TKE accused of violating hazing policy

by Kevin Colligan, Nancy Gannon and Maureen McGowan

Charges that TKE National Fraternity violated MSC’s hazing policy are being investigated by the Greek Council under the direction of the SGA attorney general. A hearing on the matter will be held on October 13 by the Greek Council Judicial Court.

According to Campus Police, the charges are also being investigated to determine if any criminal offenses took place.

TKE officials denied the charges.

The investigations were prompted by charges levied in an anonymous letter that TKE engaged in hazing during its last pledging cycle. Photographs allegedly supporting the charge accompanied the letter.

“What we did was done privately on a retreat. It was not hazing,” said TKE president Patrick Algieri.

Edward Martin, Dean of Student Affairs, said the pictures will most likely be presented to the Judicial Court.

The letter stated that the pictures were from the last spring. Algieri countered the allegation, stating the photographs were taken at a brotherhood retreat that took place in a Glen Ridge home in the spring of 1991.

Dean Martin said, “Our concern is when the activity took place.”

Hazing polices of NJ state, MSC and TKE

by Mile Cappadona

Total nudity at any time, paddle swats and pledges awakened time and again during the night are just a few of the examples of hazing according to MSC hazing guidelines.

New Jersey state law defines hazing as follows:

A) A person is guilty of hazing, a disorderly persons offense, if, in connection with initiation of applicants to or members of a student or fraternal organization, he knowingly or recklessly organizes, promotes, facilitates or engages in any conduct, other than competitive athletic events, which places or may place another person in danger of bodily injury.

B) A person is guilty of aggravated hazing, a crime of the fourth degree, if he commits an act prohibited in subsection (A) which results in serious bodily injury to another person.

MSC has its own hazing guidelines set up. The college defines hazing as any action taken or situation created intentionally, to create:

a) physical or psychological discomfort
b) embarrassment
c) harassment
d) paddling in any form

Please turn to POLICIES page 5
Hey! Physical fitness has taken the campus by storm. Come join in the fun.

The new pool hours are as follows: Open Swim Sat-Mon.: 2-4, Tues. - Thurs.: 12-4, Mon.-Thurs.: 8:30-10. Do the doggy paddle or the backstroke. It doesn’t matter, swimming is great aerobics with no negative impacts on your body. Plus, you get to show that bathing suit you thought you couldn’t flaunt your body in ‘til next summer.

The Panzer gym is also open. Weights, machines and a track are available for your quest to new health. Those new hours are: Mon.-Thurs.: 11-9 pm, Fri.: 11-3 pm, Sat-Sun.: 2-6 pm. If you are on the other side of campus, Panzer gym has hours Mon-Thurs.: 8-10 pm. Aerobics is offered Mon-Thurs.: 4:45-5:45.

For the more artistically inclined, there is an exhibit of paintings done by Antoinette Terlizzi and Steve Cummings on display in a show titled, “Manscapes” in Gallery 1 from now ‘til Oct. 10. That’s a long time but don’t let it slip by. Always open your mind to new and different fields of vision!

Like the outdoors? Are you really into New Jersey back woods? Well, hold onto your hats nature lovers because do I have a treat for you. Opportunity knocks with The School of Conservation. They are offering, for the low price of $88, a weekend vacation spent hiking and experiencing the outdoors in the beautiful forests of North Jersey. Sign up now! The event begins at 6 p.m. on Friday Oct. 2 ‘til Oct. 4. Grab your sweetheart, your best friend, your dog if they don’t mind and take a deep, clear, stress-free breathe up in the stimulating woods of Jersey.

INTERNATIONAL

In International news, according to the Wall Street Journal, South Africa is starting to take steps toward democracy. They freed scores of prisoners while under orders given to them by the African National Congress. Perhaps overlooked in the masses, among the free were three ANC members accused of killing whites and an already convicted Neo-Nazi found guilty of staying a black man.

Gorbachev refused to appear in Russia’s Constitutional Court. He felt the precedents would exploit him since the Court is determining the fate of the Communist Party, the same party he once headed.

Over the weekend in Tajikistan, hundreds were killed as Central Asia moved closer to a civil war. These actions prompted Russian troops to reinforce themselves with more fleets of troops being stationed within the country.

And in Germany, cancellations of the 50th Anniversary Celebrations for the first firing of Hitler’s V-2 rocket were felt by the entire country. This action came under the pressure and strong intervention in Germany and from Great Britain.

NATIONAL

In National news, H. Ross Perot spoke out in the The New York Times Business section about how he would handle economics. Although never breaking down the question with an answer consisting of any numbers, Perot’s opinion is, “Reduce spending and generate more revenues...It’s that simple.” He is in favor of raising the tax bracket to 33 percent from the already 31 percent and reducing deductions off tax pamphlets to tax persons owning very expensive items such as houses, cars or property. A major tax adjustment, he proposes, is the 50 cent a gallon tax on gasoline, while fully eliminating the deduction an employer accepts providing very full paid insurance. He also states that by cutting back 10 percent on all discretionary budget items will save the country 23 billion dollars. Though he fails to list what those items would be.

In other National news, where would you guess the highest amount of women’s labor percentage would be? Well, according to the Wall Street Journal, Minnesota ranked very high with a percentage of 67 percent and Alaska coming in second with 65 percent. Alabama and Louisiana finished lowest with only a little over half, 52 percent.

LOCAL

In Regional News, tropical storms Danielle coupled with a strong pressure system caused strong northeast winds which ravaged the Mid-Atlantic coastline. Winds up to 35 MPH and gusts up to 45 MPH or more smashed the churning ocean over sea walls and beaches. On Fire Island, 40 feet of beach was lost the first night of the storm. Police in New York City stormed City Hall despite the fact that their duty is to stop such an occurrence. Off duty police were rallying to protest a proposed Civilian Complaint Review Board. Several thousand police approached City Hall without being halted by on duty police officers.

Proposals by the N.J. Department of Environmental Protection and Energy to support two separate bills proposed by Democratic Senator, Bill Bradley, were offered before a Senate subcommittee. The bills propose to add parts of the Delaware and Great Egg Harbor rivers to our National Wild and Scenic Life system.

Temperatures were about 2.5 degrees below normal this summer in Newark. The coldest summer since 1965.

Crows cleared trees along Rt. 20 East in order to make way for a twenty foot concrete noise barrier. The 8.4 million dollar project is proposed to be 3,000 feet long and should be done by August of 1994.

CORRECTIONS

In last week’s issue, Kim Guadagnini’s quote stating the accident at the Clove Road was technically the fault of the other driver was omitted.

Helene Lefkow was incorrectly identified as an English major. She is a Spanish major.
Olympic swimmer speaks to youths in Panzer

by Michael Frasco

Olympic swimmer Ron Karnaugh was the guest speaker at the Newark Boys and Girls Club/Paterson YMCA Swimming Clinic at MSC’s Panzer Swimming Pool on Tuesday.

Karnaugh was on hand to share his experiences from the 1992 Barcelona Olympic Games and to promote the importance of inner city swimming to 40 youngsters from both the Newark and Paterson Clubs.

The 26-year old from Maplewood, N.J. was a gold medalist at the 1991 Pan-American games and the number one qualifier at the 1992 Olympic trials in the 200 Individual Medley.

"While in Barcelona, Karnaugh's father suffered a heart attack and died during the opening ceremonies. He said, 'I was preparing to have the swim of my life and I experienced a very devastating tragedy.'"

Despite his loss, Karnaugh did compete in the 200 Individual Medley, but finished sixth. "Many people asked me, did it ever cross my mind to not swim and forfeit and go home? The answer is, no, it never crossed my mind. I know deep in my heart that my father would've wanted me to compete no matter what happens to me."

Although he said he was disappointed by his sixth-place finish, Karnaugh realized a much more important lesson as a result of his tragic experience, as well as the impact it had on the world. "This made me more sensitive to the basic human needs, seeing how everyone was reaching out and trying to help me and how many people were touched by what had happened to me," he said.

On Tuesday, Karnaugh reached out to give the kids some guidance and words of encouragement. He said, "I enjoyed being here today and sharing with the kids how I was able to pursue my dreams over the years."

The Olympian also told the kids that setbacks such as the one he suffered with his father's death, make the individual more determined.

"Concerning his own situation, Karnaugh noted that part of what he learned from his ordeal he planned to apply in other areas of his life, such as pursuing a career as a physician. He is currently attending medical school in Newark. His plans for the immediate future are to concentrate on his education, and he does plan on competing in the 1996 Olympics, to be held in Atlanta, Georgia. He said, 'I plan on making the biggest comeback this country has ever seen. A lot of people think I'm finished, I'm going to medical school and it's all over...in 1996 I will be back.'"

Karnaugh will be 30 when the Atlanta Olympics take place, but he doesn't consider that to be any factor. He said, "I'll be 30, so I'll get the older generation pumped up!"

The reason that he wants to give it another shot, is his not being satisfied with his performance. However, Karnaugh, despite all the adversity, did not overlook the thrill of competing in front of the world. He said, "On the whole, swimming in the Olympics, there's nothing like it. There's a lot of pride and it's an honor to represent your country. I wanted to represent what America stands for in that we're not quitters."

