Board of Trustees:

Approval of presidential search procedures

By Jane Bech Nielsen
Assignment Editor

The MSC Board of Trustees approved presidential search procedures at their Oct. 13 meeting.

According to Murray L. Cole, chairman of the board, a presidential search committee will be appointed at next board meeting to take place on Nov. 3. The committee will be responsible for screening all applicants, as well as making recommendations to the board.

The committee will consist of representatives from the many campus constituencies, Murray said. Representatives will be present from the faculty, the graduate and undergraduate studies, the administration, MSC alumni, SGA, and from the college's deans, he added.

Murray said that since their last meeting, the board had received several letters suggesting modifications of the position description for the president's position. The new position description is expected to be submitted to the board's executive committee approval by Oct. 31, Murray said.

David O'Brien has been appointed secretary of the search committee. All correspondence regarding the search procedures must be directed to him, Murray added.

William Griffith, vice president of administration and finance, presented the 1989 fiscal year budget.

Dr. Harbans Singh, chairman of the environmental, urban and geographic studies department, briefly highlighted the features of the program. Among other things, Singh stressed the importance of encouraging cross-specialization within the major. The department works in close relationship with the psychology, economics, history, and political science department, Singh said.

The department also puts strong emphasis on good writing skills, and students are encouraged to receive practical training and participate in community services, Singh added.

Other actions at the meeting included the swearing in of the newly appointed trustee, Mr. Joseph Harris. Harris is currently the university assistant dean at the City University of New York, serving the office of student affairs and special programs.

Cole extended an invitation to the entire campus community to attend a reception to honor Dr. and Mrs. Walters. The reception will be held Wednesday, Oct. 26, from 3-5 p.m. at the Student Center Ballrooms.

Careers in retail explored

By Carl Chase
Correspondent

MSC's retailing program gave 200 high school and junior college students rare access to the knowledge of merchandising professionals from the tri-state area, at the Student Center on Tuesday, Oct. 18.

"Careers in Retailing," the third annual retail symposium, featured executives from major stores, including MSC alumni, Susan Baldassare (class of 1987) and Ann Kaufman (1977) who graduated from the program. Baldassare is the retail coordinator at Bridgewater Commons; Kaufman is vice president of Macy's.

The largest retail training program in the state, retail merchandising management attracted students from as far as Ridgefield Memorial High School. "We would like you all to think about a career in retailing," Dr. Joseph Hecht, who heads the program, said.

Dr. John McGinnis, another MSC professor, introduced a dozen executives including Bill Crisp of Kinney Corp. Headquarters, New York, who gave the keynote speech.

"Like professional athletes, retailers can have tremendous fun and satisfaction at their jobs, contrary to popular opinion," he said, adding that this unfavorable opinion of retailing can work to your advantage, if you have the necessary qualities. He identified these as knowledge, edge, skill, and a proper attitude.

Chris Krasen, president of Epsilon Delta Epsilon, the retailing honors society and treasurer of Delta Epsilon Chi, the retailing club, addressed the audience. "In today's competitive work force," she said, "everyone needs an edge in order to be successful." She said the program and the club gives every opportunity to gain that edge.

"My experience at MSC has played a major role in my successful career. Developing your people skills is one of the most important aspects," Baldassare said.

"Moving around, talking to people, being active are the things I like to do," Kaufman said, adding she has been able to do these things, and for pay. Joseph Conforti, a Kinney Corp. manager, said that Kinney managers earn up to $33,000 in their first year, and added that one Kinney executive earns $1.8 million a year. "That's more than any engineer earns, to my knowledge," he said.

"I am grateful to him," he said, reversed this trend, and we are pleased to have him, Murray added.

Mr. William Crisp of Kinney Corp. talks about the benefits of a retailing degree at Tuesday's retailing symposium.
American immigrants survived by forming social relationships

By Lilyanne McClean Staff writer

According to Charles Tilly, director of the Center for Studies of Social Change, New School for Social Research, New York, immigrants who came to the United States throughout history formed social relationships to ensure survival. These social relationships include networks, categories, and ties where they had strong connections. The receiving networks often provided jobs, housing and transportation for members coming from the sending networks. "The higher the risk and the more expensive the cost of return, the more reliance was placed on these ties," he added.

"People relied on networks before, during and after migration," Tilly said. "Potential migrants concentrated on localities where they had strong connections."

Tilly suggested that these social relationships may have one drawback. "Every inclusion, however, promotes exclusion," he said. "If a group is providing jobs from their own, they are keeping jobs from others." But the cost of migration as we think of communal structures.

Migration is not a homogeneous experience," Tilly said. "People created categories as they moved," Tilly said. "For example, Neapolitans coming from Italy became 'Italians' when they arrived in the United States."

"The third social relationship is formed when networks become large enough to form categories," Tilly said. "Migration is not a homogenous experience," Tilly said. "It is a familiar story to all of us. We ought to think of migration as we think of community structures." The event's main points were two panel discussions, the first relating to "Choosing a Law School," and the second, "Attending a law school."

When asked what knowledge or information you would like to get about choosing a law school, Barbara Smith replied, "I hope to learn what I can do now to prepare myself for the rigorous Law School application process and start to narrow down my choices of what law school I want to attend."

As for attending law school, Andrea Gomez responded, "I'm here to talk to the law school representatives to see if all the horror stories of law school are as true as everyone says they are."

Law school admission day

By John Navarro Managing editor

Prospective law school students were given the opportunity to meet with law school representatives from various law schools, yesterday at the sixth annual Law School Admissions Day, which is the only one of its kind in New Jersey.

In attendance were some of the leading law schools in the United States, attorneys from the Young Lawyers Division of the New Jersey State Bar Association, and approximately 400 interested students.

The most important points were two panel discussions, the first relating to "Choosing a Law School," and the second, "Attending a law school."

To improve your resume writing and interviewing skills, you can attend seminars offered by Career Services on a regular basis. To be able to sign up for any of these interviews you must fill out Career Services registration forms and provide 10 copies of your resume. To improve your resume writing and interviewing skills, you may attend seminars offered by Career Services on a regular basis.

Part Time Opportunities

Salby 5th Avenue Shoe Salon

With five convenient locations throughout New Jersey, we can offer you opportunities with flexible hours to suit your schedule. We currently seek:

- SALESPERSON—(Earn $8-$12 per hour)
- CASHIER—(up to $5 per hour)
- CLERICALS—(up to $5 per hour)
- STOCK—(up to $5 per hour)

If interested please contact the Store Manager at the store convenient to you by calling:

Para (201) 645-7757

Berrien (201) 368-1318

Livingston (201) 994-0841

Woodbridge (201) 656-7222

Don't miss CO-OP DAY TUESDAY, OCTOBER 25 Student Center Ballrooms 10:00 a.m.-11:00 a.m. or 11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.
NJSA supports bond issue

By Maggie Mooney
Correspondent

The New Jersey Student Association (NJSA) met at MSC on Oct. 13. The organization is comprised of various Student Government Associations (SGA) on campus, who have banded together to form a stronger voice to resolve the proposed $350 million bond issue.

The bond issue will provide $350 million to update and increase campus facilities and technologies statewide. In order for the institutions to receive their allotments from the bond issue, they must provide at least $130 million in matching funds. The state will provide $130 million from the State if it receives $130 million in matching funds. The state is liable to receive $13 million of its own, according to MSC is liable to receive $13 million from the bond issue they must provide at least $130 million in matching funds.

Future concerns of the NJSA include: alcoholism and drug abuse on campus, community services, improvements in student life, academic standards, the rising cost of higher education and availability of state funding, and aids awareness.

Ferry Del Vecchio
Correspondent

At last Thursday's Board of Trustee's meeting it was announced that a search committee will be formed to fill the vacancy left by Dr. Donald Walters. As of Oct. 31 Walters' resignation takes effect.

There will be 16 members on the search committee, of which two will be undergraduate students, one will be a graduate student, and the rest will be filled by faculty and the administration. Any student interested must submit their name and phone number to the SGA office as soon as possible.

Due to last week's incident in the Rat, no alcohol will be served this week. A MSC campus visitor assaulted a police officer who was hospitalized for a few days. A proposal which would ban all MSC guests in the Rat for the rest of the semester is being considered.

The New Jersey Student Association (NJSA) which is made up of various college student governments throughout the state has taken a position on the bond proposal being voted on Nov. 8.

The NJSA will be holding a press conference within the next couple of weeks to announce to the public and Governer Kean their position. They favor the bond issue, but do not want the students to be carrying most of the burden, via increased tuition.

Also mentioned was a fundraising drive for the 'Make a Wish Foundation' in November. The SGA is looking into giving a terminally ill child of New Jersey a last wish.

Anyone interested in helping contact the SGA office.

Class One Concerts was appropriated $1,040 to purchase six laser lights for use in their concerts. The lights would hopefully be used in their upcoming, "Physical Graffiti" show. The yearbook was also awarded $2,778 to be allowed to produce 2,200 copies of the 1987-88 issue which should be out in December.

Julie Miller was appointed the legislative representative to Class One Review and Evaluation (CORE). She will serve as the liaison between the Class One and the legislature to better facilitate communication and their respective needs.

Sigma Phi Rho Fraternity Inc.
Zeta Chapter is sponsoring a Greek Lip Sync on Sunday November 6, 1988

We are asking Greek Organizations to participate by submitting an act from their membership

the Application deadline has been extended to Monday Oct. 24, 1988

for further information contact John Roach at ext. 5326

PUT THE MAGIC OF THE DISNEY EXPERIENCE TO WORK FOR YOU!!

Disney is looking for enthusiastic, hard working, college students to fill the following positions:

- Food Service Staff
- Retail Sales Staff
- Phoning Staff
- Administrative Staff

Disney is looking for college students interested in an exciting and rewarding career in one of America's top theme parks!

- Competitive starting pay
- 20% discount on all Disney merchandise
- Free parking
- Weekly pay

If you are interested in working at Walt Disney World, please contact your college's career center for more information.

