3-3-1988

The Montclarion, March 03, 1988

The Montclarion

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.montclair.edu/montclarion

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.montclair.edu/montclarion/531
Business or liberal arts: which is better?

By Michael Bullerdick
Staff Writer

Described by some in the audience as a knockdown fight a la academia, faculty from the liberal arts and business departments squared off against each other in a debate last Wednesday night.

The panelists debated the merits and place of liberal arts in education today.

Representing the liberal arts were Dean of Humanities and Social Sciences Philip Cohen; Dr. Michael S. Kogan of the philosophy/religion department; history professor Dr. Gilman Srebnick; and Dr. Harold Flint of the economics department.

The business viewpoint was argued by Dean of Business Administration Dr. Suresh Desai and Dr. Eileen Kaplan of the management department.

Dr. Gregory Waters, vice president for academic affairs, chaired the debate, which was held in conjunction with Woodrow Wilson Foundation Visiting Fellow Thomas Gaspar's stay at MSC.

Desai set the tone for the debate by claiming that an education in business provides students with immediate skills at graduation. He suggested that an education in the liberal arts should take place, along with the general education requirements, during the first two years of college. After that, he said, students should select a specific concentration.

"It is the design of business administration to detect and develop certain general principles which would explain a variety of business practices in an everchanging world," said Desai. "What emerges from this discipline can be labeled the new liberal arts."

Kogan, vehemently opposed Desai's philosophy. Kogan said the history of mankind could not be encapsulated in a two year program and that was what more instruction which might be provided by the business department would not be focused enough to be effective.

"Students who come to college are ignorant," Kogan said. "That's why they are here—they want to learn."

He said when a majority of students choose business education, they are doing so because of the influence of the media and the promise of a high-paying career.

Kogan, on the other hand, said that general business studies have no place in an undergraduate curriculum.

"As an undergraduate, the humanities are a better study than the catch-all major of general business administration; it should be offered strictly as a graduate field of study," he said.

"Human knowledge has not evolved all that much. What's happened is nothing more than specialization," said Gaspar.

"So I want someone who can think on a wide variety of topics and who knows his place in the history of humankind."

Students were especially enthusiastic over a proposal made by Flint, for the creation of a business minor open to all, so that students could develop a background in business while pursuing a liberal arts degree.

Feb. 18 Rat incident downplayed

Alcohol privileges resumed

By Paul Mampilly
Assignment Editor

What was first reported as a near riot at the Rathskellar on Feb. 18, is now being downplayed as a group of fights broken up before any damage was done.

As a result, the Rathskellar's alcohol privileges are suspended until March 3.

"An apparent altercation(s) took place after the closing of the Rat; it took place in close proximity, not inside the Rat," said Dean of Students Edward Martin.

"There is no substantive proof whether or not a contributing factor was alcohol," Martin said.

"Nobody really knows what exactly happened. Based on reports, between four and seventeen people were involved, and there was no report of injuries or damage," said Martin.

"There were 60 to 70 people in the area, a campus police spokesperson said. "Sporadically, fights broke out in the same area and were broken up. The cause is not known and no arrests have been made."

He said the report of a police officer being choked while attending to the incident was false.

According to Martin, "The aspect of the incident that raised concern was that there was a significant number of people milling around at the time and the atmosphere as evaluated by campus police was volatile; there was an apparent potential for trouble."

"However, there is no information to believe it was a riot, as reported in the SGA meeting," said Martin.

Subsequently, signs went up saying that the Rat's alcohol serving privileges had been suspended until March 10.

When contacted about the sign on Feb. 24, Martin had no comment. The sign was taken down soon after.

Martin said in an interview Feb. 2 he didn't know why the sign went up. "The sign might have been interpretative of the administration position," he said. "As we got more information on the incident, the position was revised.

"At one point the administration was considering a two-week suspension," said Martin. "However, Rob Acerra, who spoke on behalf of the students, raised valid questions against a suspension of more than a week."

"Give credit to Rob for articulating good and convincing reasons against a more severe suspension," said Martin. "With the availability of further information, a decision was made to reinstate the serving of alcohol."

Martin addressed student concern that the administration intends to close the Rat down eventually.

"I think if you discuss the subject with student leaders, you will find that the student affairs office has not put undue pressure on anyone to close the Rat on Thursday evenings," said Martin. "Leaving that in existence, we will encourage everyone to offer alternative programming—without alcohol."
SGA PRESENTS

SPEAK UP MSC

OPEN FORUM

STUDENTS: YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO VOICE YOUR CONCERNS!!

FEATURED...
Dr. Richard Lynde, Acting President MSC
and
Mr. William Griffith V.P. for Administration & Finance

TOPICS MAY INCLUDE:

TUITION/FEES
CAMPUS FACILITIES
BUSINESS OFFICE
EXTERNAL RELATIONS
MAINTENANCE
PARKING/SHUTTLE BUSES
SNOW REMOVAL
S.C. FOOD SERVICE
CAMPUS POLICE
RATHSKELLAR

THURSDAY MARCH 10
1-2:30 pm
Rm 126 Student Center
Drug charges filed against students
By Paul Mampilly
Assignment Editor

Four residents of Bohn and Blanton Hall were arrested for the possession of marijuana and other drug paraphernalia on Feb. 27. The students were temporarily suspended. One student is still under suspension pending a review.

Charges against three of the students have been filed in Clifton and one in Little Falls. The court date has been set for March 16.

A car that was stolen on Feb. 11 from the college was recovered in Paterson on Feb. 19. A stereo and two tires were missing.

A wallet left unattended in the library was stolen. The theft occurred between 5:30 p.m. and 6:05 p.m. The window of a 1985 Dodge was broken. The car had been parked in lot 20 and the incident occurred between Feb. 29, 8 p.m. and March 1, 7:30 a.m.

A wallet left unattended in the reading center was stolen on Feb. 25 between 4:30 p.m. and 6:15 p.m. The wallet contained $40.

An SGA worker found $137 missing from her desk. The theft occurred between Feb. 25 and Feb. 26.

A staff member in Panzer Gym reported that a suspicious person was watching children in the classes. She approached the male, who said he was lost. The person could not be found when the police responded. He was found later that night and on being questioned revealed he was a student. He was released immediately.

A fire alarm went off in Freeman Hall at 7:35 because of a stove being used to cook a meal.

The right passenger window of an 1983 Datsun was broken. Nothing was taken from the car.

The SGA legislature voted to decarters the Panzer student association, the German club, Phi Chi Theta, the science fiction Club, the winter guard pep squad and Delta Sigma Chi.

This zero base system will eliminate 'carry-overs' by Class I organizations for use in it's next academic year's budget. A carry-over is a sum of money remaining in an organization's budget at the end of it's fiscal year. "Zero base budgeting will benefit the organizations. It allows for more efficient programming because each class I is encouraged to spend the money allotted on programming or lose it. In doing this, it enables student's fees to be spent for the semester in which they attend," said SGA legislator, Perry Delvecchio.

Some legislators opposed to the bill felt that zero base budgeting could open the door for wasteful spending, as organizations would spend just to exhaust the budget.

