The single most destructive attitude that developed as a result of black slavery was racism, which Mphahlele described as "looping in mind in which Europeans viewed other cultures as inferior."

This mentality was enhanced by the theory of 19th century philosophers like Thomas Carlyle, who believed that blacks were created to serve the whites. Mphahlele said that this racism has solidified up to the present day and is the primary cause of alienation among blacks in South Africa and elsewhere.

In discussing the various African colonies where slavery flourished, the author singled out the former Belgian Congo, now Zaire, as having been the worst in terms of its treatment of blacks.

"You would never spend a whole day in the Belgian Congo without feeling you were being administered," Mphahlele said, adding that forced labor, road gangs and mine work were the main tasks given to blacks.

Mphahlele read poetry which reflects the sense of alienation and separation blacks felt as a result of their former enslavement. Also, the poetry expresses their feelings to the present day apartheid system in South Africa.

Mphahlele said that while the white man's political conquest over the black South Africans is complete, the conquest over individuality is not and never will be. "There is something in us that is unchangeable," he said. "It is the indigenous personality of the soul."

When asked about the current wave of protests across the United States in regard to South Africa's apartheid policy, Mphahlele said, "I think it is a good thing that it is happening. However, it will not change the South African government. He also noted that the protests were nonetheless a "good moral gesture for the growth of American consciousness."
SUMMERFUN...
THEATER BEFORE THE FALL!

"Autumn in New York, it brings the thrill of first-nighting" goes the song, but as pretty as the melody is, it forgets the chilling six block walk from the parking lot, the hair-raising price of the ticket and the general discomfort and expense of a night at the New York theater. So why not opt for summer in New Jersey? Six opening nights filled with the finest in professional entertainment at prices that will have your budget on a light summer diet!

June 25-29
AGNES OF GOD
John Pielmeier
The theatrical event that combines the insight of an Andrew Greeley novel with the psychological shock of EQUUS. Such is AGNES OF GOD — a provocative story of those caught between desperation and desire — the searing portrait of a guilt-edged soul.

July 2-6
STALAG 17
Donald Bevan & Edmund Trzcinski
Salute the 4th of July with an American classic...the unforgettable story of a group of Americans who have lost their freedom but share guts, good humor and the chilling knowledge that one of them is a spy. A warm and exciting tale of those who were listed as missing, but who were still, very much, in action.

July 9-13
TWO AND TWO MAKE SEX
Richard Harris & Leslie Darbon
It's madcap math in a farcical formula dedicated to proving that all men and women are created equal — and calculating! Join us for their frantic, fun-filled pursuit of life, liberty and each other!

July 16-20
PAINTING CHURCHES
Tina Howe
With the bold strokes of a caricaturist and the sensitive detail of a caring observer, author Tina Howe has created a witty and touching theatrical masterpiece. PAINTING CHURCHES is a "radiant, loving and zestfully humorous play" (Time) about coming home.

July 23-27
STAGE STRUCK
Simon Gray
The author of OTHERWISE ENGAGED turns his pen to two of man's oldest institutions — marriage and murder — and comes up with a show business shocker that was a London hit, but has...until now...remained a mystery to New York audiences.

July 30-August 10
THE BEST LITTLE WHOREHOUSE IN TEXAS
Book by Larry L. King & Peter Masterson
Music & Lyrics by Carol Hall
The show that's as spicy as a bowl of good Texas chili — hot enough to make your eyes water and sweet enough to leave you wanting more. Make your reservation at the Chicken Ranch for an evening of saucy, sincere, musical fun as SUMMERFUN closes its season with a smilin', swingin', stompin', good time for all!

SPECIAL STUDENT RATES
ALWAYS IN EFFECT!
Subscriptions
Tues/Wed/Thur $22.50
Fri/Sat $25.00
Individuals
Tues/Wed/Thur $5.50
Fri/Sat $7.00

SUMMERFUN BOX OFFICE OPENS JUNE 3
10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Friday
Beginning June 17 — We're open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday through Saturday
746-9120 Before June 3, call 893-4218
Curtain Time 8:30 p.m.
Air-Conditioned Memorial Auditorium
Montclair State College
Upper Montclair, NJ 07043
Seminar stresses awareness of sexual harassment problem

By Linda Longo

To educate the campus on the issue of sexual harassment, the Student Affairs Council of the Faculty Senate recently sponsored an awareness program on this subject. A panel of various faculty members was on hand to voice their opinions concerning sexual harassment.

Dr. George Martin of the sociology department said, "Even in court. "prosecute and testify against the rapist behavior happens to a student, he should keep a log of the incidents, on what dates they occurred and if there are any witnesses. If any student wishes to make a complaint about sexual harassment, he should contact the office of Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action at 893-4349 or the vice-president for student affairs at 893-4311. These panelists stressed the fact that none are missed," Harris said. "We must understand that there are repercussions to the violations of these laws." Recently, people must under­stand the importance of not being embarrassed by it and to stop it. Dr. Amy Grebinko of the professional studies department said, "It is extremely important to take this issue out of the closet and into the classroom. It involves the civil liberties of the students."

A film entitled The Workplace Harass, which is usually a part of corporate training programs, was shown to demonstrate the similarity of the two situations of sexual harassment. The film dramatized incidents of harass­ment based on actual events. The film also stressed that men do not see sexual harassment in the same way.

According to this film, sexual harassment occurs when the boss or professor tells the employee or student "to put out" or leave the company or fail the class. Verbal harassment is characterized by the boss or professor persistently asking for a date, or by making derogatory remarks about the employee's or student's body.

Players receives its budget after long legislative debates

By Susan Ryall

After two legislative votes, the SGA granted Players a class one budget of $17,150 for the academic year 1985-86. Four thousand dollars of the budget goes to the forensics line. Forensics not only involves debate, but individual events such as extemporaneous and impromptu speaking, and poetry reading.

Finally, LaVaughn Slaven, foren­sics team president, a large amount of money is set aside for this line because if the team pay for the team's travel, hotel expenses, and the tournament fee of $500. At first vote, the budget failed, but after consideration of the cost of the tournaments, the budget passed. After a long debate, the legislature failed to pass a bill which would allow SGA funds to pay for executive board members to take six credits during the summer. Legislator Donna Carpinelli said that there are other students who are involved in orga­nizations over the summer months, take classes, and work part time without having anyone pay for their tuition.

Tracy Lacovelli, SGA's secretary, said, "Jobwise, I have sacrificed a lot of time over the summer for this position, which I could have used toward working to pay for my credits."

In other news, the Spanish club and the health professions club, which sponsors the annual Health Festival, were rechartered as class two organiza­tions. Also, Kappa Sigma RHO and Delta Sigma Phi, both social sororities, were rechartered as class three or­ganizations. The Inter-Sorority Council, which will work under the Greek Council, was also passed as a class three. Phi Gamma Mu, a social science fraternity, was granted a class four charter.

The SGA passed a statute change which will require prospective leg­islators to fill out petitions with a minimum of 100 signatures each. This statute was beginning in the fall of 1983, will eliminate presidential appoint­ments.

Rape

cont. from p. 1

rape is not only a humiliating expe­rience, but as usually humiliating to prosecute and testify against the rapist in court.

Finally, the film stressed the need to educate the public on rape. Even though the reported number of rapes has gone down in the last year, people must become aware of this problem. It is estimated that one out of every four females will be a victim of rape, and one out of every seven males will be victim to rape.

Alcohol abuse is a sure killer

By Joanne Cummings

informing the students about the harmful effects of drugs and alcohol was the aim of the alcohol awareness program held yesterday. This program was sponsored by the EOF's Student Advisory Board and the office of student affairs.

Leslie Jean Diggs, a senior counselor at Services to Overcome Drug Abuse Among Teenagers (SODAT) explained, "We do have a serious problem when it comes down to drugs and alcohol. I'd like to make students aware of the dangers of using pot and alcohol."

A film was shown depicting current studies on drug abuse. One experiment was done using monkeys in which the animals were given the equivalent of four joints a day. After a period of time, the menstrual flow of the female monkey had completely stopped, the monkey was no longer fertile.

The film also discussed the effects on humans. Some of these effects are headaches, a lack of energy, a loss of motivation, confusion, a change in personality and lifestyle, and severe memory loss among heavy marijuana smokers.

Doctors in the film discussed recent evidence supporting the link between marijuana and lung cancer.

The film also revealed alcohol problems with today's youth, noting that car accidents are the number one killer among adolescents, and citing alcohol abuse as the number one cause of car accidents.

