Campus Robberies
Net $325 in Cash

By DAVID M. LEVINE

A series of two robberies with losses totaling nearly $325 was discovered on Life Hall on Mon.
month, Oct. 28.

According to SGA treasurer Stan
Jakubik, the total loss amounting to $240 from a CINA-sponsored dance was on the CINA-VWMS office in Memorial Auditorium on Sun., Oct. 27. CINA chairman Fran Cripps was not available for comment.

In an incident earlier, Mrs. Doris Asdal, director of the Faculty-Student Cooperative, reported that $82 in cash was stolen from a locked cabinet in the CINA office, however, the cabinet filters were still open. "Fingerprints were smudged and could not be deciphered," claimed the SGA treasurer.

In a letter to the editor of the MONTCLARION, CINA chairman Joyce Shuback, a senior English major, who resides in Webster Hall, wrote: "The freshman class is desirous of having some kind of Black History Program and continues to protest the '72 Homecoming theme, 'MSC: Yesterday, Today, and Tomorrow.'"

The MAGNIFICENT MEN, a rock-soul music group, will perform in concert tonight at 8 p.m. This is one of the highlights of the MSC Homecoming weekend. At 10:30 p.m., the Homecoming parade begins at 2 a.m. and continues until 1 a.m. tomorrow. The parade will be the marching of the nationally famous MUCHACHOS DRUM AND BUGLE CORPS. The parade will begin today from the CINA office, however, the cabinet filters were still open. "Fingerprints were smudged and could not be deciphered," claimed the SGA treasurer.

The "Meet the Greeks" dance held in September was so successful that Sprague Library has received a donation of $385 from the proceeds. The Inter-fraternity and Inter-sorority councils of MSC sponsored the affair as a first annual joint venture. This donation has set a precedent for the following "Meet the Greeks" dances. Each year the profits will be donated to the library for a different area.

Neither Joan McCafferty, president of ISC, or Kurt Epps, president of IFC, expected such a large turnout for the dance. Over 600 people attended. The two organizations decided to do something with the extra money that would show that the Greeks want to benefit the campus. The library was chosen because it would immediately benefit the entire college. They contacted Dr. John Beard, representing the donation.

This year, the $385 will be used to buy books in the field of English. Joan and Kurt said that English was chosen because it is a broad field that everyone could profit from, even non-majors.

Dr. Beard estimated that the money will buy approximately 75 volumes. He stated that perhaps they will be books not usually bought with regular budget funds. Miss Gibson, library science coordinator, will work with Joan and Kurt in the selection.

The "Meet the Greeks" dance is to give them the opportunity to explain the problems which face the teachers. He believes that local control tends to encourage racism and provincialism, but parents should influence curriculum and have an effective complaint board through which grievances can be redressed.

In order to solve the Ocean Hill-Brownsville conflicts of tomorrow, Americans had better look at the poverty today.

Curriculum Changes'

Dr. Weller hopes that Proposal One will be in effect by the spring semester. Proposals Two through Five by next fall. The "College within a College" should be reality by 1970. Dr. Weller hopes that these innovations will "make education more relevant to the individual student." He urges the student body to use the following book to indicate which proposals the majority supports.

"Soul," says Claude Brown, "is a trumpet wail. Soul is a city street filled with sight and sound — polymorphies of people doing their own thing. Soul is honest self-expression. It has no color barriers, but it seems to come more naturally to blacks.

And expression of soul is what the curriculum proposals are all about. They give students a chance to develop a major while still in high school. This proposal could possibly give students up to three college years to decide.

The establishment of a "College within a College." A special group of faculty and students will stay together all four years. Students will participate in the planning of courses, and the courses will be flexible enough to change upon student request.

Dr. Shanker agreed that the strike was a drastic measure. He believes that local control tends to encourage racism and provincialism, but parents should influence curriculum and have an effective complaint board through which grievances can be redressed.

In order to solve the Ocean Hill-Brownsville conflicts of tomorrow, Americans had better look at the poverty today.
Faculty Student Co-op
Innovates Fishbowl

By COLLEEN DELANEY

Do you ever get hungry between classes? Do you ever want to buy a magazine, cigarettes or just a piece of bubble gum? Well, if you have been answering yes, maybe the “new” Fishbowl in Life Hall will appease your needs.

The Fishbowl is the faculty-student Co-op sponsored store, which was recently reconstructed and now sells a variety of products. “We have 43 brands of cigarettes, over 50 varieties of candy, with 11 magazines and THE NEW YORK TIMES,” explained a store employee.

Mrs. Jean Heke, supervisor, commented “PLAYBOY Magazine and Marlboro cigarettes seem to be leading in sales right now, but each day the sales increase in all items. The students seem to be responding well.” We have an energetic and hard-working bunch of students working for us too.” The 12 student employees are paid through the profits of the store.

Mr. Jon McErney, the director of Life Hall, pointed out that the objective of the Fishbowl is “service to the students and the faculty. The new Fishbowl will enable students and faculty to buy cigarettes and candy more conveniently rather than having to go two or three miles to a store,” Mr. McErney concluded.

