Syracuse, N.Y.: Evansville, Indiana is the next stop for the surging Indians of Montclair after sweeping the Eastern Regional NCAA College Division playoffs over this past weekend. By knocking off the host school LeMoyne, 81-77, and then running Wagner off the court by the lopsided score of 101-78, it enabled the Indians to gain a berth in the Nationals starting tonight.

A capacity crowd of 2,800 was present for both double-headers that included an enthusiastic contingent of MSC students who made the long trek by bus. The trip was more than worthwhile as the surging Indians put on a show that the people of Syracuse won't soon forget. Both wins were highlighted by an exhibition of basketball the way it should be played. The Indians scored from every angle, played tough defense, ran a potent fast break and most of all showed the poise and balance of a championship club.

Albany State did make amends for its loss to Wagner by upsetting LeMoyne for third place by one point, 71-70. A sure handed Rich Margison sank the key foul shot with three seconds left. His effort, 10 for 13 and a 24-point second half, treated the large Albany crowd to a sweet victory.

In downing LeMoyne on Friday night the Indians used the hot outside shooting of Luther Bowen, who ended up as the MVP of the tourney, and Bob Sienkiewicz, plus the rebounding of Bob Lester helped eliminate the host school. Chuck Brady opened the LeMoyne scoring with two quick buckets but the Indians came back to tie the score 9-9 on baskets by Mike Oakes and Bowen.

From that point on Montclair opened up

Pressures are being widely exerted to institute courses in Negro history, but few forces are proposing “a semester exploration of Soul.”

Such a course would expose all students “to the burning issues of our day” in “books that tell it like it is,” according to Dorothy Sterling of Rye, N.Y., who writes Negro children’s books and admits that she is “hooked on black history.”

Sterling recommends, followed by a study of the mid-century civil rights struggle. The supply of books by and about Negroes is increasing, Miss Sterling reports, but “certainly not a flood.”

Except for Uncle Tom’s Cabin, books about Negroes were, until very recent, “box-office poison,” she reports. Children’s books about Negroes began appearing in the 1930’s. The 1954 U.S. Supreme Court decision on school desegregation stirred a flurry of interest in adult books about Negroes, Miss Sterling reports, adding: “Then came the student sit-ins and freedom rides, the Birmingham bombing, the Civil Rights Act, the Civil War, the Underground Railroad, the Ku Klux Klan, Negro disfranchisement and the mid-century civil rights struggle.”

The supply of books by and about Negroes is increasing, Miss Sterling reports, but “certainly not a flood.”

The course could next consider the realm of college control of the money allotted to them. Each state college control of the money they will attend are: Robert Haas, Mr. William P. McKnight and Dr. Samuel Pratt.

President Thomas Richardson was one of the people that students’ questions will be directed to. He feels that the realm of student power is one where there is a need for them. He feels that the need for better communications and the need for more jobs on campus are both candidates agreed on the need for more jobs on campus for students.

SGA elections will take place on March 21.

The New Jersey Senate bill 256 which will give the New Jersey state colleges local autonomy, is now being revised by its sponsors in the New Jersey State Senate. The voting on the bill, which was supposed to have taken place a few weeks ago, was postponed so that the state college control of the money allotted to them by Trenton. Each college will be able to hire contractors and purchase land, equipment, materials, etc., on its own initiative. Under the new bill each college will have the right to transfer money from one account to another without consulting Trenton. The bill will also give the local board of trustees the authority to determine the curriculum, program, organization and development of the college.

These provisions will speed up procedures considerably and will eliminate a lot of red tape.

A campus committee working for the support of S-256, headed by Ginny Saunderson and Frank Crippen, is now in the process of sending out 25,000 letters to alumni, asking them to contact their senators and assemblymen.

The revised bill was read to the Senate on March 10 and will be tentatively voted on March 17. The bill has support in the Senate by approximately 16 sponsors, but the Assembly response to the bill is undecided.

Montclairion Editors Lead Fight for Journalism Major

By Chris MacMurray
Staff Reporter

According to the administration's plans for MSC's future, a major in journalism will be instituted here in 1972. However, certain MSC students and faculty feel a pressing need for a journalism major at Montclair. They believe this need should be realized as soon as possible.

