Concessions agreed upon:

BSCU is granted name change

By Maureen McGuire
Assistant Assignment Editor

The SGA legislature voted to approve the bill changing BSCU's name to the Organization of Students for African Unity (OSAU) in a nearly unanimous vote Wednesday night. The vote was 35-0 with 0 abstaining.

The original bill simply changes the organization’s name. However, amendments were added last Friday in a meeting with the SGA Constitutional Review Committee. The first amendment states that OSAU must write an open letter in The Montclarion to explain why the organization changed its name and state that it is open to all MSC students.

Also, OSAU will rename its minority student affairs committee to “African Awareness Committee,” which will organize and conduct an educational forum each semester. According to Tom Czerniecki, SGA vice president, the forum is intended as an opportunity for students in general to find out about the African and African-American civilization.

During the two and a half hour debate of the name change at the SGA meeting, James Harris, dean of students, gave the history of BSCU since its beginnings in 1964. He said that the organization was originally started after the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

This was a time, he said, “when students all over the country demanded more African-American organizations, more African-American studies and more African-American students. MSC’s students responded and formed the Black Organization for Success and Society (BOSS).”

Dean Harris also said that now the press refers to blacks as African-Americans because it is a reflexion of things in time. His presentation was followed by several comments from the BSCU executive board, general members and two faculty advisors.

President Adrienne Woods said, “Let’s end this perception cont. on p. 5

---

Open Air Forum comes to MSC from Ramapo

By John P. Navarro
Managing Editor

For any student or faculty member at MSC with an opinion to air last week, the Student Center mall was the place to be. The SGA held its first free speech forum there on Thursday, Sept. 28, from 2:00 until 3:15.

The free speech forum is a place where students can voice their opinions and thoughts about any subject, in an uncensored environment. Chuck Feiner, director of student activities, brought the idea to MSC from Ramapo College, where such forums were held quite often and were a tremendous success.

“The idea of having an open free speech forum is something all liberal colleges should have,” said Tom Czerniecki, SGA vice president. “Events like this help keep the spirit of open communication, which is important to the SGA.”

Mary Jane Linnehan, SGA President, said that she believes free speech forums are extremely beneficial. “It gives all students an equal opportunity to voice their opinions,” she said.

Linnehan added that events like this one also help the SGA see what type of issues and concerns the students have on their minds. “The SGA is funded by student fees and if we can’t address issues that the students are concerned about, we aren’t doing our jobs,” said Czerniecki.

When the microphones were turned over to the students, it took a while for participation to begin. Students spoke about subjects like the need for better parking, a new alcohol policy at MSC, fraternities, the cost of textbooks, and various other topics.

After the forum, freshman Anita Sanders said, “It wasn’t that I was afraid to speak, it was just that I didn’t know what to say.”

David Cohen, a sophomore and treasurer of The College Life Union Board, said, “It was basically a good idea and I hope that in the future there will be more participation from students and faculty alike.”

Although student involvement lacked at points, Czerniecki said, “It was still a tremendous success.” As for future open air forums, Linnehan said, “This method of outreach to the students by the students went over so well that I would like to see the SGA sponsor them every other week.”

The next official date is Oct. 12 at 2 p.m. in the Student Center Mall.

---

Inside The Montclarion...

Students still displaced by Clove Road fire .................................. p. 2

MSC reacts to its new mascot .................................................... p. 6

Andy Rooney debuts in the editorial pages ................................ p. 11

Comedian Bob Nelson’s show is reviewed .................................... p. 15
Students still displaced by Clove Road fire

By Ken Saviet
Correspondent

Twenty-eight students assigned to the Clove Rd. Apts. will remain displaced until next semester due to an Aug. 23 fire, according to Douglas Cooper, Residence Life assistant director, who manages all MSC residence buildings.

Cooper called the fire a "catastrophe," saying he "feels deeply" for anyone deprived of Clove Road accommodations. Three of them arranged to "triple" in other Clove Rd. units and 25 now live in residence halls on campus.

Cooper said repairs to the Clove Road apartments have progressed rapidly over the past few weeks following the fire caused by a faulty exhaust fan. The buildings were deserted during the blaze but extensive damage did occur in 15 apartments.

Six units gutted by fire, Apts. 102 and 103 A, B and C, remain to be fixed. Cooper said he awaits settlement figures from Aetna Insurance Co.

The Montclarion/Thursday, October 5, 1989

We Need Your Help In Naming
The New
On Campus Convenience Store

Fill out the form below and drop it off at convenience store located next to The College Store, Lower Level Student Center Bldg. Contest is open to all Students, Faculty and Staff of MSC.

The contest will end on Oct. 13th. The name, and winner, will be announced in the Montclarion.

Submit as many names as you wish. If the name you submit is chosen by our committee, you will win $50.00. Ties, for the same name, will be broken by a random drawing.*

Name
Phone
I suggest you call the store

*The committee reserves the right not to choose any of the names submitted.
Brothers of Phi Beta Sigma say “It’s Time”

“Smoker”

Calling All
College
Students

Make extra money without interfering with your class schedule, part-time job, or leisure time.

Sound impossible? Well, it isn’t!

Participate in consumer product testing. Each visit during a product “patch” test series takes just minutes. Stop in at the clinic at your convenience. Earn an average of $65 per study—sometimes more! It’s an easy way of earning extra cash for the things you want.

Call TODAY to find out all about it!

Clifton
473-8991
716 Broad St.

Verona
857-9541
799 Bloomfield Ave.

Butler
492-8552
1200 Rt. 23 No.

Essex Testing Clinic, Inc.

HAVE YOUR WORKS

Literary and Artistic

Published in the FOUR WALLS

deadline OCT. 13 deadline OCT. 13 deadline OCT. 13 deadline

Bring your “‘stuff’” to Rm. 113A in the Student Center
Quarterly is a Class I of the SGA
Conservation Club and students observe whales on annual trip

By John P. Navarro
Managing Editor

Twelve members of the Conservation Club and 25 MSC students traveled six hours to Gloucester, Mass., last weekend to observe whales in their natural habitat.

The annual trip, which was originally planned for Sept. 23, was postponed to Saturday, Sept. 30, to avoid hurricane Hugo.

Chris Muzz, vice president of the Conservation Club, said the trip was a success. "Despite this year's postponement... people's attitudes toward the trip were great," he said.

According to Muzz, many students were afraid that the six hour drive up to Mass. would not be worthwhile because at this time of year most whales have migrated to the Caribbean for winter. "Had we gone up in mid-September, we could have possibly seen 20 to 30 whales," he said.

What the 37 MSC students did see was a 25-foot male humpback whale. The humpback whale's population worldwide is estimated at between 10,000 and 15,000. They are known for their distinctive hump in front of their dorsal (uppermost) fin and are easily recognized by the long pectoral (side) fins that extend one-third the length of their body.

"The whale was not as active as (humpbacks typically are), but for people who have never been on a whale watch, it was truly a unique experience," Muzz said.

An advantage to going on this particular trip was that the boat came complete with a Gloucester naturalist, who supplied many interesting facts about whales and marine life in general. The whale surfaced several times, exposing both its entire body and tail fin. The also saw the whale feeding on a mass schooling fish.

The Conservation Club is hoping that with this year's success and enthusiasm, they make next year's watch two days long, avoiding the twelve hours of driving in one day.

What the 37 MSC students did see was a 25-foot male humpback whale. The humpback whale's population worldwide is estimated at between 10,000 and 15,000. They are known for their distinctive hump in front of their dorsal (uppermost) fin and are easily recognized by the long pectoral (side) fins that extend one-third the length of their body.

"The whale was not as active as (humpbacks typically are), but for people who have never been on a whale watch, it was truly a unique experience," Muzz said.

An advantage to going on this particular trip was that the boat came complete with a Gloucester naturalist, who supplied many interesting facts about whales and marine life in general. The whale surfaced several times, exposing both its entire body and tail fin. The also saw the whale feeding on a mass schooling fish.

The Conservation Club is hoping that with this year's success and enthusiasm, they make next year's watch two days long, avoiding the twelve hours of driving in one day.

By John P. Navarro
Managing Editor

Twelve members of the Conservation Club and 25 MSC students traveled six hours to Gloucester, Mass., last weekend to observe whales in their natural habitat.

The annual trip, which was originally planned for Sept. 23, was postponed to Saturday, Sept. 30, to avoid hurricane Hugo.

Chris Muzz, vice president of the Conservation Club, said the trip was a success. "Despite this year's postponement... people's attitudes toward the trip were great," he said.

According to Muzz, many students were afraid that the six hour drive up to Mass. would not be worthwhile because at this time of year most whales have migrated to the Caribbean for winter. "Had we gone up in mid-September, we could have possibly seen 20 to 30 whales," he said.

