The attitude of MSC professors towards students’ cutting classes varies to extremes. Although some strictly adhere to the generally accepted cut standard of one cut per semester hour and lower a student’s grade for excessive cutting, many professors are quite liberal and, like Dr. Brantl, “don’t police it.”

Dean Lawton Blanton seemed to have a similarly liberal attitude toward cutting, preferring to leave it up to the student, although not wanting to abandon a cut limit altogether. He appeared pessimistic about the possibility of establishing any kind of standard cut system whether lenient or strict. As he pointed out, it is completely up to each individual professor to grade as he wishes, and whether or not he considers cutting in the grade is up to the student, although not necessarily the professor himself. "Don’t put up with the ‘move toward power is anti-intellectual,’" especially within the context of economies where some believe that "the more power the greater the share."

He also felt that there must be a "self-discipline of faculty power" now that they would self-police other faculty. He was cautious, however, about the possibility that student and faculty power might clash.

Professors of the council’s formation were represented by the Association of New Jersey College Faculty, an offspring of the New Jersey Education Association. The new federation is affiliated with the American Federation of Teachers, a member of the AFL-CIO.

The Advisory Council is composed of 10 members drawn from various North Jersey communities including Newark. Serving as the chairman of the council is Dr. C. Davis, president of the Riverton Laboratories of Newark.

Dr. Richardson Announces Set-Up of University Advisory Council

In what is believed to be a first for colleges or universities in the New York-New Jersey metropolitan area, Montclair State College has established an Advisory Council on Urban Minority Affairs. Announcement of the council’s formation was made by Dr. Thomas H. Richardson, president of the college. Dr. Richardson is optimistic that the newly formed Advisory Council will provide added insight into the problems of minority youth and the role which Montclair State College should perform in confronting these problems. "...the Montclair State College academic community recognizes the magnitude and depth of the urban situation and the myriad social problems that beset communities in America. It wishes to serve all communities, including the subcommunities in the urban sector largely neglected or not correctly understood until now."

The Advisory Council is composed of 10 members drawn from various North Jersey communities including Newark. Serving as the chairman of the council is Dr. C. Davis, president of the Riverton Laboratories of Newark.

Seniors Receive 'Who's Who' Honor

Twenty Montclair State College seniors have been selected to be listed among those in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges for 1968-1969. Those elected students are:

- Rosanne Bostoon, Luther Bowen, Janet Caruso, Robert Cottingham, John Dennis, Janice Dime, Lee Donow, Kurt Eppe, David Fog, Robert Hilbenbrand, James Hoyt, Harry Kuhn, Paul Lay, Bonnie Manzani, Terry McGlinchey, Lois Nack, Andrew Patera, Thomas Stephonick, Nadine Udall and Don Ushbrooke.

Selection has been based on scholarship, leadership, community service and personal qualities. The number of seniors selected is determined by the percentage of the college’s total enrollment of the college.

Professors of the Who’s Who members and their major activities at MSC can be found on page seven.

Mc Coy to Lecture

Brownsville Leader To Speak Nov. 19

Rhody A. McCoy, controversial unit supervisor of New York City’s Ocean-Hill Brownsville school district, will be a guest speaker at Montclair State College. Mr. McCoy will be on stage in Memorial Auditorium on the evening of Nov. 19, at 8 p.m.

He will be joined by James O’Neill, recently dismissed vice-president of the United Federation of Teachers. Allen participants in the discussion will be one of the teachers currently employed by the Ocean-Hill Brownsville district.

All three individuals are directors of journalism in areas which has closed down the New York City school system three times this fall. The discussion centers on the attempt to decentralize the city’s school system. The Ocean-Hill Brownsville district, of which Mr. McCoy is supervisor, was set up as an experimental district in which to test the theory of decentralization. As such, it has become the center of a conflict involving the United Federation of Teachers, the mayor’s office, and the parents and teachers of the district itself. The controversy has aroused the attention of the entire country. It is of particular interest to Montclair students, since many of them are preparing to enter the teaching profession.

