Bradley addresses editors' concerns

By Maureen Freeburg
Editor-in-Chief

United States Senator Bill Bradley (D-N.J.) met with editors from New Jersey college newspapers at the first Collegiate Editorial Board Conference hosted by MSC, in an attempt to establish relations between his office and the collegiate press.

Bradley addressed several issues during the one-hour conference on Monday, March 7, including future plans regarding his presidential aspirations.

"I sensed that '88 wasn't the right time for me," said Bradley. "You have to be at your best." He stressed that a candidate must know the country—not just by appearing on different television stations across the nation.

"You have to really know New Mexico, Maine and Alabama. You have to know foreign policy and communication, not just where Japan is on the map," said Bradley.

Bradley also spoke with great concern over the high infant mortality rate in New Jersey. He attributed the problem to lack of prenatal care available to women just above and at the poverty level.

Bradley accused the President of "ignoring the long-term importance of funding for education."

In an effort to combat the problem, Bradley sponsored a bill—passed last December—that raised the poverty level cut-off point for pregnant women. The current cut-off point is approximately $13,500, which is 185 percent above the national level.

Last month, Bradley proposed a bill for a N.J. Coastal Heritage Trail. The Trail would offer residents and non-residents the opportunity to "get off the superhighway and see New Jersey in a very special way," according to Bradley.

"When you mention New Jersey most people automatically think Turnpike or Parkway. I encourage residents to send me their favorite location in New Jersey to be considered for the Trail," said Bradley.

He referred to Ronald Reagan's 1988 budget proposals as "Reagan's good-bye budget." Bradley accused the President of "ignoring the long-term importance of funding for education.

He also believes Reagan is not "serious" about the new budget plans. "He (Reagan) criticizes people for not presenting a balanced budget, yet he doesn't present a balanced budget."

Bradley intends to continue meeting with college journalists to discuss state and national issues of concern to N.J. residents.

Tuition raised despite boost in state support

By Jane Bech
Staff Writer

Despite an increase in state support, students at MSC should expect a tuition increase for the 1988-89 academic year.

The increase was part of the projections made by Vice President of Administration and Finance William Griffeth at the board of trustees meeting last Thursday.

Although the exact figures were not given about the tuition increase, Griffeth expected to have them prepared in time for the next board meeting.

Faculty representative to the board Dr. Kathleen Wilkins and Dr. Joseph Moore, vice president of the Teachers Union, expressed concern over the tuition increase. They contend that the increased tuition will make the college less accessible to minorities.

Dr. Deborah Wolfe, chairperson of the N. J. Board of Higher Education, appealed to increase minority student enrollment and insuring that MSC is kept affordable for all students through financial aid and other sources.

Some of the college's programs, such as the institute of critical thinking, the legal studies center and the School of Fine and Performing Arts were praised by Wolfe.

She asked for the cooperation of the MSC administration to help implement the long term goals of the Board of Higher Education, and stressed the importance of strengthening undergraduate education in all fields.

Wolfe emphasized increasing the college's contribution to New Jersey's economic development and upgrading MSC's physical facilities.

Dr. Joseph Moore suggested that the college use $800,000 that was saved through cuts in salary and early retirement of staff, in order to directly reduce the number of adjuncts teaching at MSC.

The alcohol related death of a fraternity pledge at Rutgers last year was a different issue.

Dean of Students, Edward Martin said that the school bar was very careful in proofing individuals and measures were being taken to handle the problem.

A brief report on the success of the International studies program was given by Dr. Harriet Klein, director of international studies.

Klein attributed the three-year-old program's success to the faculty's vast international experience.

The program, which sends students to foreign countries for extended academic periods, includes England, Denmark and Israel.

A minor in International Studies is being developed in conjunction with the program. The minor will consist of courses that pertain to international matters in foreign relations, politics, trade and culture.

The college is sponsoring, for the second year in a row, the March of Dimes. Approximately three thousand are expected to participate in the event.
Columbia Pictures Presents A Clement/La Frenais Production starring Judge Reinhold "Vice Versa" Fred Savage Swoosie Kurtz

Music by David Shire

Director of Photography King Baggott

Executive Producer Alan Ladd, Jr.

written and Produced by Dick Clement & Ian La Frenais Directed by Brian Gilbert

PG STARTS FRIDAY AT SELECT THEATRES.

OWLS WANTED

GIVE A HOOT!

Become an Orientation Workshop Leader

For Further Information Call:
Ramona Guzman ext. 4206

OR Pickup Application At
Student Center Rm. 400

Deadline April 1, 1988

Looking for a great summer job?

Check out Action Park

* We offer an incredible array of job opportunities, everything from lifeguarding to electrical engineering

* We have numerous management opportunities - good for the resume and good for the pocketbook-up to $350.00 a week!

* You'll be working outdoors in the beautiful rolling hills of Vernon, NJ

Sounds Great - It Is. Send Your Resume To: Action Park c/o Personnel
P.O. Box 848 McAfee, NJ 07428 or call (201) 827-2000 ext. 216

Columbia Pictures Presents a Clement/La Frenais Production

Starring Judge Reinhold "Vice Versa" Fred Savage Swoosie Kurtz

Music by David Shire Director of Photography King Baggott Executive Producer Alan Ladd, Jr.

Written and Produced by Dick Clement & Ian La Frenais Directed by Brian Gilbert

PG STARTS FRIDAY AT SELECT THEATRES.

STARTS FRIDAY AT SELECT THEATRES.

OWLS WANTED

GIVE A HOOT!

Become an Orientation Workshop Leader

For Further Information Call:
Ramona Guzman ext. 4206

OR Pickup Application At
Student Center Rm. 400

Deadline April 1, 1988
News Notes

Class cancellation radio notices

In the event that inclement weather or other circumstances make it necessary for classes to be cancelled, the following stations will air notices: WCBS, WINS, WOR, WABC, WMHG, WERA, WJLK, WJDM, WKER, WNNJ-AM/WIXL-FM, WMTR-AM/WDHA-FM and WCTC-AM/WMGQ-FM.

History professor to tour China

Dr. Kenneth Olenik, history professor at MSC invites area residents to join him on his sixth summer study tour of the People's Republic of China, scheduled from July 5 to July 21.

The tour may be taken for graduate or undergraduate credit by students at MSC and by the public on a non-credit basis. The tour will cover Hong Kong, Shanghai, Beijing, Guilin and Xi'an.

The cost of the tour is $2780 and is all inclusive with the exception of airport departure charges and tuition fees for participants who want course credit through MSC.

More information on the trip may be obtained by contacting Olenik at 893-5251 or 746-2842.

SGA News

Abuse of parking policy is alleged

By Mike Heelan
Staff Writer

At last night's SGA meeting, the legislature was informed of parking policy violations by the college and some of it's employees.

Yesterday, the administration violated regulations by reserving lot 13 without informing students in advance.

Another violation was brought to the attention of the legislature. There has been an alleged abuse of parking privileges by college parking attendees; according to an SGA legislator special parking considerations have been given by the attendants to family and friends.

A resolution unanimously passed by the legislature on Feb. 10, concerning names being announced at this year's graduation may be defeated by the administration.

"The administration is jumping to a hasty decision. The SGA was not contacted to seek out the research which it conducted. Their concern was time but our information shows that the addition of all names being called will only add 45 minutes to the ceremony," said SGA president, Rob Acerra.

More information on the trip may be obtained by contacting Olenik at 893-5251 or 746-2842.

Election fever, having finished with Super Tuesday, takes over at MSC.

Perry Del Vecchio and Tom Mergola, candidates running for treasurer and president respectively for the upcoming SGA elections, seek signatures from students.

