A water pipe that broke on Monday. Maintenance shut off the water on Tuesday for three and a half hours while they repaired the pipe.

Panel discussion on war to be televised

By Trinace Webb
Correspondent

A round table discussion on the Persian Gulf War took place in the Speech Building on Feb. 19. The discussion was filmed by the MSC film department and will air on CTN, the Cable T.V. Network, in March.

Dr. Doris Bianchi of the Speech and Theater department mediated the discussion. The panel included faculty members Dr. Michael Kogan of Philosophy and Religion department, Dr. Amy Srebnick of the History department, Dr. Joanne Englebert of the Spanish and Italian department, Professor Arnold Krotokin and student representative Laura West.

Krotokin expressed concern for the families of service members saying, “The government should provide more support for the families of the troops serving in the Gulf.”

During the two-hour discussion, audience members posed questions to the panel that ranged from President Bush’s ethics to the consequences if Israel retaliates against Iraq. The majority of the panel members seemed to be against the war but supportive of the troops. Of the troops, Englebert said, “Minorities will unnecessarily suffer much deprivation as a result of the war,” while West said, “Young people were coerced into joining the military.”

Discussions like these are important because, “It is the people’s obligation to speak out against the war,” said Srebnick.

The discussion is scheduled to air on CTN on March 4 and 11 at 4 p.m., March 6 at 11 a.m. and March 13 at 11:30 a.m.
GULF UPDATE

- Iraq is willing to unconditionally surrender, according to Iranian Foreign Minister Ali Akbar Velayati. Velayati spoke of meetings between Iranian heads of state and Iraqi Foreign Minister Tariq Aziz, in which Aziz said that Iraq was willing to comply with United Nations Security Council Resolution 660, which requires Iraqi withdrawal from Kuwait along with Iraq’s withdrawal from other Middle East issues.

- The Soviet plan for peace was criticized but not rejected by President Bush, who reiterated linkage demands and issued no position on the Soviet plan. The Soviet Plan entails unconditional Iraqi withdrawal from Kuwait along with coalition promises to address Middle East issues, and includes the preservation of the Iraqi Ba’ath party.

- Two U.S. warships were damaged by mines this week but remain operational with hull damage. The Aegis Cruiser Princeton was damaged, as well as the Amphibious Assault Carrier Tripoli. The Princeton is one of the Navy’s most expensive warships, Aegis Cruisers are priced at $1 billion each.

- President Bush is readying to ask Congress for $15 billion to cover additional war costs, according to administration officials. A request is also expected to be made to U.S. allies for about $40 billion in new financial assistance. U.S. military has spent more than $11 billion than it was appropriated last year because of the Gulf War.

- The U.S. Air Force bombed and destroyed what it called a hardened underground bunker, but the Iraqis described the site as a bomb shelter located in a residential neighborhood. Iraq claims that over 400 civilians were killed in the attack, disputing the U.S. assurance that the bunker was a military communications hub. Another such communications headquarters is said to be located beneath one of the main hotels occupied by foreigners in Baghdad. Washington has stated that for political reasons the hotel would not be destroyed, despite its military significance.

- Syria measured their recognition of Israel’s right to exist in an effort to bring more peace and stability in the region in the future. Syria also recognized the Palestinian national determinism, which is a predominant factor in much of the Arab-Israeli enmity.

INTERNATIONAL

- The IRA claimed responsibility for bombings in London railroad stations, killing one and wounding 40. A bomb exploded in Paddington Station damaging the building with none injured, and the second explosion three hours later at 7:40 a.m. went off in Victoria Station resulting in all the casualties.

- The Kremlin issued a plan which would raise all consumer goods by at least 60% in the U.S.S.R. Medicine, fuel and vodka would not be increased, and the government promised compensation through wages and pensions. This is an attempt by the government to more strictly control prices and revive the ailing Soviet economy.

- North Korea scrapped its next level of diplomatic talks with South Korea, blaming the U.S./South Korean military exercises. U.S. officials claim the war games to be defensive in nature, and North Korean officials claimed them to be a rehearsal for the invasion of North Korea.

- The Japanese government offered a reward for its citizens who give birth. Families would receive $38 a month for each child of pre-school age and double that amount for a third child. These efforts are to stimulate birth rate that has been decreasing in that country. Japanese women’s rights group resent the Pal­estinian national determinism, which is a predominant factor in much of the Arab- Israeli enmity.

SGA News

Bill on Forums Passed

By Kerri Raftery
Staff Writer

A bill was passed, after a lengthy discussion, stating that weekly tolerant and impartially run forums, teach-ins, open-mikes and/or discussions during the Persian Gulf Crisis to inform the campus community will be held.

This bill has also stopped all bills supporting or opposing the war. They are to be suspended for one month until a definite opinion can be formed. An ad-hoc committee was set up to follow up on these events.

Helen Archontou, chairman of the senior committee, gave the dates for all upcoming senior events. These are as follows:
- April 19 - Party Cruise

Greek Council News

New treasurer elected

By Anthony Pagliaroli
Correspondent

Maryann Koscieluk, the president of Alpha Iota Chi, was elected as Greek Council Treasurer at Tuesday’s meeting. As her first order of business, she requested all Greek organizations to pay their dues of three dollars per active member promptly. Koscieluk also requested a membership roster with the checks. The money shall be added to the balance of $1,875.25, and will go towards Greek Week.

President James Roach appointed other positions. Randy Jiminez of Lambda Sigma Upsilon, and Elaine McCarroll of Alpha Iota Chi, were appointed chairpersons of the Membership Committee. This committee is designed to keep all organizations informed of various pledging rules, as well as various forms of pledging. The committee will meet with all Pledge Masters/Mistresses on Thursday the 24th at 7:00.

Roach read a letter to the Council concerning Lambda Theta Phi, a non-chartered fraternity. The letter accuses the group of pledging underground, without their charter. The letter was signed: "a concerned Greek."

Vice-president of the SGA, Maggie Kurdyla, commented on the fact that there is no policy within either the SGA or Greek Council to deal with this matter. Dean Harris also received this letter, and assured the Council that the administration is aware of the situation, and has launched independent investigations concerning the matter. The topic will be discussed further next week, with a possible policy for a goal.

Two interest groups came to the council seeking approval to go up for chartering with the SGA. Sigma Tau Nu, a local sorority, has completed its probationary period and will present themselves to the SGA next week. Tau Phi Eta, a local fraternity, has not yet completed this period, but is looking to become chartered in two weeks.

The Greek Council is made up of one voting member from each Greek-letter organization, although anyone may attend.

Meetings are scheduled for every Tuesday at 5:00 on the fourth floor of the Student Center.

SGA will award ten scholarships

By Jim Aquaviva
Correspondent

The SGA will be awarding ten $400 scholarships in conjunction with the Art Carved Ring Company to current sophomores and juniors for the 1990-91 academic year.

The scholarships are available to all sophomores and juniors, and students may pick up applications for them in the SGA office. To qualify for the scholarship, you must meet the following requirements:

1. A grade point average of 2.7 or better.
3. Current sophomore or junior status.
4. Shown leadership and involvement in SGA chartered organizations or legitimate Greek organizations.
5. Shown involvement in student concerns.

The deadline for applications is March 11 and the scholarships will be awarded in late March.

MSC still not MSU

By Justine Gianandrea
Staff Writer

MSC is still attempting to achieve university status, although the college has not yet applied for it according to President Irvin Reid.

The term "university" will "accurately reflect in name what the school is in fact," Dr. Jesse Rosenblum, vice president of Institutional Advancement, said.

Traditionally, in order for a school to achieve university status, it must provide two doctoral programs in two different fields. Although MSC does not meet this condition, it fulfills the new requirements proposed in The New Jersey Register.

During the Spring of 1990, Rider and Monmouth Colleges intended to become universities. Unhappy with the present requirements to achieve this, both colleges petitioned the Board of Higher Education and implored them to revise the criteria.

Board of Trustees Meeting

Budget cuts may have serious implications

By Jim Aquaviva
Correspondent

Budget cuts and their implications on MSC were discussed at the Board of Trustees meeting Thursday, Feb. 14.

Dr. Joan Ficke of the Health Professions department and Vice President of the American Federation of Teachers expressed the union's concern that major programs could be cut as a result of faculty reductions and that many students could then be forced into five year programs. Additionally, Paul Prior, non-voting student trustee, later said that there are presently 18 faculty positions which have yet to be filled because of a lack of funds.

A resolution was passed ratifying the purchase of the Beckman House on Normal Avenue with money donated by the Faculty Student Co-op. MSC's Space Allocation Committee will recommend the best use for the space.

Dr. Max Sobel of the Mathematics department voiced the need for outstanding service to MSC.

An emergency purchase was authorized for the re-keying of Bohn Hall residents' offices following the burglary of those rooms earlier although the work is nearly completed.

Concentrations in economics and business economics in the business administration program were approved.

Water cont. from p. 1

The Montclarion / Thursday, February 21, 1991 3
Players presents

PIPPIN

a musical comedy

February 21, 22, 23
8pm, 22 at 2:15
Student Center Rm. 126
$2.00

"We've Got Magic to Do..."

a class 1 org. of the SGA
MUSIC SALE

$3.98 AND UP

GRATEFUL DEAD
WYNTON MARSALIS
AEROSMITH
BEETHOVEN
BEST OF JAZZ

CHICAGO
JIMMY BUFFETT
LED ZEPPELIN
BILLY JOEL
VAN MORRISON

Limited Time. Come Early for Best Selection.