In light of this interest, College Life Union Board recently invited Mr. Albert Shanker, president of the United Federation of Teachers, to speak on campus. Mr. McKnight, director of CLUB, reported that “Mr. McCoy was contacted by CLUB immediately following Mr. Shanker’s appearance.” It is stated that the objective was “to present several additional points of view to the college community.”

Mr. McKnight said that the program for that night will be similar to that of Mr. Shanker’s. Although the three participants undoubtedly have slightly different points of view, there will be no debating of the issues. They will simply state their opinions and answer questions. The lecture will be free of charge.

The NJCPA is an organization of college publications, including quarterlies and newspapers. The NJCPA holds four conferences a year. In part of an expansion program, articles from one college publication can be passed through NJCPA to another college without going through the normal red tape of such transaction.

Each meeting of the council is attended by faculty and student members and their major activities at MSC can be found on page seven.
Girls Committee Formed
To Change Dorm Regulations

By CHRIS MAC MURRAY

"Dorm rules are too restrictive," declared Mary Jean Agnew, chairman of the sub-committee which was formed this semester to accomplish a revamping of the women's dorm regulations. "A committee was formed last year for the same purpose," continued Mary Jean, "but the girls lost their enthusiasm and nothing materialized. This semester we hope to be effective."

The sub-committee was initiated by dorm-council which is the governing body of the women's dormitories. The committee consists of one representative for each dorm, one resident assistant, one desk assistant, one student from Chico State and one student who has been to Chico.

"Even though we have designated specific members of the sub-committee, anyone interested may attend meetings or offer recommendations," asserted the sub-committee, anyone interested may attend meetings or offer recommendations. "We are open to suggestions." Meetings are held on Thursday evenings.

'La Campana'

Editors Chosen

Nikki Relo and Greg Studerus, both juniors, have been elected co-editors of the 1970 yearbook, LA CAMPANA.

Dave Fogel, editor of the present yearbook has explained that "Unlike the other publications, the yearbook runs from the spring of one year to the spring of the next due to an early publishing deadline. In reality the editors have to be planning the 1970 yearbook right now."

Both Nikki, a math major, and Greg, a fine arts major, have plans to continue Dave's work by furthering student interest in the yearbook. They feel that student participation can be encouraged by improving the image of the book.

Combining their administrative experience and creative talent respectively, Nikki and Greg hope to "psych" their staff and the student body to alleviate "just a little" of the much discussed apathy on campus.

The sub-committee organized a general meeting some weeks ago open to all women residents, the aim of which was to elicit the over-all opinion of the girls as to what changes in dorm regulations they feel should be made. Following the general meeting, the committee set to work writing to various colleges and universities in the East to procure information concerning the dorm regulations of other schools. Fourteen colleges promptly sent women's dorm booklets back to the sub-committee. Comparatively, MSC is moderately conservative, having a system of dorm rules which is more liberal than that of the other N.J. State schools, but not as liberal as that of many colleges and universities in this area.

As it now stands, the MSC women residents are compelled to be in the dorm by 11 p.m. on weekdays, 12 midnight on Sundays and 2 a.m. on weekends. A limited amount of late hours and overnights are allowed. The girls receive points for breaking dorm rules, and an accumulation of eight points requires that a resident be asked to leave. "Besides more liberal curfews, we are working to eliminate the point system," Mary Jean alleged.

One suggestion that has been made concerning the revamping of dorm policy is the possibility of a key system. This system would provide each girl with a non-transferable key to the dorm, to be used should a student return after the dorms are locked.

Another possibility is the institution of a policy whereby senior women would have no curfews, and underclassmen would be guided by a much more liberal policy. Some students feel that the senior women should occupy a separate dorm, with a separate set of dorm regulations. These and other suggestions have been submitted to the women residents in the form of a questionnaire.

As soon as the committee has formulated recommendations concerning the revamping of dorm policy, taking into consideration all the suggestions that have been made by interested parties, these recommendations will be submitted to the administration for approval.