What the 37 MSC students did see was a 25-foot male humpback whale. The humpback whale's population worldwide is estimated at between 10,000 and 15,000. They are known for their distinctive hump in front of their dorsal (uppermost) fin and are easily recognized by the long pectoral (side) fins that extend one-third the length of their body.

"The whale was not as active as (humpbacks typically are), but for people who have never been on a whale watch, it was truly a unique experience," Muzz said.

An advantage to going on this particular trip was that the boat came complete with a Gloucester naturalist, who supplied many interesting facts about whales and marine life in general. The whale surfaced several times, exposing both its entire body and tail fin. The also saw the whale feeding on a mass schooling fish.

The Conservation Club is hoping that with this year's success and enthusiasm, they make next year's watch two days long, avoiding the twelve hours of driving in one day.
Around the world in 18 days

MSC Students and a limited number of non-students have an opportunity to visit Hong Kong, Tahiti, New Zealand and Australia on a trip arranged by Ellen Mohammed of the fine arts department. This tour is a study of art, architecture and sculpture, for which students can earn three graduate credits. The trip is from December 26 to January 13, 1990. Mohammed will guide participants through a wide variety of cultures of Hong Kong, the South Pacific, Tahiti, New Zealand and Australia.

Credit is transferrable. The tour costs $2,999 and includes round trip air fare from New York to Hong Kong, Tahiti, New Zealand and Australia; hotel and meals. Further information is available from Ellen Mohammed at (201)993-7283, 893-4307, or by calling (718) 778-9417 or at her office in Calcila Room 217.

Computer training workshops

A fall series of one- and two-day computer training workshops will be held at Data Quest Systems' Computing Training Center in Fairfield, NJ, in conjunction with MSC's Center for Continuing Education. Some courses have already begun and others will start soon and continue through December.

The series of "hands-on" workshops includes a repeat of the most popular computer courses offered through the Center, such as "PC Fundamentals." It introduces instruction on such state-of-the-art software programs as "WordPerfect 5.0" and "dBase III—IV." Among the many workshops offered are: "Using Lotus 1-2-3," "Freelance Plus," "Microsoft Word," "The Power of Paradox," and "Harvard Graphics."

Through the wide offering of courses, participants will learn how the latest generation of computer software can make word processing, information storage, retrieval, and spreadsheet calculations fast and efficient procedures.

Cost is $150 for one workshop or $285 for two. Discounts are offered for two or more participants from the same agency or institution.

Participants also will receive certificates for 0.6 Continuing Education Units per workshop. The CEU is a nationally recognized measure of successful completion of a non-credit course.

More information on CEUs is available from Dr. Richard Taubald at MSC's Center for Continuing Education, (201)893-5154.

Registration information is available from Data Quest at (800) 359-2065.

BSCU name change

Cont. from p. 1

that this organization excludes non-Afro-Americans.

Changing our name will free other students to join.

"BSCU is one of the most active members of the SGA," said Professor Leslie Wilson of the history department, one of the organization's advisors. "It's a shame it has to appeal for a name change."

Coach John Blanton, another advisor said he could describe how serious the organization was in three words: all, here, now. "We want all of the name change, here is the place we want it, we're not talking about some other school, and we want it now, we won't wait another year," he said.

Two students who are originally from African nations said that the new name would sound more inviting and open than a name with the word 'black' in it.

After these comments, Legislator Jonathan Rothman called for a legislative session to discuss things informally for those legislators who weren't informed about the name change. He explained that there would be no vote during this time but that anyone who was not a legislator would have to leave the room unless he/she was invited to stay. This session would last for 16 and a half minutes. The motion was passed by the legislature and everyone had to leave the room.

Adrienne Woods said that at Friday's Constitutional Review meeting she was informed that this would probably happen, yet the SGA people said they were going to do it before BSCU members got there so they wouldn't have to leave. "They also said that Dean Harris would be allowed to stay, but they made him leave."

"This kind of movement makes you not want to trust them," said Kevin Scretchin, a BSCU member. "It's like going to class without books. The legislators should be informed, they should know their job. They shouldn't have to have this issue explained to them now."

After everyone was let back into the SGA meeting, the legislature and members of BSCU debated whether or not the new name was political, the difference between the words "unity" and "awareness," the issue of race on campus, and the difference between the words "African-American Students" and "Organization of Students."

SGA President Mary Jane Linnehan gave a final overview of the issue before the vote was taken.

Legislator Rothman made a motion to vote by secret ballot but it failed.

After the victory for OSAU, Woods said, "We're happy that it's finally over and now we can get back to real business. One of our goals this year will be to address the issue of racial issues on campus. The name change is just the first step in doing that. I personally invite every single student to any OSAU meetings. We'll see how many actually come."

"I'm pleased with the decision in the change of name and I'd like to commend Tom and Mary Jane for their efforts to make this possible," said professor Wilson. "However, I am thoroughly displeased with the actions and comments of numerous SGA legislators."
features

A mascot by any other name...

MSC reacts to the Red-Tailed Hawk

By Jeanine Rybeck
Correspondent

What's red and white at MSC? Depending on whom you talk to, one of two things come to mind.

The nickname representing MSC athletics was changed slightly over two months ago by the Intercollegiate Athletics Committee at the college after American Indians on the east coast found Montclair Indians offensive.

Yet an initial question is still at hand — was the switch from the Indians to the Red-Tailed Hawks really necessary?

Although most students at MSC have been receptive of the new mascot, they do not see any reason for abandoning the old one.

"I think it's a good change," said Russel Blackwell, captain of the cheerleading squad, who is part Indian himself. "Even though I did not find the previous name offensive, I've noticed an increased amount of interest in the athletic program since the publicity about the new mascot."

When asked about the general attitude of the cheerleading squad toward the name change, The general consensus seems to agree. One student described a school mascot as "not something one thinks about enough to consider offensive."

Jim Hanon, a senior, felt the name change was ludicrous. "Indians is just the name of a team. If everyone thought the same as the members of the Intercollegiate Athletics Committee, there would be no Washington Redskins, Cleveland Indians, or even Dallas Cowboys. Think about how ridiculous that is."

While some students are still having mixed feelings about the change, college president Irvin Reid continues to support it wholeheartedly. "I definitely feel the nickname Indians is offensive. It represents a stereotyped image that the American Indians do not want themselves associated with. The change was a foresight of the campus — a display of fortitude, of strength," he said.

Reid also described the Red-Tailed Hawk as a "unifying theme, an emblem that can be identified with by all and is not offensive to anyone."

Reid added that he hadn't witnessed any evidence of excessive racial tension on campus that might have prompted the mascot change. However, he allowed for opposing viewpoints.

"Where there are people of different backgrounds, race, or class, there is bound to be a difference of opinion," he said.

"College is a forum where these differences can be reduced and problems can be solved."

Was our former nickname a problem? Was it offensive? Opinions range far and wide, but students can get their first look at the new mascot this Saturday during the homecoming parade. Maybe once the Hawk has made an entrance as Grand Marshall of the parade and appears on the field, the idea will really take off.

Just a reminder...

The MSC homecoming parade through the streets of Montclair begins at 2:00 p.m. this Saturday, Oct 7, followed by the game against Kean at 8:00 p.m. at Sprague Field.

Fall Fest '89

Students took part in Fall Fest '89, a homecoming celebration on Wednesday, October 4, from 11 a.m.-3 p.m. which featured a disc jockey and several prizes and activities. Items such as a CD player were raffled off to participants, while class organizations sold candy apples, posters, and homecoming paraphernalia such as mugs, shirts, and buttons at various tables (left). Others took part in airbrushing sweatshirts or posing for caricatures (above).

Give a little: Fraternity blood drive benefits in more ways than one

Have you ever wanted to give the gift of life? How about win $100?

Since 1966, Alpha Phi Omega has sponsored a semi-annual blood drive. This Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 10 and 11, they will aid the American Red Cross and the North Jersey Blood Center once again in the Student Center Ballrooms from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Members of APO, note that less than 2% of the college population gives blood, even though the Red Cross has stated that AIDS and other diseases cannot be transmitted by donating blood. All donors must only be between 18 and 65 and in good health, over 110 lb. and not under any medication.

This year, APO adds to the human aspect of donating blood by integrating a Blood Drive Competition. Cash prizes of $100, $75, and $50 will be awarded by the office of student activities to the top three donating groups, whether Class I to Class IV organizations, floors, wings, or entire residence halls. First place will also receive the honor of a trophy and their picture printed in The Montclarion.

In addition, every individual who donates blood will be entered in a raffle to win an entertainment book with nearly $1,000 worth of coupons for the local area.

Maybe where charity doesn't prevail, the spirit of competition will.
Calvin and Hobbes

By Bill Watterson

How am I ever going to read three whole pages of this by tomorrow? It's impossible.

