Board of Trustees:

Approval of presidential search procedures

By Jane Beech Nielsen
Assignment Editor

The MSC Board of Trustees approved presidential search procedures at their Oct. 13 meeting.

According to Murray L. Cole, chairman of the board, a presidential search committee will be appointed at next board meeting to take place on Nov. 3. The committee will be responsible for screening all applicants, as well as making recommendations to the board.

The committee will consist of representatives from the many campus constituencies, Murray said. Representatives will be present from the faculty, the graduate and undergraduate studies, the administration, MSC alumni, SGA, and from the college's deans, he added.

Murray said that since their last meeting, the board had received several letters suggesting modifications of the position description for the president's position. The new position description is expected to be submitted to the board's executive committee approval by Oct. 31, Murray said.

David O'Brien has been appointed secretary of the search committee. All correspondence regarding the search procedures must be directed to him, Murray added.

William Griffith, vice president of administration and finance, presented the 1989 fiscal year budget.

Dr. Harbans Singh, chairman of the environmental, urban and geographic studies department, briefly highlighted the features of the program. Among other things, Singh stressed the importance of encouraging cross-specialization within the major. The department works in close relationship with the psychology, economics, history, and political science department, Singh said.

The department also puts strong emphasis on good writing skills, and students are encouraged to receive practical training and participate in community services, Singh added.

Other actions at the meeting included the swearing in of the newly appointed trustee, Mr. Joseph Harris. Harris is currently the university assistant dean at the City University of New York, serving the office of student affairs and special programs.

Cole extended an invitation to the entire campus community to attend a reception to honor Dr. and Mrs. Walters. The reception will be held Wednesday, Oct. 26, from 3-5 p.m. at the Student Center Ballrooms.

Inside The Montclarion:

Relive the 50's with a review of Grease. — p. 15

The Rathskellar won't serve this Thur. — p. 4

Indians defeat WPC in homecoming game — back page

Read the right and left viewpoints. — p. 12 & 13

Careers in retail explored

By Carl Chase
Correspondent

MSC's retailing program gave 200 high school and junior college students rare access to the knowledge of merchandising professionals from the tri-state area, at the Student Center on Tuesday, Oct. 18.

"Careers in Retailing," the third annual retail symposium, featured executives from major stores, including MSC alumni, Susan Baldassare (class of 1987) and Ann Kaufman (1977) who graduated from the program. Baldassare is the retail coordinator at Bridgewater Commons; Kaufman is vice president of Macy's.

The largest retail training program in the state, retail merchandising management attracted students from as far as Ridgefield Memorial High School. "We would like you all to think about a career in retailing," Dr. Joseph Hecht, who heads the program, said.

Dr. John McGinnis, another MSC professor, introduced a dozen executives including Bill Crisp of Kinney Corp. Headquarters, New York, who gave the keynote speech.

"Like professional athletes, retailers can have tremendous fun and satisfaction at their jobs, contrary to popular opinion," he said, adding that this unfavorable opinion of retailing can work to your advantage, if you have the necessary qualities. He identified these as knowledge, edge, skill, and a proper attitude.

Chris Krasohn, president of Epsilon Delta Epsilon, the retailing honors society and treasurer of Delta Epsilon Chi, the retailing club, addressed the audience. "In today's competitive work force," she said, "everyone needs an edge in order to be successful." She said the program and the club gives every opportunity to gain that edge.

"My experience at MSC has played a major role in my successful career. Developing your people skills is one of the most important aspects," Baldassare said.

"Moving around, talking to people, being active are the things I like to do," Kaufman said, adding she has been able to do these things, and for pay.

Joseph Conforti, a Kinney Corp. manager, said that Kinney managers earn up to $33,000 in their first year, and added that one Kinney higher executive earns $1.8 million a year. "That's more than any engineer earns, to my knowledge," on p. 3
American immigrants survived by forming social relationships
By Lilyanne McClean
Staff writer

According to Charles Tilly, director of the Center for Studies of Social Change, New School for Social Research, New York, immigrants who came to the United States throughout history formed social relationships to ensure survival. These social relationships include networks, categories, and ties where they had strong connections.

The receiving networks often provided jobs, housing and transportation for members coming from the sending networks. "The higher the risk and the more expensive the cost of return, the more reliance was placed on these ties," he added. "People relied on networks before, during and after migration," Tilly said. "Potential migrants concentrated on localities where they had strong connections."

The receiving networks often provided jobs, housing and transportation for members coming from the sending networks. "The higher the risk and the more expensive the cost of return, the more reliance was placed on these ties," he added. "People relied on networks before, during and after migration," Tilly said. "Potential migrants concentrated on localities where they had strong connections."

People created categories as they moved, Tilly said. "For example, Neapolitans coming from Italy became 'Italians' when they arrived in the United States."

"The third social relationship is formed when networks become large enough to form categories," Tilly said. "Migration is not a homogeneous experience," Tilly said. "It is a familiar story to all of us. We ought to think of migration as we think of community structures."

Tilly suggested that these social relationships may have one drawback. "Every inclusion, however, promotes exclusion," he said. "If a group is providing jobs from their own, they are keeping jobs from others."

Law school admission day
By John Navarro
Managing editor

Prospective law school students were given the opportunity to meet with law school representatives from various law schools yesterday at the sixth annual Law School Admission Day, which is the only one of its kind in New Jersey. In attendance were some of the leading law schools in the United States, attorneys from the Young Lawyers Division of the New Jersey State Bar Association, and approximately 400 interested students.

The event's main points were two panel discussions, the first relating to "Choosing a Law School," and the second, "Attending a law school."

When asked what knowledge or information you would like to get about choosing a law school, Barbara Smith replied, "I hope to learn what I can do now to prepare myself for the rigorous Law School application process and to start to narrow down my choices of what law school I want to attend."

As for attending law school, Andrea Gomez responded, "I'm here to talk to the law school representatives to see if all the horror stories of law school are as true as everyone says they are."

Don't miss
CO-OP DAY
TUESDAY, OCTOBER 25
Student Center Ballrooms
10:00 a.m.-11:00 a.m.  or  11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.

Law school admission day
By John Navarro
Managing editor

Prospective law school students were given the opportunity to meet with law school representatives from various law schools yesterday at the sixth annual Law School Admission Day, which is the only one of its kind in New Jersey. In attendance were some of the leading law schools in the United States, attorneys from the Young Lawyers Division of the New Jersey State Bar Association, and approximately 400 interested students.

The event's main points were two panel discussions, the first relating to "Choosing a Law School," and the second, "Attending a law school."

When asked what knowledge or information you would like to get about choosing a law school, Barbara Smith replied, "I hope to learn what I can do now to prepare myself for the rigorous Law School application process and to start to narrow down my choices of what law school I want to attend."

As for attending law school, Andrea Gomez responded, "I'm here to talk to the law school representatives to see if all the horror stories of law school are as true as everyone says they are."

Part Time Opportunities
Salby 5th Avenue
Shoe Salon

With five convenient locations throughout New Jersey, we can offer you opportunities with flexible hours to suit your schedule. We currently seek:

- SALESPeople—(Earn $8-$12 per hour)
- CASHIERS—(up to $5 per hour)
- STOCK—(up to $5 per hour)

If interested please contact the Store Manager at the store convenient to you by calling:

PARANUS (201) 445-7757
BERGEN (201) 366-1318
LIVINGSTON (201) 994-0481
WOODBRIDGE (201) 658-7322

To improve your resume writing and interviewing skills, you may attend seminars offered by Career Services on a regular basis.

To be able to sign up for any of these interviews you must fill out Career Services registration forms and provide 10 copies of your resume.
NJS supports bond issue

The New Jersey Student Association (NJS) met at MSC on Oct. 13. The organization is comprised of various Student Government Associations (SGA) across the state who have banded together to form a stronger voice to resolve the proposed $350 million bond issue.

The bond issue will provide $350 million to update and increase campus facilities and technologies statewide. In order for the institutions to receive their allotments from the bond issue they must provide at least $130 million in matching funds. MSC is liable to receive $13 million from the State if it passes the referendum.

SGA News

Student representatives to serve on presidential search committee

Ferry Del Vecchio

At last Thursday’s Board of Trustee’s meeting it was announced that a search committee will be formed to fill the vacancy left by Dr. Donald Walters. As of Oct. 31 Walters’ resignation takes effect.

There will be 16 members on the search committee, of which two will be undergraduate students, one will be a graduate student, and the rest will be filled by faculty and the administration. Any student interested must submit their name and phone number to the SGA office as soon as possible.

Due to last week’s incident in the Rat, no alcohol will be served this week. A MSC campus visitor assaulted a police officer who was hospitalized for a few days. A proposal which would ban all MSC guests in the Rat for the rest of the semester is being considered.

The New Jersey Student Association (NJS) which is made up of various college student governments throughout the state has taken a position on the bond proposal being voted on Nov. 8.

The NJS will be holding a press conference within the next couple of weeks to announce to the public and Governor Kean their position. They favor the bond issue, but do not want the students to be carrying most of the burden, via increased tuition.