---

COUPON

50¢

50¢

TOWARD PURCHASE OF ANY CASSETTE FROM ANY COLLEGE SUPPLIERS MUSIC DISPLAY. LIMIT ONE COUPON PER CASSETTE PURCHASE. VALID UNTIL 6-30-91. NOT VALID FOR CLASSICS SHOWCASE CASSETTES

The College Store

REDEEMABLE IN YOUR BOOKSTORE ONLY

---

Finally:

A PC designed and built for the Home

Introducing:

IBM PS/1

The PS/1 from IBM is the most exciting Personal Computer introduced in recent years. It is the perfect computer for home and business use. The PS/1 is easy to use because it runs under a graphical environment that need not be a VAX/VMS computer or even a computer at all. For $398 (or $498), you get a computer, monitor, keyboard, mouse, systems with a hard drive, the to be used when you take it out of the box. $950 in software comes set-up and ready: Microsoft Works (a processor, and communications package), DOS 4.0, and Prodigy service free for 3 months. formation service that not only offers help when and where you need it. Included are the comm- modem, and manuals. For PS/1 comes set-up and ready the box. $950 in software spreadsheet, database, word package). DOS 4.0, and Prod-

---

LIMITED TIME. COME EARLY FOR BEST SELECTION.

---

LENTS/SEMINAR/WORKSHOP

2-22 Fri. workshop: Parenting 11a.m.-12p.m. Free Gilbreth House

2-22 Fri. workshop: Adult Children of Alcoholics 12-1p.m. Free Gilbreth House

2-23 Sat. CLEP workshop 10a.m.-1p.m. College Hall

2-25 Mon. lecture: UAMMA-Cooperative Economics Ellis Liddell $3.00 7p.m. Student Center Ballroom

2-25 Mon. workshop: Surviving War in the Middle East Free 11a.m.-12p.m. Gilbreth House

2-25 Mon. workshop: Men's Rap Group free 4-5p.m.

2-26 Tue. Animal Rights Lecture Free 7:30 p.m. Kops Lounge in Russ Hall

2-26 Tue. Discussion: Rap Music and Social Activism Free 7p.m. Student Center Ballrooms

2-27 Wed. Lecture: Christian Mysticism Ewert Cousins Free

2-27 Wed. College Bowl Program meeting 3p.m. Student Center 402 $893-7564

2-27 Wed. seminar: Get the Internship-Part-time Job that's right for You Free 2-3p.m. Student Center Annex 106

2-28 Thu. seminar: Business Careers for All Majors Free 3-4p.m. Student Center Annex 106

2-28 Thu. seminar: Resume Writing Free 6-7:30p.m. Student Center 417

2-28 Thu. Lecture: Tyrone Mitchell, Sculptor Free 3 p.m. Calcia Auditorium

---

FILM/THEATER

2-23 Sat. Movie Marathon Free 4p.m. Webster Hall Main Lounge

2-26, 27, 28 Silent Cacophonies $8. students, $8 Gen. Public

2-24 Sun. Grand Illusion Film/Discussion Free Calcia Auditorium

2-27 Wed. Four Native Americans-Art Exhibit Reception/ Demonstration Free 4-6p.m. College Art Gallery, Life Hall

2-27 Wed. Drums of Fire Performance Free 7-8p.m. Student Center Ballrooms

---

MUSIC

2-26 Thu. Cake, Wyclef Jean, Buju Banton, Mypa

2-27 Wed. Drums of Fire Performance African Drummers and Dancers $3.00 Free 7:30p.m. Student Center Ballrooms

---

EVENTS

Sunday Mass 11a.m. Kops Lounge

Sunday Mass 7p.m. Newman Center attention

MSC students

Make MSC's four walls QUARTERLY
Room 113 A Student Center Annex

Submit your work by

FERF 20

C.L.U.B. PRESENTS
Comedy night at the RAT!!!

only $2

Tuesday
Feb. 26th,
9:00 p.m.
Is there water in the house? Campus copes with broken pipe

By Valerie Kallrin
Outlook Editor

Even though the campus couldn't get a drop of running water for three and a half hours on Tuesday because of a broken water main by McEachern, there was still a flood of inconvenience and complaints.

Yet like the person caught in an unexpected downpour, people on campus found a way to cope—they were "steamered," sure, but they coped.

In fact, a few Freeman Hall residents joked that on Tuesday, you could easily tell a drop of running water for three and a half days. Water service didn't resume until after 2:00 p.m., but the water ran brown because of dirt that had gotten into the broken pipe. In the interim, no restrooms on campus were available; those in the Student Center were locked.

"I couldn't take a shower," said Bohn Hall resident Yoon Lee. "I didn't take a shower all day," said English major Tom Dickey.

"I had to pee for three hours and I had to drive 20 minutes home just to get to the bathroom," said Valerie Kalfrin.

"It's not the first time this has happened on campus. I was inconvenienced; I couldn't shower or use the toilet. Maintenance needs to be improved on campus," said Robyn Schmelter.

"I had taken a shower in the morning," said Freeman Hall resident Melissa Zimmerman. "It didn't really affect me because I don't take showers." Accounting major Michael Katz agreed. "It's ridiculous," he said. "First there's a problem with security and now with the water. All this money we're spending should go to something that's actually useful." Accounting major Michael Katz agreed.

"The only beverages we had were milk, which upset a lot of people. By dinner time, the water was back on, though, so there were no more paper products," he said.

"Someone used the bathroom two minutes before the water was supposed to come back on, but then it didn't. It affected my room, suite, and the hall. It was a bad day," said Dylan Preziosi.

"It didn't really affect me because I don't take showers. But seriously, it's just another thing that we've got to put up with living in the dorms. I realize things happen, but I think maintenance should give us what we pay for," said Daniel Schuster.

Of the commuters with time between classes talking of driving home just to use the bathroom. Everything ready," he said. "Kevin Rakowskv is once again running hot, cold, and clear."

"There was not nearly enough time to get everything ready," he said. "Kevin Rakowskv (Associate Director of Residence Life) called around 10:00, and we called down to Freeman.

"There was not nearly enough time to get everything ready," said Valerie Kalfrin.

"It's not the first time this has happened on campus. I was inconvenienced; I couldn't shower or use the toilet. Maintenance needs to be improved on campus," said Danielle O'Neill.

"It didn't really affect me because I don't take showers. But seriously, it's just another thing that we've got to put up with living in the dorms. I realize things happen, but I think maintenance should give us what we pay for," said Daniel Schuster.

Nevertheless, while the water on campus is once again running hot, cold, and clear, people on campus are still hot over the issue. Some, like Bohn resident Melissa Zimmerman, would have liked more advance notice. "They didn't even tell us five minutes before they were going to turn the water off," she said.

Political science major Mary Roberts agreed. "They gave us no notice. I'm pretty sure they knew about this more ahead of time," she said.

While most understand that the pipe break was nothing that could have been predicted, they are still disappointed with the amount of time it took to fix the problem (Director of Facilities Doug Cooper could not be reached by deadline).

"We're paying all this money for housing, and the whole school gets shut off because of water?" said mathematics major Rob Kreck. "What are we paying for?"

"It's ridiculous," he said. "First there's a problem with security and now with the water. All this money we're spending should go to something that's actually useful." Accounting major Michael Katz agreed. "It's ridiculous," he said. "First there's a problem with security and now with the water. All this money we're spending should go to something that's actually useful." Accounting major Michael Katz agreed.

"It's one thing you should expect—clean water, not brown," added fine arts major Denise DeLongis. Hopefully, it's also something that 'll keep on running.

All Around the Campus: The Community Speaks

How did Tuesday's water shortage affect your day?

Compiled by William Palm

"Someone used the bathroom two minutes before the water was supposed to come back on, but then it didn't. It affected my room, suite, and the hall. It was a bad day."

"I had to pee for three hours and I had to drive 20 minutes home just to get to the bathroom."

"It's not the first time this has happened on campus. I was inconvenienced; I couldn't shower or use the toilet. Maintenance needs to be improved on campus."

"It didn't really affect me because I don't take showers. But seriously, it's just another thing that we've got to put up with living in the dorms. I realize things happen, but I think maintenance should give us what we pay for."

Dylan Preziosi
Sophomore/Undeclared

Robyn Schmelter
Junior/Graphic design

Danielle O'Neill
Freshman/Undeclared

Daniel Schuster
Sophomore/Political science
SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

Awards sponsored by

New Jersey Bell
3 awards at $1000 each

Bergen County Retired Educators Assn.
1 award at $1000

Gary L. Palumbo Scholarship
1 award at $500

The Women of Montclair State
1 award at $500

Applications available in Financial Aid and School Dean's Offices

DEADLINE: MARCH 22, 1991

WHY WE FIGHT
A FILM SERIES
WHY WE DON'T
CALCIA FINE ARTS BUILDING, ROOM 135
GRAND ILLUSION
Directed by Jean Renoir (1937)
In French with English subtitles, Renoir's classic anti-war story of three French prisoners of war explored the bonds of brotherhood that transcend class, race and nationality.
FREE ADMISSION

Sunday
Feb. 24
7 p.m.

Alpha Iota Chi welcomes the
Mu Pledge Class
Spring 1991
Janene Criscione
Melissa Moyle
Suzanne Tiedemann
Deanna Disbrow
Kristi Coombs
Stephanie Abeles
Uz Valandingham
Katrina Anderson
Leah Pierce

Good Luck!!!

The College Tutorial Center Located in Building E, is posting its hours for the Spring '91.

The Center is open from 9am-4:30pm Mondays through Fridays. Evening hours are also available.

Sign-up for tutoring services will continue through April 5. Faculty and professional staff are encouraged to refer students to the Center before this date.

Further information may be obtained by calling the Tutorial Center at 893-4364.
Ten years ago this week, residents heard about a crackdown on visitation rights. While three years ago, the campus heard about the days when crackdowns on racism began.

