Insight into prisoners’ lives

By Jane Beck
Staff Writer

A group of MSC students traveled to Rahway State Prison on Oct. 30 to meet with the Lifers, an organization formed by prisoners.

The MSC students are participants in the course “Introduction to Criminal Justice,” taught by Dr. David J. Dodd. It is part of a newly established minor in Criminal Justice offered by the Department of Sociology.

Lifers was founded as a non-profit organization in 1975 by a group of long-term offenders at the prison. By 1976, the group had initiated its first project, entitled “Scarred Straight,” an award-winning movie whose aim was to discourage adolescents from committing crimes.

Rahway State Prison, built in 1896, is a NJ maximum-security prison, which houses over 1650 inmates. Many of the prisoners are serving sentences for violent or drug-related crimes and must have sentences from 25 years to life.

On entry, the students underwent a security check for drugs and weapons. The students were then given a tour of the prison by the Lifers. The smallest cells are in the wing where incoming prisoners are put for at least six months. The cells barely have enough room to lie stretched out on the bed. Several students were put in a cell. One of the students remarked, “If I’d been locked up for another minute, I’d have started to scream for somebody to let me out.”

How do prisoners manage to cope with the life and living in the same small cell for six months? Many inmates have a hard time getting through the initial period, when they are only allowed out ten minutes a day for personal phone calls, plus an hour for showering and exercise.

The prisoner is eventually moved from these small cells to a larger cell. He is then given the choice of either working or continuing his education. There is an illiteracy rate of about 40% among the inmates and the average reading level is that of the fourth grade. For the Lifers, the possibility of learning is a main reason for coming involved in activities and research.

Through this visit the students learned that it is up to the individual to survive the system. Only the strongest make it out with their sanity intact.

When the tour of the prison was completed, the students were seated in the prison auditorium together with about eight to ten inmates and members of the Lifers who talked about the organization. The main objective of the Lifers is to help adolescents. There is a very strong sense of dedication among the Lifers. Some are parents and grandparents themselves, and they stressed several times that their sole aim is to prevent juveniles from going through their own experiences. In an attempt to provide immediate help and advice for juveniles, they have established a hot-line where adolescents with problems can call.

The Lifers run several other projects. One of the most important is the Parental Awareness Project. Every Thursday night, groups of concerned parents gather at the prison. Here the prisoners try to make parents aware of potential problems and give them hints to help their children if they are subjected to peer pressure.

Another program, “Tips on Prevention,” teaches adolescents how to avoid becoming crime victims. This program is mainly directed towards girls who are often subjects of rape and abduction.

When asked if teaching about crime prevention did not make people too anxious, one Lifesman answered, “Our goal is not to make kids paranoid, just cautious.”

Among other activities, the Lifers also stage performances and fundraising events. All their events are funded by admission fees and the equivalent in stars. See pg. 3.

Over 50 law schools participate

Fifth Law School admissions day

By Bob Shore
Correspondent

MSC hosted NJ’s fifth annual Law School Admissions Day, the only event of its kind in the state, last Wednesday in the Student Center Ballroom.

The program was highlighted by two panel discussions at 9:30 am and 2:30 pm. In between, students could speak to admissions officers from over 50 law schools, and representatives of the NJ State Bar Assoc. (Young Lawyers Division), the Office of the Attorney General, the Puerto Rican Legal Defense and Education Club, the Phi Alpha Paralegal Assoc.

The program was highlighted by two panel discussions at 9:30 am and 2:30 pm. In between, students could speak to admissions officers from over 50 law schools, and representatives of the NJ State Bar Assoc. (Young Lawyers Division), the Office of the Attorney General, the Puerto Rican Legal Defense and Education Club, the Phi Alpha Paralegal Assoc.

At the second panel discussion, “Attending a Law School,” Richard Trenk of the NJ State Bar Assoc., and two current law students spoke about first-year pressures, teaching and grading methods, clerkship and employment possibilities.

Tomas Almirez, who attends Columbia University, School of Law, gave a description of a typical law student’s day—three to four hours of classes, five to six of study, intense competition, and a lot of stress.

“Most of the students who go to law school are used to being in the top ten percent of their class,” he said, “but not everyone can be in the top ten. Law classes are not as personal as undergraduate ones, some have more than 200 students. Just being there doesn’t mean you’ll get an A.”

However, everyone on the panel agreed that by the second year most law students adjust to the work load, and spend their remaining two years becoming involved in activities and research.

Trenk added that many law schools are taking steps to alleviate the “survival of the fittest” atmosphere by trying to be more selective in admissions and more supportive of first-year students.

People who enter the field just for money, he said, are often unhappy with the work.

“Law should be approached as a vehicle for your interests, not just as a job,” he said.

Trenk also stressed that prospective law students should not be deterred by talk about the glut of lawyers because firms are always looking for people to do legal research.

The event was made possible in part by a grant from the Aaron and Rachel Meyer Memorial Foundation, Inc., and was sponsored by the Pre-Law Society of the SGA, the MSC Center for Legal Studies, the Phi Alpha Delta legal fraternity, and the SGA Student Paralegal Assoc.

Lifers, an organization formed by prisoners, was initiated its first project, entitled “Scared Straight,” an award-winning movie whose aim was to discourage adolescents from committing crimes.

Rahway State Prison, built in 1896, is a NJ maximum-security prison, which houses over 1650 inmates. Many of the prisoners are serving sentences for violent or drug-related crimes and most have sentences from 25 years to life.

On entry, the students underwent a security check for drugs and weapons. The students were then given a tour of the prison by the Lifers. The size of the cells that the prisoners live in varies. The smallest cells are in the wing where incoming prisoners are put for at least six months. The cells barely have enough room to lie stretched out on the bed. Several students were put in a cell. One of the students remarked, “If I’d been locked up for another minute, I’d have started to scream for somebody to let me out.”

How do prisoners manage to cope with the life and living in the same small cell for six months? Many inmates have a hard time getting through the initial period, when they are only allowed out ten minutes a day for personal phone calls, plus an hour for showering and exercise.

The prisoner is eventually moved from these small cells to a larger cell. He is then given the choice of either working or continuing his education. There is an illiteracy rate of about 40% among the inmates and the average reading level is that of the fourth grade. For the Lifers, the possibility of learning is a main reason for coming involved in activities and research.

Through this visit the students learned that it is up to the individual to survive the system. Only the strongest make it out with their sanity intact.

When the tour of the prison was completed, the students were seated in the prison auditorium together with about eight to ten inmates and members of the Lifers who talked about the organization. The main objective of the Lifers is to help adolescents. There is a very strong sense of dedication among the Lifers. Some are parents and grandparents themselves, and they stressed several times that their sole aim is to prevent juveniles from going through their own experiences. In an attempt to provide immediate help and advice for juveniles, they have established a hot-line where adolescents with problems can call.

The Lifers run several other projects. One of the most important is the Parental Awareness Project. Every Thursday night, groups of concerned parents gather at the prison. Here the prisoners try to make parents aware of potential problems and give them hints to help their children if they are subjected to peer pressure.

Another program, “Tips on Prevention,” teaches adolescents how to avoid becoming crime victims. This program is mainly directed towards girls who are often subjects of rape and abduction.

When asked if teaching about crime prevention did not make people too anxious, one Lifesman answered, “Our goal is not to make kids paranoid, just cautious.”

Among other activities, the Lifers also stage performances and fundraising events. All their events are funded by admission fees and the equivalent in stars. See pg. 3.
Juniors, Seniors & Grads...

