Candidates debate as election nears

By Pasquale DiFulco

Managing Editor

The SGA held a debate Tuesday for candidates seeking office in the upcoming SGA Executive Board elections.

Tom Mergola, the sole candidate for SGA President, said in his opening remarks that he “wants to attack more academic issues on campus like the zero-based budget issue” rather than the current “carryover” system because it alleviates paperwork.

Kevin Albero and Matt Gallo, the two candidates for vice president, were asked what they would do if a conflict arose between the legislature and the president. Albero said that if a conflict arose, “I will support them (the legislature),” while Gallo said that while he and Mergola got on well, he would be confrontative and would not be a puppet.

Perry Del Vecchio and Mayra Rosa, candidates for treasurer, both agreed with Mergola on the zero-based budget issue. Said Rosa, “It will eliminate headaches.” Del Vecchio felt that “the key to running an effective office is a well-controlled and operated financial system.” He also stated that sports clubs “should not be a part of the SGA. They should be a part of the Athletic Department.” Rosa said she will “work for and with the students and let them know what is happening to their money.”

Rosa did not feel that decreased funds would be a problem, while Del Vecchio stated that he “does not believe we can continue current programming if funds decrease. We would have to condense programming.”

Secretary candidates Barbara Gallo and Margaret Cymbala both planned to promote and advertise the SGA. When pressed for specific ways, Gallo said she would “highlight a different service of the SGA in the Montclarion weekly, distribute service flyers in the bookstore, and create an SGA address book.”

Cymbala said as editor of Student Voice (a student newsletter), she would create “a higher visibility for the SGA. I would also conduct surveys of freshman and transfers to see what the campus wants and needs. I would also like to make SGA agendas available before meetings.”

Board of Trustees Student Alternate candidates Daniel Forte and Mary Jane Linehan were asked how they would act if the SGA fee increase is denied by the Board of Trustees at their May meeting.

Forte said that if it was voted down by the Board of Trustees, he would “go back to the SGA, reorganize and re-present the case for the increase.” Linehan said she would try again, and “perhaps decrease the increase, ask for less.”

Counseling system: sorting between the good and bad

By Margaret Cymbala

Advising is more than getting a course request sheet signed at registration time for Fall classes draws near, students start thinking about visiting their advisors. Based on reports received from students, some feel that contacting their advisor is a waste of time. Students advisors sometimes appear apathetic, uninform or do not appear for posted office hours according to students.

Marc Schaeffer, the current director of academic advising, is responsible for the advising process. Academic advising must be a combined effort between the students and the advisor. If one of these parties is unwilling to co-operate, then the system fails.

Advising is more than getting a course request sheet signed at registration time. “The signature on the course request sheet marks the culmination of the advisement process,” according to Schaeffer.

Assigned advisors can be sought out during the semester for questions about GER’s or major requirements that have to be taken.

Schaeffer urges students to closely examine the sections in both the course booklet and college catalog which list each GER area and which courses satisfy requirements to make the counseling process run smoothly.

Curriculum guide sheets are available to students at the department offices. The guide sheet lists the courses which satisfy the major requirements and GER’s.

The student has the right to another advisor if all efforts to work with the advisor assigned to him/her have been frustrated.

To be designated a new advisor students must contact the department’s faculty coordinator. If the faculty coordinator is the advisor in question, the request must be routed through the department chairperson.

If a student feels that the advice given by a counselor was totally misleading and an unnecessary credit was taken as a result, a credit adjustment will be considered as long as the student is able to provide documentation that the advisor had wrongly advised the student.

Schaeffer suggests that the student have the advisor fill out the worksheet provided in the curriculum guide sheet, specifying which requirement each course satisfies or if it is to be taken as an elective.

Schaeffer noted that students may choose a course assuming it fulfills a certain requirement while the advisor assumes it as being taken as an elective.

He also emphasized the invaluable necessity of communication between students and their advisors; students must tell the advisor what they want and expect form MSC and the advisors must do everything they can to lead the students in the right direction.

For those students who are undecided about what to major in, the academic advising center has professionally trained staff to work with students until they have decided upon a major.

Class I renewals begin

By Mike Heelan
Staff Writer

The process for Class I charter renewals and budgets for the next school year have commenced. All budgets that have been passed are tentative upon the approval of an SGA fee increase by the MSC Board of Trustees at its April 7 meeting.