Other such drugs as PCP (Angel Dust), speed and cocaine were noted to have extremely harmful effects on people such as paranoia, insanity and even death.

Diggs said that denial is one of the biggest problems with family, friends and abusers. "Some people don't want to accept the fact that they have a problem and they won't get involved in treatment," she said. Diggs advised people who suspect someone with a drug abuse problem to seek profes­sional help.

MSC in the News

The Transcript, April 18:

"Tracy Murray...of East Orange has been named to the 1985 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. Murray was cited for his achievements in the fields of music, filmmaking and student government at MSC.

"Musically, he is an education officer and was president-treasurer of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia fraternity. He plays piano and recorder, sings bass in the choir and was student conductor of MSC's orchestra."

Scotch Plains Times, April 13:

"Internationally recognized mathematics educator, Dr. Evan Maltesky, offered a workshop in teaching strategies for mathematics. "Dr. Maltesky has inspired mathematics teachers across the nation, abroad and especially in New Jersey, his home state. He is a professor of mathematics education at MSC, where he has directed many studies on drug abuse. One experiment noted to have extremely harmful effects on people such as paranoia, insanity and even death.

MSC's professional business fraternity, Delta Kappa Psi, donated the $230 recently raised at their annual benefit racquetball party to the Montclair chapter of the Cystinosis Foundation. From left to right: Delta Kappa Psi chairmen Chuck Croco and Paul Alampi, Cystinosis Finance committee member Philip Alampi and DKY president Kevin Lynch.

The Record, April 18:

"MSC will operate on a four-day week during a trial period this summer to determine whether such a schedule can help trim operating costs while maintaining programs year-round."

"The board of trustees unanimously supported college President Donald E. Walter's proposal to try the six-week program... Under the trial program, there will be classes Monday through Thursday, with educational operations halted Friday through Sunday... Walters said he initially held a 'mixed' opinion on such a schedule but that after talking with officials at colleges (which) operated under a four-day week for decades' he decided to propose the change on the trial basis."

The preceding has been compiled by Patty Luciano in connection with the public relations department.
WE’LL PAY BACK YOUR LOAN, BUT THERE’S A HITCH.

You’ll like it, though.
Because every year you serve with us, we reduce your college debt by one-third or $1,500, whichever is greater. Greater still, after three years your loan’s repaid in full.
You’ll also like the satisfaction and pride you’ll feel as you learn a valuable skill. One you use to serve yourself as well as your country.
It’s all a part of the Loan Repayment Program. To qualify, you must have taken out a National Direct, Guaranteed or Federally Insured Student Loan after October 1, 1975.
And your loan can’t be in default.
So if you’d like Uncle Sam to pay off your college loan, pay your local Army Recruiter a visit today. Or call.

ARnMY.
BE ALL YOU CAN BE.

CONTACT: SSG Gibson 691 Bloomfield Avenue
Montclair, New Jersey 07042
(201) 783-5254
Craig Brotons and Rose Bellantonio rehearse for the 22nd annual DECA fashion show, “High Energy” scheduled for Tues., May 14 at 8 p.m. in the Student Center Ballrooms. Admission is $4 and interested students can contact Dr. McGinnis at 893-4272 for more information.

Honor students recognized

By Mary Ellen Madsaac

Due to the efforts of Gloria Caboy, graduating honor students will now receive recognition at graduation with red tassels as opposed to the traditional black.

Caboy discovered that seniors graduating with a grade point average (GPA) of 3.5 or more, are recognized only with an asterisk next to their name in the graduation program stating they are honor students.

“I was very upset,” Caboy said. “A few of my friends didn’t even want to attend graduation.”

A few weeks ago, Caboy said she approached president Donald Walters’ office with the idea of honoring these students with colored tassels. Although the president wasn’t in at the time, Caboy was set to meet with him on April 22.

However, that day she received a call from the secretary who said Walters had already ordered red tassels to be presented to the honor students at graduation. In addition, their names will be written on a special list.

“We thought this was an excellent way of having these students’ achievements recognized.” said Cynthia Lepre, assistant to the president.

“I’m glad I made myself known,” Caboy said. “I’ve worked hard for six years to maintain my GPA of 4.0. So I wanted some recognition, not only for myself, but for all the other honor students as well.”

Caboy said she found the president “very accommodating and that if students come to him, he will listen.”

Senior class gives MSC something to lean upon

By John Connolly

A $2,000 “presidential” podium with MSC’s seal displayed on its front, was recently presented to the college by this year’s senior class.

Each year, a gift chosen by the senior committee is given to the school. John Iannarelli, the chairperson of the senior committee, explained why they wanted to use the money appropriated by the SGA on a podium.

“On behalf of the class of ’85 the senior committee wanted to present a gift to the college that could not only be put to a practical use, but that would also project a distinguished image of Montclair State College,” Iannarelli said.

In the past, a fairly old podium was used when speakers would visit the college.

Dr. Donald Walters, president of the college, expressed deep appreciation to the class of 1985 “for their extraordinary generosity. It is truly a magnificent gift. I know it will add a touch of class to all our activities in the future.”

The podium will first be used at this year’s commencement ceremony.

---

SECOND ANNUAL S.I.L.C. TRIATHLON

SUNDAY, MAY 19, 1985 - 8:00 AM

Co-Sponsored by:

- Department of Campus Recreation
- Student Intramural & Leisure Council

GENERAL INFORMATION

1. Course - The course will be run entirely on the Montclair State College Campus.

2. Sequence of Events - 1) 1/4 swim in Panzer Pool; 2) 7.5 mile bike ride; 3) 2.5 run.

3. Eligibility - The Triathlon is open to the first 75 entrants. Participants under 18 years of age must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

4. Fees - MSC Students $2.00 ______________________
   Other $5.00______________________________

5. Registration - Return entry form with fee to the Student Intramural & Leisure Council, room 418, 4th floor of the Student Center; Student Activities Office, 4th floor Student Center; Field House located in the Quarry Parking Lots.

Entries will be accepted race day in the Panzer Gym lobby between 6:45 am and 7:30 am. There is still time to enter this event.

For more information call SILC OFFICE 893-5245, STUDENT ACTIVITIES 893-4418 or the FIELDHOUSE 893-7494

---

SIGN UP NOW TO GET INVOLVED

SILC IS A CLASS I ORGANIZATION OF THE SGA

Break away from studying and end the semester with a raquetball party sponsored by SILC Only $2.00 for refreshments and fun!

DATE: Saturday May 18

TIME: 8:00 pm - 12:00

PLACE: Clifton Raquetball Club

PRICE: $2.00

Tickets available in the SILC Office Student Center Room 418 893-5245
SUMMER JOB

Full time during the Summer
Part time (2 times a week) during the school year
UNDER GRADUATE $6.15 Per Hr.
(Jr. & Sr. Only)
GRADUATE $8.20 Per Hr.
MAJORS: Environmental Sciences,
Computer Science and Geology
LOCATION: With NJ Department of Environmental Protection in Trenton New Jersey.
CONTACT: - Dr. S.L. Cheng
Dept. of Civil and Environmental Engineering
NJ Institute of Technology
Newark, NJ 07102
Tel. (201) 596-2453
(1pm to 4pm) weekdays
PLEASE APPLY ON OR BEFORE:
MAY 31, 1985

TO:

TO THE MONTCLARION STAFF:
So Long. It's been a great association. Best wishes for your future.
Lovingly, Mary Berlingeri

THE
INDIAN LAKE
ADIRONDACK EXPERIENCE

LAKE GEORGE

May 29th - June 7th
ONLY $10 per day

HURRY!! Spots are filling up fast!

$5 Per Day Deposit Reserves Your Spot!

Contact The Conservation Club
(A CLASS I ORGANIZATION OF THE SGA)
Room 403 Student Center # 893-5102

LAKE PLACID
Muscaton named prez of national group

By Karen Hughes

Never tell Denise Muscat that a woman can't be president. This MSC industrial studies major was recently elected president of the American Industrial Arts College Association (AIACA), and is the first woman to hold this position in the organization's 40 year history.

"I figured that it would look good on a resume," Muscato said. "I get to travel all over the country, meet new people and gain a lot of great experience."

AIACA is a national organization responsible for helping other colleges form their own clubs. In addition, AIACA sponsors the clubs and helps make the students more aware of the opportunities available to them in their field.

As president, Muscato writes articles for their newsletter, "The College Comment." Her national advisor, Dr. Avid Van Dyke of Virginia, meets with her once a week to discuss work that has to be done and assists her in writing the articles. He also accompanies her to lectures around the country and advises her on policies of the association.