Why does a perfect size 7 look perfect only 21 days every month?

It has nothing to do with calories. It's a special female weight gain... caused by temporary water-weight build-up. Oh, you know... that uncomfortable full feeling that sneaks up on you the week before your menstrual period. This fluid retention not only plays havoc with your looks but how you feel as well.

(I puts pressure on delicate nerves and can even lead to pre-menstrual cramps and headaches, leaves emotions on edge.)

That's why so many women take PAMPIN®.

It gently relieves water-weight gain to help prevent pre-menstrual puffiness, tension, and pressure-caused cramps.

PAMPIN makes sure a perfect size 7 never looks less than perfect. Nor feels less than perfect, either.
"In the scholarly and academic world, plagiarism is almost worse than murder," commented Dr. Allan Morehead, dean of MSC, referring to the statement on plagiarism which was released from his office recently.

The statement which contains footnoted definitions of plagiarism and outlines proper annotation, formalizes the steps which will be taken if a student plagiarizes. Depending on the gravity of the incident, the accused student may receive an "F" in the course involved with the offense, a grade of WP (withdraw-pass) in all other courses being taken at the time of suspension or expulsion. All procedures will be recorded in the student's permanent files.

While commenting on plagiarism, Dr. James T. Mehorter of the education department recalled an incident when he was dean of Berkshire Community College in Berkshire, Virginia. Dr. Mehorter expelled an undergraduate for plagiarism. But as he has thought about the situation since that time, he now feels that he should have investigated the instructor and the course requirements rather than expel the student outright.

Dr. Mehorter went on to explain "plagiarism is a perquisite for originality" in that "writers develop their own style through imitation and emulation of others." He continued, saying that, "a student must have intrinsic motivation, that is, personal meaning, personal value and personal purpose in the subject material," and that this is too infrequent with the type of assignment in which the student has no choice over the subject with which he is dealing.

The well-known psychologist admitted that some students have never developed integrity and that these students could probably never stop plagiarizing. However, "we can cut down dishonesty and abuse remarks when he checked guards, Cyril Ewing, complained and personal conflicts. One of the students forced Dr. Beard, in March of 1967, to request that a barrier between the students and the library be built. New guards are being hired.

The Montclarion published a picture which showed how easily books could be smuggled out of the library. Fortunately, by that time a security system had been decided upon, and guards were in the process of being hired.

Dr. John Beard, head librarian at Sprague, does not like the idea of guards. He feels that guards put a barrier between the students and the library. However, the threats and pressures from frustrated students forced Dr. Beard, in March of 1967, to request that funds be made available for the hiring of guards. Approval of the guards came through the following March.

One of the student influences on Dr. Beard was a student committee composed of members of the Dean's Student Advisory Board. This group, advised by Richard Tishbul of the student personnel office, conducted a two-year survey of security systems at other libraries. In the spring of 1967, this committee urged Dr. Beard to hire guards.

The first two guards hired for Sprague have left because of job and personal conflicts. One of the guards, Cyril Ewing, complained that the students made snide and abusive remarks when he checked their books and briefcases, although this was not his stated reason for leaving. New guards are being hired.

Sprague Library does not presently have funds to conduct a book inventory. Therefore, it is difficult to tell how effective the guards are. Fred Hershey, associate librarian, is confident that the guards will prove an efficient deterrent. Mr. Hershey also added, "If a student cannot get certain books which he needs he is getting less than full value out of his education."

One college does more than broaden horizons. It aims to, them, and beyond.

Now there's a way for you to know the world around you first-hand. A way to see the things you've read about, and study you go. The way is a college that uses the Pantheon as a classroom for a lecture on Greece, and illustrates Hong Kong's floating societies with an hour's ride on a harbor sloop. Every year Chapman College's World Campus Afloat takes two groups of 500 students out of their classrooms and out into the world for them. And you can be one of the 500. Your new campus is the s.s. Ryndam, equipped with modern educational facilities and a fine faculty. You'll have a complete study curriculum as you go. And earn a fully-accredited semester while at sea.