A Class I charter was granted to Quarterly for the 1988-89 school year. Quarterly is responsible for printing Four Walls, an annual literary magazine of prose, poetry, art and photos submitted by students.

How to make a hit.

The American Express Card is a hit virtually anywhere you shop, from Los Angeles to London. Whether you're buying books, baseball tickets or brunch, it's the perfect way to pay for just about everything you'll want.

The restrictions are related to the sensitive nature of the work.

The Legislature passed a class IV charter to the Phi Delta Psi co-ed fraternity for the 1988-90 school years. The bill which initially failed was passed on a reconsideration vote. Although a "fraternity" has no formal definition, it is being described as a mix between a sorority and a fraternity.

The Legislature approved $1500 from the Montclair Transportation Authority (MTA) for the International Student Organization, a Class II charter to the SGA. The money will be used for a trip to Boston between April 15-17.

The Legislature also granted $1400 from the MTA to the Political Science, Paralegal, and History Clubs. The money is being used for a jointly sponsored trip to Washington D.C. for the weekend of April 15-17.

They will sit in on a session of Congress, visit the Library of Congress, and tour the nation's capital. Any students interested in either trip should contact the SGA at 893-4202 or stop by the office in the Student Center Annex.

Correction

In the March 3 issue of The Montclarion a picture of a Pepsi vending machine was displayed with an erroneous caption. The Montclarion would like to clarify that new Pepsi and Coke machines were installed on selected areas on campus and not all over campus as the caption said. The installation was done by the Faculty Student Co-op and not the Faculty Senate as stated by the caption.
I am running for President of the Student Government Association because I see the opportunity to enhance an already recognized body representing the students of Montclair State College. The SGA’s opportunities for growth are boundless and I feel that as president, I could better facilitate that growth. I believe in the motto, “Students Serving Students”, and that’s exactly what I intend to do. Simply stated, I CARE and I CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
"Our Victory does not lie in our feeling imperfections, but in not consenting to them."

Francis de Sales

When I was a student, I not only didn’t like “Spring Breaks,” I didn’t like great over ever. If I had a great vacation, I didn’t want to come back to school. I would zoned the next two weeks wishing I was somewhere else. You can guess what happened to my grades. By letting my mind wander, I cheated myself out of learning and grades. I was capable of. I have gotten better, but if it still wasn’t a problem for me, I wouldn’t be writing this now.

What is true on the physical plane is also true on the spiritual plane. In the 16th century, John of the Cross wrote:

"The soul that is attached to anything, however much good there may be in it, will not arrive at the liberty of divine union. For whether it be a strong wire rope or a slender and delicate thread that holds the bird, it matters not, if it really holds fast; for, until the cord is broken, the bird cannot fly. So the soul, held by the bonds of human affections, however slight they may be, cannot, while they last, make its way to God."

As you finish your spring semester, give your attention to your studies, but attach your soul to something higher.

Each year, before SGA elections, The Montclarion editorial staff endorses the candidates running for positions on the SGA executive board. This year, with only one position left uncontested—that of the SGA president—the editors debated on the advantages and drawbacks of each candidate.

For the student alternate of the Board of Trustees, Daniel Forte has our support. He seems to be better grounded in his vision, whereas Mary Jane Linneman was unfocused and lacked clarity.

Margaret Cymbala is tailor-made for the position of secretary. Her reliance on P.R. is the key to forging a connection between the campus and the SGA, and as editor of the Student Voice, Cymbala has more than enough experience for doing the job. In addition, we found Cymbala’s attitude more refreshing and down-to-earth than her rival’s, Barbara Gallo.

For treasurer, the vote was close between Perry Del Vecchio and complete abstention. The Montclarion does not support zero-based budgeting for SGA organizations, but, unfortunately, Del Vecchio does. His rival, Mayra Rosa, also does, but in addition to this we found her lack of accounting experience and unrealistic view toward budget cuts a bit disheartening. Del Vecchio won our endorsement by a slim margin because of his dedication and pragmatism.