Feb. 19, 1981

"Visitation changes suggested"

The Housing Visitation Review Committee tentatively drew up recommendations for stricter overnight guest policies and stricter penalties for residents by allowing guests to stay overnight for three out of four weeknights; the new policy suggested restricting overnight visitors to one weekend and a weekday.

"It's 10 p.m. Do you know where your children are?"

A front-page photo showed the "incredibly long" line outside Memorial Auditorium for the showing of Deep Throat.

Feb. 27, 1986

"Rosa Parks recalls days of segregation"

Civil rights advocate Rosa Parks, whose refusal to give up her seat on the bus because of her race started the Alabama bus boycott of 1955 and ignited the civil rights movement, gave a lecture to an audience of 300 about her experience. Parks said she refused to give up her seat in spite of segregation because her family had taught her to respect herself and others.

Montclair Hotline

893-5169
Where are my personals?

Senator Bill Bradley pages through a copy of The Montclarion while taking a break in the Student Center Ballrooms. Bradley was on campus last week to host a day of seminars for high school students interested in government.

The Greek Weekly

What goes here?

The Rush, Social, Philanthropic and any other events of your Greek organization.

Why isn't anything here?

Contact us! Tell us about your organizational events so that the rest of the campus and other Greeks can know about them, too.

Write your event on a piece of paper and either drop it in the envelope on the door of the Treasurer's Office at The Montclarion (Rm. 113 of the Student Center Annex) or hand it to Kerry Raftery at the Greek Council meetings Tuesdays at 5:00 p.m. (Fourth floor of the Student Center).

Thanks!

Win Individual Prizes.

Gift Certificates Awarded Nightly:

Most Pledges
Most $ Raised
Top Caller Overall
Biggest Increase In Giving
Most $ Raised In a Single Evening: $ 50

February 25-28

March 4 -7

For More Info, or to sign up an individual or group, please contact the MSC Alumni Office, 893-4141, between 8:30 am and 4:30 pm, Monday thru Friday.

PHONATHON 1991

PARTICIPATE IN THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Win Team Prizes For Your Organization:

Win $ 250 - Most $ Raised Overall - First Place
Win $ 100 - Most $ Raised Overall - Second Place
Win $ 50 - Most $ Raised Per Night
MSC'S No. 1 WEEKEND

A CLASS ONE OF THE SGA

SAVE on our STUPENDOUS SALE of SUPER SOUNDS

Cassettes Records and CD's....

MAJOR LABELS - TOP ARTISTS
A Sound Investment Save Big Bucks
Pop, Rock, Folk, Jazz and Classical
Limited Time. Come Early for Best Selection.

Now in Progress
The College Store

BRANTL MEMORIAL LECTURES

The Philosophy and Religion Department and the School of Humanities and Social Sciences are pleased to announce the Brantl Memorial Lectures in religion for Spring, 1991. The lecture series is named in honor of George Brantl (1922-1978), Founder and first Chairman of the Montclair State College Department of Philosophy and Religion.

LECTURE SERIES: "MYSTICISM, EAST & WEST"

FIRST LECTURE:
Wednesday, February 27, 1991
Kops Lounge, Russ Hall, Montclair State College, 8:00 p.m.
TOPIC: "The Spiritual Paths of Knowledge and Love: Christian Mysticism"
SPEAKER: DR. EWERT COUSINS, Professor of Theology, Fordham University; Visiting Professor, Columbia University.
Author: Global Spirituality: Toward The Meeting Of Mystical Paths; General Editor: World Spirituality: An Encyclopedic History

SECOND LECTURE:
Wednesday, March 20, 1991
Kops Lounge, Russ Hall, Montclair State College, 8:00 p.m.
TOPIC: "The Hindu Mystical Tradition"
SPEAKER: DR. K.R. SUNDARARAJAN, Professor of Theology and Chairman, Department of Theology, St. Bonaventure University.
Contributing Author: Hinduism; Religions of Man, Death and Eastern Thought, etc.

THIRD LECTURE:
Wednesday, April 24, 1991
Kops Lounge, Russ Hall, Montclair State College, 8:00 p.m.
TOPIC: "Sufism: Mystical Dimension of Islam"
SPEAKER: DR. SEYYED HOSSEIN NASR, University Professor of Islamic Studies, George Washington University.
Formerly, Dean and Vice-Chancellor, Tehran University.
Author: Ideals and Realities of Islam; Islam and the Plight of Modern Man; Knowledge and Sacred, etc.

MARCH 1-3
FRI 5:30PM -
SUN 4:00PM.
ONLY $40
(ALL INCL.)
SIGN-UP
NOW
RM 403
STUDENT
CENTER
JOHNSONBURG
CAMP, NJ.
CALL 893-
7348

A BREAK
THROUGH IN COMMUNICATION
What does it take for classes to be cancelled?

On Tuesday the administration once again showed the students of this campus it takes little less than a nuclear war for class to be cancelled for a day. A water main break caused the water to be shut off in every building for at least three hours while repairs were being initiated, but school was supposed to continue as if nothing was different. Not having access to a working bathroom seems to be justification for the cancelling of classes for at least half a day. The Montclarion has been witness for years to the administration’s indifference to the plight of students, both commuter and resident, when it comes to the question of cancelling classes for emergencies. Things such as residence halls being denied water and power are not significant to grant those students living there a day off. The administration should think about the situation students are in when they are denied the basic necessities of living. What happened on Tuesday, where students had to skip class just so they could find somewhere to go to the bathroom, won’t happen again. Students need to be given ample warning when they are going to be inconvenienced so the proper preparations can be made.

Fraternity sponsors pen pals for the Persian Gulf

During Alpha Phi Omega’s February 6th project of sending Valentines to the troops, many MSC faculty and students demonstrated a strong interest in corresponding with the troops as pen pals.

However, the U.S. Military and Postal Service have advised us that letters to the troops be addressed to specific servicemen for quick and more accurate delivery. As a result, our organization would like to compile a list of mailing addresses of servicemen to make such correspondence more readily possible. We need your help!

If anyone knows of any students, friends, or relatives who are currently serving in the Gulf, please give us their names and mailing addresses so that we can include them on our list. These addresses can be put in our mailbox at the SGA office or dropped off in the Alpha Phi Omega office.

Thank You,
Brittney Dews
Alpha Phi Omega
Treasurer
What it really means to be a patriotic American

I would like to respond to the left-winged students who oppose the war in the Gulf, as well as the so-called right-winged conservatives who support the war. Let me preface my statement by saying I have friends and family in the military and that I am not against warfare. Unfortunately war is necessary sometimes. However, I am totally opposed to this war.

Before all the Budweiser Patriots with their newly bought American Flag paraphernalia accuse me of being a communist, let me tell you more about myself. I am a practicing Roman Catholic and an ardent anti-communist. The last couple of years I have tried my own way to stamp out communism in this area, mostly through one-on-one conversation. Yet, I am against the war.

Why don’t I agree and march with the left-winged student organizations who oppose the war? Simply because on every other issue I disagree with them and their atheistic/cynical doctrines that do much to undermine this nation. I want no part of them. Why then don’t I agree with the so-called right-wing types, such as Bob Grant and Charlton Heston and support our troops? The two men mentioned pervert the right-wing. These blood thirsty war mongers are more akin with the hard line Soviet Stalinist. True conservatives like former President Richard M. Nixon and columnists Patrick Buchanan would really like to support our troops, contact the Army and Navy relief services (any local recruiter can give you the address) and donate time or money. Many families with loved ones in Saudi Arabia are suffering financially. If you support our boys over there, as columnists Charles Reese says, close your mouth and provide some real assistance. Secondly contact the Veterans Administration and arrange to be a volunteer. The V.A. still needs help from past wars. Thirdly contact your state legislators and make sure there are laws on the books to protect the jobs of men and women called to active duty, it would be a shame for them to come home and have no job.

In conclusion, think and question what President George “read my lips” Bush says. There is nothing “patriotic” about what he is trying to do. He is using ill-informed, well-meaning, naive young Americans who have propagated into believing that they are nobly defending their country. Nothing could be further from the truth. We are intruding into their territory and affairs and not the other way around. These young Americans are to be used as cannon fodder by sinister, secret forces that few ordinary, uninformed people understand. President Bush and the others who are willing to sacrifice tens of thousands of American lives for the sole benefit of Israel and International Business should be impeached and tried for treason.

Richard Evers Hrazamek
Senior/religion

Stopping the aggression of a military madman

Months ago when the Bush administration called Saddam Hussein another Hitler, many said that was empty rhetoric. Others agreed that the Iraqi dictator was a “petty-Hitler.” Saddam Hussein is far worse, a potential aspiring “Hitler.”

Saddam Hussein is the monkey wrench in the Middle East peace process, a demagogue who has initiated two wars in the past decade for purposes of self-aggrandizement. He was fortunate that the Iranians were unable to capitalize on their mid-war success. He was fortunate that the Iranians were unable to capitalize on their mid-war success. He is fortunate that the Iranian president is a “petty-Hitler.” Saddam Hussein has initiated two wars in the past decade for purposes of self-aggrandizement. He was fortunate that the Iranians were unable to capitalize on their mid-war success. He is fortunate that the Iranian president is a “petty-Hitler.”

Saddam Hussein’s “Case Yellow” prevented Saudi Arabia from becoming his “Case White.” Like Hitler, civilian life means nothing to Saddam. He placed his citizens in a magnetic pulse protected military bunker, in the hope that five-hundred dead would give him propaganda points, inciting more hatred for the allies. If Saddam keeps earmarking Iraqi civilians for death, by placing them in military bunkers, this will hopefully have a boomerang effect on him.

The Saudi Arabian government said Saddam has a Napoleonic complex, more likely a Nasser one. Like that deceased Egyptian president, he hopes to lead the Arab world. For Saddam, the Babylonian Pan-Arabist, the writing is on the wall.

