Two legislators arrested in squirrel caper
by Kerry Stahl

Two SGA legislators were arrested on Thursday, Feb. 27, after admitting to mailing a dead squirrel to Bohn Hall Assistant Manager (A.M.), according to Campus Police.

Michael Costa, 19, and David Blacker, 21, who are also members of Theta Xi fraternity, were charged withcrast for documenting the two squirrel to Toni Ann Bernardo, a Bohn Hall A.M., for documenting the two after she found them unescorted in Bohn Hall. Both Costa and Blacker were released on their own recognizance. Dr. Edward Martin, dean of Student Affairs, said that he felt that school policy was not violated.

The court date is March 11 in Clifton where they face a maximum penalty of a $250 fine and two years probation.

Blacker said that the incident is in no way fraternity linked and that both he and Costa were put on probation by their fraternity.

Costa said that he is sorry if he distressed anyone, especially the Bohn Hall A.M. "I regret this happened," he said.

The incident began on Friday, Feb.
7, at about 2 a.m., when Costa said he found the carcass of the squirrel

Blacker resigned from his position by saying,
"The matter pertains to me and John Tibbetts (The Montclarion's editor-in-chief.) John told me it (what we discussed) wasn't going to go any further (than the two of us)."

Blacker said the accusations were heany and added, "I'm not going to be the victim of hearsay." He also said that Costa is an innocent by-stander in this matter, and he hoped his resignation would help clear the matter up.

Tibbetts said that Blacker had threatened to have an editor removed from the staff and make The Montclarion's budget appropiations "difficult" if the newspaper printed his and Costa's fraternity affiliation.

squirrel incident, I assumed that the story would be handled in an unbiased,

General Boris Gromou has been sent to Nagorno-Karabakh, an enclave disputed by Armenia and Azerbaijan, to supervise a pullout of commonwealth troops. Reports are circulating that up to 1000 people may have been massacred last week by Armenian militants in Azerbaijan.

A day after Bosnian-Herzegovina voted to depart from the Yugoslav federal union, Serbia militaries opened fire on a crowd of a 1000 peace demonstrators. Apparently, no one was killed in the initial attack, but at least four people were killed in heavy fighting Tuesday night. Serbia is trying to keep the Federal union of Yugoslavia together.

President Bush said he supports a plan suggested by several South African countries to allow hunting of elephants for meat and hides. This would considerably affect a ban on the trade of any elephant parts now in place to reduce trade in ivory. Since 1980, elephant herds have been reduced from about one million to around 350,000. Conservationists think the plan would reopen the Black Market on ivory which has been greatly reduced since the plan was put into effect.

Patrick Buchanan has been energizing his primary campaign against George Bush. Buchanan took 36% of the vote in Georgia, 30% in Maryland, and 30% in Colorado; all with most precincts reporting. In the Democratic primaries, Bill Clinton got his first primary win in Georgia with a considerable 58%. Paul Tsongas took Maryland, but only by 6% over Clinton. Jerry Brown kept his hopes alive with a neck and neck race in Colorado with Clinton and Tsongas. Bob Kerry and Tom Harkin showed poorly in all three states and may drop out.

The Supreme Court crushed the Administration's attempt to ban "indecency" from the airwaves 24 hours a day. The justices left in tact a ruling that said such a ban would violate free speech. The Bush Administration tried to cloak the ban as the protection of children and the privacy of all listeners and viewers.

On Tuesday, March 3, President Bush assured an audience of evangelical Christians that he would veto any legislation opposing abortion that is sent to him by Congress. Bush promised that as long as he is president, a law opposing abortion would never be passed.

On Tuesday, March 3, President Bush granted New Jersey's request for disaster relief to deal with a coastal storm we had in January. He did not however, overturn his decision to withhold relief money for the Halloween storm of '91. The Halloween storm caused $70 million in damages and the January storm left a $60 million wake on N.J. shores. The relief offered by the Federal government will total $4.2 million.

Salvatore (Sammy Bull) Gravano, a former Gotti deputy, has been testifying against the alleged "Godfather". Gravano has admitted to taking part in 19 murders. The one of most interest to prosecutors was the hit on former mob boss, Paul Castellano. Gravano offered to testify against Gotti for a 20 year maximum sentence.

Seventeen-year-old, Ian Moore, was buried Tuesday, March 3. He and another 10th grader were killed by a fellow student at Thomas Jefferson High School in Brooklyn. After the murders, another student and close friend of the victims, fatally shot himself. The attacks caused Mayor David Dinkins to announce a more aggressive program for security at New York City high schools.

Recycling bins in College Hall and Student Center part of new program

by Anthony DiPasquale

New recycling containers have been placed in College Hall and the Student Center as the first part of a campus-wide recycling project designed to achieve Gov. Jim Florio's goal of 60 percent total recycling in the state within five years, said Director of Facilities Thomas Stepienowski.

Conservation Club Recycling Coordinator Carlo Wilson believes the plan will be a success because it centralizes the location of both regular waste and recyclable garbage.

"Recycling and garbage are not separate issues," Wilson said. "Whenever you have a garbage can, you will have a recycling bin. This will create the awareness for people to recycle, plus make it convenient for maintenance when they pick it up."

Robert Gieza, director of the Student Center, said that the plan is still in the early stages and will need the additional support of the college community to make it a success.

"If the plan works, Interboro (the company responsible for disposal of MSC waste) won't have to pick up as often, and the college will save money which will be passed on to the students," Gieza said.

Two types of containers, one for white paper and the other for aluminum and glass, have been placed in offices and hallways of College Hall and the Student Center. The bulk of MSC garbage is still being taken to a separation station where the recycled materials are removed by hand before taken to a landfill, Wilson said.

The project was initiated after the Conservation Club and Interboro toured the facilities and worked together to decide the placement of containers to best fit the needs of each individual office, Wilson said.

The Conservation Club encourages anyone with recycling suggestions or comments to contact it's office. Any office with recyclable materials should contact maintenance to be placed on the removal schedule.

SGA Legislator Sal Anderton demonstrates the new recycling bins for paper and for glass and aluminum in the Student Center and College Hall.

also said that by losing his privilege to vote he felt he was "guilty until proven innocent, which is backwards."

Tibbetts said the entire incident came about because both Blacker and Costa did not want their fraternity affiliations mentioned in the article regarding their arrest.

Initially, Costa agreed to talk to the reporter assigned to the story and they were promised by Assignments Editor Maureen McGowan that Theta Xi, their fraternity, would not be mentioned in the story. Later after McGowan conferred with News Editor Robert Campos about the arrangement, Campos said that leaving out fraternity affiliations was not The Montclarion's policy and that the nameTheta Xi would have to be included in the article in order to help identify Blacker and Costa and inform the campus as thoroughly as possible.

Campos told McGowan to inform both Blacker and Costa that they could either rescind their statements that were made under her promise or they could make additional statements regarding Theta Xi's involvement.

McGowan said when she informed Blacker of his options, he responded by saying that they had Tibbetts' word that Theta Xi would remain unmentioned and if that changed, "by Wednesday Rob Campos will no longer be news editor."

When McGowan later spoke to Costa, she said he reiterated the same sentiments, that Campos would be removed from his position if he did not go along with the previous agreement.