The candidates will start campaigning extensively in the following weeks. The elections are scheduled to be held on April 9 through April 13.
WE WANT YOU!

Can you type about 45 words per minute?
Do you need some extra cash?
Do you want flexible hours--on campus?

Then you must want to typeset for
The Montclarion

Stop by our office, Room 113 in the Student Center and pick-up an application.

The Montclarion is proud to be a Class One Organisation of the SGA.

The Montclarion/Thursday, March 10, 1988

---

The ‘Teeterthon’ is coming!

Start positioning yourselves
now

TKE is a Class IV of the SGA
Career Services

How to set up a network

Creating a network early in your college career will help you get the information that can help in career planning and eventual job hunting. Once you are in contact with someone through your network, you should have a list of well-focused questions prepared. Asking questions such as those which follow can provide a solid beginning to decide whether or not a certain career area is right for you.

What kind of educational background and/or work experience is required to enter this field?
Is study in a particular major required?
What classes outside my major might it be helpful for me to take? Do I need special credentials, licenses, or certificates to enter this field? How do I get them?
What do you do on an average day? What are the work tasks? What personal qualities are needed in order to succeed in this line of work? What specific skills are needed?
What is the work setting like? How many hours a week do you usually work? What are the typical entry level positions? What is a typical entry-level or mid-level salary?
Is promotion possible in your occupation? What aspects of the work do you find most or least appealing?
What, if anything, did you have to give up in order to pursue your occupation? What professional associations or people would you suggest contacting?
The process of interviewing people in person or on the phone to learn more about the work you are considering is called information interviewing and is one of the most useful purposes of the network.

However well your networks develop, remember that people are generally more than willing to help and provide information. Most people are flattered to be asked, so pick up the phone and start researching.

Marilyn Kinch is the assistant director of Career Services.

Pass-fail policy revision

Under a new policy instituted this semester by the Registrar's office, the pass fail option may be rescinded until the mid-point of the semester which is March 21. Any student electing to rescind this application must present their copy of the pass-fail form to the office of the registrar before the midpoint of the semester. Upon submission and verification, the pass fail request will be voided and a letter grade condition will be in effect.

Quarterly submission deadline

The Quarterly has extended the deadline for submissions in the next magazine. The magazine accepts poetry, art and anything else that can be used in a literary magazine. The Quarterly also welcomes new members; they meet every Wednesday in Room 113A of the Student Center.

SILC PRESENTS:

Volley Ball

MEN'S & CO-REC
STARTING MARCH 21ST
APPLICATIONS AVAILABLE MARCH 14TH

LOOK FOR SPECIAL EVENTS:

*SOFTBALL TOURNAMENT—APRIL 18
*OUTDOOR 2 PERSON VOLLEYBALL
*CANDLELIGHT BOWLING — MAY 14
*VOLLEYBALL MARATHON — MAY 13
AEROBICS — EVERY MON, WED, THUR, AT 7:00 IN GYM

SILC IS A CLASS ONE OF THE SGA
ART, DRAFTING & DESIGN STUDENTS,

We have the Tools for your Success.

Bring your Back to School lists to Koenig Art Emporium where you’ll find everything you need from brushes, pads, paints, & T-squares to tables, lamps & chairs.

KOEING ART EMPORIUM

Artist Supplies • Custom Framing

Where Creative People Shop

890-0303 Willowbrook Mall
Sears Wing
Discount w/MSC ID
Except Sale Items

JUDGE MICHA LINDENSTRAUSS

March 14/8:00 p.m.
Room 417 FREE!!
Student Center

JSU is a Class 4 organization of the SGA

Earn Up To $10,000 While You’re Earning Your Degree

We’re UPS, and when it comes to part-time positions that offer flexible schedules, top wages and company benefits, we really deliver.

Openings exist for people to load and unload packages. You’ll work 4 to 5 hours daily, 5 days a week. The hours and the days are up to you.

Our salaries start at an impressive $8 per hour. Then, after just six months, you’re entitled to excellent benefits that include medical, dental, vision and prescription drug plans. In addition, we offer a clean, safe and friendly environment.

START TIMES:
MIDNIGHT: 11:00 PM
PRELOAD: 3:00 AM
NOONDAY: 12:00 AM
TWILIGHT: 5:30 PM

(Saddle Brook does not offer day shift)

Our starting pay is $8/hour—and that’s with no experience! PLUS, after just six months, you’ll be eligible for benefits that include medical, dental, vision care and prescription drug plans.

When you work part time at UPS, a choice of schedules makes it easy to fit in a UPS job with your class time. For complete details on these excellent opportunities, apply in person or call any of the following locations:

SECAUCUS
493 COUNTY AVE.
SECAUCUS, NJ 07094
201-330-2315

SADDLE BROOK
380 MIDLAND AVE.
SADDLE BROOK, NJ 07662
201-330-2315

When you come to Pizzeria Uno you can count on two things. Great food. And great times. Since 1943 we’ve been serving up ample portions of one extraordinary experience after another.

SECAUCUS
Harmon Meadow Plaza
(Next to Hostilman’s)

WAYNE
West Bell Plaza-Rte. 23
(Next to Service Merchandise)

PARAMUS
Mall at IV-Rte. 4W
(Opp. RKO 10-PLEX)

“Open Sundays”
A 104
Physical Education

My first time tutoring was a night to remember. My student was something called Bone Crusher Reed, a.k.a. Billy Jo, defensive tackle for the football team.

I had the shock of my life when he answered his dorm room door. He was about six foot seven...in diameter. And when he shook my hand, I thought I'd never get it back.

So there I was, face-to-knee with the big man on campus, wondering how I was going to relate American Literature to The Hulk.

But then he pulled out a can of Orange Cappuccino. I was shocked! Could it be that this tough jock liked its delicate taste? And when Bone Crusher brought out the bone china, I was beyond belief.

Reading the expression on my face, he said, "What can I say? I like it. The Café Français is pretty good, too." Well, who's going to argue, I thought. As we sipped our Orange Cappuccino, I discovered that Billy Jo loves reading novels; his only problem was poetry. So I gave him tips on reading Emily Dickinson, and he gave me a copy of Ann Beattie's "Falling in Place.

All I could think was, Dad's never going to believe this!
SGA ELECTIONS ARE COMING!!

Petitions Are Available For:
*Executive Board Positions
(President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Executive Secretary)

*Board of Trustees
Student Alternate

*Legislators

FOR 1988-1989!

PETITIONS AVAILABLE NOW!!
PETITIONS DUE: FRI., MARCH 18th, NOON!

Petitions can be picked up in the SGA office, Rm 103 S.C.
Drug testing: public good vs. private rights

Have you ever flown on a plane? Most people are a little uneasy about leaving the ground for an extended amount of time. Thoughts of plane crashes come to the minds of even the most seasoned travelers.

Human thought on surgery follows the same lines. The idea of having no control over what happens to your body once under anesthesia may well be more unnerving than the thought of the operation itself. Your body and its existence is in the hands of a few paid strangers.

Well, how would you feel if you knew that there was no regulation to ensure that the pilot flying your plane was not under the influence of alcohol? Or that the surgeon removing your appendix was not high?

The idea of drug testing came about in order to regulate people who work in jobs that make them responsible for human life. It provides an assurance that air traffic controllers and train engineers will not have their performance affected by mind-altering substances.

It has also become popular for companies and corporations to test employees for drugs. The rationalization for this form of drug testing is that, like air traffic controllers or train engineers, employees affect an employer's performance. Whether or not that employee's performance has more bearing on the company's livelihood or on human lives is not taken into consideration.