Chapman College is now accepting enrollments for Spring '69 and Fall '69 semesters. Spring '69 circles the world, from Los Angeles through the Orient, India, South Africa, to New York. Fall '69 leaves New York for Europe, the Mediterranean, Africa, South America, ending in Los Angeles.

The world is there. Here's a good reason for you to find out what's happening. Send for our catalog, with the coupon at right.

Safety Information: The s.s. Ryndam, registered in the Netherlands, meets International Safety Standards for new ships developed in 1948 and meets 1966 fire safety requirements.

ADVICE TO ADVISERS

The current policy of faculty advisers at MSC demands revision. As evidenced in past years, many students neither know nor believe that their advisers are nor what their function is. It is a rare student who regularly visits the office of his adviser to seek information concerning course requirements and/or departmental offerings. However, when a student does seek such help, he is often discouraged by the recognition that even his adviser is unable to counsel him adequately.

This lack of knowledge on the part of faculty advisers may be attributed to a general lack of communication between department chairmen and faculty. This assumes, therefore, that department chairmen already possess the necessary skill and knowledge to pass on to members of their department. At present, there are two qualified individuals, Miss Marie Frazee and Mr. Edwin Mills, who possess the necessary training and knowledge to perform the counseling services for students. But to just how many students can two people talk and help?

The MONTCLARION requests a re-evaluation of the adviser policy while suggesting two alternate proposals: 1) to do away completely with the current policy and to hire more qualified individuals. This would cost not any more dearly than the present system of paying advisers for sitting and knowledge to pass on to members of their department. PASSPORT APPLICATIONS

To the Editor:

Every spring the Passport Office is flooded with passport applicants. It is during these peak times, when lines grow longer and applicants appear at the passport agencies around the country and at the post offices of the U.S. Customs, that we accept passport applications. The volume becomes so heavy at times that we can no longer fulfill our normal schedule of issuing passports within three to five days. It is during this peak period that we are always required to work overtime which is always required to work more efficiently, and reduce the waiting time of both the applicants and the clerks. This will help in leveling the burden of receipt of applications in the months of October, November, December, and January.

If you will help us get the word out and convince teachers and students to avoid long lines and travel delays, we will notify the Passport Agencies and Clerks of Court, you will be helping them, as we are.

ANTI-MONTCLARION

To the Editor:

I have been reading a great deal of anti-SDS propaganda in the MONTCLARION, letters and articles written by students who think that SDS solves "all and any problems." I am a student who think that the SDS "conspires to overthrow the government of the United States." The reason is simple: I think that Woodrow Wilson even went so far as to write that some students at Columbia were "merely interested in getting an easy A.

Number one, I wouldn't worry about the MSC student body burning incense, yet alone buildings. Secondly, much of Columbia (one school on which the students set out to be like the whole SDS concept) and Columbia's episodes were minimized to a small scale; Politics is the real story of what took place. Thirdly, I think it almost amounts to a criminal offense for students to be "merely" interested in getting an easy A.

I do not think there is an echo of the administration. I also understand two people write the editor-in-chief and managing editor's column, and I do not think that they condone anything that appears in the MONTCLARION. However, the column is likely sympathetic to the Marxists, which I find disturbing.

In the MONTCLARION of Nov. 8, 1968, the magazine section contained a most disturbing criticism of Essex County College. There was an article about a concerts featuring "Marxist" progressive concerts. The topic is not to be mentioned in a college newspaper. The article was a misleading attempt to wrong the students and families of students who are "black" and do not have the ability to think for themselves.

MONTCLARION reporters write articles about an "undemocratic SDS." Remember anyone can regurgitate; few can think.

MONTCLARION

The MONTCLARION requests that all submissions to this column be limited to 250 words. Typed letters get first consideration.

Views expressed in these letters do not necessarily reflect those of the editorial board.