MSC journalists Miriam Taub, David M. Levine and Donald Pendley are presently working in cooperation with Mr. Michael F.X. Grieco on a list of proposals and courses for the implementation of a journalism major at MSC.

This list, to be completed this month, will be submitted to Dr. Harold C. Bohn, head of MSC's English department, for approval. According to Levine, Bohn is more than aware of our need for journalism.

Upon Bohn's approval the list will move on to Mr. Anthony Kuolt, assistant dean of the college. Thereafter, the approved list of proposals for a major in journalism at MSC will be in the hands of President Trenner.

Editor-in-chief of the MONTCLARION, Miriam Taub aspires to be a professional journalist. In addition to the position she holds on campus, Miriam is president of Pi Delta Epsilon (National Collegiate Journalism Fraternity) and corresponding secretary of the New Jersey Press Association.

David M. Levine, currently managing editor of the MONTCLARION, is also a successful publisher. He is editor of International Journal, a magazine read in 60 foreign countries. Levine, a sophomore, hopes to become a professional journalist.

MSC JOURNALISTS: Left to right, Mr. Michael F.X. Grieco, MONTCLARION advisor, David M. Levine, managing editor, Don Pendley, assistant editor and Miriam Taub, editor-in-chief, are all working on the proposed department of journalism to work in conjunction with the MONTCLARION.

Freshman Don Pendley, assistant editor of the MONTCLARION, is currently the adviser of the GALUMPHER and business manager of QUARTERLY, plans to teach journalism. Pendley would like to see a major in journalism instituted in the very near future, since he feels that such a major would benefit all MSC publications.

Mr. Michael F.X. Grieco is assistant English professor at Montclair State, specializing in English literature. Grieco is currently the adviser of the MONTCLARION while at the same time studying for his doctorate and directing Stone Hall.

A University of Kansas study points out an urgent need for journalists in this country. The study shows that at this moment there are many more available positions in the field of journalism than there are qualified journalists to fill them. Dr. Malcolm Applegate, assistant dean of the School of Journalism at Kansas recently asserted, "We just don't have enough people to recommend."

According to Levine, the obvious need for journalists does not presuppose the fact that a background in journalism can help any student in all phases of academic study. States Levine, "The fact that MSC's course in journalism is currently being offered at Montclair State — students who are using journalism as an effective tool in their other courses — proves that journalistic knowledge can be extremely useful in countless areas other than journalism."

In regard to MSC as a university, the implications for journalism are obvious. At the university level, recording, publishing and circulating needs will skyrocket. Newspaper work and journalistic experience will become increasingly invaluable to more and more students.

"Also," affirms Pendley, "an advanced curriculum which includes journalism is an absolute essential on the university level, for MSC or any other prospective university."

Student opinion at MSC appears to be in favor of a major in journalism at Montclair. According to a poll taken last May calling for student opinion as to what courses and majors were needed at Montclair State, 15 percent of those who participated asked for journalism.

Campus Car 'Borrowings'. Reported by Security

By Roberta Kuehl and Judy Manzi

Recently, a number of car "borrowings" have been reported on campus. Last Wednesday night three such incidents occurred almost simultaneously.

Surprisingly, according to Mr. Joseph McGinty, director of maintenance, the cars were found undamaged on another area of campus shortly afterwards.

Three weeks ago, five cars were stolen on campus. The next day the five cars were found in the area of the campus.

Possession of a master key and desire for transportation seem to be the causes of this unusual method of thievery. McGinty noted that last year's cases involved sports cars which were driven off campus, stripped and left in nearby communities.

Both McGinty and Mr. Joseph Daly, director of campus security, stated that in almost every stolen case the security guards have stayed with the problem until it was solved. They also observed that there are practically no security difficulties other than car thefts.

If the "borrowers" is a student of MSC, he must go to the Dean of Students for disciplinary action. This could result in immediate expulsion from the college. Daly pointed out that any student who is caught "borrowing" a car may be "jeopardizing his entire college career" for a single joyride.

Campaign Kick-off

Set for March 17

By Sue Dominiki
Staff Reporter

President Robert Martinez announced that preparation are underway for the coming Student Government elections. Anyone who still wishes to run for office for the 69-70 school year may pick up petitions in the SGA office today.