Industrial studies hold open house

The Industrial Studies Department at Montclair State College is holding its annual Open House on Thursday, Nov. 10, 1988. The open house will run from 10:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. and be filled with lots of fun and exciting seminars. The theme for this year's open house is "Discover Your Future at MSC's Industrial Studies Department."

We encourage all those interested in the program to look for further details on posters which will be around campus or in the paper. Be sure to come early and get posted the open house committee feels this year will be extremely interesting with the addition and help of the department's two new faculty members. Visit our new faculty members and get re-acquainted with other faculty members in the department.

Ones and the legislature to better facilitate communication and their respective needs.
R+R Security

"Car Alarm Specialists"

- Car Alarms
- Car Stereo systems
- Radar Detectors
- Cellular Phones

Unyo-Box, Auto Page, Harrison, Tech-Guard, Alpine, Blaupunkt, Sherwood, Kenwood, Clarion, Pyle, Whistler, Bell, ...

Michael R. 256-0507
Eric R. 256-9031

Campus Police Report

Rat won’t serve after officer is injured

By Rob Tomeo
Staff Writer

On Oct. 11, a student was arrested for presenting an altered driver’s license and misrepresenting his age in order to get into the Rat on Oct. 6. By using false ID, he will receive a $100 fine, will enter an alcohol education program, and will most likely lose his driving privilege for 6 months.

While investigating a fight and a student who presented false ID at the Rat, a security officer was approached by an intoxicated male who hit the officer in the face. The officer was brought to the hospital for treatment. The assailant, who is not an MSC student, was arrested and charged with aggravated assault and resisting arrest.

Due to the incident, which occurred at 1:15 a.m. on Oct. 14, the Rat will be not be serving alcohol on Thursday, Oct. 20.

On Oct. 15 at 3:30 a.m., a male entered Blanton Hall, posing as a pizza deliverer. The person at the desk told him he would have to sign in if he wanted to visit someone. The male proceeded to walk behind the desk, climb over the stairwell wall, and walk up the stairway. He was found by security officers on the third floor and was arrested. He will appear in Little Falls Municipal Court on Nov. 2.

On Oct. 16 at 8:30 p.m. at the football game, there was a fight on the visitor’s side of the stadium. One of the people involved was the dean of student affairs at William Paterson College (WPC). He had seen a fight about to take place between two hostile groups and interceded.

The dean was recognized by students from WPC and the groups were about to disperse when a WPC student jumped the dean from the side and began hitting him. The student, who was arrested, later said he did not recognize the man as being the dean. The student and the dean have signed complaints against each other.

At the Clove Rd. bridge, on Oct. 16 at 1:10 a.m., two males were observed holding up beer cans while soliciting passing cars. An officer in a patrol car saw them doing this and recognized one of the students as someone who had been arrested for drinking under age on Oct. 8. The student fled, but was found and later arrested for illegal consumption of alcohol and resisting arrest.

At 3:10 a.m. on Oct. 16, there was a report of a large fight in progress at the Clove Rd. apartments. All parties were separated when the officers arrived. The fight started as an altercation between three white and three black males.

Reportedly one black male grabbed at one of the white male’s throats and that triggered a chain reaction that erupted in a big fight. The three white males wound up seriously hurt and were taken to the hospital for treatment. Approximately 150 people watched the fight as it took place.

On Oct. 15 at 3:10 a.m. in lot 29, an officer, while investigating another case, was approached by a victim of an aggravated assault. The victim claimed that he and his friend had gotten into a confrontation at a Clove Rd. party.

He and his friend were asked to leave, and as they did so they were followed out by a group of people at the party. One of the males in the group broke a beer bottle and cut the victim’s face and continued to threaten him. The police are searching for the suspect who is a student of a Massachusetts college.

TOP MODEL AND TALENT MANAGEMENT COMPANY

SEEKS THE

Secretary/Recep.

Good organizer with personable manner. Enthusiastic with good secretarial skills who enjoys a busy and exciting work environment! Great hours-
M-Thurs. 1 p.m.-9 p.m. (flexible during exams)
Saturdays 10 a.m.-3 p.m.
Salary- plus bonuses and benefits

HAVE YOU GOT THE LOOK?

Interviewing all types for TV, commercials, catalogues, trade shows, showroom, music videos, and talent showcases.

NOW CASTING

376 Hollywood Blvd., Fairfield, NJ 07006
(201) 888-1234

FOLLOWING:

Telemarketing/Sales

Self-motivated, enthusiastic people with good phone voice to book models, actors and entertainers for job openings. EXCITING, DYNAMIC work environment. Full training and rapid advancement-management mobility. We need people who want to make $25K 1st year. Commissions plus bonuses!
Critical Thinking conference is planned to run from Oct. 20 to Oct. 22

By Chip Bogdanski
Correspondent

MSC's Institute for Critical Thinking will host a conference titled "Critical Thinking: Languages and Inquiry in the Disciplines," which will feature lectures in various areas of critical thinking and the languages of academic disciplines. The three day conference will present experts from all over the country who will be addressing topics such as: the languages of argumentation, languages of the media and of criticism in art and literature, inquiry, law, standardized testing, literacy, nonverbal contexts, critical reading and writing, language diversity and culture, critical pedagogy, collegiate pedagogy, and several others.

More than 50 papers, workshops and round table discussions will take place during the conference, and will include speakers from schools such as California State University at Sacramento, West Georgia College, University of New Orleans, NYU, University of Texas at Arlington, Hofstra University, and the University of San Diego.

Dr. George Petry of the English department is scheduled to give a lecture, titled "Critical Incipits: Invoking the Gods of Language."

The conference is scheduled to commence at 1:00 p.m. on Thur., Oct. 20, and will continue until Sat., Oct. 22, at 2:30 p.m.
Contact Dr. Mark Weinstein or Dr. Tina Jacobowitz for further information at 893-5184.

MSC is slated for assessment

By Anthony DiPasquale
Correspondent

Institutional Assessment, a program designed to review the success of a department's curriculum by the anonymous and random sample testing of students, has been approved for MSC, and a committee has been formed and is presently working with departments who have volunteered for the project.

The committee consists of administrators, faculty, and students.

"The program doesn't focus on the individual course, but on the entire department in order to better understand and improve major and general education requirements." said Dr. Joseph S. Attanacio, chairperson of the Institutional Assessment Council (IAC).

Dr. Robert McCormick, director of the Office of Institutional Assessment, explains, "It is a program which will enable departments to enhance their curriculum through a process of exploration, while keeping current in new areas of expertise. The tests will be used purely for assessment and will not be placed on student records."

The IAC meets regularly to implement plans for campus-wide assessment. McCormick believes "the positive impact of Institutional Assessment can only be realized with the cooperation of faculty and students. It is this working together which will facilitate this task."

Institutional Assessment has often been confused with Gate Tests, exams students are required to pass before they receive their diplomas. The purpose of assessment is to improve programs. In colleges throughout the country, the results have proven positive with support from both faculty and students, said McCormick.

Receivers on Co-op day

1.B.M., Xerox, Sandoz, Shulton, Nabisco and other companies will be part of Co-op Day on Tuesday, Oct. 25 from 10 a.m. until 12 noon in the Student Center Ballrooms.
Co-op Day is a chance to hear presentations by participating employers and an opportunity to meet Co-op faculty and alumni to learn first-hand what the Co-op work experience is all about.

The day begins with a 10 a.m. session followed by another at 11 a.m. Employers will discuss Co-op opportunities at their companies and will answer questions related to their work experience.

Co-op alumni will also be available for you to talk to. They can share their personal success stories with you, such as what they learned, and how they developed personally and professionally as a result of participation in the program.

All students are welcome. Freshmen and sophomores are especially encouraged to attend in order to help them plan for a Co-op once they have completed 45 credits.

For further information contact the Co-op office at 893-4426.

Have you ever been in love?

PLAYERS IS A CLASS ONE ORGANIZATION OF THE SGA
Concern over declining student enrollment

By Valerie Kalfrin
Staff Writer

By 1990, MSC's full time enrollment may drop—on a request by the college administration.

These and other issues were discussed at the latest American Federation of Teachers, AFT—CIO, Local 1904 meeting at MSC on Oct. 12.

Catherine Becker, president of AFT Local 1904, calls the projected enrollment a "policy of decline", decided on by the college administration without consulting the faculty.

In her written report of Oct. 6, Becker quoted a table from the Department of Higher Education Budget Document FY 1990. According to the table, both MSC and Kean College requested and were recommended to admit fewer students in 1990 than their 1989 budgets will allow. (In MSC's case, 281 fewer undergraduates and 25 fewer graduate students).

Other state colleges have projected slight increases in enrollment or no change from what the budget will allow.

Becker believes that MSC is becoming more academically selective, transforming into the "Trenton State" of North Jersey, with less academically able students going to William Paterson.

On the projected decline in enrollment, Becker said: "I think it's a mistake. We're sitting demographically in an area with poor and minority students. We'd be denying opportunities at a place that's a quality institution."

Becker added that the faculty had no say in the quality of the college. "This is not the way a traditional college government should operate," she said.

"MSC has the best faculty in the state college chain. It's up to the college to market itself," Becker added. "The administration and its marketing efforts have not done a sufficient job in talking about our strengths—our faculty."

While Edward E. Martin, dean of students, admits he has not seen Becker's report, he maintained that the projected enrollment decline is in anticipation of the fewer number of students graduating from high schools over the past few years.

MSC is the largest of the state colleges now. "The reduction in size is really not based on excluding people but admitting the same percentage of graduates," he explained. "Montclair has no desire to do any harm to any group of students. We are trying to continue student diversity."

"Montclair State is already a fairly academically selective institution. We have approximately 6000 applicants for 1000 spaces, a good number of Garden State scholars, and a respected honors program. There's no reason for us to move higher with the high quality students we now have," Martin said.

In addition to the future enrollment, the search for a new president of the college and the commission on promotions were discussed at the meeting.

Dr. Richard Lynde is currently the acting president of MSC. According to Becker, the position has not been advertised yet, but the selection process should take about six months once the search committee is assembled.

Although the Board of Trustees controls the search committee, there are certain guidelines to make sure each sector of the college is equally represented.