Biology equipment still missing

by Anthony Floreano

An animal cage washing machine was stolen approximately two weeks ago from outside of Finley Hall said Biology department chairperson Dr. Bonnie Lustigman.

The machine was used to wash the rat cages which were in the old animal rooms and it was to be placed in the new animal facilities room, said Lustigman.

The machine was believed to have been stolen during all the recent construction on campus. "The thieves could have driven a truck onto campus and nobody would think differently because of all the recent construction on campus. "The thieves could have driven a truck onto campus and nobody would think differently because of all the recent construction on campus." Lustigman added, "The machine is huge, it would take a crane to move it. We are very disappointed."

Campus Police were notified of the theft, but have had no leads as of yet.

REID from page 1

"It depends on how you look at it, but we don't feel that campus security is jeopardized. Many times Officer Higgins isn't on duty when he's called to drive somewhere," Calitre said. "Reid could not be reached for comment.

Assistant to the President, Lise Greene, further defended the practice by stating that the college saves money by having a security officer perform these tasks, as well as his own, instead of hiring an official driver or having Reid do his own driving.

"For him (Reid) to spend three or four hours on the road would be a terrible waste of time. If we have to have someone drive President Reid, it's better to have an officer do it than waste the president's time," Greene said.

 Greene also added that it is necessary for Officer Higgins to hand-deliver the copies of the board of trustees' agenda because due to their bulk, they "cannot be mailed" and home delivery is the "most efficient way to get the materials to our board members."

Olympic swimmer Ron Karnaugh in Panzer Gym

Reprinted from last week:

Parking decal fee included in tuition bill

by Pam Colon

There was an addition to the tuition bills for the 1992 Fall semester which has caused mixed reaction from students.

According to MSC Business Manager Ms. Vili Maristela, the business office decided it might be easier for them as well as the students if the $25 parking fee be automatically added in on the tuition bills, considering that the parking decal application form is mailed with the bill. Students were not notified of this new addition.

"The form indicates that the fee was added on. If the students don't fill out what's on the bill then we are not responsible," Maristela said.

Some students who have cars and needed a decal felt it was easier with the fee added on, but some students did not.

Senior Celeste Narciso said, "I don't understand why a notice wasn't sent out. I have been here for four years, every year I get my bill, I look at the total and pay the price, I figure the school knows what it's doing. The bill looked as if it always did so why would I look twice? The funny part is, I don't even have a driver's license, never mind a car."

Maristela said, "We are giving students the benefit of the doubt and if they come down to the business office they will be reimbursed," Maristela said.

According to Maristela, students are driving to campus but not filling for a decal. Campus police went on a vehicle check and issued approximately $3000.00 in tickets to vehicles without decals. "I don't understand why students would rather pay $10.00 every time they park rather than pay a one time $25.00 parking fee," Maristela said.

Maristela wants the students to understand that they are not charging this fee "for the heck of it;" there is a purpose. It helps pay for the three new shuttle busses as well as parking facilities for the students and faculty.

"Instead of beating the system, why don't the students work with us to provide a better service for everyone?" Maristela said.

According to the business office, approximately 2,000 students say they are not driving to campus and do not need a parking decal. Graduate students and part-time students are included in this amount, and insist that they are not driving to campus.

"Some of the students live in Hazlet and other distant locations, is there a shuttle bus that we are unaware of that comes from there to here? How are these students getting to class?"

Maristela said, "Many students that paid the fee and have not received their decal must go to the business office and fill out an application. According to the business office, "If a student did not receive a decal it is due to the fact that they did not fill out the form," Maristela said.
place, for what reasons, and what changes in member development have taken place since then."

"None of this happens anymore. We must comply with our National’s regulations," Algieri said. "Some of our more recent retreats have been held on campus in Partridge Hall." He added that the fraternity is under a new executive board.

Algieri said that the men pictured were not pledges, but brothers. "It could be a guy that’s been in for two years," he said. "It was a brotherhood bonding activity, we were playing games."

Najarian concurred, "They were all brothers. The event took place to release tension. It boosts everyone’s morale. After the activity, I can still turn around and say, 'I love you, you’re my brother.'"

According to New Jersey State law, MSC hazing statutes and the constitution of TKE, however, activities defined as hazing (see hazing guidelines) are prohibited for fraternity members as well as pledges.

MSC president Irvin Reid said, "We are keeping an open mind. We are giving the students the benefit of the doubt, but will uphold the policies of MSC."

Reid said the allegations are being examined on three levels: the Administration is conducting an investigation to determine whether there has been a violation of campus policy; the SGA, according to president Gouri Sadhwani, is conducting an investigation and TKE National will conduct an investigation.

James Harris, Dean of Student Activities, said, "Clearly, to anyone who doesn’t belong, some of the activities depicted are reasons for grave concern about the practices that continue within the organizations." He added, "Since hazing is illegal, we have no intentions of condoning or tolerating such behavior at this college."

TKE member Chris Pontrelli, who said he is included among the photographs of blindfolded individuals, said he did not consider activities in which he engaged to be hazing. "I was not forced to do anything, I definitely did not eat anything foul, and I was not scared. I had total trust. I didn’t regret it at all, but there are more effective ways, [to promote brotherly trust]" he said.

Pontelli currently holds the position of "Hypophetes" in the MSC chapter of TKE and is in charge of all rituals, retreats and academics.

Algieri said the activities portrayed in the photographs were the result of brothers losing bets based on competitions that may have ranged from "board games to athletic events."

"The blindfolds," according to Algieri, "are for the whole trust thing. We did not force them to do anything." He also said the writing of letters and phrases on individuals photographed was, "just a goof - just a fake tattoo. It could be part of the competition. You have to have something tattooed on your body with a marker for the night."

Rich Adams, President of Greek Council, commented on the allegations. "Hazing is a problem that must be stopped. But it’s been around for as long as fraternities and sororities have existed. Until people are seriously punished by the system for it, it’s not going to stop," he said.

SGA president Gouri Sadhwani said, "[The fraternity] will be judged by their peers. They can empathize with them, or hold them up to certain standards."

TKE has issued a memo to all Greek organizations, explaining their situation and asking for support against what they called, "malicious accusations."
Members of TKE at what they state was a retreat, the brothers depicted are said to have agreed to the activities they took part in.

POLICIES, from page 1

- required/forced branding or tattooing
- engaging in public stunts and buffoonery
- morally degrading or humiliating games and activities
- forced consumption of food, alcohol and/or any intoxicants
- any activity that causes or results in public disturbance
- any actions and/or activities that endanger the student, the university community, or the academic process
- possession of firearms or other dangerous weapons on college property contrary to law
- intentional damage to or destruction of college property or of property on college premises belonging to others
- failure to comply with directions of the college officials and their authorized agents acting in the performance of their duties
- any requirements by a member or pledge which compel another member or pledge to participate in any activity which is illegal, which is known by the compelling party to be contrary to an individual's moral or religious beliefs, or which is contrary to the rules/regulations of the college
- conduct that is made a crime by the criminal law of the State of New Jersey or the United States of America and takes place on college property or is supervised or in the course of a college activity.

Also, hazing with or without the consent of a student, is prohibited by the college, and a violation of that prohibition renders both the person inflicting the hazing and the person submitting to the hazing, subject to discipline.

Aside from the state law and campus guidelines, many fraternities have their own rules and guidelines against hazing. Tau Kappa Epsilon's (TKE) own hazing guidelines state:

- Tau Kappa Epsilon believes that chapters, in planning their new member education programs, should use the findings of scientific research in training and discipline methods.

All forms of hazing are forbidden by the Fraternity. Hazing is defined as any action taken or situation created, intentionally, on or off college or fraternity premises, to produce mental or physical discomfort, embarrassment, ridicule, or possibly cause mental or physical harm or injury.

---

The Macintosh Student Aid Package.

Get over $400 worth of preloaded software when you buy one of the Apple® Macintosh® computers shown above at our best prices ever. And if you are interested in financing options, be sure to ask for details about the Apple Computer Loan. But hurry, because student aid like this is only available through October 15, 1992 — and only at your authorized Apple campus reseller.

For further information visit
The College Store
Lower Level - Student Center Building
State board votes to change university requirements

by Anthony Floreno

The New Jersey Board of Higher Education met and adopted new regulations governing the criteria for naming a university on Friday, September 25, by a 7-5 vote.

The new criteria includes a larger focus on teaching, which is divided into traditional research teaching and major focus teaching. In traditional research teaching, "The university provides a wide range of undergraduate and graduate studies in two or more academic disciplines. A teaching university has a minimum of 2500 full-time equivalent (FTE) students. At least 20% of the university's total student body (headcount) are enrolled in graduate degree programs." The ordinance also states that "a significant number of the faculty in each program are associated with the institution full-time. Because MSC fulfills these basic criteria it is eligible to apply, with the approval of its governing boards, to the New Jersey Board of Higher Education for university status.