Tibbetts said he told Blacker, "If Theta Xi had nothing to do with the incident, then we won't print that Theta Xi had anything to do with the incident."

Tibbetts added, "I never said that the name Theta Xi would not appear in print."

Tibbetts said he then received a phone call from Blacker saying that future appropriations for the newspaper could be difficult to obtain if the name of Theta Xi was mentioned in the story because Costa was the head of the appropriations committee.

At this point, Tibbetts said that he informed the SGA of the legislators' actions and wrote a formal complaint to the legislature.

Bernardo said that she received the envelope on Thursday, Feb.18.She reported to Campus Police through Bahn Hall Director Sherill Cassell a half hour later.

Benardo said that the act was very immature and crazy. "I didn't take it as a threat or a joke. I took it as harassment," she said.

Martin said that he did not believe the incident was funny at all. "I'm very concerned when a student does something like this, particularly when directed at a student employee who is trying to work for other students," he said.

GSO members then adjourned to Charlie Brown's for a festive Christmas celebration.

JANUARY: The GSO sponsored an Orientation for incoming graduate students. Students were provided with an array of materials and information to assist them in becoming acquainted with campus facilities, organizations and procedures. Special concerns and issues which confront graduate students, many of whom attend evening classes, were discussed.

COMING UP! JOIN US FOR OUR MARCH 12 MEETING AT 6:30 ON THE FOURTH FLOOR OF THE STUDENT CENTER!

Mission Statement

The Graduate Student Organization is a campus-wide organization which serves as the representative body of the graduate student community, providing a forum for discussion of issues pertinent to the graduate programs and graduate student life at Montclair State College. The GSO encourages communication among graduate students by acquiring and disseminating information to the graduate community. This is accomplished through several objectives:

1. The GSO maintains an office in the Student Center which will serve as a locus for the graduate community.
2. The GSO will publish a monthly newsletter, via The Montclarion which will inform the graduate community and enhance the graduate community at Montclair State College.
3. The GSO will encourage its members to participate in conferences, present papers, and develop themselves professionally.
4. The GSO will coordinate social activities regularly, thus enriching the graduate experience.

GSO Orientation

The officers of the GSO were on hand to welcome new graduate students on Thursday, January 23, and provide them with materials and information that would acquaint them with the graduate school and on-campus environment. We thank all those who braved the heavy winds and rain to attend.

Dr. Margaret Mukherjee greeted the students and encouraged them to make full use of all the educational and professional opportunities that Montclair State provides. The orientation covered a range of topics including financial aid, grants, ID cards, organizations and activities, book store and library hours, recreational privileges such as the pool and field house, computer labs, special services such as the Women's Center and the Curriculum Resource Center, and yes, even the parking situation and shuttle bus schedule. Handouts were provided and refreshments were served during an informal question-and-answer period.

The GSO is proud to provide this service for its members. Remember to make us part of your graduate experience. Join us for meetings or write to us with your comments and ideas. There are approximately 3000 graduate students at MSC. Together we can make a difference. Again, welcome and good luck to our newest graduate members.

ATTENTION ALL GRADUATE STUDENTS!

THE GSO IS PLANNING SEVERAL UPCOMING EVENTS. CHECK POSTINGS IN THE MONTCLARION OR JOIN THE GSO BULLETIN BOARD, OUTSIDE ROOM C-208 IN COLLEGE HALL. DON'T FORGET TO JOIN US AT OUR MARCH 12 MEETING AT 6:30 IN ROOM 423 OF THE STUDENT CENTER.
Campus buys two new shuttle buses
Student parking fees help pay for purchase

by Suzanne Potts

MSC has received two new shuttle buses which began their service on campus roads Monday, March 2. The buses cost $36,000 each and one of them was paid for by student parking fees, said Kiki Williams, director of office services.

The new buses are scheduled to run both days and evenings, and offer a variety of improvements including increased capacity and a working heating system. Currently four buses run during the day and three run in the evenings.

The new buses hold approximately 44 students, said Williams, adding that only about 27 students could ride on the older buses with the wheelchair lift; approximately 32 students could ride on the bus without.

Williams said that although the new buses do not have wheelchair lifts, if there were a need for a bus with one, another bus driver could be contacted by radio.

The last time the college purchased new shuttle buses was in 1989.

Ray Roberts, an MSC bus driver that works night shifts, said the new buses are long overdue. "The inside lights in the new buses are brighter. Now there is more light for students to see as they get off and on the bus. This is definitely an asset to safety," he said.

Leonard Hughes, a driver who works mornings, said that the new buses are easier to drive and that the driver's seats are adjustable. "One can do a little overtime," he said.

The SGA endorsed the Tuition Stabilization Incentive Program (TSIP) proposed by Governor Florio with a unanimous vote at last night's meeting.

James "Appetite" Cotter, director of external affairs, stressed the importance of this bill. Instead of protesting outrageous tuition hikes in public, supporting and lobbying for this bill will be much more effective, said Cotter. "A 4.5 percent is not bad compared to what the increase will be if this program fails," added Cotter. Cotter then stated how important student involvement will be.

Several organizations were re-chartered for the academic year of 1992-1993. Theta Xi and Phi Alpha Delta were granted Class IV charters. Alpha Iota Chi was granted a Class III charter, and both the Medieval Society and the Spanish Club were granted Class II charters. All of these organizations received their respected charters with a unanimous vote.

A bill concerning the policies of posting fliers also passed unanimously. All organizations of the SGA are to receive specific guidelines on the posting of fliers. These guidelines will include a new rule that all posted fliers must be dated and then removed one month after.

A bill proposing the installment of secured cork boards at all bus stops passed unanimously.

An extensive bill which would force all student-run publications to investigate the cost of using 100 percent recycled paper was sent back to the Welfare and Internal Affairs Committee. This bill originally had many other environmental protection ideas as well, such as a mandatory vote for all Class I organizations on their smoking policies within the offices. However, this bill will be discussed in more detail in committee so that it will be more clearly defined and organized.

A copy of the bill endorsing TSIP, which caps tuition at 4.5%

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION, INCORPORATED OF MONTCLAIR STATE COLLEGE, THAT WHEREAS: The purpose of state funded colleges in New Jersey is to provide an affordable and accessible education to its citizens, and

WHEREAS: The rising costs of tuition have had negative effects on this mission, and

WHEREAS: In the past, efforts by both students and the higher education community have resulted in greater awareness of the plight of ill-funded state colleges, and

WHEREAS: The Governor has proposed the Tuition Stabilization Incentive Program (TSIP) which injected $30 million into the higher education budget for FY '92-93, and

WHEREAS: Within the bounds of this program, state colleges would be required to cap tuition increases at 4.5% in order to receive their share of the funding, and

WHEREAS: In addition, TSIP also provides increased funding for programs such as EOF, TAG grants and loan funds, and

WHEREAS: TSIP is a monumental step for the higher education community as a whole;

BE IT RESOLVED THAT: The SGA of MSC gives its full endorsement to the program and urges continued support and prioritization for higher education, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT: The External Affairs Committee of the SGA commit itself to lobbying efforts to urge the State Senate and Assembly leadership to adopt TSIP in its entirety, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT: The SGA Legislative body participate and encourage the student body at large to become aware of the efforts being made to provide better funding for MSC.