The committee should be composed of five full-time faculty members (one from each school), one NTP librarian, one alumna, two students, one dean, one staff person, one vice president, and one board member, with a faculty person as the chairperson.

Becker believes that the president is the "academic-business-political-social leader" of the college. In another report of Oct. 6, she stated the union's qualifications for the position of president. The union feels that the next president "must come from the academic ranks" and have "significant experience as a faculty member in higher education."

They require that the next president have the support of the faculty and be a "person of vision" to "inspire the faculty to new levels of academic excellence within the context of new challenges."

Another concern presented by Becker concerned tenure laws. They will be opened up for Legislative review, raising "the possibility of the elimination of tenure."

The commission plans to lengthen the probationary period for tenure from five to seven years "with automatic promotion to associate professor upon tenure"; an idea Becker feels would make promoted professors "consigned forever to an associate rank," because of the planned outside review for those seeking full professorship.

Becker confirmed that the faculty had passed a motion supporting the bond issue with two reservations. The first dealt with the funding coming from student tuitions; the union felt it was the state's responsibility to handle the funding and that it was unfair to tax future students.

The second requested that the faculty be consulted as to how these funds are spent in regard to the kinds, types, and functions of the buildings that are to be constructed.

HALLOWEEN CARNATION SALE

MAKE SOMEONE'S DAY!
GREAT GIFT FOR
Friends, Family, Lovers, Roommates

DATE: MONDAY, OCTOBER 31
PLACE: STUDENT CENTER LOBBY
TIME: 9 A.M.-4 P.M.
Sponsored by the Computer Science Club, a Class Two of SGA

TYPING
LOWEST PRICES
FASTEST SERVICE
OPEN 7 DAYS

RESUMES* REPORTS* THESIS
ENGINEERING* MEDICAL* LEGAL

"WE TEACH LOTUS"
CAF WORD PROCESSING SERVICE
368-3934

A103

Art and reason

When Mark and I decided to spend the weekend at his mother's house, I never imagined I would be walking into a mouse's nightmare. There were cats everywhere.

Cat plaques, cat statues, cat clocks, even a cat mat. I couldn't begin to duplicate her collection of kitty litter if I spent a year at a garage sale. Conspicuously absent, however, was a real cat. Strange, I thought, and began to fear that a weekend with cat woman could be a lot less than purr-perfct.

But then she came home, and Mark introduced her. She was dressed surprisingly well—no unfeline china I'd ever seen. As we talked, I thought, and began to fear that a weekend at his mother's house, incredibly, never saw "Cats." So Mark and I are taking her next month.

General Foods' International Coffees. Share the feeling.
Bond issue gains support

By Lynn M. Cowan
Editor-in-Chief

MSC has increased its support for the Jobs, Education and Competitiveness Bond Act, according to a special update from the Office of Public Information.

On Sept. 7, the Faculty Senate endorsed the bond issue and urged the support of the college community to work towards its passage.

Members of the college administration have continued a speaking tour on behalf of the bond issue, according to the update.

The SGA held a voter registration drive at the Student Center and in the residence halls, according to Maggie Cymbala, SGA director of public relations. The SGA legislature has been mobilized to inform the student body of the bond issue and its effect on the college community.

The SGA has also obtained 3,000 bond issue bumper stickers for distribution to students, Cymbala said.

The same bumper stickers have been distributed in the mail to campus employees, and brochures about the bond issue were enclosed in employees' paychecks, according to the special update.

If the bond issue is approved by voters on Nov. 8, the state will be authorized to sell $350 million in bonds to pay for rehabilitation and repairs to existing higher education facilities, construction of new education buildings and libraries, and the establishment of several high-tech centers throughout New Jersey, according to the update.

The institutions that receive funds from the bond issue must generate matching funds in order to qualify for the revenue.

At MSC, $15.7 million of the anticipated revenues will be used for the construction of a new 130,000-sq. ft. library building, which will free space for classroom expansion, according to the update.

The college also plans to construct a $1.3 million addition to the McEachern Music Building.

Other plans include a $1 million building to house the campus police and security staff and the central stores and receiving functions. A new campus access road into the north parking lot is also planned which will cost $1.5 million.

College Life Union Board would like to congratulate the winners of Homecoming '88...

Homecoming King 1988 William Vogt
Homecoming Queen 1988 Alexis Oliphant
First Runner-up for King Randy Davenport
First Runner-up for Queen Julie Collins

Best Float Overall Homecoming 1988
Phi Chi Omega

Second Best Overall Float AND Most Enthusiastic
Tau Kappa Epsilon and Alpha Iota Chi

Third Best Overall Float
College Life Union Board

C.L.U.B. Would also like to pay special thanks to...
- Tau Kappa Epsilon for all of your help
- Joe Santorine for everything and more
- Camille Bartlett for all of the hours and headaches
- Russell Blackwell and Mike Sherrey for being the “Big Bouncers”
- and to everyone we overlooked...we couldn’t have done it without you!!!

Love, Kimmer and Jennifer

C.L.U.B. is a Class One of SGA
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Sunday</th>
<th>Monday</th>
<th>Tuesday</th>
<th>Wednesday</th>
<th>Thursday</th>
<th>Friday</th>
<th>Saturday</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Admissions Office Open House Memorial Auditorium 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Senate meeting Student Center room 416 7:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. LASSO alumni dinner Student Center Dining room 5:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.</td>
<td>Club movie Student Center Ballrooms A &amp; B 8:00 p.m. J.V. football game—home 7:30 p.m. LASSO’s Latin mass Student Center Ballrooms 7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Class One Concerts presents Physical Graffiti Memorial Auditorium 8:30 p.m.</td>
<td>LASO’s flag raising ceremony Student Center flagpole 11:15 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. LASSO’s open banquet Student Center ballrooms noon Men’s soccer game—home 8:00 p.m.</td>
<td>Health professions’ Health Fair Student Center ballrooms 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. BSCU’s dance Student Center ballroom C 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.</td>
<td>Men’s soccer game—home 8:00 p.m. Board of Trustees meeting Student Center room 419 4:30 p.m.</td>
<td>Sigma Phi Rho party The Rathskeller 9:00 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. Varsity football game— Jersey City State 1:00 p.m.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6</td>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>5</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>HRO’s “The Weekend”</td>
<td>Election Day</td>
<td>LASO’s debate with Gauidian Angels Student Center room 126 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Health professions’ AIDS conference Student Center Ballrooms 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>13</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>10</td>
<td>11</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Theta Kappa Chi’s annual toy drive Student Center information desk 9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. LASSO’s GOYA food sampling Student Center Ballrooms noon to 2:00 p.m.</td>
<td>Conservation Club’s Earth Care day Student Center 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.</td>
<td>Players present “The Lady and the Clarinet” Student Center room 126 8:00 p.m.</td>
<td>Players present “The Lady and the Clarinet” Student Center room 126 8:00 p.m. Gifted and talented assembly Student Center room 411 10:00 a.m. to noon</td>
<td>Players present “The Lady and the Clarinet” Student Center room 126 8:00 p.m.</td>
<td>Marketing Club’s regional conference Penn State leaving at 1:30 p.m. Players present “The Lady and the Clarinet” Student Center room 126 2:15 p.m.</td>
<td>HRO’s “The Weekend” Varsity football game—home 1:30 p.m. Men’s Cross Country NCAA regionals—away LASSO’s Latin Month dance Student Center Ballrooms 8:00 p.m. to 1:30 a.m.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14</td>
<td>15</td>
<td>16</td>
<td>17</td>
<td>18</td>
<td>19</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>U.S.C. Dance Ball Student Center Ballrooms</td>
<td>BSCU’s Thanks Ball Student Center Ballrooms</td>
<td>21 LASSO’S movie Student Center Ballrooms</td>
<td>22 Class One Concerts presents Physical Graffiti Memorial Auditorium 8:00 p.m.</td>
<td>Thanksgiving</td>
<td>Thanksgiving recess</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>21</td>
<td>22</td>
<td>23</td>
<td>24</td>
<td>25</td>
<td>26</td>
<td>27</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
On behalf of the Homecoming '88 committee, we would like to extend sincere thanks to everyone who helped make it "A memory for the days to come!!!"

The Committee
Tracey Srivala
Tracy Barrelli
David Harris
Stacy Royal
Corinne Shearer
Father Art Humphrey
Linda Loiacono
Lenore Koval
June Launay
Trude Wolfarth
Joseph Santorine
Tony Laurito
Jim Langham
Russell Blackwell
Rosemarie Savino

Also thanks to...
Dr. and Mrs. Walters as honorary Grand Marshalls
Joe McGinty
Bob Geiza
Tommy Mergola
Perry DelVechio
Ken Staples
Jon Benjamin
Diana Ramirez
Olandha Seldon
Greg Lockard
John O’Brien
Greg Weitzner-Kilroy
Dr. Edward Martin
Dr. Jean Armstrong
Kathleen Marchetti
Dr. James Harris
Marsha Young
Dr. Richard Lynde
Phil Calirre
Evelyn Walters
Flo Junda
Captain Valenti
Sergeant Amirault
Chief Pomponio
Candelario Zapata

extra, extra special thanks to...
Joe Santorine
Camille Bartlett
Tau Kappa Epsilon
Alpha Phi Omega
Avis-rent-a-flatbed (ha, ha)

Siobhan O’Leary
Billy Cogan
Class One Concerts
Latin American Student Organization
Black Student Cooperative Union
La Campana
WMSC
Quarterly
Conservation Club
Student Intramural Leisure Council
The Montclarion
Val Helriegel
Alpha Phi Omega
MSC Cheerleaders
Caffone Printing
Stinky Pink Ink
Scalzetti Printing
Mr. Santorine
Kelly Toth
Dunkin’ Donuts
Barbara Gallo
Dave Handal
Joe Haas
Rob Acerra
Ken Roberts, Albert Hopper, Inc.

Your Help Meant More Than You Can Ever Know!!!
Love, Jennifer and Kinner

C.L.U.B. is a Class One of the SGA
Attention Montclarion readers:

Due to a previous engagement, The Montclarion will not be published next week.