Dr. Jesse Rosenblum, Vice-President of Institutional Advancement, said, "The College Senate clearly endorses the notion of university status and is working towards that goal." After MSC applies, its petition is reviewed by an external consultant employed by the Department of Higher Education. The chancellor recommends approval to the Board based on the consultant's report.

The amendment added to the ordinance is where MSC is concerned. It is based on major focus teaching and reads, "A university whose major focus is on teaching provides a wide range of undergraduate programs and graduate programs in at least three academic disciplines. A teaching university has a minimum of two or more areas." The amendment added to the ordinance is where MSC is concerned.

Several art students were standing in the Library when a piece of ceiling fell, hitting her on the head. She was transported to Health Center for examination and treatment.

Campus Police Report

THEFT:
9/23/92: Student parked his car in Lot 21 and it was stolen.
9/24/92: A Pine Arts faculty member reported that between the end of July and September, College property was stolen from Room 126. The stolen property was kept in a cage area which had a chain and a lock securing the door. He found the lock cut off. New ducts were installed over the caged area this summer. The cage area does not reach the ceiling and it is possible to climb over it.
9/24/92: A student was in the Library and left her bookbag unattended while she went to the research department. When she got home she saw that her books were taken from her bag.
9/24/92: A student parked her car in Lot 25 and upon returning from class it was missing. The door of the car was locked and it had no alarm.
9/24/92: A female student parked her car in Lot 22 and upon returning her car radio and stereo was stolen.
9/24/92: A student parked her car in Lot 23 and upon returning found her car radio and tire missing.

THEFT OF A MOTOR VEHICLE:
9/24/92: A student reported the theft of his car from Lot 14. He had attended the dance at the Student Center and was on campus only from midnight until 2:15 a.m. This vehicle was recovered by Paterson PD on 9/27/92.
9/24/92: A Blanton resident reported her car had been stolen from Lot 20A. It had been parked there overnight.

THEFT FROM A MOTOR VEHICLE:
9/24/92: Blanton resident reported theft of a car bra from his car in Lot 22 while parked overnight for two days.
9/27/92: Patrolling officer found Student's car had been broken into and rummaged through while parked in Lot 22.
9/28/92: A student parked his car in Lot 24 and his car antenna was stolen.

ATTEMPTED THEFT FROM A MOTOR VEHICLE:
9/27/92: A male student parked his car in Lot 20 to find his passenger side door lock broken, point around lock scratched, passenger vent window broken.

MEDICAL:
9/23/92: A Student Center employee requested an ambulance because an office ceiling tile fell on her head. She suffered pain and a cut on her head. Ambulance took her to Mountainside Hospital.
9/28/92: A female student standing in the Library when a piece of ceiling fell, hitting her on the head. She was transported to Health Center for examination and treatment.

PROPERTY DAMAGE:
9/24/92: A maintenance employee reported damage to the door frame in Room 204 in the Gallery.

CRIMINAL MISCHIEF:
9/27/92: A student parked her car in Lot 22 and found that her car was broken into and damaged.
9/23/92: A visitor parked his car in Lot 28 and upon returning found damage to the windshield and the hood was in the up position.
9/29/92: A student parked his car in Lot 24 and upon returning his driver side view mirror unit was broken off. This is the second time this has happened in the last 9 months.

TERRORISTIC THREATS:
9/25/92: A Blanton Hall Desk Assistant received a bomb threat from a male caller. The building was evacuated and searched. After 30 minutes the building was re-entered.

MOTOR VEHICLE:
9/26/92: A College Hall employee of Room 106 stated that she has been harassed by a bus driver of Lot 28 for approximately four weeks. Another College Hall employee was a witness to some of the harassments. She is excorted every morning from her car to her office.

Professor's art work destroyed

by Renee McDonnell

Seventeen paintings by Professor Leon de Leeuw were found slashed and destroyed in studios, throughout Calcia Hall, on Monday Sept. 21. According to de Leeuw, the paintings had an estimated value of $32,000. He is currently investigating the situation. All no longer works his art in the building.

de Leeuw stated that there has never been such a problem in his 30 years at Montclair. "I am both angry and devastated," de Leeuw said that his initial reaction was, "Damn!" Also stated, "It is so much more malicious than I have ever seen before."

Both de Leeuw and Weinshaiker deny the accusation and state the paintings were stored in the classrooms as demonstration models. Weinshaiker did state that the studios are small and it is not common practice for teachers to store their work there.

de Leeuw said that his initial reaction was, "Damn!" Also stated, "I am both angry and devastated."

de Leeuw and Weinshaiker did not know of any possible suspects.

de Leeuw, who hopes to continue painting, stated that he feels the construction occurring in the building has lessened the security.
ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Mont Clarion needs writers, assistants, anyone who can spell, and/or knows how to properly use punctuation;... Any one interested should please apply at The Mont Clarion and ask for Kevin or George.

The Macintosh Student Aid Package.

Get over $400 worth of preloaded software when you buy one of the Apple* Macintosh® computers shown above at our best prices ever. And if you are interested in financing options, be sure to ask for details about the Apple Computer Loan. But hurry, because student aid like this is only available through October 15, 1992 – and only at your authorized Apple campus reseller.

For further information visit

The College Store

Lower Level – Student Center Building
WARNING

THE COLLEGE STORE WILL BEGIN RETURNING UNSOLD TEXTBOOKS ON OCTOBER 26TH PLEASE PURCHASE ANY NEEDED TEXTS
Clinton heckled by MSC students

"Whitehouse not a whorehouse"

Several MSC students made presidential hopeful Bill Clinton's trip to New Jersey last week mighty uncomfortable when they broke out into chants of "Whitehouse not a whorehouse" and "Draft dodger tell the truth."

The students belong to a loosely-knit organization calling themselves MSC Republicans. They caught the democrats off guard during Clinton's speech at Merck pharmaceuticals which was supposed to be delivered to Merck employees and Clinton volunteers only.

Jeffrey Ceterko, a member of the organization, said the MSC republicans obtained access to the closed speech due to the lack of Merck's organization. Passes for volunteers were haphazardly handed out in the parking lots, according to Ceterko, and he and his fellow republicans received passes from a frazzled staffer who mistook them for Clinton volunteers.

Robert Antonek, president of the MSC republicans, concurred, "We said we were volunteers. We didn't say if we were Republican volunteers or Democrat volunteers."

Ceterko said the members split into three groups and waited through the speeches of various senators and Governor Jim Florio for their main target to appear. "We were scared," Ceterko said. After several pauses in Clinton's speech, Ceterko said, his group stood on their chairs and began to chant.

"We chanted for a good minute and a half before we were asked to leave," Ceterko said. He said he and his companions left peacefully when police arrived on the scene. The protesters were held for the remainder of the speech and then driven off of Merck property by police.

"The best part," said Ceterko, "was that the cop was a republican. He said he wanted Bush back in too."

The group reassembled at the entrance of Merck and heckled the audience of the speech as they left holding a large banner which read, "No Slick Willie."

The story was covered in The New York Times, CNN and Z-100 FM.
DANCECLUB

WORLDCLASS D.J.'S SPIN THE SMART MIX FOR PEOPLE ON A HEALTHY AURAL DIET. HERE'S A SAMPLE . . .

RED HOT CHILI PEPPERS • CURE • JAMES BEASTIE BOYS • PEARL JAM • T99 • SOUP DRAGONS • BLACK SHEEP • BLUR • EPMD • JANE'S ADDICTION • THE SHAMEN • J&M CHAIN • VIOLENT FEMMES • L7 • SONIC YOUTH • SMASHING PUMPKINS • A TRIBE CALLED QUEST • LORDS OF ACID • KG & THE SUNSHINE BAND • THE STRANGLERS • 25TH OF MAY • DEE-LITE • APOTHECIS • SISTERS OF MERCY • MUDHONEY • PUBLIC ENEMY • BARRY WHITE • RIDE • MY LIFE WITH THE THRILL KILL CULT • FRONT 242 • REM • U2 • JAM • CLASH • NEDS • ATOMIC DUST BIN • STEREO M.C.'S • ETC . . .

LIVE VENUE

WATCH FOR SPECIAL LIVE SHOWS. ACTS LOCAL TO INTL. THESE ARE SOME BANDS THAT HAVE PLAYED THE LOOP.

FAITH NO MORE • NINE INCH NAILS • APB • THEY MIGHT BE GIANTS • SCHOOLY D. • GANG OF FOUR • THE FEELIES • UNTAMED YOUTH • KILLING JOKE • JOHNNY THUNDERS • THE SMITHEREENS • HENRY ROLLINS BAND • DUMP TRUCK • SILLY RABBITT • FLESH FOR LULU • THE SELVES • GIMMIE THE GUN • SQUARE 1 • BARRENCE WHITFIELD & THE SAVAGES • SWEET LIZARD ILLTET • RICHARD LLOYD • THE SILOS • KONK • CLOSE LOBSTERS • MIRACLE LEGION • THEY EAT THEIR OWN • SCRAM • DIG • YOUR MAMA • ANYTHING BOX • LUCKY 7 • WINTER HOURS

THE LOOP IS SWIRL ON THURSDAYS

M.S.C. STUDENTS FREE ADM. .75$ DRAFT

WRECKING BALL WEDS.