The legislature approved changes in SGA class II appropriation statutes. All class II organizations are now required to raise a minimum of 25 percent of money needed for an event through fundraising activities. In the bill, fundraising explicitly excludes ticket sales and personal cash contributions by members. The remaining percent may be raised, in part, from a SGA appropriations and any other source available to the organization.

Final confirmation schedules mailed out
Confirmation schedules were mailed to all students who are enrolled for the Spring 1988 semester. Schedules for on campus students have been sent to their home address. Students must review this schedule to make sure that the courses agree with those being attended.

If there is any discrepancy with your schedule, you must report to the Office of the Registrar immediately.

CLUB presents
Nassau/Paradise Island
“SPRING BREAK 88”
March 27-April 3, 1988

Deadline
Monday
March 7.

Complete Package
Includes:
* Roundtrip air from New York to Nassau/Paradise Island
* Roundtrip transfers from airport to hotel
* 7 nights hotel accommodations at the Colony Club Resort
* Welcome Rum Swizzle
* One hour rum party
* Three hour cruise with unlimited Rum punch and on board entertainment
* Three beach parties (one with free lunch) music and activities
* Exclusive free admission to the Palace, Waterloo and the Drumbeat Club
* College Week programs by the Bahamas Tourist Office
* On location professional tour escort

FOR MORE INFORMATION CONTACT:
CLUB OFFICE 893-5232  Rm. 112D Student Center Annex
MAKE CHECKS PAYABLE TO AMERICAN TRAVEL SERVICES INC.
FULL PAYMENT ONLY!!

CLUB is a Class One Organization of the SGA
NOW PLAYING
AT THEATRES EVERYWHERE!

FRANTIC
A ROMAN POLANSKI FILM

HARRISON FORD

DANGER
DESPERATION

WARNER BROS Present
A MOUNT COMPANY Production
ROMAN POLANSKI Film

HARRISON FORD
FRANTIC
Betty Buckley
John Mahoney
Introducing: Emmanuelle Seigner
Music by Ennio Morricone
Written by Roman Polanski
Directed by Roman Polanski

Produced by Thom Mount and Tim Hamilton

Produced by Thom Mount and Tim Hamilton

This semester my best night courses aren't even on campus.

After a tough day of hitting the books, come to Uno's for an evening refresher course.
You'll find a menu stuffed with prize-winning appetizers, salads and burgers.

And 11 incredible versions of the most famous pizza on earth. Plus a fabulous, fun-filled bar, too. Uno's.
It's an extraordinary experience after another.

UNO
RESTAURANT & BAR

Features:
1. Two-bedroom, living/dining room, full kitchen,
   and bathroom.
2. Fully furnished, air-conditioned and carpeted.
3. Overnight parking available for all Clove Road
   residents.
4. Open during academic year vacations and winter session.
5. New, larger shuttle buses.
6. Meal tickets not required.
7. More independent life style.
We will accept groups of 4 or 5 in Clove Road
and the assignment is based on seniority of each group. Payment of a $100 deposit due on March 15, 1988, constitutes formal application for on-campus residence for the 1988-89 academic year.

ROOM SELECTION 1988-1989

RESIDENCE HALLS (FOR CURRENT RESIDENTS)

Residence Hall applications will be available April 4, 1988 from your Residence Hall Directors office or the RA. The deadline for applications is from April 13 to April 15, 1988. Payment of $60.00 deposit, due between April 6 and April 8, 1988, constitutes formal application for on-campus residence for the 1988-89 academic year.

RESIDENCE HALLS (FOR NON-RESIDENTS)

Applications available April 4, 1988 from the Office of Residence Life, Bohn Hall, 4th floor.
The deadline for application is April 15, 1988.
Payment of a $60.00 deposit, due between April 6 and 8, constitutes formal application for on-
campus residence for the 1988-89 academic year.
Non-residents will be assigned if spaces
are available after all current residents have been assigned.

CLOVE ROAD APARTMENTS
Applications will be available March 10, 1988 at the Clove Road Office of Residence Life, Bohn Hall, Fourth Floor, for those students who are not currently living on campus. Deadline for return of application is March 16, 1988.

FEATURES:
1. Two-bedroom, living/dining room, full kitchen,
   and bathroom.
2. Fully furnished, air-conditioned and carpeted.
3. Overnight parking available for all Clove Road
   residents.
4. Open during academic year vacations and
   winter session.
5. New, larger shuttle buses.
6. Meal tickets not required.
7. More independent life style.
We will accept groups of 4 or 5 in Clove Road
and the assignment is based on seniority of each group. Payment of a $100 deposit due on March 15, 1988, constitutes formal application for on-
campus residence for the 1988-89 academic year.

SUMMER HOUSING 1988
If you are interested in applying by May 9 from the Residence Life Office. Payment of a $50.00 deposit payable to Housing Services is required and, since spaces are limited, assignments will be made on a first-come-first-serve basis. The application with the deposit is due June 6, 1988.

RESIDENCE HALLS (FOR NON—RESIDENTS)

Applications available April 4, 1988 from the Office of Residence Life, Bohn Hall, 4th floor.
The deadline for application is April 15, 1988.
Payment of a $60.00 deposit, due between April 6 and 8, constitutes formal application for on-
campus residence for the 1988-89 academic year.
Non-residents will be assigned if spaces
are available after all current residents have been assigned.
Spring is in the air and students grabbed the opportunity to get some fresh air and play soccer in the Student Center Mall area. Ranjit Khanna and Aroz Mujahir, both international students display foreign developed soccer skills. Steve Walsh displayed local skill with his amazing frisbee.

LAST CHANCE!

IF YOU DON'T WANT TO BE INCLUDED IN THE STUDENT DIRECTORY

FILL OUT THIS FORM AND RETURN IT TO THE SGA OFFICE

RM. 103 S.C ANNEX BY FRIDAY, MARCH 11

I DO NOT WANT MY:

☐ NAME
☐ PHONE # ☐ ADDRESS

IN THE DIRECTORY

NAME

S.S.#
THE COLLEGE OF INSURANCE

Study for the M.B.A. degree full time at The College of Insurance

A 48 credit hour program
Meets AACSB curriculum standards
Finance or Insurance majors Placement assistance in insurance or financial services

Graduate assistantships available Fall 1988

Tuition remission, 12 credit hours per semester
Monthly stipend, $700
Work 20 hours per week in admissions, alumni relations, controller, personnel, development, student services or academic services

Call (212) 962-4111 or write office of admissions, The College of Insurance, 101 Murray Street, New York, NY 10007

WANTED

JEWISH COLLEGE STUDENTS FOR SATISFYING MEANINGFUL CAREERS IN JEWISH COMMUNAL SERVICE

JOIN US SUNDAY, MARCH 13, 1988, from 11:00 to 1:00 FOR A DELICIOUS BRUNCH, GOOD FELLOWSHIP AND STIMULATING DISCUSSION FREE PARKING NO CHARGE

FEATURING DYNAMIC SPEAKER

JONATHAN WOOCHER, Ph.D.
Executive Vice President of the Jewish Education Service of North America (JESNA)

Formerly Associate Professor, Benjamin S. Hornstein, Program in Jewish Communal Service, Brandeis University

YM-YWHA of METROWEST
760 Northfield Ave.
West Orange, NJ

Sponsored by the NJ Chapter of C.JCS and JSS including Jewish Student Organizations at Rutgers Newark, Kean, Montclair, William Paterson, Stevens, Dutch, NJIT, FDU, CCM, Ramapo, Bergen and Union C.C.