The main question, of course, is public good vs. individual rights. If a worker's performance can affect the safety of people other than himself, then it is for the public good that his personal lifestyle be controlled. But when an employee has no responsibility for anyone other than himself, and the safety of others is not in question, then it is an infringement of individual rights to force such an employee to undergo drug testing.

Well then, now that we have discriminated where drug testing is necessary, how is it to be enforced? First, the concept of 'public safety' must be clearly defined. Once that is done, the proper regulations must be set up designating specific jobs which jobs to regulate and for what substances. Who is to do this? Each company making its own regulations would accomplish nothing, for the main aim of company drug testing is increased performance, not public good, and you can be sure that any loophole will be used to define "public good" for the company's benefit.

Such an operation must be centralized. The federal government must regulate drug testing to protect lives but not to impose on individuals unnecessarily.
Advice for a failing system

To the editor:

Students of MSC— it’s time to make some noise. We have a real adversarial problem on our hands. Do you have an advisor? Do you know your advisor’s name? Have you even been to see your advisor? If yes, what for? To get your schedule signed?

Now here is the biggie...has your advisor ever sat down with you and outlined the courses you needed to graduate?

If you are a typical student at Montclair State, you probably answered “no” to most of these questions. How about this: do you have a Montclair State Handbook or a requirements book? If not, you had better get one. Or didn’t you know that it is your responsibility to get these books that no one ever told you about?

Ok, here is one more. What’s the difference between a survey course and a topic course? If you don’t know you had better find out because you need both to graduate.

Now be careful. You’re probably thinking, “Ah! I have my sheet from my major with all my information on it!” Pretty slick, eh? Too bad that most of these are wrong. Upon pulling out various majors (business, graphic arts, English), I was dismayed to find that none of these actually utilized the contacts through his work for the government during the war. In early 1917, he decided it was time to approach Britain for assistance in developing a Jewish national homeland in Palestine. He was not aware, however, that the Sykes-Picot agreement did not permit Britain to grant such a request.

Later in the year, Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs Lord Robert Cecil informed Weizmann that Britain would endorse the idea of a Jewish homeland in exchange for the privilege of parking, Even after the student has paid his/her parking fee, the student is subject to fines and the possibility of being towed if he/she has parked illegally. On the other hand of fairness, a faculty or staff member does not have to pay for the right to park and feels they can park wherever they feel like parking.

Facility: students deserve fairness

To the editor:

The phrase “What’s fair for one, should be fair for the other” is a common and accepted cliche. That’s if you are not a commuting student at MSC. A student at MSC is required to pay twenty dollars for the privilege of parking. Even after the student has paid his/her parking fee, the student is subject to fines and the possibility of being towed if he/she has parked illegally. On the other hand of fairness, a faculty or staff member does not have to pay for the right to park and feels they can park wherever they feel like parking.

When the war ended, Emir Faisal, Husein’s son, immediately went to Paris to discuss the Declaration with the Allied Powers. Arab countries wanted reaurnusses for what had been made in 1915 by McMahon. Britain, however, viewed the agreement less strictly, utilizing the territorial constraints of the McMahon promise as interpretative sticking points. Faisal left disappointed but open to discussion.

Faisal met with Weizmann in early 1919 and initially displayed positive hopes for a peaceful coexistence. In a letter to Felix Frankfurter of the American Zionist movement, Faisal wrote that “we will do our best...to wish the Jews a most hearty welcome home.” Faisal’s sincerity would soon be tested by Arab nationalists.

The great betrayal of the Arabs was perpetrated by the British government. Concerned with the safety of the empire, the Foreign Office did not consider the possible ramifications of the Balfour Declaration in the Arab lands. British and French direction encouraged Arab nationalistic tendencies in a manner neither could have predicted.

John P. Navarro
junior/economics and finance
Students need to be informed

Let's try to remember the first day of classes in September. The majority of you were probably driving onto campus via College Avenue. You were cautious not to hit any administrators crossing from lot 9 between 8:30am and 9:30am.

You drove a little further but were suddenly confronted with a long line of cars. Curiosity sets in. Oh no, not a conference. You're moving at a snail's pace behind some twenty cars and your eye catches something strange in the distance. You notice the regular entrance into the student lot (Lot 13) has been blocked by a metal gate. Proceeding slowly, you're shocked to find a mini-toll booth blocking the main entrance to the student lot.

Having personally spent the first few days of classes in front of the entrance speaking with students, I soon realized the student body was largely opposed to the gates. I found the opposition was primarily due to the administration who have come to understand the problem of illegal parking. Yet taking action to solve the problem without conceptualizing its full impact has only increased the problems.

DelVecchio insists a standard set of procedures must be developed. That is the first step to resolving some of the problems.

Animal rights: self hatred?

To the editor:

Ms. Ryan's response to my letter in the March 13 edition of The Montclarion is merely a reiteration of her fallacious "animal rights" groups. These groups would deny the right to responsibly use animals for food, medical research, entertainment and clothing. To artificially elevate animals to the level of man is to deny all of human history. As an adult in a free society, I have no problem with self-hatred. I prefer not to. Rather, allow me to cite a higher authority which endorses humanity and its place in the ecosystem:

"...and Cain brought some of the produce of the soil as an offering for Yaweh, while Abel for his part brought the first-born of his flock and some of their fat as well. Yaweh looked with favor on Abel and his offering."

Genesis 4:3-5

Ms. Ryan is certainly allowed to indulge in self-hatred. I prefer not to. Rather, allow me to cite a higher authority which endorses humanity and its place in the ecosystem:

"...and Cain brought some of the produce of the soil as an offering for Yaweh, while Abel for his part brought the first-born of his flock and some of their fat as well. Yaweh looked with favor on Abel and his offering."

Genesis 4:3-5

John Paul
senior/english

The procedures must clearly explain the regulations on visitor parking, conference parking and the penalties a member of the campus can expect if these procedures are violated. They must be given to the parking attendants who are currently doing as they please.

If those individuals who are responsible for the gates want to see their true benefits realized they will communicate their intent to the entire campus community.

Rob Akkera is president of the SGA

Mampilly's column seemed anti-semitic

To the editor:

I read with interest Paul Mampilly's editorial of Feb. 25 on the current situation in the occupied territories. I was delighted to see our college newspaper being utilized as a forum for issues of international interest, in addition to the campus and regional issues which more immediately touch our lives.

Unfortunately, I found Mampilly's treatment of the subject simplistic, uniformed, and blatantly anti-semitic. The issues, although not presented as such, are involved and complex. Simple statements such as "Israel has no legal or moral right to occupy the West Bank and the Gaza Strip," indicate the writer's lack of sophistication on this subject.

However, I choose not to concentrate on the historical and social realities which inform this issue. Hopefully, others will rise to that task. Instead, I wish to address the anti-semitism which struck me with its angry intensity. I readily concede that conditions in Palestinian refugee camps are unpleasant, even revolting. But to compare them with Nazi concentration camps is absurd, an affront to the six million Jews and countless others who were killed there. Mampilly has a curious view of the Holocaust and its implications. He declares, "If Israel, the nation born of Nazi Germany's oppression and hatred, does not recognize what is happening, the world has learned nothing from the tragedy of the Holocaust." Why is it that the burden of responsibility, of learning from the Holocaust, is placed on Israel alone? I would submit that Israel learned its lesson very well—it learned that Jewish blood isn't cheap. Sure, Israel has a moral obligation to respect human rights and act fairly, but not because of the death of six million Jews. That is the lesson the rest of the world, not the victims, should have learned.