Impossible to read three whole pages of this by tomorrow? It's impossible.

A blinding bolt of blazing crimson careens across the sky. It's... STOPPERS MAN!

How am I ever going to read three whole pages of this by tomorrow? It's impossible.

...impossible? Why, impossible. It's impossible.

...impossible? Why, impossible. It's impossible.

A blinding bolt of blazing crimson careens across the sky. It's... STOPPERS MAN!

A blinding bolt of blazing crimson careens across the sky. It's... STOPPERS MAN!

And now, why, am I, you standing in your underwear in the closet?

...impossible? Why, impossible. It's impossible.

...impossible? Why, impossible. It's impossible.

A blinding bolt of blazing crimson careens across the sky. It's... STOPPERS MAN!

A blinding bolt of blazing crimson careens across the sky. It's... STOPPERS MAN!

...impossible? Why, impossible. It's impossible.

...impossible? Why, impossible. It's impossible.

A blinding bolt of blazing crimson careens across the sky. It's... STOPPERS MAN!

A blinding bolt of blazing crimson careens across the sky. It's... STOPPERS MAN!

Mother Goose and Grimm

By Mike Peters

How children, what the first thing for many to do discovered when he woke up after 50 years?

Morning breath that could paint.

Isn't this the great moment this in a story pack. Here all the trees are protected.

In fact, you could go to war, if you want. It caught down there.

I've got a good lawyer.

This is not my father's oldsmobile.

Vet

I'm sure it will be in the papers tomorrow, boy. She'll be in trouble when she gives me my costume back.

It was great. He fixed the school with a big magnifying lens in space. I'm sure it will be in all the papers tomorrow.

I don't either, Dad. But he buried my house.

Outland

By Berkeley Breathed

It's a girl. Up piece of oiled your head. Antioxidants injected. Hormone-fed, bleached, roof forest-killing, degradable, prostrate cow.

Chicken, my portfolio's coming down.

It's the town. A vegetarian extremist.
Save the whales
They are being slaughtered to extinction by Japanese and Soviet Whalers.

boycott Japanese and Russian products
Every 15 minutes another great whale dies. A grenade-tipped harpoon explodes into its back, bringing prolonged, agonizing death.

These intelligent, gentle animals are being ruthlessly hunted to extinction by Japanese and Soviet whalers. Their vast whaling fleets use airplanes, helicopters, sonar and high-speed to chase down terror-stricken whales in the farthest corners of the seven seas.

YOU CAN HELP SAVE THE WHALES BY REFUSING TO PURCHASE ANY JAPANESE OR RUSSIAN PRODUCTS UNTIL JAPAN AND THE SOVIET UNION AGREE TO STOP WHALING.

For more information contact - Animal Welfare Institute P.O. Box 3650 Washington, D.C. 20007

This message is brought to you as a public service, by The Montclarion, a Class one of the SGA, and the Conservation Club, a Class one of the SGA.
Every Quitter is a Winner.
The Great American Smokeout. Nov. 17.

Created as a public service by McCaffrey and McCall, Inc.

Welcome to the new and remodeled

(Previously the Primrose Diner)

Route 46 East
Little Falls, NJ 07424
256-2510

We offer a 10% discount to all
MSC students and faculty with valid ID
Mon - Fri, 11 a.m. - 8 p.m.

*SPECIAL! We're introducing Monday Night Football in the private party room w/big screen TV - six foot subs - baked ziti - eggplant Only $7.95!

*Watch for our lunch, dinner and late night specials

*Two bakers on the premises supply fresh baked goods daily

*Banquet room w/bar available for private parties (50-125 people)

File Now!
Help IRS process more quickly

THANKS ANYWAY...I'VE ALREADY HAD BREAKFAST.

A PUBLIC SERVICE MESSAGE FROM THE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE

Welcome to the new and remodeled

Towers

Route 46 East
Little Falls, NJ 07424
256-2510

We offer a 10% discount to all
MSC students and faculty with valid ID
Mon - Fri, 11 a.m. - 8 p.m.

*SPECIAL! We're introducing Monday Night Football in the private party room w/big screen TV - six foot subs - baked ziti - eggplant Only $7.95!

*Watch for our lunch, dinner and late night specials

*Two bakers on the premises supply fresh baked goods daily

*Banquet room w/bar available for private parties (50-125 people)

Alpha Phi Omega

Blood Drive

Tues. Oct. 10
Wed. Oct. 11
10:00 a.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Student Center Ballrooms

GIVE THE GIFT OF LIFE

Any questions, please call 893-5431

APO is a Class IV of the SGA
Music for all tastes?

Do you know what kind of music WMSC is playing right now? OK, I’ll tell you. Right now, they are playing a song called “Thin White Line” by a group called The Avengers.

Just to be fair, we took a quick, very unofficial survey around the office to see if anyone had ever heard of the song before. Nobody had. Someone asked us if The Avengers were comic strip characters. Is this the reaction you have to the type of music presented on WMSC?

WMSC offers “alternative” music to the type presented on commercial radio stations. Typically, this alters. She faces up to $81 million, which has been found guilty of tax fraud and conspiracy. It does not take a genius to figure out that the fines handed out are petty cash to these people, and that the time served is just part of doing business.

The punishments that Bilzerian, Milken (if found guilty), and Helmsley face hardly suit the crime. If Mr. Bilzerian is fined $1.5 million and is worth $81 million, who has seen justice prevail?

Bilzerian will be sent to a very accommodating prison for four years and will return upon release to $80 million and 250 hours of community service.
Don't Blame Teachers

There has been a great deal of breast-beating recently about how bad our schools are in America. The conclusion of all the studies and reports on education seems to be that our big city grade schools and high schools are poor to terrible but that our colleges are pretty good. Higher education gets better marks than lower education, if that's a phrase.

When Mr. Bush opened his conference on education last Thursday in Virginia, the talk was all about how to "improve our nation's ailing schools." Is it the schools that are ailing or could it possibly be the children?

We spend more on education than any country in the world and get fewer educated people for our money. We have the highest dropout rate, 30 percent in high school. There's a belief that a third world is growing within our own society. It's a poor world working in which crime and drugs are rampant, homelessness prevalent and a working class non-existent. The people in it are not only uneducated, they may be uneducable.

A recent report in The New York Times suggested the United States is in for big trouble in the future because we won't have anyone who can do the semi-skilled work that needs to be done.

"If we continue to let children who are born in poverty fail to get the kind of education that will allow them to participate in our economy and our society productively," said Brad Butler, former chairman of Proctor and Gamble, "then some time in the future we will have a world in which people will be growing up who don't know how to do anything."

"There is a belief that a third world is growing inside of us," said Butler.

Mr. Fiske's report was good but the conclusion is baloney. The official amount was not an unofficial figure of an $18,000 loss.

Many of the members of the SGA had mixed feelings concerning the name change. The legislators had their reasons for being for or against it, just as the members of BSCU had their arguments for the change.

Many legislators wanted to research the matter by attending the BSCU meetings, speaking to members of the organization and getting the opinions of the students.

That was the reason why the Constitutional Review committee decided to table the bill. Not because we were waiting for things to "cool down," but because we felt that by keeping it in committee, we could become more knowledgeable, explore different aspects, and hopefully iron out any differences within the committee.

Then, when the bill reaches the legislative floor, there would be sort of common agreement, compromise reached by both organizations.

And under no circumstances should this matter be deemed racist.

Our main concern as the SGA is to benefit the students of MSC. Any decisions we have made, or any steps we may have followed were solely for the purpose of making the right decisions for the entire student body.

That is something that we will continue to do.

Mary Jane Says...

Student Input is Key

Have you ever thought of what goes into the planning, production, and evaluation of a large campus event? It is not a simple task, by any means. As students here at MSC, however, you have the unparalleled opportunity to experience all the aspects of planning and programming. Through the experience you will learn in class and counter the realities of production including a possible loss of revenue.

When trying to target the entire campus population, it is difficult to satisfy every preference. However, many efforts are made to please students, and difficulty to satisfy every preference. However, many efforts are made to please students, and meet their entertainment needs.

The students involved in the organizations of the SGA volunteer their time and efforts, and dedicate a great deal of time in working to serve the entire campus.

A recent example of student programming was Class One Concerts' production of Big Audio Dynamite. Those who worked with the concert, saw how enormous the job was.

Those who attended the show, saw that through the work of the students, the show was extremely well run and successful. 'Last week, the Montclarion printed that the show lost about to $18,000.

To students not involved in the show, and not attending, this figure could be quite alarming. Before becoming too alarmed however, remember that the figure was a mere estimate.

The official amount was not announced. It is somewhat disheartening to think that after all the work put into the show by the members of Class One Concerts and after the success of the show itself-that the only thing to be stuck in mind is the unofficial figure of an $18,000 loss.