EDITORS NOTE: Editorial are written by two people - the editor-in-chief and managing editor. All editorial correspondence is based on the c o n s t i t u t i o n of the MONTCLARION. However, the column is likely sympathetic to the Marxists, which I find disturbing. The MONTCLARION student cannot even enter the snack bar anymore to have a cup of coffee or coke in peace, or to hold a conversation with a fellow student? Why? Because he is subjected to the ignorance and gross antics and bad intentions of the great men of Agora.

I am not condemning formal education, in which we carry on with pledging in a fun way, and they are on the whole, not annoying to other students. As far as I know, they keep it clean. Not Agora! If I "Want To Know" what Agora is all about, I would like to try singing entertainment for the normal students in the snack bar, and that is why I asked someone to tell me to grow up.

MICHELLE LUNCHICK

Dear Agora:

The postulate assumed in the act of negative criticism is that education has no influence on the students' way of life. For one to criticize the laxy of his neighbor's tree, is to neglect the cleaning of his own kitchen. In fact, for the full effect of his betterment, one must attend to the cleaning of his own kitchen. As a result to the full effect of his betterment, one must attend to the cleaning of his own kitchen. As a result of his betterment, one must attend to the cleaning of his own kitchen. As a result of his betterment, one must attend to the cleaning of his own kitchen.

No one is interested that the students at that college are "merely" interested in getting an easy A.

DEFENSE OF ECC

To the Editor:

A great many people have been led by the brutal attack on the demonstrators in Newark last October, to blame the Councilman-elect Anthony Imperiale's White North Ward Committee. After seeing them along with common hoodlums and members of the conservative Y.A.F. (Young Americans for Freedom) join to form a disruptive crowd of stick-wielding, rock-throwing agitators, it can hardly be said that the students at that college are "merely" interested in getting an easy A.

To the Editor:

What this means is that all students of jobs under the College Work grant are included in the matching funds: loans; institutional, state, college, or other privately financed scholarships; tuition admissions; employment programs. In fact, that such a program does not include compensation received by a student under the college Work-Study Program.

That this means is that all students of jobs under the College Work-Study Program and noninstitutionally administered scholarships may be used for matching purposes. The status of non-institutionally administered loan and employment programs for additional aid of $2000 may be given to those students who were in the upper-half of their college class during the preceding academic year. Musician's Play the Blues

By MAURICE MORAN
Assistant Drama Editor

Blues, according to WNEW-FM disc jockey Scott Muni, are the state of newness: an art form that transcends the boundaries of race, region, class and culture. Blues, according to Merriam-Webster, is defined as "music often taking the pseudonym of melancholy." Whatever it's equivalent to a first-grade folk song with his trio nine years ago and has since launched one by one, drops lines lyrics... In a "does she or doesn't she" exchange the Walkure. Perhaps the most clever segment of the evening is "Part Chat" a surrealistic cocktail party reminiscent of Gertrude Stein's In Circles. All the stereotyped characters are pushed about the room on roller skates—does that remind you of "Funny Girl's" "Roller Skate Rag"?

smooth cast and staging. Every night after I saw Sweet Potato it was individualistic and idiomatic. The cast of nine is slick. George Grizzard is as smooth as Mary Louise Wilson is wise-cracking. Pia Carole Shelley has a joyous voice and so do Bonnie Schroon and Arthur Mitchell. The cast of nine is slick. George Grizzard is as smooth as Mary Louise Wilson is wise-cracking. Sweet Potato is probably the only show on Broadway—let's be thankful there's one—in which the sets don't overpower the material or cast. What is her First Roman that's a remarkable feat nowadays. Equally alluring is the slight direction and choreography by Lee Theodore. A delightful night at the theatre is Sweet Potato. The fact that Noel Coward is responsible makes it that much more delicious.

Korjan conducts The Walkure at Met

By CURT DE GROAT
The Metropolitan Opera House in Lincoln Center is generally held to be the greatest opera house to have ever existed. Though it gets bogged down at times, now and then it sustains the musical world into a recognition of the fact of its greatness, as it did with its production of Wagner's Die Walkure.