GIVE YOURSELF SOME CREDIT!

APPLY NOW FOR YOUR VERY OWN...

- Bring a photocopy of your School I.D.
- No cosigner required

APPLY NOW ON CAMPUS!

Date: November 9, 10 & 11
Time: 10 am - 3 pm
Place: Student Center Lobby

Date: November 16, 1987
Team Captains Meetings: Monday 9, 1987
Backgammon Tournament: Wednesday, Nov. 11, 1987 in the Student Center Cafe. Beginning at 4pm

Applications and information available at the following offices:
- SILC
- Student Activities
- Fieldhouse

No Fee Until We Win Your Case

Did you know that you don't have to pay a thing until we win your case? And your fee depends entirely on the amount of your cash award? If you've been injured, call me for a free consultation. I'll explain how we can help protect your legal rights and file your claim for compensation for your loss. And don't worry. There's no fee until we win your case.

FRED RABINOWITZ
ATTORNEY AT LAW
"10 Minutes From Montclair State College"

124 Gregory Avenue*Suite 202*Passaic, New Jersey
471-2288

JOIN/
The Montclarion
...it's never too late!

If you enjoy:
- Writing
- Photography
- Graphic arts
- Proofreading
- Layout
- Paste-up

Stop by our office

We welcome new members all year round. It's never too late to join. And remember English, Journalism, Communications, Art students...

IT LOOKS GOOD ON YOUR RESUME!!!

A Class One of the SGA

The Student Intramural And Leisure Council

SILC
Presents Fall VOLLEYBALL Co-Rec Mens/Womens
Beginning: Monday, November 16, 1987
Team Captains Meetings: Monday 9, 1987
Backgammon Tournament: Wednesday, Nov. 11, 1987 in the Student Center Cafe. Beginning at 4pm

Applications and information available at the following offices:
- SILC
- Student Activities
- Fieldhouse

SILC is a Class I of the SGA

Here's an invitation from all of us to try our new restaurant.

Join us at Montclair's newest restaurant. J.B. Winberie— the place where good food, good wine, and good friends come together naturally.

J.B. Winberie
RESTAURANT AND BAR
Corner of S. Park & Church Streets Across from Hahne's. - 744-0402
J.B. Winberie: Where the food is special, and so are you.

American Express and other major credit cards honored.
Blanton search reveals violations

By Jill Ficarra
Staff Writer

While students were waiting to be readmitted after Blanton Hall’s fire last week, there was an administrative search of the dorm rooms. Some of the items found that went against regulation were alcohol, gate arms, and appliances. The residents will face disciplinary action.

On Oct. 27, a male student attempted to forcefully enter into a female resident’s room in Webster Hall. He was attempting to break the screen on her window when the resident saw him and called campus police. The student was arrested and charged with burglary and criminal mischief.

On Oct. 24 two students walking near the Student Center had eggs thrown at them from a passing car. A student answering a first floor Bohn Hall pay phone received a bomb threat on Nov 1. After the initial threat, the student’s life was also threatened.

On Nov. 1, a Clove Road Apartment was entered through its rear window and $75.00 in cash was stolen.

Student discount with ID Except Sale Items
- Willowbrook Mall
- Across From Sam Goody

Health Fair raises awareness across campus. Students take advantage of free diagnostic testing by local groups.

SILC is a Class I of the SGA
FOREVER TAN
Keep Your Summer Glow
260 Bellevue Ave.
Upper Montclair, NJ
Above the Bellevue Theatre 783-0077

1/2 Price Tanning Special
Join any package at regular price and receive any package less than or equal to that value for 1/2 price at time of renewal.
(With this coupon)
(Cannot be used in conjunction with any other special or discount)
Expires Dec. 31, 1987

PLAY THE FIELD!
Explore Employment Options
Immediate Openings
Flexible Schedules

$100 — BONUS
After 80 Hours Work
(New Apps. Only With This Ad)
Word Processing ....

WE OFFER:
* Superior Pay Rates
* Vacation/Holiday Pay
* Additional Bonus Plan
* Optional Insurance Package
* Convenient Local Assignments

Call Wendy at 256-2444
Steeple Temporary Services
25 Notch Rd., Little Falls, NJ
(Near Montclair/Clifton - Valley Rd.)
NEVER A FEE

Part-Time Sales
With Management Potential
America’s Largest Sofabed Specialist
$6.00 per hour plus commission
Excellent exposure into retail world
Good appearance, outgoing personality and conscientious work habits necessary
No Experience Needed
We are open 68 hrs
Mon. thru Fri. 10-9
Sun. 12-5
Pick up your hours
Jennifer Convertibles
Contact Mr. Falk: 201-343-0300

In 1985, a controversial novel portrayed the wild, excessive lives of the kids in Beverly Hills.

On Friday, November 6th, brace yourself for the motion picture.

ANDREW McCarthy
JAMI GERTZ
ROBERT DOWNEY, JR.

LESS THAN ZERO

TWENTIETH CENTURY FOX
MARVIN WORTH — LESS THAN ZERO
ANDREW MCCARTHY, JAMI GERTZ, ROBERT DOWNEY, JR.

BARBARA LING HARLEY PEYTON BRITT EASTON ELLIS

AND AMERICAN ENTERTAINMENT PARTNERS

GIFT CERTIFICATES AVAILABLE VALID ONLY WITH THIS COUPON
EXPIRES 11/26/87
Eye on MSC
A full house watched Van Halen and California Raisins rock at CLUB's Annual Lip Sync Contest. This year's winners were those California Raisins boppin.

Prison life revealed
cont. from pg. 1.

Visits to Europe's most exciting cities are planned for a European Study Tour under the direction of Dr. Jack Sacher, of the music department.

The course, earning 3 s.h., is open to all students, regardless of major, and will include theatrical and musical performances as well as visits to art museums and historical sites.

Each activity will be preceded by explanatory lectures or will be led by experienced guides. Among these activities are ballet, concert and operatic performances; plays, tours of cities and their important sites; and side trips to the Bavarian castles, the concentration camp at Dachau, Versailles and Salzburg.

Students interested should contact Prof. Sacher at the Music Department, extension 5226, soon, as the number of participants is limited to 20.

SGA News
Elections for Class I’s in May

By Drita Fitera
Correspondent

SGA President Rob Acerra stated that all Class One organizations are to hold their elections in conjunction with the school and not the calendar year. All groups will now elect in May for a term of office from June 1 to May 31. Of the eleven Class One Organizations, only The Montclarion, WMSC-FM, Players, and the Conservation Club, currently have December elections, with the offices running from January 1 to December 31.

Mike Borgia, Program Director for WMSC, is convinced that such a schedule would only hurt his organization. "It takes a few months just for new board members to learn their way around and having their predecessors still in the organization to help is critical. Academic year elections will take that away." Linda Fox, President of Players, said that changing the election schedule would damage her organization for similar reasons. She said that if this bill is passed, they would have to change their entire schedule of shows, in order to have the more difficult work done when the board members are more experienced.

Acerra said these procedures are needed for better organization. "I'm confident this is going to be for the best." He also says that the SGA would be willing to work with these groups, going over elections, training, and general procedures for each elected officer. The bill was then passed.

The Legislature also approved a bill amending the Class One Review and Evaluation Committee Constitution. The formation of a Minority Student Affairs Council which would address minority student participation was also discussed. Acerra was considering meeting with members of the Black Student Cooperative Union and the Latin American Student Organization, noting that non-minority students don't participate enough in minority-sponsored events on campus (such as Latin Month).