"Students have been losing interest in the club," Muscato said. "I was the only one who was running for vice presidency. There is a lack of support. We've been falling behind and I want to make people more aware of who we are and what we do."

Muscato said she was always interested in the predominantly male field of engineering. "I wanted to be an engineer when I came to MSC." Muscato said. "I took a management and production course in the industrial studies department and I really enjoyed it. I specialized in drafting." Muscato first became involved with AIACA during her sophomore year at MSC. As an officer in the organization, she worked with that year's president, Mike Wujek. Since then, she has traveled to California and will be going to Ohio and Florida to speak to other clubs.

News Notes

Campus police officers receive awards

On Thurs., May 23, officer Dbra Newcombe of the campus police will receive the 1985 Passaic County Prosecutor's Law Enforcement Award. Also on Thurs., June 20, she will be presented with an award of meritorious service from CUPSA, the College and University Public Safety Association.

The CUPSA award is for Newcombe's development of information leading to the arrest of the suspect who assaulted the visiting Philadelphia student in February.

A second CUPSA award will be given to officer Rose Vacca of the campus police. She will receive CUPSA's Exceptional Duty Award for risking harm to herself while trying to stop a car in which a young woman was being abducted from campus in September.

Library Hours—Exam Week and Intersession—1985

EXAM WEEK

May 15, 16 - Wednesday, Thursday 7:30 a.m. - 11:00 p.m.
May 17 - Friday 7:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
May 18 - Saturday 10:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
May 19 - Sunday 1:00 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.
May 20, 21 - Monday, Tuesday 7:30 a.m. - 11:00 p.m.
May 22 - Wednesday 7:30 a.m. - 10:00 p.m.

SPRING INTERSESSION

May 23 - June 9

Monday through Friday 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Closed Weekends (Saturday &Sunday)

CLOSED Monday, May 27 (Memorial Day)

Film course left out of fall registrar's booklet

M 1503 0428 01 Ref # 3586 Film & Society. English Dept. 3 credits.

Monday morning other than travel and TUESDAY 11:00 - 1:50. Dr. Ted Price.

The course will explore the period of 1935 - 1955. It will be a humanities oriented course. No technical knowledge of film is required. No prerequisites other than Fresh. Comp.

Films scheduled to be shown include:

Goldiggers of 1933 (Dick Powell, Ruby Keeler, Ginger Rogers)
Fallin's Amacord
For Whom the Bell Tolls (from Hemingway's novel) (with Ingrid Berman)
The Best Years of Our Lives (Academy Award Winner)
Casablanca
The Way We Were (with Barbara Streisand & Robert Redford)
A Charlie Chaplin Feature
Two John Ford Movie Greats.

MSC's Circle K Club wins awards

The Circle K Club, a service and social organization, recently won several awards at the 21st annual New Jersey District of Circle K International Convention. The club was presented with a third place annual achievement award, awards for club of the Month for February and March, and 100% monthly reporting award.

Sponsored by Kiwanis International, Circle K has over 15,000 members in 30 districts in 11 countries. MSC's chapter is sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Montclair, and is advised by the president-elect, Mr. Ronald Hughes.

Health profession Chairman receives award

Dr. Harry H. Hootsma, chairman of the department of health professions, school of professional studies, recently received an honor award from the New Jersey Health Education Council for "promoting effective living through better health education."

Gun pulled on MSC student

By Wendy Deja

On Wed., May 1 at 1:32 a.m., two non-student males approached a Bohn Hall resident to discuss a dispute over a female. An argument ensued and one of the males pulled out a gun and said "I should shoot you." The resident then ran over to a group of people and the two males fled.

The two suspects were later identified and apprehended by campus police. A search of their vehicle produced a holster, but no gun. The resident refused to sign a complaint.

Also on Mon., May 1 at 5:15 p.m., a male student hit another student in the knees with his car. The student approached the vehicle and punched the driver in the face. Complaints are pending.

On Mon., April 29, a '76 Buick was stolen from lot 22 between 11:30 a.m. and 8 p.m. The auto, worth $4,500 was found the next day in Clifton by the Clifton police department.

On May 1 in lot 23, between 8:30 a.m. and 3 p.m., someone smashed the windshield of a '76.7 Chevy van. The damage is valued at $225.

On Sat., May 4, a case of criminal mischief was reported in lot 17. According to the campus police, someone broke the tail light, gas lock, tail pipe, windshield and windshield wipers on an '80 Honda. No suspect has been apprehended. The incident occurred between 4 a.m. on the 3rd and 2:50 p.m. on the 4th.

On Thurs., May 2, a female resident of the Cove Road apartments reported a man peaking in her window. The woman screamed and the man fled. In a similar incident on the same day, another female resident of Cove Road also discovered a man looking in her window and contacted campus police.

Requesting desired salary should pay off in the end

What causes many job seekers sleepless nights is the question that often follows the offer of employment: "What salary were you looking for?" Fearing that they will state a salary that is either too high or too low, many candidates throw the question back to the interviewer. Though this may indicate that one's real interest is in the experience to be gained and not the money, it is rare for an employer to offer a figure to someone who hasn't even asked for it.

Each job candidate must recognize that he has a degree of control over the salary to be offered and has not only the right, but the responsibility to negotiate the best possible salary.

The idea of negotiating for salary strikes many of us as strange and perhaps even crude. There isn't always a set salary for a specific job in the civil service or in education where unions determine salaries, there may be room to negotiate salary for years of experience, starting level within a range, and so on.

In the corporate world there is usually more room for discussion. Most hiring executives have latitude concerning the dispersal of their budgets and will not be concerned about paying extra money to hire the individual they perceive as being the most qualified.

Assuming a candidate's willingness to negotiate, he needs to consider how, when and with whom to discuss salary. No conversation about money will be successful if the salary requested is out of line with the usual request, or if the dialogue occurs at the wrong time with the wrong person.

Defining a reasonable salary requires effort, but it is work that will pay off for years. Spending a day at the local library or college career services office can result in knowledge about what a particular job usually pays, and how salaries for the same job may differ from industry to industry and in various parts of the country.

Having completed this research, the successful candidate will be able to name a range that is close to the salary offered, but also extends that range by several thousand dollars. Thus, there will be a considerable margin of starting at the top of the existing range.

Marilyn L. Kinch is the assistant director of career services.
The more you have to spend on checking, the less you'll have left to spend.

When you're starting out in New York, you can't live without a checking account. But it hasn't been easy to find a checking account you can live with, either. Banks can tie up most of your money with hefty minimum balances, then whittle away at the rest with considerable monthly charges.

But Manufacturers Hanover Trust's new Basic Checking is changing all that. It's everything you ever wanted in a checking account, for less.

There's no minimum opening deposit. No minimum balance. And no charge on the first eight checks you write each month.* You get unlimited free use of all Manufacturers Hanover automatic teller machines, with access to the NYCE and CIRRUS systems. That means you can use over 800 cash machines at banks all over the New York area, and thousands more across the country.

To open your Manufacturers Hanover Basic Checking account, call 1-800-645-6400. We'll even help you close your old account and make a smooth transition.

If you live in New York, you can't avoid writing checks and spending lots of money. But now, at least, you won't have to spend lots of money writing checks.

We realize your potential.

*Ask for full details on service charges. HF

MANUFACTURERS HANOVER
The Financial Source. Worldwide.
Goodbye
Class of '85

Good Luck!!!!!!!
(You might need it...)

Best Wishes,
The Montclarion

Class One of the SGA
Spring semester in review

With The Montclarion’s last publication of the semester, we feel it fitting to take a nostalgic look at the ’85 spring semester. There have been cultural climaxes, political controversies and athletic victories. Some of the more “noteworthy news stories” were:

— Early in the semester, Muslim minister Louis Farrakhan spoke at MSC courtesy of the Black Students Cooperative Union. While his visit inspired some, it also sparked controversy concerning anti-semitism. The Jewish Student Union showed its displeasure by staging a protest in front of Memorial Auditorium.

— The power of unification was proven—MCS students united and raised $1,864 for African famine victims. In the same vein, Class of ’85 sponsored a St. Patrick’s Day Party at the Rat. Each Class One donated something for the event, and these proceeds also went to victims of the African famine.

— In March, William H. Griffith replaced Elliot Mininberg as vice president for Administration and Finance. Board of Trustees came to a firm decision only after a nationwide search.