Candidates may campaign in the Life Hall cafeteria beginning on March 17. The campaigns will be highlighted by speeches from each candidate in Memorial Auditorium from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Martinez stressed that this year's election will have special significance. The new office holders will have the responsibility of shaping the SGA to function more efficiently in Montclair's change to university status.

When asked about the possibility of spreading the campaigning throughout the campus he stated that this was not possible. He added that the campaign must be limited to the cafeteria to avoid problems which may arise with distribution of publicity. He noted that the cafeteria is the best location for election activities since the majority of students use it.

Martinez mentioned that he plans to publicize this year's SGA elections by holding an outdoor rally on campus. The purpose of this event will be to alert more students to the elections and to acquaint them with the candidates who are running for office.

The following qualifications must be met to run for an SGA office: The president, vice-president and treasurer must be seniors with at least a 2.5 cumulative average or over. The secretary may be a freshman with at least a 2.5 cumulative average. Each candidate must obtain 150 signatures for his petition in order to be eligible to campaign.

NEWS NOTE: Where has all the quiet gone? It seems that the students of MSC have forgotten that Sprague is supposed to be a place of peace and quiet.

...It's the library. That's what the television commercial says. But of course, New York City public libraries do not fall into the same category that Sprague Library does – noisy.

Right now, during term paper and mid-term time, that library can be a blessing to most students, if only for the fact that it contains individual desks at which one can sit and study. However, according to MSC students, the library is failing to meet the needs of today's college student.

The student who studies in the dorm or in the car is not doing it for convenience sake but because Sprague is just too noisy. The term "library" implies peace and quiet in the car is not doing it for convenience sake but because Sprague is just too noisy. The term "library" implies peace and quiet.

It seems that nobody remembers that the library should be quiet.

But in good conscience the main floor can't be called more than a zoo. The physical setup of seating five and six at a table leads to group discussions on the main floor. And that's not all. There's also the fan table to contend with, the xerox machines, ringing telephones, clanging of shelves (as the library changes from the Dewey Decimal System to the Library of Congress system of cataloging) and the typing librarians. Then there's the turnstiles, circulation desk and changing of classes -- all adding to Sprague's "serenity."

Obviously overabundance of noise is the problem. And although the librarians are not being paid to police the three floors, someone has to control the noise.

Therefore it is recommended that the college library committee, the library staff and the administration come up with immediate suggestions to alter the present library policy of permitting noise. It seems that nobody remembers that the library should be quiet.

Several weeks ago the MONTCLARION editors began a campaign to develop a department of journalism on the MSC campus.

To the Editor:

On behalf of the STUDENT'S COMMITTEE FOR LOCAL AUTONOMY, we would like to thank the MONTCLARION for its support of Senate bill 256 — the local autonomy bill.

To insure the passage of 5-256, active support from other areas of student activity is necessary. Only with campus-wide and state-wide support can MSC receive the autonomy which it needs.

The MONTCLARION has been of great assistance to the college community through its explanation of S-256 and the bill's implications.

MSC's Foreign Policy

To the Editor:

The Feb. 26 issue of the MONTCLARION contained a letter to the editor by Bill Eckholt in which he defended the "right of the military to recruit from this campus." Eckholt erroneously compared the "right to listen" to recruiters. The fallacy here is in making this a freedom of speech issue which it is not.

The military came here not to debate, but to recruit. To support the right of the military to recruit is to ignore the rights of life and liberty of the Vietnamese people. It is this act of recruitment for a genocidal war that we oppose.

By allowing recruiters on campus, MSC is, in effect, actively supporting the Vietnamese war. I do not advocate neutrality for the college, but think MSC should oppose both the intervention and the institutions that support it.

True, we would not stop the war in Vietnam by forbidding recruiters to come on campus, but we would not be contributing to it either.

On Creative Nonviolence

The use of violent or nonviolent methods for achieving our goals has become more of a problem in the past few months. Initially the Movement, beginning in civil rights and later in anti Vietnam protests, held as its creed, nonviolence. Recently, however, some leaders have been exposing the violent method of bombing induction centers and other buildings associated with the establishment. In the March 1 issue of Win Magazine, David McReynolds, a leading spokesman for the nonviolent approach, comments on the bombings.