Finally, the writer suggests that if Israel continues to justify its actions vis-a-vis the Palestinians, the same justification should be used concerning the plight of the Jews in the USSR. I fail to see the logic in this question. In fact, there is none.

David A. Moss
senior/psychology

Students Speak

"The college is increasing the tuition fee for the upcoming academic year. Do you feel that this increase is substantiated?"

Compiled and photographed by Wally Acuna

"I have no problem with an increase in tuition costs so long as there is an increase in what this school has to offer. Security, parking, and library hours are just a few of the problems that need attention. If raising the tuition is the only way to solve these problems, then they should do it.

Michael Falzon
economics/junior

"No, I do not feel MSC offers enough for the students. The security system should be enhanced so that walking on campus at night isn't so dangerous. The library hours should be lengthened to cater to the students' need and the administrative offices should make a schedule so that there is someone competent in the office at all times."

Maryann Zoppi
home economics/senior

"Yes, I feel that I am getting my money's worth. There is a lot that this school offers that many people take for granted. Also, tuition goes up each year, so it's to be expected.

Annie McMenamin
speech pathology/senior

"I feel that if the board of trustees were to increase the tuition fee, they should also increase their educational programs. As of now I am getting my money's worth, because I have taken advantage of many programs the school has to offer. Independent studies, co-op programs were all administered well and I was able to learn more than if I was in a classroom.

Karen White
communication studies/senior

"My personal opinion is that students are getting their money's worth, education wise. As long as the increase is fair, I would not oppose it.

Eddie Rodriguez
biology/sophomore
TOBE-COBURN SCHOOL
FOR FASHION CAREERS
NEW YORK CITY

Take a giant step toward a career in the fashion industry! Study in the nation's fashion center-New York City! For 50 years, graduates of Tobe-Coburn School have been industry leaders-as buyers, stylists, managers, editors. Join our corps of distinguished alumni. College graduates and transfer students may qualify for the Associate Degree in just one year. Financial aid available. Classes start in July, September and January.

NAME_________________________________________

S T E E T __________________________

CITY ___________________________ST __________________ZIP

PHONE __________________________

HS GRAD DATE ____________COLLEGE __________________________

Tobe-Coburn School, Box 686 Broadway, New York, NY 10012 (212) 460-9600.

How to stand out in a crowd.

The American Express® Card gets an outstanding welcome virtually anywhere you shop, whether it's for a leather jacket or a leather-bound classic. Whether you're bound for a bookstore or a beach in Bermuda, so during college and after, it's the perfect way to pay for just about everything you'll want.

How to get the Card now.

College is the first sign of success. And because we believe in your potential, we've made it easier to get the American Express Card right now. Whether you're a freshman, senior or grad student, look into our new automatic approval offers. For details, pick up an application on campus.

Or call 1-800-THE-CARD and ask for a student application.

The American Express Card.
Don't Leave School Without It.
Fish fans float on top

By John Rice

Correspondent

Something fishy has hit MSC! And what a hit it was! The New Orleans Radiators, presented by Class One Concerts, put on a really hot show Tuesday night in the Memorial Auditorium.

The audience ranged from high school students to older adults, but all had an equally great time dancing (some barefoot) and singing to the bluesy, southern-fried rock and roll reminiscent of the Grateful Dead and the Allman Brothers. Clad in tie dyes and Levi's, the crowd responded wonderfully.

The band consists of master keyboardist, vocalist, songwriter Eddie Voiker, 39; guitarist, vocalist David Malone, 35; guitarist (and bongos player) Camile Baudoin, 39; bassist Reggie Scanlan, 36; percussionist (bongo player) Glenn Sears, 37, and drummer Frank Bua, 41.

The Radiators opened up their first set with "This Wag-on's Gonna Roll," off their current LP "Law of the Fish" which pleased their fans, the "fish-heads."

The band rocked the house with some of their not so popular songs before hitting the dancing and singing fans with the song "Like Dreamers Do." Through much radio airplay, the song has gained the band much recognition in recent months.

After a short break, the Radiators or "Rads," as their fish followers call them, primped the audience for the second set with "Bommerang." Guitarist/vocalist Dave Malone went off on a guitar lick displaying a sense of professionalism which is not foreign to the rest of the band. They performed in a synergistic manner, no man taking center stage, rather all six members equally contributing to create an audio experience of euphoric proportion.

Later in the set the Rads played their attention-getting song entitled "Suck the Head." Believe it or not, it's about a crayfish.

The first encore included a cover of Van Morrison classic "Brown-eyed Girl." The second encore was composed mostly of an instrumental similar to that of the "drums/space" set at a Grateful Dead show. In the final encore, the band satisfied the crowd by playing the Dead cover tune "Lovelight."

When the Rads finally left the stage after their third encore, their fish-heads proceeded to plead for a fourth encore but to no avail. Almost three hours had passed since the band struck its first chord. The houselights came up and many stood in awe of the display of musical talent and tightness they had just witnessed.

***************
NATURAL QUARTZ CRYSTALS
Look like words
"Can Bring Luck and Success"
"Can Improve Relationships"
"Can promote healing"
Approx. 2" $6.00 w/pouch
Send check or MO to
New Age Crystal Co.
PO Box 43287
Upper Montclair, N.J. 07042

CARER PATHS '88
Tuesday, March 15, Student Center Ballroom 1:00-7:00
FRESHMEN-SOPHOMORES-JUNIORS
-SENIORS-GRADUATE STUDENTS

*Are you unsure about what career you would really enjoy?
*Do you wonder what's really out there?
*Are you concerned about how to get started?

CAREER PATHS '88, a special event coming Tuesday, March 15, is designed for you! Alumni representing more than 20 different careers will be present to give you an Insider's View of the work in their fields. It will be an invaluable opportunity to learn about new careers and the qualifications needed. Get advice and hints that may just give you the edge for a start toward a successful career.

You will have the opportunity to attend a series of panel discussions, that will focus on interesting careers for people with liberal arts backgrounds, at the following times:

1:00-2:30 pm.....Helping Professions/Social Service Careers
2:30-4:00 pm......Business Careers
2:30-4:00 pm......Health and Science Careers
4:00-5:30 pm ......Public Affairs/Legal Related Careers
5:30-7:00 pm.......Communications Careers

PRESENTED BY CAREER SERVICES, 893-5194
Tube Talk

By Raymond Ecke
Staff Writer

Sup T.V. people! Soon it will be time to bid a fond adieu to St. Elsewhere. The beloved series completes its sixth and final season in late May (sigh). In the second-to-last episode, the doctors’ parents show up for the “Daughter of the Year” dinner. Real life husband and wife Steve Allen and Jayne Meadows reprise their role as the mom and pop of the goofy Dr. Axlerod (Stephen Furst) and simul­ casting saga traces the path of (Lene Olin).

From the “Oh no, not another damn rerun,” file, some 9,000 members of the Writers Guild of America went out on strike Monday. The writers are seeking a greater share of foreign residuals on film and T.V. productions, as well as more creative control over their scripts. NBC is likely to be hit hardest. Already, Saturday Night Live is cancelled for this week and The Tonight Show and Late Night with David Letterman are running reruns. The strike will also affect some game shows and soaps.

Lightness: a film of unbeatable length

By Tom Bond
Staff Writer

When was the last time anyone has heard of a three hour long movie? Yes, I mean a 180 minute film about a trio’s complicated involvement in romance and relationships. This is what The Unbearable Lightness of Being is all about.

Set in Czechoslovakia just before the 1988 invasion this seemingly never­ ending saga traces the path of a lascivious surgeon (Daniel Day Lewis) who chases a faithful country girl he marries (Juliet Binoche) and simultaneously keeps an artistically inclined mistress on the side (Lene Olin).