Delta Xi Delta gets chartered by SGA against vote of Greek Council

by John Tibbetts

Delta Xi Delta sorority was granted Class III Charter after an hour’s worth of debate at last night’s SGA meeting. The bill passed with a 24 to nine vote with no abstentions.

The Greek Council voted not to recommend the sorority for a charter under the SIA. The Intra Sorority Council (ISC), which is composed of six local sororities, claimed that they could not handle another sorority on campus resulting in the Greek Council to vote against chartering Delta Xi Delta.

Janet Jaramillo, secretary of the ISC and a member of Sigma Delta Phi sorority, said that they took on two new organizations in the past year, while since 1985 they had only taken on four.

“I am not opposed to chartering this sorority. They have worked hard and deserve to be chartered,” Jaramillo said. “It’s just that the ISC has no time to work with another sorority at this moment in time."

Jaramillo urged the legislature to wait a semester. She also said that in her opinion this whole issue was blown out of proportion and believes that it is not good politics to override the Greek Council’s recommendation.

Cherie Dubin, SGA legislator, stressed that overriding the Greek Council’s recommendation is potentially problematic. She urged the legislature to carefully consider its decision, as this could result in an unpleasant powerstruggle.

James “Appetite” Cotter, director of external affairs, and Michael Costa, SGA legislator, strongly supported this bill, however. Costa stressed that Delta Xi Delta had worked very hard on this charter, and that they had fulfilled all of the needed requirements. The requirements included going to every ISC meeting, raising money, community service, an educational project and having general membership meetings.

“I think it’s our responsibility to accept this new sorority, and it is not Delta Xi Delta’s fault that ISC has a lot to do,” Cotter said.

Elaine McCarthy, secretary of the Greek Council and a member of Alpha Iota Chi sorority, was not satisfied with the SGA’s decision. In her opinion the Greek Council should be taken much more into consideration when chartering a new sorority.

Ilona Tykotski, SGA legislator and pledge advisor for Delta Xi Delta, was ecstatic over the SGA’s decision.

“We deserved to be chartered. We fulfilled all the requirements and did more still,” Tykotski said. “We’re looking forward to working with ISC, and believes that all sisters will give their best. As for friction between the SGA and Greek Council, ‘it existed anyway’”, Tykotski said.

Susan Rodriguez, Greek Council representative and member of Delta Xi Delta, said that she doesn’t anticipate any problems in the future. She declined to comment on any friction between the SGA and Greek Council, as did the other sisters. All said that they can’t wait to become more accepted.

Delta Xi Delta was formed by Rebecca Costa last November.

March belongs to women: NOW

by Audrey Regan

Sigmund Freud asked this of women: "The great question that has never been answered, and which I have not yet been able to answer despite my 30 years of research into the feminine soul is: What does a woman want?"

Perhaps Freud asked the wrong question. "What do women want?" may be more applicable today. Well, March is National Women's History Month and the Women's Studies program and the Women's Center here at MSC will address many current feminist issues in today's society.

A conference is to be held Tuesday, March 10 from 12:00 p.m. in the Student Center halls the Honorable Elizabeth Holtzman, comptroller of New York City, former Brooklyn district attorney and U.S. Congresswoman as keynote speaker. A series of lectures beginning at 12:30 p.m. includes Maxine Greene, professor Emeritus at Columbia Teacher's College in New York, speaking about how she became a feminist; Barbara Irvine, president of the Alice Paul Centennial Foundation in Moorestown, N.J., will speak on "Feminism-Then" and Nadine Taub, Professor at Rutgers Law School in Newark N.J., will conclude with "Feminism-Now."

Workshops on sexual harassment, reproductive rights, violence, family and the work environment and women's history will run from 2:15 p.m. to 3:45 p.m. Dinner follows but only for those who register.

Cost for students is $12.50 and non-students is $17.00. Registration begins at 11:30 a.m. and lectures and workshops are free. Contact the Women's Center at 893-5114 for more information.

Play it safe: Condom week carries a message

by R.A. Campos

So you're at a party at, let's say, Clove Road, and you've had a few beers and a couple of shots. The women at the party are looking better and better every minute. Let's say you go over to one and start talking. After a few minutes, you decide that this is the best-looking woman you've ever seen, for the time being. Let's say you notice through her glazed eyes that she is thinking the same of you. Bingo.

You take her up to the bedroom. Both of you are having, to say the least, quite a bit of fun, although you both will probably deny it in the morning. Just as it gets hot and heavy, your partner, what's-her-name, asks if you have a condom. "A condom? What do I need one of those for?" you slur back at her. To eliminate the need for this question, the SGA has declared this week Condom Week. As part of the celebration, the SGA will be giving out free condoms and literature on AIDS and premature pregnancy in the Student Center this last week from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The SGA recognizes the fact that most students aren't going to abstain from sex and Condom Week was designed to promote safe sex. "The literature we are handing out is very explicit, but we believe it is the best way to communicate to the students," Susco said.

Some students disagree with the way the SGA is treating Condom Week. Brian Greben, a senior political science major, said that he thought the whole thing was too comical. "I think it's good that they're giving away free condoms," he said. "However, I think they should educate people more and take a more serious approach."

Susco said that they are communicating with the students the best way they can. "Even if they don't take us seriously," he said, "they will start talking about it. We are hoping that when the students take the condoms, we can push them to read the literature as well."

Karl Lomberk, a junior English major, said that he took some condoms even though he has a steady girlfriend. "They're free and you never know when you might need one," Lomberk said.

Robert Tranter, SGA treasurer, said that the SGA spent $700 on Condom Week: $350 on condoms, $200 on T-shirts and $150 on publicity, pamphlets and literature that will all be given out for free.

Yet even with the largely positive response, Susco felt that something was lacking. They had actually missed the ideal Condom Week: the week of Valentine's Day. "Valentine's Day is the sexual climax of American culture," he said.

Multicultural conference stirs the melting pot

by Karen Lee Stradford

What is multiculturalism? That was the topic of last Thursday's all-day series of lectures held in Kops Lounge, Russ Hall. Multiculturalism is something along the lines of many cultures sharing their ethnic ideas and experiences. However, if anything, the conference spurred a lot of talk about what it is and a lot of debate about what to do once multiculturalism is well-defined.

Some say multiculturalism is another name for radical reform and a trendy fad that goes under the guise of global education and political correctness. Others argue that we should master our own history and culture before mandating other cultures should be included into the core curriculum as well.

However, many say that multiculturalism is already being taught; that it is almost impossible to avoid in this global community and diverse melting pot we call American education.

"We live in a very multicultural society," said guest speaker Mustapha Marrouchi, from the University of Lethbridge. "What should concern us is to discuss culture as a whole and not just one aspect of life, we won't be able to communicate freely with others." A work of art can become worthy if we view it from different aspects," Marrouchi said.

"Multiculturalism is here to stay, We have to decide how we're going to deal with it,"

MSC professor Theodora Jankowski and lecture coordinator Afzal-Khan both stressed that multiculturalism is a very important issue and people should attempt to make it work. Afzal-Khan said, "Multiculturalism is here and here to stay. We have to decide how we're going to deal with it."