Just in case you’re interested, we (that’s seven editors and a treasurer) are flying down to Atlanta, Georgia. We’re attending the Associated Collegiate Press convention, and we intend to get a full night of sleep on Wednesday for a change (well, that really depends upon the nightlife).

So, don’t get nervous when you pick up a copy of the paper and you get a case of deja vu. It just means you picked up an old issue.

The Montclarion is a Class I Organization of the S6A

Discriminating people, you Liberal Arts graduates

You’ve learned how to distinguish between Ulysses (highly intelligent, but devious) and Hercules (full of drive, but no gray matter). You can appreciate the differences between George Washington and Benedict Arnold. You know why Othello messed it all up, why Henry V got the girl and the money.

In short, you have a solid understanding of Homo sapiens. You know what kind of animal he is, and whether he’s likely to succeed or not. You know about square pegs in round holes.

So why don’t you join us. We’re a New York management recruiting firm. The book says you’ve got to be extremely ambitious, highly motivated, enterprising, assertive and articulate—with impressive interpersonal skills. Not too liberal. Not too artsy.

Find out more at your placement center. Submit your resume Oct. 25 to interview with us Nov. 16.

Human Resource Management
535 Fifth Avenue, 32nd Floor, N.Y., NY 10017
(212) 867-3500
30 Vreeland Road, Florham Park, NJ 07932
(201) 968-0000

Some people retire with more than just a gold watch.

You work hard all your life and what do you get?

Well, depending on where you work, you could get cancer. Asbestos has been proven to cause cancer. Certain toxic chemicals like formaldehyde and freon are being investigated. If you’ve worked with radioactive particles or even worked near them, your risk is greater.

And even if you’ve worked nowhere hazardous, it wouldn’t hurt to get a checkup. Because the incidence of cancer after the age of 45 to 50 increases rapidly.

Over the next several years the American Cancer Society will be conducting more research into certain lifestyles and exposures which could increase cancer mortality.

So know the risks.

Don’t smoke.
Bush vs. Dukakis: Where do they stand?

It's hard to believe but the 18 months of babble that has been called the 1988 election campaign is nearing the end. In three weeks, voters must make the ultimate decision.

In a campaign where the issues have taken a back seat to name calling and dirt throwing, some may not be sure where each candidate stands on a given issue. The following information comes from: Candidate position papers, 1988 Democratic National Platform, 1988 Republican National Platform, The New York Times and The Washington Post.

On defense and foreign policy there are some major differences. Dukakis is in favor of ending nuclear weapons testing. Bush is not. Bush favors increased spending for S.D.I. while Dukakis does not. The same goes for the MX missile and the production of chemical weapons. Dukakis favors tougher economic sanctions against South Africa and no further military aid to the Contras, and Bush is in favor of both.

With the environment, both plan to ban ocean dumping by 1991, but Bush did support Reagan's veto of the Clean Water Act. Dukakis would raise taxes as a last resort. Dukakis is in favor of increasing the minimum wage to $4.55/hr. Bush does not favor the raise.

On the civil rights issues, Bush is in favor of a constitutional amendment prohibiting abortion, while Dukakis is not. Bush is not in favor of the Equal Rights Amendment, and Dukakis is.

Finally, in terms of social issues, Dukakis favors federal assistance with child care, Bush favors tax credit for working parents. Dukakis feels parental leave should be guaranteed, while Bush feels it is up to the employer. Both favor increased student loans. Dukakis is in favor of guaranteed basic health insurance, and Bush is not.

While each candidate's position has a certain philosophy attached to it, hopefully this breakdown makes it a little easier for those who have not followed the campaign closely. In addition, it may spark students to seek more information about the candidates and their platform.

We can only hope voters' minds are made up by the candidates' positions and not by personalities.

Goodbye Duke, hello President Bush

Even though it ain't over til it's over, sometimes it's so close to being over that it might as well be. Goodbye Dukakis, hello President Bush.

If the debate Thursday was supposed to resuscitate Mike Dukakis' wilting presidential hopes, it failed. George Bush, I thought, turned him every way but loose. He was firm without being nasty, affable without being sly and confident without being smug. He was, in short, the best possible George Bush.

Not that Dukakis was so terrible; he was just...well...Dukakis. His main job in this debate was to show folks that he was not the heartless technocrat that some believe him to be, that he was a creature of blood and bile and emotion, just like the rest of us. The very first question did him in.

He was asked something to the effect: "If you came home one night to find your wife raped and murdered, your mother hanging on a meat hook and your dog fed into your snow blower, would you get mad?"

"No," Dukakis said. "I would call 912, the police emergency number my administration installed and which has reduced crime in the greater Massachusetts area by 95 percent. When the police apprehended the person who did it, I would make sure that they did not put the handcuffs on too tight or speak rudely to him, lest they violate his civil rights."

The problem with Dukakis is that he thinks being human is a weakness, which is fine if you're a parking meter but if you're running for president it's best to show you share some human frailties with the folks you seek to lead.

Dukakis showed the same lack of the common touch—or any touch, for that matter—when asked to name his contemporary heroes. "Joe DiMaggio," he might have said, then lowered his eyebrows of the audience as he explained his theory of "class" and how DiMag epitomized it. He could have named any number of working class heroes; instead he ran off a list of occupations—cops, politicians, teachers, preachers. He sounded more like he was running for guidance counselor than president.

Bush, meanwhile, was picking a hero from every voting bloc he needed to win, ending with a parson to President Reagan. At that point, the liberals in the room where I was watching the debate covered their eyes. We were afraid Bush would break out his straw hat and cane and do a cakewalk across the stage, singing "If You Lika Me, Like I Lika You."

Oh well, one thing you have to say for us liberals: we know how to laugh with grace. It comes with practice. I suppose we should start getting our affairs in order, preparing ourselves for the Bush-(ugh)Quayle administration.

It's Quayle that makes it hard. I could live with George Bush; there are even those who say he's a decent man, although he wouldn't know it from the campaign he's run. But why did he have to give us Dan Quayle, a baby-faced right-wing ideologue with intellectual acuity of a geranium?

I remember when, in a similar situation, Dwight Eisenhower raised the young Richard Nixon out of the mud and into our political life. He was there for the next 25 years. I fear we can expect no less from Dan Quayle. How could Bush have pulled such a dirty trick on us? Is it his idea of a practical joke, or what?

The other thing that makes Bush a particularly bitter pill is his relentless attacks on Dukakis' membership in the American Civil Liberties Union. It smacks of the southern politician who accused his opponent of being monogamous, even though married.

The strategy depends for its effectiveness on ignorant prejudice and, in depending on it, reinforces it. Bush knows that the ACLU isn't (ital) for (end ital) criminal and communists simply because they defend them in cases. The group has defended Nazis and John Birchers and anti-abortionists and Young Americans for Freedom, as well as Ollie North. It's the rights of these people that the ACLU defends and with them, our rights. Bush knows that; he must. His father, Prescott Bush, was one of the senators who led the censure of Joe McCarthy in the Senate. To act as Bush has acted shames his heritage.

Moderate Republicans (I would say "liberal" Republicans but I don't want anyone to swoon with shame) have always considered Bush one of their own. They are as dismayed as the rest of us at the campaign he has waged but they expect a return to his former self once he's in office. That's unlikely.

There's a saying in sports: You play like you practice. In politics, you govern as you campaign. George Bush will take office with a mandate for nothing except leading the nation in the Pledge of Allegiance.

For this we needed an 18-month campaign?
Tommy Talks lacks relevance

Being a student at MSC, 1 realize that the job of the SGA president is not an easy one. Certainly, at times it must be filled with many contradictions and complications. Making unpopular decisions is inevitable.

However, any student running for the SGA presidency should expect that the little entails more than cute little dinners with the administration and chummy meetings among council members.

Ultimately, the SGA president must serve as the representative of all students to the administration and faculty. More importantly, he must work with all SGA class organizations. After all, if the class organizations’ needs are not met, it is the SGA students who will ultimately suffer.

In last week’s “Tommy talks,” Tom Morgela made an appeal to SGA members to sympathize with his daily difficulties of being SGA president.

I think this was a fruitless waste of space which could have been used for more important news that affects the student body.

Especially, I found his thank of certain members or friends inappropriate for a column designed for information.

I do not deny Tom Morgela his privilege of having a column in The Montclarion, nor do I deny that Tom Morgela thus far seems to be doing a good job, although some may differ on this view.

If indeed the SGA president wants to air his opinions in this publication, the smallest criterion should at least be relevance.

Name withheld by request

---

Three cheers for Homecoming week

To the editor:

All of the activities for homecoming ’88 are certainly going to be "memories for the days to come." Faculty members, administrators, parents, staff and students all have stopped us on campus to say: "great program," "super," "the students really did a good job," "I couldn’t be more proud of my alma mater..." and the accolade continue.

Thanks to Jennifer Rock, Homecoming Chairperson; Kim Ferrara, Parade Coordinator; Tracey Stivala and Tracy Barrelli, Entertainment & Fall Fest; Tony Laurito, Hay Rides, TKE; Russell Blackwell, Security; Lenore Koval and Linda Loiacono, APO; Rosemarie Savino, Fireworks; and Jim Langham, King and Queen. A special thanks to Camille Bartlett, Joseph Santorine, Trudy Wollfarth, Corrine Shearer and Father Art Humphrey for a superb job.

---

George wins the not-so-great debate

George Bush got off two memorable hits in the debate. And the first one had to be extemporized. Not even Roger Ailes could have prepped him to answer so offbeat a question: "Isn’t there something you can think of about Michael Dukakis that you can admire?"

His answer was a classic putdown. Waal, said Mr. Bush, yes. There is something I can admire about Mr. Dukakis, and that’s the way he has pushed his family up in front of the cameras and done everything he could to make them central to his campaign.

Pause. Now I have always myself thought of my family (said Mr. Bush pensively) as a kind of private oasis. But when I saw the prominence Mr. Dukakis gave to his own family at the convention in Atlanta and elsewhere, why, I thought to myself, why not? A family is a very important part of everything. So I decided to do the same thing with my own family.