This relationship intensifies in complexity when the Reds take over their country and force all three lovers to Switzerland, where a new culture presents new challenges and opportunities. My main complaint about Lewis is that he is too much like James Bond. He behaves as though he possesses a mystical ability to seduce any woman at any time. This type of acting has no place in a flick that supposedly deals with mature ties between men and women.

However, he does communicate a certain gentleness which is pleasing although it doesn’t make up for the frivolous attitude he has.

French born Binoche also exhibits tenderness. She is more pensive when it comes to relationships and life and this adds to the philosophical battle between marriage and infidelity. She examines the issue of Russia’s incursion into a democratic nation and sets the moviegoer’s mind thinking.

On the cultural side, Swedish Olin goes all the way. Aside from acting and photography, she is a fabulous intellectual seeking creativity as much as passion. Olin’s unique perspective gives the liberal side of love and kinship.

Besides being intolerably too long, The Unbearable Lightness of Being wanders aimlessly plotwise. Figuring out exactly what is going on between each lover is no easy task at all. The picture focuses more on a person’s erotic needs and desires than on true importance of relationships and consequently doesn’t reach the depth of a Woody Allen film.

One real asset of this movie is that it excels as a photo­ journalistic depiction of Czech culture and European scenery. You get a good taste of life before, during, and after the invasion. Furthermore, this is contrasted against the luxurious lifestyle of the West yet in the long run, these advantages do not overshadow the disadvantages.

Director Philip Kaufman had a great chance of showing us what relationships are all about but he blew it by permitting Lewis to be a playboy and by giving us a murky plot to follow. I would have liked to have raved about The Unbearable Lightness of Being but I just can’t really care to sit through several hours of unclear interaction and sluggish progression. It receives a disappointing two stars.

Mental Health Update

By Gene P. Bloch
Correspondent

If you’ve ever watched a television broadcast like the Tonys, Emmys or Oscars, you undoubtedly have noticed all there is to see: outrageous outfits worn by celebrities, the long line of limousines sur­ rrounded by thousands of crazed fans armed with autograph books and cameras, the all­ around gilty mood beaming from performers, presenters and award winners alike.

There is a technica­ hoy, which you probably have overlooked—until now.

Have you noticed that when the camera sweeps the applauding audience that every last seat has a person sitting in it? If you have, in fact, noticed it, your question would be “how is this possible?”

Is every invite to an awards show advertised? “The show will last approximately three hours, please remain seated for the duration (restrooms will be locked).”

That couldn’t be so. How is it then, that all the seats are occupied, all the time? The answer is “seat fillers,” which isn’t found in the dictionary but can be defined as “Individuals who fill seats.”

Last Wednesday, at the 30th Annual Grammy Awards, a group of MSC students learned a detailed definition of “seat filling” first hand. Sitting back about 35 rows, about 15 min­utes after the broadcast had started, the audience rose, ran up the aisle holding up a hand with five fingers extended. This meant that she needed five people to fill up seats or five stars who had to get up for whatever reason.

I got up and ran down to the second row, where I was ushered into an empty seat. I stayed there for a close view of performances by Cab Calloway, Ron Duguay, David Sanborn, Lou Reed and Zuanne Vega, along with our audientes, Mayor Ed Koch, Cyndi Lauper, Christie Brinkley and Prince.

It was a good vantage point for some performances, but like all good things, it came to an end, when the frantic lady came back with the people whose seats were open. I hardly had time to get up and turn when I realized that they were U2. It was then that I ran back up to the 35th row to wait for another hand signal, so I could hop into some more empty seats.

Before you know it, you really thought about it—how all the seats could constantly have someone in them. But they do, I should know.

Musical chairs at the Grammys

By Jennifer G. Steivelich
Art Editor

The Broadcasting department of MSC offers an enriching program of technology, creativity and extra curricular activities. One such activity was presented through the Governor’s 30th Annual Grammy Awards.

Altogether, 79 students were chosen to attend the event. Fifty-four of the honored men and women were “seat fillers” and the remaining 25 were talent escorts.

Through the mazes of Radio City Music Hall, the students led celebrities such as Miles Davis, Belinda Carlisle, Al Jolson and Jesse Jackson.

Prior to the Grammys, students of the department and those of New York University attended the Lifetime Achievement Awards, arranged through Dr. Howard Travis. Their participation was appreciable and won their invitation to last Wednesday’s festivities.

Senior Karla Lambert, students’ coordinator at the Awards show said, “It was an exciting evening, and a great learning experience.” She added, “It’s really very rare that you get to work for a nationally televised program as prestigious as the Grammys.”

Sophomore Caroline Scudd escortes Sandra Crouch and said, “It was a lot of hard work.” Different performers were led to their seats or to the stage and brought to their dressing rooms at intervals throughout the day and even continued to be full run­ through of the show.

“IT was a wonderful experience,” Scutt added, “We were actually seated. Overall it was great.”

Challenge Grant

The Broadcasting department is also actively involved with the New Jersey Television Network, an opportunity won through the Governor’s Challenge for Excellence Grant.

Students have been trained to operate new equipment and enhance their creative skills. To remain in the program, they must maintain a 3.0 grade point average and be active in the department.

Sophomore Geraldine Dakak said the Grant offered her the opportunity she would not have received anywhere else. She remarked, “The hands on experience with the equipment and the work involved has helped me tremendously.”

The department’s first colla­ coration with the network is expected to air this month. It will reveal the advantages the students have molded into a fine performance.

Jackson proves who's bad

By Raymond Ecke
Staff Writer

Let's face it, Michael Jackson is a little wacky. Whether it's his slumber in an oxygen chamber, traveling with a chimp or bathing in Evian water, Jackson has become something of a 1980's Howard Hughes.

Regardless, his performance Thursday night at the Madison Square Garden reaffirmed his status as one of the most exciting and innovative performers of all time.

It began with a huge marquee displaying some of Jackson's fancy footwork, as the marquee began to rise it became a wall of blinding white light. As it descended, the band added to the excitement by playing some dramatic chords, finally resulting in five silhouettes standing center stage. The man in the middle would soon command the attention of every person in the sold-out arena for the next two hours.

Jackson kicked off his first solo tour with "Want U Back" off the record breaking "Thriller." The audience was astounded by the infamous red leather jacket and again portrayed the sensible one in a senseless gang fight.

Most of the material performed were primarily from Jackson's solo albums as well as some Jackson periodicaly slowed down to play some of his ballads. Of course, his singing "Human Nature" and later during "She's out of My Life," he asked the audience if he could come down into the crowd and sing to them. At the climax of the song he fell to one knee and began to cry. Anyone who can cry in front of 16,000 people is okay by me.

One problem still remains with Jackson's performance in that he needs to communicate better with the audience. He virtually did not say anything except an occasional "thank you" or "I love you." Perhaps this lesson can best be learned by visiting an upcoming Bruce Springsteen concert.

Jackson came back to perform "Beat It," "I Want You Back." First to do a riveting version of "The Way You Make Me Feel." Then again to do an inspiring version of "I Just Can't Help Myself" which brought the crowd to their feet. By the smile on Jackson's face you could tell he was having a good time.

Thursday night's performance was a benefit for the United Negro College Fund. Jackson performed with singer forms to date. Everyone shared in the inspiration they performed so well.

Young and old joined to sing-a-long to "I'll Be There." A few old songs, the old fashion way, "I Want You Back," "I'll Be There" and "I'll Be There." The Montclair/Thursday, March 10, 1988
Personals

Small change got rained on with his own 38.