The African-American National Pan-Hellenic Greek Council Inc.: What is it?

by R. Patterson

There are also African-American students on campus involved in Greek organizations. They do more than meets the eye. One or many may ask: Who are we? The one or many who ask will get various answers that may sometimes be misunderstood. Your answer(s) lie in the following:

We are the eight major African American Greek-Letter Organizations known throughout the world, and here on campus, that come together to form the National Pan-Hellenic Council Inc. These eight organizations are comprised of the four major African-American Greek-Letter Sororities and the four major African-American Greek-Letter Fraternities. The sororities are: Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., and Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc. The fraternities are: Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc., Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc., and Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. Together, we own the world's second largest African-American population of organization, the first being the African-American Church denominations.

This council was formed through the works of Phi Beta Sigma and Omega Psi Fraternity. These two organizations felt the need to work collectively together, working with the inclusive of each other, idea, instead of the exclusive of each other.

During the turbulent 60's, we, the African-American Greek-Letter organizations, were viewed as irrelevant social clubs. Despite a history of support for scholarship and community service, our organizations seemed to be out of touch with the times - times when many African-American students were rushing to sign up for the front lines of campus activism. Enthusiasm was for picket lines, not pledge lines. At that time membership appeared to be waning. Today all that has changed. There is a resurgence of interest in the African-American Greek-Letter Organizations from African-Americans as well as Caucasians, that hasn't been seen in years. There are so many worthy persons who apply for admission that we can't accommodate all of them. Our organizations are still standing strong on their original purpose - to give leadership to the struggle for freedom and justice.

Modeled after centuries of old secret societies, we are combining an ancient idea to an up-to-date one for the benefit of African-Americans who are trying to get ahead. We are using corporate networking techniques to help our members with everything from finding jobs and clinching business deals to running for public office and getting into prestigious colleges.

Who are we? We are setting an example as African-American female role models: Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. founded in 1908 at Howard University in Washington, D.C. With a membership of over 80,000, Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. founded in 1922 at Butler University in Indiana. With a membership of over 100,000, Delta SigmaTheta operates the Vocational Guidance Workshop Center in New York City which focuses on job training in addition to providing scholarships for students.

Student activists answer call to action

by Dan Olewski

The silence of the early Spring morning was suddenly broken by the banging of a drum and the garbled sounds of someone shouting through a megaphone. Students shouting slogans and clapping hands marched in a circle in front of the Student Center. It was a demonstration reminiscent of the late 1960's, but this wasn't Kent State was MSC and it wasn't the 60's it was the 90's.

Although the kinds of demonstrations described above were much more common on college campuses in the 1960's, they have begun to occur frequently on campuses in the 1990's. MSC has been the site of many of these demonstrations, including the one mentioned above which took place in 1990 involving hundreds of students protesting against increases in tuition.

Student activists answer call to action

The deadline is April 15, 1992.

Here’s an appropriation we can refuse

It was just like something out of those old 1930’s gangster movies. John Tibbetts, editor-in-chief of The Montclarion, and Rob Campos, news editor, knew too much, and if they squealed, they’d be sorry. This, basically, was the threat. David Blacker, a former SGA legislator (he pulled a Nixon, resigning rather than face possible impeachment), told Tibbetts that if his fraternity, Theta Xi, was mentioned in the news story about the arrest of fellow fraternity brother Michael Costa (also an SGA legislator) and himself for mailing a dead squirrel to a Bohn Hall A.M., The Montclarion would have trouble securing operating funds in the future, and Campos would be out of a job if he opposed the omission.

Idle threats? Not necessarily. As Blacker pointed out to Tibbetts, Costa was the head of the SGA’s appropriations committee. Luckily, The Montclarion enjoys a decent amount of cooperation with the SGA, thanks, in part, to President Anthony Susco and Treasurer Robert Tranter. When Tibbetts brought the matter to them, Blacker and Costa were immobilized. The editorial freedom of The Montclarion was preserved -- this time.

The truth is, however, under the current system, the editorial freedom of The Montclarion is in a precarious position. In essence, the SGA indirectly controls the newspaper. It holds the purse strings, voting on the operating budget each year. This situation creates a glaring conflict of interest for The Montclarion. The obligation of the paper is to the student body of MSC. The students deserve a newspaper that represents their views and their concerns, not the views and concerns of the SGA.

The danger exists that The Montclarion could degenerate into a propagandist mouthpiece for the SGA (much as Insight is for the administration). Can you imagine the U.S. government controlling Time magazine?

A solution to this problem does exist. The Montclarion should become independent from the SGA. It should be funded directly through student fees, rather than by fees filtered through the SGA. It wouldn’t cost the students any more, and it would ensure that the editorial integrity of The Montclarion would not be infringed upon.

Of course, this would be only the first step forward to total independence for our newspaper. Eventually, The Montclarion could become self-sufficient by means of advertising revenue and refundable subscription fees, much like Rutgers’ Daily Targum. We at The Montclarion hope that the student body will make its views known to the SGA.

Clearly, the time has come for the first step. Thanks for the wake-up call.

Lately, I have been working on being vulnerable. Vulnerability may not be the detrimental attribute that I always believed it to be. In fact, I am beginning to view vulnerability as a virtue. However, where you draw the line between being vulnerable and being a doormat is currently unclear. Certainly, allowing myself to be vulnerable would be a prerequisite to experiencing life at its fullest. On the other hand, a stoic self would be a prerequisite to experiencing without the benefit of eyeglasses. Subsequently, now that my walls are down, rebuilding would solve the problem. A visit to the art gallery would be aesthetically satisfying. Presently, I am faced with a difficult choice, of the complete friendship I have enjoyed over the past three years, or to take an all or nothing attitude and walk away. I suppose that I hope that I can be vulnerable enough to enter this Platonic stage - if not today, then perhaps at a later date. Abrogating the friendship, perhaps an easier action, does not seem as attractive as continuing to share my life. Allowing myself to experience vulnerability seems to be the appropriate choice. The question becomes: Am I secure enough in my vulnerability to take the risk?

I guess I am trying to say that life is full of choices, that the college years should be at a time to capitalize on the aforesaid choices, especially for all those currently on the five-year plan. MSC life is one of forced exposure to and at the mercy of the elements each and every time we attempt to access the campus proper from the frozen tundra that constitutes the parking lots.

Yes, life is full of inequities. A perfect example is the shuttle bus hotline that simply confuses the issue. There is now a hotline available to find out when the busses will arrive at their appointed stops. The problem is there are no phones near the bus stops. By the time you trek to the telephone, call the hotline and return to the bus stop, the bus has inevitably passed you by. This is, of course, further evidence of your college president's concern for the safety of the student body.

I understand that the hotline does not appear to be a such a magnanimous gesture. Perhaps if President Reid thought he could receive lessons from the inexperienced student body, he would have rewarded us with the same sort of generosity that he extended to Gregory Lockhard. Lockhard taught President Reid how to play golf which facilitated Reid's joining the Montclair Country Club. In return Lockhard saw his salary increase by 81 percent or $28,767.77. It swelled from $35,432.02 to $64,199.79. I cry foul! I mean foul. This Is a listing of administrative salaries of people holding the same positions over the stated time period. The information was culled from a Feb. 27 memo of the Montclair State Federation of College Teachers.