The Fishbowl is open every day from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m. except on Sunday where there are tentative plans for the store remaining open during brunch. Suggestions for keeping the Fishbowl open during plays and lectures that take place at night are also being considered.

WHY DOES NEW JERSEY SEND SO MANY COLLEGE STUDENTS TO OTHER STATES?

Three of the four public questions on the ballot in New Jersey this year deal with borrowing for various bond issues. The first would authorize almost $338-million in borrowing for various public questions. The second would authorize an additional $288-million in borrowing for various public questions. The third would authorize an additional $200-million in borrowing for various public questions. The fourth would authorize an additional $150-million in borrowing for various public questions.

THE SAME OLD SONG

The topic of apathy has been so over-used at every college, junior or megaverse, that students are becoming apathetic to the problem itself and are turning apathetic even in that case where the term is mentioned. Therefore, this editorial about apathy will no longer contain the term.

Whenever an individual, or in this case, a group does try to express an opinion on campus, he is inevitably met with some success, but just as large an amount of apathy. A witness to this react is a sample of students; however small the sample was, the recent MONTCLARION mock election in which Pat Paulsen was declared the winner, however small the sample, was the recent MONTCLARION mock election in which Pat Paulsen was declared the winner.

The number of people who voted for Pat Paulsen, Mrs. Prannis (a member of the faculty), Anita Rosebury (whoever she is), Snoopy and Tiny Tim was not a laughing matter. Many also wrote that they could express no opinion for various reasons, a viewpoint which must be respected for its forthrightness. However, to make a mockery even in a "mock" election of decisions which could affect the future of the entire nation is a display of apathy in its worst sense.

MSC students are urged to search their consciences and to make a real decision when the right time comes.

STANDING ROOM ONLY?

There is a policy existing on the MSC campus in reference to reserved seating at certain events held in Memorial Auditorium. The first three rows of the orchestra section are always held for faculty, administration and their guests throughout the entire performance. This policy also exists at concerts held in Panzer gym and also permits club members to have special seating arrangements.

We question this policy since it has been shown that many seats are often left empty throughout various performances.

Why should a student be refused seating in an available front row seat because it is being saved "in case" an administrator comes? If a student is willing to come an hour or more before performance time to gain a good seat, he should be able to get one.

If certain MSC "traditions" violently prohibit the complete abandonment of this policy, certain alternatives are suggested. Perhaps one row of seats, not three rows, be available for faculty and administration to reserve seats prior to a performance so an exact number of seats and not "three rows" can be reserved.

We are now in the process of distributing a "tentative statement of policies and goals." The document has been sent to all faculty members; it is posted on most bulletin boards; it can be borrowed from the reserve desk of the library; and we hope to have it published in the next issue of the MONTCLARION. It represents a synthesis of discussions running back to the original Tuxedo Park Conference and culminating in intensive discussions during the end of the last college year and this semester.

The reason for distributing this document at this time is to give everyone adequate time to react to it. We will be one of the main items for discussion at the November 21-22 meeting of the Faculty Council, Administrative Council and student leaders. As a preface to that meeting the groups at the next regular faculty meeting (Nov. 12) will also have an opportunity to discuss this document. You may also want to talk personally with some of the faculty members or student representatives about your reactions.

None of the concepts contained in this paper will be finalized without further discussion, but we do need to move ahead in developing our long range goals. Your personal opportunity to influence these goals, therefore, will be in proportion to the amount of time you manage to spend on this proposal and in reacting to it. Even recognizing how busy we all are, there is no single task which will affect the future of this college more vitally than the outcome of these studies.

I would like to thank and commend the many individuals and groups who have worked hard to produce this statement. It is my opinion that it generally reflects the direction in which we should be moving. In this document we are trying to lay the groundwork for major growth rather than attempting to solve all of the problems which will emerge during the process of that growth.

We now have a great opportunity to discover a new level of service to the State of New Jersey and to build Montclair into a new educational-intellectual center in the State.

Letters To The Editor

The MONTCLARION requests that all submissions to this page be kept to 260 words. Typed letters get first preference.

Editors Note: The editors are sorry that Dr. King has not mentioned the MONTCLARION article on the appropriation of tuition monies. We did not state that the tuition monies were being used to subsidize the TRY program. In fact, the MONTCLARION gave extended coverage to the TRY program last spring and it was stated at that time in the MONTCLARION (April 5, 1968) that funds for TRY would not come from the tuition fees of the student body. The MONTCLARION has editorially endorsed the TRY program and we again reaffirm our support for programs of this type.

TO LEARN NOT TO BURN

To the Editor:

Upon entering our senior year at Montclair State College we have noticed a student trend which greatly disturbs us. This has been brought to light by a number of articles which appeared in the MONTCLARION. Several of these articles dealt with the purported apathetic and indifferent attitude of Montclair students. We must agree with this if you call apathetic students those who do not occupy building, parade around in ridiculous costumes and conspire to overthrow the government of the United States with guerrilla tactics.