Though the loss was unfortunate, there are many possible factors that could have been attributed to it. After one production however, many things are learned that can be implemented in the next show.

When dealing with large entertainment companies and agents, the process becomes detailed and must be handled accurately and completely.

It is felt by the University that Big Audio Dynamite was not a successful show for any reason, then join C1C and offer your input for improvement. It is the students who put on the productions, the more student input, the better.

Mary Jane Linnihan
SGA President

SGA Defends Its Position

To the Editor:

Recently, there has been quite a bit of controversy involving the name change for the Black Student Cooperative Union. It is a topic about which many people have mixed emotions.

However, the articles, ads and columns published in the Montclarion tended to be one-sided. There seems to be some confusion about the intentions of the SGA and the reasons behind their actions.

First of all, it should be made clear that the SGA is not against a name change for BSCU.

Both organizations agree that the current name seems to be a deterrent to any non-black students that may either want to attend or join any of its activities.

The only concern of the SGA was the interpretation of the new name, "Organization of Students for African Unity," by non-black students and whether the name was more inviting.

Many of the members of the SGA had mixed feelings concerning the name change. The legislators had their reasons for being for or against it, just as the members of BSCU had their arguments for the change.

Many legislators wanted to research the matter by attending the BSCU meetings, speaking to members of the organization and getting the opinions of the students.

That was the reason why the Constitutional Review committee decided to table the bill. Not because we were waiting for things to "cool down," but because we felt that by keeping it in committee, we could become more knowledgeable, explore different aspects, and hopefully iron out any differences within the committee.

Then, when the bill reaches the legislative floor, there would be sort of common agreement, compromise reached by both organizations.

In no way did the SGA try to impose on the BSCU to do something they did not want to do. Any suggestions that were made for a different name were merely that, suggestions.

And at no time did we consider this issue to be a power struggle over who has the right to change the name.

And under no circumstances should this matter be deemed racist.

Our main concern as the SGA is to benefit the students of MSC. Any decisions we have made, or any steps we may have followed were solely for the purpose of making the right decisions for the entire student body.

That is something that we will continue to do.

Morgan Kurdyka
SGA President/Marketing

Contributing Columnists

Is there an issue on campus that has come to your attention recently? Is there a world news topic that you have strong feelings about?

Present your opinions in The Montclarion's Student Voice column. Drop by our office, located in the Student Center, room 113, and log in your topic idea with Maggie Cymbala, editorial page editor. If that topic hasn't already been picked by another writer, it's yours!

The Montclarion reserves the right to edit all material for style and brevity. Please limit submissions to 3 1/2 typed, double-spaced pages.

SGA Defends Its Position

Many of the members of the SGA had mixed feelings concerning the name change. The legislators had their reasons for being for or against it, just as the members of BSCU had their arguments for the change.

Many legislators wanted to research the matter by attending the BSCU meetings, speaking to members of the organization and getting the opinions of the students.

That was the reason why the Constitutional Review committee decided to table the bill. Not because we were waiting for things to "cool down," but because we felt that by keeping it in committee, we could become more knowledgeable, explore different aspects, and hopefully iron out any differences within the committee.

Then, when the bill reaches the legislative floor, there would be sort of common agreement, compromise reached by both organizations.

In no way did the SGA try to impose on the BSCU to do something they did not want to do. Any suggestions that were made for a different name were merely that, suggestions.

And at no time did we consider this issue to be a power struggle over who has the right to change the name.

And under no circumstances should this matter be deemed racist.

Our main concern as the SGA is to benefit the students of MSC. Any decisions we have made, or any steps we may have followed were solely for the purpose of making the right decisions for the entire student body.

That is something that we will continue to do.
Sports Editor reviews B.A.D.

To the Editor:

I am writing this letter in response to the review of Big Audio Dynamite’s September 23rd performance which appeared in last week’s edition of the Montclarion.

I was annoyed by the poor review (“poor” being used here as a modifier for “review” not as a critique of the band’s performance) written by Michael Walmsley.

I would like to point out some of the oversights I noticed in the article. First of all, the very term “new-wave” is old and ebbing. The people who listened to that music are now called “yuppies,” and the “second generation new wavers” as we have been so presumptuously pegged are listening to music so culturally diverse that it defies categorization.

Face it: The Cure, Erasure, R.E.M., Tracy Chapman, U2, Kate Bush, and Ziggy Marley can hardly be put into one category.

Which brings up the second point. While it is true that Big Audio Dynamite fuses a variety of musical styles to form a unique brand of dance music, this was not the only Mick Jones band to have a “link to the N.Y. disco scene.”

It is apparent that Mr. Walmsley did not like B.A.D. even before attending the concert. If what the reviewer wanted to hear were Clash tunes, then he should have stayed home listening to old records.

And wouldn’t it be safe to assume that if the crowd “seemed to be loving it” as Mr. Walmsley put it, then maybe they actually did enjoy the show?

This is not the first time I have read reviews in this paper written by people with preconceived notions of their subject. It’s time you assigned reviewers with objectivity and integrity to cover such musical and theatrical events.

I am in no way implying that writers sugarcoat the facts or praise every performance, but criticism should be constructive and well-founded...and as objective as humanly possible.

In closing, I offer one piece of advice: just because the event takes place in a gymnasium, doesn’t mean the sports editor is the ideal person to cover it.

Amy Figuereo
Senior/Acting

Tax Counseling for the Elderly

We came to the right place mother...this lady knows what she’s talkin’ about.

Older taxpayers can get tax assistance through this program. Check with the IRS for a location near you.

ROUTE 23 Artists Supply

721 ROUTE 23 POMPON PLAINS, N.J. 07444
201-835-3337 A COMPLETE COMMERCIAL SERVICE & FINE ARTS CENTER

ART & DRAFT MATERIALS

20% DISCOUNT

FOR ALL STUDENTS WITH COLLEGE I.D. CARDS PRESENTED AT TIME OF PURCHASE
SOME EXCEPTIONS

EVERYTHING THE ARTIST & DRAFTSMAN NEEDS CONVENIENTLY LOCATED

Hours:
Mon., Tues., Wed. 8am-6pm
Thurs. 8am-8pm
Fri. 8am-5pm
Sat. 10am-4pm
In 1968 the Poco legacy was born: a folk rock band that would inspire more musical history in one year than any single band ever. Their first album Pickin Up the Pieces debuted in 1968. They showed a softer form of Rockabilly that did justice to folk music with a soft rock sound thrown in by a traditional rock & roll band.

So, what does that mean? Well, today we know this sound very well. Other bands such as Bob Seger and The Outlaws have made improvements on the sound. However, the basic idea is all Poco, so basically it's just new wave country music.

The name "Poco" somehow suggests a teeny bopper image. Well, today we know this sound like no other that Poco has put out in the past twenty years. So, I'll admit that I hate the name "Poco"... but the mixture of classic rock and country & western music makes me say... "What's in a name?"

The name itself was originally "Pogo". But, Walt Kelly, creator of the cartoon strip "Pogo," didn't chuckle and instigated legal proceedings. In March 1969, before the case reached court, the group changed their name to Poco.

However, the name's image doesn't reflect on what the band represents. This band was spawned from such greatness as Buffalo Springfield and Boomez Crygue, and features members Jim Messina, Richie Fury, George Grantham, Rusty Young & Randy Meisner. Meisner alone went on to play with the Eagles. So forget about the name and listen to the album... You might find yourself in the record store buying Poco's new album Legacy.

Although there has been many different forms of Poco throughout the years, featuring one or more of the original members, the new album, "Legacy," brings back the original sound like no other that Poco has put out in the past twenty years. So, I'll admit that I hate the name "Poco"... but the mixture of classic rock and country & western music makes me say... "What's in a name?"

Poco creates a Legacy.....

name to Poco.

By Jon Max Green

Jim Messina, Richie Fury, George Grantham, Rusty Young & Randy Meisner. Meisner alone went on to play with the Eagles. So forget about the name and listen to the album... You might find yourself in the record store buying Poco's new album Legacy.

Although there has been many different forms of Poco throughout the years, featuring one or more of the original members, the new album, "Legacy," brings back the original sound like no other that Poco has put out in the past twenty years. So, I'll admit that I hate the name "Poco"... but the mixture of classic rock and country & western music makes me say... "What's in a name?"

The name itself was originally "Pogo". But, Walt Kelly, creator of the cartoon strip "Pogo," didn't chuckle and instigated legal proceedings. In March 1969, before the case reached court, the group changed their name to Poco.

However, the name's image doesn't reflect on what the band represents. This band was spawned from such greatness as Buffalo Springfield and Boozee Crygue, and features members Jim Messina, Richie Fury, George Grantham, Rusty Young & Randy Meisner. Meisner alone went on to play with the Eagles. So forget about the name and listen to the album... You might find yourself in the record store buying Poco's new album Legacy.