RSVP 642-1922 by March 10
For more info call Joy Kurland at 642-1922

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

"I get by with a little help from my friends"

International Youth Exchange, a Presidential Initiative for peace, brings teenagers from other countries to live for a time with American families and attend American schools. Learn about participating as a volunteer host family.

Write: YOUTH EXCHANGE
Pueblo, Colorado 81009

The International Youth Exchange.

You should know about new e.p.t. stick test. It's the fast and easy way to find out if you're pregnant. Or not. And you find out in private. If the stick turns pink, you're pregnant. If it stays white, you're not. It's that simple. If you have any questions about e.p.t., call us toll free: 1-800-562-0266. In New Jersey, call collect (201) 540-2458. e.p.t. The first and most trusted name in pregnancy testing.

SPRING BREAK SPECIAL

$28/Month & $3/session.
First Session Free

call today for appointment

THE BRONZE SALON

542 Valley Rd., Upper Montclair 744-1262

Maybe I'm pregnant. Maybe. Either way we want to find out in private.
WE WANT TO KNOW!

COKE vs. PEPSI

Campus Vending wants to know your preference -- COKE or PEPSI
That's why we are running a CONSUMER PREFERENCE PROGRAM

Locations:

Student Center
Bohn Hall
College Hall
S.C. Candy Store

MAKE YOUR CHOICE KNOWN!
PURCHASE FROM THESE LOCATIONS.

*Campus Vending is operated by the Student Faculty Coop Assn.
Gag Reflex
by John Paul

Mitshu
by G. Stuart Timm

It's 6:00 A.M. ........
I have to catch a
7:30 train to the city...
.............. sigh...

no... the life
of a successful
yuppie...............

And it's off to the races...
With a super-powered cold, my usual medicinal feminine interval at its peak..... and an ice-cold floor to boot........

AAAGH

And it's time for a reptile to face the raw casts of humanity.

Adventures in the Zones of Twilight
by John Vohldka

“Mom says the house just isn't the same without me,
even though it's a lot cleaner.”

Just because your Mom is far away, doesn't mean you can't be close. You can still share the love and laughter on AT&T Long Distance Service.

It costs less than you think to hear that she likes the peace and quiet, but she misses you. So go ahead, give your Mom a call. You can clean your room later. Reach out and touch someone.

Liz Corsini • Boston University • Class of 1990

AT&T
The right choice.
TAKE A HIKE...
WITH
THE CONSERVATION
CLUB
ON THE APPALACHIAN TRAIL!!!!
MARCH 11, 12, 13

All interested, please come to the Organizational Planning Meeting--Tuesday, March 8 at 4:00 pm in the conservation club office, Rm 120.

For more information call 893-5102
Or stop by Rm 120 in the Student Center Annex

The Conservation Club is a Class I of the SGA
Business & liberal arts need to join, not fight

Thomas Gaspar, visiting fellow from the Woodrow Wilson Foundation, has left turmoil in his wake. Gaspar said that Business was not an appropriate field for an undergraduate to receive a degree in. Students who did graduate with a business degree faced a bleak prospect in the business world.

For years, the business community has been lamenting the lack of well-educated business graduates. While these students have been trained to perform the tasks a business needs, they often cannot read or write too well. Additionally, the business majors lack the ability to provide the critical thinking skills necessary for good analysis and decision-making.

In a debate last Wednesday, Feb. 24 between faculty representing both business studies and liberal arts, each attempted to assert its field as superior. Superiority is not the question, though. There is no need for any field to be considered superior. Every student has chosen this/her degree, hopefully after some serious consideration and thought regarding his or her interests and aspirations.

The same argument used by liberal arts to advocate education for education's sake can also be used by business. Why shouldn't it be studied like many liberal arts subjects are studied? It is evident that every English major won't become a writer, and every history major won't be a historian.

Neither side is free from educational responsibility. While the business student does not always possess the general education a manager wants, the liberal arts student may be viewed as having no business sense.

As a result, undergraduate institutions must find some way to address the apparent exclusivity gap between these two fields. The most productive suggestion to come from the entire debate was the creation of a business minor here at MSC so that students could have a background in business in addition to liberal arts studies. This proposal has been made before only to be dismissed due to lack of agreement within the administration.

Under the current system, non-business majors are effectively shut out of the system. The large number of business majors doesn't allow room for stretching the department's resources to non-majors. As a result, non-majors are not allowed to register for business courses. Business classes need the input of the liberal arts students. Liberal arts students miss valuable info when they are denied admission to these classes.

Gaspar claims that he is archetypal of corporate business executives. Whether he is or not is open to question. What is clear, however, is that he has left business administration majors in a panic as to the value of their education.

WASHINGTON—Ah yes, Brother Swaggart, but what about the sin of hypocrisy? Having confessed to “incidents of moral failure” of an unspecified nature, allegedly with an unspecified prostitute, the Rev. Jimmy Swaggart was initially suspended by the Assemblies of God from preaching for three months—a slap on the wrist because he was contrite, not to mention what's called in Hollywood Big Box Office terms a “12-week hold.”

Swaggart's confession was televised and, given the standings and convictions of the man, probably mortifying. He allegedly did something with that prostitute (and maybe some others) that involved pornography. Just what he did we have yet to learn, although we will doubtless find out. The hooker will probably sell her story to some magazine and take up residence in either the Playboy mansion or a condo owned by Bob Guccione, publisher of Penthouse.

Knowing not exactly what Swaggart has done, one is hard-pressed to condemn him, and surely I am forgiving as the next man. We all sin, says the American Foundation, has left turmoil in his wake. Gaspar said that Business was not an appropriate field for an undergraduate to receive a degree in. Students who did graduate with a business degree faced a bleak prospect in the business world.

For years, the business community has been lamenting the lack of well-educated business graduates. While these students have been trained to perform the tasks a business needs, they often cannot read or write too well. Additionally, the business majors lack the ability to provide the critical thinking skills necessary for good analysis and decision-making.

In a debate last Wednesday, Feb. 24 between faculty representing both business studies and liberal arts, each attempted to assert its field as superior. Superiority is not the question, though. There is no need for any field to be considered superior. Every student has chosen this/her degree, hopefully after some serious consideration and thought regarding his or her interests and aspirations.

The same argument used by liberal arts to advocate education for education's sake can also be used by business. Why shouldn't it be studied like many liberal arts subjects are studied? It is evident that every English major won't become a writer, and every history major won't be a historian.

Neither side is free from educational responsibility. While the business student does not always possess the general education a manager wants, the liberal arts student may be viewed as having no business sense.

As a result, undergraduate institutions must find some way to address the apparent exclusivity gap between these two fields. The most productive suggestion to come from the entire debate was the creation of a business minor here at MSC so that students could have a background in business in addition to liberal arts studies. This proposal has been made before only to be dismissed due to lack of agreement within the administration.

Under the current system, non-business majors are effectively shut out of the system. The large number of business majors doesn't allow room for stretching the department's resources to non-majors. As a result, non-majors are not allowed to register for business courses. Business classes need the input of the liberal arts students. Liberal arts students miss valuable info when they are denied admission to these classes.