Die

So I'm sitting at home with nothing particularly interesting to do, and I find myself in front of the television once again. While I try to watch every channel by flipping through them all, I catch a brief glimpse of Dr. Death. This is the inventor of the suicide machine. He's trying to legalize the means to an end of an unworthy life. The public outcry is one of murder. The common conception is that life must end must of its own accord. People believe no one has the right to snuff out a life, even if it is their own life they wish to end. But why is this?

Dying has long been an honorable act. How many men are praised for dying in the defense of the American flag? Even Jesus Christ sacrificed himself for all of humanity. Why isn't dying in order to end a miserable life just as noble? In ancient Greece there is a story from Sparta in which 300 Spartans assaulted a small, but deeply entrenched, enemy. The Spartans lost the battle and were slaughtered almost to the last man. The only man to survive was Astrodome. Upon his return to the city, no one would speak to him or aid him in any way. He did not have the courage to die; therefore, he was a coward. His only path to redemption was to sacrifice his life for the Spartan cause.

If death will put an end to an intolerable and disgusting life, then that death is more noble than that life.

The Congressional term-limit movement is spreading like wildfire. Launched by growing resentment of strongly entrenched public officials and increased suspicion of politicians as a whole, this anti-incumbent campaign shows no signs of slowing down, and why should it?

The House Check Bouncing Scandal (8,331 personal checks were bounced by our representatives from July 1989 to July 1990) clearly demonstrated why our legislators have become unable to survive on a dinasaurine machine. While in the hospital he witnessed the fate of another person afflicted with the same disease. Unwilling to live his life in such a state, he got into a bar and literally drank himself to death. The teacher lamented his death. She said that he must have been in a state of trauma to choose so cowardly an action. But I disagree; I see his act as one of the most courageous I have ever heard.

To face death requires much more bravery than to run from it. That's the central theme of the Spartan tale. But in our society, suicide must be caused by massive trauma and/or psychological problems. No way. It is possible, sane and completely logical to end one's life under certain circumstances.

Imagine being in your old age. You're mobile now, but your health is rapidly declining. How would you wish to be remembered? As a drooling pile of meat unable to leave on your own accord. People believe no one has the right to end one's life under certain circumstances.

But if / didn't vote for him, and you didn't vote for him...

I kinda think he looks more like Sally Jesse Raphael

"Montclair State receives university status." Doesn’t that sound great? However, also included in that headline will be “President Reid gets stuck in Bohn Hall elevator while touring campus and falls 10 floors to his death.”

Ah, the great achievements of the “Divine Irvin Reid,” the list goes on - for about two lines. The construction is moving ahead as planned, and the face of MSC is changing little by little. Of course by the time the construction is finished, that is all that will be left out of what is now MSC. To be more specific, I’m talking about the smooth-riding, technologically advanced elevators installed all over the campus.

Of course, every rule has its exception. College Hall’s elevator is very nice. But Irvin’s office is there and we can’t have our hard-working President getting stuck in an elevator. If students do, who cares?

How about the elevators in Bohn Hall? Dream ride, huh? It is so nice to feel how they sway from side to side on the bent tracks in the elevator shafts. Wait, better yet, how about when the elevators get stuck and the emergency clamps start skipping on the tracks? Another added feature is the step up/step down mechanism when the elevators stop in the middle of a floor and you have to be an acrobat to exit them. But of all these great features, there is one that will please anybody who is concerned about the environment.

These elevators save an enormous amount of energy, mostly because they are never working. This is really disappointing because then it is impossible to enjoy all of the other luxury features found in such top-of-the-line elevators.

Could this be an exaggeration? Actually, I am being very kind and mild about the elevators. Did it ever occur to Ol’ Irvin that this is not the Montel Williams Show and it might be helpful if he remembered to take care of the buildings that still exist rather than taking every opportunity to pose for pictures that will no doubt grace the cover of the new MSU catalog?

Maybe Irvin can find the time from his busy schedule to come down and get stuck in an elevator with some of the residents who have to put up with this. It doesn’t cost $37 million to replace or even repair the elevators properly. Instead, we have a maintenance staff that probably graduated from the School for the Mechanically Declined. There, a person gets an A+ if he or she can understand that a hammer does not help when trying to get in a screw and cannot fix a toilet roll holder properly.

All of us are paying for a good education, which most of us are receiving, but in order to learn, a comfortable environment must be established. Well, the next time I have to get out and jump start the elevators or turn the ol’ crank to get it moving again, I’ll remember Irvin Reid and his “Master Plan” for MSC. Consequently, I’ll demand a refund!

Plop, plop, fizz, fizz...

Well, well, well, the contract with Wood Food Service is up this June. Heh, heh, heh. Now before we get all sentimental about those deliciously, grease-slathered chicken fried steaks and light, fluffy mashed taters, maybe we should take a look-see at the situation.

First off, what’s the deal with the no-refunds policy? If you happen to get sick and miss a meal (suppose you had the powdered, just-add-water veal parmesan the night before) you don’t get any money back! The credit for missed meals doesn’t even carry over into the next week. I’m starting to get that sinking feeling that I’ve been bamboozled again.

Also, why-oh-why are there never any clean glasses? They’re only holding beverages for chisskates (it’s not Lent yet, is it?) not quick-dry cement!

Whoa, wait a minute! Another thing I can’t understand is why the hell can’t I get sausage with my eggs? I, for one, prefer not to eat my meals in shifts. Come on, I’m a big boy. I can finish a plateful. Even if my eyes are bigger than my belly (just like grandma used to say), I’m sure the 4 meals that I missed last week will more than cover the price of the scraps I don’t finish.

That’s it. My cholesterol-clogged arteries can no longer sustain the rapid pulse rate that comes from such an emotional topic. Must be the fried chicken.

We can even stare through the windows during the 90 hrs. a week it’s closed

As construction gets underway on the new library, there are questions about the fate of the gallery space in the library’s lobby. The library, as a repository of information and culture, is an ideal place for exhibiting artwork. Most of the galleries and exhibition spaces on campus are in inaccessible or low traffic areas, making the library gallery the most important exhibition space in terms of exposure to the campus as a whole.

Most of the galleries and exhibition spaces on campus are in inaccessible or low traffic areas, making the library gallery the most important exhibition space in terms of exposure to the campus as a whole.

Already, the majority of the work shown there is not student work, which seems inappropriate for this most public of campus galleries. As the student organization representing art students, the Association for Creative Endeavors (A.C.E.) wants to see in the new library a highly public exhibition space drawn more fully from the rich pool of creative work produced by the students of this college. The purpose of this institution is to expose students to professional experiences, and for artists this is the exhibiting of their work. A.C.E. seeks an active role in the decision making process for the allocation of gallery space.

Friday Afternoon Performances to feature
Theme From the New World

by Sandy Cammilleri

The Friday Afternoon Performance Hours will be presenting Theme From the New World: Immigration on Friday, March 6 at 1 p.m. in the Studio Theatre. Admission is free for all.