And did he ever. A Bush offspring registered the votes of individual delegations from a half-dozen states. Barbara Bush, who is the Miss America of American mothers, all but accompanies her husband to the men’s room. It was a smashing answer, at once just faintly suggesting the vulgarity of familial ostentation while managing to say, oh so subtly: Mike, old shoe, anything you can do with your family, I can do better with mine. Oscar Wilde could not have managed it better.

His second triumph—and for this one he was almost surely rehearsed—was an answer to the charge that this has been a mortifyingly jejune public contest, with trivialities engaging the whole of the public’s attention. Isn’t it true, Mr. Bush stated, that Jimmy Carter and Richard Nixon and Barry Goldwater have all said how awful the campaign has been and how little time has been given to the issues?

Yes, said Mr. Bush, that’s quite right. But look at it from where I’m sitting, Lulubelle. I campaigned throughout Illinois and gave extensively my views on the farm problem, just as an example. And I issued one or two position papers. Now. Why didn’t your network pay any attention to what I said? Instead, your network, and the media in general, gave attention over and over again to the slightest disparagement of me by Dukakis, of Dukakis by me, and most attention to the alleged disqualifications of Dan Quayle. Senator Goldwater reports from his eyrie in Arizona that we should be discussing the issues.

Well, how does he know I have not been discussing the issues? If he watched the television news he will never discover that I have been talking about the issues. Bull’s eye. Gov. Pete du Pont, answering a question put to him by a voter on a television phone—in program about aid to the contras during the primary campaign in Iowa, said: “I don’t blame you for opposing aid to the contras. If I had listened only to television networks on what is going on in Nicaragua, I too would be against aid to the contras.” What we need to worry about, said DuPont—and Bush carried the theme forward during the debate—is the media’s high dudgeon over the quality of a campaign the tenor of which is dictated by what the media reports on that campaign.

The crowd cheered. And it was not only the supporters of Mr. Bush, one had the feeling, who cheered. Mr. Dukakis’ partisans felt he, too, had been the victim of the sensationalist-minded press, more interested in controversy than in substance. True, Mr. Bush has not delivered a Cooper Union address; but if tomorrow he delivered the Areopagitica in his speech in Peoria, it is absolutely predictable that no one two blocks away would learn about it.

Oh, there were some crushing disappointments. Mr. Bush can’t crank himself up to criticize any of the waster programs in which Washington is permanently engaged. Most offensive of all was Mr. Bush’s scornful attack on the grain embargo imposed by President Carter when the Soviet Union began its genocidal invasion of Afghanistan. What Mr. Carter did was exactly correct. And it is a festering sore on the public record of Ronald Reagan that he should have rescinded the embargo instead of intensifying it, while compensating the farmers for their contribution to a vital non-military sanction against the Soviet Union, which while waging an aggressive war against our allies, has been the victim of the sensationalist-minded press.

To the editor:

I am writing in response to the article, “Olympic-Sized Mess,” in your Sept 29 issue. I disagree with many of the statements printed in this article.

First, the writer states that the coaches of the American boxer were responsible for his loss. I disagree because we are not dealing with youngsters. I think the American should have made sure of the time himself. Another statement, “We don’t have to look far to find the reason for Johnson’s motivation to cheat, after all everybody’s doing it.”

This is another reason for my disagreement. Not everybody’s cheating. The one’s that did were disqualified. The rules are tight and people stick to them. I think the writer could have stated it in a different way.

---

Disagreement on our “Olympic Mess”

To the editor:

I disagree with many of the statements printed in this article. First, the writer states that the coaches of the American boxer were responsible for his loss. I disagree because we are not dealing with youngsters. I think the American should have made sure of the time himself. Another statement, “We don’t have to look far to find the reason for Johnson’s motivation to cheat, after all everybody’s doing it.”

This is another reason for my disagreement. Not everybody’s cheating. The one’s that did were disqualified. The rules are tight and people stick to them. I think the writer could have stated it in a different way.

---

The Montclarion Letters Policy

All letters must be:

* typewritten and double spaced * addressed to the editor * submitted by 4 PM on the Monday before the Thursday issue * include student ID number, year, major, and telephone number for confirmation.

Letters must be signed, but names will be withheld upon request.

These guidelines must be met or the letter will not be printed.

---

The Montclarion reserves the right to edit letters for style and brevity.
ART, DRAFTING & DESIGN STUDENTS.

We have the Tools for your Success.

Bring your Back to School lists to Koenig Art Emporium where you’ll find everything you need from brushes, pads, paints, & T-squares to tables, lamps & chairs.

Koenig ART Emporium
Willowbrook Mall Sears Wing
Discount w/ MSC ID Except Sale Items

Crafts Show Applications

The 1988 Crafts Show will be held on Thur., Dec. 1. Student participation is welcome in the show, as is staff and faculty input. This is a great opportunity for art majors or persons who have a craft-making hobby.

In the past, the show has featured hand-made jewelry and many other crafts. All suggestions are welcome. Applications for the 1988 Crafts Show can be obtained from Vera Brint, Russ Hall 106, or by calling 893-7374. The deadline for applications is Nov. 14. There is a table fee of $20.

Giuliano Pizzeria & Restaurant

GOURMET PIZZA PLUS

540 Valley Road Upper Montclair, N.J.
Phone 744-6606 - 744-5304
WE DELIVER
Last delivery at 10:30
We Sell Only Quality Food
sandwiches
traditional pizza
dinner specials
NO IMITATIONS
NO ARTIFICIAL FLAVORS

UNPREPARED, IT'S UPHILL ALL THE WAY.

The LSAT, GRE, and GMAT are different. Take any one of them without solid preparation and you'll get blown off the course. We've trained over one million students to test their best. We'll do it for you. Call Kaplan.

KAPLAN
STANLEY H. KAPLAN EDUCATIONAL CENTER LTD

LSAT Classes At MSC-Beginning Nov. 3.
Call 488-4778 For Details

C.L.U.B. Presents

Monday
October 24
7 p.m. and 9 p.m.

CHER
DENNIS QUAIID

She's a lawyer who broke two laws of her profession...
Never get involved with a juror and don’t look for clues in dangerous places.

Suspicion... Suspense...
SUSPECT

One winner at each show will take home a theatre size poster!

$1.00 with 9.D.
$1.50 without 9.D.

C.L.U.B. is a Class One of SGA
50's musical shines with greased lightnin'

By Antoinette Doherty
Correspondent

The following review is from a dress rehearsal of the Mainstage Theatre Series production of Grease.

We've all seen the movie. Being in love, fighting, breaking up, making up, and, of course, rock and roll, that's what Jim Jacobs' and Warren Casey's musical Grease is all about. It's complete and total 50's-style fun.

Grease tells the love story of tough Danny Zuko and wholesome Sandy Dumbrowski, otherwise known as "Sandra Dee." Danny tries to win Sandy's love while still remaining true to his buddies, which naturally does not work.

Finally, both Danny and Sandy realize they need to make their relationship work, and end up together at the show's finale.

There's an opportunity among the entire cast that gives the show an incredible energy. Celeste T. Russi, Beth Anne Zimmermann, Madelyn Chiusano, and Joy Trapani do a wonderful job as the "Pink Ladies" Jan, Marty, Frenchy, and Rizzo. Peter J. Casbar, Peter Livecchi, Matthew DiLullo, and Tom Mancia live up to their image as the "Burger Palace Boys" Doody, Roger, Sonny, and Kenickie, respectively.

As Rizzo, Trapani reveals her tough character with conviction. Her rendition of "There Are Worse Things I Could Do" presented her vocal strength as well as her strong acting ability. Deanna M. Jividen creates an innocent character in Sandy. Her voice is strong and clear making all of her numbers memorable.

Chris DeBari, as Danny, is in top "Greaser" form. His leather jacket can't cover the soft side Danny clumsily displays. His musical talents shine through in "Alone at a Drive-In Movie" and "All Choked Up." Brian Shipper and Linda Walsh are amazing as Rydell High's awkward Eugene Florczyk and pomp-pom queen Pattie Simcox. Gina Millevoi (and her whistle) do a great job of keeping this group of rowdy teens in order as old-maid English teacher Miss Lynch.

"Shakin' at the High School Hop" would not be complete without Joe Dalo as D.J. Vince Fontaine, Stephen Bienskie as rocker Johnny Casino, and Kira Sonin as the "blind date" Cha-cha Digregorio.

Gerry McIntyre, MSC alumnus and cast member of Broadway's Anything Goes, choreographed the show. All numbers truly embodied the 1950's, most notably "Born to Hand Jive." Bruce Goodrich, scenic and costume designer, floods the stage with giant blow-ups of Elvis and James Dean. A central unit of stairs and lockers was created to be the focal point for all of the action. The artistic set puts the audience in the 1950's mentality.

Direction and musical staging were exceptionally executed under the guidance of Tee Sebastianho, with musical direction by Eric Diamond. Performances are October 20, 21, 22, 27, 28, and 29 at 8 p.m., with matinees October 21 and 28 at 2:15 p.m. in the Memorial Auditorium.

Stray Cats reunite in tour and strut their stuff

By John Martucci
Staff Writer

I don't know if you've ever been to the Ritz before, but it is definitely an experience to take in, especially if you pick a night where the crowd is truly behind the band.

I saw the Stray Cats this past Tue. night and they positively lit up the stage. That's right, the Stray Cats are back together, perhaps not the hottest news item, but certainly one of the hottest and refreshing bands of the decade.

A band called Lucky Seven opened up for them, and they were a good choice. They had powerful clean sound that was emphasized by some strong percussion and again the return of the accordian. They even got into some cajun music, a la Buckwheat Zydeco. They were sort of a mild teaser for the Cats, and set the mood for the evening.

If you truly like this kind of rockabilly music, then you should find any of their albums jammed with great music. They opened up with two songs from what I assume is their first album, Gonna Ball. They only played four songs from their two most popular albums, Nite N' Rave and Built For Speed, but no one seemed to care.