Gaspar claims that he is archetypal of corporate business executives. Whether he is or not is open to question. What is clear, however, is that he has left business administration majors in a panic as to the value of their education.

WASHINGTON—Ah yes, Brother Swaggart, but what about the sin of hypocrisy? Having confessed to “incidents of moral failure” of an unspecified nature, allegedly with an unspecified prostitute, the Rev. Jimmy Swaggart was initially suspended by the Assemblies of God from preaching for three months—a slap on the wrist because he was contrite, not to mention what's called in Hollywood Big Box Office terms a “12-week hold.”

Swaggart's confession was televised and, given the standings and convictions of the man, probably mortifying. He allegedly did something with that prostitute (and maybe some others) that involved pornography. Just what he did we have yet to learn, although we will doubtless find out. The hooker will probably sell her story to some magazine and take up residence in either the Playboy mansion or a condo owned by Bob Guccione, publisher of Penthouse.

Knowing not exactly what Swaggart has done, one is hard-pressed to condemn him, and surely I am forgiving as the next man. We all sin, says the American Foundation, has left turmoil in his wake. Gaspar said that Business was not an appropriate field for an undergraduate to receive a degree in. Students who did graduate with a business degree faced a bleak prospect in the business world.

For years, the business community has been lamenting the lack of well-educated business graduates. While these students have been trained to perform the tasks a business needs, they often cannot read or write too well. Additionally, the business majors lack the ability to provide the critical thinking skills necessary for good analysis and decision-making.

In a debate last Wednesday, Feb. 24 between faculty representing both business studies and liberal arts, each attempted to assert its field as superior. Superiority is not the question, though. There is no need for any field to be considered superior. Every student has chosen this/her degree, hopefully after some serious consideration and thought regarding his or her interests and aspirations.

The same argument used by liberal arts to advocate education for education's sake can also be used by business. Why shouldn't it be studied like many liberal arts subjects are studied? It is evident that every English major won't become a writer, and every history major won't be a historian.

Neither side is free from educational responsibility. While the business student does not always possess the general education a manager wants, the liberal arts student may be viewed as having no business sense.

As a result, undergraduate institutions must find some way to address the apparent exclusivity gap between these two fields. The most productive suggestion to come from the entire debate was the creation of a business minor here at MSC so that students could have a background in business in addition to liberal arts studies. This proposal has been made before only to be dismissed due to lack of agreement within the administration.

Under the current system, non-business majors are effectively shut out of the system. The large number of business majors doesn't allow room for stretching the department's resources to non-majors. As a result, non-majors are not allowed to register for business courses. Business classes need the input of the liberal arts students. Liberal arts students miss valuable info when they are denied admission to these classes.

Gaspar claims that he is archetypal of corporate business executives. Whether he is or not is open to question. What is clear, however, is that he has left business administration majors in a panic as to the value of their education.
To the editor:
I would like to respond to John Paul's letter in The Montclarion in which he criticized my position on the trapping and raising of animals for fur. John Paul has brought up several inaccuracies about the purpose of trapping and the role of the fur industry and wildlife management agencies.

Paul states that in the fur industry, through licenses, is responsible for "wildlife conservation and protection of the habitat." That statement pays the tab for wildlife conservation is a familiar, but unconvincing slogan.

There are 90 million acres of wildlife refuges in the U.S., but only 2.9 million of them were paid for from sportsmen's licenses (1985 Fish and Wildlife Realty Survey). Yet since the 1960's, hunting has been allowed on 60 percent and trapping on 20 percent of the refuges.

In 1974, the Great Swamp refuge in New Jersey was opened to hunting, not because there were starving and diseased animals, but because Congress in 1966 traded the nation's wildlife refuges to the hunting lobby in return for the National Rifle Association's opposition to the Endangered Species Act.

The cost of maintaining public lands is appropriated by Congress from the general treasury. Trapping license fees are normally used by state agencies to supervise activities associated with trapping, such as tagging pelts. What sportsmen actually pay for is predator destruction and habitat manipulation to assure a maximum stated yield of game animals for sportsmen's recreation.

According to Paul, trapping is necessary to control wildlife populations and to prevent livestock loss due to predators. Whenever wildlife has been at odds with livestock production, predator control programs have been fought with equal enthusiasm. In the Nixon era, over 250,000 coyotes were killed in the west; but biologists who studied the coyote found that the lamb killing was stimulated a "density-dependent" change in birth rates, and that the population was capable of a four-fold increase.

Predator control may even increase predation as it upsets the territorial balance, fostering transience, aggression, and search for easy prey.

Deterrents to predators, such as guard dogs and shepherds, used widely in Europe, are now being tried in the US with positive results. Taste aversion (using bait treated with lithium chloride, a mild toxic salt which causes nausea) has been so successful that it has been adopted as the primary predator control method in Canada's western provinces.

Paul also argues that excess trapping pressure on predators causes nausea) has been so successful that it has been adopted as the primary predator control method in Canada's western provinces.

Paul also argues that excess trapping pressure on predators causes nausea) has been so successful that it has been adopted as the primary predator control method in Canada's western provinces.

Paul also argues that excess trapping pressure on predators causes nausea) has been so successful that it has been adopted as the primary predator control method in Canada's western provinces.

Inclement weather:
To the Editor:
We are writing with regard to deep concern about the weather matters are handled on days of inclement weather.

On such days the school has three options: to delay opening the classes to delay opening, or to hold classes while insuring that the campus is as thoroughly and as adequately cleared of snow as possible. None of these options have, of late, been satisfactorily chosen.

Firstly, at least major snowstorms, classes were held. It was unclear as to whether there was a delayed opening until 10:00 a.m. because no such announcement was made on the radio stations and most of the professors who were present nowhere held their 8:00 and 9:00 classes. The situation was poorly handled.

Over 85 percent of MSC students commute. Yet on this day they were forced to make a decision: manage, somehow, to get to classes (on a day that was declared the worst of the winter thus far) on ice-slick, accident packed roads which were not even cleared yet, or take the day off, which is what happened to make it in. We should not have had to make a choice as such this.

Students did make it to classes, residents and commuters alike, met with pathways which were unplowed, unsafe and barely passable, and streets and parking lots that were not plowed, causing hazardous driving conditions. This student would find that most or all of their classes were cancelled because faculty found it difficult or impossible to get to or from the remaining classes.

We are not asking for days off. All we are asking is that we be assured, if classes must be held, that snow and ice will be properly removed before our arrival. That way, we will not have to risk slipping and falling on our way to classes, or getting our cars stuck in snow or damaged in the lots. If it is not possible for snow to be fairly removed, which is understandable a couple of times, we believe that the openings be at least delayed until such removal can be made satisfactorily, or that classes simply not be held for that day. We are asking for the same consideration that is fairly given to students at other schools.

A statement has been made which recognizes the consideration for the welfare of students and faculty of MSC. We only hope that it will be rectified in the future.

Mary Melville Ryan
MSC Graduate Student/Philosophy for Children
Students Speak

“How would you feel if the Rathskellar stopped serving alcohol on Thursday nights?”

“I don’t think it will make any difference if they stopped serving alcohol, since there’s only one night in question. The majority of students on campus are either underage or have no desire to go there anyway.”