Also mentioned was a fundraising drive for the ‘Make a Wish Foundation’ in November. The SGA is looking into giving a terminally ill child of New Jersey a last wish. Anyone interested in helping contact the SGA office.

Class One Concernts was appropriated $1,040 to purchase six laser lights for use in their concerts. The lights would hopefully be used in their upcoming, “Physical Graffiti” show. The yearbook was also awarded $2,778 to be allowed to produce 2,200 copies of the 1987-88 issue which should be out in December.

Julie Miller was appointed the legislative representative to Class One Review and Evaluation (CORE). She will serve as the liaison between the Class One and the legislature to better facilitate communication and their respective needs.

Sigma Phi Rho Fraternity Inc., Zeta Chapter is sponsoring a Greek Lip Sync on Sunday November 6, 1988

We are asking Greek Organizations to participate by submitting an act from their membership.

the Application deadline has been extended to Monday October 24, 1988

for further information contact John Roach at ext. 5326

SIGMA PHI RHO FRATERNITY INC., ZETA CHAPTER IS SPONSORING A GREEKLIP SYNC ON SUNDAY NOVEMBER 6, 1988

We are asking Greek Organizations to participate by submitting an act from their membership.

the Application deadline has been extended to Monday October 24, 1988

for further information contact John Roach at ext. 5326

Success in retail careers

cont. from p. 1

edge,” he said. Conforti added, “MSC is more in tune with the industry than any other school.”

“TThere are more students this year,” Krason said. “More retailers and a lot more enthusiasm,” she said, adding this program prepares students to enter almost any field.

Hecth said next year’s symposium will accommodate many more students. This year 200 students were turned down due to lack of space.

Industrial studies hold open house

The Industrial Studies Department at Montclair State College is holding its annual Open House on Thursday, Nov. 10, 1988. The open house will run from 10:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. and be filled with lots of fun and exciting seminars. The theme for this years open house is “Discover Your Future at MSC’s Industrial Studies Department.”

We encourage all those interested in the program to look for further details on posters which will be around campus or in the paper. The committee has yet posted the open house committee feels this year will be extremely interesting with the addition and help of the department’s two new faculty members. Visit our new faculty members and get re-acquainted with other faculty members in the department.

The committee would like to extend the invitation to all those people on campus, the faculty, staff and students of the Montclair Community are not only welcome but encouraged to attend the open house. In addition, the open house committee has invited high school principals, guidance counselors and industrial education teachers throughout the state of New Jersey to join us in celebrating the “Discovery of Your Future.”

If you have any questions regarding the industrial studies open house you may call the department or stop by and see us. The industrial studies department is located in Finley Hall, across from the library. We hope to see you all there on November 10th!
R+R Security

"Car Alarm Specialists"

- Car Alarms
- Car Stereo systems
- Radar Detectors
- Cellular Phones

Uinyo-Box, Auto Page, Harrison, Tech-Guard, Alpine, Blaupunkt, Sherwood, Kenwood, Clarion, Pyle, Whistler, Bell, ...

Michael R. 256-0507
Eric R. 256-9031

Campus Police Report

Rat won't serve after officer is injured

By Rob Tomeo
Staff Writer

On Oct. 11, a student was arrested for presenting an altered driver's license and misrepresenting his age in order to get into the Rat on Oct. 6. By using false ID, he will receive a $100 fine, will enter an alcohol education program, and will most likely lose his driving privilege for 6 months.

While investigating a fight and a student who presented false ID at the Rat, a security officer was approached by an intoxicated male who hit the officer in the face. The officer was brought to the hospital for treatment. The assailant, who is not an MSC student, was arrested and charged with aggravated assault and resisting arrest.

Due to the incident, which occurred at 1:15 a.m. on Oct. 14, the Rat will be not be serving alcohol on Thursday, Oct. 20.

On Oct. 15 at 3:30 a.m., a male entered Blanton Hall, posing as a pizza deliverer. The person at the desk told him he would have to sign in if he wanted to visit someone.

The man proceeded to walk behind the desk, climb over the stairwell wall, and walk up the stairway. He was found by security officers on the third floor and was arrested. He will appear in Little Falls Municipal Court on Nov. 2.

On Oct. 16 at 8:30 p.m. at the football game, there was a fight on the visitor's side of the stadium. One of the people involved was the dean of student affairs at William Paterson College (WPC). He had seen a fight about to take place between two hostile groups and interceded.

The dean was recognized by students from WPC and the groups were about to disperse when a WPC student jumped the dean from the side and began hitting him. The student, who was arrested, later said he did not recognize the man as being the dean. The student and the dean have signed complaints against each other.

At the Clove Rd. bridge, on Oct. 16 at 1:10 a.m., two males were observed holding up beer cans while soliciting passing cars. An officer in a patrol car saw them doing this and recognized one of the students as someone who had been arrested for drinking under age on Oct. 8. The student fled, but was found and later arrested for illegal consumption of alcohol and resisting arrest.

At 3:10 a.m. on Oct. 16, there was a report of a large fight in progress at the Clove Rd. apartments. All parties were separated when the officers arrived. The fight started as an altercation between three white and three black males.

Reportedly one black male grabbed at one of the white male's throats and that triggered a chain reaction that erupted in a big fight. The three white males wound up seriously hurt and were taken to the hospital for treatment. Approximately 150 people watched the fight as it took place.

On Oct. 15 at 3:10 a.m. in lot 29, an officer, while investigating another case, was approached by a victim of an aggravated assault. The victim claimed that he and his friend had gotten into a confrontation at a Clove Rd. party.

He and his friend were asked to leave, and as they did so they were followed out by a group of people at the party. One of the males in the group broke a beer bottle and cut the victim's face and continued to threaten him. The police are searching for the suspect who is a student of a Massachusetts college.

Top Model and Talent Management Company

Seeks the following:

Secretary/Recep.

Good organizer with personable manner. Enthusiastic with good secretarial skills who enjoys a busy and exciting work environment! Great hours: M-Thurs. 1 p.m.-9 p.m. (flexible during exams)
Saturdays 10 a.m.-3 p.m.
Salary- plus bonuses and benefits

Have you got the look?

Interviewing all types for TV, commercials, catalogues, trade shows, showroom, music videos, and talent showcases.

Now casting

376 Hollywood Blvd., Fairfield, NJ 07006
(201) 888-1234

Telemarketing/Sales

Self-motivated, enthusiastic people with good phone voice to book models, actors and entertainers for job openings. Exciting, dynamic work environment. Full training and rapid advancement-management mobility. We need people who want to make $25K 1st year. Commissions plus bonuses!
MSC's Institute for Critical Thinking will host a conference titled "Critical Thinking: Languages and Inquiry in the Disciplines," which will feature lectures in various areas of critical thinking and the languages of academic disciplines. The three day conference will present experts from all over the country who will be addressing topics such as: the languages of argumentation, languages of the media and of criticism in art and literature, inquiry, law, standardized testing, literacy, nonverbal contexts, critical reading and writing, language diversity and culture, critical pedagogy, collegiate pedagogy, and several others.

More than 50 papers, workshops and round table discussions will take place during the conference, and will include speakers from schools such as California State University at Sacramento, West Georgia College, University of New Orleans, NYU, University of Texas at Arlington, Hofstra University, and the University of San Diego.

Dr. George Petty of the English department is scheduled to give a lecture, titled "Critical Incipits: Invoking the Gods of Language."

The conference is scheduled to commence at 1:00 p.m. on Thur., Oct. 20, and will continue until Sat., Oct. 22, at 2:30 p.m. Contact Dr. Mark Weinstein or Dr. Tina Jacobowitz for further information at 893-5184.
Faculty union meets:
Concern over declining student enrollment

By Valerie Kalfrin
Staff writer

By 1990, MSC's full time enrollment may drop—on request by the college administration. These and other issues were discussed at the latest American Federation of Teachers, AFT—CIO, Local 1904 meeting at MSC on Oct. 12.

Catherine Becker, president of AFT Local 1904, calls the requested enrollment a "policy of decline", decided on by the college administration without consulting the faculty.

In her written report of Oct. 6, Becker quoted a table from the Department of Higher Education Budget Document FY 1990. According to the table, both MSC and Kean College requested and were recommended to admit fewer students in 1990 than their 1989 budgets allow. (In MSC's case, 281 fewer undergraduates and 25 fewer graduate students).

Other state colleges have projected slight increases in enrollment or no change from what the budget will allow.

Becker believes that MSC is becoming more academically selective, transforming into the "Trenton State" of North Jersey, with less academically able students going to William Paterson.

On the projected decline in enrollment, Becker said: "I think it's a mistake. We're sitting demographically in an area with poor and minority students. We'd be denying opportunities at a place that's a quality institution."

Becker added that the faculty had no say in the quality of the college. "This is not the way a traditional college government should operate," she said. "MSC has the best faculty in the state college chain. It's up to the college to market itself," Becker added. "The administration and its marketing efforts have not done a sufficient job in talking about our strengths—our faculty."