Jonathan Webman
Senior/political science

Sometimes you have to fight for peace

I would like to respond to the editorial by Amy A. Glavasich in February 14 issue of the Montclarion.

I do not support the original idea of President Bush to go to war, but we as people could do nothing to stop it. I know that we did not rally behind our troops and support the effort 100%. No amount of begging, or as the members of S.T.A.N.D. call it, protesting, will bring the troops home. The only way to get them home quickly is to stomp on the regime of Saddam Hussein as if it were a roach. I liken it to a situation where someone close to you, your sister for instance, is arguing with a lunatic. You may not want your sister to get into a fight with the lunatic, but if she does, you most certainly would back your sister. You would not just stand there and say, “Stop fighting,” you would want your sister to beat the hell out of the lunatic until the lunatic is subdued. We, the United States, cannot stop fighting until Saddam Hussein is beaten.

About the alleged “Teach-in.” Surely if the S.T.A.N.D. forum was meant to educate the students about the war, it would have educated us from both sides of the river, not only the anti-war side.

If, as Miss Glavasich states, the war is not in the best interest of anyone, then I suppose the people of Kuwait would be better off if the United States ignored the situation and let Saddam Hussein waltz all over Kuwait, and kill all of the people.

Miss Glavasich claims that “...war is not justifiable under any circumstance.” Would she have supported World War II when Japan attacked Pearl Harbor had she been born sixty years earlier? If the Soviet Union stormed the shores of the United States with millions of troops tomorrow, would she defend our country? Well, probably not, because according to Miss Glavasich, “...war is not justifiable under any circumstance.”

In reference to Miss Glavasich’s remark that war cannot be used as a strategy to create peace, may I analogize? If you had a child and he broke the windshield of your new car with a rock after you told him not to throw rocks, would you spank him? Most likely. Will your child stop throwing rocks? Probably, and the reason he would do so is because he is afraid of getting a spanking. This is what we must do with Saddam Hussein. Kick his ass so he will not raid defenseless countries just because he feels like it. The United States is involved, and we cannot leave until Saddam Hussein is defeated.

Jeff Lawton
Junior/English

Rush’s World

Yes, the Peace Piper is back! The voice of the radical '60s that stopped a generation

I love you PEACE PIPER! Keep up the good work!

On college campuses across the nation, Marxist professors and their proteges say...

WE LOVE YOU PEACE PIPER!

In the protest marches, those that are stuck in the '60s say...

WE LOVE YOU PEACE PIPER!

U.S. OUT OF VIETNAM!

The Girl

Jonathan Webman
Senior/political science
We are the people U.S. propaganda is aimed at. The purpose of U.S. censorship is to fill our heads with lies, so we will not oppose U.S. government policy. Why? Because during the Vietnam War tens of millions of Americans came to realize “our” government was lying to us. Tens of thousands of American soldiers were being killed and aimed for a lie.

Isn’t this a war to stop aggression?
No! The U.S. government supports aggression by Israel, South Africa, and Indonesia, for example. The U.S. commits aggression, too, as in Panama, Grenada, Nicaragua, Reagan and Bush supported Iraqi aggression against Iran in 1981.

4. What is the war about, then?
Oil! Bush keeps denying it’s about oil because he knows we, the working people, do not want to fight for oil company profits.

Won’t we get cheaper oil and gas if Iraq is defeated?
No. The U.S. government secretly told Saddam Hussein on July 28 that Bush wanted a price above $25 a barrel — higher than Saddam himself wanted. Why? Because oil companies benefit from high prices, though working people are hurt. Our soldiers are being killed to make oil more expensive, among other reasons.

Are you saying that U.S. working people will be better off if the U.S. withdraws from the Middle East?
Exactly. We’ll be better off in every way. The war is costing billions — and every expert admits U.S. taxpayers will pay for most of it. But if the U.S. wins, our soldiers will be stationed there for years longer — a huge expense. There will be thousands more U.S. soldiers killed in further Middle East wars. Like in Vietnam, the U.S. is supported by the oppressive governments of the region, but is hated by the masses of the people.

7. Why are we hated?
We are not hated — the U.S. government is hated. This is because of U.S. imperialism. U.S. oil companies have invested in the Middle East for 50 years because of the phenomenal profits they have made there. They have kept corrupt rulers in power who support U.S. oil companies instead of using oil revenues to serve the needs of their own peoples. All these pro-U.S. states are run by brutal, fascist regimes. Therefore, the working people in these countries understand the U.S. government is their enemy.

But we do not understand that the U.S. government is our enemy too: We are worse off when oil company profits are high. That’s why there has been no investment in other sources of energy. Big Oil doesn’t want us to switch.

Cheap labor anywhere in the world is against our interest, because big business can then send jobs and investment abroad. But the fascist Middle East regimes like Kuwait and Saudi Arabia suppress their working classes to keep labor cheap. This hurts U.S. workers, too — but it helps U.S. bosses.

8. Why do you say the war is racist?
The basic way that capitalists try to keep some workers paid less than others is through racism. This benefits them, and harms us, in three related ways.

First: Non-white workers, subject to special oppression, have lower wages and fewer benefits. This means their employers make higher profits.

Second: Employers can and do threaten to fire white workers and replace them by non-white workers. This acts as a restraint upon demands for higher wages by white workers. In other words, white workers are paid less because of racism than they would be if there were no groups of super-exploited workers — that is, if there were no racism.

Third: Racist ideas are used by employers to keep white and non-white workers divided against one another. Workers can only win strikes against employers if they are united. Racism weakens this unity or prevents it altogether.

Obviously, U.S. workers are hurt by the existence of cheap labor abroad or at home. Therefore, the main way this war is racist — and the main way it hurts U.S. working people — is that it is a war to keep fascist, anti-worker regimes in power, so U.S. companies can continue to make high profits from the very cheap labor of these super-exploited workers.

In addition, the war is racist because U.S. combat troops are more heavily non-white than the U.S. population as a whole. So non-white troops will bear the greater burden of sacrifice.

9. What about patriotism?
Patriotism is a noose around our neck. To be “patriotic” means to fight whatever wars the government tells us, and no questions asked. A “patriotic” person is a slave to the big corporations that run the government. If you notice it is the gas stations and the car dealers that fly the biggest flags.

10. Why should we support our soldiers by getting them to come home as soon as possible?
They have a big job to do: to fight the big corporations and the U.S. government for higher wages, lower taxes, better schools, better health care, an end to racism, right here at home. That is a war worth fighting and if need be, dying for.

11. What can I do?
Come to S.T.A.N.D. meetings, Wednesdays at 3 p.m., Student Center Room 112. S.T.A.N.D., a Class III organization, is open to all who oppose the war for whatever reasons.

Join the International Committee Against Racism (INCAR): INCAR has members in factories, high schools, colleges, neighborhoods, and in the military, fighting against racism and for multi-racial unity. We have members in other countries, too. Call me at 373-2743.
Academy Awards Nominations Unpredictable

By Tony Bavaro
Correspondent

“Dances With Wolves,” the three hour long Western epic from first time director Kevin Costner walked off with an enviable twelve Academy Award Nominations as the Academy announced its award nominees last Wednesday. Dubbed impossible to make and impossible to get made, the film’s box office success helped it not only win the award for Best Actor in a Leading Role, but view the imprisoned Dr. Lecter and ask for his help in drawing up a psychological profile of the new killer. She will have to use a friend to catch a friend.

The subsequent meetings between Starling and Lecter become the dramatic and emotional center of the film. Lecter, being a pervertedly curious man by both nature and profession, agrees to help Clarice on one condition: for every piece of information he gives her on Buffalo Bill, she in turn must provide him with information about herself. Orphaned at an early age, Clarice can almost identify with Hannibal as a father figure. His cutting remarks and brutally frank observations give her a better insight to who she is and the motivations behind her actions. Starling finds that she can tell the madman things that she cannot confide to her other parental figure, Bureau Director Foster, who treats her like a daughter.

The creative ways in which the difficulties of the room are overcome, including an oblique audience and two stage areas, are worthy of merit. The closedness of the players to the audience makes for a more involved spectator, which is what Roger Ebert mentioned. I wonder in what has become a mainstay of the film, Starling has to find his earliest memories and what came of them. The film’s cast is rich in importance to the film. The shape is familiar, no new heights are attained. The film is not musical, so this small cast, small audience house caught me off guard. But surprises like these make theater an art.

Performances like this Players production can only get an unprofessional observer interested in theater a lot. This is a very good experience for something such as “Pippin.” The shape is familiar, no new heights are attained. The film is not musical, so this small cast, small audience house caught me off guard. But surprises like these make theater an art.

The house is a rather unusual space, deep in the bowels of the student center annex, and completely unsuited for a performance of something such as “Pippin.” The shape is familiar, no new heights are attained. The film is not musical, so this small cast, small audience house caught me off guard. But surprises like these make theater an art.

Granting there were many flaws. This is a college production, this is to be expected. Some of the singers became audible to the audience makes for a more involved spectator, which is what Roger Ebert mentioned. I wonder in what has become a mainstay of the film, Starling has to find his earliest memories and what came of them. The film’s cast is rich in importance to the film. The shape is familiar, no new heights are attained. The film is not musical, so this small cast, small audience house caught me off guard. But surprises like these make theater an art.