Heather Ward
family-child studies/sophomore

“I feel that if the Rat discontinued serving alcohol on Thursdays, that this would cause the student body to go off campus to fulfill their social needs, thus causing a potential increase in alcohol related accidents.”

Barney Rubble
undeclared/sophomore

“I don’t think abandoning alcohol from the Rat is the answer, simply because students will just go somewhere else. This would be a big loss for the school if the Rat became obsolete.”

Bill Judge
marketing/junior

“I think it would show all the students that the administration can’t deal with problems. They should think of what students will do for alternatives like, drinking in the dorms and driving off campus to drink. The administration should face the problem, not turn away like they sometimes do.”

Chris Williams
marketing/junior

“If they stopped serving alcohol on campus for the one mere night a week, I think it would go a little too far. It would only be inviting students to drink and drive somewhere off campus.”

Debbie Kieselowski accounting/sophomore

---

How does making dinner tonight strike you?

You don’t want to be stuck in the kitchen after a long day. Come to Winberie’s instead. We’ll prepare the pasta. Grill the seafood. Serve your favorite burger. Come to J.B. Winberie tonight, and let us do the work.

J.B.Winberie

RESTAURANT AND BAR
Corner of S. Park & Church Streets, Montclair 744-0402
Across from Hahne’s.

Juniors, Seniors & Grads...

GIVE YOURSELF SOME CREDIT!

APPLY NOW FOR YOUR VERY OWN...

- Bring a photocopy of your School I.D.
- No cosigner required

DATE: March 7,8,9
TIME: 10-3 pm
PLACE: Student Center Lobby
Dancers dazzle in ditty

By Jennifer G. Stielevich
Art Editor

The following review is from the first dress rehearsal of the 1988 Spring Festival of Dance.

Imagination and creativity abound in the Major Theatre Series production of Spring Festival of Dance. Featuring works by guest choreographers, faculty and students, the program spans a wide scope of entertainment.

Nicholas Rodriguez, Artistic Director of DanceCompass, returns in “Quintet” the opening number. Twirling the stage with four women, he commands attention for his ability and polish.

The students move in a domino fashion, with graceful, patterned choreography. Their confidence and well-refined stage appeal marks a fine presentation.

Topped with old hats and over-sized blazers, dancers enter for “Ditty.” Leon Redbone’s upbeat musical race sends the dancers into hopping rages. This delightful segment is quick and concise. Each dancer reflects excitement of the choreography and the gay music. “Ditty” allows the dancers to show their humorous ability, unlike the more restricted, slower pieces.

“What’s Remembered?” is a masquerade of love affairs. Interrupted by two lovers narrating, the dancers transcend to the heights of the characters they portray. The style resembles the uniqueness of the Obsession commercials for Calvin Klein perfume. With lovers passing from one to another, dramatic poses are constructed. Interwifing lifts and spins fill the stage as the passion climaxes and crumbles.

Kimberly A. Fischer performs a wonderful duet with Manuel Rodriguez, a member of DanceCompass. Together they unmask their feelings while they twist and stretch with rhythmic perfection.

Scott Joplin’s minstrel melody enlivens “Footage,” an enjoyable piece wittingly choreographed by Lori Katterhenry. The curtain opens revealing a screen in the center. Projected on the screen is the blurred “footage.” Underneath it are eight pairs of feet. Moving up and down, side to side, only the lower legs are seen of the dancers. The choreography is delightful and the idea is both amusing and impressive.

The whole program is primarily a collection of modern dances. One segment, although represents the Baroque period. It begins with a slide presentation of art pieces from the era. The introduction is informative but rather unsettling. For historians, it may be more suitable, but its deviation from the sleek and abstract forms of the other pieces lacks smoothness in the production.

Senior Cindy Lucash choreographed and performs the solo “I Before E Except After C.” A disturbing vocal and musical combination accompanies her as she circles the ominous stage. Wearing white, she moves with railing gestures of a psychotic patient.

With well-timed arm thrusts and dramatic contortions, Lucash struggles with her anxieties and fears. She performs the routine marvelously, revealing skills of a fine actress and dancer.

The production runs smoothly and professionally. The student and the guest artists work well and cultivate their talents for the benefit of visitors to offer a fine performance.

The Spring Festival of Dance runs Thursday March 3 through Saturday March 5 at 8 p.m. in the Memorial Auditorium.

happenings

In Concert

The Major Theatre Series presents the Spring Festival of Dance Thurs. March 3 through Sat. March 5 at 8 p.m. in the Memorial Auditorium.

Tickets are $5, senior citizens, faculty, staff and students, $3. For more information call 893-5112.

Masterclass

A flute masterclass, a series with the New York Philharmonic is Thurs. March 10 from 10 a.m. to 12 noon in the Student Center, Ballroom A.

For more information call Audience Services at 893-5112.

Rock-n-Roll Corner

Parquejo Difuse

Taking a break this week...And the Grammy winners are:

New Artist
Female R&B Vocal
Male R&B Vocal
Group R&B Vocal

Just to See Her
(Aretha Franklin)

I Knew You Were Waiting For Me
(Judith Anderson)

I Wanna Dance
(Whitney Houston)

Bring on the Night
(Paul Simon)

“Somewhere Out There”
(Linda Ronstadt and James Ingram)

The Joshua Tree
(Bruce Springsteen)

arts/entertainment
Final Frontier
By Michael Bullerdick
Staff Writer

Someone wise once said, "The more things change, the more they stay the same." And to nothing is this addage more applicable than to the business of book serials.

Take any serial on the market today—Romance, Mystery, Horror, Science Fiction—if you've read one, you've read them all! Yet, every so often a book comes along in a particular series that reads like literature, its author rushed to the forefront and hailed as the voice of authority on topic "X."

That's just about the story with Pocket Book's Star Trek serial and Diane Carey's Final Frontier. Sitting conspicuously in the #5 spot on the N.Y. Times Paperback Best Seller List, the novel tells the story of a Star Trek long before the legends were made. Now the esteemed Captain James T. Kirk is just a boy of ten, and it's his father, Commander George Samuel Kirk, who, together with Captain Robert April, sets about boldly going where no man has gone before.

As with her other Star Trek best sellers, Dreadnought and Battlestations!, Carey manages to create new and intriguing characters that are as powerfully complex as the old ones. No other author in the serial business today could have carried the elusive characterizations of George Kirk and Robert April to such perfection.

The writing itself is crisp and clear and, best of all—timely. As the world debates issues of nuclear disarmament and star wars technology, Carey develops the Starship, a technology so promising yet so powerful it threatens galactic harmony.

The plot evolves along questions of intent: Did the Federation design the Starship as a peace-keeping force, an exploration vessel or an imperial warship? Questions raised today about the moral and military roles of the Superpowers are here placed in a 23rd Century context and debated rigorously, as the military-minded first officer and the pacifist captain square-off against the backdrop of impending, cataclysmic war.

Surprisingly, none of this comes off sounding preachy. The issues follow naturally from such intense characters and the well conceived plot. Without missing a beat, Carey takes us at warp speed from the familiar Star Trek universe, to its mysterious past, and then back again to the future—all of this making for an adventure that nears epic proportion.