Behind the mask of liberalism, radical attitudes can be seen forming which may have grave repercussions in the future. This is obvious when one reads articles in the MONTCLARION, such as "Intellectualism? Not Here Frosh," which pokes fun at "students who display the American flag on their cars" in a sarcastic manner.

We believe that a college campus is a place for learning, not burning. There is no need for causing trouble at Montclair, which has always fostered an academic atmosphere. One Columbia is enough; let's keep the radicals out of Montclair State so we can be proud of our alma mater.

CINA THIEF

On Sunday, Oct. 27, a thief or thieves broke into the CINA/WMS office in Memorial Auditorium Lobby and stole a strongbox containing $240. This money had been collected by the CINA Biafra Relief Committee and was to be sent to UNICEF in New York so that food could be purchased for the starving masses of Biafra. Because this money was stolen, thousands of Biafrans will die this week.

Owls Down MSC, 36-10 Halfback Friary Stars

By MIKE GALOS

Led by the spectacular running of senior halfback Brian Friary, Southern Connecticut State College defeated the Indians of Montclair State last Saturday, 36-10, in an Eastern Football Conference game at New Haven, Conn.

The Owls jumped off to a quick 12-0 lead on touchdown runs of 6 yards by halfback Vin Russo and 1 yard by Dan Nolan, the quarterback.

That lead dwindled to 12-7 when southern quarterback Bernt Schultz capped a 24 yard drive with a 4 yard TD run around right end and Dan Rodgers added the extra point. The touchdown was set up by a pass interception by Indian linebacker Frank Williams.

After Montclair’s touchdown, Friary took over. He scored from 1 yard out with 1:08 left in the first half, 27 seconds later, after Schultz had been intercepted by linebacker Frank Lauria, he went 29 yards to a TD, twisting, squirming and breaking tackles along the way. Mr. Friary added a 66 yard touchdown run early in the third quarter and for the day carried the ball 20 times for 148 yards and three touchdowns. Montclair State’s only other score came on a 28 yard third quarter field goal by Dan Rodgers.

Alert defense paid off for southern Connecticut as their defenders picked off 4 MSC aerials and two fumbles recovered.

The Indians head into their Homecoming clash against Trenton State Saturday night with an overall record of two wins and four losses, 1-2 in the conference. Trenton Southern completes the conference with a 3-0-1 record, 3-2-1 overall, the tie coming at the hands of Trenton State.

Montclair First—Football Championships Under Lights

Agora and Gamma Delta Chi, a pair of explosive powerhouses, are headed for an archlight showdown after each rolled to victories in the Intramural Football Semi-finals. The two will meet on Mon., Nov. 4 at 8 p.m. in the first night intramural football game in the history of Montclair State to determine the grid Champion. Tau Lambda Beta and Lambda Chi Delta for third place honors in the preliminary contest beginning at 6 p.m.

Agora, led by Bill Vrecenak’s three second half touchdown interceptions, coasted to an easy 27-2’ win over a TAB team which came up flat for the finals. All three TAU Lambda Beta’s were trailed in the game from the opening play when halfback, 27 seconds later, after Schultz pass had been intercepted by linebacker Frank Lauria, he went 29 yards to a TD, twisting, squirming and breaking tackles along the way. Mr. Friary added a 66 yard touchdown run early in the third quarter and for the day carried the ball 20 times for 148 yards and three touchdowns. Montclarion newsmakers are a fast track on their way to grid, with another season coming to a close. One of collegiate sports most popular events, the final round of the Intramural Football Championship ends this week.

In the team’s most recent meet before publication Bernie Terrill from Montomny College tripped the Indians by a 17-38 score. The best Montclair could do was a fourth place finish by Hibbs. Montclair also had the final four places. The loss to Monomomy was the seventh this season with five meets left to go, including the NAIA championships Nov. 9.

Though Dr. Horn may be going through some of his three of four seasons at Montclair, he is anxiously anticipating the 1969 season, when the Montclair cross-country team is once again expected to be at the top.

Soccer Team Defeats CCNY, Paterson State

By KEN TECZA

The soccer team continued on its winning ways this past week with victories over City College of New York, 2-1 and Paterson State, 3-1. coach Leonard Lucenko, “rose to the occasion” against the New York school.

Montclair goals were scored by Jay Gavitt and John Smith. Joe Salami did an excellent job on defense.

The Indians’ next foe, Paterson State, was again a winning effort but was somewhat of a letdown after the CCNY game. The three Indians who were able to beat Pioneer goalie Tom Dilly were John Smith, Jack Banks and Jay Gavitt.

So far the Indians seem to play their best game against tough competition. With lesser opponents, (Paterson State), the Indians showed their overconfidence by taking some wild shots. Coach Lucenko feels the team must be consistent against all opponents and while this may be difficult it is essential in winning.

The Indian’s next opponent, Fairleigh Dickinson, will provide plenty of good competition with the Indians looking for their sixth win against only one loss.