— The English department took a step in the right direction. The “Visitors in the Humanities,” program was initiated to revitalize the Introduction to Literature course. The prominent poet/novelist James Dickey (author of novel and motion picture, Deliverance), and contemporary poet Stephen Dunn (Not Dancing) were two of the six guests in the new program.

— Spring Weekend ’85 was a huge success, which reinstated an “institution” that was discontinued six years ago—the carnival.

— An SGA election event! The position for the Representative to the Board of Trustees ended in a 600-600 tie, and was decided by a legislative vote.

— New York Times’ science editor Walter Sullivan was the guest speaker at the annual Presidential Lecture Series. Sullivan discussed both the negative and positive aspects of the world’s future scientific outlook. His lecture was entitled “Hopes and Fears of 2001.”

— Five actors from the Royal Shakespeare Company crossed the Atlantic via AIR (Actors In Residence). During their five day stay, the company held 22 classes, four workshops and five public performances. Two of their major performances included An Evening With Beckett, and Shakespeare’s pastoral comedy, As You Like It. These performances were awe-inspiring and brought a taste of the Globe to the MSC campus.

— The Major Theater Series had a successful season; highlights of this were Commedia dell’Arte and the recent The Servants of Two Masters. MT’s shares its success with Players’ production of Beyond Therapy.

— Both the baseball team and the softball team were winners this season: The women are going to the Atlantic Regional, and the baseball team is the number one seed in the New Jersey State Athletic conference Playoffs.

Some might say this semester was not much different than previous semesters, but any semester that’s over is a well-deserved restful summer. Have a restful summer.
The last word on Armenian genocide

To the editor:

In response to Mr. Batkay's article which appeared in the May 2nd issue of The Montclarion, it is indeed a sad commentary when the executioner is equated with the executed.

If Mr. Batkay took the time to investigate the documents in the U.S. National Archives in Washington, D.C., he would realize the full dimension of the catastrophe of the Armenian genocide and be unable to justify it. Here the General Records of the Department of State includes within them the extensive diplomatic correspondence relating to the Internal Affairs of Turkey. One file, in particular, the period of time between 1910 and 1929, covers the Armenian genocide. This file contains reports and documents from many sources, including missionaries from Germany, the U.S. and other countries, consular officials, relief workers and eyewitness survivors.

During the massacres between 1915 to 1923, the U.S. newspapers, especially the New York Times, gave prominent coverage of the deportations and slaughters of thousands of Armenians. Pleas were made by Lord Bryce, the Pope and U.S. Ambassador Henry Morgenthau to end the massacre which appeared in the newspapers of the times. Objective scholarship worldwide documented the events.

Americans during this time sent over missionaries to set up camps for the thousands of orphaned Armenians, although this aid was blocked in many areas. The Red Cross was eventually banned in Turkey and nothing further was done.

After World War II, when the U.S. changed its policy to one of amity and commerce, in the light of Turkey's strategic location, it was then that the media started to allow such qualifying terms as alleged or supposed to be used in reference to the extermination of the Armenia population in the Ottoman Empire. This, despite the fact that since World War II the Turkish governments have given excuses as well as justifications for the genocide which contradict each other.

We would dishonor the victims and survivors of this heinous crime if we were to forget or to justify the Armenian genocide. The attitude and mentality that led to the genocide continues today among the leaders of Turkey. A mature government should be able to admit to its past mistakes. If the regimes are allowed to forget, and ask the world to forget about the murder of one and a half million lives, who is to say that they, and other governments, will not use genocide as an implement of government policy in the future?

The famous German author, Franz Werfel's Forty Days of Musa Dagh is based on the Armenian conditions of his times, and has been translated into many languages, including English.

Lorig Hamparian
Junior/communications

Demonstrations are “in” on campuses

To the editor:

Are today's college students looking for a fight? It seems that way. For the last week a demonstration of some kind has been either televised or in the press. From Berkeley to Columbia it seems like the "bad old days" of the 60's are coming back like a recurring nightmare. The two really "in" things to protest this year are the Reagan Administration's policy in Central America and American corporations business dealings in South Africa. I'm not complaining about the right to protest, which is freedom that should be cherished and protected. But do these protesters have all the facts? Any logical person can see that apartheid is an evil practice, but if America pulls out its investments it can only hurt the blacks there even more. In American companies in South Africa, blacks can rise to management level jobs and receive the same pay and treatment as whites.

Through America's example and the Reagan Administration working with the South African government apartheid can be done away with. Another issue that campus protesters are screaming against is aid to the contra rebels. They seem to see the proposed aid as the U.S. causing trouble for the peace-loving Sandinistas. I wonder if these students are aware that these "peace-loving" people are practicing genocide against the Miskito Indians in Nicaragua? Or that they have censorship of the media?

It's good to see some social involvement on America's colleges besides parties, but students shouldn't ignore facts for the sheer romanticism of campus demonstrations.

Steven Lettieri
Senior/English

Get More Cash For Your Books

APO Used Book Store starts next semester

APO is a class four organization of the SGA
Another semester complete and The Montclarion couldn’t have done it without the following people:

Lynn Becker
Joanne Cummings
James Curran
Pasquale DiFulco
Wendy Deja
Stacey Dunleavy
Maureen Freeburg
Rich Hango
Mary Heffernan
Karen Hughes
Debbie Jackson
Angela Klaus
Betsy Keating (come back!)
Vladimir Koump
Lisa Martucci
Mike M. “Zoom” Mensa
MaryAnn Milcetic

Elizabeth Millar
Doug Murphy
Jim Nicosia
Bill Normyle
Maria Papaianni
Susie Resnick
Lisa Ricotta
Matt Russas
Sue Ryall
Anna Schiavo
Jennifer Slechta
Abby Schwartz
Karen Schwarz
Perry Schwarz
Shawn Smith
Warren Thomas
Pasiano Villanueva

Mike Woods  Michael McKeon

Goodbye to Susan August & Mark Bayles

Thank you all!

Everyone have a great summer and next fall remember to . . .
get between our sheets!
Spring '85...A Look Back

Controversial Muslim minister speaks at MSC lecture
By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

Now that spring break is over, MSC students are back to the grind of writing term papers and taking exams. Are you already red of all the school work? Do you wish you were back in the sun? Do you need a little lift, but you just can't take a break? Then come to the first annual "Party under the Sun." Spring Weekend '85 is sponsored by the MSC Student Government. Students will have to pay an admission fee, which will go towards purchase of the prizes.

Later, Surfn' MSC Night gets under way, complete with a twist on the classic Beach Ball game and players will provide clowns and acrobats. Music will be supplied by MSC Auxiliary Board of Trustees members.

By Warren Thomas

Griffith replaces Minnaberg

New VP for Administration and Finance selected

After a nationwide search, MSC President Donald J. Raba announced the appointment of William T. Griffith as vice president for administration and finance.

"The autonomy bills pass in Senate and Assembly"

By Warren Thomas

Thousands of legislative bills passed during the spring session of the Florida legislature. The bills included legislation that would affect students and faculty at MSC.

"Poet and novelist lectures at MSC"

Poet and novelist James Dickey gave the second lecture of the "Visitors in the Humanities" series Thursday afternoon. Dickey is best known for his Novel, Deliverance, which was adapted into a successful motion picture.

By Warren Thomas

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night.

By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"Party under the Sun" Spring Weekend '85 is sponsored by the MSC Student Government. Students will have to pay an admission fee, which will go towards purchase of the prizes.

On Thursday, CLUB will sponsor a game of Simon Says and Players will provide clowns and acrobats.

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac

"I am glad for Mr. Reagan's cutting back. I like what is going on in Washington. You can see a friend in the White House. You have to get up and do for yourselves."

These are the words of Louis Farrakhan, a controversial Muslim minister who spoke Tuesday night. By Mary Ellen Maclsaac
That's Entertain!

From February 6-9, Players rocked the campus with laughter in bawdy comedy. Some jokes were dated, but they were successful. Pictured here are Steve Strang-Wolf, Steven Friedman and Pat Baxter, Jennie Stoller, and Patrick Godfrey.

Desmond Sugar displayed his grace and talent in the Spring Dance Festival held from March 21-23.

On March 7, the outrageous comic musician John Valby entertained a full house of 300 rowdy participants. The event was sponsored by CLUB.

Five members of the RSC visited MSC as part of a tour of workshops, poetry readings, and brisk, witty theatre. Pictured are Steve Strang-Wolf, Steven Friedman, Pat Baxter, Jennie Stoller, Patrick Godfrey, and Garret.
Entertainment!

On February 8, Senta Driver's dance company, HARRY, presented a daring, innovative dance concert. Here three members of the company perform in "Second Generation."