While Edward E. Martin, dean of students, admits he has not seen Becker's report, he maintained that the projected enrollment decline is in anticipation of the fewer number of students graduating from high schools over the past few years. MSC is the largest of the state colleges now. "The reduction in size is really not based on excluding people but admitting the same percentage of graduates," he explained. "Montclair has no desire to do any harm to any group of students. We are trying to continue student diversity."

"Montclair State is already a fairly academically selective institution. We have approximately 4000 applicants for 1000 spaces, a good number of Garden State scholars, and a respected honors program. There's no reason for us to move higher with the high quality students we now have," Martin said.

In addition to the future enrollment, the search for a new president of the college and the commission on promotions were discussed at the meeting.

Dr. Richard Lynde is currently the acting president of MSC. According to Becker, the position has not been advertised yet, but the selection process should take about six months once the search committee is assembled. Although the Board of Trustees controls the search committee, there are certain guidelines to make sure each sector of the college is equally represented.

The committee should be composed of five full-time faculty members (one from each school), one NTP/library, one alumna, two students, one dean, one staff person, one vice president, and one board member, with a faculty person as the chairperson.

Becker believes that the president is the "academic-business-political-social leader" of the college. In another report of Oct. 6, she stated the union's qualifications for the position of president. The union feels that the next president "must come from the academic ranks" and have "significant experience as a faculty member in higher education."

They require that the next president have the support of the faculty and be a "person of vision" to "inspire the faculty to new levels of academic excellence within the context of new challenges."

Another concern presented by Becker concerned tenure laws. They will be opened up for Legislative review, raising "the possibility of the elimination of tenure."

The commission plans to lengthen the probationary period for tenure from five to seven years "with automatic promotion to associate professor upon tenure", an idea Becker feels would make promoted professors "consigned forever to an associate rank," because of the planned outside review for those seeking full professorship.

Becker confirmed that the faculty had passed a motion supporting the bond issue with two reservations. The first dealt with the funding coming from student tuitions; the union felt it was the state's responsibility to handle the funding and that it was unfair to tax future students.

The second requested that the faculty would be consulted as to how these funds are spent in regard to the kinds, types, and functions of the buildings that are to be constructed.

HALLOWEEN
CARNATION SALE
MAKE SOMEONE'S DAY!
GREAT GIFT FOR
Friends, Family, Lovers, Roommates
DATE: MONDAY, OCTOBER 31
PLACE: STUDENT CENTER LOBBY
TIME: 9 A.M.-4 P.M.
Sponsored by the Computer Science Club, a Class Two of SQA

Typing
LOWEST PRICES
FASTEST SERVICE
OPEN 7 DAYS
RESUMES * REPORTS * THESES
ENGINEERING * MEDICAL * LEGAL
"WE TEACH LOTUS"
CAF WORD PROCESSING SERVICE
368-3934

A103
Art and reason

When Mark and I decided to spend the weekend at his mother's house, I never imagined I would be walking into a mouse's nightmare. There were cats everywhere.

Cat plaques, cat statues, car clocks, even a cat mat. I couldn't begin to duplicate her collection of kitty litter if I spent a year at a garage sale. Conspicuously absent, however, was a real cat. Strange, I thought, and began to fear that a weekend with cat woman could be a lot less than purr-fect.

But then she came home, and Mark introduced her. She was dressed surprisingly well—no leopard pants. In fact, you could say she was the cat's meow, but I'd rather not.

She offered me a cup of Dutch Chocolate Mint. Now that was something I could relate to. Then she brought it out in the most beautiful, distinctly Maine china I'd ever seen. As we sipped, I found out that Mrs. Campbell has my same weakness for chocolate, loves the theater as much as I do, but, incredibly, never saw "Cats." So Mark and I are taking her next month.

General Foods' International Coffees. Share the feeling.
College Life Union Board would like to congratulate the winners of Homecoming '88...

Homecoming King 1988 William Vogt
Homecoming Queen 1988 Alexis Oliphant
First Runner-up for King Randy Davenport
First Runner-up for Queen Julie Collins

Best Float Overall Homecoming 1988
Phi Chi Omega

Second Best Overall Float AND Most Enthusiastic
Tau Kappa Epsilon and Alpha Iota Chi

Third Best Overall Float
College Life Union Board

C.L.U.B. Would also like to pay special thanks to...
Tau Kappa Epsilon for all of your help
Joe Santorine for everything and more
Camille Bartlett for all of the hours and headaches
Russell Blackwell and Mike Sherrey for being the “Big Bouncers” and to everyone we overlooked...we couldn’t have done it without you!!!
Love, Kimmer and Jennifer

C.L.U.B. is a Class One of SGA

By Lynn M. Cowan
Editor-in-Chief

MSC has increased its support for the Jobs, Education and Competitiveness Bond Act, according to a special update from the Office of Public Information.

On Sept. 7, the Faculty Senate endorsed the bond issue and urged the support of the college community to work towards its passage.

Members of the college administration have continued a speaking tour on behalf of the bond issue, according to the update.

The SGA held a voter registration drive at the Student Center and in the residence halls, according to Maggie Cymbala, SGA director of public relations. The SGA legislature has been mobilized to inform the student body of the bond issue and its effect on the college community.

The SGA has also obtained 3,000 bond issue bumper stickers for distribution to students, Cymbala said.

The same bumper stickers have been distributed in the mail to campus employees, and brochures about the bond issue were enclosed in employees' paychecks, according to the special update.

If the bond issue is approved by voters on Nov. 8, the state will be authorized to sell $350 million in bonds to pay for rehabilitation and repairs to existing higher education facilities, construction of new education buildings and libraries, and the establishment of several high-tech centers throughout New Jersey, according to the update.

The institutions that receive funds from the bond issue must generate matching funds in order to qualify for the revenue.

At MSC, $15.7 million of the anticipated revenues will be used for the construction of a new 130,000-sq. ft. library building, which will free space for classroom expansion, according to the update.

The college also plans to construct a $1.3 million addition to the McEachern Music Building.

Other plans include a $1 million building to house the campus police and security staff and the central stores and receiving functions. A new campus access road into the north parking lot is also planned, which will cost $1.5 million.
EYE ON MSC
Compiled and photographed by Kevin C. Onorevole
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Sunday</th>
<th>Monday</th>
<th>Tuesday</th>
<th>Wednesday</th>
<th>Thursday</th>
<th>Friday</th>
<th>Saturday</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>LASO’s flag raising ceremony Student Center flagpole 11:15 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. LASO’s open banquet Student Center ballrooms noon Men’s soccer game—home 8:00 p.m.</td>
<td>Health professions’ Health Fair Student Center ballrooms 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. BSCU’s dance Student Center ballroom C 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.</td>
<td>Men’s soccer game—home 8:00 p.m. Board of Trustees meeting Student Center room 419 4:30 p.m.</td>
<td></td>
<td>Sigma Phi Rho party The Rathskeller 9:00 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. Varsity football game—Jersey City State 1:00 p.m.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6</td>
<td>CLUB movie Student Center Ballrooms A &amp; B 8:00 p.m. J.V. football game—home 7:30 p.m. LASO’s Latin mass Student Center Ballrooms 7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. Class One Concerts presents Physical Graffiti Memorial Auditorium 8:30 p.m.</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>Election Day</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>LASO’s debate with Gaedian Angels Student Center room 126 2:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. Health professions’ AIDS conference Student Center Ballrooms 8:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>11</td>
<td>12</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>HRO’s “The Weekend” Varsity football game—home 1:30 p.m. Men’s Cross Country NCAA regions—away LASO’s Latin Month dance Student Center Ballrooms 8:00 p.m. to 1:30 a.m.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>13</td>
<td></td>
<td>14</td>
<td>15</td>
<td>16</td>
<td>17</td>
<td>18</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Players present “The Lady and the Clarinet” Student Center room 126 8:00 p.m.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>HRO’s “The Weekend” Theta Kappa Chi’s annual toy drive Student Center information desk 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. LASO’s GOYA food sampling Student Center Ballrooms noon to 2:00 p.m.</td>
<td></td>
<td>Players present “The Lady and the Clarinet” Student Center room 126 8:00 p.m.</td>
<td>Players present “The Lady and the Clarinet” Student Center room 126 8:00 p.m. Gifted and talented assembly Student Center room 411 10:00 a.m. to noon</td>
<td>Marketing Club’s regional conference Penn State leaving at 1:30 p.m. Players present “The Lady and the Clarinet” Student Center room 126 2:15 p.m.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>20</td>
<td></td>
<td>21</td>
<td>22</td>
<td>23</td>
<td>24</td>
<td>25</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>BSCU’s Dance Ball Student Center Ballrooms</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Music Department’s concert Student Center Ballrooms 11:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.</td>
<td>Thanksgiving</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>27</td>
<td></td>
<td>28</td>
<td>29</td>
<td>30</td>
<td></td>
<td>26</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

On behalf of the Homecoming '88 committee, we would like to extend sincere thanks to everyone who helped make it “A memory for the days to come!!!”