—P. Here's you personal.

—L. You didn't have to go through all the effort. Thanks for all your help Tuesday. Love you too.

—Ma Little Keeda (EDCBA) Get your little legs ready. We're going the full 25 I can't wait. I love you, Kez.

—To the girls who played B-Ball with us Thanks for the good of all. Maybe we can do it again soon. The Lame White Men.

—Ma Little Keeda Hot lust for the denin god, can you handle it? 8000 - 8000 - oh! Love, Kez.

—Nymphos Beware!! We know who you are. You will be exposed to the good of all. Look out in the Montclarion for the next three weeks.

—Caroline - Another awesome night in Alphabet City. When they say the city never sleeps, they aren't lying. But it's a lot sounder, and now it's almost here! I'm ready to party, how about you? Lisa.

—Steve R. I've been watching you play hockey, you move great for a 3rd year. Love, an admirer.

—Chris Mathis Keep pumping that iron. I lost BIG! Please respond.

—To Steve (on 8 in Bohn) You're hot! Wish I knew you better. Write back. Interested fan.

—Andrea Thank you for all your help over the past few months. I'll love you forever my girl, My鼠brother! Love, Me.

—Deb Jones Call- You are the best friend in the whole world. Thanks for your everlasting support. Love, Alyssa.

—Join the cult craze. Contact a lost boy and party all night.

—Arlene Joyce's on Sunday night. One more waste shot and you would've had me in bed. Too bad I was out of money.

—Next time. Trill.

—Mr. Bus Driver If you ever get the urge to show some affection, "A Hug...might make my day!"

—Steve Mr. Happy Birthday. Warning you will soon be kidnapped, bound for Peppermint Park for a birthday sundae (among other things) Love ya, Monika.

—N.C. (No Commitment) How about that split action? Here's to getting lucky. Love ya, M.

—Max (my big sister) Revenge is sweet! Diane (your little sister) —Iotian Cotillion Bus Crew Here's a story of a man named Brady...Everybody sing.

So, when does the king get to jump the queen?

—Spaz and Wendell Thanks for being such good friends. If it weren't for you we'd still be lying in the snow. Love ya lots, Quick and Easy.

—Amanda- We're always there for me and I love you for it. "Tam-ski."

—Congratulations! Iota Gamma Xi Pledge- You made it through ride night. Only two more weeks, hang in there. Love ya, Miss Comunale.

—CSAL- Thanks a lot. Good luck. It'll be fun. Let's do it again soon. Hope the man with the Samarai is there again. K.

—To any big, Jennifer- I can't wait to Cancil. You're the best. Love, Your Little.

—To Sherri- Wanna do shots? (wink, wink) Love, Gluck.

—To Anthony and Brian- Was there a full moon last Sat night? Be there and you may have a surprise.

—Chris Papas eats worms.

—Fizza and Cindy- Here's your personal. Sorry about the fire in the big house. You're the best. Looking for the big one you know. Love, an admirer.

—We'll call you once we are ready to socialize with society again. The Dudes in 206 B and Webster for the great final spring game.

—Anna Banana- Hope you're having fun in Freeman. Webers- are you not the same? Don't forget lunch on Mondays! Luv ya, Marge.

—Joji, Meredith, Diane, and Tracy - Sorry you went inactive. We miss you. AIX.

—Hey Loser- You're ugly. Here's the personal you thought you would never get. Guest who?

—Frank- Even though times were rough, we made it. You are really special and I don't ever want to lose you. Love, Your baby forever.

—Dear Nate and John- We've been through much. We want to tell you that we don't want to reveal our identities. By the way, you sound sexy, and we assure you we are not shallow. The Nymphos.

—Meredith Thinking of you! Love, AIX sisters.

—To Sherri- 9 out of 10 doctors survey that those who ride red fire trucks develop black spots.

—Love, Gluck.

—Jim Lasstella- You're looking seriously hot! Someone who's watching.

—Stopply Joe- I really want us to be friends. I'm sorry I pushed for more. All I can do is apologize for that Saturday night. Beete.

—To Mr. Extension 3536- I've been watching you and I would like to get to know you better. A Bohn Hall Resident.

—Now so you have gotten him to the room. Don't just sit there, attack. Just me, TKE P28. It's been 11 months so far. Are we having fun yet? Luv ya lots, AIX 46.

—Frater Bill H.- I'm glad you're with my big brother. You won't be disappointed. Rich (Mute).

—Vern- To a great roommate! Don't let all the work get ya down. We'll make it together. Vern.

—Sorry Joe- I'm one hundred percent behind you. I want to help you in any way I can. Think dry Beetie.

—Would someone to talk to? We're here to listen. Call the Drop-in center, 839-5271. All calls are confidential.

—Donna- Thanks to Alba, Laurie, Cindy. Want some cherry. Love your "devil" going movie friend.

—Dr.k Rosearia- or is it Rosa­ ria? Just how do you say that name. Your bar room buddy. Chris.

—To the pledges of TKE Keep it up, it will pay off. The misfits.

—To Barbara, my sexy taxi driver- Next time let's get it together here in the Bohn. TKE once TKE twice Holy Jumping Jesus...stayed tuned for more.

—Trill- I am you best friend! Love ya, Nanner. P.S.- Can I borrow your vaccuum?

—To Lisa and Daryl-Daytona here and now the last year, "How's your thang?" Love, Me.

—To the Happy Belated Birthday! Big 22! Hope it was a good one. You crazy chick. Love ya, Fu.

—To the man of MSC- Kelly has a personal. Our advice to you is to grow up and stop writing false statements. Sigma.

—To Linda Seifter- HI! Have a great week. Luv, your secret pal.

—Trish- Just because I'm trying to do something, doesn't mean I still don't want to go turbo drinking. Let's party! Ginny.

—Trill- Did I catch you off guard? I love you! Rob.

—Annie- It's strange how people are quick to judge yet can't even see their own faults. I hope those people have mirrors. Love, Amy.

—Sextoy- Do you prefer Ivory soap or maybe you'd prefer another brand? Love, H.D. #2.

—To Pete and the Gang- The insignia is wearing three animals in Blaston Cafe. Is this Montclair State College or Montclair Nursery School? Grow up.

—To the girl who wears a black leather jacket- Looking for the good of all. Love ya, Pakistan.

—To Linda Seifter- HI! Have a great week. Luv, your secret pal.

—To the man with the brown leather jacket- Looking for some company this Friday night next door. Love Thy Neighbor.

—Nanner- You know who checked out O.K. Next time just ask the girl if you're feeling up. From the D.A. of the month.

—Eternity-at-a-glance books unite. A necessity of super­ human RA's and AM's.

—To Robin, Jeryl, Tammy- When is our next social project? I really enjoyed working with you there. T-shirts anyone, Love, Lisa.

—Laura- Eeeeeevacuate! Lisa.

—To the Bizzies- What about some Mexican w/ cheese and salsa. We've been talking about it for so long. Love always, your 3rd roommate.

—To the girl who wears a black leather jacket- Looking for some company this Friday night next door. Love Thy Neighbor.

—Nanner- You know who checked out O.K. Next time just ask the girl if you're feeling up. From the D.A. of the month.

—Eternity-at-a-glance books unite. A necessity of super­ human RA's and AM's.

—To Robin, Jeryl, Tammy- When is our next social project? I really enjoyed working with you there. T-shirts anyone, Love, Lisa.

—Mary and Joyce- Can't thank you enough for everything. A morning without you guys is like death. Love always, your 3rd roommate.

—To the man with the brown leather jacket- Looking for some company this Friday night next door. Love Thy Neighbor.