Photo by Rich Hango

The Montclarion/Thurs., May 9, 1985 15

The last week of February saw the revival of Philip Barry's Philadelphia Story. Here rival suitors Dexter (Martin Jude Farewell) and Conner (Thomas Drummer) trade punches over the spoiled and willful heiress Tracy Lord.
Spring Sports Highlights

MSC Baseball sets sights on NCAA World Series title

By Jim Nicosia

If there's one thing the MSC campus has gotten used to over the years, it's the success of the Indians' baseball team.

Last year's Indians, in their first season under Head Coach Kevin Cooney, finished with the most successful season in MSC baseball history. They posted a 32-12-1 record, swept the NCAA Northeast Regional tournament, and eventually finished third in the Division III World Series. As the 1985 Varsity Baseball Outlook release says, "Last year will be a tough act for the Indians to follow.

Four Indians from the 1984 squad were lost to graduation: Mike Nicosia, John Salmi, Mike Butler, and Bob Schrann. Senior co-captains Bryan Gabriel and Bob Schrann were both named to the NJSAC all-conference team.

Cooney feels the upgraded schedule will help the team when it comes time for tournament play. "I want to get our hitters used to facing good pitching," said Cooney. "There's no sense in feasting on some Humpty Dumpty. I want to keep our hitters primed."

What Cooney is planning to do to prepare the Indians' bats for the kind of pitching they're going to see in the Northeast Regional Tournament and, hopefully, the World Series.

Emery shines despite hoopsters cloudy season

Lineman Renae named Kodak All-American

By Perry Ackerman

Emery's performance on the football field earned him a spot on the Kodak All-American team. This is a well-deserved recognition for his hard work and dedication.

NCAA's-Monaco earns All-American; Minneapolis...
SPRING SALE!

At Cost Inventory Liquidation
One Time Only: May 6 - May 23
It's worth a Look: Changing Daily
--The College Store
Independent Study Productions at Studio Theater

Medea will be directed by Andrew J. M. Regiec as an Independent Study Project in the Studio Theater on May 10 at 4 p.m. and May 11 at 8 p.m. Ron Gasparrinetti is designing the set and lights; Tina Marie Hendricks is Stage Manager.

Last members of Medea include Diane Aslanis, Kernan Bell, Fran Gumb, Frank Calafioire, Duane Epyud, Patrick Keenan, Maria Mantlik, Christine Yacovelli, Nichollete Vaytay and Gary Mink.

Also on the Independent Projects agenda is Greater Tuna, a crazy, chaotic comedy full of weird, black humor. Written by Jatson Williams, Joe Sears and Ed Howard, this triple collaboration utilizes only three actors, Speech/Theater majors Kevin Fabian, Michele Tauber and Geoffrey Morris, to play twenty roles.

Michael McFadden, graduate Speech/Theater major, is directing the production; Stage Manager is Tim Herman. Dave Campanile is designing the lighting. James Martino is in charge of sound and costumes are designed by Alan Hillowitz. All are Speech/Theater majors at MSC.

Greater Tuna will be presented on May 14 at 8 p.m. and May 15 at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. at the Studio Theater.

Admission to both shows is free.

Piano Recital

Barbara Holmquest, pianist, returns to MSC to give a piano recital in McEchern Recital Hall on Wed., May 15, at 8 p.m. The program begins with "Sonata in D major (Napolitana)" by Paradisi. Following will be "Sonata in G major, opus 78" by Schubert, "Noctuelles, Opus 21, no. 6" by Schumann and the program concludes with "Le tombeau de Couperin" by Ravel.

Holmquest was a student at the Juilliard Graduate School for many years with Carl Friedburg, one of the last surviving pupils of Clara Schumann. The intensified study of Schumann's life and work often leads backward as well as forward in time: to classic, impressionistic and to neoclassic music. It therefore seems appropriate to surround Schumann's work with compositions by Paradisi, Schubert and Ravel.

Admission to the recital is free and open to the public. Further information may be obtained by calling Laura Woodson-Hammond, 893-5113.

Hummel/Topper Exhibit at Gallery One

"People, Places and Faces" is the title of a black and white photographic exhibit to be presented by Eric Hummel and Susan Topper at MSC. The exhibit in Gallery One on campus will open on Tues., May 14, and will run through Fri., May 31. There will be an opening reception for this exhibit on Sun., May 19, from 2 to 5 p.m.

Hummel is a resident of Hoboken and a master's candidate in art, with studio concentration in photography at MSC. Most of his work is done on infrared film, and is of either surrealistic landscapes or candid street photography.

Susan Topper is a resident of Metuchen and was a full time graduate student in the Fine Arts department at MSC. She took part in the "Ellis Island:Documentation and Interpretation Visual Arts Workshop" the past two summers, a photographic documentation of Ellis Island buildings for the National Park service prior to its rebuilding.

The exhibits are free and open to the public. Gallery One is open weekdays from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Further information may be obtained by calling Roseanne Martin, 893-5113.

New York Philharmonic Ensembles at MSC

The New York Philharmonic Ensembles concludes their series of chamber music concerts at MSC on Sun., May 12, with a "Mother's Day Treat." The concert begins with "Phantasy Quartet for Oboe, Violin and Cello, Opus 2" by Benjamin Britten, featuring Sherry Slyar, oboe; Gabriel Banet, violin; Judith Nelson, viola and Nathan Stutch, cello.

Also on the program will be "Trio for Flute Bassoon and Piano, G major, Opus 119" by Friedrich Kuhlau, performed by Jeanne Baxtresser, flute; David Carroll, bassoon, and Jonathan Feldman, piano.

Last on the program will be "Octet for Wind Instruments and Strings, F Major, Opus Posth., 116" by Franz Schubert, performed by Peter Simenauer, a member of the MSC faculty, clarinet; Jerome Ashby, also on the MSC faculty, horn; Leonard Hindell, bassoon; Charles Rex violin; Gino Sambuco, violin; Paul Sambuco, violin; Nathan Stutch, cello and William Blossom, doublebass.

Tickets for this concert are $11 standard, $8 for students with valid MSC I.D. and senior citizens and may be obtained by calling the Office of Cultural Programming, 893-5112.

DRINKING AND DRIVING

CAN KILL A FRIENDSHIP
Summer reading list

By L. Claire Martucci

Now that the end of the semester is near and summer is rapidly approaching, I’ll bet a lot of you are despondent over the prospect of spending the next two or three months with virtually nothing to do.

Well, fret no more! Summer is the perfect time to pick up and read all of the books you had to shelve during the school year because you were too busy writing (or purchasing) term papers and cramming for exams. A book is a ‘rather small, friendly parcel (unless you’re an Ayn Rand fan) that can be read on the beach, the train and anywhere else you can think of.

Brief reviews of a number of books I’ve enjoyed this past year are represented here, but you might also want to scan the New Yorker, the Atlantic and the New York Times Book Review section for more comprehensive accounts of worthwhile reading. Deadly Gambits, by Time magazine correspondent Strobe Talbott provides a grim and shocking account of nuclear arms control during the first term of the Reagan administration. Talbott’s penetrative portrayal of bureaucratic infighting and the discontent ting Isaac in the U.S. and the U.S.S.R. make the Shoot- Out at Ok Corral look like a more syrupy episode of Little House on the Prairie.

Deadly Gambits is a must for anyone who either voted for Ronald Reagan in 1984 (mistaking him for Clint Eastwood) or anyone who doesn’t know what the acronyms START, SALT II and INF stand for.

Last summer, Judith Rossner came out with a seventh novel, August, which is currently available at supermarkets, airports, and large indoor shopping malls (not to be confused with Los Angeles). I found it to be perfect summer reading: gripping, humorous, cleverly plotted and about as urbane as isolation tanks and the elusive essence of dehumanity.

The author of bestselling novels, such as The Culture of Narcissism shines again in this powerful commentary on society’s emotional retreat from the ominous future of the nuclear arms race, steep economic decline and environmental deterioration.

Lasch’s book does not exactly promise a laugh a minute, but he will make you re-evaluate your selfhood. I found The Minimal Self to be scholarly and creative thinking at its zenith; an invaluable "cultural debate.

Other Women by Lisa Alther, the author of bestselling Kinflicks, is a soap-opera sketch o’ a middle-aged nurse with an opportunely witty and engagingly explores the human interior. This is particularly good reading because you can pick off the stories all at once or one at a time, slowly savoring the delicious literary victuals of Mr. Calvino.