Directed by Marcia Assuncao, a BFA Theatre major at MSC, this experimental work features Carolyn Kowalski, Roger Mazzeo, Missy Pollard Pentecost, Thomas Dheere, Jason Grote and Mike Finn. Each of these acting students take on unusual roles as immigrants.

The immigrants they portray however, do not reveal or denote the stereotypical characteristics we associate with immigrants. These immigrants tend to reflect a primitive, somewhat animalistic culture.

Unfortunately, the concept comes across vaguely. Performed as a series of structured improvisations, the work loses both cohesiveness and a developmental progression of denouement. The main barrier which emanates from the work is that much of what is lost from lack of language doesn't seem to be gained back through motions. The feeling of immigration and the experience associated with it, is only subtly suggested. It appears as if the immigrants have regressed back to jungle life, rather than made the transition from one another. At times, too, the plots are slow moving with some scenes dragged out by redundant puckering noises.

The theme redeems much of the stylistic problems occurring in some scenes. Director Marcia Assuncao poignantly expressed the significance of the work's inherent theme by stating: "The message is for us not to forget that we come from the same place. We shouldn't fight each other, but rely on each other." Carolyn Kowalski, who plays one of the immigrants, also stressed the important implication being nonverbally expressed by stating: "This work is about anyone. We're all the same. We wanted it (the improvisation) to be so universal, everyone could understand."

As a whole, the piece should be seen as a new light. It is important to note that the focus here is not traditional theatre, but rather experimental theatre. We can't go in with preconceived expectations. The work has to be approached with an open mind. Perhaps, in being problematic, Theme From the New World: Immigration suggests its own implied truth. More specifically, in being so radically different, Theme From the New World encourages us to appreciate and respect that which is so very "foreign" to us.

The New Joy of Sex:
A guide for the new generation
by Tom Boud

I always knew there was something more to art writing than covering movies, television, phonograph records, and plays. Yet, despite racking my brains inside out about a million times, I could never recall the missing link. Well, eureka!

Alex Comfort's, The New Joy of Sex is hitting the bookstore circuit worldwide! First published in 1972 and subsequently in the 80’s, this 253-page long hardcover encyclopedia brilliantly succeeds at raising human sexuality in an aesthetically delightful art form. With a dozen duotone color drawings, black and white photographs and 85 full-color drawings, The New Joy of Sex does more than demonstrate numerous positions and techniques for sexual pleasure. It reinforces healthy sexual attitudes and, unlike previous editions, stresses AIDS consciousness.

To begin, Comfort displays his expertise on human sexuality at the book's preface where he justifies the need for sexual gluttony. Criticizing what he calls, the "Sexual Official Secrets Act," he asks: "Is there a New Joy of Sex? Yes it serves to compensate for hundreds of years of sexual repression.

"One can now read books and see pictures devoted to sexuality that was almost without limitation to a minority of generations to undo centuries of misinformation."

In addition to Comfort's outspokenness, I really liked the menu-like layout (no pun intended) of his work. He starts with a chapter called "Ingredients" and takes you to for having sex) and "Health and Other Issues." All told, this smorgasbord of sensual spices features some 142 entrees ranging from bondage to use of the X position (a specialized drawn-out and slow intercourse technique).

Moreover, there is so damn much to be gained from this masterpiece. Among other erotic seasonings, you'll learn that you can bring a woman to orgasm with a feather as well as a skill called pompoir (advanced sex technique of inducing male orgasm by sole use of the constrictor vaginae muscles - requires much practice).

Furthermore, you will find out about what is known as pâtes d'araignée (French for "spider legs" - a technique where one arouses one's partner by caressing the delicate hairs on the human body. Requires extremely light touch but a real zinger!) and see how sex on a swing can cause earthquaking climaxes for a woman.

Concerning safety, Comfort's updated edition contains a special section on AIDS on page 214. Here, Comfort underscores the importance of using condoms equipped with nonoxynol-9 (offering high protection against all sexually transmitted diseases and conception). Besides gonorrhea and syphilis, Comfort discusses the perils of herpes, NGU (non-gonococcal urethritis) and richomociniasis which actually outweighs AIDS as an STD threat.

In closing, The New Joy of Sex is a must-read. Although it costs $30, you'll find its philosophy of loving, unselfconscious sexuality seducing.

The Mosh Pit

by Joe Ventola

Why all the sudden interest in moshing? The news media, the parents and the pork industry (seeking for us one time) have all managed to poke their eyes and snout into an area where they are not wanted. You see, their tainted hands are usually followed by the mainstream. The same mainstream that has managed to whore out everything is stumbles upon. From rap music to biker jackets, no stone goes unturned. If there is money to be made, take a look children; the mainstream is there. As for moshing, the case is hopefully different. Why? Because it just may be violent enough to keep out those whom it does not concern. Yet let us not forget what happened to hardcore NYC rap clubs and ever-so-profitable break dancing.

My point is that moshing is something that belongs to a culture who really has little else to call its own. Try to take it and you might get your hand bitten off. But for all those who still want to know the real deal, I will do my best to call its own. Try to take it and you might get your hand bitten off. But for all those who still want to know the real deal, I will do my best to call its own. Try to take it and you might get your hand bitten off.

"Am I bleeding?" This question is not uncommon when you mosh for entertainment.

Yea, moshing is a bunch of people slamming into each other. Yes, it can be viciously violent. And for those truly interested, people do get hurt. A massive attack of forearm, shoulders, torsos and occasional thrust of a knee cap are what this slamming entails. In turn, repetitious, resilience and non-regurgitative skills are necessary attributes for the moshers to make it through the pit. Yes, the pit, as in “Drop the prisoners in this.” The conceptual image of a dark, dirty, stomach-c Rasputin comb is not far from the reality. You see, moshing takes place in clubs that are characteristically dark, engulfed with second­ ary smoke and, for the most part, dirty. However, once in the club, the pit experience is just beginning. Combine ear-rupturing P.A. systems, trash bands who roughly pump out 170 beat-per-minute tempos and that ever-so-tasteful club atmosphere and you create the perfect sandbox for moshers to play in. In this sandbox, moshers will act to combine and form circles or pits. It is not please turn to MOSH page 27.

The Mosher's Ritzclub

It was a midnight Friday. One of the wildest concerts to hit New York City’s Kitchin club in a while was about to start. Dancing was euphoric. The killer rave/mosh pit was not. The crowd was as docile as the ideal bar at Stitzer: a much bigger mix than at January 3rd’s “Greatest Rap Show of All-Time” that featured top niggaz Public Enemy, Geto Boys, Queen Latifah, Nature, Leaders of the New School and others. This bill featured Ice-T, Ice-T with Body Count and the Hard Corps.

My friends and I made it from Denver, N.J. to NYC in 15 minutes, an unbelievable feat. It was the excitement of going to see Ice, since all of us did not have the opportunity to see him live last year. We were also looking forward to see Body Count. The Hard Corps was an extra bonus.