Joining Costner in the Best Actor category are Robert DeNiro as the recovering drug addict in “Awakenings,” a somewhat too sentimental film about a man’s recovery from a twenty year trance; “Goodfella,” Martin Scorsese’s visually stunning film about neighborhood mobsters; and, hard as it may seem to believe, Francis Coppola’s “The Godfather Part III,” a truly awful film which only seems to believe, Francis Coppola’s “The Godfather Part III,” a truly awful film which only does great injustice to the two previous “Godfather” efforts. It is a meandering, aimless, silly at times film in which Coppola seems to have forgotten the very first lesson he learned as a film maker: tell a story.
Academy Awards

From 15

manages to hold our credibility. Best Actress honors went to Kathy Bates' deliciously nutty characterization in "Misery," Angelica Huston's knockout performance in "The Grifters," Julia Roberts' adorable call girl in "Pretty Woman," Meryl Streep's fine comic performance in "Postcards From The Edge" (is there anything that the versatile Miss Streep can't do?), and Joanne Woodward's strong performance in "Mr. and Mrs. Bridge." It is Roberts who seems misplaced here. Last year the twenty-three year old actress received a supporting actress nomination for "Steel Magnolias," a worthy honor to be sure. But her turn as the "pretty prostitute" should not have secured her a spot on the Best Actress list this year, not when the Academy passed up Shirley MacLaine in "Postcards From The Edge" and Glenn Close in "Reverse of Fortune."

Close also appears to be an obvious omission from the Best Supporting Actress group for her role as Queen Gertrude in "Hamlet." Always a difficult role to play, Close carries it off with ease and grace, this despite a terribly weak performance by Mel Gibson opposite her in the title role. Annette Bening in "The Grifters," Lorraine Bracco in "Goodfellas," and Diane Ladd in "Wild at Heart" complete the supporting actress category.

Those who were disappointed by Pacino's absence from the Best Actor list might be comforted by his name among the nominees for Best Supporting Actor for his performance as a vicious villain in "Dick Tracy." Filling out the supporting actor slots are Andy Garcia in "The Godfather Part III," Joe Pesci in "Goodfellas," and Bruce Davison in "Longtime Companion."

The absence of "Longtime Companion" from any of the other categories cannot go without comment. The film follows the fate of a man suffering from AIDS, and in an era of hysterics and preachment it approaches the issue in an almost forgotten way; from the human angle. It is absorbing, probing, and intelligent, and should have been a shoe in for a screenplay nomination and probably a Best Picture nod as well. But in a year when voters rushed out to nominate "Ghost" and "The Godfather Part III," a film like "Longtime Companion" found no room on the list.

The Academy Awards will be presented at the Shrine Auditorium in Los Angeles on March 25th and broadcast live from the Shrine Auditorium.

Hollow men, Solid music

By Neal Dougherty
Correspondent

"Cresta" is the name of the new cassette from the Hollow Men. Up front I am going to tell you that I like it, this is up front in the article, and I do like it. So there you go, and now you know, I am an up-front kind of guy that likes this recording. Bingo! Case closed. Go out and buy it.

However, maybe you're not easily swayed or as truly transparent as I am. Maybe you would like to know more about the release? And yes, you are going to learn more about the aforementioned Hollow Men, face it, it is inevitable even if you throw this paper away without reading another word. You will hear of them and you will hear them again and again. They sound very English like, particularly due to their vocalist David Ashmore who delivers his vocals in a very inherently English pseudowhisper. Remember Donovan. Mellow Yellow, Sunshine Superman, etc.? Remember the English Invasion and sound of the sixties? If you don't, hang out in the game room and play the jukebox for a spell. I am amazed at the amounts of sixties music I hear in there.

I imagine if Donovan had a kid, he would sound something like David Ashmore does. Kinda Donovan like if you can imagine Donovan doing quaaludes coming down off of acid, calm but inspired, psychedelic folk if you will. "Cresta is very sixties" flavored however, it is simultaneously enhanced with nineties technology. I wonder if Donovan did have a kid just how many names his kid would have? There is a one named acoustical guitarist in the band. His name is Choque. He does an ample acoustical job, my mentioning him and his single moniker serves no apparent purpose save that of firming up the Donovan correlation and my contention that they sound alike. Sometimes they sound like a tranquil INXS, again calm and sedated. However, I must stress and otherwise emphasize the currentness of "Cresta." Regardless of my identification with the sixties, this band is an example of just how music and technology can be integrated.

The Hollow Men inspired a whole plethora of thoughts, memories, recollections, and other irreverence within me at times (Don't Slow Down) they sounded very John Shaft like a la Isaac Hayes at his wah wah pedal finest. I recalled my own psychedelia and the softer times that corresponded with said psychedelia. I thought of Donovan smoking banana peels. I recalled Keith and the rest of the one named sixties singers. I am a poet, a writer, and a truck driver who delights in causing my readers to recall, to recollect, to reminisce, to otherwise journey through the memoirs of their mind. "Cresta" caused me to do all of these things and I am grateful, as I had a fine time doing just that. Other times they were mellow and mesmerizing, hell, they are very easy to fall asleep to. And Bonnie likes them. And so do I. And so should you.

Sculpture in the galleries

By Maria Russo
Staff Writer

Attention novices and art lovers, there has been an explosion of creativity brought to the campus of MSC! Now appearing is the works of George Tarr and Rosalyn Kane.

George Tarr is known for his unique, intuitive sculptures and paintings. Most of his sculptures are designed out of welded steel or limestone. Each one of his steel sculptures resemble several different configurations welded together to create either a familiar figure or a masterpiece of entanglement. His paintings go to extremes. They are either very vivid in color or very neutral. Rosalyn Kane's sculptures and paintings can be described to contain much emotion and movement in them. They are very vivid in color and in their expression of movement. For example, in one of her paintings entitled, "Dancers", one can actually envision the movements of the dancers in the painting, through the colors she uses and the way she designs their movements.

Both Tarr's and Kane's works are a sight to see. Both have their own individual creativity that is displayed in their art. Between Kane's expressive, motivating paintings and Tarr's instinctual sculptures that are almost life like, they are purely a gallery of masterpieces.

Rosalyn Kane's art is now on display in the Sprague Gallery, in the lobby of the Sprague Library and George Tarr's are on display in Gallery One, which is located in Life Hall Annex. They will be exhibited until Feb. 28.
What's going on

Piano Recital. Monica Jakuc and Raphael Atlas. March 19, 8pm MeEachern Recital Hall. Free. 893-5228

Kyoto Fibers. 5 Japanese artists. March 8-April 1. Reception March 13, 4-6pm. College Art Gallery, Life Hall. Free. 893-5113

Art Forum Lecture Series. Varying topics. Every Thursday 3-5pm. Calcia Auditorium. Free. 893-4307

Film Series. Why we Fight/Why we Don't: Images of War. Varying war-related films. Every Sunday at 7:30. Calcia Auditorium. Free. 893-7565

Danceworks. Montclair State students at their best. February 28, March 1 and 2 at 8pm. March 1 at 2:15. Memorial Auditorium. $3.50 for MSC students. More if you're not. 893-5112

Royal Coronation. Authentic Medieval court, ceremony, music. March 1, 5pm. Kops Lounge, Russ Hall. Eric at 893-4202

Pippin. February 21-23 at 8pm. Feb. 22 at 2:15. Student Center Annex 126. $2. 893-5159 nation, resourcefulness, and inner strength makes the audience cheer for her to the end. Because female leads are too often portrayed as helpless victims or domineering bitches, it is a welcome change to see one where the heroine is neither of these. Instead of seeing a woman who is victimized by both life and those around her and depend on others to rescue them, as is the case in films like "Pretty Woman," "Ghost," and "Sleeping with the Enemy," we have here a heroine in "Silence of the Lambs" like Clarice Stur­ling who, while aware of her limitations, is willing and determined to best the challenge by means of her own efforts.

Lambs From 15

Unlike other movie psychopaths, Anthony Hopkins' Hannibal the Cannibal is a believable and truly frightening character. As opposed to most other movie monsters, fear comes not from a dumb, drooling, almost primordial viciousness that is characteristic of friends like Jason and Leatherface, but from a diabolical, although brilliant, man. With his impeccable manners, grooming and vaguely aristocratic accent, Hopkins presents to us a man who while almost unspeakably evil, is at the same time almost mesmerizing because of his charm and fearsome intelligence. His actions are such abominations not strictly due to their particular viciousness, but rather because of his matter-of-fact attitude toward them. In one scene, he described that when he ate the liver of one of his patients, he served it with fava beans and a nice Chianti.

It is noteworthy to mention that, despite the subject matter of serial murder, there is curiously little violence. Of what violence there is, the camera eye does not revel in gore; rather it keeps an almost clinical perspective. The glimpses caught of flayed bodies do not provide the perverse thrill so common in splatter films. What the audience feels is a sadness for the victims that they were forced to suffer the horrible and tragic fate they did.

"Silence of the Lambs" is stylistically different from its predecessor, the 1986 film "Manhunter," in which Hannibal the Cannibal also appeared. Directed by the creator of "Miami Vice," that film was almost an exercise in avant-garde moviemaking; all stark white surfaces, deep blue shadows and almost minimalist dialogue. In "Silence of the Lambs," there is a sense of greater depth and substance. Production designer Kristi gives us images of grubby Appalachian towns and the forbidding dungeon-like madhouse prison that holds Lecter. Ted Tally's adaptation of Thomas Harris' novel gives us crisp dialogue intended for adults.

To be honest, the film is not for everybody. The plot is not as easy to follow as one might expect and needs to be paid attention to in order to pick up small, but noteworthy details. Of more importance, there are several scenes that are extremely upsetting and deeply disturbing due to their graphic nature. But if you are not easily upset, "Silence of the Lambs" comes highly recommended. This is a horror-thriller for those who hate horror-thrillers.

CLASS ONE
CONCERTS PRESENTS
Battle of the Bands

Tuesday, March 5th
9:00pm
in the Student Center
Ballrooms

$2 Students

$3 Non-students

You can help determine the winner!!!
Class 1 Concerts is a Class One of the SGA
CLUB presents:

Spring Week Logo Contest

Winner will receive an assortment of 1991 Spring Week promotional items and the glory of having his/her artwork emblazoned across campus.