I would also highly recommend the works of any of the following authors: off-the-wall fun, Tom Robbins, Rita Mae Brown, Calvin Trillin and Fran Liebowitz (acerbic social commentary) are ideal.

Mystery lovers and other thrill-seekers should check out John MacDonald, Amanda Cross and Samuel Shem. Old stand-bys John Cheever, James Thurber, John Fowles, Flannery O’Connor and Eudora Welty are an excellent investment of time: more contemporary writers like James Baldwin, Alice Walker and Jayne Anne Phillips, deserve attention this summer.

Have a great summer, but remember to have a great summer, but remember the waterfront for a swim and (2) stay away from the water for a swim and (2) stay away from the water for a swim and (2) stay away from the water for a swim and (2) stay away from the water for a swim and (2) stay away from the water for a swim and (2) stay away from the water for a swim and (2) stay away from the water for a swim.

I'll bet a lot of you are despondent over the prospect of spending the next two or three months with virtually nothing to do. Summer is the perfect time to pick up and read all the books you had to shelve during the school year.
One friendship at a time: your guide to International
Youth Exchange

A SPECIAL PROGRAM FOR NEW GRADUATES
CAN HELP YOU INTO A NEW CHRYSLER OR PLYMOUTH.

With graduation here, you're probably ready for a new car. Chrysler Corporation understands the graduate's problems establishing a credit history and getting together enough cash to finance a new car purchase. Now you can afford a new car, thanks to Chrysler's special
Gold Key program for college graduates.

You can drive a new
1985 Chrysler or Plymouth
for a fraction of the purchase cost, with affordably low monthly payments. You have six months from the receipt of your degree to take advantage of this exclusive program.

Mail the coupon below and get full details of this special Gold Key
program for you,
the new college
graduate. Act now.

SEND MY MATERIALS TO THE ADDRESS BELOW.

Name
Address
City State Zip
College or University
Graduation Date

Mail to: Chrysler-Plymouth College Graduate Program
2751 E. Jefferson Avenue
Detroit, MI 48207
Jim: Cheer up. The world isn't coming to an end yet. A concerned friend.

Vicky: What's in my horoscope for today? The Fish.

Chris M: You've got the most beautiful eyes I've ever seen. Someone's going to miss you.

To CIC: The WMSC SMFs are ready for you.

Bona: Congrats on getting out of here. Hope you're ready for an all night celebration.

To WMSC: You guys are great! WMSC—Where Music Still Counts! Mike (Head SMF).

St. Jude: Thank you for your help.

Pokey Aurilia: It's been fun failing out together. Break a leg. Yours, Anorexic Gumby.

Jim N. Get your hearing fixed. I said candidate.

Jim N. Sticks and stones may break my bones but your wit couldn't cut butter. Your pal, David St. Hubens.

Congratulations Karen F. on your finally graduating. It's been the best 8 years of your life.

Tony A: What A Wanker.

To Jim N. and Chris N. The Hotel 101C Thanks you for your business.

Mitch: Chill out, you don't have a chance - Opus.

Allison G.: Thanks for the scissors. Now we're even.

Janine: Are you a Go'er Nudge Nudge Say No More.

Matt: You knucklehead.

For a good time call Lisa W. If she's not home call Allison G. Signed a friend.

Jim, And Here they are live from the Cliffs Amphitheater, Dublin's own U2. Adam.

The Edge: Do you have to shake the dew off your lily again. You're getting to be just like someone else. Chris.

Mitch: Did you ever find your shoes? The boys from 101C.

Chris H.: Here's your dirty personal "MUD" - can you handle it? A.G.

Löwenbräu. Here's to good friends.
Andrea and Barbara. The search for KEN continues. I guess we'll just have to find out if you're the only contestant or if the judges are blind deaf and dumb. Break a leg.

—To Alan, my bestest roommate: It's been 3 great years!!! Best of luck in Grad school! We WILL keep in touch! Tracy Bear

—John: Now that the dumpster is dumped, who is in line next? Does she like hospitals? James.

—Barbara: CONGRATULATIONS!!! I know you'll make the best flight attendant ever. Everyone else can eat their heart out! Your best friend, Diane.

—Kurt: It's better to look marvelous than to feel marvelous. Darling!

—DQ: We may have had our differences, but thanks for a year of Hawaiianshirts and the J's. Best of luck, Bill.

—Mary M. WMSC needs a new shrink, but we'll never find one as good as you. Love, Bill —David: Have an enjoyable summer and don't think about her too much. James.

—C.L.U.B. Entertainment would like to thank everyone who helped make this year a success and each show run smooth. SPECIAL THANKS to Allison and Rosemarie, Tracy, Dawn, Dan Cappa, John L., Bruce, Dave Handal, Frank, Mark Romano, Janice, Jeannie, Janet, Zoni, Chris, and everyone else from C.L.U.B. and the Rathskeller. Thanks, Love, Cathy.

—Jodie: This weekend try to wake up inside your bed, okay?

—Hey John: How much of that drink do you have left? And Where's my purple fuzzy dye?

—Bob: Do you know what time it is? Time to call your father-in-law. A concerned friend.

—Hey girls: Only 21 more days till graduation. Get psyched. Love Diane.

—Michelle: As Miss America? Oh no! Oh yes!!!

—Q: What does the Miss America pageant need after Vanessa Williams?

—A: Michele Samarya.

—A live audience and maybe a crown too. What do you think of that, WMSC? I'm even singing a John Denver song!! Your favorite PSA person.

—Amy Nafinger of Bohn Hall room 1209. You have a secret admirer who thinks you're really cute. XOXOXO.

—R.F. Love is patient. A.P.

—Kathie: I had a great time at the ball and feel that it was all worth while. All the best in the future. Mitch.

—M: Foresight can be tough, but sometimes it's very easy. I know we had a great time seeing. Warren. M.

—To CIC Exec. Board: Thanks for all your help this year. I hope you all were able to achieve or learn something, and feel that it was all worthwhile. All the best in the future. Mitch.

—Debbie: Thank you for being there for me. I love you. Always remember, you're beautiful. Love Jim.

—Neil, It was worth blowing off class in the vino of CBGB's in NYC of Flying Burrito Bros in November. You're beautiful. Love Jim.

—Kathy O'Giligan's pinkie. Last ren on 35 Little Falls Rd. Fairfield 575-0062.

—To my auctioneer: Happy one year anniversary. You turn me on. Hornet.

—Tibby: Are you ever going to meet s at Dynasty's? Lisa and Candie.

—Blue Mustang: I lub your body, I think you're sexy, maybe we can sneeze together. You turn me on. Hornet.

—CONGRATULATIONS Sharon and Dave on the arrival of your daughter Corra Ann-Marie Allen. Lots of luck and love! Love, Frank and Denise.

—To my auctioneer: Happy one year and 3 months. I love you.

—Michael: To the most wonderful person in my life... I love you. Barb. P.S. Just think only one more month!!

—HAPPY 21st BIRTHDAY MARY IT!II!!

ACCOUNTING FINANCE GRADUATES

Before graduation register with
HAROLD GOLDSTEIN CO., INC.
Financial Recruiter

For Free Resume & Job Search Counseling in the Central & North Jersey, Manhattan, Rockland & Southern Connecticut areas.

Or send resume with salary requirements history to

HAROLD GOLDSTEIN CO., INC.
P.O. Box 1204, Spring Valley, NY 10977 (914) 425-6195

ONE LOW FEE * STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL

383 Rt. 46 W. Fairfield - Just 3 Mils. W. of Willowbrook
PRIVATE O.B. GYN OFFICE

North Jersey Women's Health Organization

Gynecological Care Pregnancy Testing Birth Control Testing

ONE LOW FEE * STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL

383 Rt. 46 W. Fairfield - Just 3 Mils. W. of Willowbrook
PRIVATE O.B. GYN OFFICE
Montclair Bloomfield Ford
Has a special gift for upcoming graduates

PRE-APPROVED CREDIT FROM FORD CREDIT.

Plus $400 purchase allowance from Ford Motor Company.

$400 Purchase Allowance.

Make your best deal...use the $400 down payment or receive a $400 check directly from Ford after the sale.

Your credit record, if you have one, must indicate payment made as agreed.

Vehicles Included in the Plan.
You may choose a new 1985 Thunderbird, LTD, Tempo, Mustang, Escort, Bruno II, or light truck up to F-250.

