planet.” You can be a voice for the voiceless, or your silence will be your consent.

*Recommended resource: A People's History of the United States, by Howard Zinn

*Possible activity: For a culminating activity on a unit about a major global issue, have the students participate in a Day of Silence in school to express their solidarity with those who are voiceless.

5. Be sensitive – Words are powerful and it is crucial to use terms that empower and never degrade. That means good-bye to “poor nations,”

“prostitutes,” “victims,” and “illegal aliens.” Instead, we make a commitment to “developing countries,” “sex workers,” “survivors,” and “people without papers.” It may sound like the simplest of all tasks, but in many ways it is the most meaningful.

*Recommended resource: Rethinking Schools magazine

*Possible activity: Create a socially conscious meme, post it on a social media website, and write a reflection on the feedback received.

The Incorporation of Education

Status strangling test scores plummet
Beneath waves of mediocrity
World-class expectations miserly financed
Sharpened digits pointed with scattered accusation
Insidious portrayals of blasé pedagogues
Vernal equinox signaling mandated standardization
Harvests of fear and insinuation
Climates of clichéd intimidation
Machine-tooled mayhem and monotonous misery
Egalitarian mistrust and malice
Division fomenting division
Creativity crystallized
Passion apprehended
Insight transformed to incite
Ink transformed to Inc.