GIRLS ADMISSION FREE

$1.00 DRAFT • $2.00 SOL

SOUND CONDITIONED MUST BE 21 YRS.

DANCING WED-SAT.

NO BONEHEADS!

FRIDAY - SATURDAY FREE ADMISSION BEFORE 10:30 P.M.

$1.00 DRAFT until 11:00

DIRECTIONS: JUST 10 MINUTES FROM CAMPUS. TAKE RT. 3 EAST TO PASSAIC AVE. EXIT. GO RIGHT OFF RAMP. GO TO THIRD TRAFFIC LIGHT AND MAKE LEFT ONTO VAN HOUTEN AVE. GO TO FIRST TRAFFIC LIGHT AND MAKE RIGHT ONTO B'WAY. LOOP IS ONE BLOCK ON RIGHT SIDE.

373 BROADWAY, PASSAIC PARK, N.J. 365-0807
Comedians start a laugh riot at MSC
by Christine Tischko

On Tuesday night, MSC held a very successful comedy show. The show consisted of three very talented and widely diversified comedians.

The first up was Andy Bowers, a curly-haired, Jewish joke-telling woman whose sarcastic, dry manner really worked for her material. Small riffs and douchebag highlighted her routine.

The headliner of the show, Spanish-cracking Rich Reverez, displayed a more serious comedy than the others. His previous shows were on VH1. The crowd even laughed at his older routine. He also used musical elements to bring variety and energy to his routine.

Speaking of energy, Joe Rogan was a comic that you just couldn't forget. He has appeared on Comedy Cafe as well as MTV. His routine consisted of sex oriented jokes of Mike Tyson, parties, and a handbook of rules about women and reasons why you shouldn't become attached. I learned a new word - SNATCH? Instead of the regular slang words for the female body parts.

Campus Construction: Is it a hassle?
by Nicole Pisano

"You're supposed to eat a bushel full of dirt in your lifetime." This is what campus construction worker Gary says to remember the next time you find yourself engulfed by a large dustball of smoke on your way to class.

The bright rays of the sun stream onto the scattered students making their way to class. A piercing steady beep can be heard in the distance along with the strained cries of a crane's motor switching gears. The beeping does not cease. The volume only increases as you move closer to the site.

Soon, metal blockades and fences appear. The yellow mechanical arm becomes visible, reaching out and clutching the ground with its razor sharp teeth. A large dusty cloud rises from your feet and seeps up higher and higher until it reaches your head. It moves up through your nostrils and into your throat. As you gasp for a breath your lungs expand in a vain attempt to expel the particles your lungs release with a loud sound as the debris is ejected in various directions. Welcome to MSC.

"Construction on the library started in November of 1991 and construction on the academic building started around March of 1991," said construction super Tom Kilgallen, who feels that students should not get too upset about the inconveniences. "Before, everyone was complaining that the facilities of the library were inadequate and now when something is being done to make an improvement, they are complaing about the hassle and the sloppy appearance that the construction has brought to campus."

Scott Spanola, a commuter, said, "It takes long enough to find a parking space in the morning. Now, I have to leave even earlier just to walk around the detours to get to class."

Freshman Donald Jiminez said, "When I first decided to come here the construction was not this bad, now I get a cloud full of dust on my way to class... also, I am having a difficult enough time finding my way around campus let alone trying to find my way around all the fences so I can get to class."

The guard rails and barriers may look unappealing but they have been put up to provide a safer environment for the students. "They are used to block off dangerous areas or to cover up holes," said Tom Kilgallen.

For others, the construction has had no effect on them. "It doesn't affect me at all, I just park in the Quarry and take the shuttle to class," said senior Michele Pisano. Sophomore Jill Helm said, "It makes the campus undesirable by prospective students, but it does not bother me."

Some students in their senior year are disappointed about the construction on campus. "It is my last year and I know the construction is going to be very beneficial to the new incoming students by the time they graduate, but for me, I am leaving this place in May and it is not too pleasant to graduate from a school whose campus looks like it has been hit by a hurricane," said Iggy Zelaya. Jen Wolleon, also in her senior year, said, "The construction work really doesn't bother me, after all, we do get the benefits of the hooting remarks of the construction workers as we walk by."

A serious note, she said that it is a little inconvenient for us now but in the end it will better the school.

Students and workers have mixed reactions to the construction on campus. For some, it is just something ugly to look at while others are not phased by it. Yet there are still others that are not focusing on what is in front of them at the current time. They choose to focus on the future that the expansion will bring to this campus, which will aid in its growth towards becoming a university.

CAMPUS: The Community Speaks

Do you think Perot should re-enter the presidential race?

No, because it would just cause more of a problem amongst the voters making their decisions.

Kameisha Stroughn
Sophomore, Undecided

No, because he already quit once.

Tom Marshall
Sophomore, History

No. I think he should endorse Clinton. He's playing with the American mind by being indecisive.

Sheila Grywalski
Sophomore, Photography

No. If he didn't drop out the first time, he might of had a chance. But he let all of his supporters down, so he couldn't pull it off now.

Erik Stefanski
Freshman, Undecided
Alcohol. Booze. Say it out loud for emphasis.-B-O-O-Z-E, the succulent nectar of our youth. Stand on top of College Hall naked and scream to anyone who walks by. “ALCOHOL IS THE SUCCULENT NECTAR OF MY YOUTH!!! I WAS BREAST FEED BY BUDWEISER!! BOOYA! 33!/WHAT DOES THAT HAVE TO DO WITH THE GLASS LINED TANKS OF OLD LATROBE?!!! I AM THE MARSHMELLOW KING OF THESTRATOSPHERE!!” People will start asking you questions.

Ever since the Rat entered the age of prohibition, the urchins that inhabit Camp Montclair have been looking for direction. They've felt violated, dismayed, confused and have existed in a general funk. Legal spots to consume moldy yeast and hop juice have become as rare as a feminist in a go-go bar. The masses are looking for a Succulent nectar of our youth.

Legal spots to consume moldy yeast and hop juice have become as rare as a feminist in a go-go bar. The masses are looking for a succulent nectar of our youth!!

People will start asking you questions.

Ever since the Rat entered the age of prohibition, the urchins that inhabit Camp Montclair have been looking for direction. They've felt violated, dismayed, confused and have existed in a general funk. Legal spots to consume moldy yeast and hop juice have become as rare as a feminist in a go-go bar. The masses are looking for a succulent nectar of our youth.

People will start asking you questions.
The pain, the terror, the Holocaust
a survivor shares her past

by Gail Schansinger

An ordinary citizen, one might think. She is a survivor, a victim, a symbol of the perpetual violence that occurred in Germany between 1938-1941- The Holocaust. It unlocks memories of terror, a child completely robbed of innocence; her crime-being Jewish.

The Germans looted their house and destroyed her father's hardware store. Their possessions were thrown out of their windows. Her father was arrested and taken to a concentration camp. He died there.

In 1944, Susan's mother and sister were deported to Auschwitz. They were transported in a cattle car. They had to stand. Susan's sister had typhoid fever, one of many illnesses.

Susan was taken from her family at age 7. She was sent to Great Britain on the "Kinder Transport" alone. She arrived in England not knowing any English and lived with a foster family.

Susan's mother and sister managed to survive Auschwitz and both reunited with Susan in the United States in 1947. A tattered grey dress, letters, a small knife and stockings is what is left of a memory shattered by pain.

She brought to the U.S a feeling of new hope. She leaves the past behind and looks toward the future. I'd say a survivor indeed. She shows no bitterness, just a philosophical attitude in nature.

Hitler—a symbol himself of hatred and disdain is dead but his philosophies live on. We must fight back through education and never allow a government too much power. For Hitler can always return.

La Campana, Yearbook is a class 1 Organization of the S.G.A.
The Montclarion is published weekly, except during examination, summer and winter sessions. It is funded, in part, by funds received from the Student Government Association, Inc. of Montclair State. Advertising rates are available upon request, in Room 113 of the Student Center Annex, or by calling the business department at (201) 893-5237. The views expressed in the editorial pages, with the exception of the main editorial, do not necessarily reflect the opinion of The Montclarion.

Letters Policy
The Montclarion encourages the campus community to write-in and express their views on relevant topics. Simply drop your letter off at our office, or mail to:

The Montclarion
c/o Editorial Page Editor
113 Student Center Annex
Montclair State College
Upper Montclair, NJ 07043

Letters must include your name, Major and Telephone Number (for confirmation purposes only) if they are to be considered for publication.

The deadline for letters is the Monday before publication. Letters may be edited for taste and/or brevity.

The author of the letter, not The Montclarion, are responsible for the opinions expressed therein.

Subscription & Advertising Information
Subscriptions to The Montclarion are available to Alumni, families of students, faculty or anyone interested in receiving one. A minimum suggested donation of $12.00 per semester is requested to help defray production and shipping costs of The Montclarion.