"To move from picketing draft boards to entering, burning the files, and awaiting arrest — is the use of violent methods for achieving our goals associated with the establishment."

The second part dove head first into the controverted subject of creative nonviolence. British censorship, if you can call censorship good, is considered one of the best cutouts in the world; there is only one control office, set up by producers in 1912, to prevent the film industry from playing Hollywood. There is no written code — just ratings (U, X only adults) which is molded to each picture. X only adults must be accompanied; X is for adults which is molded to the society of today.

The book continues by showing how the censor and the producer work together trying to maintain value. The chapter on American censorship shows that various censors judge what is considered fit for the public. The artistic value of the film is at times destroyed and implications made in the end are many times worse than what lays on the cutting room floor. The author went on to say that the film industry and the censors are finally beginning to realize that a 40 year-old code will not fit the needs of today's society.

This book is excellent reading material for anyone interested in the film industry today and how life-blood of motion pictures — SEX — affects this varied form of entertainment.

Sex in Three Parts

Sex in the Movies
By Alexander Walker, 95-cents, Penguin

This book is one of three books containing many short stories about the individuals who did and do make SEX in the movies today. The author has shown himself to be very persuasive and astute in this in depth analysis.

Part one covers the goddesses from Theda Bara (anagram for death ab). She was the original vamp, not unlike the vampires of legend, symbolically displaced the life source of her victims. Continuing on to the still reigning queen Elizabeth Taylor, Walker showed how these goddesses fulfilled the needs of the public — the same needs that eventually drove these demigods into the limbo of oblivion.

Not only because your review of Mr. Barnes', but also because of this three-hour, politico-religious spectacle and Oscar Werner, every element of the film gradually deteriorates until one's weary reaction to the completely unbelievable finale is simply, "I expected worse." Valiant attempts are made throughout to appetize the viewer with philosophical hors d'oeuvres, but these are clumsily prepared and often. These practices, however, are innocent of the original, we are given reason to doubt their living in America.

The music and pageantry of "Shoes of the Fisherwoman" are reminiscent of "Rex-Hoe," but they have neither the historical nor the spirituals of the American black slave, as an avatar of the cosmic Christ he describes. The realm of avant-garde jazz is primarily the black people exposed to the music for the first time who exclaim, "Turn it off!" Lack of structure to vision ears mean an immediate lack of the art form. There are many new jazz musicians trying to make the scene by performing, and if they're lucky, by recording. Tragically, they have to face a "structured" society full of "structured" people trying to say something. Jazz
Avant-garde symbol of ghetto anguish

By Russ Layne

Jazz is primarily the black man's music. Having developed from the African rhythms and spirituals of the American black slave, it has evolved today to a point of intense, frustrated emotion, yet nevertheless music. One could interpret avant-garde jazz as a cry from the ghetto, a plea for a self-concept and human dignity. The realm of avant-garde jazz is directly analogous to the new "structured" society full of "structured" people trying to say something. The writer has encountered many people exposed to the music for the first time who exclaim, "Turn it off!" Lack of structure to vision ears mean an immediate lack of the art form.

Psychology Offers Counseling Services

By Michael Heaney
Staff Reporter

Among the many services offered at MSC is a program of psychological counseling, available to any full-time undergraduate student who feels that he has problems which are interfering with the normal activities of everyday living.

Initial sessions include a discussion of reasons for seeking aid and, probably, some psychological tests. Brief, intensive psychotherapy is offered without charge to those students who feel that fears, conflicts, depressions, tensions or self-doubts are interfering with optimum growth. Frank, open communication with the psychologist should speed the process of alleviating most problems.

Sometimes a student may wish to continue in greater depth with the therapy program started on campus. Occasionally the presenting problem is such that it should not be treated in the setting which includes friends and teachers. In these cases the counseling services are prepared to help make arrangements with a private psychotherapist or mental health agency.

The ethical practice standards of the American Psychological Association are used as guides by the specially appointed staff. This means that neither the student’s name nor the content of the therapy sessions can become a part of a student’s record without his permission.

One full-time, licensed, clinical psychologist, several part-time psychologists and a part-time psychiatrist are available on a schedule which covers every school day throughout the academic year. The psychological counseling staff is located in Annex 4; appointments may be made with the psychological counseling secretary.