Although there has been many different forms of Poco throughout the years, featuring one or more of the original members, the new album, "Legacy," brings back the original sound like no other that Poco has put out in the past twenty years. So, I'll admit that I hate the name "Poco"... but the mixture of classic rock and country & western music makes me say... "What's in a name?"

The name itself was originally "Pogo". But, Walt Kelly, creator of the cartoon strip "Pogo," didn't chuckle and instigated legal proceedings. In March 1969, before the case reached court, the group changed their name to Poco.

However, the name's image doesn't reflect on what the band represents. This band was spawned from such greatness as Buffalo Springfield and Boozee Crygue, and features members Jim Messina, Richie Fury, George Grantham, Rusty Young & Randy Meisner. Meisner alone went on to play with the Eagles. So forget about the name and listen to the album... You might find yourself in the record store buying Poco's new album Legacy.

Although there has been many different forms of Poco throughout the years, featuring one or more of the original members, the new album, "Legacy," brings back the original sound like no other that Poco has put out in the past twenty years. So, I'll admit that I hate the name "Poco"... but the mixture of classic rock and country & western music makes me say... "What's in a name?"

The name itself was originally "Pogo". But, Walt Kelly, creator of the cartoon strip "Pogo," didn't chuckle and instigated legal proceedings. In March 1969, before the case reached court, the group changed their name to Poco.

However, the name's image doesn't reflect on what the band represents. This band was spawned from such greatness as Buffalo Springfield and Boozee Crygue, and features members Jim Messina, Richie Fury, George Grantham, Rusty Young & Randy Meisner. Meisner alone went on to play with the Eagles. So forget about the name and listen to the album... You might find yourself in the record store buying Poco's new album Legacy.

Although there has been many different forms of Poco throughout the years, featuring one or more of the original members, the new album, "Legacy," brings back the original sound like no other that Poco has put out in the past twenty years. So, I'll admit that I hate the name "Poco"... but the mixture of classic rock and country & western music makes me say... "What's in a name?"

The name itself was originally "Pogo". But, Walt Kelly, creator of the cartoon strip "Pogo," didn't chuckle and instigated legal proceedings. In March 1969, before the case reached court, the group changed their name to Poco.

However, the name's image doesn't reflect on what the band represents. This band was spawned from such greatness as Buffalo Springfield and Boozee Crygue, and features members Jim Messina, Richie Fury, George Grantham, Rusty Young & Randy Meisner. Meisner alone went on to play with the Eagles. So forget about the name and listen to the album... You might find yourself in the record store buying Poco's new album Legacy.

Although there has been many different forms of Poco throughout the years, featuring one or more of the original members, the new album, "Legacy," brings back the original sound like no other that Poco has put out in the past twenty years. So, I'll admit that I hate the name "Poco"... but the mixture of classic rock and country & western music makes me say... "What's in a name?"

The name itself was originally "Pogo". But, Walt Kelly, creator of the cartoon strip "Pogo," didn't chuckle and instigated legal proceedings. In March 1969, before the case reached court, the group changed their name to Poco.

However, the name's image doesn't reflect on what the band represents. This band was spawned from such greatness as Buffalo Springfield and Boozee Crygue, and features members Jim Messina, Richie Fury, George Grantham, Rusty Young & Randy Meisner. Meisner alone went on to play with the Eagles. So forget about the name and listen to the album... You might find yourself in the record store buying Poco's new album Legacy.

Although there has been many different forms of Poco throughout the years, featuring one or more of the original members, the new album, "Legacy," brings back the original sound like no other that Poco has put out in the past twenty years. So, I'll admit that I hate the name "Poco"... but the mixture of classic rock and country & western music makes me say... "What's in a name?"
Couch Potato Update

By George Ocheltree

Is there anyone who doesn't love Roger Rabbit? Or, at least, his wife (drolly drool) Jessica? Well, for all you rabbit lovers, the Rog will be here on or about October 12, with a suggested retail of $20.00. At that price, that cutiesie-pie alien who made a real long-distance call home's sales record is in deep doo-doo. 1988's late security officer, Tasba Yar. They star in the film where the arms race, etc. “Once you get on it,” Margolis states, “you can't get off.”

Sixth Week on the Album Chart (a Year and 3 Months), Paula finally donate $40,000 to a women's refuge. Whatever?. ..#1 s-Pop: “Miss Distribution of marijuana. Instead of getting fined, he agreed to

---

The Endless Journey Of Autobahn

By Luisa Carrizo

Staff Writer

“it's a look at a world gone berzerk,” explains Margolis. Everything becomes violent, sharp and exaggerated as they “emulate and satirize” life. This trip is longer than life, taking an absurd look at hairstyler worship and ironing, to name a few. “Autobahn” will take you to the 30's through the future “bombarding you with many images” almost like the “socks, paws, spats and whammies of a comic book setting.”

How is this relayed to us, the audience? First and foremost, says Margolis, “this show is very political.” It is the theatre that begins with the expressivity of the body working with a strong movement aesthetic. This encompasses acting, dancing, singing, and gymnastics as well as other creative outlets. The members of the company train in the technique adapted by Margolis and Brown. They are not auditioned, but they are “super actors.”

In this manner, the Margolis Brown Adaptors are trying to revitalize traditional theatre “into an important and exciting issue; a more fulfilling, overall experience.” In this manner, the Margolis Brown Adaptors are trying to revitalize traditional theatre “into an important and exciting issue; a more fulfilling, overall experience.” The classes are extremely physical and in a way, the dancers are also actors.”

In this manner, the Margolis Brown Adaptors are trying to revitalize traditional theatre “into an important and exciting issue; a more fulfilling, overall experience.” The classes are extremely physical and in a way, the dancers are also actors.”

This is finally out. After numerous delays, internal squabbles and five long years the new Tears for Fears (TF) album The Seeds of Love is finally out.

“Sowing The Seeds of Love,” the leadoff single looks like it will replicate TFF’s top forty success. Coming up with other commercially viable singles to make this album a multi-platinum hit like Songs from the Big Chair may be a tad bit difficult. A moody “Woman in Chains” starts the album off, followed by a rockier “Badman’s Song.” The current single follows. It is after this that the album gets a little murky.

“Advice For The Young At Heart” sounds remarkably like “I Believe” from Big Chair. The next song “Standing on the Corner” seems a bit disconnected from the album.

Roland Orzabal the vocalist on most of the songs sings some of them too high for his octave range. Another difference from Big Chair is the use of rather extensive backing vocals.

The album ends on a mellow note with “Famous Last Words.” While I don’t think they are going to be too famous with this album.

I wasn’t going to say anything, but I will: after five years of waiting, Seeds of love better be one of those seeds that grows on you the more you listen to it.
Full Nelson

By Sharon Lane
Correspondent

Memorial auditorium was filled with laughter Tuesday night as Bob Nelson and a few of his friends entertained a full house at MSC. The event was sponsored by CLUB as part of the ongoing Homecoming activities.

The show began at approximately 8:30 p.m. with two MSC seniors performing an original MSC Rap. Brad Lowery started the show with his energetic and fast paced comedy. Lowery and Nelson met about four years ago when Nelson attended Lowery’s first comedy performance and enjoyed his silly antics, which resembled some of Nelson’s older material, and the two have been working together ever since.

Lowery made his television debut on “Showtime at the Apollo” and will be performing at Rascals Comedy Club on Oct. 18. Lowery’s humor had a universal appeal which kept the audience continuously laughing. In conjunction with his comedic talent, Lowery displays his ability to sing and enjoy his silly antics, which sometimes of Nelson’s older material, and the two have been working together ever since.

Lowery started the show with his energetic and fast paced comedy. Lowery and Nelson met about four years ago when Nelson attended Lowery’s first comedy performance and enjoyed his silly antics, which resembled some of Nelson’s older material, and the two have been working together ever since.

Lowery made his television debut on “Showtime at the Apollo” and will be performing at Rascals Comedy Club on Oct. 18. Lowery’s humor had a universal appeal which kept the audience continuously laughing. In conjunction with his comedic talent, Lowery displays his ability to sing and enjoy his silly antics, which resembled some of Nelson’s older material, and the two have been working together ever since.

The show, which lasted approximately 90 minutes, ended with Bob Nelson doing an upclose comedy routine and ended with his wife and friends stopping him to help him keep his language under control throughout his act.

Bob Nelson, who has been working together ever since, began in college when he walked through the theater department to go to one of his classes in communications. He noticed a group of theater majors rehearsing, thought it looked fun, and decided to give acting a try. Two days later, he was in the theater department. Bob Nelson was elected as the student theater group president from that point on his career snowballed to success. The opportunities were “falling into his lap.”