SGA members were urged to attend town council meetings in Little Falls, Montclair and Clifton. The SGA is trying to improve relations between MSC and these communities.

Visiting writer at MSC to schedule several events

Toni Cade Bambara, novelist, short story writer, and script writer, will be the Visiting Writer at MSC in November. Events scheduled with Ms. Bambara are as follows:

Nov. 1: A student writing workshop from 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm, in Student Center, Ballroom C.

Nov. 11: "How to Make a Living as a Writer" in the Student Center Annex, room 209, from 5:00 pm to 6:30 pm. A reading will be given at 7:00 pm in room 417 of the Student Center.

Nov. 23: social gathering from 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm in the Student Center, Ballroom C.

Dr. Blank's MCAT/DAT Review also OAT

1. Complete review of science topics, taught by Ph.D
2. Ten sessions, including full length MCAT/DAT
3. Office hours for individual help
4. Video cassette make-up classes
5. Copious home study materials
6. Interview counseling included
7. 90% Medical or Dental School Acceptance Rate

Call Dr. Blank
201-966-9054
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>SUNDAY</th>
<th>MONDAY</th>
<th>TUESDAY</th>
<th>WEDNESDAY</th>
<th>THURSDAY</th>
<th>FRIDAY</th>
<th>SATURDAY</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>CLUB Meeting 4pm Room 411</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>CLUB Comedy in RAT Board of Trustees Meeting 4-10pm</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2</td>
<td>Drop-In Center Alcohol Abuse Workshop 8pm</td>
<td>5</td>
<td>6</td>
<td>MSC vs. Jersey City State 8pm HOME</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>7</td>
<td>CLUB Trip Boston</td>
<td>14</td>
<td>10</td>
<td>Winter Ball Bids on Sale 10-2pm, 7-9pm</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>8</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>11</td>
<td>12</td>
<td>LASO Funeral March 1:30pm</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>15</td>
<td>Harvest Ball Ballrooms 5pm</td>
<td>17</td>
<td>18</td>
<td>Veteran's Day</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16</td>
<td>17</td>
<td>19</td>
<td>20</td>
<td>CLUB Trip Boston</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>22</td>
<td>23</td>
<td>24</td>
<td>25</td>
<td>26</td>
<td>27</td>
<td>28</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>29</td>
<td>30</td>
<td></td>
<td>29</td>
<td>Thanksgiving Dance 6pm Ballrooms $5 advance/$7 door 8pm</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(Acceptance of Submissions for Quarterly will run till December 15th Room 113A in Student Center)
We’ll fly your student body to Boston/Washington for only $39.

It's the lowest one way airfare to Boston or Washington—lower than the price of a couple of textbooks. And it doesn’t come with a lot of prerequisites. Just purchase a round trip ticket, stay over a Saturday night, and be willing to part with a 25% cancellation fee should you decide to bag your trip. Seats are limited, but the fare is good on all of Continental's plethora of flights to Boston or Washington. The only thing that leaves more frequently than our flights are the special $5.00 buses every 15 minutes between our Newark terminal and Manhattan.

So prove your student body is savvy in the Economics Department. Call Continental at 212-319-9494 in Newark at 201-596-6000 or elsewhere at 1-800-525-0280.
Are we having fun yet?

There's nothing more gratifying than venting your frustrations.

In most cases, the little things that go wrong during the day annoy you the most.

Life at MSC is no exception. What's worse is that as students we are not in a position to directly rectify these situations. So, our little frustrations will be the administration's annoyances until something gets done or we turn blue in the face, whichever comes first.

For some reason, we're afraid we're going to be holding our breath a long time.

Nobody said life at MSC was going to be a picnic. College is said to be a microcosm of the real world. Who knows what wrong turns and dead ends the real world leads us to.

Still, we wonder how the bookstore staff can sleep at night knowing that they've taken the students for everything. They are snickering when they buy back books only one semester old that are in mint condition, for less than half the original price. What's more, they have the gall to resell them at almost full price, coyly marking them with a "Used" sticker.

Searching for a copy machine that's in working condition is never an easy task. Once you do find one, you realize you have no change. The librarian informs you that last she heard the nearest working copy machine had to be in Kalamazoo, Michigan.

What's a student to do?

The cafeteria is just another (device) that helps us to prepare us for that cruel, cruel world we hear so much about. Overcharging students for lousy cafeteria food is a sure way to toughen us up.

(If you're hungry, it's home made.)

A visit to the Financial Aid Office or Registrar is a great test of how long you can retain your composure. The forms and the questions along with the headaches are neverending. But at least they are kind enough to provide us with a good workout. After getting the runaround for half an afternoon, most students are ready to hit the showers.

If you weren't able to get housing this semester, word has it that Residence Life is renting out one room potholes for a nominal fee. You'll have to wait 'til February for the potholes to be available.

If you were lucky enough to find housing, perhaps you've met several six-legged "roommates" who insist on eating your last Oreo cookie. Or maybe you have your hands full with your two-legged roommates. Any way you cut it, dorm life has its, um, "moments." (Four am fire alarms come to mind.)

Perhaps you live at the Clove Road Apartments, that pseudo-concentration camp that actually makes you register for parties. When and where does it end?

Have you had the distinct pleasure of being trapped in an elevator? Had your car towed, or worse yet, stolen? Had classes cancelled after you registered for them? These are the joys and treasured memories of college life.

Isn't this fun?

Writers on the world

The big guns in Washington

Every so often you have to stop and look at what the people in Washington are doing. By the people in Washington, I mean everybody, not just the elected officials.

Government has developed spin-off industries, just like television programs. Lobbyists and political action committees (PACS) have sprung up in the swamps of Washington. And just like the bureaucratic structures that are there already, they have entrenched themselves as a necessary part of government.

The purpose of these quasi-governmental groups is to influence the process in their own, often conflicting, favors. With this in mind, organizations try very hard to get the attention of Congress by contributing money to campaigns and opposing candidates who disagree with them. A prime example of one of these groups is the National Rifle Association (NRA).

The NRA's main position is complete and absolute support of the Second Amendment to the United States Constitution: "A well-regulated militia being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

Sounds pretty noble, doesn't it? The Supreme Court has ruled that the Second Amendment refers to the states' national guards, not to everyday individuals. The NRA believes otherwise, and sometimes carries the idea too far.

Due to advances in technology, the companies that manufacture guns have learned new ways to produce the parts. Lighter weight, more sturdy plastics are replacing metal pieces. In light of this, Congress is debating legislation which would outlaw these plastic guns. The NRA has declared that it will fight the ban and has mobilized its lobbyists against the bill, which is seen as an infringement on members' rights.

One should wonder about the NRA's position though.

The Secret Service, the individuals who are specially-trained to sacrifice their bodies for the President of the United States, has a slightly different view. Congress has been informed that the National Rifle Association has found a way to produce the parts. Lighter weight, more sturdy plastics are replacing metal pieces. In light of this, Congress is debating legislation which would outlaw these plastic guns. The NRA has declared that it will fight the ban and has mobilized its lobbyists against the bill, which is seen as an infringement on members' rights.

The NRA believes otherwise, and sometimes carries the idea too far.

Due to advances in technology, the companies that manufacture guns have learned new ways to produce the parts. Lighter weight, more sturdy plastics are replacing metal pieces. In light of this, Congress is debating legislation which would outlaw these plastic guns. The NRA has declared that it will fight the ban and has mobilized its lobbyists against the bill, which is seen as an infringement on members' rights.

One should wonder about the NRA's position though.