The local display advertising rates for the 1992-1993 academic year are as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Page Size</th>
<th>Rate</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1/8</td>
<td>$60.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1/4</td>
<td>$220.00</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Full</td>
<td>$380.00</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Call Advertising Manager Conni Cole for a full listing of discount packages.

Mail any subscription requests or advertising insertions to:

The Montclarion's Business Office
113 Student Center Annex
Montclair State College
Upper Montclair, NJ 07043

The truth must be found
Tau Kappa Epsilon has been accused of a very serious infraction. It is the hope of The Montclarion that the din of rumors, speculation and half-truths that typically follow such controversial matters do not interfere with the search for the truth.

If TKE is exonerated, it is our sincerest wish that the fraternity is not besmirched by the memory of baseless accusations.

If TKE is not, however, we hope that the proper procedures will ensure that an instance, such as the one alleged, never is allowed to occur.

"The word comes down from the president and I go. I'm just following orders. I'm the low man on the totem pole."
-Senior Security Office Jim Higgins

Quote of the Week
University status will do nothing to improve MSC

The State Board of Education ruled on Friday, September 25, to lower the standards required to allow local colleges to call themselves universities. Seven members of the 12-member board have brought a devastating blow to the educational system in New Jersey.

Montclair State College will now have the opportunity to apply for the right to call itself Montclair State University, but the name change will take place without much change to the institution itself. President Reid should concern himself with how the college is actually functioning rather than how it looks to his peers. Why should we call ourselves a university when we are only making cosmetic changes? To call something other than what it is, is false advertising. Anybody can use the name "Montclair State College," but will come to Montclair State University, does not belong here. We do not want status on our campus.

It is true that times are changing and outlooks are different, but lowering our standards is not the way to go. We should work to make our college better. If we implement programs that meet our current needs of higher quality standards, then and only then, can we call ourselves a university.

Will anything be different if we change our name? Not really. Elevators will still not work. Registration will still be slow and tedious. Parking will only get worse. Classes will be larger unless money is found for more staff members. We will not have a wide selection of classes to meet our needs, and the bidding will still be that longer than it should be. MSC has trouble functioning as is.

What will the added burden of university status bring? Maybe President Reid will propose to raise tuition to "university status" to pay for our new burdens.

There is a technicality that is overlooked. Two classes of universities will be established. The lower tier will be "teaching universities." MSC is included in this category, which will be "teaching and research universities," which will include universities such as Rutgers and Princeton.

What need does any one person have with millions and millions of dollars when people are starving? Contrary to Bush's belief, the poor are not poor because they are lazy. They are poor because they are left undereducated because of a system that maintains underfunded schools.

It is also clear in the Bible that God comes before country, if country even counts at all. I believe that my Christian beliefs, could never fight in a war. Bush assailst Clinton for avoiding service in a war he found to be futile and unjust. If patriotism is blindly following our government, then I am unpatriotic. I try to follow the laws of God, not the petty wanks and squabbles of men.

Who is George Bush, or anyone, to condemn the moral beliefs of another person. "Judge not lest ye be judged," is an appropriate excerpt from the Bible. I have too many problems with my own obedience to God and my practices of morality, to worry about attacking and criticizing other people, although I will happily debate them.

President Reagan said, "I think America's best days are ahead of it, I believe that not only because of my faith in God...but because of my long and enduring faith in man."

This is completely contrary to the Bible. Faith in God is contrary to faith in man. To believe men can live and get by on their own is to deny the existence of God. To believe men can be their own god is to deny the existence of Christ. As a Christian, I believe in studying the Bible rather than accepting the unbelieving view of our government.

The seven spineless members of the Board of Higher Education should be replaced with people who will stand up for what is right and not succumb to unjustified pressure.

There is a technicality that is overlooked. Two classes of universities will be established. The lower tier will be "teaching universities." MSC is included in this category, which will be "teaching and research universities," which will include universities such as Rutgers and Princeton.
Bush campaign saturated with lip-service and fraud

Welcome back to Record Irreverence. This week I have arbitrarily chosen to overtly write about the Tom Meyer caricature prominently featured somewhere on this page. The term “somewhere” should tip off the ever observant reader to the fact that I no longer serve in an editorial capacity in the numerly sorry for the the loss editorial/opinion section of The Montclarion. Mere mention of the aforechroned caricature also serves as a type of leveraged insurance that it will indeed appear. Those of us, I author the your ever patient and tolerable reader, familiar with my writings in this venue, understand that the aforementioned selection is not at all necessarily relevant to the content of this week to be elucidating essay. For the reader who is unfamiliar with my column, understand that it once was a regular feature in the esteemed Montclarion. Perhaps I am a good word choice, as I certainly do not want to suggest that I remotely approachournomy, conform to the norms of society, this column conforms to any literary standard practices, or that I am a regular kind of guy. Instead let it be better said that my column appeared frequently in the aforementioned and esteemed Montclarion. Also, for the information of the first time reader, this column is usually irreverent as its by-line indicates, generally irreverently humorous, although today it will be appropriately irreverent but in a serious sort of way.

Although a myriad of musical possibilities present themselves with the aforeselected caricatures i.e. the Whattiness. I could rule the world if I could only get the parts LP, or, Aeromitted!” Big Ten Inch, (who can forget the horridness at this summer on the National Republican Convention, scads of yuppied eyes Republican chanting “four more inches.”) Fortunately, “cause I am running out of space, this week’s column needs no musical interlude. Instead, I let the record speak for itself.

In 1990 President Bush won the Doubletalk Award presented by the National Council of Teachers of English. Following are my eyes are exemplified at the council: During the presidential campaign Bush reiterated his “no new taxes” pledge repeatedly. Remember the infamous read my lips pimpant? In factuality, during his State of the Union address President Bush claimed his 1991 budget contained “few new taxes.” Nevertheless his 1991 budget did propose 21.7 billion dollars. After having a child or caring for a child during a serious illness. This is what I mean when I talk about a gentler nation.” After he was elected the White House issued this statement: President Bush vetoed the Parental and Medical Leave Bill; “he has always been opposed to the federal government mandating what every business in this country should do.” Just last week Bush vetoed the latest incarnation of the Family Leave Bill claiming it was bad for business.

George Bush has a history of incoherent rhetoric. When asking for $7.9 billion to wage an “assault on every front” of the drug war, he implied that $7.9 billion was an enormous amount of money. Yes, $7.9 billion is an enormous amount, however it amounted to .065 percent of the federal budget. Clearly allocation of such a minuscule percentage will only beggar minuscule results. A majority of voting Americans believed then presidential candidate Ronald Reagan, when he claimed he would balance the budget while simultaneously lowering taxes. An alarming majority also believed candidate George Bush when he repeated again and again “Read my lips, no new taxes.” 12 years later taxes are at record levels and “read my lips” proves to be nothing more than a pathetic attempt at lip service. Redaction will only perpetuate this fraud.

Cartoon symbolizes society's trivialization of rape

The editorial cartoon that accompanied last week’s “Commutors check in, but they can’t check out” was one of the most insensitive editorial decisions that The Montclarion has made this year. Hopefully given time, the judgement of Steve Garufi, the editorial page editor, may improve, but for now we must challenge the idea that a tragic element of women’s existence can be used to humorously illustrate a problem that exists for all students on this campus, male and female alike. Malicious intent may not have been directed toward victims of rape by the caption pertaining to the aforementioned carving, nevertheless, comparing a car being vandalized and a woman being raped is completely trivializing a crisis that affects many women’s lives every year in this country. Moreover, it suggests that women have no more value in this society than an automobile—that an inanimate, unfolding object might possibly share an experience as devastating as rape. This is extremely insulting, not only to survivors of rape, but to all women, everywhere.

Vandalized automobiles and rape victims have one major thing in common—they are objects. Rape is not an act of love or even sex. Rape is an act of violence. Rape is the act of a man violating an angry and wielding his power over a woman who is simply a victim. The overwhelming belief that a woman “wants” for rape is simply society perpetuating its belief for a scapegoat. Rape is society’s problem, not women’s. Similarly, students at MSC don’t ask for their cars to be vandalized when they leave them unattended to go to class. If this were the “kinder, gentler nation” that George Bush always talks about, but never provides, one would assume we could leave our cars for a few hours and return to find them in the same condition as when we left. Likewise, women should be able to walk down a street, go on a date or live in their homes without the constant fear of suffering the ultimate in physical violation. However, this is not the case. Nothing is sacred anymore, especially women’s bodies. The anti-choice movement provides a good example. Men seem determined to control our bodies in more than one way. When a woman is raped, the physical, mental and emotional damage is so severe that a woman’s life is permanently altered. There is no “quick fix” for rape. First, rapists are rarely considerate enough to use protection, when they attack a woman. Therefore, there is often the chance that an unwanted pregnancy will occur. Nothing could add so heavily to the devastation of rape than becoming pregnant with a rapist’s child while the rapist was an acquaintance, friend, husband, or stranger. Secondly, with the frequent occurrence of sexually transmitted diseases among consenting partners being serious enough, the anti-choice movement does not only to rich women and rape does not only to white women. Rape happens to all of us: mothers, daughters, siblings, grandmothers, rich, poor, middle-class, Black, Hispanic, Caucasian, working women and students. Rape is a crisis, not a joke, and we should be treating it like one. Using a woman’s tragedy to provide humor for the student body is not only sexist, it is distasteful and disrespectful.

