, were featured at a recent concert at the Arlen Spectulare Village, and once again demonstrated why they are so highly regarded among pop music critics and followers.

Although there are many musicians in the rock field who outshine the Fish in musical virtuosity, few groups show a greater sense of musical taste and preciseness. Few groups play as well together as the Fish do.

The Fish's arrangements are simple in style—nothing is overdone but multi-colored in mood. Compositions like "Section 43" and "Masked Marauder" can almost be called "classical rock," having distinct movements and a variety of moods, created in the context of a single song.

The Fish are a politically minded group and allow their views to be presented via songs like "Superbird," and "I Feel Like-I'm Fixin'-To Die Rag." These songs are highly critical of President Johnson and the War in Vietnam.

The concert was thoroughly enjoyable and recommended for all fans of the group while it is in the area. A musical experience that is unique and memorable is guaranteed.
THE CARLISLE TRIO: Henry Neurenberg, Gary Novosielski and Art Erickson.

CARLISLE TRIO POSSESS, PROVIDE FOLK ROCK STYLE

Two years ago, a group called The Blochemists made an appearance at Alley Club. Need-to-say, the show left something to be desired. However, it was the beginning of a group which is now recognized as a potential leader in the folk field. That group is the Carlisle Trio.

Since that first Alley Club, the trio has organized itself and has developed a strong contemporary sound that is truly their own. That sound is built around the blending to the highest possible degree of the individual voices of the trio. Their sound conveys many facets of music, from traditional folk to bossa nova and popular music to modern folk.

The trio's members are seniors Art Erickson and Henry Neurenberg, and junior Gary Novosielski. Art and Gary do most of the lead spots while Henry is the musician and the arranger of the group.

The group has been busy lately performing in many different areas and diverse atmospheres. They have presented their show at the Officers' Club at Fort Monmouth, N.J. during the months of November and December, 1967, and were especially received to perform there on New Year's Eve.

Their unique sound has also been heard at Seton Hall (where they are regulars), Fairleigh Dickinson, The Thristy Bar coffee house, the N.J. Teachers' Rights Rally, Raynedge Junior High School, and several charity and political affairs.

The Trio plans to be busy this semester also. They have performances planned for Seton Hall, the Old Mill in Tinton Falls, N.J., Saint Benedict's High School in Newark, Alley Club, Title I concerts in the Newark school system, a return to the Officers Club at Fort Monmouth, and of course, their radio show on WVMS from 6 to 7 P.M. on WVMS.

IT'S YOUR SGA

We are often quick to criticize non-fulfillment of our expectations but fail to give credit where credit is due. The FOUR TOPS concert given by C.L.U.B. was an asset to the activities program here at MSC and a financial boost by the Co-op in the purchase of a lighting system for MSC before the close of the academic year.

Do you remember those night-time football games without lights, those hot and sticky night-time football games without lights, those hot and sticky nights, those hot and sticky nights, those hot and sticky years of approved full-time attendance and benefits may be paid for the month of September in addition, a student is deemed to be in full-time attendance and benefits may be paid for him for a period of up to 5 months of non-attendance (for example, during a summer vacation period) if:

Typographical errors are, perhaps, one of the most frustrating things to journalists—be they amateur or professionals. Of course, there is a lot of value in sharing a lot of share of typos for since we’re not as perfect as Editor Janet we would have us believe.

Development Continues for College Union Building

The College Development Fund is a college-sponsored organization established to encourage donations and contributions from private and public sources to advance building projects at MSC. Established in the late 1950’s, it seeks to supplement state funds by providing those extras which are necessary for a quality education.

From inception it has been the purpose of the organization to encourage donations of all phases of a college education. From the beginning, it has been the policy of the fund to give attention to the improvement of various aspects of the college experience. To date, Moncalcor’s need for a larger center-art gallery to be included in the College Development Fund is centered upon a theme on which the fund is currently seeking contributions. The gallery will be used to supplement those state arts funds. The money collected for this purpose is being approached for pledging by one foundation and others are being approached for pledges.

The development of the fund is being done in conjunction with the College Union Building. The Board of Trustees is now actively seeking contributions, state aid, necessary for a quality education. The College Union Building will become a reality for a prospective 5000 Montclair State students.

CONTINUING EFFORTS

The College Development Fund is continuing its effort and seeks to aid in the college in many ways, including the sponsoring of scholarships, lectures and building projects. The organization, composed of faculty, students and interested citizens, strives constantly to provide that margin for excellence. With prospective contributions, state aid and architectural plans, the College Union Building will soon become a reality for a prospective 5000 Montclair State students.

Montessori Techniques Defined In Lecture

By BARBARA SCHUBEL

Joe had always been happy to see if there was a school for the disabled. Then one day, to the surprise of his parents, Joe gets up all by himself, fixes his own breakfast, packs a lunch and leaves for school early. Does this sound like a strange new illness? This is an example of what can happen in the Montessori method of education.

The Montessori method of education is aimed at individualizing the student’s education. The Montessori method works for a coordination of the mind and body. Montessori feels that the pure intellect is a cripple. All that parents can do in education and body. Montessori feels that the pure intellect is a cripple. All that parents can do in education is to give a complete money back guarantee: If after following instructions faithfully you are not satisfied, your money will be refunded.

Protestants Hold Seminar

Montclair’s Protestant Student Council held its first meeting of the spring semester on Feb. 8 and Feb. 12 to formulate the Protestant Foundation’s program of activities for the semester.