If you ever wanted polar extremes in two candidates, the hopefuls for vice-president epitomize it. Kevin Albero does not seem dedicated or organized enough to perform his duties, and his interest in the addendum to the zero-based budgeting for SGA organizations does not appeal to all at The Montclarion staff. On the other hand, Matt Gubala can come across very strong—abrasively so—at times. Gubala has more experience (president pro-tempore this year), but his style seems appealing to the staff. Cast our vote as “none of the above.”

This takes us to the one uncontested position on the ballot: president. We know Tommy Mergola as a fellow organization—leader—the man who pulled Quarterly back to its feet and fought for funding. He is straightforward and complete abstension. For treasurer, the vote was close between Perry Del Vecchio and Mary Jane Linneman was unfocused and lacked clarity.

Her reliance on P.R. is the key to forging a connection between the campus and the SGA, and as editor of the Student Voice, Cymbala has more than enough experience for doing the job. In addition, we found Cymbala’s attitude more refreshing and down-to-earth than her rival’s, Barbara Gallo.

For treasurer, the vote was close between Perry Del Vecchio and complete abstention. The Montclarion does not support zero-based budgeting for SGA organizations, but, unfortunately, Del Vecchio does. His rival, Mayra Rosa, also does, but in addition to this we found her lack of accounting experience and unrealistic view toward budget cuts a bit disheartening. Del Vecchio won our endorsement by a slim margin because of his dedication and pragmatism.

If you ever wanted polar extremes in two candidates, the hopefuls for vice-president epitomize it. Kevin Albero does not seem dedicated or organized enough to perform his duties, and his interest in the addendum to the zero-based budgeting for SGA organizations does not appeal to all at The Montclarion staff. On the other hand, Matt Gubala can come across very strong—abrasively so—at times. Gubala has more experience (president pro-tempore this year), but his style seems appealing to the staff. Cast our vote as “none of the above.”

This takes us to the one uncontested position on the ballot: president. We know Tommy Mergola as a fellow organization—leader—the man who pulled Quarterly back to its feet and fought for funding. He is straightforward and complete abstension. For treasurer, the vote was close between Perry Del Vecchio and Mary Jane Linneman was unfocused and lacked clarity.

Margaret Cymbala is tailor-made for the position of secretary. Her reliance on P.R. is the key to forging a connection between the campus and the SGA, and as editor of the Student Voice, Cymbala has more than enough experience for doing the job. In addition, we found Cymbala’s attitude more refreshing and down-to-earth than her rival’s, Barbara Gallo.

"With the baseball season on the way, which team do you think is going to win this year's pennant?"

Compiled and photographed by Wally Acuna

"New York Mets. They have the best talent in baseball. And if there is a Subway Series, I think that they could kick those Yankees apart."

Joseph Wisniewski communications/senior

"I'm confident that the Cincinnati Reds will win the pennant. They have a strong pitching staff and also the return of their superstar Eric Davis."

Steve Ruggiero political science/junior

"Definitely the Mets. With a strong pitching staff and an all-star-like line up, we think that they should have another banner year."

Kathy Koshko Lauren Healey

"The Mets look tough, but Mike Schmidt had a great spring training and I think that he can lead the Philadelphia Phillies all the way."

Frank Gargiule business/freshman

"The Mets. With cute and quality players like Hernandez, Carter, Darling, there's no doubt that they should win the pennant again."

Diana Levy fashion studies/junior

In the March 3 edition of The Montclarion, it was erroneously stated in Mr. Mark Schaeffer's letter to the editor, "Students admitted as freshmen for fall 1985 or thereafter...". The statement should have read, "Students admitted as freshmen for fall 1983 or thereafter and transfer students admitted for fall 1985 or thereafter...". The Montclarion regrets any confusion this error may have caused.

Academy awaits Oscars ceremony

By Tony Bavaro
Correspondent

The following is the second part of a two part series looking ahead to the Oscars.

In the Best Director's category, this is the first award ceremony in Academy history where no American director was recognized. The Italian director Bernardo Bertolucci could have been nominated for The Last Emperor, including the award for best cinematography, which will probably go to Vittorio Storaro. The film will probably receive the awards for costume design and art direction also.

Empire of the Sun, which appeared on was aired. This year, conducted an aggressive campaign in the Hollywood trade papers to gain himself a nomination. According to reports, Mannix has been nominated for Moontruck and The Untouchables, respectively.