---

We need YOUR input!
Should Lot 17 remain a Commuter Lot OR should it become an Overnight Lot?
(Lot 17 is the parking area by Blanton Hall.)

The parking committee has been discussing the parking in Lot 17. Right now, campus police is allowing it to be used as an overnight parking lot. Since we, the students, are the ones being affected, the SGA feels that your input is valuable to the committee's decision.

Please complete this form and drop it off in the SGA Office Rm 103 SC Annex by Friday March 11. Your input can make a difference.

ARE YOU A
COMMUTER____ RESIDENT____ RESIDENCE HALL (Bohn, Blanton, etc.)____ YEAR____
Should Lot 17 be a COMMUTER____lot
OVERNIGHT____lot (check one)
Silc Election

Silc is now taking nominations for the office of vice president to finish out the term which will end on the 31st of May.

Duties Will Entail:
Serve in President's absence
shall be a voting member
Assist in coordinating all events

Silc will take nominations today through Tuesday and will hold elections Tuesday March 8th.

---

Personals

—Phi Chi Omega Pledges— You made a great choice. Almost half way through! Good Luck.

—Love, Your Prospective Sister, Dani.

—Rob- Thanks for Sunday night, you're an animal. The "D".

—To Sherri and Colleen- Car- pentry and Infantry unite. Love, Gluck.

—Monkey- I hold hope for the future from the words you speak not your actions. Please don't ever lie to me, I won't. "In love," Wape.

—Rob A- It's time to get rid of you for misappropriation of SGA funds.

—Rob A.- Live by the rules or Die by them.

—Christian- Happy 22nd Birthday! Thanks for being so wonderful. Love always, Donna.

—"Fester: Further into the Heart"— arriving soon!

—To the Pledges of Iota- Cheryl, Claudia, and Randy. Your all doing great. Stick with it. Love, Maureen.

—To Debra- My ex-co P.M. Isn't this fun? Love, Mo.

—To all my friends— You can't begin to understand how much you guys have helped me. I don't think I would have been able to stay sane without you. Hang with Me and Mom. We'll both be fine soon. I love you all, Kerry.

—Tokyo Rose- Welcome to the 4-H club. Actually after that dress yesterday, there should be a 5-H club. WOW. Now about that affair.

—Mark Mania- Even though our relationship wasn't a romantic one, I wanted you to know how much I miss not having you around. Missing you.

—Mitch- Thanks for an excellent ski weekend. You throw a great party. Hopefully many, many, more to come. Love ya, Ln.

—A belated happy birthday and continued prayers for your steady recovery to full health to President Don Walters. Love to Mary too. From the students, faculty, staff, and friends of Newman.

—John L.- I'm not the girl from CCB1, I don't want to analyze you, and I don't want to just talk, but I'm ....watching.

—Non-Big Hair Michelle- Thanks for the rap on Monday. I forgot all about failing my test. Hope I did the same for you! X. Curious Dan.

—N.B.H. Michelle- P.S. You have a really cute pair of platella's (almost forgot) —Danny P.- What are you waiting for?

—Dianne- Sorry it's late, but you know I love you. Happy Birthday. How many days until your next one? Love, Aim.

—Hope the Pledges of Alpha Phi and Sigma Delta Phi- Keep up the great spirit and good work.

—Love, your advisor, Father Art.

—Darla- I don't ever want to hear you say that you never got a personal. Love, Your "sis" Chris.

—Lisa H. of Sigma- You are fat! Diet soon.

—Dear "Gopher and Julie" Thanks for a great cruise. It was truly a great experience. We'll have to ride the S.S. 205 again soon. The passengers of the Love Boat.

—Dear Ellen- U—B the bestest friend anyone could have...thanks for a great time. Love, the lady chuan.

—Helcat- Heres your surprise. Call me next time you need to go script hunting, or if you need a valet. Rotaaki.

—Tujab- Watch out for Haitian revolutionaries on Bavaro Beach, Tula.

—Ludwig- 7 little, 9 little, 11 little bottles of Euginio, 10 little-oops where did that last bottle of Euginio go? Medusa.

—Kermit- EDCBA. Love ya, Little-a-keeda.

—Andreka 4802- I don't know if you know who I am but I love your smile. D.L.

—Kar- Two more weeks and we'll be partying together. All I know is we'll have one heck of a weekend in March. Can't wait. Your bud.

—To Leah Rubin- Congrats on doing so well in psychology. Keep up the good work.

—To Maggie- Nice neck.

—Johnny D- Shid his pants.

—Thomas Stewart.

—To the MSC Ski team— You're an awesome bunch of people. "The Torch."

—To the other colleges compéting in national skiing championships at Lutsen mountain in Minnesota- Watch out here we come. MSC Ski Team.

—You can hide out in my room anytime.

—To the bears in Blanton-Psych up for spring training.

—Love, the prez.

—Iota Gamma Xi- Maybe if you didn't think you were so great you'd be more liked. You truly aren't that popular at MSC.

—To Kathy- Thanks for the friendship. You truly are a best friend. I hope it continues to grow. Love, Mare.

—Honey- 4 months and I am still on cloud nine. You're always on my mind. Love ya always, Jelby.

—H.D. #2- So what's this I hear that I'm a sexpot? You better take another look outside and see how it goes by sooner than you think. Enjoy it, Love, Debbie.

—To the beautiful Italian goddess in 208A- You don't know this yet, but you are my destiny. Love, Your "sis". Ron.

—To Joe "DOofus" P.- Keep an eye behind you and don't walk dark alleys alone.

—To the Hometown Hunnies- Thanks for being my "mum" at times. Bestest of friends forever, Ln.

—To the other colleges competing in national skiing championships at Lutsen mountain in Minnesota- Watch out here we come. MSC Ski Team.

—You can hide out in my room anytime.

—To Margot- Nice neck.

—Johnny D.- Shid his pants.

—Thomas Stewart.

—To the MSC Ski team— You're an awesome bunch of people. "The Torch."

—To the other colleges compéting in national skiing championships at Lutsen mountain in Minnesota- Watch out here we come. MSC Ski Team.

—You can hide out in my room anytime.

—To the bears in Blanton-Psych up for spring training.

—Love, the prez.

—Iota Gamma Xi- Maybe if you didn't think you were so great you'd be more liked. You truly aren't that popular at MSC.

—To Kathy- Thanks for the friendship. You truly are a best friend. I hope it continues to grow. Love, Mare.

—Honey- 4 months and I am still on cloud nine. You're always on my mind. Love ya always, Jelby.

—H.D. #2- So what's this I hear that I'm a sexpot? You better take another look outside and see how it goes by sooner than you think. Enjoy it, Love, Debbie.

—To the beautiful Italian goddess in 208A- You don't know this yet, but you are my destiny. Love, Your "sis". Ron.
cont. from pg. 12

-HankyPank— Surprise, surprise. Thanks for making a terrific friend. Love, me.

- To the VVSPs— When is the next encore? MSC girls.

- St. Patty's Day trip to NY on March 17th. Tickets on sale Feb. 29 in Blanton Hall.

- Brian- Feel any hairy legs in that hot tub lady?... To my Grand- Thanks for starting the tradition. Cotillon was fun in spite of that. Love, your grand little.