Garufi, next time, please use better judgement and if you aren’t going to act like a feminist, then quit claiming to be one.
President Bush must go!

The Republican administration has brought the United States to one of its worst conditions in many years. Today, more than 35 million Americans live under the poverty line. The U.S. unemployment rate is 7.6% and will continue to go up. The deficit is around $325 billion, as a consequence of the failed Reagan economic policies of the 1980's. America became the biggest debtor nation in the world after being the biggest creditor. Our 1991 GNP decline was -0.4%. This was last seen in the 1930's. Interest rates are down.

Consequently, millions of Americans' incomes have been affected, particularly that of the elderly. Furthermore, America has lost its competitiveness. We only invest about 2% of our GNP in research and technology. Japan invests 28%, Germany 26% and France 21%.

In regards to the environment, there is not a strong initiative to clean up our country and the earth.

On the contrary, President Bush in the last Rio de Janeiro Summit was opposed to the agreements that the administration has not addressed and that would lead to a much cleaner earth for us and the generations to come.

Education is one of the topics that we should be most concerned about, because it determines the preparation of the future workers and leaders of the country. According to a report by the National Commission on Excellence in Education called Nation at Risk, the state of education in the U.S. is devastating. President Bush wanted to be the education president and make American students number one in Math and Science by the year 2000, but so far he has done nothing.

The Republican government has failed to act in regard to our health care problems. Consequently, millions of Americans cannot afford health insurance. Therefore, many are just not going seeking medical attention when they are in need.

The country has serious social and racial problems that the administration has not addressed and as a result, events such as the Los Angeles riots occurred and might continue to happen. They are the expression of a sector of the population that have been neglected by their government. Another expression of social dissatisfaction is the Rust Belt phenomenon, where individuals turned to a man who has no political experience as a desolate leader.

In the September 17 issue of The Montclarion, Christina Tischio wrote about the stupidity of prejudiced people. Her piece was both timely and accurate.

At one time in our country when people could not afford good health care, find jobs or have adequate housing, to let issues such as homophobia, racism and sexism dictate our actions proves how backwards the good U.S. of A. can be. This country will never be able to solve its primary problems as long as xenophobia, racism and sexism are allowed to be at the forefront of our decision making.

As a white male, I haven't experienced racism or sexism first hand. Homophobia is another issue. I could take the time to explain why gays or lesbians are not all of those horrible things a lot of people think we are and why we deserve the same rights as everyone else in this country. But, like Ms. Tischio, I really don't care what people think. I don't have enough time to explain to people why their prejudgments are irrelevant to me. I'm here simply to live my life and that is all I have time to do.

If more people had the wisdom to think for themselves like Christina Tischio does, we would all be better off.

Kenneth J. Rogers
Hoboken, NJ

LETTER...

We need more people like Ms. Iron Heel

In the September 17 issue of The Montclarion, Christina Tischio wrote about the stupidity of prejudiced people. Her piece was both timely and accurate.

At one time in our country when people could not afford good health care, find jobs or have adequate housing, to let issues such as homophobia, racism and sexism dictate our actions proves how backwards the good U.S. of A. can be. This country will never be able to solve its primary problems as long as xenophobia, racism and sexism are allowed to be at the forefront of our decision making.

As a white male, I haven't experienced racism or sexism first hand. Homophobia is another issue. I could take the time to explain why gays or lesbians are not all of those horrible things a lot of people think we are and why we deserve the same rights as everyone else in this country. But, like Ms. Tischio, I really don't care what people think. I don't have enough time to explain to people why their prejudgments are irrelevant to me. I'm here simply to live my life and that is all I have time to do.

If more people had the wisdom to think for themselves like Christina Tischio does, we would all be better off.

Kenneth J. Rogers
Hoboken, NJ

LETTER...

Cartoon criticized

Mike Davis’ editorial cartoon (The Montclarion, September 24) trivializes the seriousness of rape. Cars are objects, women are not. Please get that straight.

Doreen Michelski
English

LETTER...

Give us a break, Tim

I just finished reading Tim Lawson’s column in the September 11 issue of The Montclarion and I have one thing to say, Tim, dear, do we live in the same world? Although Mr. Lawson does raise some interesting issues, his portrayal of men as pathetic victims of women’s sexuality is not only ridiculous, it’s also amusing.

Mr. Lawson, did it ever occur to you that those bikini clad asses, being shoved in your face on the television nightly, are there because advertising executives and television directors, a predominantly male lot, put them there? And why did they put them there? Because an oversexed male population that has trouble dealing with women as anything other than sex objects wants them there. Men have these longings and desires long before the onslaught of the MTV generation. And let’s give men more credit, too. If a particular man can think of only sex and refuses to commit until he’s 30, its obviously his own mental and emotional maturity level that’s to blame. For I know many men who are decent and committed who have the same television you and I do. It is as insulting to say men are driven solely by their glands as it is to place full blame for our sexuality promiscuous society on “those bikini clad women.”

Lastly, regarding Mr. Lawson’s feelings on abortion, since he will never know what it is like to be young, pregnant and terrified of the prospect of bringing a new life into this crazy world all by himself, he really shouldn’t be so quick to judge. See, men have always had the option of saying “I don’t want this for myself,” but then how can we really hold them accountable? After all, they were merely possessed by the bikinis.

Elsa Delasa
Sociology

LETTER...

We’d rather not ask...

Upon arriving at MSC for the Fall Semester, 1987, “to lecture a bit,” one of my first impressions of the college was an ungodly “run” of graffiti appearing on the east wall of Freeman Hall. As of the writing of this letter, yes, you may have guessed, the graffiti is as fresh as it was more than five years ago. Although it is a small price to pay for the basement of College Hall, which if I am not mistaken, presently houses the office of the President of the college. The wording on this receptacle reads: “Property of MSC, College Hall,” says the member of the college community hear and read so much these days as concerns on-going “assessments,” “evaluation,” “proposals,” and “studies.” Should we all ask ourselves the question: Are we assessing, evaluating, proposing, studying, and, of course, “thinking critically” about possible solutions to simply observed problems?

Problems that left unsolved detract from campus “quality of life” and critically, about possible solutions to simply observed problems? Or should we not ask the question?

William Goscener, Jr.
Dept. of History
Homecoming '92
under Construction

Monday, Oct. 12

Open Mike Night
6:30 p.m.
in the Student Center, Rm. 126
sponsored by Class One Concerts

Tuesday, Oct. 13

9 p.m.
Comedy show
in the Student Center Ballrooms

Wednesday, Oct. 14

11 a.m. to 3 p.m.
Fall Fest in Student Center Mall
(Ballrooms if rain)

8 p.m.
Lip Sync
in the Student Center Ballrooms

Thursday, Oct. 15

7 p.m. & 9 p.m.
Movie:

Beauty and the Beast
in the Student Center Ballrooms

Friday, Oct. 16

7 p.m.

Pep Rally
(Location to be Announced)

7:30 p.m. (Location to be Announced)

Bonfire
sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega

8-9:30 p.m. Hayrides
sponsored by Tau Kappa Epsilon
10 p.m. - 2 a.m.
Floatbuilding in
Lots 22 and 23

Saturday, Oct. 17

7-9 a.m.
Floatbuilding and security checks of floats
10 a.m.
Line-up of floats
11 a.m.
Preliminary reviewing of floats by judges
12 a.m.
Parade begins!

7 p.m.

Homecoming Football Game
Montclair State vs. William Paterson
Half-Time: Fireworks Extravaganza

CLUB and C1C are Class 1 Organizations of the S.G.A.

ΑΦΩ & TKE are Class IV Organizations of the S.G.A.
The Life Hall art gallery presents "Abstractions in Sculpture and Drawing" which displays the work of Tom Apile and Rolando Castellon.

New Yorker Tom Apile, combines furniture parts and tree branches in his work. A common aspect of his work includes flowing and rhythmic lines which is also displayed in his seven pastel drawings that are also exhibited.

Rolando Castellon displays a different kind of abstraction by utilizing a combination of objects which include paper, thread, paint and earth. He combines this materials by using methods such as weaving and folding. The work of these artists will be on display until October 16 at Life Hall noon 115.

ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT

American Indian Pow-Wow

by Sandi Cammiller!

As the nights grow colder and autumn winds herald the start of the harvest season, the Great Events '92 season of the SPPA of Montclair State heralded a harvest-like ceremony of its own!

On Sunday, September 27, 1992, American Indian Dance Theatre opened the season with a regalia of American Indian performers. Arrayed in rich traditional costumes, the公司 consisted of dancers, musicians, and singers from tribes of the Dakotas, South-west, Canada, and the Great Plains, brought together a cultural legacy.