The Secret Service, the individuals who are specially-trained to sacrifice their bodies for the President of the United States, has a slightly different view. Congress has been informed that the National Rifle Association has found a way to produce the parts. Lighter weight, more sturdy plastics are replacing metal pieces. In light of this, Congress is debating legislation which would outlaw these plastic guns. The NRA has declared that it will fight the ban and has mobilized its lobbyists against the bill, which is seen as an infringement on members' rights.

The NRA believes otherwise, and sometimes carries the idea too far.

Due to advances in technology, the companies that manufacture guns have learned new ways to produce the parts. Lighter weight, more sturdy plastics are replacing metal pieces. In light of this, Congress is debating legislation which would outlaw these plastic guns. The NRA has declared that it will fight the ban and has mobilized its lobbyists against the bill, which is seen as an infringement on members' rights.

One should wonder about the NRA's position though.

The Secret Service, the individuals who are specially-trained to sacrifice their bodies for the President of the United States, has a slightly different view. Congress has been informed that the National Rifle Association has found a way to produce the parts. Lighter weight, more sturdy plastics are replacing metal pieces. In light of this, Congress is debating legislation which would outlaw these plastic guns. The NRA has declared that it will fight the ban and has mobilized its lobbyists against the bill, which is seen as an infringement on members' rights.

The NRA believes otherwise, and sometimes carries the idea too far.

Due to advances in technology, the companies that manufacture guns have learned new ways to produce the parts. Lighter weight, more sturdy plastics are replacing metal pieces. In light of this, Congress is debating legislation which would outlaw these plastic guns. The NRA has declared that it will fight the ban and has mobilized its lobbyists against the bill, which is seen as an infringement on members' rights.
Patscam: Did MSC police go the limit?

To the editor:

News flash via Campus Police beat: "Girl Harassed After Consenting to Blind Date... Pat's Scam."

"Big deal," so another chick got harassed out of her own ignorance. What in the world does that have to do with me? Who cares?

Is this really the popular MSC student's reaction? I wonder at times; but, when that reaction becomes a policy of a police department, I don't just wonder, I get scared.

My fear is not for myself in particular, but for MSC's female population. Not to mention the women I have come to know and care for on a personal level. I don't ever want to see any of them become the victims.

Somehow, I don't feel too confident in believing my campus police will take care of it all. Anyone could quickly rationalize that they would, and that their friends will never become victims. My disbelief becomes hardened in my mind especially when I have good information on how the whole ordeal is being handled.

The busy MSCPD (Parking-violations Department) just hasn't had the time to seriously look into how to nab the guy. Nor does it seem that they might really care to nab our wonderful friend Pat. Oh, and if it seems that I have become overly sarcastic, you're right, because I'm damn mad.

Why? If anyone was to walk in to the campus police department headquarters, and just out of curiosity wanted to know how progress was going in the matter. They would be asked to kindly take a seat "because, you see, the head of that investigation is out at the present time."

She is out either to lunch, towing a car, writing a ticket, or shuttling across campus, each of which is important in its own way. However, I certainly hope the day never comes when she is busy due to her calling your parents, and having to tell them their little girl had just been raped. You see, Pat is still free, and he will continue to be so unless all the necessary steps are taken.

Most of the steps are completed, but MSCPD has not capitalized on them. They have Pat's full name, his full address, confirmations of his being an acquaintance of the women (dates and times of calls which aren't even enough to incriminate), and the verification of his having violently raped a Freeman Hall resident after misjudgment.

In appreciation, they have also informed on-campus women of his little scheme. This simply is not enough, and most certainly will not prevent Pat's doing it again. To do that,Pat, the name campus police has attributed to him, must be brought to court, criminally tried, and, hopefully, put to jail.

What good is it if all the other efforts have been made but have not been acted upon? They must get him!

Please, everyone, voice your own concerns to this problem. I am but one person. For you to read this article, but do nothing to aid the cause, is like becoming a member of the MSCPD.

Our police department has more than just cause to cause a headache or cost us a few dollars. They must serve and protect all students, just as all students must serve and protect society and their own rights.

Edward C. Martin
Dean of Students

MVAU to the rescue

To the editor:

Nearly every time a medical emergency requires an ambulance to transport a member of our college community, we turn to the Montclair Volunteer Ambulance Unit (MVAU) for help. Without fail, a competent and caring team of volunteers speeds to our aid.

Because of their need to recruit new members, I would like to publicly endorse them and also commend them for their public service—especially on behalf of our students, faculty, staff, and guests.

As recently as last week, the MVAU responded and helped with the timely transportation of one of our students to Mountainside Hospital.

Anyone with the time and interest certainly will be well advised to consider joining this fine group of people.

Thank you, MVAU, for being there!

Edward C. Martin
Dean of Students

Michael J. Spero, III
Sophomore/political science

THE WINTER BALL

December 4, 1987

Where: The Loews of Glenpoint Motel

From 8 - 1:00 a.m.

Tickets on Sale in S.C. Ballrooms

November 10th

10 - 2 p.m. $37.50 per person

7 - 9 p.m. $75.00 per couple
Movie warrants Zero stars

By Jennifer G. Stelewich
Arts Editor

Have you ever forced yourself to stay seated through a horrible movie? Well, Less Than Zero is one of those movies. It’s just another R-rated teenage soap. Set in flashy Beverly Hills, this pitiful drama covers the current movie basics: sex, love and drugs.

Andrew McCarthy (Pretty in Pink) portrays a rich kid named Clay. Throughout the film he seems out of place and unexpressive. His performance is clouded by the dance scenes at the overplayed California parties. Sometimes he was saved by jumbled lines, but other times the movie-goer wished for music to drown him out.

Clay’s girlfriend Blair (Jami Gertz) is a fashion model. She dons tight black mini skirts and low cut blouses. Her make-up (Gertz) is a fashion model. She dons tight black mini skirts and low cut blouses. Her make-up is unattractive—lipstick that seems out of place and unimpressive. His performance is strong, but this psuedo-drama offered more and more unrealistic. The acting is weak and the directing is choppy, with scenes abruptly changing instead of evolving.

Altogether, this film is a waste of time. There was nothing offered to keep the audience interested. This movie gets less than zero stars.

Men Without Hats—Pop Goes The World (PolyGram)

Men Without Hats is best known for their debut album, Rhyming Of Love, featuring their hit “Safety Dance.” Their second album Folk of the 80s’ flopped. This instigated their disappearance from the rock scene.

After a three year rest, they’re back. With a new pop style, they give us Pop Goes The World.

Pop Goes The World is a step away from their two previous albums. Excluding the hit “Safety Dance,” their first two albums had songs that were very serious, usually concerning social awareness.

The new album is geared toward the pop listener. It is a step in the right direction, but not a big enough one. The electronics and instruments are very original but the songs, lyrics, and beat leave much to be desired.

The title song “Pop goes the world” is interesting, but it gets long and boring. “On Tuesday” seems much like a variation of the first. The only difference is the lyrical form.

The one song that is likeable is “Jenny Wears Black.” It is upbeat and different. Men Without Hats do well to follow this happier style. The album is better than their first two, but still not worth the money.

Men Without Hats—Pop Goes The World.

The film then proceeds to numerous parties where Julian’s addiction is amplified in each scene. He is a victim of a serious drug which his friends don’t seem to take too seriously.

The relationship between Blair and Clay contributes to the lack of realism and success of the film. Opposes attract but they seem to be stretching it.

As the film drags on, it seems more and more unrealistic. The acting is weak and the directing is choppy, with scenes abruptly changing instead of evolving.