After being security checked we finally made it to the venue. Shortly thereafter the Hard Corps hit the stage with a fury of music. They are a west-coast combo band from Nashville, Tenn. They have as an lead and DJ Will Jill capella styled by two guys who go by the names of Dirty Bob and the Beast. They played this as the rocker, “Can’t Can’t,” “The Dirseater” and “Make My Day.” They surprisingly did not play their hit single track “3 Blind Mice.” There was a huge maniac dancing in some white dress when they began their rockin’ r.v version of AC/DC’s “Back in Black.” Their last two tunes included the MTV music ‘Hard Corps’ and then their single, of which band members flung many people into the audience during the set, “Bring Down the House.” During the last two songs most of the place was a mosh pit. The Hard Corps are a Dallas-based chiptuners called Chiptuners. After the Hard Corps came to the low point of the evening, the most expected and cheesy name of Lord Finesse came out onto the stage, saying “I want to thank Ice-T, etc.” He then launched into three boring, unimaginative, repetitive, spodagical songs that did not have the same exact bass beat. This guy did not change his style of rapping throughout, trying to sound and look as tough as he could. Chants of “You suck” started out in some places. If he tried to be original and got a few raps, maybe he could accomplish something. Many people were thankful when he left. Lord Finesse was

Way back when, in the dazed and confused era that was the 1990’s, animation made its way into prime-time television and altered the popular view of animation in the United States forever. Hanna-Barbera’s The Flintstones and The Jetsons aired, and no longer were cartoons for the Howdy Doodly crowd-adults were watching this stuff! Even Rocky and Bullwinkle had an unnatural time, with their political humor that was about as subtle as a ball-pee hammer. Then, after Fred and Barney took off their Water Buffalo hat and lane stopped that crazy thing, prime-time animation dropped off.

That is, until the swingin’ 80’s. The new kid on the block, that maverick coolest Joe was decided to give animation a second chance with Simpsons shorts on Tracey Ullman. To coin a cliche, the rest is history. Bart and company captivated Fox into the limelight by doing what the other two veteran networks had called impossible— they dethroned King Cooby. Consistently! It seems that the other networks are now waking up and smelling the litter. MTV Networks, which owns MTV and Nickelodeon, has the off-beat and downright weird Ren and Stimpy Show. CBS just aired its pilot of the cult comic book favorite Fish Police. Even though it’s not in the prime-time slot, Hey Town Adventures deserves a boot and a holler. Granted, sometimes the humor is a little juvenile, but so was Bubblewinkle and the adult humor punches through. The killer pit新颖 pilot, the artist who creates Buster Bunny gives him his first splash of color-orange, pink, mauve, and green. Buster’s comment: “Who do you think you are, Ted Turner?”

In this respect, Japan is definitely light-years ahead of us as far as quality of shows and animation. I wish I had enough money to buy all the imported Japanimation that comes out. Believe me, they have come a long way since Battle of the Planets first aired on Channel 5. The best animation I have seen on these shores so far has been either Disney (by far the animation kings) and Rankin-Bass. Rankin-Bass is a little more well-known for its 60’s claymation Christmas specials, but when they did Thundercreek and Silverhats, they showed some real promise. Even then, who were the animators? Japanes. They’re not just beating us in VCRs and Hondas, folks.

Again, Japan is non-nori-orientated than we are here. While The Simpsons is nice, I sincerely believe that we shouldn’t be resigned to animated slapstick parody and cutey Disney musicals. We don’t know what a whole what animation quality is because we’ve been so saturated with He-Man, She-Re, Superfriends, and other gross pap created just to sell $3.99 toys. The last sci-fi animated movie that I saw and loved was Heavy Metal. Remember that?

Movie makers should wake up. I’ve talked to a few in the actual biz, and they feel that there’s not really a market for it. I agree, to a point. There’s no market for it, and there won’t be if we keep churning out cartoons to sell Ninja Turtle figures. We need some solid plots, well-written stories, and eyes on the animation. The most well-known for its 60’s claymation Battle of the Planets is definitely light­year ahead of us as far as quality of stories and animation. After the Hard Corps, I was excited about seeing Body Count. It was a night of tunes from past records Power, Rhyme Force, and Ice-T’s “Black Ice.” Ice-T’s rapping was his usual style and the rest — was his usual style. He closed with “O.G. Original Gangsta” and the poster-girl “New Jack Hustler.” He then said he’d be back in 10 minutes with Body Count at “Home of the Bodybag.”

The 10 minutes passed and Body Count came out swinging. Ice-T’s singing tempo drops and atmosphere changes. Body Count has a horridly hard sound. They played a Henry Rollins style tune about the killing he racist mother. Other songs included “I’m not a cop,” a huge pit, the song was closed with “O.G. Original Gangsta” and the post-girl “New Jack Hustler.” He then said he’d be back in 10 minutes with Body Count at “Home of the Bodybag.”

Also in the rotation will be curveball specialist Michele Serio, a sophomore who hails from Lyndhurst, NJ. Serio, also a righthander, is a solid starter who along with Fyfe gives MSC a solid 1-2 pitching combo.

Karen Bouloucon (left), Krissi Kressler (center) and Suzanne Tiedemann (right) will patrol the outfield for the Hawks and are three more reasons why coach Kubicka fully expects her team to be very competitive this year.

“I think we’re a very strong team,” she said. “Last year we made it to the ECAC Tournament and we hope to go at least as far this season.”

RED HAWK NOTES... The Hawks will be flying to Florida on March 12th where they’ll open the season on the 15th. MSC will play 10 games in the Sunshine State before returning to New Jersey on the 24th.

Byerly looks to be effective. Others seeing time in the outfield will be sophomore AL Paz from Clifton, and junior Joe Critelli from Middletown, who will also see time at DH.

MSC will carry three catchers in ’92. Freshman Mike Micucci will start and is considered a Division I talent. The young backstop from Emerson had many offers, but chose MSC and Schoenig couldn’t be happier. “Mike has a great arm, and is a gap and long-ball hitter. He bats lefthanded and can throw. There aren’t too many around like him,” Senior Frank Quinn from Andover (Lenape Valley High) adds valuable experience and freshman Rich Aleman of Paterson (Passaic County Tech) is steadily progressing. Both are likely to see time behind the plate.

The Red Hawks will open up their season with a two-game road trip to Virginia this weekend. MSC will battle William and Mary on Saturday, March 7, then, the Red Hawks will take on Virginia Wesleyan College on Sunday, March 8, before returning to New Jersey. They’ll then have five straight days without a game before leaving for their trip to California over Spring Break. The trip features seven games in seven days.

All in all, 1992 is going to be an interesting year for MSC baseball. Will talent overcome youth and inexperience? Can the Red Hawks be as good as many people believe and make a return trip to the Division III College World Series? Stay tuned.

RED HAWK NOTES...MSC will play 42 regular season games...Fifteen of the games will be played at home...All home games are played on campus at Pittser Field...The schedule includes four double-headers and features games with three Division I opponents (Rutgers, Seton Hall, and Monmouth)...The assistant coaches are Frank Eufemia, Rick Giancola, Charlie Honeker, and Rich O’Connor.
The mighty have fallen

Once the class of the NBA, the Celtics, Lakers and 76ers are now being schooled

Reality is harsh! Dreams die! And no one is ageless! How many times have you heard these always encouraging statements? I know I’ve heard them plenty of times, but last weekend they finally hit home.