The costumes, consisting of a variety of traditional headdresses and dress, were striking. Each performer wore unique attire which he/she made or acquired from a tribal member. The intricate beadwork and featherwork were an exquisitie reflection of the fine craftsmanship which is still practiced among the American Indians today. The costumes were made of leather, beads, natural fabric, animal feathers, and fur. Each costume was an original, adorned with tribal member. The intricate beadwork and featherwork were an exquisitie reflection of the fine craftsmanship which is still practiced among the American Indians today. The costumes were made of leather, beads, natural fabric, animal feathers, and fur. Each costume was an original, adorned with

The dances were all customary expressions of the social and spiritual life of the various American Indian subcultures. While each dance was as diverse as the costumes of the company, there was an apparent synergy which bound the production and gave it a rhythmic flow!

Two of the most outstanding numbers presented were "the Hoop Dance" and the "Fancy Dance." In the "Hoop Dance," a male dancer garbed in full attire including headdress, manipulated several red hoops. As he moved, he used both his body and the hoops to create such shapes as a flower, a butterfly and an eagle. The "Fancy Dance" consisted of unique fancy footwork! In its number, several dancers competed with each other as they challenged one another in a display of stamina, skill, and physical prowess.

The music, primarily made up of drum beats and vocal chants, was fascinating in and of itself. Very often, music and dance merged into one synonymous expression!

In an interview, one company member, Lloyd Yellowbird from the Plains Cree Nation, commented about his relationship to American Indian Dance Theater stating: "Our culture has always been exploited. We want people to realize we’re not extinct."

As a whole, American Indian Dance Theatre beautifully re-told the rich heritage of a culture of American society that has been significantly overlooked.

NSO: We hear a lot about child stars of the 50's, 60's and 70's, you're thirteen years old today. What is it like being a child star? (Laughter.)

PROPHET: How did you get involved with Hal Roach and the "Our Gang" pictures? (Laughter.)

SPANKY: Well. I was born in Dallas and in picture of me in to Hal Roach, I guess cause she thought I was cute. Hal Roach seemed to like what he saw and got a hold of my parents and had them bring me out to Hollywood for a screen test and I got lucky. There's nothing more to it then that.

P: And you stayed on for, what 5 ye...? 30? 13? 30?

P: Seventeen years!!!

S: Yes Sir.

P: We hear a lot about child stars of the 50's, 60's and 70's. What do you think about the problems they had or are having as a result of being a child star? (Laughter.)

S: You don't have enough tape to quote my dissatisfaction. (Laughter.) But to answer your question, I didn't have any problems. I was a child star at a totally different time. I grew up in an America where mothers and fathers corrected their kids, told them the difference between right and wrong and raised them to have a goal in life; to say "Yes ma'am" and "No sir", "Excuse me" and "Thank You". Somewhere along the line the people stopped caring about the children, and the result is what we have now. I don't think so, look at me sideways cause it's still swollen. (Laughter.) I grew up loving my parents, father. I still do. I think I grew up to be a pretty good man. I never had any problems. I know who I am even if I've been Spanky McFarland for the past 40 years. I've got a job and a family.

P: So your not to happy with the way things are turning out...

S: You think so, look at me sideways cause it's still swolen. (Laughter.) I grew up loving my parents, father. I still do. I think I grew up to be a pretty good man. I never had any problems. I know who I am even if I've been Spanky McFarland for the past 40 years. I've got a job and a family. I know who I am even if I've been Spanky McFarland for the past 40 years. I've got a job and a family.

Welcome, dear readers, to this very special edition of PROPHET BIGG. This week, we break from our usual bill of fare so that I, the Prophet, can relate to you my recent journey into the past.

It’s not often that a person is able to meet one of his or her heroes. This past Sunday, I had the unique opportunity to spend a day with one of mine, George McFarland. He was bom in 1928 and started making motion pictures for Hal Roach when he was only three.

As a whole, American Indian Dance Theatre beautifully re-told the rich heritage of a culture of American society that has been significantly overlooked. The trip is only available to music majors. Don’t forget to mark your calendars for these events: Paly Toro and Andrew Schulman, November 11th. The flute choir, November 18th. Opera Workshop recital, November 20th. All recitals start at noon, unless otherwise posted. And finally, the Madrigals performing their annual Christmas concert (no date has been posted yet), and a production of King David is in the works for the Spring of 1992.

The orchestra repertoire.

Two of the most outstanding numbers presented were the "Hoop Dance," and the "Fancy Dance." In the "Hoop Dance," a male dancer garbed in full attire including headdress, manipulated several red hoops. As he moved, he used both his body and the hoops to create such shapes as a flower, a butterfly and an eagle. The "Fancy Dance" consisted of unique fancy footwork! In its number, several dancers competed with each other as they challenged one another in a display of stamina, skill, and physical prowess.

The music, primarily made up of drum beats and vocal chants, was fascinating in and of itself. Very often, music and dance merged into one synonymous expression!

In an interview, one company member, Lloyd Yellowbird from the Plains Cree Nation, commented about his relationship to American Indian Dance Theater stating: "Our culture has always been exploited. We want people to realize we’re not extinct."

As a whole, American Indian Dance Theatre beautifully re-told the rich heritage of a culture of American society that has been significantly overlooked.

Trees, furniture and earth in The Art Gallery

The Montclairian

Thursday, October 1, 1992

Music department kicks off Fall season

CW Springfield

MSC's music department is underway in it's Fall 1992 schedule of events, including numerous faculty/student recitals, concerts, and field trips. The next noon recital will be tomorrow, October 2, in the Student Center Ballrooms. Dr. Oscar Ravina will be conducting the orchestra, who will be accompanying Dr. Lisa DeLorenzo on Piano Concerto No. 2 in C minor. Ravina is also a violinist with the New York Philharmonic. Next Wednesday will feature faculty member jazz superstar Chris White with Peggy Schecter and John Gitt, also faculty members, in one of the many jazz concerts offered by the music department. You'll be seeing mostly just faculty playing noon recitals in the upcoming month to give their students a standard for performance requirements.

The MSC Concert Band, conducted by Don Butterfield, is heavily rehearsing for their December concert. A field trip is being planned to the Metropolitan Opera House, but unfortunately, the trip is only available to music majors.

Don't forget to mark your calendars for these events: Paly Toro and Andrew Schulman, November 11th. The flute choir, November 18th. Opera Workshop recital, November 20th. All recitals start at noon, unless otherwise posted. And finally, the Madrigals performing their annual Christmas concert (no date has been posted yet), and a production of King David is in the works for the Spring of 1992.
The topic of conversations

By Mark Loughlin

With all the press that Woody Allen has been getting lately, it seems that reviewing his film is redundant. There has been more press on this movie than Basic Instinct and Heaven's Gate combined. Tri-Star pictures, knowing an opportunity when it sees one, decided to release the film in an unheard of 800 theaters. For the normally low grossing Mr. Allen, this was a good sign.

The main point of interest is the numerous parallels between the real Woody Allen and this film. It's true that Allen in the film is also married to Mia Farrow in the film (in reality, they are not even married). He later becomes interested in a 20 year old writing student (Juliette Lewis) and leaves his wife. The characters are all a bunch of Manhattan neurotics, but then, what else is new? That's where we get a little continuity. Allen and Farrow do not have kids of their own, but Mia's character has one from a previous marriage. In reality, Mia has a child from a previous marriage, one with Woody, and enough adopted children to remake the Wizard of Oz.

Husbands and Wives is more of an intense, philosophical character study than a plot oriented film. It tackles some very burning questions, like, are people meant to stay together forever, and is there such a thing as a perfect match? Where most movies of late are a nice little snack with a diverting story that you may remember the remainder of that night, Husbands and Wives is a hearty, substantial brainfood that can be the basis for some real intellectual discussion. That, of course, depends on your company.

My grandmother used to tell me, “The first time, something’s funny. The second, it’s silly. The third time is stupid.” This especially holds true for the whole Dan Quayle/Murphy Brown fiasco. The potato (minus the ‘e’) schtick got old real quick, and right behind it comes Mr. Family Values vs. The Unwed Mother.

The topic of conversations

1. A Time To Kill, by John Grisham. (Island/Dell, $5.99.)
   - Racial tension runs high during a trial.
2. The Firm, by John Grisham. (Island/Dell, $5.99.)
   - Young lawyer confronts the hidden workings of his firm.
3. Life's Little Instruction Book, by H. Jackson Brown Jr. (Rutledge Hill, $5.95.)
   - Advice for attaining a full life.
   - King delivers a twisted “Our Town” with a vengeance.
5. Live and Learn and Pass It On, by H. Jackson Brown Jr. (Rutledge Hill, $5.95.)
   - 500 tips to achieve a full life.
6. Seven Habits of Highly Effective People, by Steven Covey. (Fireside, $9.95.)
   - Guide to personal fulfillment.
7. Fried Green Tomatoes at the Whistle Stop Cafe, by Fannie Flagg (McGraw-Hill, $6.99.)
   - A woman's remembrance of life in the deep South.
8. The Sum of All Fears, by Tom Clancy. (Berkley, $6.99.)
   - Middle Eastern terrorism bring about the threat of nuclear war.
   - Dramatic escape from Britain on the outbreak of WW II.
10. You Just Don't Understand, by Deborah Tannen. (Ballantine, $10.00.)
    - How men and women can understand each other better.