Pre-Approved Credit.
Just meet three simple conditions:
• You must have verifiable employment that begins within 120 days of your vehicle purchase at a salary sufficient to cover ordinary living expenses and your vehicle payment.
• You must have proof that you have graduated or will graduate and be awarded at least a bachelor's degree within 120 days.
More people have survived cancer than now live in the City of Los Angeles. Please support the American Cancer Society.

PROBLEM PREGNANCY?

Non-denominational support
Free pregnancy testing and counseling

BIRTHRIGHT 743-2061

The New York Philharmonic Ensembles
Works by Britten, Kuhlau, Schubert
Sunday, May 12 at 7 PM
$11 Standard; $8 Senior Citizen/Student

MEMORIAL AUDITORIUM • CALL 803-5121 • VISA/MASTERCARD ACCEPTED

MONTCLAIR STATE COLLEGE
SCHOOL OF FINE & PERFORMING ARTS

CONVENIENCE FOR TODAY'S WOMAN
New Extended Evening Hours
Mondays and Thursdays, 5:00 - 8:30 PM
CALL FOR BETTER CARE AND CONVENIENCE:
239-8003
Planned Parenthood-Essex County
799 Bloomfield Avenue
Verona, NJ 07044

The City of Los Angeles.
Now live in

More people
than cancer than
now live in

the City of

Los Angeles.

Please

support the

American Cancer Society®

Problem Pregnancy?

Non-denominational support
Free pregnancy testing and counseling

Birthright 743-2061

The Montclairian/Thurs. May 9, 1985 25.

— Dervila Bridg, You are the best Friend anyone could have! You are very special and don't ever forget that! Love, Karen.

— To EVERYONE at MSC who has touched my life and allowed me to touch theirs - Thanks. Love, Judy Sussen.

— Dawn, Teresa and Karen: Watch out Studio One — the girls from Dynasty's have come to take over the dance floor's Cinderella.

— Spring Weekend Committee — you
did a great job. Hospitality.

— H.P.A. — don't forget dollar slice
WIT JUICE Blanton Monday nites.

— HEALTH PROFESSIONS ASSOCIATION: Special thanks to Terry, Lora
Wit JUICE Blanton Monday nites.

— VCANCERATION: Special thanks to Terry, Lora
WIT JUICE Blanton Monday nites.

— Did a great job. Hospitality.

— — H.P.A. — don't forget dollar slice
Dance floor! Candie.

— out Studio One — the girls from
WIT JUICE Blanton Monday nites.

— touched theirs - Thanks. Love. Judy
WIT JUICE Blanton Monday nites.

— touched my life and allowed me to
WIT JUICE Blanton Monday nites.

— Dynasty's have come to take over the
dance floor's Cinderella.

— Spring Weekend Committee — you
did a great job. Hospitality.

— H.P.A. — don't forget dollar slice
Dance floor! Candie.

— out Studio One — the girls from
WIT JUICE Blanton Monday nites.

— thanked sues — Thanks. Love. Judy
WIT JUICE Blanton Monday nites.

— touched my life and allowed me to
WIT JUICE Blanton Monday nites.

Baseball
cont. from backpage

home run to give MSC a 6-2 lead. Rutgers-Camden fought back, though, and came within one run (6-5) before MSC jumped out to an 11-5 lead in the fifth. Jody Tobia, Chris Paganino, and Tim Johnson all doubled for the Indians as they outhit Camden, 13-8. Bob Yeager's 68th and 69th hits of the season set a new record for MSC.

Fasano a sophomore who earned the starting shortstop job midway through the season, is second only to Bob Yeager (.476) in hitting among regulars, with a .427 clip. But it's his all-around play, says Cooney, that earned him his starting spot on the roster. "He makes all the plays," said Cooney. "He's no a flashy player, but an all-around player and that's what you want out of a shortstop. Jimmy just does everything you want done, and his hitting gives us an added dimension."

In Game 2, the Indians continued their hitting, but pitching was the story again for MSC, as Dan Olsson took the mound.

What ensued was not unexpected: a complete-game shutout from the MSC "ace," and an 11-0 rout. Olsson struck out 8 and walked 2 in his eighth complete game, a 3-hit performance. The win, his tenth against no defeats, broke Kevin Cooney's previous won/lost percentage (he was 9-0 in 1972 for MSC), and gave him the 31st win of his career. With 93 strikeouts and only 21 walks, Olsson's ERA stands at a mere 1.11.

Stanislawczynk's initiation back into the MSC lineup was highlighted by a 3-run homer in the 4th inning. Out of the lineup for six weeks, Stanislawczynk was anxious to get back into the swing of things, and has proved to be hot in his first few games back.

Tim Johnson led off with a home run in the first inning. Tim Jones doubled for two more, and Mike Ashton doubled in another run for a 4-0 lead on which MSC never looked back.

Lacrosse
cont. from p. 27

attitude which will help me in later life. I've learned how to be a good winner and a good loser. I'm really going to miss it a lot. I'm going to miss the sport and the friendships I've made through it."

"When I came to MSC as a freshman I still needed to develop a lot of skills. I didn't feel that I could compete at the college level, especially on an MSC team which had won the Mid-East Championship the previous year. I was greatly influenced by Co-captains Kevin Oxley and Jerry Jacob whose help and support enabled me to work harder and do my best," Soni said.

Defenseman Jim Fritz transferred to MSC from FDU-Madison and played his first season with the Indians in 1982. "When I first came here, the co-captain at the time, Kevin Oxley and Jerry Jacob, along with John Calafo made transferring a lot easier. They practiced lacrosse skills with me a lot and gave me a lot of encouragement. "The good thing about MSC is that people who haven't played before can go out for the team. This is important because it helps the sport to grow," said Fritz.

"Lacrosse is exciting because it combines thinking and reacting. It is a physical and skilled sport; not everybody can play it. It is a very close-knit sport."

The Montclarion Wishes
Chris & Evie

All The Best
As They Begin Their
New Life Together.

Class One of the SGA
Four graduating laxmen will miss the field action

By Anna Schiavo

Leaving something that you’ve been a part of for almost four years is never easy. It seems that just when your hard work has established your proficiency within a group or organization, it is time to move on. Although breaking the ties of the past is hard, the knowledge that you’ve done your best in your particular situation makes the transition easier.

The four graduating seniors of the men’s lacrosse team won’t be with the Tribe next season, however, through their positive attitude and dedication they have left their mark on the young squad.

Co-captain Gerry Klug, a football player-turned-stickman, has been with the team since the ’83 season. The transition was a “challenge. The skills I acquired while playing other sports are also applicable to lacrosse. Also the basic defensive strategies and team concepts are similar,” said Klug.

One game that defenseman Klug will always remember was this season’s closing game against Kean College when he scored a goal. “It was just a freak thing because defense does not score a lot and with my poor stick skills my opportunities were limited.”

Klug feels that compared to last year’s team the “attitude has improved 100%. The team has a chance to be really good next season. The co-captains, Pat Judge and I, have tried to bring the team closer.”

Co-captain and midfielder Pat Judge will be missed for both his skill and leadership qualities. Judge has been playing first midfield for three out of the four seasons he’s been with the team. He has made approximately 55 goals during his career at MSC. Judge, a Nanuet, N.Y. native, scored an impressive four goals during the last game of this season. He also recibed the game ball.

The game that stands out the most in midfielder Steve Sona’s mind is the one against Southampton last year. “I scored three goals in that game and one of them I scored while on the man down the team. I was playing with a defensive (six foot) stick. We got the ball and we cleared it up field. I broke to the goal and recovered a pass from the attackman; it was a quick stick goal. Usually defensemen don’t shoot.”

Sona likes lacrosse because “it is aggressive. When you’re out on the field you immediately respect all the players on the other team because if they weren’t tough athletes they wouldn’t be out there.”

In his four years with the team, Sona developed “a real competitive spirit of the game. They can provide you with their first hand experiences of the game as well as filling you in on the rules. Often their enthusiasm for their sport will rub off on you and of course, enthusiasm makes everything more interesting and fun.”

Commentary/Anna Schiavo

To get the most out of a game you should do your sports homework. One good way to learn about a particular sport is to talk to athletes who play the game. They can provide you with their firsthand experiences of the game as well as filling you in on the rules. Often their enthusiasm for their sport will rub off on you and of course, enthusiasm makes everything more interesting and fun.

Reading is a great way to gain knowledge about anything and sports are no exception. Some of the best kinds of books for the budding sports buff are the ones that give a history of the sport as well as the rules. Lacrosse, for example, has a fascinating history which is rooted in the American Indian culture. Learning about the braves that originally played the sport is almost as exciting as watching a present day game.