The Committee
Tracey Srivala
Tracey Barrelli
David Harris
Stacy Royal
Corinne Shearer
Father Art Humphrey
Linda Loiacono
Lenore Koval
June Launay
Trude Wolfarth
Joseph Santorine
Tony Laurito
Jim Langham
Russell Blackwell
Rosemarie Savino

Also thanks to...
Dr. and Mrs. Walters as honorary Grand Marshalls
Joe McGinty
Bob Geiza
Tommy Mergola
Perry DelVecho
Ken Staples
Jon Benjamin
Diana Ramirez
Olandha Seldon
Greg Lockard
John O'Brien
Greg Weitzner-Kilroy
Dr. Edward Martin
Dr. Jean Armstrong
Kathleen Marchetti
Dr. James Harris
Marsha Young
Dr. Richard Lynde
Phil Calirre
Evelyn Walters
Flo Junda
Captain Valenti
Sergeant Amirault
Chief Pomponio
Candelario Zapata

Your Help Meant More Than You Can Ever Know!!!
Love, Jennifer and Kimmer

extra, extra special thanks to...
Joe Santorine
Camille Bartlett
Tau Kappa Epsilon
Alpha Phi Omega
Avis-rent-a-flatbed (ha, ha)

Siobhan O'Leary
Billy Cogan
Class One Concerts
Latin American Student Organization
Black Student Cooperative Union
La Campana
WMSC
Quarterly
Conservation Club
Student Intramural Leisure Council
The Montclarion
Val Helriegel
Alpha Phi Omega
MSC Cheerleaders
Caffone Printing
Stinky Pink Ink
Scalzetti Printing
Mr. Santorine
Ketty Toth
Dunkin' Donuts
Barbara Gallo
Dave Handal
Joe Haas
Rob Acerra
Ken Roberts, Albert Hopper, Inc.

C.L.U.B. is a Class One of the SGA
Attention Montclarion readers:

Due to a previous engagement, The Montclarion will not be published next week.

Just in case you’re interested, we (that’s seven editors and a treasurer) are flying down to Atlanta, Georgia. We’re attending the Associated Collegiate Press convention, and we intend to get a full night of sleep on Wednesday for a change (well, that really depends upon the nightlife).

So, don’t get nervous when you pick up a copy of the paper and you get a case of deja vu. It just means you picked up an old issue.

The Montclarion is a Class 1 Organization of the S6A
Bush vs. Dukakis:

Where do they stand?

It's hard to believe but the 18 months of babbles that has been called the 1988 election campaign is nearing the end. In three weeks voters must make the ultimate decision.

In a campaign where the issues have taken a back seat to name calling and dirt throwing, some may not be sure where each candidate stands on a given issue. The following information comes from: Candidate position papers, 1988 Democratic National Platform, 1988 Republican National Platform, The New York Times and The Washington Post.

On defense and foreign policy there are some major differences. Bush is in favor of ending nuclear weapons testing, Bush favors increased spending for S.D.I. while Dukakis does not. The same goes for the MX missile and the production of chemical weapons. Dukakis favors tougher economic sanctions against South Africa and no further military aid to the Contras, and Bush is in favor of both.

With the environment, both plan to ban ocean dumping by 1991, but Bush did support Reagan's veto of the Clean Water Act. Dukakis does not support new nuclear reactors until new safety measures are devised, while Bush supports them provided safety standards remain high.

In terms of the economy, Dukakis plans to reduce the deficit by improving tax enforcement while Bush plans a flexible freeze on spending. Both say they will not raise taxes but Dukakis would raise taxes as a last resort. Dukakis is also in favor of increasing the minimum wage to $4.55/hr. Bush does not favor the raise.

On the civil rights issues, Bush is in favor of a constitutional amendment prohibiting abortion, while Dukakis is not. Bush is not in favor of the Equal Rights Amendment, and Dukakis is.

Finally in terms of social issues, Dukakis favors federal assistance with child care, Bush favors tax credit for working parents. Dukakis feels parental leave should be guaranteed, while Bush feels it is up to the employer. Both favor increased student loans. Dukakis is in favor of guaranteed basic health insurance, and Bush is not.

While each candidate's position has a certain philosophy attached to it, hopefully this breakdown makes it a little easier for those who have not followed the campaign closely. In addition, it may spark students to seek more information about the candidates and their platform.

We can only hope voters' minds are made up by the candidates positions and not by personalities.

Goodbye Duke, hello President Bush

Even though it ain't over 'til it's over, sometimes it's so close to being over that it might as well be.

Goodbye Dukakis, hello President Bush.

If the debate Thursday was supposed to resuscitate Mike Dukakis' wiling presidential hopes, it failed. George Bush, I thought, turned him every way but loose. He was firm without being nasty, affable without being silly and confident without being smug. He was, in short, the best possible George Bush.

Not that Dukakis was so terrible; he was just ... well ... Dukakis. His main job in this debate was to show folks that he was not the heartless technocrat that some believe him to be, that he was a creature of blood and bile and emotion, just like the rest of us. The very first question did him in.

He was asked something to the effect: "If you came home one night to find your wife raped and murdered, your mother hanging on a meat hook and your dog fed into your snow blower, would you get mad?"

"No," Dukakis said. "I would call 911, the police emergency number. It's the best possible George Bush."

The problem with Dukakis is that he thinks being human is a weakness, which is fine if you're a parking meter but if you're running for president it's best to show you share some human frailties with the folks you seek to lead.

Dukakis showed the same lack of the common touch—or any touch, for that matter—when asked to name his contemporary heroes. "Joe DiMaggio," he might have said, then lowered the eyebrows of the audience as he explained his theory of "class" and how DImag epitomized it. He could have named any number of working class heroes; instead he ran off a list of occupations— cops, politicians, teachers, preachers. He sounded more like he was running for guidance counselor than president.

Bush, meanwhile, was picking a hero from every voting bloc he needed to win, ending with a paragon to President Reagan. At that point, the liberals in the room where I was watching the debate covered their eyes. We were afraid Bush would break out his straw hat and cane and do a cakewalk across the stage, singing "If You Like Me, Like I Like You."

Oh well, one thing you have to say for us liberals, we know how to lose with grace. It comes with practice. I suppose we should start getting our affairs in order, preparing ourselves for the Bush-(ugh)Quayle administration. It's Quayle that makes it hard. I could live with George Bush; there are even those who say he's a decent man, although he wouldn't know it from the campaign he's run. But why did he have to give us Dan Quayle, a baby-faced right-wing ideologue with intellectual acuity of a geranium?

I remember when, in a similar situation, Dwight Eisenhower raised the young Richard Nixon out of the mud and into our political life. He was there for the next 25 years. I fear we can expect no less from Dan Quayle. How could Bush have pulled such a dirty trick on us? Is it his idea of a practical joke, or what?

The other thing that makes Bush a particularly bitter pill is his relentless attacks on Dukakis' membership in the American Civil Liberties Union. It smacks of the southern politician who accused his opponent of being monogamous, even though married.

The strategy depends for its effectiveness on ignorant prejudice and, in depending on it, reinforces it. Bush knows that the ACLU isn't (ital) for (end ital) criminal and communists simply because they defend them in cases. The group has defended Nazis and John Birchers and anti-abortionists and Young Americans for Freedom, as well as Ollie North. It's the rights of these people that the ACLU defends and with them, our rights. Bush knows that; he must. His father, Prescott Bush, was one of the senators who led the censure of Joe McCarthy in the Senate. To act as Bush has acted shames his heritage.

Moderate Republicans (I would say "liberal" Republicans but I don't want anyone to swoon with shame) have always considered Bush one of their own. They are as dismayed as the rest of us at the campaign he has waged but they expect a return to his former self once he's in office. That's unlikely.

There's a saying in sports: You play like you practice. In politics, you govern as you campaign. George Bush will take office with a mandate for nothing except leading the nation in the Pledge of Allegiance.

For this we needed an 18-month campaign?
George wins the not-so-great debate

George Bush got off two memorable hits in the debate. And the first one had to be extemporized. Not even Roger Ailes could have prepped him to answer so offbeat a question: “Isn’t there something you can think of about Michael Dukakis that you can admire?”

His answer was a classic putdown. Waal, said Mr. Bush, yes. There is one thing I truly do admire about Mr. Dukakis, and that’s the way he has pushed his family up in front of the cameras and done everything he could to make them central to his campaign.

Pause. Now I have always myself thought of my family (said Mr. Bush pensively) as a kind of private oasis. But when I saw the prominence Mr. Dukakis gave to his own family at the convention in Atlanta and elsewhere, why, I thought to myself, why not? A family is a very important part of one’s life. So...I decided to do the same thing with my own family.

And did he ever. A Bush offspring registered the votes of individual delegations from a half-dozen states, before the Miss America of American mothers, all but accompanied her husband to the men’s room. It was a smashing answer, at once just faintly suggesting the vulgarity of familial ostentation while managing to say, oh so subtly: Mike, old shoe, anything you can do with your family, I can do better with mine. Oscar Wilde could not have managed it better.