Magazine Fraud Hits Campus

Can promise anything and have very strict terms.

One contract calls for $5 down and $5 a month for 36 months. The total, $180, represents International Magazine Service’s charge for three-year-subscriptions for all of the following magazines: TV-Radio Mirror, Argosy, Esquire, Better Homes and Gardens and Redbook.

The normal cost for these magazines, combined, is $65.25 for three years.

Should a patron of International Magazine Service miss a payment, various service charges are tacked on to the amount due. And in the case of one MSC student, several monthly payments were missed. Consequently, the magazine service handed the student’s account over to a local collection agency. The agency then proceeded to send the student threatening letters claiming “drastic action will be taken to protect our client’s interest… . Please remit by return airmail or special delivery… .”

The agency, calling itself Great Eastern Collection Agency, receives its mail thru P. O. Box 7698, Baltimore. The MONTCLARION called Great Eastern Collection Agency. According to a Mr. Falk answering the telephone: “There is no Great Eastern… . it exists only in name.”

Mr. Falk answered that they would pursue if a student decided not to pay after receiving the agency’s threatening letters. Falk stated: “We just send out post-card notices.”

The magazine racket is nothing new. Two years ago, a magazine service of similar nature was put out of business by the Federal Trade Commission. And, according to Blanton, magazine frauds have been found on other college campuses.

Blanton stated that he has contacted the Better Business Bureau and alerted local police to the Montclair magazine menace.

CAMPUS STUDY LACKING

By Jane Confort

Staff Reporter

Is there enough space on campus for studying? Asked this question, students of MSC gave a wide variety of answers. But most of them agreed there is not enough space.

Mary Duras, a junior Spanish major, said she goes to the library "...only when it's absolutely necessary." She likes the study lounges but finds that "...people are squashed in." So being a dorm student, she studies in her room.

An accounting major, Julian Seys said: "I don't think the library is conducive to study for some reason. There are too many kids in such a concentrated area. I went to try and find empty classrooms and study in there."

Sophomore Ramona Lantermann said: "Anybody who wants to study can find a place to study. It's quiet enough in the reserve room of the library, though conditions could be improved.

Dean Lawton Blanton agrees with students that conditions could be improved. He said: "I doubt there is enough space or facilities for studying. It is my feeling we need an extension onto the library and I do understand there are plans for its expansion."

He would like to see increased space for listening to music and more rooms for typing.

Steve Callini, a junior Latin major, said: "I think the library is too noisy a place to study. There's too many tete-a-teties going on. The reason the students congregate in the library is probably due to the lack of student lounges." Other students also mentioned the lounges and said they would like to study in them, but there are not enough of them.

Concerning the lounges, Blanton pointed out that they were not meant to be rooms for studying. He said: "Lounges are just for relaxation. Part of an education is talking and that's what the lounges are for." Janet Ferro, a French major, expressed the same opinion, saying: "The lounges are more for socializing than for studying."

The new desks with three sides on the first floor of the library found favor with students. Also, the desks behind the stacks of books on the first and second floors seem to be well liked. Bob Handera, a freshman biology major, said: "The desks on the side always afford a good place to study."

point bulge, 47-28. They took a
311 point lead at the half. As in almost every other game this year the entire Indian starting five hit for double figures as Montclair shot 36 of 62 for 58.6 per cent from the floor and 29 of 50 from the charity stripe, Harry James, who taught Wagner's Nick Taylor a few things about defense, but for 22 markers to support Bowen's fine 28 point effort.

Gelston began pulling his regulars with five minutes left to help ease the embarrassed Seahawks nightmare. Ray Hodge led Wagner with 22 points and did display some fine moves to the hoop. "It sure was a poor time to know the answers.

The all-tourney team was led by the Indians, Luther Bowen and Harry James. Also selected were Ray Hodge, Albany's Rich Maupin and LeMoyne's Bob Bradley.

LeMoyne lost St. Peter's in its first game this year which left many in the Montclair party talking of a possible matchup of the NIT bound Peacocks against neighboring Montclair in the near future.

The plush Hotel Syracuse served as home away from home for the entire Montclair contingent. Three buses full of fans traveled over six hours to witness the tournament.