His break came while working at a job that required much telephone work. He accidentally called Richard M. Dixon, owner of a comedy club near Nelson’s home. Nelson had a habit of turning phone calls into a comedy routine for his office by using different types of voices to see what reaction he could get from the person on the line. Dixon was impressed with Nelson’s humor and informed him of an upcoming “Open Mike Night” at his club and encouraged Nelson to share with the public his talent for creating comic characters.

Due to ribbing from fellow club comedian Bob Woods, Nelson proved his talent surpassed his friends’ loyalties and was good enough to stand for itself. Woods insisted Nelson’s career would end once his friends stopped coming to the club to support him. Nelson turned this opinion into a personal challenge, and today, Nelson admits he “owes his beginning to Bob Woods,” for within his discouraging words, Nelson realized he had pursued a career in comedy.

Aside from his talent for creating a range of humorous characters, Nelson is also a conscientious individual. In a time when trash comedy and vulgar proficiency is extremely popular, Nelson strives to prove that clean humor is still funny and entertaining. The sold out crowd at MSC also proves Nelson’s brand of comedy is in demand. When asked to describe himself, Nelson responded he would like to be seen as a role model who can be respected by the audience.

Nelson’s brand of comedy is in the popularity of some of Nelson’s characters, Nelson is also a conscientious individual. In a time when trash comedy and vulgar proficiency is extremely popular, Nelson strives to prove that clean humor is still funny and entertaining. The sold out crowd at MSC also proves Nelson’s brand of comedy is in demand. When asked to describe himself, Nelson responded he would like to be seen as a role model who can be respected by the audience.

Nelson said he feels this country needs to be cleaned up, and he seems to be on the right track. In an upcoming HBO children’s special, Nelson’s “Eppy Epperman,” a nerdy type of guy, will be featured. When producers suggested Eppy smoke a pipe, Nelson refused because he did not feel it was something his character should promote and that his integrity should not be compromised. Nelson makes a conscious effort to prevent Eppy from using profanity in his dialogue, and relies upon his wife and friends to help him keep his language under control throughout his act. Bob Nelson not only provided MSC with a night of laughter and fun, but continued to carve his place in comedy history.

Look for Bob Nelson in the future on HBO!
interested Female jacket and rides a bike! I think about cause no one is quite as figuring out who I'm talking to get to know you better. You you are really cute and I'd like hair who wears a black leather

To the guy with the long blonde at least. Trust fate for you. The Sisters of Delta Phi sorority you chose be the best classified -To all the Red Hot rushees of Theta Kappa Chi is gonna toyour plate? >

-Dawn: Is Elvis still living in Brown's mouth - Aiiigh!-Squib wasn't me babe! Good Luck in everywhere! J&R

-Rhonda & Greg- Pre-engaged
-Rhonda & Greg: Forever & ever. -We will never come apart.
-R.M. & G.L.
-Helen- H! Here is a nice personal to you. John
-Christine: You're the greatest and sweetest roomate anyone could ever ask for, love you. Mary (Yeah! We got our phone!)
-Amy & Tim: Are you psyched for the next Intervarsity Christian Fellowship meeting October 9th at 4pm in the student center cafeteria? Matt
-To all members and prospective members of Intervarsity Christian Fellowship. Get psyched for Bible and Life, October 20th-22nd. Let's bring the Lord to the campus! Matt, Amy, and Tim

-L. Thank you for slumbering Theta Kappa Chi!! Better than Ever!!
-Dan: Thanks for slumbering with us! Can't wait til next time! Luv, Sta
-Sharon: It's my pleasure of getting to know a special person, like yourself. I hope we keep our friendship strong with many great opportunities ahead in life. I imagine you are a person who is the closest to perfection. Love, Tom
-Chante and Rhon: I'm glad you guys decided to pledge. It's gonna be great! Love, Sue

-Theta Kappa Chi!!! Better than Ever!!
-We: Best of luck to you this weekend! You are the best Homecoming Candidate Montclair ever did and ever will have! I love ya, Karen
-Mich: You deserve to be happy! Take a chance and go for it! He knows
-What is so funny about peace, diet, but give me a break. Mr. Turtle, Esq.

-Dan: Thanks for slumbering with us! Can't wait til next time! Luv, Sta
-Sharon: It's my pleasure of getting to know a special person, like yourself. I hope we keep our friendship strong with many great opportunities ahead in life. I imagine you are a person who is the closest to perfection. Love, Tom
-Chante and Rhon: I'm glad you guys decided to pledge. It's gonna be great! Love, Sue

-We: Best of luck to you this weekend! You are the best Homecoming Candidate Montclair ever did and ever will have! I love ya, Karen
-Mich: You deserve to be happy! Take a chance and go for it! He knows
-What is so funny about peace, diet, but give me a break. Mr. Turtle, Esq.

-Theta Kappa Chi!!! Better than Ever!!
-Dan: Thanks for slumbering with us! Can't wait til next time! Luv, Sta
-Sharon: It's my pleasure of getting to know a special person, like yourself. I hope we keep our friendship strong with many great opportunities ahead in life. I imagine you are a person who is the closest to perfection. Love, Tom
-Chante and Rhon: I'm glad you guys decided to pledge. It's gonna be great! Love, Sue

-We: Best of luck to you this weekend! You are the best Homecoming Candidate Montclair ever did and ever will have! I love ya, Karen
-Mich: You deserve to be happy! Take a chance and go for it! He knows
-What is so funny about peace, diet, but give me a break. Mr. Turtle, Esq.

-Dan: Thanks for slumbering with us! Can't wait til next time! Luv, Sta
-Sharon: It's my pleasure of getting to know a special person, like yourself. I hope we keep our friendship strong with many great opportunities ahead in life. I imagine you are a person who is the closest to perfection. Love, Tom
-Chante and Rhon: I'm glad you guys decided to pledge. It's gonna be great! Love, Sue

-We: Best of luck to you this weekend! You are the best Homecoming Candidate Montclair ever did and ever will have! I love ya, Karen
-Mich: You deserve to be happy! Take a chance and go for it! He knows
-What is so funny about peace, diet, but give me a break. Mr. Turtle, Esq.

-Dan: Thanks for slumbering with us! Can't wait til next time! Luv, Sta
-Sharon: It's my pleasure of getting to know a special person, like yourself. I hope we keep our friendship strong with many great opportunities ahead in life. I imagine you are a person who is the closest to perfection. Love, Tom
-Chante and Rhon: I'm glad you guys decided to pledge. It's gonna be great! Love, Sue

-We: Best of luck to you this weekend! You are the best Homecoming Candidate Montclair ever did and ever will have! I love ya, Karen
-Mich: You deserve to be happy! Take a chance and go for it! He knows
-What is so funny about peace, diet, but give me a break. Mr. Turtle, Esq.

-Dan: Thanks for slumbering with us! Can't wait til next time! Luv, Sta
-Sharon: It's my pleasure of getting to know a special person, like yourself. I hope we keep our friendship strong with many great opportunities ahead in life. I imagine you are a person who is the closest to perfection. Love, Tom
-Chante and Rhon: I'm glad you guys decided to pledge. It's gonna be great! Love, Sue

-We: Best of luck to you this weekend! You are the best Homecoming Candidate Montclair ever did and ever will have! I love ya, Karen
-Mich: You deserve to be happy! Take a chance and go for it! He knows
-What is so funny about peace, diet, but give me a break. Mr. Turtle, Esq.

-Dan: Thanks for slumbering with us! Can't wait til next time! Luv, Sta
-Sharon: It's my pleasure of getting to know a special person, like yourself. I hope we keep our friendship strong with many great opportunities ahead in life. I imagine you are a person who is the closest to perfection. Love, Tom
-Chante and Rhon: I'm glad you guys decided to pledge. It's gonna be great! Love, Sue

-We: Best of luck to you this weekend! You are the best Homecoming Candidate Montclair ever did and ever will have! I love ya, Karen
-Mich: You deserve to be happy! Take a chance and go for it! He knows
-What is so funny about peace, diet, but give me a break. Mr. Turtle, Esq.
Jobs

- College Students $11.25 to start. Expanding corp. looking to fill 45 FT/PT positions. Day and/or weekends available also. Scholarships awarded. Call 731-1177.
- Babysitter--Upper Montclair area. Mornings and afternoons. $4.50/hr. Own transportation needed. Call before 8 pm. 783-9454.
- PT work: Office cleaning late night, transportation provided, casual work conditions, 5 days w/kly and wkends. $5 per hr to start. Call Ernie 751-5251.
- Kitchen help needed--Belleville station cafe Tues. and Sat. evenings 5:30 - 10:30. NO EXPERIENCE NECESSARY. 744-4622.