His second triumph—and for this one he was almost surely rehearsed—was an answer to the charge that this has been a mortifyingly jejune public contest, with trivialities engaging the whole of the public’s attention. Isn’t it true, Mr. Bush, one had the feeling, who cheered. Mr. Dukakis’ partisans felt that he, too, had been the victim of the sensationalist-minded press, more interested in contumely than in substance. True, Mr. Bush has not delivered a Cooper Union address; but if tomorrow he delivered the Aporeagistics in his speech in Peoria, it is absolutely predictable that no one two blocks away would learn about it.

Oh, there were some crushing disappointments. Mr. Bush can’t wreak himself up into criticizing any of the wasteful programs in which Washington is permanently engaged. Most offensive of all was Mr. Bush’s scurrilous attack on the grain embargo imposed by President Carter when the Soviet Union began its genocidal invasion of Afghanistan. What Mr. Carter did was exactly correct. And it is a festerine sore on the public record of Ronald Reagan that he should have rescinded that embargo instead of intensifying it, while compensating the farmers for their contribution to a vital non-military sanction against the Soviet Union, which while waging an aggressive war, would seemingly be allowing itself to suffer from it. "Three cheers for our ‘Olympic Mess’"

To the editor:

I am writing in response to the article, “Olympic-Sized Mess,” in your Sept 29 issue. I disagree with many of the statements printed in this article.

First, the writer states that the coaches of the American boxing team were responsible for his lack of fairness. I disagree because we are not dealing with youngsters. I think the American should have made sure of the time himself.

Another statement, “We don’t have to look far to find the reason for Johnson’s motivation to cheat, after all everybody’s doing it.”

This is another reason for my disagreement. Not everybody’s cheating. The one’s that did were disqualified. The rules are tight and people stick to them. I think the writer could have stated it in a different way.

Kurt Youngs
New Milford
ART, DRAFTING & DESIGN STUDENTS

We have the Tools for your Success.

Bring your Back to School lists to Koening Art Emporium where you'll find everything you need from brushes, pads, paints, & T-squares to tables, lamps & chairs.

Koening ART EMPORIUM
Willowbrook Mall
Sears Wing
Discount with M.C. ID
Except Sale Items

Crafts Show Applications

The 1988 Crafts Show will be held on Thur., Dec. 1. Student participation is welcome in the show, as is staff and faculty input. This is a great opportunity for art majors or persons who have a craft-making hobby.

In the past, the show has featured hand-made jewelry and many other crafts. All suggestions are welcome.

Applications for the 1988 Crafts Show can be obtained from Vera Brenten, Russ Hall 106, or by calling 893-7374. The deadline for applications is Nov. 14. There is a table fee of $20.

Giuliano Pizzeria & Restaurant

GOURMET PIZZA PLUS

540 Valley Road Upper Montclair, N.J.
Phone 744-6606 - 744-5304
WE DELIVER
Last delivery at 10:30
We Sell Only Quality Food
traditional pizza
NO ARTIFICIAL FLAVORS

Giuliano Pizzeria & Restaurant

GOURMET PIZZA PLUS

540 Valley Road Upper Montclair, N.J.
Phone 744-6606 - 744-5304
WE DELIVER
Last delivery at 10:30
We Sell Only Quality Food
traditional pizza
NO ARTIFICIAL FLAVORS

C.L.U.B. Presents

Monday
October 24
7 p.m. and
9 p.m.

CHEM
DENNIS QUAIID

She's a lawyer who broke two laws of her profession.
Never get involved with a juror and don't look for clues in dangerous places.

Suspicion... Suspense...
SUSPENClI

One winner at each show will take home a theatre size poster!

$1.00 with I.D.
$1.50 without I.D.

C.L.U.B. is a Class One of SGA
50's musical shines with greased lightnin’

By Antoinette Doherty
Correspondent

The following review is from a dress rehearsal of the Mainstage Theatre Series production of Grease.

We've all seen the movie. Being in love, fighting, breaking up, making up, and, of course, rock and roll, that's what Jim Jacobs' and Warren Casey's musical Grease is all about. It's complete and total '50's-style fun.

Grease tells the love story of tough Danny Zuko and wholesome Sandy Dumbrowski, otherwise known as "Sandra Dee." Danny tries to win Sandy's love while still remaining true to his buddies, which naturally does not work.

Finally, both Danny and Sandy realize they can't go on that way, so they decide to make their relationship work, and end up together at the show's finale.

There's a continuity among the entire cast that gives the show an incredible energy. Celeste T. Russi, Beth Anne Zimmermann, Madelyn Chiusano, and Joy Trapani do a wonderful job as the "Pink Ladies" Jan, Marty, Frenchy, and Rizzo.

Peter J. Casbar, Peter Livecchi, Matthew DiLaura, and Tom Micia live up to their image as the "Burger Palace Boys" Doody, Roger, Squiggy, and Kenickie, respectively.

As Rizzo, Trapani reveals her tough character with conviction. Her rendition of "There Are Worse Things I Could Do" presented her vocal strength as well as her strong acting ability.

Deanna M. Jividen creates an innocent character in Sandy. Her voice is strong and clear making all of her numbers memorable.

Chris DeBari, as Danny, is in top "Greaser" form. His leather jacket can't cover the soft side Danny clumsily displays. His musical talents shine through in "Alone at a Drive-In Movie" and "All Choked Up."

Brian Shipper and Linda Walsh are amusing as Rydell High's awkward Eugene Florczyk and poms-pom queen Patty Simcox. Gina Millevoi (and her whistle) do a great job of keeping this group of rowdy teens in order as old-maid English teacher Miss Lynch.

"Shakin' at the High School Hop" would not be complete without Joe Dalo as D.J. Vince Fontaine, Stephen Bienskie as rocker Johnny Casino, and Kira Sonin as the "blind date" Cha-Cha Digregorio.

Gerry McIntyre, MSC alumni and cast member of Broadway's Anything Goes, choreographed the show. All numbers truly embodied the 1950's, most notably "Born to Hand Jive."

Bruce Goodrich, scenic and costume designer, floods the stage with giant blow-ups of Elvis and James Dean. A central unit of stairs and lockers was created to be the focal point for all of the action. The artistic set puts the audience in the 1950's mentality.

Direction and musical staging were exceptionally executed under the guidance of Tee Sorensrud, with musical direction by Eric Diamond.

Performances are October 20, 21, 22, 27, 28, 29, at 8 p.m., with matinees October 21 and 28 at 2:15 p.m. in the Memorial Auditorium.

Stray Cats reunite in tour and strut their stuff

By John Martucci
Staff Writer

I don't know if you've ever been to the Ritz before, but it is definitely an experience to take in, especially if you pick a night where the crowd is truly behind the band. I saw the Stray Cats this past Tue. night and they positively lit up the stage. That's right, the Stray Cats are back together, perhaps not the hottest news item, but certainly one of the hottest and refreshing bands of the decade.

A band called Lucky Seven opened up for them, and they were a good choice. They had powerful clean sound that was emphasized by some strong percussion and again the return of the accordian. They even got into some Cajun music, a la Buckwheat Zydeco. They were sort of a mild teaser for the Cats, and set the mood for the evening.

If you truly like this kind of rockabilly music, then you should find any of their albums jammed with great music. They opened up with two songs from what I assume is their first album, Gonna Ball. They only played four songs from their two most popular albums, N'Roll and Built For Speed, but no one seemed to care.

The Stray Cats are definitely a group that goes beyond the songs they play; to the type of music they play and how they treat musicians. They do. Doing new and old material between covers songs like "Something Else" at the end of the second and final encore, the group broke things up. It never seemed as though the concert ever reached any one peak, but a series of high points.

One of the best moments was when they did a song called "Rumble At The Ritz," which as you can deduce was written just for this kind of audience. As expected, their biggest hits, including "Stray Cat Strut" and "Rock This Town" received some of the biggest crowd reactions.

To the casual listener of music, the idea of a three piece band may sound a little sparse—forget it. The bassist, Lee Rocker, plays the traditional stand up bass, as opposed to an electric bass. His bass lines are plucked with such fervor, and power they resonated throughout our body. The bass didn't hamper him from getting around the stage either.

Lead vocalist, guitarist and principal songwriter Brian Setzer wasn't exactly bashful as Rizzo, Trapani reveals her tough character with conviction. Her rendition of "There Are Worse Things I Could Do" presented her vocal strength as well as her strong acting ability.

Deanna M. Jividen creates an innocent character in Sandy. Her voice is strong and clear making all of her numbers memorable.

Chris DeBari, as Danny, is in top "Greaser" form. His leather jacket can't cover the soft side Danny clumsily displays. His musical talents shine through in "Alone at a Drive-In Movie" and "All Choked Up." Brian Shipper and Linda Walsh are amusing as Rydell High's awkward Eugene Florczyk and poms-pom queen Patty Simcox. Gina Millevoi (and her whistle) do a great job of keeping this group of rowdy teens in order as old-maid English teacher Miss Lynch.

"Shakin' at the High School Hop" would not be complete without Joe Dalo as D.J. Vince Fontaine, Stephen Bienskie as rocker Johnny Casino, and Kira Sonin as the "blind date" Cha-Cha Digregorio.