This year's theme is: "SPRING WEEK '91: CHILL..."

Please submit all artwork in an 8 X 10 format.
* 1 black and white
* 1 five color

Must say "MONTCLAIR STATE COLLEGE" AND "CLUB IS A CLASS I ORGANIZATION OF THE SGA"

Entries must be received by 12:00pm on February 25, 1991.

Bring Entries to room 112D in the Student Center Annex (Club Office)
-WAKE N BAKE! Spring Break in Jamaica/Cancun from $4591! A week of fun & sun at the year's hottest destination. Sun Splash Tours 1-800-426-7710

-Jamaica/Cancun from $4591! A week of WAKE N BAKE! Spring Break in

-Specialties. Contact Ron Klein, Director, Camp Kinder Ring, 45 E. 33rd St. NYC 10016. (212)889-6800 Ext. 272

-CARIBBEAN ONLY $189! Why freeze? For only $189 you can be lying in the sun of the Caribbean/Mexican coast for a week! SUNSHIT(TM) 212-864-2000.

-HEADING FOR EUROPE THIS SUMMER? Jet there anytime with AIRRITCH(R). (As reported in NY Times & Let's Go) AIRRITCH(R) 212-864-2000.

-Need money for your organization? Call the Alumni Office and let me tell you how we can help you. To find out more about participating in Phonathon (and making money for your organization). Please call ext. 4141 and ask Lisa Bogart. p.s. Dates for this year's Phonathon are February 25-28 and March 4-7, 1991.

-Child Care - Responsible, caring person for 4 year old girl, Monday through Friday 7:30 - 3:30. References and drivers license required. In Livingston. Call evenings 992-5784.

-Resume Services: Resume writing and printing, quick and professionally, no hidden fees, no counseling. Call now for information; Leave a message. KM&M

-Personals/Classifieds

-Mexico

-Jamaica

-Bahamas

-Daytona Beach, Panama Beach

-FLORIDA

-from $249 pp

-Montego Bay, Nassau

-from $459 pp

-$499 pp

-Specials: flying special, all inclusive special. Call Campbell for a free brochure.

-Contact Campus Rep. Jim Georgious 46 Wyckoff Street, Suite B New Brunswick, NJ 08901 (908) 220-9786

-All package trip includes: Round trip airfare from select cities, seven (7) nights lodging at your choice of hotels, breakfast daily, airport/hotel transfers, free club admisions and parties (party cruise in Nassau), Blue Hawaiian Cotillion, don't forget our routine!! Kelli, creative, huh? Love, Wendy

-Baby...Steve, you are a scum! But, we are love you. Mom

-Lee-Ann, Happy valentines day! I love you!! Love, Alvin

-To the sisters of Iota Gamma Xi: Happy Valentines Day. It's a great time. Love and sisterhood, Lisa

-Gina(IOTA): You're the best little. Good luck on Friday, don't trip! We're gonna have a blast. Love ya, your big -AXP - Great Victory against TKE. Take pride in AXP. -Milkman $30

-To all sororities: Keep your hands on your own dates, it's your own fault if you don't have an awesome date.

-Rob(TKE): Evenhough I did NOT write you that damn queer personal, I am psyched for cotillion and I love you! -Laura -Nicky(TKE): We're not psycho - really we're not! The police left, didn't they? Love Laurie & Carol (Iota)

-Chuck, Right times wasn't enough. You should seek therapy honey! Lustfully yours, Trixie

-Mike: Happy Valentines Day and Happy Birthday!! I am really sick for Friday Cause I have the best date! Love, Donna

-Sam, Lissy & Anna - You guys are the best little - sigmas forever -Netter

-Angelo- thanks for a fabulous time at cotillion! Love Pam

-Sharya(Iota) Thanks for always being there for me, I know I can count on you! You know who -Jeff(CROW) thanks for being there for me. You're awesome. Love, Nancy

-Mike - Happy Valentines Day and Happy Birthday!! I am really sick for Friday Cause I have the best date! Love, Donna

-Laurie, please pledge! I love you! Love your roommate

-Andy - Let's stay together forever. -Literally N.V.

-Audrey - I've missed you. I'm so glad we're trying. Love, always Becky

-Tommy - (Delta Chi) I hope you haven't forgotten...my hands can work magic. Can I interest you in a massage.

-Jerry(de) Hi sweetie! thank you for valentines day, You're the best! Love Tequila

-Anthony - I had a great time at cotillion. It meant a lot to me that you were the one to present me. Thanks. Love, Col

-DOG - did you have a good time? I did! Thanks a bunch. Love Annette

-To all my PSS sisters - I love you all - Be strong. #1

-Hey Funky - You're an awesome little. I love ya. Love your big -TKE - fine showing at cotillion. Two brothers fighting, stitches, and a hole in the wall. Its time to grow up...