The Stray Cats are definitely a group that goes beyond the music they play and how they as musicians embody it. Doing new and old material between cover songs like "Something Else" at the end of the second and final encore, the group broke things up. It never seemed as though the concert ever reached any one peak, but a series of high points.

One of the best moments was when they did a song called "Rumble At The Ritz," which as you can deduce was written just for this kind of audience. As expected, their biggest hits, including "Stray Cat Strut" and "Rock This Town" received some of the biggest crowd reactions.

To the casual listener of music, the idea of a three piece band may sound a little sparse, but they managed to fit the club with a steady beat, full sound, exhilarating fill-ins and a sharp little solo.

Lead vocalist, guitarist and principal songwriter Brian Setzer wasn't exactly bashful about his guitar playing. He entertained the crowd by slapping in bands or ripping into guitar solo while on his knees.

Slim Jim Phantom, the drummer, has taken the liberty of adding a floor tom to his meager three-piece drum set. He added a little more adversity, still keeping him free to dance around while playing.

A few weeks ago I was surprised when I heard the one-armed drummer from Def Leppard play so strong. Equally impressive was Phantom, who consistently filled the club with a steady beat, full sound, exhilarating fill-ins and a sharp little solo.

The band performed exactly as it should, like a group. All of them complemented each other; they seemed to be in harmony with each other and the audience. The album they've already started on is expected to be out around late March. Until then, they're going to continue an extensive tour, keeping clean pure rock and roll alive.
New bands rock the Rat

By Raymond Ecke
Editorial Page Editor

Playing in a struggling unsigned band is one tough undertaking. For the amount of time and effort a band puts in, the payback can often be defeating.

On Tue., MSC played host to two very good unsigned bands, Faces in the Crowd and Cheshire Cats. Unfortunately, students didn’t take much notice.

Part of the problem may have been the Tue. night date. Regardless, both bands performed with considerable zeal and managed to please what promoters would call an “intimate” crowd.

Faces in the Crowd began around 9:15 p.m. in the Rathskellar and turned in the most exciting set of the two bands. The five-member band that won the 1988 MTV Basement Tapes Award in September featured a female vocalist whose range and power was comparable to Pat Benatar.

Judging by the band’s exciting version of Benatar’s now classic “Promises in the Dark,” they were aware of the possible comparison.

Beyond comparison were their original songs. Songs like “Love Without Fiction” and “Right Here, Right Now,” were right on the mark with just the right amount of synthesizers and vocal harmonies to give them that 80’s commercial sound.

Cheshire Cats, a fun, young, four-man band, sported a very English, college sound resembling a mixture of R.E.M. and Squeeze.

Though some of their songs were quite catchy, they all sounded a little too similar.

The Song Remains the Same

Lead singer of Faces in the Crowd.

Hello music fans and welcome to another edition of Nolan’s Notes. Now that UB40 has already made several extremely popular albums internationally, the band’s members say it’s time to straighten up and see if they’re really any good. UB40 has suddenly become very serious about the direction of their music, since their longtime friend and soundman Ray Falconer was killed in a car accident. Their self-titled album, on A&M, is intended as a tribute to Falconer. UB40 saxman Brian Travers says “everybody seems to be less silly and less flippant now...less self-indulgent.”

MINI NOTES: Kiss’ Gene Simmons formed his own record label recently and has now announced that he is managing Liza Minnelli’s recording career. The results should be interesting...Prince’s “Kiss” is getting a make over by Art of Noise and Tom Jones— together...Van Halen has rested and is ready to pick up where the Monsters of Rock tour left off. They’ve already started in Kentucky in late September.

MINI NOTES II: Stevie Nicks goes into the studio this month in Los Angeles to record with producer Rupert Hine who has worked with Tina Turner. Before the end of the year, there will be a Fleetwood Mac “Best of...” and in 1989, they will record a new album. Where’s your Lindsey?...From the “is it me” file: Is it me of does Eric Carmen really need a haircut? And plastic surgery? And a real career? I dunno. The answer to last week’s question: UB40 got their name from the name of the unemployment forms in Britain, call UB40’s. This week’s question: What Queen song satirized opera? Think about it...until next week.
Attention

After Hour ID. Pick Up

1. The Student Center Information Desk is located on the second floor across from the revolving doors, phone extension 5329.
2. A staff member will issue your card after you sign a receipt for your ID.
3. The schedule for after hour ID pick up will be Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays; from 5 pm to 8 pm and again on Saturdays, from 10 am to 12 noon.
BLOOM COUNTY

MOTHER GOOSE & GRIMM

SHOE

KICKING THE HABIT
DAY THREE...
THE SEARCH
FOR BUTTS
CONTINUES!
The Montclarion/Thursday, October 20, 1988 19.

classified

-Personals

-TKE-I guess you won’t be needing a broom for your clean sweep?

-AIX-To the best sorority on campus. You guys are great! I hope to party with all of you soon.

-Jo and Vick-Thanks for a great weekend at home. If you ever need help paying your tolls on the Parkway, see me. Jen

-Sher-balls-I can’t wait for Spain. Can’t wait to be the same. LuLu-Where are you?? I miss you!! Love-Jen

-Jo and Vick-Thanks for the best 6-months of my life. Love, Chris

-Sigma’s-Always read right to left. TKE

-Congratulations Anita and Albert-Good luck-Nuge-Cran-Raspberry juice, green M&M’s, sweet nuts, nut, Mr. Peanut, electric teeth, gold phones, donuts on the beach at mid-night, Don’t worry, be happy-Russ-“Oh my God.”

-BAB, I year soon, leaving every minute of it. Looking forward to the future. Love always, TDB

-The biggest, best, and bad-ass Montclair State ever saw. The judges were nerds! From, Frater Rich

-To the girl dressed as Dorothy on the Delta Theta Psi float. I want to marry you.

-Kerry-If you’ve seen any plain, apparent, common, frugal, homely, bare, modest, unassuming or unattractive people who are not like you dateless tonight? Thessaurus

-Sue-Great job on the float. No one should be prouder than you. (Happenin’ parrot or what??) Love you! Flame

-Frank-All of the Party Box Road Trips were definitely worth it. Flame

-AIX and TKE-Nice to know we scared everyone into making better and more spirited floats, isn’t it? MSC will never be the same.

-To 205C-Happy 3 week An-niversary! Russ can cook, Dan can set the table, Kevin can do dishes and Bruce will supervise. I’ll bring dessert. Love, Ani-la, 2 nastics, and Lg. Marge.

-Frank-is this really how you want it?? Jen

-Dearest MV and JR: Our lives wouldn’t be the same without you. Miss you.-AIX

-To the Four Great Roommates, Thank you for making my year so special and full of fun. Can’t wait to see your names on “107C the place to be.” Love, Jennifer

-AIX Pledges: You’re doing great, keep up the good work. Love Patty

-Joyce-to a great roommate. Homecoming wasn’t the same without you. Maybe next year?

-G.-H.-I’ll be here at homeplace if you need me. Don’t change..Your friend, K.-Elite Turtle Ship

-Dino-I had a great time at the park on Saturday. But, the babysups doesn’t deserve his EQ

-Eddie-B. What is BI or What it is! Get out of the shower. Love, The girls in 201C

-Eddie-B. Here’s to you! The Big Weekend! We love you! US in 201C

-To Kathy:Thanks for being such a great roommate! We’re having such a blast so far, let’s keep it up! Love your roomie.

-To Kathy: No matter what, I want you to know you can come to me. I’ll always be here for you. Love.

-Lee, Happy 20th. Have a great birthday! Cathleen

-Dee-When the day comes, I’ll be blue all I have to do is take a look at you then I’m not so blue...Love you Beth.

-We both well screwed up-Better luck next time. Bob

-To PC-Sorry that I thought you were the caller and that you still wore your ring. What about giving me a show?

-Alex-Congratulations! Enjoy your reign as Homecoming Queen Grazia

-Paula, If ever I cried it was only from lack of satisfaction.

-Dave-You made my 21st birthday! Paty-Kiesha, Stop playing the roll. From A Rhoman

-For my favorite roommate: Here we go again Magi! Let go thing...-Kimmons. Kris

-The drug Czar of MSC-stop that and NO MORE VIN MARIN SEAEEE!! I call it...Love

-Ray-Let’s invite Pigpen to ‘Party with Kel, Ray & Ferg.’ But, keep him away from the dip! Augguh Gravel. Kris

-Don’t go too soon, you need all the best thing in my life and I love you with all my turtle heart! Love Turtle.

-Steve-Dont-Complexly put, you are the best thing in mine too. I love you with all my squishableness.

-Irene-You’re such a pisser, and I’m just so cute. I should date you, not John-Lynn.

-Maggie-“I don’t want to be up there to watch the crucifixion”

-Jen-We did it-you big loser-it was awesome. Can’t wait for spring week! Thanks for every-thing-Ly.

-Girl with an attitude, Get any mayor lately? Not me, I’m gonna have to throw a tray. Alcoholic ballerina with an attitude

-To that beautiful, gorgeous, sexy lady young in Webster. I can’t take my eyes off your body. I Love You! N-TER-316-Y

-Dave-Watch the road. Quit stalling or let Ara drive. Puma

-Thanks for everything-you guys made Homecoming awesome! Love, Jennifer Kimmer

-Love Turtle.

-Beth, Tsa, Joelci, Michelle, and Jules. You guys pushed that damn ouija didn’t you? a confused fruit fly

-Jeff and Denise: I’m glad you’re here, are you staying over? Oh Good! We can share. Tonight’s gonna be great. Love Elaine & Sheila XOXO

-Eliane—Who is the 19 year old looking for a meaningful relationship? “E-K, well, it’s in! Let’s see what happens.” S.R.

-Sue-Scarceorn, you won’t always have scary, do they? Stop all this moping and get out there and party! Smile dammit Sara-Lou-Thanks for being my study buddy...Love, LuLu—Where are you?? I miss you so! I didn’t think I could be so happy. I LOVE YOU - Hillary

-Good-looking 19 year old female seeks 19 year old or older considerate, attractive, smart, affectionate male for meaningful relationship.