With 24 wins this year it marked the third straight 20 win season for the Indians. With their goal of a national championship the Indians could finish with an all time high of 27 wins against two defeats. They must win three games in Indiana to bring home championship.

While Luther Bowen was named the Most Valuable Player his 52 points in two games was topped by Hodge's 53 markers. Bowen's overall play gave him the honor without a doubt as Mr. MVP. As one Albany State onlooker put it, "that little guy can beat you 100 different ways."

An Indian on the Montclair" production line" is Montclair's fine 37-31 lead went on to build up a 37-31 lead until Willie Moss, who has developed into Gelston's key substitute, came in to can three jumpers to keep pace with the hot hand of the Dolphin's Bob Bradley and Mike Kava.

Down 43-40 at the half Luther Bowen's three point play opened up the second half that saw the game go in MSC's favor to up the count at 45-43. From that point on it was Montclair holding on to the lead again with its deliberate sure fire attack.

Overall the Indians outscored LeMoyne 19-9 at the foul line to make the difference in the final outcome since they did outscore us 34-31 from the field.

LeMoyne rallied from that point on it was Montclair holding up the count at 45-43. From that point on it was Montclair marking the third straight 20 win season for the Indians. Gymnasts Finish At 10-2

Behind Schwarz and Green

By John Aneson
Sports Editor

This has been a banner year for the Montclair State gymnastics team as they have catapulted to a position as one of the top small-college gymnastics teams in the nation. It is the first time that the team ever qualified to enter the NCAA national competition. The team qualified on three different occasions by scoring above 135.00 points.

They accounted for the best record in MSC gymnastics history with an all-time high of 10 wins and an all-time low of two losses, defeating West Chester State and Slippery Rock State for the first time ever.

Co-captains Rick Schwarz, Dave Green and Jon Guenther qualified for individual competition in the NCAA College Division Nationals at San Fernando Valley State College in California and all qualified in more than one event. Schwarz qualified on the parallel bars, floor exercise and the long horse. Guenther qualified on the rings and the long horse. Because he did not meet the scholastic qualifications under the NCAA rulings, Guenther will not be able to compete in the nationals.

Schwarz, in the meet against LIU, put on an awesome display of versatility and excellence by taking four first places out of the six events, an MSC sports first. He won in floor exercise, long horse, parallel bars and the high bar.

In addition, he is the only MSC gymnast to win the Most Valuable Gymnast award three years in a row as he tied Dave Green for honors this year.

Montclair State will host the first championship meet of the newly formed North Atlantic Gymnastics Conference this Saturday. The conference is composed of Cortland State, Long Island University, Montclair, Queens College, U.S. Coast Guard Academy and West Chester State. The locals defeated every other member during the regular season.

I asked Rick what has made this team better than the other teams he has been on at MSC. "Coach Orlick has made the big difference," he noted. "He makes you want to work. He has a good attitude and instills it in the other guys on the team. He is very knowledgeable, has a compatible personality and can really psyche up a team."

"In addition, we have added depth over the previous years. The spirit is tremendous." Green voiced the same opinions. After Dave broke his sternum while executing a dismount off the high bar earlier this year, Orlick spent a great deal of extra time working with him.

Green courageously came through this year as one of the top gymnasts in the nation along with Schwarz. The entire team has nothing but pride in themselves and are very happy for their coach.

Schwarz, a senior, and Green, a junior, are the only all-around competitors. They have spearheaded the improvement which has carried the team from run-of-the-mill to national power status. Jon Guenther, also a junior, has been outstanding on rings and has developed into a powerful three-piece performer.

Junior Nels Jensen has given top-notch performances in four events, sticking out on the p-bars. Reliable Ron Poling has been a solid point getter on the rings and p-bars. Ralph Coscia, the only other senior, is the most improved member of the squad and has spurred the ring team on to many victories. Coscia did not compete last year and has pulled the comeback of the year in MSC sports.

The other co-captain Bob Day, a junior and has sparked the other squad. Junior Joe Macaluso and sophomores Roger Brown, Joe Gareffa, John Molter and Russ Spencer have provided the depth that has complemented the backbone of the squad, Schwarz, Green, Guenther, Jensen and Poling.