 Classified

- Looking for a fraternity, sorority or student organization that would like to make $500 - $1000 for a one week on-campus marketing project. Must be organized and hard working. Call Tammy or Myra at (800)992-2121.
- Need extra money - N.J.'s finest caterer has immediate opening for banquet personnel. Waiters and waitresses (19 years or older), set-up and kitchen helpers. Full and part time available, flexible hours, excellent pay and working conditions. Car necessary. 992-8137.
- Think Spring - out-going? Well organized? Promote and escort our Florida spring break trip. Good pay and fun. Call Campus Marketing 1-800-423-5264
- Clerical/secretarial for small, congenial Montclair law office. 10-15 hours weekly, flexible. Prefer availability between 1 & 2. $5.00 per hour. 509-8272
- Princeton Ski Shop has permanent full and part time positions for clothing and ski equipment sales people in our brand new Clifton store. Flexible hours. Employee discounts. Apply in person at 700 Rt. 3 W. Clifton (across from Hofman LaRoche) or call 201-779-7100.
- ACTIVISTS: BASIC TRAINING America's fastest growing citizens lobby seeks young leaders for the fight for democracy, civil, women's and gay rights. EARN WHILE YOU LEARN. Salary/Benefits. F/T, P/T, The Rainbow Lobby 201-744-5540.
- Wintersession 90 - Ski and learn courses earn one, three, or four MSC credits. Ski and resort management 3 credits or skiing (learn to ski) 1 credit. Held on site at Jay Peak Vt. Call 993-7073 for info.
- CHRISTMAS CASH FOR ANIMAL LOVERS. We sell fun fashions for dogs, cats and the people who love them. Come work our cart at Willowbrook Mall starting Nov. 1. Flexible hours. Salary plus commission. Previous sales exp. a plus. You must be friendly, reliable and love animals and people. Call Poochi 256-1604.
- Happy babysitter wanted. Flexible hours. Flexible days. 1 yr. old boy/3 yr. old girl. Play with children. Lorraine 744-5109.
- Driver's position available with medical transportation company for persons with EMT, CPR, ADV. FIRST AID, or PAT CARD current through August 1990; thirty hours per week with health benefits. Contact Mrs. Whitted, T-F 10 am-3 pm. (201) 673-0485.
- Loving babysitter required for two children (4 and 7) from 3 p.m. - 6 p.m., M-F. Own transportation required. Occasional overnight sitting. Call Robyn 857-3076.
- Rapidly expanding retail business has immediate full and part time sales help/management trainee positions available. Fun, relaxed atmosphere. Must enjoy working with people. Call 890-9629 for interview.
- Private tutor available: writing and thinking skills-physics and English. MSC staff 338-0919.

For Sale

- Car in excellent condition. 1979 CJ-7 Renegade 304 V-8 with Headers (blown) hard top and doors, $600 whole, or will break up for parts. Call 495-1642 after 6 pm for more information.
- 1979 Camaro. Met. blue, auto, 6 cyl., AM/FM cass, spoilers, New int. rug, runs great. No problems $1,500 or B/O 575-8278 after 6:00.

How do you spend your Wednesday nights?

A) Religiously monitoring the episodes of Doogie Howser?
B) Searching the records of Zamfir, the master of the pan flute, for subliminal messages?
C) Performing indentured servitude for the production of The Montclarion?
D) Alphabetizing your recipes for cornish game hens?

If you chose C, please disregard this quiz. However, if you chose A, B, or D it's time you got a life!

Stop by room 113 of the Student Center Annex and join the Montclarion on any Wednesday of your choice.

And if you act now you'll receive absolutely free your very own copy of the Montclarion!
DOING TAXES CAN MAKE YOU FEEL GREAT—ESPECIALLY WHEN THEY'RE SOMEONE ELSE'S.

If you have a basic aptitude for math and the desire to help others, you can get a lot of satisfaction by volunteering your time and skills to people who already have.

The Internal Revenue Service is looking for volunteers to help prepare taxes for people who can't afford to hire preparers. The free IRS training program is open to anyone.

To find out about the program, call 1-800-424-1040 now.

MSC Spotlight

by Anthony DiPasquale

Paul Cioffi, last year's Pizza Hut and Kodak All American, defensive player of the year, and sophomore athlete of the year, has returned to dominance for the Hawks this season.

In Cioffi's first game of the season at Central Connecticut, a second division school, he accumulated 17 tackles (10 solo) and a sack. He was a recipient of the Eastern Conference honor roll.

After the Hawks' second game against East Stroudsburg, another division II team, Cioffi was again awarded the NJAC player of the week and the Don Hanson national defensive player for division III honors.

Cioffi only played part of the first quarter in the Hawks' massacre of Upsala, but still managed 7 tackles and 2 sacks. In this week's win over Kean, Cioffi again led the Hawk defense with 12 tackles, two sacks, two pass break ups, and a fumble recovery.

This year's theme: "Keep matches and lighters in the right hands."

MSC's contest against Dowling, a Division II team, was disastrous. The Red Hawks dominated the contest, out shooting Dowling 20-8. But Dowling managed to go on and score the goal that proved to be the winner as MSC was shut out 1-0.

MSC Spotlight...

by Anthony DiPasquale

Paul Cioffi, last year's Pizza Hut and Kodak All American, defensive player of the year, and sophomore athlete of the year, has returned to dominance for the Hawks this season.

In Cioffi's first game of the season at Central Connecticut, a second division school, he accumulated 17 tackles (10 solo) and a sack. He was a recipient of the Eastern Conference honor roll.

After the Hawks' second game against East Stroudsburg, another division II team, Cioffi was again awarded the NJAC player of the week and the Don Hanson national defensive player for division III honors.

Cioffi only played part of the first quarter in the Hawks' massacre of Upsala, but still managed 7 tackles and 2 sacks. In this week's win over Kean, Cioffi again led the Hawk defense with 12 tackles, two sacks, two pass break ups, and a fumble recovery.

This year's theme: "Keep matches and lighters in the right hands."

MSC's contest against Dowling, a Division II team, was disastrous. The Red Hawks dominated the contest, out shooting Dowling 20-8. But Dowling managed to go on and score the goal that proved to be the winner as MSC was shut out 1-0.

MSC Spotlight...

by Anthony DiPasquale

Paul Cioffi, last year's Pizza Hut and Kodak All American, defensive player of the year, and sophomore athlete of the year, has returned to dominance for the Hawks this season.

In Cioffi's first game of the season at Central Connecticut, a second division school, he accumulated 17 tackles (10 solo) and a sack. He was a recipient of the Eastern Conference honor roll.

After the Hawks' second game against East Stroudsburg, another division II team, Cioffi was again awarded the NJAC player of the week and the Don Hanson national defensive player for division III honors.

Cioffi only played part of the first quarter in the Hawks' massacre of Upsala, but still managed 7 tackles and 2 sacks. In this week's win over Kean, Cioffi again led the Hawk defense with 12 tackles, two sacks, two pass break ups, and a fumble recovery.

This year's theme: "Keep matches and lighters in the right hands."

MSC's contest against Dowling, a Division II team, was disastrous. The Red Hawks dominated the contest, out shooting Dowling 20-8. But Dowling managed to go on and score the goal that proved to be the winner as MSC was shut out 1-0.

MSC Spotlight...

by Anthony DiPasquale

Paul Cioffi, last year's Pizza Hut and Kodak All American, defensive player of the year, and sophomore athlete of the year, has returned to dominance for the Hawks this season.

In Cioffi's first game of the season at Central Connecticut, a second division school, he accumulated 17 tackles (10 solo) and a sack. He was a recipient of the Eastern Conference honor roll.

After the Hawks' second game against East Stroudsburg, another division II team, Cioffi was again awarded the NJAC player of the week and the Don Hanson national defensive player for division III honors.

Cioffi only played part of the first quarter in the Hawks' massacre of Upsala, but still managed 7 tackles and 2 sacks. In this week's win over Kean, Cioffi again led the Hawk defense with 12 tackles, two sacks, two pass break ups, and a fumble recovery.

This year's theme: "Keep matches and lighters in the right hands."

MSC's contest against Dowling, a Division II team, was disastrous. The Red Hawks dominated the contest, out shooting Dowling 20-8. But Dowling managed to go on and score the goal that proved to be the winner as MSC was shut out 1-0.

MSC Spotlight...

by Anthony DiPasquale

Paul Cioffi, last year's Pizza Hut and Kodak All American, defensive player of the year, and sophomore athlete of the year, has returned to dominance for the Hawks this season.

In Cioffi's first game of the season at Central Connecticut, a second division school, he accumulated 17 tackles (10 solo) and a sack. He was a recipient of the Eastern Conference honor roll.

After the Hawks' second game against East Stroudsburg, another division II team, Cioffi was again awarded the NJAC player of the week and the Don Hanson national defensive player for division III honors.