—Nanner- You know who checked out O.K. Next time just ask the girl if you're feeling up. From the D.A. of the month.

—Eternity-at-a-glance books unite. A necessity of super­ human RA's and AM's.

—To Robin, Jeryl, Tammy- When is our next social project? I really enjoyed working with you there. T-shirts anyone, Love, Lisa.

—Mary and Joyce- Can't thank you enough for everything. A morning without you guys is like death. Love always, your 3rd roommate.

—To the girl who wears a black leather jacket- Looking for some company this Friday night next door. Love Thy Neighbor.

—Nanner- You know who checked out O.K. Next time just ask the girl if you're feeling up. From the D.A. of the month.

—Eternity-at-a-glance books unite. A necessity of super­ human RA's and AM's.

—To Robin, Jeryl, Tammy- When is our next social project? I really enjoyed working with you there. T-shirts anyone, Love, Lisa.

—Mary and Joyce- Can't thank you enough for everything. A morning without you guys is like death. Love always, your 3rd roommate.

—To the girl who wears a black leather jacket- Looking for some company this Friday night next door. Love Thy Neighbor.

—Nanner- You know who checked out O.K. Next time just ask the girl if you're feeling up. From the D.A. of the month.

—Eternity-at-a-glance books unite. A necessity of super­ human RA's and AM's.

—To Robin, Jeryl, Tammy- When is our next social project? I really enjoyed working with you there. T-shirts anyone, Love, Lisa.

—Mary and Joyce- Can't thank you enough for everything. A morning without you guys is like death. Love always, your 3rd roommate.

—To the girl who wears a black leather jacket- Looking for some company this Friday night next door. Love Thy Neighbor.

—Nanner- You know who checked out O.K. Next time just ask the girl if you're feeling up. From the D.A. of the month.

—Eternity-at-a-glance books unite. A necessity of super­ human RA's and AM's.

—To Robin, Jeryl, Tammy- When is our next social project? I really enjoyed working with you there. T-shirts anyone, Love, Lisa.

—Mary and Joyce- Can't thank you enough for everything. A morning without you guys is like death. Love always, your 3rd roommate.

—To the girl who wears a black leather jacket- Looking for some company this Friday night next door. Love Thy Neighbor.

—Nanner- You know who checked out O.K. Next time just ask the girl if you're feeling up. From the D.A. of the month.

—Eternity-at-a-glance books unite. A necessity of super­ human RA's and AM's.
To Pat, Chris, Kerry, Carla, Noelle, Dara, Lori, Sandra, Jessica, Dawn, Andy, Eric, Steph, Cindy, Kathy, Denise-The original 5PD crew at "Club D."

—Snowflake- I find it amazing that you have every wonderful character and every person you could have. Just in case you forgot, I love you! Love, Panky.

—Pa- Referring to your personal- "Pam- Are you for it? Get off that phone Ann! What you meant by "What else is there to say?" Is curious Albert.

—To the girls in 3B02- Looking forward to the next rainy Friday after­

—To the 12th floor party crew- Thanks guys! We love you! Siobhan, L., and L1t.greaded.

—Ogguls- I'm looking forward to my next rainy Friday afternoon. Love, your back seat buddy.

—Marc (509 Freeman)- I'm really glad we met again. Hope we can become closer. Don't forget to come and visit. Alyssa.

—Hey Macho Man in Clowe- Wow don't you wish you had been more often over to Blanton? I want your bed! Love always, Guess who.

—To my Dinocakes- You are my dunkettes, pudding pie, snookums nose and sugar lips! You are as happy as you make me. I love you.

—To Cindy- Happy Birthday- The big two one. V.D. Turkey 11.

—To the Motley Crue- Here's the Wang, from the edge of the brown eyed friend.

—Rick C- Sorry if I caused any concern friends.

—To the pledge of Sigma- Are you stupid enough to advertise yourselves in the paper? Right?)- Bermuda may never be the same without you.

—To the "Real Women" of Montclair- yeah, we have a comment- and checking it twice, we're there.

—To the girls in 3B02- Looking forward to the next rainy Friday after­

—To the 12th floor party crew- Thanks guys! We love you! Siobhan, L., and L1t.greaded.

—Ogguls- I'm looking forward to my next rainy Friday afternoon. Love, your back seat buddy.

—Marc (509 Freeman)- I'm really glad we met again. Hope we can become closer. Don't forget to come and visit. Alyssa.

—Hey Macho Man in Clowe- Wow don't you wish you had been more often over to Blanton? I want your bed! Love always, Guess who.

—To my Dinocakes- You are my dunkettes, pudding pie, snookums nose and sugar lips! You are as happy as you make me. I love you.

—To Cindy- Happy Birthday- The big two one. V.D. Turkey 11.

—To the Motley Crue- Here's the Wang, from the edge of the brown eyed friend.

—Rick C- Sorry if I caused any concern friends.

—To the pledge of Sigma- Are you stupid enough to advertise yourselves in the paper? Right?)- Bermuda may never be the same without you.

—To the "Real Women" of Montclair- yeah, we have a comment- and checking it twice, we're there.

—To the girls in 3B02- Looking forward to the next rainy Friday after­

—To the 12th floor party crew- Thanks guys! We love you! Siobhan, L., and L1t.greaded.

—Ogguls- I'm looking forward to my next rainy Friday afternoon. Love, your back seat buddy.

—Marc (509 Freeman)- I'm really glad we met again. Hope we can become closer. Don't forget to come and visit. Alyssa.

—Hey Macho Man in Clowe- Wow don't you wish you had been more often over to Blanton? I want your bed! Love always, Guess who.

—To my Dinocakes- You are my dunkettes, pudding pie, snookums nose and sugar lips! You are as happy as you make me. I love you.

—To Cindy- Happy Birthday- The big two one. V.D. Turkey 11.

—To the Motley Crue- Here's the Wang, from the edge of the brown eyed friend.

—Rick C- Sorry if I caused any concern friends.

—To the pledge of Sigma- Are you stupid enough to advertise yourselves in the paper? Right?)- Bermuda may never be the same without you.

—To the "Real Women" of Montclair- yeah, we have a comment- and checking it twice, we're there.
Trivia Time-Out

Each week, The Montclairian publishes a list of sports questions and answers to test your knowledge of sports trivia. In addition, there is a sports stumper which will be answered in the following issue.

If you think you have the correct answer to the stumper, drop it off at The Montclairian office in Room 113 of the Student Center Annex. The names of those submitting the correct answer will be published in the next week's issue. Deadline for submissions is Monday at 3 p.m.

1. What were the colors of the basketballs used in the ABA?
2. Name the two starting quarterbacks in the first Super Bowl.
3. Who were the two players that won baseball's triple crown twice?
4. What kind of freshwater fish was the largest ever caught?
5. What major league player hit back-to-back grand slams on May 9, 1961?

—Political work: Career and...
Brown, Field fare well in IC4A meet

By Kenny Peck
Sports Editor

Junior Godfrey Brown and senior Amod Field competed in the Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Athletes of America (IC4A) meet this past weekend in Princeton, New Jersey.

Brown ran in the 400 meter event qualifying event Saturday. He covered the distance in 49.62, enabling him to compete in the finals on Sunday. Field competed in the 500 meter race, finishing in 1:05.33.

In the final heat, Brown was involved in a slight mishap, as two runners in front of him stumbled and fell, causing Brown to stumble himself and lose his momentum.

He was still able, however, to recover and finish fourth in a time of 50.42.

Brown was the only Division III runner to compete in the finals on Sunday.