Gerry McIntyre, MSC alumni and cast member of Broadway's Anything Goes, choreographed the show. All numbers truly embodied the 1950's, most notably "Born to Hand Jive."

Bruce Goodrich, scenic and costume designer, floods the stage with giant blow-ups of Elvis and James Dean. A central unit of stairs and lockers was created to be the focal point for all of the action. The artistic set puts the audience in the 1950's mentality.

Direction and musical staging were exceptionally executed under the guidance of Tee Sorensrud, with musical direction by Eric Diamond.

Performances are October 20, 21, 22, 27, 28, 29, at 8 p.m., with matinees October 21 and 28 at 2:15 p.m. in the Memorial Auditorium.

happenings

MTS series

The Mainstage Theatre Series opens its 1988-89 season with Grease. The production runs Thurs. through Sat. Oct. 20, 21, 22, 27, 28 and 29 at 8 p.m. in the Memorial Auditorium. Matinee performances are on Fri. Oct. 21 and 28 at 2 p.m.

Ticket prices are: standard $6; senior citizens, MSC faculty, staff and alumni $5; and students with valid ID $3. For more information call 893-5112.

Band to play Zeppelin tribute

"The Song Remains the Same" as Physical Graffiti, the Led Zeppelin tribute band, recreates the magic of the band's music Mon., Nov. 7 at 8:30 p.m. in the Memorial Auditorium. A high-tech laser light show is scheduled to accompany the concert.

Tickets are $5 standard and $3 with MSC ID. They go on sale Thurs., Oct. 27 for those with MSU, ID and Mon., Oct. 31 for all others from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Student Center Box Office across from the Book Store. For further information call Chris Rohloff, publicity chairperson, Class One Concerts, at 893-4478.

STS presents One-Acts

Three student directors will present an evening of one-act plays for the next production offered in the Studio Theatre Series' 1988-89 season. Included in the program is Ronald Elman's second production, The Who Hunted? The Hunted, directed by Ellen Byron, a new show to be produced at the Studio Theatre. There are no reservations accepted. The box office opens at 7:30 p.m. on the evening of the performance and seating is by general admission. Ticket prices are: standard $3; faculty, staff and senior citizens $2.50; MSC students with valid ID $2. For additional information call 893-5112.
New bands rock the Rat

By Raymond Ecke
Editorial Page Editor

Playing in a struggling unsigned band is one tough undertaking. For the amount of time and effort a band puts in, the payback can often be defeating.

On Tue., MSC played host to two very good unsigned bands, Faces in the Crowd and Cheshire Cats. Unfortunately, students didn’t take much notice.

Part of the problem may have been the Tue. night date. Regardless, both bands performed with considerable zeal and managed to please what promoters would call an “intimate” crowd.

Faces in the Crowd began around 9:15 p.m. in the Rathskellar and turned in the most exciting set of the two bands.

The five-member band that won the 1988 MTV Basement Tapes Award in September featured a female vocalist whose range and power was comparable to Pat Benatar.

Judging by the band’s exciting version of Benatar’s now classic “Promises in the Dark,” they were aware of the possible comparison.

Beyond comparison were their original songs. Songs like “Love Without Fiction” and “Right Here, Right Now,” were right on the mark with just the right amount of synthesizers and vocal harmonies to give them that 80s commercial sound.

Cheshire Cats, a fun, young, four-man band, sported a very English, college sound resembling a mixture of R.E.M. and Squeeze.

Though some of their songs were quite catchy, they all sounded a little too similar.

The Song Remains the Same

By Jarrett Nolan

Hello music fans and welcome to another edition of Nolan’s Notes. Now that UB40 has already made several extremely popular albums internationally, the band’s members say it’s time to straighten up and see if they’re really any good. UB40 has suddenly become very serious about the direction of their music, since their longtime friend and soundman Ray Falconer was killed in a car accident. Their self-titled album, on A&M, is intended as a tribute to Falconer. UB40 saxman Brian Travers says “everybody seems to be less silly and less flippant now...less self-indulgent.”

MINI NOTES: Kiss’ Gene Simmons formed his own record label recently and has announced that he is managing Liza Minnelli’s recording career. The results should be interesting. Prince’s “Kiss” is getting a make over by Art of Noise and Tom Jones—together...Van Halen has rested and is ready to pick up where the Monsters of Rock tour left off. They’ve already started in Kentucky in late September.

MINI NOTES II: Stevie Nicks goes into the studio this month in Los Angeles to record with producer Rupert Hine who has worked with Tina Turner. Before the end of the year, there will be a Fleetwood Mac “Best of...” and in 1989, they will record a new album. Where’s your “Lindsey”? From the “Is it me” file: Is it me of does Eric Carmen really need a haircut? And plastic surgery? And a real career? I dunno. The answer to last week’s question: UB40 got their name from the name of the unemployment forms in Britain, call UB40’s. This week’s question: What Queen song satirized opera? Think about it...until next week.
Attention

After Hour ID. Pick Up

1. The Student Center Information Desk is located on the second floor across from the revolving doors, phone extension 5329.
2. A staff member will issue your card after you sign a receipt for your Id.
3. The schedule for after hour Id. pick up will be Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays, from 5 pm to 8 pm and again on Saturdays, from 10 am to 12 noon.
comics

BLOOM COUNTY

By Berke Breathed

MOTHER GOOSE & GRIMM

By Mike Peters

SHOE

By Jeff MacNelly

GAG REFLEX

By John Paul
Personals

-TKE-I guess you won’t be needing a broom for your clean sweep?

-AIX-To the best sorority on campus. You guys are great! I hope to party with all of you soon.

-Pauline

-Jo and Vick-Thanks for a great weekend at home. I hope you need help paying your tolls on the Parkway, see me. -Jen

-Sher-balls-I can’t wait for Sale. Tim, you’re going to be the same. LuLu-Where are you?? I miss you!! Love-Jen

-Weekend at home. If you ever need help paying your tolls on the Parkway, see me. -Jen

-Trac, Vic, Sher, Jen, and Lu,- Frank-The “TKE Pirate Ship” is finally taking off! I think you’re thinking of something outrageous for our characters. Love ya, Alicia

-To the Alpha Pledge Class of Phi Sigma Sigma Congratulations! I can’t wait for you to become sisters. Thanks for the birthday gift! Love ya-Mom

-The Academy is proud to present this Oscar to Robert F. for best actor in his role in the Break Up”

-That’s pretty funny, I wish I had thought of that one!

-Dee, Christa, Tracy, Val, Mimi, Michele, Tony & Dave-Thanks for everything-you guys made Homecoming awesome! Love, Jennifer

-Ley Beans! Here’s your personal–how’s pledging? Shadow

-Beth, Tsa, Jocli, Michelle, and Jules: You guys pushed that damn ouija didn’t you? a confused fruit fly

-Jeff and Denise: “I’m glad you’re here, are you staying over? Oh Good! We can share. Tonight’s gonna be great. Love Elaine & Sheila XOXO

-Elaine–who are these guys you’re writing notes to, and why are they staying over? Share, please. Who else is staying over? Share, please–are you going to have a real friend. Don’t forget “Hungry”. No gum chewing! Much more studying to do-Luv ya.

—To Maria and Wendy, you guys are doing a great job. No one should be proud of you two. Jen

—Rich, Don, and Tom-Did you watch the Eagles soar on Monday? The giants did. Did you mention the METS?—Rich-Guess everyone will know who is King of Quarters. PZ #44

-Eddie-From now on, we’ll be party by my house. I’m looking forward to Dinner. The Belly Dancer

—Don-You can give me a headbutt anytime. AIX #41

—Sue-Who’s pirate hook were you trying to be caught on by Homecoming?

—CC1, Our weekend full of happiness and romance is getting closer. I LOVE YOU! 88-90

—SPGB—Here’s to many more Saturdays like the last one. We burned the “Midnight Oil” pretty late. Fun in the sun!!!

—To KTE AM’s Jack, Kurt and Dave: You guys are the greatest! Love, me.

-Jim-It’s great sharing a brain with you, but…you piss me off, kid

—Barbara-When will we have a party where nobody spills anything?

—AIX-TKE-Homecoming was awesome!! Most enthusiastic — Who else?

—Dearest CU—Get a real friend. Don’t forget “Hungry”. No gum chewing! Much more studying to do-Luv ya.

—Sue-Who’s pirate hook were you trying to be caught on by Homecoming?

—CC1, Our weekend full of happiness and romance is getting closer. I LOVE YOU! 88-90

—SPGB—Here’s to many more Saturdays like the last one. We burned the “Midnight Oil” pretty late. Fun in the sun!!!

—To KTE AM’s Jack, Kurt and Dave: You guys are the greatest! Love, me.

—Jim-It’s great sharing a brain with you, but…you piss me off, kid

—Barbara-When will we have a party where nobody spills anything?

—AIX-TKE-Homecoming was awesome!! Most enthusiastic — Who else?