-Cathy(clo) Whats the wonderful thing about Tiggers? cont. on next page

-The Montclarion / Thursday, February 21, 1991
-To all the sisters of Iota Gamma Xi - Any formal is amazing with all of you. -LeighAnn
-Clin - The Blonde Bimbo - How many more days till our futures days? -Vale
-To my favorite StudMuffin - How many was that? Love, Meaghan
-Jessica - Eat, drink, and kiss boys! Love, Me
-Berni - Performing live tonight at Club El Eden in Passaic. Be there!
-To Tony C. - Hang in there babe, you can make it!
-Hang in there Lakey, Louie, Ray and Efrain! You can do it.
-To the pledges of Iota Gamma Xi - Best of luck!
-Maria (Iota) - Congratulations on being presented! You're awesome! Love, Big, big -Alicia - Hang in there! I'm here for you.
-Love, Lisa
-Donna - You're done already!!! Love, Chrissy
-The sisters of Lamba Tau Omega support the troops. God bless you and come home soon.
-Happy Birthday Belinda of Lamba Tau Omega Sorority.
-Hey Dog - Did you see the size of that chicken.
-Good luck to the new De'Ha's of SDT. Strive for all you desire!
-Dave - (PZ10) thanks for making Cotillion awesome. You were a great date. LeighAnn
-Bill - You're the best! Cotillion was awesome! Thanks for being a friend! Lisa
-Wedge - Thanks for an AWESOME weekend! The Vatican Poster Girl
-To the exec. bd. of ISC - You did an awesome job on cotillion - thank you - the sisters of Iota Gamma Xi
-Nat - We are having the time of our lives. Don't worry about anything anymore. You are the best roomie, Men suck! Love, Dona
-Jenn Gattie - "Great job, hon!" Love, Lisa
-Chris & Joann (Stacy) Stacey{id}) - Great Valentine bonding. Kerri(adr)
-Kim, Stacey, Krisay - Every Sunday nght, let's make it a drunk bonding night. Ali
-Suzanne - You're the best little! Thanks for everything. I love you. Love your big, Donna
-Carol (IOTA) - You are the best roommate ever, here's to a semester from hell...Your roomie
-Ynot Personal Plates - Virginia Beach - Ynot - I'll be your today - tomorrow - and forever! Love you, Cyndi
-Jill - Knocking over the wall unit - Keep partying buddy - rockin weekend! AIX Sumi
-Michele - Be Good! I love ya. Chrissy
-Christmas - Thanks for being an awesome date. Love, Nichol
-Kara - I love you so much! Sisterhood is the important "s". Yabba! Lisa
-Zig - He digs me...Just kidding
-Sherry(iota) - Here's to a great semester. I love you sooo much. Your big sis, LeighAnn
-To Mary Beth, Sheila, and Joann (Pledges of Sigma Delta Phi) Good luck in your next 4 weeks. You guys can do it! -Elsa
-Mary Beth's fallen and she can't get up! -"The Babs"
-Lucy - I'm a little clueless. Give me a hint...please. Love Darla
-Karen - Sdphi - I am so happy you are back!! Love ya, N.V.
-Jen - You can flirt and I could ho- we don't need fake ID's. Love, "The Ho"
-Steen - Try staring at the road a little harder...Steve
-Chuck D - I want to Rub you the right way, -Unhicted
-TKE - Cotillion - Now that's brotherhood
-To the "Coolest Pledges" - Friendship, has a great meaning. But, not always does it mean to others as much as one believes. All in this world has its limits, one just needs to know when and how to set them. Realizing that limits are "A part of life". Mee
-Cjarris - (SDT) Your awesome. #53 Marc (ZBT) - Help me with my math. Debbie
-Billy T. - Thanks for everything! Love Kat
-Kim(SDT) - Did anyone say Citron? Not me.
-Keanine - What's the name of the tape? Kit-Kat
-Amy - (O Phi E Pledge) !DICK!! -Steen(D Phi E Pledge
-Honey lamb - Saturday nite was a blast! Oh sure.
-To the four amigos - Valentines was great! I hope everything keeps gong as well as it is...Mo
-Rob - I had an awesome time at Cotillion! You're the greatest honey! I love you -Lan
-Chuck - If you dont tell Mike to stop walking in on us, its over! Trixie
-Becky & Step - You did such a good job! We all love you! B.L.
-AIX -coolent
-Mary - You made valentines day bearable. Who needs those pigs anyway? Love Jeanine
-Danielle(Iota) - Thanks for a great time. Steve
-PZ20 -"In your eyes - the light, the heat..." -To the "Dude Crew" - Good luck pledging TKE! Love ya, Christine
-Kevin - I love you & You are an awesome cotillion date. (I think) Love always, AIX
-JD - Glad you had a great time. Thank for everything. -Deb
-Jason (zbt) -Thanks for going with me to the cotillion. I had the best date there. Love, Samantha
-Gail HOMEWORK? Study? Not gonna do it! Wouldn't be prudent! Love ya, Sharon
-AIX #89 You are f-ing wonderful!! -Iota - You guys are awesome. Cotillion was kickin'! I love you all. Joanne
-Judy - Cotillion raled even though we got stuck in a dirty cab! I love you. Joanne
-Sharonda - Do you vogue or go you GQ? I don't know about you but I prefer GQ!!! Me!
-Mike - I had a great time at Cotillion! Thanks a lot! Love you Donna
-To Alan(ZBT) Dancing with you was a blast Fri. Nite. Luv you, Guess who
-BA - thanks for being an awesome date. Love, Doodle
-Sisters of Iota: Thanks for keeping me standing. Tell me stories-Love, Terri
-Ara - You were a GREAT date! Hope you had fun! Love Ginger
-Doodle - Keep your eye on Bunky, I think Ginger is getting dangerous...
-Jen G(Iota) - I love you, even though you torment me! -KICK ME!!! Luv, Your big
-Welcome to the pledge Zeta class of Delta phi epsilon. Love all the sisters
-The legend of Andy meister Tinkelberry lives on and on and on...
-Lance - I had the best time and the best date! Thanx. Luv Cindy
-To Kris, Beth, Patty, Darlene, & Robyn: Thanks so much for making Cotillion so much fun! Love Stefanie
-Crash and burn -if it's possible Love, Debbie Gibson
-Ana, I need I.D.II! You're the best. I love ya. Patrice
-Attention all sororities, Let's crash RCB! -Dan R. - Chi e Giovanni Camminare?
-Lena - I had a great time at cotillion. Looking forward to RCB. Love, Rob
-Trixie - We have to learn to stay in our own bed. Not 8 times but still great. Lustfully, Chuck
-PZY. - Billy and Keith are NOT twins! -so get a clue!
-Shar - How's my bestest doin? Love your big
-Jenn & Donna - Thanx for always listening to me. Janie (stories)
-To Gina, You were the best date I had the whole night. Admirer in ZBT
-BJ - Billy's mine, you can keep, but just so you know, Billy has better teeth! LIs
-Hey Uncle Bob - Make me one of you drinks (c. shots) and I'll be the three man.
-Zool -Delay
-Lori (Iota) I had a great time at cotillion. Your the best date a guy could ask for...Rob
-Try to cut a bagel in 12 pieces using only 3 straight cuts. Delta Chi
-To all - Jealous? Rho Zeta
-Hey Charo and Elvira...How do you feel about the men of Delta Chi? Luv, Ginger
-Boy, You looked beautiful! I hope the night was special for you. Staci
-Chuck G. - thanks for the dance. PZ22
-Laurie - the search for shelter is on. Lynn
-Beta Nu - Good luck with pledging. Kelli
-Keith Van Ness - WATCH IT!
-Pat(TKE) someone is watching you...
-Kelly. Thank you so much. I had a great time at Cotillion. I'm just really sorry I had to leave. Thanks again, John Tke PZ 82
-TKE - Nice show of brotherhood at cotillion!
-To the dancing elephants on the third floor - Goat to Bed!
-Doug - Thanks for last weekend! I had a great time. I love you -MONTE - here are your walking papers, save your breath, just leave. Your secret admirer
-Tiz - Thanks again...Love, KELLY
-BUNDY
-To Lisa M. (D-Phi-E) You truly are my sister! I love you, Kara
-VanNess brothers - if your mother had named Keith, Ted, would you be excellent?
-To all AIX Bahama Women - 30 more days...can't wait. Think thin!!! Love & Sisterhood,Hillary
-Scott & Jack - The two best dates at cotillion...You guys are awesome. Dana & Karen
-TKE, You were a disgrace at cotillion. You should be banned from all greek social functions!!
-Does anyone know where I can find an SOW?
-Melina - You so HOT! Computer Partner
-Greg(TKE) I love you
-Kimmer, You still a cowwoman too - I miss you. Love Tracey
-Laura - I miss you. Im here if you need someone to talk to. Love you little little
-To my big - It was destiny. Your the only one for me. Love, Streak
-Joan - Now, what do you want on your bagel? Luv, Diane
-Sim - I love ya little. Your brat big
-Bekky - Are we going to class? Drag me there. Dizzy Nan
-Johnny Walker - You crack me up!
-Frank(ZBT) Had a great time at Cotillion, thanks for going. Kelli
-Hey you with the pony tail - Do those looks have any feelings attached to them? Rich - I want to be friends again. I miss our talks. Jeff
-Barbara - So does this make both of us groupies? Love, Barbie
-Happy 21st birthday to my big TMcG. I love you. Jen
-To all Iota sisters - You are the best - thanks for all you help, I love you. Jen
-Nikki(Iota) You were the best date at cotillion, I love you. Love Mel
-Terri - Your the best big. Mel
-Doug Arms - What is your problem?
- Hey cousin, I hope you can come around more. I miss you a lot. Love, Roger
-I love you Sue and Melissa Love your admirers
-Doug, thanx for an awesome time at cotillion. I had the best time and the best date. Luv ya! Gee
-To my big Carol - You are the best! I love you. You looked awesome at cotillion! luv your little
-Donna - cotillion was awesome! I was so proud to present the prettiest woman there. I love you! -Mike
-Laurie(iota) thanks for always being there. I love you sooo much! Love, Debs(Sigma)
-Melissa - Nature shows at 4:08 am rule. Love your roomie
-Dimpels - You're the best! Al
Apple introduces the Macintosh LC. If you thought that finding a color Macintosh system you could afford was just a dream, then the new, affordable Macintosh LC is a dream come true.

The Macintosh LC is rich in color. Unlike many computers that can display only 16 colors at once, the Macintosh LC expands your palette to 256 colors. It also comes with a microphone and new sound-input technology that lets you personalize your work by adding voice or other sounds.

Like every Macintosh computer, the LC is easy to set up and easy to master. And it runs thousands of available applications that all work in the same, consistent way—so once you’ve learned one program, you’re well on your way to learning them all. The Macintosh LC even lets you share information with someone who uses a different type of computer—thanks to the versatile Apple SuperDrive, which can read from and write to Macintosh, MS-DOS, OS/2, and Apple II floppy disks.

Take a look at the Macintosh LC and see what it gives you. Then pinch yourself. It’s better than a dream—it’s a Macintosh.

For further information visit

The College Store

© 1990 Apple Computer. Inc Apple, the Apple logo, and Macintosh are registered trademarks of Apple Computer, Inc. SuperDrive and "The power to be your best" are trademarks of Apple Computer, Inc.
 MS-DOS is a registered trademark of Microsoft Corporation. OS/2 is a registered trademark of International Business Machines Corporation.

SGA SCHOLARSHIPS

- 2.7 + GPA
- 58 COMPLETED CREDITS (Jan 1991)
- LEADERSHIP IN SGA CHARTERED ORGANIZATION AND/OR LEGISLATION.
- INVOLVEMENT IN STUDENT CONCERNS.

Applications available in SGA office, room 103, Student Center Annex 893-4202

DEADLINE MARCH 11th, 1991
Cohesion's Corner
By Glen Haerle

B.D. Posse holds top spot

Another week of competition is in the books. While some contests were close, others were major blowouts, and some teams even managed to break the 100 point mark. Listed below is Cohesion's top 5 for this week. There are only six undefeated teams left. Unfortunately, only 5 can make Cohesion's Top 5. The sixth undefeated team, the Rho-PPg effects of not having scorer Julio Ramos and by large margins. They play smothering full opponent undefeated at 4-0, but have yet to play a tough opponent. 1. B.D. Posse 5-0

2. We All Dat 4-0
3. P.R.P. 4-0
4. Gamblers 6-0
5. Spyro Gyros 5-0

B.D. Posse is "pressing" teams into losing big margins. They play smothering full court press that make it difficult for their opponents to get the ball past half-court. This team is so quick that they play tight man-to-man defense all the way up the court. The result has been an average margin of victory of 44 points.

B.D.P. also has total control of the offensive boards. When their outside shooters aren't hitting, Amod Field, Will Jones and L.T. are going above the rim to grab defensive rebounds for easy layups.

"We All Dat" are led by the two leading scorers of the NBA - John Clidy and IBN Muhammad. "We All Dat" has yet to play a strong opponent and has been breezing through their schedule.

P.R.P. has been led by guards Bryan Gabriel and Pat Brunner and center Duke Harding. However, P.R.P. did receive a scrum from wireless TKE. TKE played P.R.P. tough and hung within 7 points for a good part of the game.

The Gamblers are paced with a balance of scoring. Even though they have not been scoring heavily, Troy Scott and Monte Perez have been playing their roles at power forward and point guard.

Moving into the top 5 is the Spyro-Gyros. The Spyro-Gyros have come through in the clutch during two close games. With an overtime victory over a tough Senate B team and a close victory over the Bros, this team is a good team. This team has a balance of scoring. Ron Papa, Billy Fitzpatrick and John Clarke are scoring. Ron Papa, Billy Fitzpatrick and John Clarke are scoring. Even though they have not been playing their roles at power forward and point guard.

The Zoo drops out of the top 5 with a 54-50 loss to the No-Names. The Zoo felt the effects of not having scorer Julio Ramos and lost a tough game. Frank Basile kept the Zoo in the game with his 3 point shots and ended up scoring 33 points.

Listed below are the top 5 scorers in each conference.

CBA
1. Brett Charlton Senate B 29.3
2. Bryan Gabriel PRP 20.3
3. Paul Doran Gym Rats 16.0

ABA
1. Tom Dudley No Names 24
2. Frank Basile The Zoo 19.6
3. Will Jones BDP 18
4. Tim McCarthur Montclarion
16 pp
5. Amod Field BDP 15.5

NBA
1. John Clidy We All Dat 25
2. IBN Muhammed We All Dat 16 pp
3. Mike Weatherstone Gamblers 14.6
4. Scott Shepard Gamblers 14.6
5. Carl Buffalino Gamblers 13

CBA's Comments
My comments this week concern teams that run up the score against obviously overmatched opponents.