Cioffi only played part of the first quarter in the Hawks' massacre of Upsala, but still managed 7 tackles and 2 sacks. In this week's win over Kean, Cioffi again led the Hawk defense with 12 tackles, two sacks, two pass break ups, and a fumble recovery.

This year's theme: "Keep matches and lighters in the right hands."

MSC's contest against Dowling, a Division II team, was disastrous. The Red Hawks dominated the contest, out shooting Dowling 20-8. But Dowling managed to go on and score the goal that proved to be the winner as MSC was shut out 1-0.
Saturday night was not a night of celebration in Baltimore. The Baltimore Orioles were eliminated from the AL East pennant race with a 4-0 loss to the Toronto Blue Jays in Toronto. The Orioles hung tough until the 161st game of the season when, revamped Blue Jay team under manager Cito Gaston, proved to be the best in the AL East.

Even though the Orioles will have to watch the LCS on television like the rest of us, you still have to give strong consideration to Orioles' manager Frank Robinson for American League manager of the year.

Robinson took over the reigns in Baltimore after an 0-37 start in 1985. The '88 Oriole squad went on to lose 21 straight games out of first place. In the off-season, Robinson started fresh by releasing or trading over half of the players from their '88 team. He made trades for players like Mike Devereaux and Randy Villigen. He also picked up catcher Mickey Tettleton off waivers and drafted a pitcher from Auburn University named Greg Olson. These players along with the Ripken Brothers, Greg Ballard, and Craig Worthington, almost made history as they could have become the first team this century to go from worst to first in one season.

This year's Orioles team was a team filled with quality players that are household names only in their own household. No one expected the Orioles to make any kind of noise in the AL East but they were in the race from the middle of April up until September 30.

Some will argue that Jays manager Cito Gaston is worthy of Manager of the Year because Gasten took over a slumping team and finished on top of their division. However, Gasten did not have proven talent on their team in the forms of Fred McGriff, Lloyd Moseby, George Bell, Mookie Wilson, and Dave Steib. The Jays were not winning under former manager Jimy Williams and many people who know baseball will tell you that the Jays poor play was in part related to Williams poor manager-player relationship.

On the other hand, Gasten has always been a popular figure in the Jays clubhouse and his appointment as manager brought out the positive aspects of many of the Blue Jay players. Even though the Blue Jays are fighting to bring the World Series to Canada, Baltimore Orioles manager Frank Robinson should win Manager of the Year by more than just a slim margin.

The Meadowlands will be the site for Monday Night Football as the New York Jets battle the Los Angeles Raiders. Both teams have a 1-3 record and are currently at the bottom of their divisions. The betting line has the Jets favored by 3 1/2 points over the Raiders. It might not be such a bad move to take the Raiders and the points. After all, the Raiders did play a tough game against the Seahawks losing to their division rivals by a score of 24-20. As for the Jets, they are also coming off a 17-10 loss at the hands of the Indianapolis Colts. When you look at the spread you have to take the Raiders for several reasons. First of all, the Jets shouldn't be favored over anybody in the NFL, let alone the Raiders who have the best Monday Night record in NFL history. Second, the Jets prevent offense has surfaced once again and the Jets inability to score points looks like a problem that will not go away soon.

The final reason not to take the Jets is because a name that we know well Bo will see some playing time for the Raiders which could mean a long night for the Jets, even if Jacks was only had a week of training camp. Raiders 23 Jets 13.

The pre-season is a time for learning and evaluating. But the time for learning and evaluation is over. The real season is upon us and the Devils open up the regular season in Philadelphia this Friday night.

With the start of the season comes season predictions. My predictions for the final standings in the Patrick Division are in order of listing below.

1. PITTSBURGH PENGUINS
The penguins have a very explosive offensive team. They were 3rd in the league last season in both goals and powerplay percentage. But has to improve and will with an added year of experience.

KEY PLAYERS: Mario Lemieux, Paul Coffey, Rob Brown, Tom Barrasso, Zarley Zalapski.

STRENGTHS: offense, powerplay.

NOTES: Only one of 11 teams in the history of the league to go six straight years without making the playoffs.

2. NEW JERSEY DEVILS
A lot of new faces on this Devils team. And the change was needed after last year's disappointing 66 point season. The Devils will be a more offensively explosive team. If they can combine that with the hard working philosophy of Devils teams in the past, the Devils will be powerful. Look for powerplay to be one of the best in the league. The off-season acquisitions of Fetisov, Ruotsalainen, and Walt Poddubny give powerplay instant recognition.

KEY PLAYERS: Sean Burke, Viacheslav Fetisov, Patrick Sundstrom, Brendan Shanahan, John MacLean, Kirk Muller, Walt Poddubny, Sylvain Turgeon.

STRENGTHS: powerplay, goaltending.

NOTES: Rookie goaltender, Petr Volek, locked down in pre-season. If Burke returns to form, goaltending becomes a strong asset.

3. WASHINGTON CAPITALS
Caps are defending Patrick Division champions, but choked in play-offs again. How long will they keep coach Bryan Murray if he doesn't bring them a Stanley Cup Final Series. They usually play their best hockey in the regular season so I pick them to be near the top.

Defense is the story here.

KEY PLAYERS: Dino Ciccarelli, Geoff Courtnall, Mike Ridley, Scott Stevens, Kevin Hatcher, Kelly Miller.

STRENGTHS: Defense.

NOTES: Will miss Bengt Gustafsson who returned to Sweden.

4. NEW YORK RANGERS
The Rangers come off an emotionally draining year and off-season. The circus has been at Madison Square Garden for the last few years, and I haven't seen any elephants or clowns. But behind this wall of business bull is a team with some good talent.

The Rangers had a fine season last year. They were close to the top for most of the regular season. And this fact seems to be hidden behind the distractions of managerial feuds and GM and coach brawling. Or, perhaps we must be patient with Neil Smith and Roger Neilson. The Rangers have to grow not rebuild.

KEY PLAYERS: John Vanbiesbrouck, Brian Leetch, Caret Wilson, Tony Granato, Tomas Sandstrom, Kelly Kisio, James Patrick.

STRENGTHS: Goaltending, defense.

NOTES: Ulf Danilen needs to consistently produce for the powerplay to work. Rangers need leadership and direction and have a good base with Smith and Neilson. Both are good hockey people.

5. PHILADELPHIA FLYERS
The Flyers made admirable run up for cup last year. But lost to the Canadians in Conference Final. In that Final, Ron Hextal was the first player he is. We all appreciate an athlete who plays with intensity, but who plays intensely with class. Hextal is disturbing the team with suspensions and contract negotiations. Flyers will start to rebuild after this season.

KEY PLAYERS: Tim Kerr, Rick Tocchet, Brian Propp, Pelle Ekblad, Mark Howe, Pete Peeters.

STRENGTHS: Powerplay.

NOTES: If Peeters can play consistently well in goal, Flyers might look to trade troublesome Hextal. Don't see the Flyers doing much this year.

6. NEW YORK ISLANDERS
Last year was a year of transition for the Islanders. They committed to youth, and are a fun team to watch. Powerplay was (4th) in NHL last year and coach Arbour will help this team mature. Islanders will surprise some teams this year.

KEY PLAYERS: Pat LaFontaine, Brent Sutter, Dave Volek, Don Maloney, Bryan Trottier, Gerard Gallant.

STRENGTHS: Youth, coach.

NOTES: You've got to go through hell before you get to heaven.

The Montclarion/Thursday, October 5, 1989

sports

Temporary Employment to work.

Princeton Ski Shop's Giant Stadium Ski Sale November 4-12

Dau and Evening Hours.
Flexible Schedule.

Call (201) 779-7100

MSC support looks good
MSC...WAKE-UP!

By Matt Wintner
Staff Writer

Last week at Sprague Field, the MSC Red-tailed Hawks beat up Ramapo College 30-14 and sent out a strong message to the rest of the NJAC. The offense sparked with Ed Baffise, Amod Field, and a sensational performance by Dan Walsh. On defense the trio of Walsh, Matt Murphy, Matt Clark, and Paul Cioffi put hits on Ramapo ballcarriers that might have made some Ramapo players wonder if playing against MSC was really worth all the punishment they were absorbing.

Before MSC exploded in the third quarter, they were only leading by a 10-7 margin and Ramapo gave the impression that this game would be a battle to the very end. There was one sad part of this game, and it had nothing to do with an injury to a player or poor execution by the Hawks. What I am referring to is the lack of support and enthusiasm that most MSC football fans showed towards their team during last week’s game. Saturday night’s crowd was over 5,000 fans, and it seemed that a much smaller following of Ramapo supporters were louder than it seemed that a much smaller following of Ramapo supporters were louder than...