Altogether, this film is a waste of time. There was nothing offered to keep the audience interested. This movie gets less than zero stars.

Men Without Hats—Pop Goes The World

The one song that is likeable is “Jenny Wears Black.” It is upbeat and different. Men Without Hats do well to follow this happier style. The album is better than their first two, but still not worth the money.

Men Without Hats—Pop Goes The World

The film takes us to a heavy metal concert. Jack goes to work but of course knows nothing about medicine. His performance is strong, but this psuedo-drama offered more and more unrealistic. The acting is weak and the directing is choppy, with scenes abruptly changing instead of evolving.

Altogether, this film is a waste of time. There was nothing offered to keep the audience interested. This movie gets less than zero stars.

Men Without Hats—Pop Goes The World

The film opens with this...
Rock-n-Roll Corner
Pasquale DiFulco

‘Allo mates...Funny how old songs make new hits. Billy Idol certainly has a hit with his cover of Tommy James and The Shondells’ “Mono Mony”...Speaking of idols, Sting will be jammin' the area sometime soon...First 400 people to give blood for 92-K-Rock’s “Roll up your sleeve day” get tickets to see John Entwistle and Leslie West wail at the Bottom Line. Might be worth a quart or two...Very happy to announce that Bruce has kicked Michael ‘Mr.Natural’ Jackson out of Billboard’s #1 slot...Don’t ya think the new Belinda Carlisle tune sounds just like Bon Jovi’s “You Give Love a Bad Name”? Oh well, if you can’t beat ‘em, join ‘em...Last week’s trivia answer: Buddy Holly married Maria Santiago in 1958...Dis week: What was the first album to sell one million copies on the first day of its release?...Thanks to Ray “It’s Only Rock-n-Roll But I Like It” Ecke for his help this week...Dot’s all...

WMSC Top 10

1. Nothing Like the Sun — Sting
2. Earth, Sun, Moon — Love and Rockets
3. Darklands — Jesus and Mary Chain
4. Galaxy 500 — Fetchin’ Bones
5. Cucumbers — Cucumbers
6. Wulfman and Schmeling — The Woods
7. Liberty and Justice for... — Antisocial Front
8. It’s Like This — Damage
9. You Light Up My Liver-Live — The Fourtunes
10. Testify — Theo Fourtunes

Continued from previous page.

Yes-Big Generator (ATCO)

Yes’ much anticipated follow-up to the successful 90125 is a unique combination of the old and the new. Beginning in the early 70s with The Yes Album and continuing on until Drama, Yes was known by their epic songs with flowery lyrics that were usually quite lengthy. In 1985, minus guitarist Steve Howe, Yes returned with the new and improved Yes which put together a record that is both a blast from the past and a step forward.

Yes has put together a record that is both a blast from the past and a step forward.

- Ray Ecke

Animal Liberation (Wax Trax Records)
The organization PETA (People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals) has brought together the “Vegete Rockers” for the creation of their album, Animal Liberation.” With such known British artists as: Lene Lovich, Colour Field, Shrek-back, and Howard Jones, the cause should be crystal clear to anyone listening to this compilation for the first time or the tenth time.

The first track “Don’t Kill the Animals” by Nina Hagen and Lene Lovich was a good choice for the cause but a bad choice for the music. It’s more of a dialogue than a song, which makes it difficult to stay interested. “Monster in a Bin” by Attrition is also a potential upside. The music is enjoyable, but the lyrics are harsh and hard to listen to.

As for excitement, the perpetrators plundering L.A. were, oddly enough, model citizens with no previous offenses whatsoever. That’s not too liberal. Not too artsy. Not too driven, but it is a bit of a waste of time.

By Tom Boud

Correspondent

Action! Violence! Blood and guts! That’s all we seem to get from Hollywood these days. But what if I told you there’s a picture with action, horror, sci-fi and drama all wrapped in one? That is what The Hidden, a cross between Invasion of the Body Snatchers and Dirty Harry, is all about.

Michael Nouri is L.A.P.D. detective Tom Beck, a veteran homicide investigator trying to make heads or tails of a mysterious crime wave which leaves bodies all over the place. He teams up with Kyle MacLachlan, who plays FBI Agent Lloyd Gallagher; a top-notch G-man sent by the Seattle bureau to help get to the bottom of this continuing carnage.

Together they discover that the perpetrators plundering L.A. were, oddly enough, model citizens with no previous offenses whatsoever. That’s not too liberal. Not too artsy. Not too driven, but it is a bit of a waste of time.

The Hidden worth finding

At the movies

The Hidden worth finding

What’s more is the presence of horror in this film. In several key scenes, you actually get to see the alien as he transfers from one body to another.

Complementing the suspense is the brilliant camera work. All the shoot-outs and chases are done sharply. The camera is able to stay abreast of the action.

Director Jack Sholder did a good job with The Hidden. Although he let MacLachlan get away with his overheated curiosity and phony behavior, he nonetheless supported a creative idea with Nouri’s sincerity as well as with a plot that’ll glue your eyes to the screen.

Go and see The Hidden! You won’t be disappointed! Three and one-half stars worth of explosive action, eye-opening horror and heart-thumping suspense.

Discriminating people, you Liberal Arts graduates

You’ve learned how to distinguish between Ulises (highly intelligent, but driven to death), and Ulises (kind of like a lost tourist). Of course, he’s not too liberal, not too artsy. Not too driven, but it is a bit of a waste of time.

You can appreciate the difference between George Washington and Benedict Arnold. You know why Othello messed it all up, why Henry V got the girl and why Nouri isn’t the one you want to go see.

You know the secret of the new and improved Yes which put together a record that is both a blast from the past and a step forward.

For more information please write PETA; Box 42516, Washington, D.C. 20015 or call (202) 726-0156.

The tunes play on

The Hidden worth finding

HAWAIIAN LUAU

Marketing Club

Friday, November 20th
8pm-midnight
American Legion Hall
Little Falls

D.J., Food, Beer/Wine for $10 per person
See Club Officers/Marketing Dept. for tickets
(All are Welcome)

Seasonal Help
Stockers/Cashiers/Salespeople

Service Merchandise, one of the nation’s largest catalog showroom retailers, has immediate openings for part-time Salespeople, Stockers, and Cashiers for the holidays.

We offer
* Flexible day/evening hours
* Excellent wages and benefits
* Immediate employee discounts

Apply in person now:
SERVICE MERCHANDISE
WEST BELT PLAZA
RT. 23 SOUTH
WAYNE, NJ

Human Resource Management

535 Fifth Avenue, 22nd Floor, N.Y., NY 10017
(212) 567-5050
30 Wreeland Road, Flemington, N.J. 08732
(201) 988-5050

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

A project of Habitat for Humanity of Washington County, Inc.

CALL OR DROP OFF YOUR DONATIONS TO
HABITAT FOR HUMANITY
300 HUNTINGTON AVENUE
WAYNE, N.J.
(201) 875-0600

Human Resource Management

535 Fifth Avenue, 22nd Floor, N.Y., NY 10017
(201) 988-5050
30 Wreeland Road, Flemington, N.J. 08732
(201) 988-5050

Seventeen year old Sammie is working as a stocker at Service Merchandise and is happy to find that she is able to save money for her college and have some fun too.

As for excitement, the perpetrators plundering L.A. were, oddly enough, model citizens with no previous offenses whatsoever. That's not too liberal. Not too artsy. Not too driven, but it is a bit of a waste of time.