- Hey, there's so special to me. I love you with all my heart. Thank you for making me smile.-Love, Pizz.

- Don't you love your neighbors? Now I have a winning attitude! Go, Patriots. Smash the rock.

- "Doctor Doctor" get me the T! ere aren't enough dum p day nights with my best buddy. You!

- Jules— Thanks for being so

Xi- We love you all. From Your

—To the sisters of lota Gamma lush.

2 1/2 months. Love, your little

Iota Pledgies.

-Chippendales maybe? Love, who stares.

—Dear Peter— Thanks for the

—Susan Kosher Mosher— Don' t

Cheryl, Claudia, and Randi.

great weekend. You are a terrific and D.C.

—M.A., Carol, Carol and Dj-

—CUM seethe RADIATORS:,

—Handsome- You Ye so special your grand Irttie.

—Mr. Attitude- Where have yo(t been lately? We miss hear­ ding you. Or else you' ll

—To- whoever sent â candy and coke for you. Or else you' ll enough to wait without getting

—Tony. L.- I  think you better

a personal. Cheers babe. Lové,

Kerry hpuse again!

—To Ryland and Donald

in Bohn, wears a yellow and you and I really like what I see.

—Jim- I love your yellow sweats

Tuesday? I love you. Fopever,

Thursdays. Come seezes me on

Lisa,

—Dino- I hate Mondays. I love

—Ashley- What more can I say?

ever have. You guys are great.

—Rich- Miss me? I' ve been because we're not through with

Delta Phi- Just one more week

Delta Phi- One of the lucky ones to see the Darlene.'. *  ■

—Jennifer- I jusr wanted to let •

—To Kathy- Maybe- You're a whip.

—Hey Dean- You got a

by the Conservation Club room

•victim- of. 821.

—Teddy- If I can't see your face,

—Dear Claudia— You're a whip.

—Hey- Sue and Erika- They

now. See you at the table. An westart our laundry? Be careful

I have;, your address and phone

Thanks for being there. Love, ya,. Cathy.

—To Kathy- Maybe- You're a whip.

—To the pledges of Sigma

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark H.- The bow-legged

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Sigmas Delta- I'm just

—To Mark— Where's the

—To the Arts Editor- It' s a

—To the VVSPs- When is the next

encore? MSC girls.
Term papers, reports, and resumes professionally done at reasonable prices. Please call Sharon at 992-5081 or Gail at 228-9045. —Industrial Studies Students!

—Mon. March 7, from 2 p.m. to 3 p.m. Career Services will sponsor a seminar on getting into graduate school. This seminar will help you select appropriate graduate programs, understand the admission process and learn available financial aid.

—Mon. March 7, from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. The English Club will hold its weekly meeting on the 4th floor of Partridge Hall. All English majors are encouraged to join!

—Tues. March 8, Career Services will sponsor a seminar called Interviewing I from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. This seminar is designed to provide you with an understanding of the interview process. Participants will learn typical questions employers ask and have the opportunity to practice and determine appropriate responses.

—Wed. March 9, “Enmaus” group will meet at the Newman Community from 8:30 p.m. to 10 p.m.

—Wed. March 9, Mass will be celebrated at the Newman Community at 7:30 p.m. in the Newman Community.

—Sun. March 13, The Newman Community will celebrate Mass at 11:00 a.m. in Kops Lounge, Russell Hall and at 7:30 p.m. in the Newman Community. Guest speaker will be Fr. Tim Char ters who will speak about the Glenmary Volunteers. Lent III.

GJM Resumes—You have spent thousands of dollars for your education. Invest a few more dollars to have a professionally formatted resume. For $15 we will prepare your resume ready for printing. Call us and we will send you an application. (201) 227-3812.

For Sale

—SnowBoard, Burton cruser 165, excellent condition, $185 or best offer. Call John at 680-1711.

—Brother Heavy Duty Electric Typewriter—Features include lift-off correction system and interchangeable element. Excellent condition. Call 470-8740.

—Smith Corona Electric Typewriter—Features include 5K memory for storing text, built-in dictionary (typewriter beeps when error is made), full line lift-off correction system, automatic centering, underlining, and much more. This typewriter is in excellent condition. $189 470-8740.

—1980 Chevy Citation—92,000 miles, 4 speed, $400 or best offer. Call 494-5367 MWF after 7 p.m.

—Standard Poodles—6 month old puppies available, 1 black female, 2 silver males, 1 black. Excellent temperament and bloodlines. Also AKC stud service, toy, mini, and standard poodles. Adult dogs at reasonable prices. Call Cassie at 783-2368.

—6-year old AQHA mare, excellent bloodlines, conformation, and personality. Eng./Wet, road, and trail. Shown successfully. Also, aged Thoroughbred gelding (ex-racehorse) with a nice temperament available to a good home. Both horses are pedigreed. Call Cassie at 783-2368.

—Software- toy, mini, and standard poodles. Adult dogs at reasonable prices. Call Cassie at 783-2368.

—Feb. 22, 1988, Contact: Lisa or Vera Room 56, Freeman X5404, 744-7676, 744-9454.

—Customer Service Representative. Part-time 10 a.m.-2 p.m. One of the nation’s leading check printers is looking for bright, responsible individuals to become the “Voice of Delux.” This is an interesting and challenging inside sale position. We offer a pleasant working environment and a full training program. Apply in person between 9 a.m.-2 p.m. or call for a more convenient appointment. Deluxe Check Printers, 5 Henderson Drive, West Caldwell, 575-0900.

—Political work: Career and Placement Services will sponsor a seminar on getting into graduate school designed to provide you with an understanding of the interview process. Participants will learn typical questions employers ask and have the opportunity to practice and determine appropriate responses.

—Sun. March 6, the Newman Community will sponsor a seminar on getting into graduate school designed to provide you with an understanding of the interview process. Participants will learn typical questions employers ask and have the opportunity to practice and determine appropriate responses.

—Wed. March 9, “Enmaus” group will meet at the Newman Community from 8:30 p.m. to 10 p.m.

—Wed. March 9, Mass will be celebrated at the Newman Community at 7:30 p.m. in the Newman Community. Guest speaker will be Fr. Tim Charters who will speak about the Glenmary Volunteers. Lent III.

FTyping

LOWEST PRICES—FASTEST SERVICE OPEN 7 DAYS
RESUMES*REVIEWS*THESES ENGINEERING MEDICAL LEGAL
"WE TEACH LOTUS" CAF WORD PROCESSING SERVICE 368-3934

 swung and learned to forget. Remember that I love you and I'll be here for you. Love, Your Grand Little.

—Mare, Andrea, Lori, Sue Matt, Paul, Bruce, John F., John R. —Thanks for all your great support and friendship. Love, Nancy.

—To Greggie— My drinking pal Janet, Brian, Brian, Mike, Jeff, Kev, Richey, and everyone—I miss you miss you. Keep in touch! Love, Cindy.

—Kwaik— Happy 20th birthday. One year ago today you had a great one, you should because you deserve it. Love ya, Barium Rubidium.

—Sharyn P. —You are the greatest roomie. Don’t worry about credits because I don’t want you to go without me. Love ya, Roomie.