-Who is the 19 year old looking for a meaningful relationship? “E-K, well, it’s in! Let’s see what happens.” S.R.

-Dearest MV and JR: Our lives wouldn’t be the same without you...I want to marry you. Love, Jen

-Rich, Don, and Tom-Did you see the Eagles soar on Monday? Ahh the giants. Did I mention the METS??

-Rich-Guess everyone will know who is King of Quartier. PZ #44

-From now on...any party by my house. I’m looking forward to Dinner. The Belly Dancer.

-Don-You can give me a head-but anytime. AIX #41

-Sue-Who’s pirate hook were you trying to be caught on Homecoming Saturday? -CC1, Our weekend full of happiness and romance is getting closer. I LOVE YOU! 88-OM-SPBG

-Here’s to more than just Saturdays last year. We burned the “Midnight Oil”- pretty late. Fun in the sun ‘88!!

-To TKE AM’s Jack, Kurt and Dave: You guys are the greatest!! Love, me.

-Jim-It’s great sharing a brain with you, but...you piss me off, kid

-Barbara-When will we have a party where nobody spills anything-

-AIX/TKE-Homecoming was awesome!! Most enthusiastic-Who else?

-Dearest Congrats! I love you! -NNNY!-Love, Cherri and Stacey

-Dearest MV and JR: Our lives wouldn’t be the same without you- we miss you both and love you LOTS!! Love, Your “Puppies”

-MSC-Me-I think we really did hurt the “Italian Stallion’s” feelings. How about a fundrais-er to buy him some new yellow and pink sweatpants?? Self Res Women.

-cont. on p. 20
- Good Gama Alpha Phi Omega and Kappa Alpha Phi Sigma Phi Rho is still and always #1. Watch out TKE your next.
- K.I.L.—Remember dreams do come true. Because I'm the right man for you.
- Chrissy-Get that scum off of your sheets!
- To Ed, Mike, and Pierre-Good luck because you will need it.
- Lynn-You know who you are. Thanks for listening to me and helping me. I will always appreciate it. Love you know who.
- Duck-duck-geese, reptiles from hell, counting cows, information booth, losers-party of 4, matching bruises, clothespins.
- Eileen D-You're doing an awesome JOB! I can't wait till you are my little! Love, Your Perspective Big, Kelly
- Frank-TKE great job on the float we won. 8/10 of a point is nothing. PZ61
- Dawn-don't change because you're the best the way you are and turn down the beat, how about some Dewar's. Love always, Ray
- George-How the 42XL's fitting?
- PP-hed—Don't eat yellow snow.
- Ginger and Eileen Mc-We can't wait till this is all over and MAYBE we can call you guys sisters. HA! HA! Love, Kelly and Sheila

---

- Miss Doyle-Happy "21st" Birthday. Now that your legal can I have my license back? Have a great day and a great night and always remember I'm here if you ever need me. Happy B-day! Your Roommate
- Alyssa-isis-Is it's better in the Bahamas. Do you know what I'm saying?! Doin' the butt—What butt? HA! HA! See ya el grego Beer Drinker
- What?—Have anything to say about Bean's adventures? I can't believe he got his hair cut.
- Sher-"Up the gap," huh?...
- To October 20th, or is it January 20th, or December 15 either way I hope you have a great day and a Happy 19th Birthday.
- TKE—you guys are great. Thanks for everything—we love you! Clubbers
- Kimmer you big -ithc. We did it babe—after 2 lbs. of chocolate greco Beer Drinker
- What butt? HA! HA! See ya el grego Beer Drinker
- PP-hed—Don't eat yellow snow.
- Ginger and Eileen Mc-We can't wait till this is all over and MAYBE we can call you guys sisters. HA! HA! Love, Kelly and Sheila

---

- To the TKE with Status-Loved the ice routine. Can't wait for the next creative endeavor. Madonna
- Mike (TKE)-Shut up. You know who
- CLUB—WE MADE IT THROUGH HOMECOMING! Can you believe it?? When do we start spring week? Tomorrow? You guys are the best and you know who you are.
- Dee
- To Dee-So glad we made it! Friends Forever! Love, Tracy B.
- To Kim, Jen, Christa, Dee, Tony, Tracey, Dave, Russ, Mike, Michelle, Billy, Kelly, and all of CLUB-I LOVE YOU!! Love, Tracy B.
- Suzy-kim-So many men...So little time! Live a little. Dee
- Jo-Eli and Kerry—all of your help was not forgotten—your friendship and support to H.C. means more than just help. love ya, chief fannie
- Miss Cymbala: The only thing to get burned is the Duke when he goes down in flames on Election Day. Michael, official MSC Republican.
- Kris: Gee, my first personal Thanks a million, sniff! Michael
- Need someone to talk to? Call the Drop-In Center at 893-5271, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
- Mimi, don't worry be happy— I'll make sure the desks protect you in fresh comp—only 9 wks left. Love the Little Loser
- To the TKE with Status-Loved the ice routine. Can't wait for the next creative endeavor. Madonna
- Mike (TKE)-Shut up. You know who
- CLUB—WE MADE IT THROUGH HOMECOMING! Can you believe it?? When do we start spring week? Tomorrow? You guys are the best and you know who you are.
- Dee
- To Dee-So glad we made it! Friends Forever! Love, Tracy B.
- To Kim, Jen, Christa, Dee, Tony, Tracey, Dave, Russ, Mike, Michelle, Billy, Kelly, and all of CLUB-I LOVE YOU!! Love, Tracy B.
- Suzy-kim-So many men...So little time! Live a little. Dee
- Jo-Eli and Kerry—all of your help was not forgotten—your friendship and support to H.C. means more than just help. love ya, chief fannie
- Miss Cymbala: The only thing to get burned is the Duke when he goes down in flames on Election Day. Michael, official MSC Republican.
- Kris: Gee, my first personal Thanks a million, sniff! Michael
- Need someone to talk to? Call the Drop-In Center at 893-5271, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
- Mimi, don't worry be happy— I'll make sure the desks protect you in fresh comp—only 9 wks left. Love the Little Loser
- Dear Michelle—WOW! Confusion, Hysteria, Attractiveness!!! Thanx for the talk. You're a special person I can't wait to know better!! Ooh Boy! Love ya, Russ-T
- SWRB—I saw you basking in October's light on a bed of red and gold leaves surrounded by a haven of of nature one with the earth."
- Johnny Casino—GREATNESS IS THE word! Break a leg! All my love...
- Bam-Bam—I still love you—even after Homecoming—maybe even more—I have fun hanging out with you. Love the 22 Year Old!
- To "Fizzbin"—do us a favor & clean up after yourself, or no more warm milk for you! CAT gonna get you!
- To the A.M.'s of T.K.E.—You have exactly 48 hours in which to clean (spotlessly) Apt. 303B. HELL NIGHT. HELL MASTER. PZ#36
- Muffy and Belinda: How's the stocks and bonds this week?
- To Tracy & Maryann (Alias LL)—where are the back-rubs now? Muffy, Jumper, is it's better to clean (spotlessly) Apt. 303B. HELL NIGHT. HELL MASTER. PZ#36
- Mike—Don't worry, be happy! I'm beginning to think your last name is Tyson!
- To Leah: Miss you being across the hall! I hope to keep the friendship alive. An old neighbor who cares.
- Frosty Does Window Jumper at Senate Party
- Hey Chris D—Tammy do you go to Syracuse? Did you apply to Syracuse?—Miam? Do you believe in sex at 1st possible opportunity? Do you weigh at least 210 lbs?
- Colleen and Rodney—Happy late anniversary to the "perfect couple"! Love, D-Phi-E

---

Washington, D.C.
Nov. 11, 12, 13
Accommodations are at Master Host Inn

-which is only 10 minutes from the city

Quad. $119.00
Triple $129.00
Db1. $139.00

-All includes transport to and from the city, two night accommodations and two breakfasts...

For more information contact the C.L.U.B. office, Room 112D Student Center Annex, or 893-5232

C.L.U.B. is a Class One of SGA
Top Trenton, Ramapo
BooMers unbeaten in last ten gani-es

By Ian Saarmann and Bryan Moryko Staff Writers

The MSC soccer team rolled to a 4-0 victory over Trenton St. at Sprague field on Wednesday night to keep it’s unbeaten streak alive. The Indians have not lost in their last ten games as they raised their record to 11-2-3.

Freshman Gus Maromarico opened up the scoring at 4:42 of the first half. The rest of the first half was a defensive struggle as the Roadrunners to just one shot on goal for the game. Jim Stahl played well in goal for the Indians, who limited the Roadrunners to just one shot on goal for the game. Jim Stahl played well in goal for the Indians.

The game opened up in the second half as the Indians poured in three goals. Kevin Pladl scored his seventh goal of the season at 63:33. The play started at midfield with Charlie Smith serving the ball down the wing to Scott Logan. Logan beat the goalie to the ball and crossed it to a sprinting Pladl who stuffed the ball into the back of the net. Logan himself scored later in the game when, with just 3:23 remaining, he took a pass from Pladl and -Vinny McGowan to put a left footed shot past the TSC keeper. Pladl topped off the night with his 8th goal of the season as time ran out. MSC’s next game comes at home tomorrow versus Glassboro State who are ranked 9th in the nation.

MSC 4 - Ramapo 0

Freshman Kevin Pladl scored two goals as the Indians downed Ramapo, 4-1, in an NJAC matchup Saturday.

The victory stretched the MSC unbeaten streak to nine games, and improved its overall record to 10-2-3.