For more information please write PETA; Box 42516, Washington, D.C. 20015 or call (202) 726-0156.

-Zsolt Radics

Human Resource Management

535 Fifth Avenue, 22nd Floor, N.Y., NY 10017
(201) 988-5050
30 Wreeland Road, Flemington, N.J. 08732
(201) 988-5050

Seventeen year old Sammie is working as a stocker at Service Merchandise and is happy to find that she is able to save money for her college and have some fun too.

As for excitement, the perpetrators plundering L.A. were, oddly enough, model citizens with no previous offenses whatsoever. That's not too liberal. Not too artsy. Not too driven, but it is a bit of a waste of time.

For more information please write PETA; Box 42516, Washington, D.C. 20015 or call (202) 726-0156.

-Zsolt Radics

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

A project of Habitat for Humanity of Washington County, Inc.

CALL OR DROP OFF YOUR DONATIONS TO
HABITAT FOR HUMANITY
300 HUNTINGTON AVENUE
WAYNE, N.J.
(201) 875-0600

classified

Personals

—to my roommates in 209B—Do I have permission to get drunk and stupid at my party Saturday? Please. Lauren.
—To my birthday project:
Saturday? Please. Lauren.
Maybe we will be able to spark

—To my roommates in 2093—
Do I have permission to get classified

12. The Montclarion/Thursday, Nov. 5, 1987
V

jackets lately? Friends from your award from NACA. We tums.

why do you look so cute in green, grey eyes of yours. And join the troublemakers and have a—! The F.H. Crew.

have the delightful pleasure of Love, Fu & Jennifer.

—To the new sisters of Sigma fun with us. Gaby.

—To our 5th roommate in around and catch the rest.

—Delia- Sure, you may catch my breath, but why not hang alot! You're terrific. Love, Lina.

—To little-little Tina- Welcome

—To Mandee- You're the best

The wedding is off!! You're —To a Sigma with a sore back—

—Injun Joe- I'm armed and human slot machine. Happy

—“Dano”- Don't drink too

—Hey LA- Are you really a 101b

—ITK- Beer, Drink, Chug, &

—Miss McSorely- Check your

—Cuppy- Boom, tss, boom,

—Hey Paul- Hiy Mari!

—Message: To the girls of —Dearest Rusty- Thanks for being such a great guy! If you ever need a ride to the bank, just ask.

—Drita- Hello and welcome to the staff. Just don't forget my name again - the one whose name you forgot.

—Little Mo- Ya done good. You even managed to keep your underwear on, unlike someone we know.

—Sheila- I'm so glad you're my little. You're the best little any sister could have. Welcome to the family. Love, Janice.

—Message: To the girls of 300B- Good luck! You'll need it. Love, Your Suitemates.

—Pat- I hope you get out of school, get a good job with lots of money, so we can have lots of babies and a big house in Bergen County. And I love you——Laurie- I'll try. Love you too.

—To my little sister Sharon—
Congratulations on having a baby. Love ya, Daryl.
—To the girls in 302B—Great party. My only regret is that I didn't get to see if your costumes fit the person. So tell me, is the devil really a devil- her eyes say "yes." Write back. Interested.
—Hey Gary- Bring 'em to Eagle Rock. The Hammer.
—John- Next time don't get stopped by the cop.
—Jodi(Blanton 4B)- I have seen you without your other half late-ly...for me that is good. When can I meet you?? Please let me know. S.A.
—Elissa- Thank you for every-thing. When I needed you most you were there. Love ya lots, Jodi.
—Peter- We can make it if we try. M.

—Karen- You'll be so surprised when you find out who I am. I can't wait to tell you. Love, Your Secret Pal.
—Jealous, orange juice, dream, iron, Why?

—Bubba- Best friends are hard to come by, thanks for always being there. I will be there for you when you need someone to talk to. Love you, Fluffy.
—LA- Happy 21st. How does it feel to have your own identity back?!
—Lauren Adams- Happy 21st Birthday from ITK.
—Tommy- Congrats on test. I'm proud of you (even if Carolyn isn't). Nanner.
—ITK- Beer, Drink, Chug, & Hook!
—Hey LA- Are you really a 10lb sausage in a 5lb bag? Ha Ha. Guess who?
—Dano”- Don't drink too much because you look like a human slot machine. Happy 21st DZ.
—Injun Joe- I'm armed and dangerous so watch out. Love, Mosnette.
—To a Sigma with a sore back—The wedding is off!! You're cheating on me already? A Senator.
—To Mandeel- You're the best big sister. Thanks for everything. Love, Mary Lou.

—Lance- I'd love to dance!
Love, Phi Chi Omega Pledge.
—Jules woman- Just wanted to let you know I haven't forgotten about West Point. You'll see a submarine race someday soon. Love, Care Bear.
—Dearest Rusty- Thanks for being such a great guy! If you ever need a ride to the bank, just ask.
—Drita- Hello and welcome to the staff. Just don't forget my name again - the one whose name you forgot.
—Little Mo- Ya done good. You even managed to keep your underwear on, unlike someone we know.
—Sheila- I'm so glad you're my little. You're the best little any sister could have. Welcome to the family. Love, Janice.
—Message: To the girls of 300B- Good luck! You'll need it. Love, Your Suitemates.
—Pat- Don't go away anymore, okay? Laurie.
—Laurie- Whatever you say, love. P.
—Message to Laura Dougherty- "Why?"
—Captain- I'm sorry it came to this as I know you are too, but it is nice to know we can be friends. I will always love you and be here for you. Love, MoJo.
—Droopy- I often wonder what happened to us! Some of our best memories were made right here at MSC. You remember after our rendezvous. Anytime, anywhere, doing the perfect thing. I miss you and still love you. Killer.
—Laurie- Whatever you say, love. P.
—Message to Laura Dougherty- "Why?"
—Captain- I'm sorry it came to this as I know you are too, but it is nice to know we can be friends. I will always love you and be here for you. Love, MoJo.

—K w/a K- Thanks for the candy gram; you made my day! I hope I'm making yours now. Thanks for being such a good friend! Lady Di.
—How do you like my class so far?? Amore, Bernie.

—To my little-little Marie-
Congratulations and welcome to Sigma. You're a great addition to our family tree. Love ya, Daryl.
—Wishy- I never get tired of looking at you.

—To the new sisters of Iota
Gamma Xi- Congratulations and welcome to Iota. It was a long three weeks, but you did it. Love, Lori.

—Hey Paul- Hey Man!
—Trish- You may not be an angel, but you've got one great thing going for you. You're "related" to us! Love ya, Kathy & Terri.

—Kurt- So where's your personal promised me?!? You've a lying sack of s---gone, pretty soon! Love ya, Your 5th!

—Ron (Stone 233)- Why don't you get on with your life and forget about that certain someone on 6 and notice the other certain someone that are available to you. Love and Kisses.

—Mary Lou- You made it, congrats! Let's party soon! Love, your big sis Amanda.

—Tony C. #16- I have been watching you on the field. Like to know you better. Please write back. Fan.

—I am currently recovering from an operation and desperately in need of daily massages in the lower abdominal region. "Billy the Cycle D.

—Mike- You thought you would never get a personal. Well, you are wrong. Surprise. Love ya, Lisa.

—AIX sisters- You are doing great! Hang tough! I love you. The sisters of Phi Chi Omega.

—To Jennifer, Jo-El, Dina, "Billy the Cycle D."- I've been watching you too. If you want to talk to me, you can call me at 209.