"Both Amod and Godfrey really ran well," said head coach Vic Mizzone, noting that the meet consisted of the best runners in the country. "Over 100 schools were represented at the meet, and only a few Division III schools were represented. I'm very proud of both Amod and Godfrey."

Both runners will be headed to the National Championships this coming weekend at Smith College in Northampton Massachusetts. Field will compete in the 800 meter dash, while Brown will run in the 400 meter event.

Field is ranked third in the nation in his event, while Brown is as rated sixth best.

The relay team, consisting of Field, Brown, Scott Langan and Kyle Eady, narrowly missed qualifying for the meet. The team has the ninth best time in the 1600 meter relay event in the country this year.

Dick Schaap to speak

Noted author and sports broadcaster Dick Schaap will be speaking on "Jock Lit: Writing about sports," March 16 in the Student Center Ballroom-A at 7:30 p.m.

Baseball team looks to repeat

By Kenny Peck
Sports Editor

The 1988 MSC baseball season gets underway this weekend when the Indians travel to Florida for a seven-day, eight-game trip beginning with Purdue on Saturday.

MSC, the 1987 Division III national champion, looks to defend that title with a new leader in first-year head coach Norm Schoenig. Schoenig takes over from Kevin Cawley, who left MSC to take over the head coaching job at Division II Florida Atlantic this season.

Schoenig brings 14 years of coaching experience to MSC, though this will be his first head coaching job in the collegiate ranks.

He was an assistant with the Indians from 1977-83 before coaching at Rutgers University as an assistant from 1984-87. In 1986, the team won the Atlantic Ten Conference title and a National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division III Wrestling Championships in Wheaton, Illinois, and three of them came from Buena Vista, 11-0. On the way, he defeated Bill Goebel from Gustavus Adolphus, Brian Deutsch, who was the Most Valuable Player in last season's World Series, will be moved from right field to first base this season, replacing the departed Pepe Herrero.

In fact, none of last year's starting infielders will be back. Second baseman Kevin Cavallo, catcher Bill Coyle and shortstop Jim Fasano were lost to graduation, while part-time third baseman Sal Ferragamo won't be returning to the team.

The Indians won't be caught short, however. At second base will be freshman Timmy North, who Schoenig says has "excellent defensive abilities." Sophomore Rich Bellomo will be the catcher, while Pete Diaz and Bob Levy, who saw plenty of action last year, will be the shortstop and third baseman, respectively. Senior Rich Prezotti may also see some playing time.

Senior centerfielder Leroy Horn and junior leftfielder John McClain will return to patrol the outfield, along with sophomore rightfielder John Lipinski, who was used in a limited role last season. Freshman Troy Bowers may also see some action.

Horn and McClain put up remarkably similar numbers last season (Horn finished with a .320 batting average, six home runs and 47 runs batted in, while McClain hit .318 with seven home runs and 47 runs batted in) and consistently came through in the clutch for MSC.

Freshman Steve Pizza and senior Fran Maggio will be platooned at the designated hitter slot depending on whether the Indians face a righthanded or lefthanded pitcher.

The Indian pitching corps will be led by junior righthander Jeff Vanderloef, who was 10-1 last year with a 3.90 earned run average (ERA). Vanderloef will be on the mound in the season opener Saturday.

Sophomore Brian Devins, last season's team leader in strikeouts with 76, returns from a fine freshman campaign. The southpaw pitched a 9-2 record and four complete games in both starting and relief roles.

Sophomore Wayne Masters was 6-1 last year with an ERA of 4.29. The righthander will take the number three spot in the rotation, while freshman Joe Porecelli will be the Indians' fourth starter.

Short relievers for the Indians will be freshman Drew Ryan and junior Dave Kern (1-1 in 11 appearances last year), while Fran Gallagher, Harold Moore, Vinny Henrich and Ralph Doerfler will be used in long relief.

What's What in MSC sports

Wrestling

On March 4-5, four MSC wrestlers went to the 1988 National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division III Wrestling Championships in Wheaton, Illinois, and three of them came home with a national title in their back pockets. When everything was added up, the Indians found themselves in second place overall behind St. Lawrence University by only 3 points.

Top-seeded Pete Gonzalez took home the 126-pound national title by defeating Brad Brodahl from Buena Vista, 11-0. On the way, he defeated Bill Goebel from Gustavus Adolphus, Brian Darling from Oswego, Rick Flores from Marywood, and John Fagan from Trenton State.

Top-seeded in the 157-pound division, Karl Monaco, defeated the third seed, Dean Salvaggio from Elmherst, Greg Hanchin from Case WR, Carl DeBernaro from John Carroll and Brett McNamara, 13-6, to take the title. Georgoutsos, who was seeded second, dropped Bill Gudery from Elmherst, Greg Hanchin from Case WR, Carl DeBernaro from John Carroll and Brett McNamara in the finals.

Last weekend the MSC bowling team participated in the ACU-I Regional Competition in Wheaton, Illinois, and three of them came home with a national title in their back pockets. When everything was added up, the Indians found themselves in second place overall behind St. Lawrence University by only 3 points.

Top-seeded Pete Gonzalez took home the 126-pound national title by defeating Brad Brodahl from Buena Vista, 11-0. On the way, he defeated Bill Goebel from Gustavus Adolphus, Brian Darling from Oswego, Rick Flores from Marywood, and John Fagan from Trenton State.

Top-seeded in the 157-pound division, Karl Monaco, defeated the third seed, Dean Salvaggio from Elmherst, Greg Hanchin from Case WR, Carl DeBernaro from John Carroll and Brett McNamara, 13-6, to take the title. Georgoutsos, who was seeded second, dropped Bill Gudery from Elmherst, Greg Hanchin from Case WR, Carl DeBernaro from John Carroll and Brett McNamara in the finals.

Last weekend the MSC bowling team participated in the ACU-I Regional Competition in Wheaton, Illinois, and three of them came home with a national title in their back pockets. When everything was added up, the Indians found themselves in second place overall behind St. Lawrence University by only 3 points.

Top-seeded Pete Gonzalez took home the 126-pound national title by defeating Brad Brodahl from Buena Vista, 11-0. On the way, he defeated Bill Goebel from Gustavus Adolphus, Brian Darling from Oswego, Rick Flores from Marywood, and John Fagan from Trenton State.

Top-seeded in the 157-pound division, Karl Monaco, defeated the third seed, Dean Salvaggio from Elmherst, Greg Hanchin from Case WR, Carl DeBernaro from John Carroll and Brett McNamara, 13-6, to take the title. Georgoutsos, who was seeded second, dropped Bill Gudery from Elmherst, Greg Hanchin from Case WR, Carl DeBernaro from John Carroll and Brett McNamara in the finals.

Last weekend the MSC bowling team participated in the ACU-I Regional Competition in Wheaton, Illinois, and three of them came home with a national title in their back pockets. When everything was added up, the Indians found themselves in second place overall behind St. Lawrence University by only 3 points.

Top-seeded Pete Gonzalez took home the 126-pound national title by defeating Brad Brodahl from Buena Vista, 11-0. On the way, he defeated Bill Goebel from Gustavus Adolphus, Brian Darling from Oswego, Rick Flores from Marywood, and John Fagan from Trenton State.

Top-seeded in the 157-pound division, Karl Monaco, defeated the third seed, Dean Salvaggio from Elmherst, Greg Hanchin from Case WR, Carl DeBernaro from John Carroll and Brett McNamara, 13-6, to take the title. Georgoutsos, who was seeded second, dropped Bill Gudery from Elmherst, Greg Hanchin from Case WR, Carl DeBernaro from John Carroll and Brett McNamara in the finals.