Co-captain Rob Chesney and forward Sean Mara also scored for the Indians, who limited the Roadrunners to just one shot on goal for the game. Jim Stahl played well in goal for the Indians.
NJAC football standings

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Team</th>
<th>Conference Record</th>
<th>Overall Record</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>MSC</td>
<td>3-0</td>
<td>5-1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Trenton St.</td>
<td>2-0</td>
<td>5-1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kean</td>
<td>2-2</td>
<td>3-3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ramapo</td>
<td>2-2</td>
<td>4-2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Glassboro St.</td>
<td>1-2</td>
<td>2-4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>William Paterson</td>
<td>1-2</td>
<td>2-4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jersey City St.</td>
<td>0-3</td>
<td>1-5</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Last week's results:
- MSC 30, William Paterson 3
- Trenton St. 31, Pace 3
- Kean 30, Jersey City St. 14
- Ramapo 21, Glassboro St. 16

Friday's games
- Jersey City St. at Trenton St.
- Ramapo at William Paterson
- Wesley at Glassboro

Saturday's games
- MSC at Salisbury St.
- Kean at Alfred

Eye nationals

Harriers capture Jersey City meet

By Tracy Anderson

Preparation for the national championships are looking good for the lady Indians, who put on another impressive display running this past weekend at the Jersey City Invitationals.

Sweeping the first five positions, the Indians defeated Jersey City, Georgian Court and Rutgers Saturday.

"The girls ran consistently and were together, pushing each other, all the way," said head coach John Blanton.

Rosa Domingues ran in first position with a time of 18:45. She was followed by Patty Anderson, Jill Robertson and Bernadette Wykpisz.

Robertson improved not only her speed but moved up in her position since the last meet.

"Jill is one girl who you can see has been working hard, and her times show it," said Blanton.

Montclair Athlete of the Week

Colasurdo ‘gets his kicks’ at the most opportune times

By Mary Carlomagno

Staff Writer

Senior Tony Colasurdo believes in the philosophy, "If you want something bad enough, you can get it."

Apparently this philosophy works for Colasurdo, because during Saturday’s game against William Paterson, he broke the MSC record for the longest field goal—twice.

The original MSC record, set by Dan Rodgers in 1967, was 48 yards. Colasurdo edged the record by kicking a 49-yard field goal, only to break it six minutes later with a 50-yard kick.

Colasurdo came to the Indians four years ago and has been the starting kicker ever since. Even though Colasurdo had never kicked before coming to MSC, he stated, "I always knew I could kick."

Now, Colasurdo is fourth in the area for scoring. He’s made eight out of ten field goals, and sixteen out of seventeen points after touchdowns. Although these statistics are impressive, Colasurdo claims his play is "only satisfactory."

"I’ve missed three field goals within forty yards," he explained. "The Montclair Indians have given me the opportunity to play. I feel even if I don’t do well, the team can still do well, but it’s better when everyone is clicking."

As for the MSC kicking record, Colasurdo was hoping to break it sometime this season. After starting for four years at the same position, he believes that he’s been able to "be consistent" because the offense enables him to kick extra points.

"I’m just one operation of a very talented team, which is consistently putting me in position for field goals," he said.

Colasurdo attributes much of the team’s success to experience and unity. He commented, "This team has very talented athletes, who are a lot of fun to play with."

The veteran team affords a talented kicker a chance to perform. Colasurdo said, "We have a scoring opportunity anywhere inside the thirty-five yard line."

Experience, depth, and an insatiable appetite for winning is the backbone of the ’88 Indians. Colasurdo explains his function. "A lot of pressure is taken off of me because of the unique talent and experience of our team."

He feels that the Indians "should win every game left. This game was a very important win, because everything really came together, especially emotionally. I want to help the team make it to the play-offs, the best way I can."

So far the best way Colasurdo can help the team is by continuing to be one of the areas leading scorers. His philosophy of wanting something bad enough has proven itself to be a winning one.

Next week’s Salisbury State game will be the Indians upcoming challenge. "This game is important. We need to win one game at a time, until we get to the National Championship." With "confidence and determination" Colasurdo feels this task if "wanted bad enough, will be accomplished."
A smorgasbord of sports shorts

By Kenny Peck

Odds and Ends  The infamous Vic Mizzone vs. MSC case that was erroneously reported as dead is very much alive. For those of you unaware of the situation, Mizzone, the former track coach at MSC, has filed a suit against the school, charging reverse discrimination. Mizzone brought his case to Civil Court and is currently preparing to take the case to Superior Court...That was a great crowd on hand Saturday at the Homecoming game. It will be interesting to see how many people show up for the Trenton State game next week, which will likely decide the conference champ...Despite some problems for the team in the past, I have a good feeling about the MSC basketball team this year...Jay Howell would be better off corking bats or something if that pitch to Mark McGwire Tuesday night had pine tar on it...Are the Jets that bad, or are the Bills that good?...Look for MSC alumus Leander Knight in this Sunday's Giants-Falcons game. Knight, who played for the Indians between 1984-86, is a defensive back for the Falcons...If you use your imagination, you could probably envision the Giants as being undefeated were it not for just two plays--the Montana to Rice bomb, and the Bavaro drop against the Eagles, which may have cost them the game. Then again, that's why if is the biggest word in the dictionary...Not a whole lot of people wearing Met hats anymore. The bandwagon has rolled to a complete stop...The Rangers, floundering once again, give the word "frustration" a new meaning. I mean, how long are we going to wait?...Here comes basketball season, and with it, more high expectations for the Knicks. For some reason, we fall for it every year, and every year, we are disappointed.

Well, this is the last year I'm going to say it. Let's hope it's true this time...The Nets, on the other hand, are not going to do anything but fish come playoff time. Again. The other hand, are not going to wait?...Here comes basketball season, and with it, more high expectations for the Knicks. For some reason, we fall for it every year, and every year, we are disappointed. Well, this is the last year I'm going to say it. Let's hope it's true this time...The Nets, on the other hand, are not going to do anything but fish come playoff time. Again.

At the Meadowlands  Hips OK lacked room in his latest, and wouldn't be a surprise if he won his next start. Laser King was forced toward the rail and lost all chance. Looms Boldly was on a dead rail the entire race last week. Bucks Like A Bunny was off slowly. Last week's selections: Two Pence ran fourth; Turbo Prop ran ninth; Alysheba won, paying $3.00.

Trivia Time-Out

Each week, The Montclarion publishes a list of sports questions and answers to test your knowledge of sports trivia. In addition, there is a sports stumper which will be answered in the following issue. If you think you have the correct answer to the stumper, drop it off at The Montclarion office in Room 113 of the Student Center Annex. The names of those submitting the correct answer will be published in the next week's issue. Deadline for submissions is Monday at 3 p.m.

1. What is the nickname of the Brigham Young football squad?
2. What was the nickname of the Orlando team in the Continental Football League?
3. What NHL team's nickname comes first in an alphabetical list?
4. Who is baseball's Old Roman?
5. What city briefly boasted a major league team named the Blue Jays in the 1940's?

Answer to last week's stumper:
What University of Cincinnati guard, later with the Pacers and Celtics, is the only man to play for NCAA, NBA and ABA champion teams? Tom Thacker.

Issuing the correct answer was:
The fabulous Bill Judge and family.

This week's stumper:
What driver, seeking his third straight Indianapolis 500 title, died in a pileup while in the lead on the 57th lap in 1955?

Salisbury St. preview
Which SSC squad will MSC face?

By Kenny Peck  Sports Editor

The Indians, in search of their third straight win, will try to continue their winning ways when they take on Salisbury State Saturday afternoon in Maryland.

MSC is coming off a victory over conference rival William Paterson, while the Sea Gulls (4-2) blew out Wesley College last week by a 75-6 score.

Last season, MSC came back from a 22-6 deficit and won 30-22, as Ed Baffige tossed two second half touchdown passes to John Fiore to ignite the Indians.

One question that will be answered Saturday is: which Salisbury State team will show up? The team that had 663 total yards last week? Or the team that lost 33-20 to Glassboro State two weeks ago?

The Sea Gull offense is the main concern for MSC. The receiving corps is made up mostly of returning veterans. Juniors Brian Patterson and Kevin Roberts head that bunch.

The Sea Gull defense has many new faces, as the team lost seven starters from last year's team.

Indian quarterback Ed Baffige looks for a receiver downfield during MSC's 30-3 win over William Paterson Saturday at Sprague Field. This week, the Indians will take on Salisbury State in Maryland.
MSC placekicker Tony Colasurdo follows through on his record-breaking 50-yard field goal Saturday. The senior kicked a 49-yarder earlier in the game to set a school record, but broke it with this kick just six minutes later. Colasurdo booted three field goals on the day. MSC won, 30-3, in front of a Homecoming crowd at Sprague Field. For the story, see below.

Colasurdo sets school mark

Indians top William Paterson, 30-3

By Kenny Peck
Sports Editor

MSC's Tony Colasurdo kicked three field goals, including a school record 50-yarder, to lead the Indians to a 30-3 Homecoming win over William Paterson in a New Jersey Athletic Conference (NJAC) matchup Saturday at Sprague Field.

The old mark of 48 yards, set by Dan Rodgers in 1967, was broken by Colasurdo as he nailed a 49-yard field goal with 6:48 left in the first half. The senior then shattered his own record with a 50-yarder about six minutes later.

MSC controlled the game from start to finish, as an Ed Baffige pass to Troy Bowers on just the seventh MSC play from scrimmage gave the Indians a 7-0 first quarter lead.

The lead grew to 20-3 at halftime on the strength of a 19-yard strike from Baffige to Jeff McGregor and Colasurdo's record-breaking kicks. Baffige finished the day 18-31 for 213 yards and two touchdowns.

Colasurdo added his third field goal of the game and Mike Codella scored his fifth touchdown of the season in the third quarter to close out the scoring.

The MSC defense sparkled once again, as they held the Pioneers to only 145 yards of total offense. The Indians, on the other hand, rolled up 485 total yards.

Junior Mike Murphy led the defensive charge with ten tackles, three sacks and a fumble recovery. Len Kruk and Paul Cioffi also had ten sacks for the Indians, while junior George Irwin registered an interception.

With the victory, MSC improved its overall record against William Paterson to 17-0-1 and its current conference record to 3-0. William Paterson fell to 1-2 in the NJAC.

The Indians travel to Salisbury State Saturday while the Pioneers host Ramapo tomorrow night.

Indian Info: Irwin suffered a severely sprained right ankle against William Paterson and may be out for close to three weeks. He may come back for the final regular season game against Glassboro...