—Dearest CU—Get a real friend. Don’t forget “Hungry”. No gum chewing! Much more studying to do-Luv ya.

—Sue-Who’s pirate hook were you trying to be caught on by Homecoming?

—CC1, Our weekend full of happiness and romance is getting closer. I LOVE YOU! 88-90

—SPGB—Here’s to many more Saturdays like the last one. We burned the “Midnight Oil” pretty late. Fun in the sun!!!

—To KTE AM’s Jack, Kurt and Dave: You guys are the greatest! Love, me.

—Jim-It’s great sharing a brain with you, but…you piss me off, kid

—Barbara-When will we have a party where nobody spills anything?

—AIX-TKE-Homecoming was awesome!! Most enthusiastic — Who else?

—Dearest CU—Get a real friend. Don’t forget “Hungry”. No gum chewing! Much more studying to do-Luv ya.

—Sue-Who’s pirate hook were you trying to be caught on by Homecoming?

—CC1, Our weekend full of happiness and romance is getting closer. I LOVE YOU! 88-90

—SPGB—Here’s to many more Saturdays like the last one. We burned the “Midnight Oil” pretty late. Fun in the sun!!!

—To KTE AM’s Jack, Kurt and Dave: You guys are the greatest! Love, me.

—Jim-It’s great sharing a brain with you, but…you piss me off, kid

—Barbara-When will we have a party where nobody spills anything?

—AIX-TKE-Homecoming was awesome!! Most enthusiastic — Who else?

—Dearest CU—Get a real friend. Don’t forget “Hungry”. No gum chewing! Much more studying to do-Luv ya.

—Sue-Who’s pirate hook were you trying to be caught on by Homecoming?
-To Ed, Mike, and Pierre-Good luck because you will need it.
- To Jo-El and Kerry—all of your help was not forgotten—your friendship alive. An old neighbor who cares.
-To the Closet Dancer— I'll never be your beast of burden!
-To the A.M.'s of T.K.E.—You gonna get you! CAT will have exactly 48 hours in which to clean (spontaneously) Apt. 303B. Start now or Hell Night will be Hell Night, Hell Master. PZ #36
-Muffy and Belinda: How's the ice routine. Can't wait for you in fresh comp—only 9 wks left. Love the Little Loser
-To the TKE with Status-Loved the ice routine. Can't wait for the next creative endeavor. Madonna
-Mike (TKE)-Shut up. You know who
-CLUB-WE MADE IT THROUGH HOMECOMING!! Can you believe it!! When do we start spring week? Tomorrow? You guys are the best and you know who you are. Dee
-To Dee-So glad we made it! Friends Forever! Love, Tracy B.
-To Kim, Jen, Christa, Dee, Tony, Tracey, Dave, Russ, Mike, Michelle, Billy, Kelly, and all of CLUB-I LOVE YOU!!! Love, Tracy B.
-Suzy-kim-So many men...So little time! Live a little. Dee
-Jo-Ei and Kerry—all of your help was not forgotten—your friendship and support for H.C. means more than just help, love ya, chief fuzzie
-Miss Cymbala: The only thing to get burned is the Duke when he goes down in flames on Election Day. Michael, official MSC Republican.
-Kris: Gee, my first personal! Thanks a million, sniff! Michael
-Becky-Stevie Wonder is deaf and doing well. He just likes to wear those shades.
-Mike—Don't worry, be happy! I'm beginning to think your last name is Tyson!
-To Leah: Miss you being across the hall! I hope to keep the friendship alive. An old neighbor who cares.
-FROSTY DOES WINDOW JUMPER AT SENATE PARTY
-Hey Chris D—Tammy do you go to Syracuse? Did you apply to Syracuse?—Miami? Do you believe in sex at 1st possible opportunity? Do you weigh at least 210 lbs?
-Colleen and Rodney—Happy late anniversary to the "perfect couple"! Love, D-Phi-E

-Whiner, Don't go outside; it's toooo coooloold...-Scumnuts #1 and 2.
-Ray, yes we are cousins thanks to our Doctor ancestor. Yes, I know that I am better known than you are. That isn't my fault, but I will now wear a "Ray is better" tee-shirt! Arthur
-Becky–Stevie Wonder is deaf and doing well. He just likes to wear those shades.
-Mike—Don't worry, be happy! I'm beginning to think your last name is Tyson!
-To Leah: Miss you being across the hall! I hope to keep the friendship alive. An old neighbor who cares.
-FROSTY DOES WINDOW JUMPER AT SENATE PARTY
-Hey Chris D—Tammy do you go to Syracuse? Did you apply to Syracuse?–Miami? Do you believe in sex at 1st possible opportunity? Do you weigh at least 210 lbs?
-Colleen and Rodney—Happy late anniversary to the "perfect couple"! Love, D-Phi-E

Washington, D.C.
Nov. 11, 12, 13
Accommodations are at Master Host Inn
-which is only 10 minutes from the city

Quad. $119.00
Triple $129.00
DbI. $139.00

-All includes transportation to and from the city, two night accommodates and two breakfasts...

For more information contact the C.L.U.B. office, Room 112D Student Center Annex, or 893-5232

C.L.U.B. is a Class One of SGA
Top Trenton, Ramapo
Boots unbeaten in last ten games

By Ian Saarmann and Bryan Morytko
Staff Writers

The MSC soccer team rolled to a 4-0 victory over Trenton St. at Sprague field on Wednesday night to keep it's unbeaten streak alive. The Indians have not lost in their last ten games as they raised their record to 11-2-3.

Freshman Gus Maromarco opened up the scoring at 4:42 of the first half. The rest of the half was a defensive struggle as the Indians took a 1-0 lead into the lockerroom.

The game opened up in the second half as the Indians poured in three goals. Kevin Pladl scored his seventh goal of the season at 63:33. The play started at midfield with Charlie Smith serving the ball down the right wing to Scott Logan. Logan beat the goalie to the ball and crossed it to a sprinting Pladl who stuffed the ball into the goal for the game. Jim Stahl followed with his 8th goal of the season for the Indians.

MSC 4 - Ramapo 0

Freshman Kevin Pladl scored two goals as the Indians downed Ramapo, 4-1, in an NJAC matchup Saturday.

The victory stretched the MSC unbeaten streak to nine games, and improved its overall record to 10-2-3.

For Co-captain Rob Chesney and forward Sean Mara also scored for the Indians, who limited the Roadrunners to just one shot on goal for the game. Jim Stahl played well in goal for the Indians.

Top Trenton, Ramapo
Booters unbeaten in last ten games

By Ian Saarmann and Bryan Morytko
Staff Writers

The MSC soccer team rolled to a 4-0 victory over Trenton St. at Sprague field on Wednesday night to keep it's unbeaten streak alive. The Indians have not lost in their last ten games as they raised their record to 11-2-3.

Freshman Gus Maromarco opened up the scoring at 4:42 of the first half. The rest of the half was a defensive struggle as the Indians took a 1-0 lead into the lockerroom.

The game opened up in the second half as the Indians poured in three goals. Kevin Pladl scored his seventh goal of the season at 63:33. The play started at midfield with Charlie Smith serving the ball down the right wing to Scott Logan. Logan beat the goalie to the ball and crossed it to a sprinting Pladl who stuffed the ball into the goal for the game. Jim Stahl followed with his 8th goal of the season for the Indians.

MSC 4 - Ramapo 0

Freshman Kevin Pladl scored two goals as the Indians downed Ramapo, 4-1, in an NJAC matchup Saturday.

The victory stretched the MSC unbeaten streak to nine games, and improved its overall record to 10-2-3.

Co-captain Rob Chesney and forward Sean Mara also scored for the Indians, who limited the Roadrunners to just one shot on goal for the game. Jim Stahl played well in goal for the Indians.
NJAC football standings

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Team</th>
<th>Conference Record</th>
<th>Overall Record</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>MSC</td>
<td>3-0</td>
<td>5-1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Trenton St.</td>
<td>2-0</td>
<td>5-1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Kean</td>
<td>2-2</td>
<td>3-3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ramapo</td>
<td>2-2</td>
<td>4-2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Glassboro St.</td>
<td>1-2</td>
<td>2-4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>William Paterson</td>
<td>1-2</td>
<td>2-4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Jersey City St.</td>
<td>0-3</td>
<td>1-5</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Last week's results:
- MSC 30, William Paterson 3
- Trenton St. 31, Pace 3
- Kean 30, Jersey City St. 14
- Ramapo 21, Glassboro St. 16

Friday's games
- Jersey City St. at Trenton St.
- Ramapo at William Paterson
- Wesley at Glassboro

Saturday's games
- MSC at Salisbury St.
- Kean at Alfred

Eye nationals

Harriers capture Jersey City meet

By Tracy Anderson
Staff Writer

Preparation for the national championships are looking good for the lady Indians, who put on another impressive display running this past weekend at the Jersey City Invitational.

Sweeping the first five positions, the Indians defeated Jersey City, Georgian Court and Rutgers Saturday.

“The girls ran consistently and were together, pushing each other, all the way,” said head coach John Blanton.