Die Walkure, a new production last year, was staged and conducted by the Vienna State Opera. No less remarkable, Mr. Von Karajan's approach was individualistic and idiomatic. Soccer Team Gets First NCAA Bid in MSC History — Tourney Play Begins Today in Springfield (Mass.)

Montclair State College will take part in the National Collegiate Athletic Association Eastern Regional College Tournament. It was announced Monday by William Dioguardi, director of athletics for the Indians.

Coach Leonard Lucenko's team, winners of 11 of 12 games this year, will be in a four-team playoff including the University of Baltimore, Springfield College (Mass.) and Elizabethstown (Pa.).

The invitation to the NCAA tournament is the first that Montclair State has received in any sport in its 41-year intercollegiate history. Lucenko's team has been near perfect this season in its only defeat coming in a night contest with conference rival, Jersey City State, 2-1.

Montclair State has been over East Stroudsburg State (Pa.), NCE, Glassboro College, CCNY, Paterson State, Newark State, St. Peter's, Marist, Monmouth, Pratt Institute and Bloor College.

The team's win over always powerful East Stroudsburg State and its leaders in the Metropolitan Intercollegiate Conference, are believed to have been the keys to the NCAA invitation.

Lucenko, in his third year as head coach of the Indians, has posted records of 4-7-3 and 7-5-3 in two regular seasons.

The Indians have been the top scorer with seven goals while John Smith, a sophomore and Frank Ariola, a junior have six goals.

Other top scorers for the Indians have been Jack Banks and Gus Migliori with five. Arvi Saar has two while Joe McAllister, John Shumlas and Gerd Trommer each have scored once.

Back up the Indians line at halfbacks are Saar, Joe Sallenti and Shumlas. The Indians fullbacks are Trommer and Ed Przybowski.

Although he has not scored co-captain Allan Czaya has also been a key to MSC big soccer year.

The Indians still have one regular season contest remaining, meeting Fairleigh Dickinson at home on Monday.

Great Defense

Defense has been the key to Montclair State's great success this year with only two opponents, Jersey City State and Newark State, able to score two goals in a game.

Goalie Tom Hartman, a senior from Freehold, has been particularly hot in the last two weeks turning in four straight shutouts over Marist, Monmouth, Pratt and Bloomfield. He has five whitewash jobs for the year.

The Indians have scored 34 goals in the 12 games played thus far this season. Jay Gavitt has been the top scorer with seven goals while John Smith, a sophomore and Frank Ariola, a junior have six goals.

Ithaca Trims MSC, 17-13

Indian Errors Costly

By MIKE GALOS

Capitalizing on Montclair State errors, the Ithaca College Bombers defeated the Indians of Montclair State Saturday night, 17-13, before a crowd of 2,313 at Sprague Field. Both Ithaca goals came as a result of failures by Montclair to execute fourth down punt plays. Jim Ryan blocked a Ken Tecza punt attempt and Wes Kissel recovered it in mid-air and went untouched 45 yards for the initial score. Dave Bonney added the first of two extra points.

After the Indians tied the score, as Frank Perry capped a 44 yard drive with a one yard run, Ithaca countered in the second half with a five yard run by quarterback Rick Podlucky after a fumble recovery on another Tecza punt attempt was recovered at the MSC six yard line.

Two field goals by Dan Rodgers (46 and 24 yards) brought the score close at 14-13, but Ithaca countered with their own, a 34 yarder by Bonney with 9:07 left in the game.

The Montclair State defense again played an outstanding game, holding the Bombers to only a field goal but, as has often been the case this season, bad breaks cost the Indians the ball game.

If games were won on statistics, Montclair would have romped. The Indians had 20 first downs compared to 12 for Ithaca and Montclair runners led by Frank Perry's 108 yards amassed 239 net rushing yards.

The loss dropped the Indians record to 2-6, while in winning Ithaca ended its season with a 3-5 record.

A trip to Glassboro Saturday for a 1:30 Eastern Football Conference encounter with the Profs will finish the season for the Indians, hopefully on a winning note.