Attention

—the College Tutorial Center has posted hours for the Spring '88 semester. The center is located in Annex E, and is open from 9 a.m.-5 p.m., Monday through Friday; the center remains open until 7 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday.

—Did you have your picture taken during 1987 or 1986? Come to the ID office on the 4th floor, room 423, or call 893-5271, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

—Need someone to talk to? We’re here to listen. Call 893-5271, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

—Tired? Alone? Confused? We’re here to listen. Call the Drop-In Center at 893-5271.

—English Majors! Join the English Club. Meetings held every Monday from 9 p.m. to 10 p.m. on the 4th floor of Partridge Hall. New Members welcome!

—Industrial Studies Students! Make great money while gaining career-related experience. Part-time position as Axt Product Manager. Pay $8-10/hr. Contact Career Services, Student Center Annex, room 104.

—Expert Word Processing—Terms papers, resumes professionally done at reasonable prices. Please call Sharon at 992-5081 or Gail at 228-9045.
SILC Presents

the

GAMEROOM

TRIATHALON

*POOL

*ARCADE

*PINBALL

Wednesday, March 9th
12:30 - 3:30

In the Student Center Gameroom

*Prizes

*Free Games

*Awards

Come and Join the Fun
Applications Available in SILC
office, rm. 121 Annex
& Field-house

SILC is a CLASS I of the SGA
Swim team sets two new marks

By Kenny Peck

Splish-Splash  The MSC men's swim team set two new school records enroute to a ninth place finish at the Metropolitan Championships this weekend.

Andy Pecoraro swam the 200-yard butterfly in an MSC record 1:59.21, while the relay team of Mike Pavolony, Rich Volpi, Pecoraro and Karl Angersbach set a new mark in the 200 freestyle relay with a time of 1:34.27.

"It was an outstanding meet by everyone," Indian head coach Jim Billesimo said. "Each individual qualified to swim during the finals session each evening."

MCS swam in 36 events, and 28 personal bests were established by the Indians.

Me and Pasquale down at the schoolyard

This week, On the Inside Corner offers its selections for the upcoming baseball season with the help of Pasquale DiFulco of Rockin' Roll Corner fame.

American League East
1. New York Yankees
2. Toronto Blue Jays
3. Detroit Tigers
4. Boston Red Sox
5. Milwaukee Brewers
6. Cleveland Indians
7. Baltimore Orioles

National League East
1. New York Mets
2. Montreal Expos
3. St. Louis Cardinals
4. Pittsburgh Pirates
5. Chicago Cubs
6. Philadelphia Phillies

American League West
1. Kansas City Royals
2. Minnesota Twins
3. Oakland Athletics
4. California Angels
5. Texas Rangers
6. Chicago White Sox
7. Seattle Mariners

National League West
1. San Francisco Giants
2. Los Angeles Dodgers
3. Cincinnati Reds
4. San Diego Padres
5. Houston Astros
6. Atlanta Braves

At the Meadowlands None of last week's horses (Vienna Bay, Tyche East and Pocono Fox) ran, so we'll just carry over those selections to this week.

Class One Concerts of the SGA PRESENTS

THE RADIATORS

March 8, 1988 Memorial Auditorium

Tickets

$9 w/ID
$11 w/out
$11 at door

Tickets Now on Sale At The Box Office Across from the Bookstore

For more information call: 893-4478

Trivia Time-Out

Each week, The Montclarion publishes a list of sports questions and answers to test your knowledge of sports trivia. In addition, there is a sports stumper which will be answered in the following issue.

If you think you have the correct answer to the stumper, drop it off at The Montclarion office in Room 113 of the Student Center Annex. The names of those submitting the correct answer will be published in the next week's issue. Deadline for submissions is Monday at 3 p.m.

1. What was Howard Cosell's pre-TV profession?
2. What baseball player is the brother of Billie Jean King?
3. Who scored 76 goals and 152 points in 1970-71 and was the NHL scoring leader five times?
4. Who retired in 1950 after 50 years as manager of the Philadelphia Athletics?
5. How many players per team were allowed on the court in the very first basketball game?

At the Meadowlands None of last week's horses (Vienna Bay, Tyche East and Pocono Fox) ran, so we'll just carry over those selections to this week.

Answer to last week's stumper:
In what city were the 1912 Olympic Games held?
Stockholm, Sweden.

Submitting the correct answer was:
Aldo Depinto.

This week's stumper:
What caddie became the first American to win the U.S. Open?
Ski team closes out another fine season

By Amy Rakowski
Correspondent

The MSC ski team is currently winding down its fifth season, and it has been yet another successful campaign for both the men's and women's teams. Since the team was founded in September of 1983 by two former MSC students, Tom Stewart and Mark Colino, it has been a top competitor in the National Collegiate Ski Association (NCSA).

Within the past five years, the women's team has made it to the regional championships three times, while the men's team has been represented twice. This year, the team began its championship season by training at a weeklong race camp at Attitash mountain in New Hampshire over winter break.

The hard training proved to pay off, as in the four league races that were held the women's team took two first place and two second place finishes. This put them in first place for the New Jersey Ski Conference (NJSC), an area conference of the NCSA.

The men's team completed the fourleague race with a first, a sixth, and two fourth place finishes. These standings were enough to give the men a fourth place finish in the NJSC, along with a trip to the Nationals.

Much of the credit is due to a strong supportive membership. Returning members from last season include Frank Saya, Robert Summers, David Gerth, Andy Goodman, Kevin Albero, Ken Mate, David Downey, Suzanne Greco, Alida Baldi, Vicki Corso, Tina Snook and Amy Rakowski.

New members this year are Richard Kennedy, John Dorval, Jose Vivanco, George Erwin, Avi Pele, Karyn Kennedy, Rose Esteviz, Marlene Kruger, Nicoletta Cato, Terry Light, Diane Ferrone, and Lore Swadba.

This season, the team once again competed in the 10th annual Rutgers Ski Invitational, which was held at Hunter Mountain in New York State. The women's team had an outstanding weekend, taking first place in both the slalom and giant slalom races, while the men's team came home with two second place finishes.

Brother and sister team Richard and Karyn Kennedy received awards for being the top individuals, each taking first place in both the slalom and giant slalom. They were also presented with the Rutgers Invitational/Urban Cup, a trophy given to the outstanding male and female skier of the weekend.

Both the men's and women's teams qualified for a chance to compete in the Mid-Atlantic Regional Championships held this past weekend in Seven Springs, Pennsylvania. The Regional Championships hosted the top 12 male and female teams from the four conferences in the Mid-Atlantic region.

The women's team put forth a good effort by finishing in fourth place in the slalom race and taking seventh place in the giant slalom. These standings put them in fifth place overall, however, only the top three teams are allowed to compete in the Nationals, which will be held next week in Lusten, Minnesota.

The men's team finished solid in the slalom, taking first place, but fell the next day in the giant slalom by coming in sixth. However, their combined results put them in third place, thus qualifying them to compete in the Nationals.

Aside from the men's national competition, MSC will end its regular season this weekend when they host their second annual ski invitational to be held at Hidden Valley. A giant slalom race will be held at 5:00 p.m. Saturday night, and on Sunday a slalom race will be starting approximately at 11:00 a.m. All are welcome to come and support the NJSC Champions, who promise exciting skiing racing.