With Chaplain John D. Hart in the presidency, the council first outlined plans for the activity it sponsored last semester, a weekly vespers service. Worship will be held every Wednesday from 5:30-5:50 P.M. in the Alumni Lounge.

There will be folk and hymn singing, prayers and responses, all centered upon a theme on which Rev. Harms and assistant chaplain Ran Bynum will speak. Council members, Jane Bogosian, Winnie Tarakjian and Roger White are the organizing committee for the services. All are welcome to attend.

The group also discussed an upcoming retreat, to take place on March 29-31. It will again be held at St. Margaretre’s Retreat Center in Mendenh., N. J. Various proposals for a theme were discussed, dealing with the Christian faith as it applies to contemporary concerns.

In another area, freshmen members of the council also decided to have signs, announcements and a plaque for the Life Hall bulletin board made. Discussion of on-campus movies in cooperation with the Newman Committee is also in the plans. The council spent, and will continue to spend, the last half hour of its meetings in Bible study and discussion.

Rev. Harms announces that his hours in the Chaplain’s Office in Room 215 of College Hall will be from 4-10 P.M. on Wednesdays and from 1-3 P.M. on Fridays. Mr. Bynum’s hours have not yet been scheduled.
are your contact lenses more work than they're worth?

If you're tired of using two or more separate solutions to take care of your contact lenses, you may have the solution. It's Lensine the all-purpose lens solution for complete contact lens care—preparing, cleaning, and soaking. It's just a drop or two of Lensine before you insert your contacts coats and lubricates the lens surface making it smoother and non-irritating. Cleaning your contacts with Lensine relays the buildup of foreign deposits on the lens. Lensine is sterile, self-sanitizing, and antiseptic making it ideal for between wearings or when storage of your lenses between wearings.

With Lensine, a removable storage of your lenses, you get a convenient way of storing your lenses between wearing periods. And you get a removable storage case on the bottle to prevent contamination. This is a sure cause of eye irritation and could seriously endanger vision.

Lensine exclusive for Bacteria cannot grow in proper lens hygiene. It is Lensine. Caring for contact lenses can be as convenient as wearing them with Lensine, from the Murine Company, Inc.

Shapira and Tagami Highlight Concert

The Baltimore Symphony Orchestra will present a concert in Memorial Auditorium, Montclair State College on Monday, March 11, at 8:30 P.M., under the auspices of the college's Music Organizations Commission.

The 90-member orchestra, which was founded in 1914 as an agency of the Maryland city, will feature piano soloist Hisako Tagami and will be under the baton of associate conductor, Elyakum Shapira.

Hailed as one of America's most masterful young conductors, Mr. Shapira studied at Juilliard School of Music and early in his career conducted at Tanglewood. In 1960-61, as assistant conductor of the New York Philharmonic, he substituted for the ailing Leonard Bernstein and was so well received that Bernstein himself invited him to tour with the orchestra and conduct concerts in Japan and Canada.

Mr. Shapira's outstanding participation in the first Ford Foundation American Conductors Project brought him to the attention of the Baltimore Symphony, and he has been closely associated with it ever since.

Faculty and students at the college will be given first choice of seats, free of charge, upon presentation of season pass or SGA card at the box office before the evening of the performance. If any are left, they will be made available to the public at the door at $3.00 each.

Women Fencers Pursue Foil Crown

With its victorious over Cornell University, Fairleigh Dickinson University (Teaneck) and Rochester Institute of Technology, Montclair's women's fencing team has great potential for capturing this year's intercollegiate trophy. Varsity members Barbara Berte, Evelyn Haase, Nancy Miraldi, and Karen Van Bavel have been practicing diligently since September in hopes of a good season.

DISTANCE ANSWER

Doctors who specialize in back troubles report most aching backs are due to weak, tense muscles which can go into painful spasm as you suddenly bend, stretch or twist. To relieve such backache doctors recommend the pain-relief compound in Anacin® Analgesic Tablets. And Anacin gives you more of this medication than any other leading tablet.

Anacin is a special fortified formula. It promptly relieves pain, helps reduce swollen tissues, and so relieves pressure on sensitive back nerves. Then notice how stiff muscles loosen up and you move around with greater ease.

Only Anacin has this special fortified formula. It's not found in any other product. See if Anacin's exclusive formula doesn't work better for you.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE STUDENT BODY OF MONTCLEAR STATE COLLEGE

The Montclair Judo Club is seeking to extend its appreciation to the student body for their local support. Their support and attendance have been a big help to us this year. Never before has the student body of Montclair State supported a Montclair team with such enthusiasm and devotion. The players on the team and those connected with it have tried to bring to Montclair State the prestige it well deserves.

The college is growing rapidly, and its athletics just as fast. There are fine coaches and facilities that are available, but the success lies in the performers. At Montclair the caliber of athletes has developed extensively so that winning is becoming a habit, a habit we hope will take root.

A large part of winning is the support supplied by the student body. The players know when the fans are cheering and when they are not, and this is greatly appreciated.

The basketball team is out there to win and the students come to see us win so we try our best not to let them down. We on the team feel that the spirit our fans possess was displayed perfectly on Feb. 13 at Trenton State College. After suffering a heart-breaking loss the team left the gymnasium dejected. Outside there could be heard the roar of the fans chanting, "We're still number 1." We feel this way too, and we plan to prove it. We are confident of your support and the spirit you have exemplified. Again, the coach, Mr. Gelston, and the basketball team wish to extend its gratitude to a great student body.