The actress who has the best chance of winning the award in the supporting role category is Olympia Dukakis, for her role as Chris's wisecracking mother in Moontruck. Already the recipient of the Golden Globe and L.A. Film Critic's awards, Dukakis is thought to be the leading contender in her category.

Still, there is the chance that the Academy will toss the award to Ann Sothern, 76, for her first nominated role in The Whales of August. The big surprise in the supporting category this year was the nomination of Anne Ramsey for her role as the impossible mother in the insane actor who has been nominated in the past, or perhaps even to Sean Connery, a veteran film performer who has never been nominated before and who, this year, conducted an aggressive campaign in the Hollywood trade papers to gain himself a nomination. According to reports, Mannix has been nominated for Moonstruck and The Untouchables, respectively.

So far, the awards are the first to be broadcast in a serio-comic manner which may be the only way to truly enjoy it. Not taking the ultimate decisions of the Academy too seriously is also a good rule of thumb. This is, we must remember, the same group of voters who gave best picture awards to The Greatest Show on Earth and The Wizard of Oz. These are the same people who would have you believe that, in 1960, John Wayne's flea bitten, dill epic The Alamo was more worthy of a picture nomination than Psycho, Exodus, or Inherit the Wind.

Christ a Superstar

In musical setting

By Tom Boud
Staff Writer

Many Christians refer to the Bible when they want to learn about the noble acts of Jesus Christ. But many are not aware that there exists a theatrical version of this man's influential life at Milburn's Papermill Playhouse entitled Jesus Christ Superstar.

Directed by Robert Johanson and Charles Blansdell, this compelling musical traces the events concerning the Son of God as well as upon an entire multitude of themes ranging from spiritual love to intense pain and suffering. Robert Johanson additionally stars as Jesus Christ and brilliantly gives the audience more than they bargained for. Without any doubt, he is a powerful performer and an attention-getting communicator.

What really makes Johanson's theatrical interpretation of Christ splendid is that he can totally personify him. He was able to meet every situation whether it might be preventing a sinner from being stoned or having to appear before a tribunal to answer for simply professing his beliefs.

The rest of the cast, consisting of Jesus' mother Mary, the twelve apostles, Pontius Pilate, King Herod, and a host of other characters, dance up a storm. They vibrate the stage and in turn, the playgoer.

From a musical point of view, you couldn't tell the difference between fast-paced rock and gentle classical music. He even threw in a little rattlegume.

During those moments when the musical stopped, lively dialogue took over and many characters of human existence were explored. Such notions as faith, generosity, betrayal, arrogance, and religious persecution did much to set the old noodle thinking. It was enough to stir one's emotions and one's intellect.

Besides good music and profound themes, there was the eye-teasing visual display of light thanks to the creativity of Lighting Designer Jeff Davis. This is not to mention the different sets used as the play took everyone by storm.

Jesus Christ Superstar is an absolute must to see. It is an extraordinary visual display of light, sound, and props. The entire cast worked as one to produce a spectacle worthy of Applause.

Biloxi on screen a hit for Simon

By Jennifer G. Steltevich

Arts/entertainment Editor

Neil Simon, creator of The Odd Couple, Chapter 2 and a slew of light-hearted comedies produces yet another hit. Biloxi Blues the second part of his autobiographical trilogy with Brighton Beach Memoirs and Broadway Bound accounts Simon’s history. In this film he traces his battles with basic training for World War II in Biloxi, Mississippi.

The New York sentimental kid, Eugene Morris Jerome (Matthew Broderick) is Simon’s alter ego. Out of his neighborhood and away from his mother for the first time leads him to hilarious conflicts with his platoon buddies.

A strong cast lines up for inspection in this film and passes with flying colors. From a boisterous country boy to an intellectual wimp, the characters are well developed and fully complement each other.

Each man-to-be experiences the demands of their drill instructor Sergeant Toomey (Christopher Walken). From the steel plate in his head to his army-regulation emotions Toomey shapes the men with hundreds of push-ups and mind games.

As Eugene, Broderick whines effectively and performs his part with the grace he revealed as the stage character. His metered comedy is well delivered and not forced. Broderick brings to life the magic of Simon’s script and is outstanding.