Rosa Domingues ran in first position with a time of 18:45, followed by Patty Anderson, Jill Robertson and Bernadette Rosa Domingues ran in first position with a time of 18:45, followed by Patty Anderson, Jill Robertson and Bernadette

The NCAA Nationals are a very important challenge. “This game is important. We need to win one game at a time, until we get to the National Championship.”

By Mary Carlonagno
Staff Writer

Senior Tony Colasurdo believes in the philosophy, “If you want something bad enough, you can get it.”

Apparently this philosophy works for Colasurdo, because during Saturday’s game against William Paterson, he broke the MSC record for the longest field goal—twice.

The original MSC record, set by Dan Rodgers in 1967, was 48 yards. Colasurdo edged the record by kicking a 49-yard field goal, only to break it six minutes later with a 50-yard kick.

Colasurdo came to the Indians four years ago and has been the starting kicker ever since. Even though Colasurdo had never kicked before coming to MSC, he stated, “I always knew I could kick.”

Now, Colasurdo is fourth in the area for scoring. He’s made eight out of ten field goals, and sixteen out of seventeen points after touchdowns. Although these statistics are impressive, Colasurdo claims his play is “only satisfactory.”

“I’ve missed three field goals within forty yards,” he explained. “The Montclair Indians have given me the opportunity to play. I feel even if I don’t do well, the team can still do well, but it’s better when everyone is clicking.”

As for the MSC kicking record, Colasurdo was hoping to break it sometime this season. After starting for four years at the same position, he believes that he’s been able to “be consistent” because the offense enables him to kick extra points.

“I’m just one operation of a very talented team, which is consistently putting me in position for field goals,” he said. Colasurdo attributes much of the team’s success to experience and unity. He commented, “This team has very talented athletes, who are a lot of fun to play with.”

The veteran team affords a talented kicker a chance to perform. Colasurdo said, “We have a scoring opportunity anywhere inside the thirty-five yard line.”

Experience, depth, and an insatiable appetite for winning is the backbone of the ‘88 Indians. Colasurdo explains his function, “A lot of pressure is taken off of me because of the unique talent and experience of our team.”

He feels that the Indians “should win every game left. This game was a very important win, because everything really came together, especially emotionally. I want to help the team make it to the play-offs, the best way I can.”

So far the best way Colasurdo can help the team is by continuing to be one of the areas leading scorers. His philosophy of wanting something bad enough has proven itself to be a winning one.

Next week’s Salisbury State game will be the Indians upcoming challenge. “This game is important. We need to win one game at a time, until we get to the National Championship.”

With “confidence and determination” Colasurdo feels this task if “wanted bad enough, will be accomplished.”

Montclair Athlete of the Week

Colasurdo ‘gets his kicks’ at the most opportune times

Photo by Kevin O’Donnell
The Montclarion/Thursday, October 20, 1988

A smorgasbord of sports shorts

By Kenny Peck

Odds and Ends  The infamous Vic Mizzone vs. MSC case that was erroneously reported as dead is very much alive. For those of you unaware of the situation, Mizzone, the former track coach at MSC, has filed a suit against the school, charging reverse discrimination. Mizzone brought his case to Civil Court and is currently preparing to take the case to Superior Court...That was a great crowd on hand Saturday at the Homecoming game. It will be interesting to see how many people show up for the Trenton State game next week, which will likely decide the conference champion...Despite some problems for the team in the past, I have a good feeling about the MSC basketball team this year...Jay Howell would be better off corkscrewing bats or something if that pitch to Mark McGwire Tuesday night hadn't pine tar on it...Are the Jets that bad, or are the Bills that good?...Look for MSC alumnus Leander Knight in this Sunday's Giants-Falcons game. Knight, who played for the Indians between 1984-86, is a defensive back for the Falcons...If you use your imagination, you could probably envision the Giants as being undefeated were it not for just two plays— the Montana to Rice bomb, and the Bavaro drop against the Eagles, which may have cost them the game. Then again, that's why if is the biggest word in the dictionary...Not a whole lot of people wearing Met hats anymore. The bandwagon has rolled to a complete stop...The Rangers, floundering once again, give the word "frustration" a new meaning. I mean, how long are we going to wait?...Here comes basketball season, and with it, more high expectations for the Knicks. For some reason, we fall for it every year, and every year, we are disappointed. But this season is going to be different. They're going to do it this year. I just know it. Well, this is the last year I'm going to say it. Let's hope it's true this time...The Nets, on the other hand, are not going to do anything but fish come playoff time. Again.

At the Meadowlands  Hips OK lacked room in his latest, and wouldn't be a surprise if he won his next start. Laser King was forced toward the rail and lost all chance. Looms Boldly was on a dead rail the entire race last week. Bucks Like A Bunny was off slowly. Last week's selections: Two Pence ran fourth; Turbo Prop ran ninth; Alysheba won, paying $3.00.

Trivia Time-Out

Each week, The Montclarion publishes a list of sports questions and answers to test your knowledge of sports trivia. In addition, there is a sports stumper which will be answered in the following issue. If you think you have the correct answer to the stumper, drop it off at The Montclarion office in Room 113 of the Student Center Annex. The names of those submitting the correct answer will be published in the next week's issue. Deadline for submissions is Monday at 3 p.m.

1. What is the nickname of the Brigham Young football squad?
2. What was the nickname of the Orlando team in the Continental Football League?
3. What NHL team's nickname comes first in an alphabetical list?
4. Who is baseball's Old Roman?
5. What city briefly boasted a major league team named the Blue Jays in the 1940's?

Answer to last week's stumper:
What University of Cincinnati guard, later with the Pacers and Celtics, is the only man to play for NCAA, NBA and ABA champion teams? Tom Thacker.

Submiting the correct answer was:
The fabulous Bill Judge and family.

This week's stumper:
What driver, seeking his third straight Indianapolis 500 title, died in a pileup while in the lead on the 57th lap in 1955?

Salisbury St. preview
Which SSC squad will MSC face?

By Kenny Peck
Sports Editor

The Indians, in search of their third straight win, will try to continue their winning ways when they take on Salisbury State Saturday afternoon in Maryland.

MSC is coming off a victory over conference rival William Paterson, while the Sea Gulls (4-2) blew out Wesley College last week by a 75-6 score.

Last season, MSC came back from a 22-6 deficit and won 30-22, as Ed Baffige tossed two second half touchdown passes to John Fiore to ignite the Indians.

One question that will be answered Saturday is: which Salisbury State team will show up? The team that had 663 total yards last week? Or the team that lost 33-20 to Glassboro State two weeks ago?

The Sea Gull offense is the main concern for MSC. The receiving corps is made up mostly of returning veterans. Juniors Brian Patterson and Kevin Roberts head that bunch.

The Sea Gull defense has many new faces, as the team lost seven starters from last year's team.

Indian quarterback Ed Baffige looks for a receiver downfield during MSC's 30-3 win over William Paterson Saturday at Sprague Field. This week, the Indians will take on Salisbury State in Maryland.
MSC placekicker Tony Colasurdo follows through on his record-breaking 50-yard field goal Saturday. The senior kicked a 49-yarder earlier in the game to set a school record, but broke it with this kick just six minutes later. Colasurdo booted three field goals on the day. MSC won, 30-3, in front of a Homecoming crowd at Sprague Field. For the story, see below.

Colasurdo sets school mark
Indians top William Paterson, 30-3

By Kenny Peck
Sports Editor

MSC's Tony Colasurdo kicked three field goals, including a school record 50-yarder, to lead the Indians to a 30-3 Homecoming win over William Paterson in a New Jersey Athletic Conference (NJAC) matchup Saturday at Sprague Field.

The old mark of 48 yards, set by Dan Rodgers in 1967, was broken by Colasurdo as he nailed a 49-yard field goal with 6:48 left in the first half. The senior then shattered his own record with a 50-yarder about six minutes later.

MSC controlled the game from start to finish, as an Ed Baffige pass to Troy Bowers on just the seventh MSC play from scrimmage gave the Indians a 7-0 first quarter lead.

The lead grew to 20-3 at halftime on the strength of a 19-yard strike from Baffige to Jeff McGregor and Colasurdo's record-breaking kicks. Baffige finished the day 18-31 for 213 yards and two touchdowns.

Colasurdo added his third field goal of the game and Mike Codella scored his fifth touchdown of the season in the third quarter to close out the scoring.

The MSC defense sparkled once again, as they held the Pioneers to only 145 yards of total offense. The Indians, on the other hand, rolled up 485 total yards.

Junior Mike Murphy led the defensive charge with ten tackles, three sacks and a fumble recovery. Len Kruk and Paul Cioffi also had ten sacks for the Indians, while junior George Irwin registered an interception.

With the victory, MSC improved its overall record against William Paterson to 17-0-1 and its current conference record to 3-0. William Paterson fell to 1-2 in the NJAC.

The Indians travel to Salisbury State Saturday while the Pioneers host Ramapo tomorrow night.

Indian Info: Irwin suffered a severely sprained right ankle against William Paterson and may be out for close to three weeks. He may come back for the final regular season game against Glassboro...