Once you’ve got the rules of sport down you can become an active spectator which can be as much fun as being in the actual game. Keeping track of who did what during the game will give you the opportunity to apply your knowledge of the game and to acquire insight into both the offensive and defensive strategies of the sport. Soon you’ll be able to "talk" football, basketball or whatever the sport may be with other fans.

One of the greatest aspects of being a spectator is that it opens the door to the possibility of becoming an athlete yourself. Most of the great sports stars started out as fans. Die-hard spectators often dream of making that winning goal or catch themselves. With a little ambition and hard work dreams often come true.
MSC achieves #1 seeding for playoffs

By Jim Niccolai

The Indians' regular season was completed with a win over Rutgers-Newark on Monday, to boost their conference record to 28-10 and now preparing for their "second season."

With a 28-8-2 record against an improved schedule of opponents, this season has been a highly successful one—but you can't put a period on this victory against Rutgers-Newark.

MSC's next task is the NCAA Division III Championship. Not until the Indians finish the only game of the NCAA tournament can the final assessment be made for this year. Kevin Cooney and Co. are shooting for no less than a championship, and the championship could begin first step begins Friday, in the NJ Saul Conference Playoffs.

The Indians meet William Paterson in a best-of-three series beginning at William Paterson on Friday at 3:00. The Indians are the #1 seed in the tournament, and will win the conference crown if they can advance after Game Two at Pittser Field Saturday.

If MSC beats WPC, which is responsible for the Indians' only two conference losses, they will meet the winner of the Rampo-Trenton St. series in a best-of-three series on Monday and Tuesday, probably playing away Monday and at Pittser on Tuesday.

If the Indians win the conference tournament, they will receive an automatic bid into the NCAA Regional tournament. If not, they 'll need a good seed for a chance at receiving. The Regional tournament begins May 22, and, should MSC be invited, there is a possibility of Pittser Field being a host site.

MSC 10-Rutgers-Newark 1

After all the talk of MSC pitching sensation Dan Oisson and all Heidt now preparing for their "second season,"

Jody Tobia beats out a Rutgers' throw to third. Photo by Mike Woods

Jody Tobia's two-out two-run single in the second inning, as Jody Tobia 'doublebatted in two runs, Stanislawczyk doubled for one, and Mike Ashton doubled for three more and a 7-0 MSC lead. From that point on, the only question was whether Garrity could continue his hitting and good pitching. Cooney's three-run single on a down-and-away curve ball, Garrity's bread-and-butter pitch, left no doubts.

 MSC 1 - ESU 0

In the third, Stanislawczyk doubled with one out, and Cooney singled to score him. That point on, the only question was whether Garrity could continue his hitting and good pitching. Cooney's three-run single on a down-and-away curve ball, Garrity's bread-and-butter pitch, left no doubts.

Hitting stars against Rutgers-Newark included Stanislawczyk, who has rebounded very well from the slumps he has sustained earlier in the year against Seton Hall. Stanislawczyk went for 3-for-5 with 3 RBI, including the game winner.

"I'm very surprised to see the hitter get back so quickly," said Cooney of the senior first-baseman. "I hadn't expected him to be ready to play so soon, but he's hit the ball really well."

MSC 11-Rutgers-Camden 0

Second-basemen Jody Tobia was 3-for-4 with two RBI and a pair of doubles for the Indians, and Tim Johnson added two hits in five trips to the plate and a stolen base.

MSC 11-Rutgers-Camden 7
MSC 11-Rutgers-Camden 0

On Saturday, the Indians wrapped up the first seed of the NJSA CPlayoffs by sweeping Rutgers-Camden at Pittser Field, 11-7 and 11-0.

In Game 1, the Indians struggled for four-and-a-half innings before breaking out with five runs in the bottom of the fifth to take an 11-5 lead that proved unsurmountable. Tim Jones singled in the first run of the inning, followed by John Cowan and Bob Yeager singles. Mike Ashton then knocked in a run with a single, and Jim Fasano, the hitting star in Game 1, doubled in two more for the Indians. Ray Castellano and Mike Alberque shut down Rutgers-Camden in the final two innings, preserving Gabe Noto's fourth win against one loss in the season.

In the bottom of the third inning, with the score tied at 2, Fasano triggered a 4-run outburst with a 2-run homer.

MSC 7-East Stroudsburg 0
MSC 10-Rutgers-Newark 1

Senior lacrosse players look back on their careers. See story p. 27

Week in Review

Baseball
MSC 11 - Rutgers-Caden 7
MSC 11 - Rutgers-Camden 0

On Saturday, the Indians wrapped up the first seed of the NJSACPlayoffs by sweeping Rutgers-Camden at Pittser Field, 11-7 and 11-0.

In Game 1, the Indians struggled for four-and-a-half innings before breaking out with five runs in the bottom of the fifth to take an 11-5 lead that proved unsurmountable. Tim Jones singled in the first run of the inning, followed by John Cowan and Bob Yeager singles. Mike Ashton then knocked in a run with a single, and Jim Fasano, the hitting star in Game 1, doubled in two more for the Indians. Ray Castellano and Mike Alberque shut down Rutgers-Camden in the final two innings, preserving Gabe Noto's fourth win against one loss in the season.

In the bottom of the third inning, with the score tied at 2, Fasano triggered a 4-run outburst with a 2-run homer.

MSC 1 - ESU 0
MSC 7 - ESU 3

The Indians ended their 1985 regular season last Wednesday by beating East Stroudsburg University in a double header, 1-0, 7-3. MSC completed their regular season with a record of 28-10.

MSC 10 - Rutgers-Newark 1

In Game one, the Indians took an immediate lead in the first inning, when Karen Hughes singled to center, advanced to second on a ground out, stole third. Debbie Emery scored in a sacrifice fly to right field.

The 1-0 lead held up for MSC, as Emery (8-3) was equally effective on the mound, going seven innings while striking out four, walking three, and allowing only three hits.

In game two, the Indians overpower­ed ESU by taking a lead of 6-0 by the fourth inning.

The Indians suffered two losses to C.W. Post on Tuesday, 2-1, 5-4.

The Indians got another shot at TSC in the Atl. Regionals

By Susan Resnick

MSC 1 - ESU 0
MSC 7 - ESU 3

C.W. Post 2 - MSC 1
C.W. Post 5 - MSC 4

The Indians suffered two losses to C.W. Post on Tuesday, 2-1, 5-4.

In the first game neither team could manage a run in regulation, forcing extra innings.

In the eighth inning, the Indians scored a run when, with pinch runner Barb Onove on third, pinch hitter Marge Theobald singled to left field. Unfortunately, C.W. Post overpowered the Indians for two runs in the bottom of the eighth. With two runners on, Eva Jameson tripled to give them the win.

The second game was another upset for the Indians. C.W. Post took the lead in the first by bringing in two runs. The Indians came back to tie the score in the third inning.

In the fifth, the Indians had three singles by Onove, Emery and Smith to bring Onove in, and put the Indians ahead 3-2. The lead didn't last long. C.W. Post scored a run in the bottom of the fifth to tie the game 3-3.

In the seventh, MSC's Karen Hughes singled, stole second and third, and scored when pinch hitter Stacey Barbosa singled.

C.W. Post won the game in the bottom of the inning, with the help of two walks and three singles. A single by Diane De'Aea drove in the winning run.

The Indians will be competing for the best two-out-of-three in the Atlantic Regionals this Friday at 4 p.m. and Saturday at 1 p.m.

The Indians got another shot at TSC in the Atl. Regionals

Week in Review

Baseball
MSC 11 - Rutgers-Camden 7
MSC 11 - Rutgers-Camden 0

On Saturday, the Indians wrapped up the first seed of the NJSA CPlayoffs by sweeping Rutgers-Camden at Pittser Field, 11-7 and 11-0.

In Game 1, the Indians struggled for four-and-a-half innings before breaking out with five runs in the bottom of the fifth to take an 11-5 lead that proved unsurmountable. Tim Jones singled in the first run of the inning, followed by John Cowan and Bob Yeager singles. Mike Ashton then knocked in a run with a single, and Jim Fasano, the hitting star in Game 1, doubled in two more for the Indians. Ray Castellano and Mike Alberque shut down Rutgers-Camden in the final two innings, preserving Gabe Noto's fourth win against one loss in the season.

In the bottom of the third inning, with the score tied at 2, Fasano triggered a 4-run outburst with a 2-run homer.

MSC 1 - ESU 0
MSC 7 - ESU 3

C.W. Post 2 - MSC 1
C.W. Post 5 - MSC 4