Director Mike Nichols has taken Simon’s play and flawlessly transformed it in the movie theatre. Opening and closing the film as the recruits’ train passes through fog and new lands is a wonderful passage of time and location. Abstractions such as this and hikes through swamps genuinely develop the marvelous script and actors.

The basic training segments do not rely on slapstick comedy like Stripes. It is a humorous account of Simon’s experiences in the army. From the mess hall to push-ups and to Eugene’s first love, Biloxi Blues supplies the viewer with a realistic picture of a young man struggling emotionally, mentally and physically.

With its sentimentality and rousing one-liners, Biloxi Blues is definitely a hit. Simon’s dialogue, fine performances and good directing win the movie three and three quarter stars.

In the 1960's an actor/director went looking for America—and created a new kind of film. The man was Dennis Hopper. Easy Rider was the film that defined an era.

As an actor and director, he has always gone to the edge, taking us places we'd never seen before. Easy Rider, Blue Velvet, Rivers Edge. Now, in 1988, we find director Dennis Hopper in the streets of Los Angeles in a war zone where gang members and innocent people alike are killed over territorial emblems of red and blue. Over COLORS. And again, he takes us places we've never been before with the first realistic motion picture about the war against street gangs. To do it he has brought together an extraordinary cast and crew. All of them sharing a fierce devotion to the director's vision. And leading the cast, two motion picture actors of unparalleled intensity, Sean Penn and Robert Duvall.

When my friends and I graduated from high school, we all took part-time jobs to pay for college. They ended up in car washes and hamburger joints, putting in long hours for a little pay.

But I joined the Army National Guard. And I'm earning $18,000 by working just 2 days a month and 2 weeks a year. When I finished my advanced technical training, and I'm getting $5,000 in educational benefits, thanks to the New GI Bill. And over 6 years, I'll earn a minimum salary of $11,000. It all adds up to $18,000 that I can put toward college.

And that's a heck of a better deal than any car wash will give you.

Baseball team endures some ups, some downs

Monmouth 15-MSC 9

Monmouth erupted for seven runs in the fifth inning enroute to a 15-9 win over MSC yesterday at Pittser Field.

The Indians found themselves in a hole early in the game as Monmouth's Dino D'Ambrisco walked and scored on an RBI single by Mike Haber.

MSC tied it in the second on a walk to junior John Deutsch, a single by centerfielder Leroy Horn and a sacrifice fly by catcher Mike Dixon.

A big third inning by Monmouth spelled the end for Indian starter Fran Gallagher, as five runs crossed the plate.

The Indians responded in their half of the third with four runs of their own. Singles by Rich Preziotti and Tim North and run-scoring singles by junior John McClain, Deutsch and freshman Troy Bowers cut the MSC deficit to 6-5.

The eight-run fifth, however, capped off by back-to-back RBI doubles by Monmouth's Charlie Forsyth and Joe Errico, gave the Gulls a 14-5 advantage.

MSC vainly attempted to come back with a pair of runs in both the fifth and sixth, with Preziotti and Deutsch driving in all four runs. But the Indians were unable to overcome the huge Monmouth lead.

The Indians fell to 9-7 with the loss, while Monmouth improved to 6-8.

St. Joseph's 6-MSC 2

St. Joseph's took a 5-0 lead and held on for a 6-2 win Tuesday at Pittser Field.

Consecutive singles in the second gave St. Joseph's a 2-0 lead, and back-to-back doubles in the sixth inning made it 5-0.

MSC climbed back into it with two in the seventh, courtesy of RBI singles by Tim North and Steve Pizza. But the Indians were held scoreless the rest of the way.

Wayne Masters took the loss for MSC.

MSC 11-E. Stroudsburg 2

Freshmen Troy Bowers and Michael Brandon each had RBI singles in a five-run Indian fifth inning as MSC topped Mercy, 9-5, at Pittser Field Friday.

Mike Dixon had two RBIs for MSC, who moved to 8-5 with the win.

Junior righthander Jeff Vanderroef picked up his first victory of the year in four starts.

MSC 17-Stony Brook 2

MSC rapped 16 hits, including three each by Troy Bowers and Mike Brandon, in a 17-2 win at Pittser Field last week.

Catcher Mike Dixon tripled in three runs in the third inning to provide freshman Joe Porcelli (2-0) with a big cushion.