Last Friday, Magic Johnson sat courtside and witnessed Kareem Abdul-Jabbar defeat Julius Erving in Clash of the Legends in Atlantic City. This brought back a lot of memories. The only person missing from this class of superstars was Larry Bird. It made me painfully realize that their teams, the Los Angeles Lakers, Philadelphia 76ers and Boston Celtics, the elite teams of the ’70s and ’80s, are now mediocre, if not less.

For you the Celtics, Lakers and Sixers fought for NBA bragging rights. But the Sixers traded Moses Malone and Erving retired, the Celtics were hit with the age bug and the Lakers lost Abdul-Jabbar and Johnson, both to retirement. Now, the once premier teams may soon be in the Lottery on draft day.

The mighty have fallen and fallen hard. The ’76ers are fighting with the Miami Heat and New Jersey Nets for the final playoff spot in the East, while the Celtics and Lakers are the only teams this year to have already lost as many games as they did all of last season. A year ago, the Celtics finished 66-26 and the Lakers 56-24, whereas this year, they are 32-36 and 30-28, respectively.

To make matters worse, the Lakers this year, they are 32-26 and 30-28, respectively. To make matters worse, the Lakers are battling the, once hapless, L.A. Clippers for the eighth playoff spot in the West. The Lakers aren’t even the best team in L.A. anymore. These teams were all perennial 55-plus game winners just a few short seasons ago and now they’re fighting for .500. What’s happening?

The problem each team is facing lies in the hands of the management. I know the Lakers didn’t expect Johnson to retire this year, but these teams, unprepared for the loss of aging stars, are loaded with players who are trying to defy father time. You can’t win that way.

In 1986, the last time the Celtics won it all, they were led by Bird, Robert Parish and Kevin McHale, each at least 30 years old at the time, and now, 1992, the Celtics are still relying on them. Don’t get me wrong, they are three future hall of famers, but what if Boston going to do if they each call it quits after the ’93 season? Hell, two of them, Bird and McHale, may say goodbye to Boston at the end of this year, especially since they’ve been injured for a large part of the season. You don’t just replace these kinds of players.

In Los Angeles, the Lakers miss Johnson tremendously, and, other than Vlade Divac, their main players like James Worthy, Byron Scott and A.C. Green are all climbing the age ladder. These players are constantly on the trading table, but their salaries and age keep them in L.A., so far.

The team that has fallen from grace the most, and can only be helped if God turns up his Chuck Taylor’s, is the ’76ers. They are in a world of trouble and Sixers owner, Harold Katz is definitely to blame. Philly is the youngest of the three teams but they need help.

Another team slowly joining this trio is the Detroit Pistons. The former two time defending champions are facing their own adversity. Age is starting to take its toll in the Motor City as Isiah Thomas, Bill Laimbeer and Mark Aquirre are all aging. Retirement is something every organization must cope with, but when this caliber of player calls it quits, it hurts really hard. Teams want to be loyal to their superstars, but they also must prepare for this gloomy day.

Here’s how this dilemma should be handled. If your players are aging, and you don’t want to or can’t get rid of them, play them less and see what their replacements can do. If the subs respond, great. If not, release them so you can fit other players under the salary cap. There are plenty of unheralded players who if given a chance will work so hard they’ll become a tremendous asset; look at Dennis Rodman. I know someone like Bird or Magic can never be replaced, but if management prepared for aging and retirement, the drop in victories wouldn’t be as severe. It’s not going to happen overnight, but these teams must turn it around soon. They used to be the class of the NBA but now they should be in class of Management 101. This is what it’s going to take to get them back to being among the upper echelon teams.

If this doesn’t happen, there’s one thing I know for sure: Red Auerbach won’t be lighting any victory cigars in Boston for a long time.

The King speaks out:

Don’t bash The Clash

I have only one thing to say: Clash of the Legends was not that bad! Everyone is ripping all of the people associated with the event and I think you all should calm down.

Mike Celizic, a columnist for The Record, wrote, “If you flushed $19.95 down the cable toilet to watch Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Julius Erving in their alleged Clash of the Legends, you got taken.” He was even more candid when he addressed those who took the trip down to Atlantic City.

“I admit it wasn’t the best basketball I’ve ever seen, but it wasn’t the worst. Before you bash Kareem and Dr. J remember this: The game was for charity. I hope a lot of people “flushed” $19.95 down the toilet because $6 of every pay-per-view order went to AIDS research.

Also, those of us who took the trip to A.C. had a great time. Mr. Celizic. We got to see all of the stars, including Magic Johnson, and after the game we still had time to gamble.

To all you friends and fans who have verbally abused the participants as well as yours truly, for making a big deal about the game, why don’t you put your beliefs and predictions on paper. It’s easy to say, “I told you this would happen,” or “I knew it would suck,” but it takes a real man to print his predictions and feelings, for thousands to read, and stand behind them.

It may have been somewhat disappointing, but if you had seen the crowd erupt when the 6’6” Erving put on a vintage move before dunking over the 7’2” Jabbar. you would have been very happy.

Women's basketball invited to ECAC's

Although we're young, this team is very promising. We're wearing the number 91, but has shown excellent mechanics." Although he only pitched 13 innings in '91, Rampone impressed everyone with his control and his ability to get ahead of the batters. The 5'11" righthander from Mt. Olive High is known for his fastball, which sits in the mid-80s and can reach the mid-90s. He batted .308, stole nine bases, and had a .511 on-base percentage. He'll be the lead-off hitter for MSC.

The hot corner will be manned by 5'10" sophomore Rob DiLaurenzio. The improved fielder will bring some power to the lineup, and will also see some time at the designated hitter position. Thus far his knee is holding up well, but there is concern. "Mike's been practicing real hard although he's not at top speed. He'll probably suffer some stiffness and tightness, but he should be fine," added Schoenig.

Drager will be joined on the right side of the diamond by third-baseman Suzanne Stoff, who played that position for Ramapo last year. Those two, along with Kelly Hanaway (first-base) and Fran Bellapaisa (second), give the Hawks a solid infield. Should any of them need a day off, Kubicka has Laura Judge, Cheryl Hergert and Jennifer Flinn waiting in the wings. Flinn will also be Kirsti Kuchinskis' understudy behind the plate, increasing her chances of seeing plenty of action.

With the starting lineup set, there are only a few open spots on the roster. One of the most important newcomers will be coach Kubicka's first middle infielder, a 5'11" sophomore named John Byerly, a transfer from Oklahoma City University who will be the set-up man for hardthrowing senior reliever John Pallino. Pallino had a great freshman season in '91, hitting .349, knocking in 49 runs, and collecting 56 hits in 48 games. If you're wondering just how good Pallino is, the Red Hawks skipper has this to say: "John is just a first-class player and person. He does all the things you want a pitcher to do, on and off the field. You build baseball programs around players like John Pallino. It's as simple as that."

In the middle infield, Schoenig and Schoening present a solid double-play combination in the freshmen duo of second baseman Brian Murphy and shortstop Tony Martinez. Murphy, a line-drive type hitter, will be the lead-off hitter for MSC. The improved fielder will bring some power to the lineup, and will also see some time at the designated hitter position.