—Look Russ! A personal! To the "girls" of Iota- Your personal arrived on time. Mr. Hoffman (Message Tower).—John- Waiting to "shake you up quicker? Love, "16" —To the "girls" of Phi Chi Omega- Thanks for letting me know. I'm so glad to hear from you. Love ya, Daryl.

—Dear Ginny- Hey baby! I just wanted to tell you that I think you are the best friend I've ever had! Have fun sweetie! Love, Russ T.

—BOOGE- I need to know one thing- Do you hint?? Love ya, Mary Lou.

—To my loveable little, the curly-haired chick. Love, ?

—What did Donna do in Par­tie? How was St. Louis? Inquiring minds want to know! Love, Joe Pledge (TKE PZ 52 ?)

—Is Kenny B. in the house? Focus on your studies in speech dictate our futures. This is our last glimpse. Still interested, I await my first lesson. Your grad, Lisa.

—To all the "Father Art"s at South Orange. Love, Chicklet.

—Kathy- Candy is dandy, li­beral man! You're corrupting me. Are you ever going to tell me when's the next? Love ya, Your 5th!

—To the MSC NACA Delegation- We did great! They all loved us and guess what, no more wake ups call. Love, Rosemarie.

—To the newwomen of Phi Chi Omega- You guys were a great pledge class and you'll make our sorority proud! Love, Your Pres & VP.

—To Debbie- Thanks for all your help on "Hell Night" (know what I'm talking about?). You're a sweetheart. Love one of your newest sisters, Chick.

—To Sincerely Interested- You should find out where I really live first, if you are truly interested. Love ya, Your 5th! I'm only 5 floors in my dorm! Which one do I live on? Very curious, The Other Blonde.

—To all the skunks at Clove­Watch out, I'm carrying a really deadly weapon from now on. Cherry.

—Nanner- You're the greatest! I'm so glad we met! Your Not So Secret Admirer.

—Here's to the cutest elf at the Halloween Society. I know that you're not Peter Pan. Stop by and say "Hello" sometime. Mr. Hoffman (Message Tower).—John- Waiting to "shake you up quicker? Love, "16"

—To the MSC AKA (Beta class)- Stick with it! And to my little- you're the best. Love you all! Favorite.

—To all the newwomen of Phi Chi Omega- Thanks for letting me be a part of your sorority. I'm looking forward to all the good times to come. Love, Chris.

—To all the "girls" of Iota- Your personal arrived on time. Mr. Hoffman (Message Tower).—John- Waiting to "shake you up quicker? Love, "16"

—To all the skunks at Clove­Watch out, I'm carrying a really deadly weapon from now on. Cherry.

—Nanner- You're the greatest! I'm so glad we met! Your Not So Secret Admirer.

—To all the "Fatcat"s at the Halloween party- Thanks for not adding grey to your hairdo! Father Art.

—LA- Happy Rgf ya'nd! Finally no more worrying about fake ID. Have a happy and I hope you get what you want on Saturday! Love ya, Daryl.

—To Ann, Can, and El- Oh! Man! you're corrupting me. Are we having fun yet? Pam.

—To the blonde-haired girl with the red MTV sweater, who was sitting by the office in the Fieldhouse last Friday. My name is Rich, a guy who was sitting across from you, with a purple Van Halen shirt. I would like to meet you sometime.

—To all the skunks at Clove­Watch out, I'm carrying a really deadly weapon from now on. Cherry.

—Nanner- You're the greatest! I'm so glad we met! Your Not So Secret Admirer.

—Here's to the cutest elf at the Halloween Society. I know that you're not Peter Pan. Stop by and say "Hello" sometime. Mr. Hoffman (Message Tower).—John- Waiting to "shake you up quicker? Love, "16"

—To all the skunks at Clove­Watch out, I'm carrying a really deadly weapon from now on. Cherry.

—Nanner- You're the greatest! I'm so glad we met! Your Not So Secret Admirer.

—Here's to the cutest elf at the Halloween Society. I know that you're not Peter Pan. Stop by and say "Hello" sometime. Mr. Hoffman (Message Tower).
—Kenny/Cuppy- Are the wings falling off? The little boy from Hoboken gets on a plane to St. Louis. Do me a favor and give a seagull some CPR.
—I'm no party animal, Pasquale. Just a Comma Queen.
—Wally- I'll trade you your sweater for my boxers, you animal you.
—Poilga- Talk to poor decrepit Durnik and stop being a stubborn old sorcerer- Belgerath.
—Mo and Pat, thanks for everything, it wouldn't have been possible without both of you- Lynn, Paul, Kenny, Jenni, Wally.

—To all the rest of the guys, we had a great time, let's do it again in Atlanta in '88- Hey man you- Lynn, Paul, Kenny, Jenni, Wally.

—Lynn- You're a party animal.
—Susan- I love you more and more every day. L.C.
—Potatoe- Start charging rent for your room. You know we love you. Foz.

—To all my fellow raisins- We're gonna leave our mark. I heard it through the grapevine that it's gonna be wild. We'll be partying. Rainin' ODI!
—Russ- Hey baby! This one is for Ginny.

For Sale
—Man's 10 speed bike, recently tuned-up like brand new. $50. Call 746-0871.
—1980 Pontiac Phoenix 5-door hatchback, automatic, 2.8 L/V6, FWD//AC, PS/PB, AM/FM stereo tape, 2-tone blue, no rust, excellent condition, 69k, original owner, new brakes, A/W radials, & tuneup. Asking $1950 or best offer. Call 256-6432.
—One ticket to Gulf Coast of Florida for Thanksgiving weekend. Call Donna at 744-7963 to discuss price and details.

Attention
—Could you use an extra $150.00? Sell me your Saturdays for the next three weeks as landscaping assistant. Union County area. Call 522-7905.
—You may have already won $10 million in fabulous Class One Concerts "Which One's Pink?" content! Is it Waters? Is it Gilmour and Co? You decide! Vote today!
—Hear ye! The Medieval and Renaissance Society seek Lords and Ladies to fill its court. No previous experience required, only an active imagination. Call 427-7524 leave a message.
—The Campus Ministry Council, an interfaith effort at MSC, will host a Thanksgiving Celebration on Tuesday, November 24 at noon. "Let us give thanks..." Please join us in prayer and song! Ballroom A, Student Center.

Wanted
—Positions open for Lords, Ladies, Knights, and even moat diggers. Join the Medieval and Renaissance Society and fill one of them. You'll never know what you're missing unless you call 427-7524!
—Demonstrators for in-store food sampling. Must have car. No experience necessary. $6.50 (cash) per hour. Call Mrs. T. 762-9573 from 9 to 5 pm.
—Housecleaning $7 an hour. For P/T in Wayne. Car needed. No experience necessary. Flexible hours. 838-8298.
—Part-time salary $6-$9 per hour. Little Falls office. Flexible hours around your class schedule. Call 890-0640, 24 hours.
—Typists- Hundreds weekly at home! Write: P.O. Box 17 Clark, NJ 07066.
—Typing/Word Processing charge by the hour. Editing charge by the hour. Special rates for students. Call Donna G. 744-7963.
—Seeking organized, energetic person with excellent typing and telephone skills to be general office assistant. 20-25 hours/week. Salary commensurate with experience. 746-4596. Mrs. Campbell.