The other night I was watching the game in which a team that shall remain nameless (BDP) had accumulated a lead early in the second half that assured them a victory. Instead of trying to run out the clock and let the inferior team shoot, the team that shall remain nameless (BDP) decided to press the whole game and won by more than 100 points. This is a disgrace.

The team that shall remain nameless (BDP) is just an example. There are several other teams that do this.

I believe in what coaches such as Joe Paterno and Bobby Bowden preach. Play your hardest to beat your opponent, but don't run up the score and rub it in a team's face. It shows no class.

The young USFL burned itself out too quickly. A game pitting the San Antonio Riders against the Barcelona Dragons at Montjuic Stadium lacks the flavor and fever that a Giants-49ers matchup has, but the World League of American Football (WLAF) is an idea whose time has come. While the vast majority of American sports fans will flip to a baseball game come springtime when their minor league football on a world stage, the WLAF will be viewed with casual interest, and that, second half that assured them a victory. Instead of trying to run out the clock and let the inferior team shoot, the team that shall remain nameless (BDP) decided to press the whole game and won by more than 100 points. This is a disgrace.

What the WLAF hopes to accomplish is both a minor league grooming system in which NFL teams can acquire players that were deemed as "projects" or those that "slipped through the cracks." For the players themselves it is a chance for a World League participant to earn a living (each player receives an average base of $20,000-$25,000, not including incentives which can earn a player an additional $75,000) for four months work. The salaries certainly won't provide economic stability for life, but it does give many athletes a chance to make a living after not knowing where to turn when the reality of not being NFL caliber material hit home. For some who think they are NFL caliber material, it's a chance to pick up a check, get needed exposure, and like the USFL hopefully be a stepping stone to the big time.

While the World League pay structure is low compared to what many athletes in team sports make today, this is the minor leagues of the NFL which is comparable to the pay structure in minor league baseball (AAA baseball players earn an average base of $7,500-$9,000, not including signing bonuses)

The WLAF needs to adhere to such a league devised pay structure in order to keep the league afloat during its infancy. During the World League's first year, the WLAF President Mike Lynch and the NFL backers took careful notes on how the young USFL burned itself out too quickly with Donald Trump's bidding wars. There is no room for that because everyone on each team makes the same base salary.

From the standpoint of NFL backers, the new WLAF is a guinea pig for possible world wide expansion of the NFL. For the last five years the National Football League has "test marketed" professional football games in such foreign cities as England, Germany, and Japan. These contest have been met with overwhelming approval as the NFL has packed 50,000 crowds in such cities as Wembley Stadium. What the NFL wants to see is if the game of American football will be appreciated as much on a weekly basis instead of an annual event. If the three European entries in the WLAF are successful and popular with fans sports fans overseas, the NFL may consider a world wide expansion of the franchise to foreign cities making the Super Bowl champions truly World Champions.

The three European entries in the WLAF include the Barcelona Dragons, Frankfurt Galaxy and the London Monarchs. In order for American football to appeal to foreign markets, the WLAF executives kept in mind what the American sports fan was used to seeing. The most popular team sports overseas are soccer and rugby; two fast moving games with non-stop action. Therefore the WLAF has implemented no-huddle offenses which all teams will be using. The no huddle offense, which will be aided by the use of microphones and receivers built into the helmets to make huddles obsolete, will also speed up the game. The last thing the WLAF needs is to have the potentially lucrative markets be turned off because the game is too boring.

The possible NFL expansion overseas has been discussed before, but this will be a true barometer for the future of American football in the 21st century. With the NFL season now lasting 18 weeks for 16 games, each team now has two free weeks to let players injuries heal without missing games, and time for players to relax.

With expansion to Europe and or Asia the two week free period can serve as travel time for Giants to travel overseas for its European road trip. One week off to travel overseas, followed by two straight road games in Europe followed by the trip back home with a week off to simply adjust.

So when the WLAF kicks off its inaugural season next month, just remember you could be seeing the beginning of something bigger and better.

1991 will go down in football history as the first true attempt of its kind to be the last major American team sport to establish a minor league system where young raw talent can be parlayed into an NFL roster. However, while the success and fan support of franchises in untapped overseas could result in the awarding of NFL franchises in foreign lands.
Kean batters Red Hawks for season sweep

By Al Iannazzone

Staff Writer

In what may have been a preview of the NJAC Championship Game, the MSC women’s basketball team lost its final regular season game to old nemesis Kean College, 56-50, last Friday in Union. It was the second time MSC lost to the Cougars this year. The Hawks finished the regular season 19-5, second in the NJAC at 14-4.

MSC played extremely well in the first half and took a 26-20 halftime lead despite having to contend with the rowdy Kean crowd. The Red Hawks played excellent defense and were able to control the boards. Cindy Poling, a 5’4” sophomore guard, was a monster on the defensive boards, pulling down eight of her career and team high ten rebounds. She also did the job offensively as she collected six of her career high 13 points in the first half, including four during a 9-0 run helping MSC make a 22-15 lead with 2:53 remaining. Kim Wilson ended the half with eight of her team high 14 points.

The second half started off the same way. MSC went on a 10-0 run, led by Wilson and Poling’s four each, opening up its biggest lead, 34-22 with 15:50 remaining. Kean Coach Rich Wilson had his starting five on the court and could make anybody cringe. When an MSC player missed a foul shot, they would bellow “I DON’T THINK SO!” or “SURVEY SAYS: X-X-X!” They have posters around the gym that say “CAN’T TOUCH THIS” and “RICH WILSON IS GOD!”

During Kean’s 18-3 burst they were screaming “N-I-A-C-G-O!” to let everyone know Kean is trying for its ninth consecutive NJAC Title. If anyone beats Kean, they most overcome a very sound, balanced team and very loud, boisterous crowd.

MSC knows this and it plans on taking one game at a time. In the first round of the NJAC playoffs MSC will face William Paterson, a team MSC beat twice this season. Jeffrey said this was a tough loss but the playoffs start a second season. “We’re going to work hard Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and try to put the Kean game behind us,” she said. “This is a brand new season and we’re going to go back to what made us winners.”

RED HAWK NOTES: MSC will host WPC tonight at 7:30 in Panzer. The winner of this contest will play the winner of the other first round game, between Trenton and Kean, for the NJAC championship on Saturday at 7:30. The loser of this game will play Sequoinia in the second round.

The 1991 MSC women’s ski team has qualified for the Mid-Atlantic Regionals which will be held in Champion, PA this weekend. The men’s team finished their 1991 season with a tie for second place with Columbia University. Top skier, Maureen Harrington finished 2nd place overall. Other skiers were: Michelle Williamson, Maria (Colegro), Tanya Troch, Liz Wallace, Marlene Kruger, Linda Plato, Jodi Weinglass and Sue Sautner.

The men’s team finished their 1991 season with a 5th place. Top skiers, Jeff Conover finished 3rd overall. Other skiers were: Steven Caunt, Tracy Kelman, Dave Vogt, Rob Caruso, Rick Bareca, Jeroen Frantz, Brett Tuller, Jack Tinari and Gerard Gomez.

Indoor track sets the pace at College Track Conference

By Paul Donefsky

Staff Writer

The MSC indoor track and field team competed in the College Track Conference Championships at Southern Connecticut University and some fine performances were turn in.

All season Coach Blanton had been frustrated by incohesiveness of the 1600m relay team. The highly talented freshmen Denise Drakes, Carla Roberts, Yvonne Bradford and Sharon Linda had shown they could tear it up alone but could not gel as a group. With a new change in order and the chance to qualify for the NCAA National Championship, the four runners finally put it together. They qualified for the championship and broke a school record with a sharp 4:00 minutes. As of this release that also gives them the fastest Division III time in the country.

Jaime Diaz placed second in the pole vault with a 14 footer, Yvonne Bradford placed second in the 400m dash establishing a new school record at 58.21 seconds. She also qualified for the NCAA championship and then came back to serve up the fastest 55m time in the country with 7.20 seconds. Alcia Hennessy placed fifth in the 1500m, establishing a personal best with an unofficial 5:14 minute mark. Denise Drakes also established a personal best in the 400m with a 59.78 second mark and qualified for the ECAC championship in Bowdoin College.

She also placed fourth in the 200m with an unofficial time of 26.4 seconds. ECAC championship qualifiers Sharon Lindo and Shanay Brame ran almost identical (26.9 and 27.0 seconds respectively) scores in the 200m dash. Brian Major placed fifth in the high jump and Shawn Williams placed sixth in the 55m dash with 7.59 seconds; good enough for the freshman to get invited to the ECAC championship.

The team has one more meet before the individual qualifiers go to their respective championships. After some fine tuning at the Seton Hall Invitational, it’s on to the ECAC and NCAA championships.

Women skiers off to Regionals

The 1991 MSC women’s ski team has qualified for the Mid-Atlantic Regionals which will be held in Champion, PA this weekend. The team finished in the NJ Collegiate Ski Conference with a tie for second place with Columbia University. Top skier, Maureen Harrington finished second place overall. Other skiers were: Michelle Williamson, Maria (Colegro), Tanya Troch, Liz Wallace, Marlene Kruger, Linda Plato, Jodi Weinglass and Sue Sautner.

The men’s team finished their 1991 season with a 5th place. Top skiers, Jeff Conover finished 3rd overall. Other skiers were: Steven Caunt, Tracy Kelman, Dave Vogt, Rob Caruso, Rick Bareca, Jeroen Frantz, Brett Tuller, Jack Tinari and Gerard Gomez.