Datebook
—Sunday, Nov. 8, The Newman Community will celebrate Mass at 11:00 am in Kops Lounge, Russ Hall and at 7:30 pm in the Newman Center.
—The week of Nov 9th to the 13th, Phi Chi Omega will be sponsoring a clothing drive. It will run from 10 am until 2 pm in the Student Center Lobby. Please donate any old clothes to charity.
—Monday, Nov. 9 from 2 to 4 pm, Career Services will be sponsoring a seminar in resume writing. This seminar focuses on the theory and practice of writing a resume and cover letter. Samples of effective resumes will be shown and discussed. Career Services is located in room 209 of the Student Center Annex.
—Monday, Nov. 9, The Newman Community will celebrate Mass at 3:30 pm at the Newman Center.
—Tuesday, Nov. 10 from 3 to 4 pm, Career Services will sponsor a resume clinic. Bring a copy of your resume and have a counselor individual evaluate its effectiveness. Career Services is located in room 104 of the Student Center Annex.
—Tuesday, Nov. 10 at 8:00 pm, there will be a combined pledge recital featuring pledge classes of Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia and SAI in the music building.
—Wednesday, Nov. 11 at 11:30 pm, The Newman Community will celebrate Mass in the Newman Center.

Lost and Found
—LOST: A tan colored picture wallet containing pictures and SS card. If found, please contact 783-2783. Thanks.

THE BIGGEST IS LOOKING FOR THE BEST

The Prudential -- the nation's largest diversified financial services organization is seeking ambitious and energetic individuals for positions in our Information Systems Office.

We're looking for the most talented future executives we can find! If you have a strong background in computer science, business, or liberal arts and are interested in the exciting and challenging positions we have in our computer systems areas, please join our Prudential representatives at an Information Session on Thursday, November 12, 1987 at 6:00 pm in the Student Center Annex, Room #106.

For more information, contact your Placement Office.
Gothic Knights seek to snap Indian winning streak

By Kenny Peck
Sports Editor

The last Indian home game of 1987 takes place Saturday at Sprague Field when MSC faces New Jersey Athletic Conference rival Jersey City State College (JCSC).

The Gothic Knights last week lost to William Paterson, 24-14, while the Indians knocked off Trenton State by a score of 34-10.

JCSC Head Coach Roy Miller has directed the Gothic Knights to a 3-5 mark overall thus far this season, and a 1-4 record in the NJAC.

The Gothic Knights are a young team whose main problem has been scoring points. The probable reason for this is the relative inexperience of the offensive unit, which consists of no senior starters and just two juniors in starting roles.

The JCSC offense features a pro-set, run by sophomore quarterback Anthony Minervini. Minervini had been sharing time with sophomore Mike Minervini (no relation) but has since emerged as the starter after some stellar performances.

Sophomore Joe Rotundi is the team's fullback. Rotundi is the Gothic Knight's leading rusher and scorer, and is thus the main cog in the offense.

Freshman Johnny Feliciano, who didn't play last week against WPC because of an injury, should see action against the Indians.

The Gothic Knights employ a double tight end set up, with sophomore Mark Fuzia and sophomore Gary Furr filling those slots.

Freshman split end Joey Clasen is the leading receiver for the team in total receptions and touchdown catches.

The offensive line is made up of four sophomores and a junior. Tackles Jerome Laduna and Rob Baker, guard Pat Masters, and center John Heesters are all second-year members, while guard Angelo Diana is the line's only upperclassman.

The defense is led by junior defensive end Derryk Sellers, who was named to the East Coast Athletic Conference Honor Roll for his performance two weeks ago. Freshman Sean McKeon is the other defensive end on the front four.

Senior nose guard Mark Brignola has been playing well so far this season, and junior defensive tackle Juan Ribot is the anchor of the defense.

In the secondary, sophomores David London, Sam Winfield and Demetrius Shaw are young but good. JCSC's few problems defensively have been playing the run, not the pass.

Senior tailback Leroy Horn is close to 1000 yards and will probably see plenty of action for the Indians.

Key Matchups:

MSC QB Anthony Cannon vs. JCSC secondary- It will be Cannon's first college start, but it will be against a young secondary group.

MSC NG Matt Clark vs. C Mike Heesters- Clark is tied for the team lead in sacks and will probably be held in check by the Gothic backfield.

Soccer

cont. from back page

The Indians coming out in the second half applying early pressure. Adam McNally almost connected on a Robert Briggs corner kick but his header was wide. At this stage, with the Indians slowly starting to take control, the game turned ugly. Adam McNally was kicked, and he retaliated with a punch. With tempers flaring up, the referees were barely able to restore order.

The Indians were able to give themselves some breathing room at 62:24 as Chesney scored off the Lewis cross for the 2-0 lead, which was how the game ended.

East Stroudsburg 5- MSC 0

The Indians dropped their final game of the season in a disappointing 5-0 loss to division II rival East Stroudsburg, falling to 7-5-2 for the season.

The Indians went into the second half with the game scoreless. Head coach Dave Masur said, “The one thing we didn’t do all season was hold our heads after a goal was scored. But this game, we did.

The loss is very disappointing after we played so well in the first half.”

Derek Lewis, NJAC Player of the Year, said, “The loss is very disappointing, but overall I am very happy with the season.”

Interested in sports? Want to see your name in print?

That’s all it takes to join THE MONTCLARION’s sportswriting team!

We’re looking for interested people to become a beat writer for any one of many fall sports teams available. Nothing too taxing, mind you- it’s easy, fun and exciting. Plus, 10,000 people will see your name in print, just like Perry ‘The Jet’ Schwarz.

Stop by The Montclarion office, Room 113, Student Center Annex, or contact Sports Editor Kenny Peck at 893-5241.

The Montclarion
Get between our sheets
Freshman running back Scott Vega scored two touchdowns and junior Tony Colasurdo kicked two field goals to lead the Indians to a 34-10 victory Saturday against the Trenton State Lions.

Trenton State received the opening kickoff, but fumbled on the second play of the game. It was recovered by MSC defensive back David Harris on the Lion 27 yard line.

Three plays later, Vega ran 11 yards for his first touchdown. Colasurdo's successful extra point kick pushed MSC ahead 7 points only 35 seconds into the game. But the Lions then mounted an offensive surge that began and ended in the final minutes of the half.

Trenton State kicker Dave Dallmer hit a 37 yard field goal and junior quarterback Mike Grant tossed a 14 yard touchdown pass to John Towey, making the score 17-0. The Lions then mounted an unsuccessful comeback attempt that was ended in the final minutes of the half.

Trenton State's leading rusher Baffige may or may not play Saturday, depending on his day-to-day progress.

What's What in MSC sports

Women's Cross-Country

The Indians attended the College Track Conference (CTC) Championships this week at Van Cortlandt Park, NY. MSC's women's cross-country team tied with Long Island University for sixth place out of the 15 teams at the meet, making MSC the highest placing Division III team. MSC's Jessica Levinskas placed ninth in the 3k race in 19:04. Levinskas, incidentally, was the only Division III runner to place in the top ten and she remains undefeated in intradivision competition. As a result of this meet, the Indian's record went to 8-1 overall and 3-1 in the New Jersey Athletic Conference. Upcoming meet: Sat., November 14, NCAA Regionals.

Ice Hockey

The MSC ice hockey teams opens its season in a conference game against Wagner College. The Indians take to the ice this Sunday at 9:30 pm at the Montclair Skating rink in Upper Montclair.

Men's Swimming

On Saturday, November 14, the men's swim team has their first meet against Marist and Monmouth Colleges at 1:00 pm at the Panzer Gymnasium pool complex.

Women's Swimming

The MSC women's swim team attend their season opener at the Conference Swim Relay Carnival on Saturday November 14, at 1:00 pm at the United States Merchant Marine Academy.