PRINCIPLES OF SOUND RETIREMENT INVESTING

Can't afford to save for retirement?
- The truth is, you can't afford not to.
- Not when you realize that your retirement can last as to 30 years or more. You'll want to live as comfortably as you do now. And that takes planning.
- By starting to save now, you can take advantage of tax-deferral and give your money time to compound and grow.
- Consider this: a $2,000 each month beginning at age 30 and you can accumulate over $829,507 by the time you reach age 65. But wait ten years and you'll have to budget $2,400 each month to reach the same goal.

Ironically, the time to start saving for retirement is when it looks like you can least afford it.

Even if you're not counting the years to retirement, you can count on TIAA-CREF to help you build the future you deserve— with flexible retirement and tax-deferred annuity plans, a diverse portfolio of investment choices, and a record of personal services that span 75 years.

Over a million people in education and research put TIAA-CREF at the top of their list for retirement planning. Why not join them?

Call today and learn how simple it is to build a secure tomorrow when you have time and TIAA-CREF working on your side.

Start planning your future. Call our Enrollment Hotline 1 800 842 2888.

Ensuring the future for those who shape it.™

*Assuming an interest rate of 8% credited to TIAA Retirement Annuities. The rate is not stability shown the power and effect of compounding. Lower or higher rates would produce very different results. CREF certificates are distributed by TIAA-CREF Individual and Institutional Services.
The Montclair Arts & Entertainment Thursday, October 1, 1992

SPANKY, from page 19

Dope. No discourtesy, no nothing. But as far as those other child stars, I can understand where abuse would affect somebody, but most of these kids didn’t have child abuse. The only abuse their parents heaped on them was not teaching them right from wrong or letting them run helter-skelter, giving them more money than they could spend and not instilling any responsibility in them. That’s the real abuse.

P: During your years with Hal Roach Studios did you have a favorite or a least favorite co-worker?
S: No. Not really.
P: Just went in, worked and came home, huh.
S: Well, we were all friends and whether we were or not, we had to be. We worked together nine hours a day, five days a week...
P: For a very long time.
S: And we learned how to work with people that maybe you didn’t particularly like, but found some redeeming value in them that would make it bearable for you to work with him day in and day out. Otherwise, you were gonna be unhappy and everyone around you would be unhappy. I learned early in life to get along with people. You don’t have to fall in love with ’um, but you get along with ’um for the period of time you have to. When that’s over you don’t. You go your own way and they go theirs... Life is very simple. The only social graces that any person needs in this country they can learn in kindergarten.

P: So you’ve read All I needed to learn, I learned in kindergarten by Robert Fulghum.
S: I’ve been saying that a long time before Robert ever wrote it.
P: How did you leave show business? Was it your choice to leave or...
S: Absolutely.
P: You decided “I’ve got to go...”
S: I was sixteen years old and no longer under contract to anybody and I was tired of making movies. I told my father “I’m not gonna make any more movies” and I didn’t.
P: And your father agreed?
S: No. He didn’t like it.
P: He wanted you to go on then.
S: Well, he thought I still had a career out there and I didn’t care whether I had one or not. I wanted another life. I was sixteen years old and had been working for thirteen of those. I wanted a break.

P: Do you enjoy the fandom you still receive?
S: Sure. It’s an honor to me that people remember something I did a hundred years ago. (Laughter.) It’s like I told you earlier, this is what I give back.
P: You seem very concerned about what is going on in the country, ...
S: I am. I have a granddaughter that’s seven years old who’s gonna grow up and not have a shot at the American dream like I had.
P: Do you have a prediction for the White House or does it really not matter...
S: Of course it matters. This is probably the single most important election in fifty years. Maybe a hundred. The system needs cleansing, needs updating. The founding fathers, in my opinion, did not intend for some senator to go in when he was 25 and still be there when he was 75!
P: What about the White House?
S: Whoever goes in there is gonna have to care about reducing the deficit; They’re gonna have to care about operating on a balanced budget and stop this insane spending... I wish we could set the election back another year and have the candidates go to some town meetings twice a month. And to go there and listen, not talk.
P: Your art, were a figure in the entertainment industry, and we all know that despite what the vice-president may say, the industry has some bearing on how our culture is. What do you think?
S: Of course, Hollywood, unusual as it may be, is an art form; an ongoing, changing art form. And art has its effect on society. Hollywood is very liberal. Always has been, probably always will be. But I don’t agree with a majority of things that Hollywood says, does or puts out in motion pictures but it does have effects on American people. Life gets tedious. Don’t it? Remember that song?
P: What song?
S: “Life gets tedious, don’t it?”
P: I don’t think so.
S: That goes back quite a few years though. I don’t know why I thought you’d be familiar with it. You’re too young.
P: I’m not at all young ya know.
S: You’re not 40!
P: I’m almost 24.
S: Well, excuse me. (Pause.) I’ve got shorts that are 24! (Laughter)

Tuesday, October 6th, 1992
2 Showings!!
7:00pm and 9:00pm
in the Student Center Ballrooms

FREE Admission !!!!

Club is a Class I organization of the S.G.A
ONCE THIS STARTS EMER. 006 IN THE NEIGHBORHOOD STARTS TAPPING

IT'S A HIGH PRICE TO PAY, BUT INSULTING YOUR TEAMmates TO ONE OF THE GREAT PLEASURES OF LIFE.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1992

IT'S A GOODThing WE DON'T HAVE TO FIGHT SOME OTHER TEAM.

I DON'T SEE IF YOU WIN OR LOSE, IT'S AWAY YOU PLAY THE GAME.

THERE AREN'T OLYMPICS TO BE A FALL OLYMPICS.

IT U. BE THE LAST THING YOU EVER DO, FIGHT AS BAD AS YOU THINK POSSIBLE.

OH TEAM? READ WHAT YOU FIGHT AS BAD AS THERE WAS SOME.

DANG! SMACK LOCK HER BRAIN'S CHIRPING!! I GET THE FIRST? 600!!

OKAY, OH! OH! OH! OH! NO, REAR & AROUND VICTIM!!

WHY THE HELL? -- AND SOMEONE I WANTED, AND SOMEONE I WANTED!!

DON'T FEEL MIGHTY VICTORIOUS!!

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1992

IT'S A HIGH PRICE TO PAY, BUT INSULTING YOUR TEAMmates TO ONE OF THE GREAT PLEASURES OF LIFE.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1992

IT'S A HIGH PRICE TO PAY, BUT INSULTING YOUR TEAMmates TO ONE OF THE GREAT PLEASURES OF LIFE.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1992

IT'S A HIGH PRICE TO PAY, BUT INSULTING YOUR TEAMmates TO ONE OF THE GREAT PLEASURES OF LIFE.

TUESDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1992

IT'S A HIGH PRICE TO PAY, BUT INSULTING YOUR TEAMmates TO ONE OF THE GREAT PLEASURES OF LIFE.
Nicole Deo- I miss you! And I’m not giving up on you yet! Steve Ga.

Lisa- Too bad you CANNOT BREAK AWAY, Bleeker would have been awesome for you!

Owen - AXP- I really didn’t mean to “dis” you. Love, Megan

Jessy M.- If you need help in computers ask your best friend for help. Juan

Ross (Delta Chi) Lets get together and watch some classics. - 209C

WANTED: A real man, with real goals and good looks - no Montclair men need apply.

AIX #97- Isn’t that the life-guard from Sea Girt? AIX #96

Jill and Kim (Alpha Omega) OH MY GOD! Lauren (Alpha Omega)

Stacey (Theta) - Happy Birthday! Love Tomato

Remedial Rythym 101- We need it!

J.D., Rob, Ed and Chris (TKE)

What were we thinking? Janice, Anna and Lois (Sigma)

Lesley (Delta Phi Epsilon) - Good Luck Saturday we know you’ll do GREAT! Love everyone

TKE- The mixer was fun- love your new house! Alpha Omega

Jack- Take a shower!

Tina (D-Phi-E)- You are so evil, you get us drunk! From the bimbo’s

Dad- Here’s your personal! Love you, Jenn

Steve (ZBT) We called the ASPCA on you. Luv, Brian and Tina

You’re getting fucked, have a nice day. - The Anarchist Syndicate

Eric- I will never apologize!!!

Lissette

To the sisters of D-Phi- E, Thanks so much for helping me out with Rush! You guys are awesome! Love, Kristin AH 74

Buffy: I wonder how the football star Mr. Hill is doing?

Jill- Why a three hour shower?

4th floor R.A.- Why did you diss the most wanted guy on campus for that other geek? You loss!

Jef- I’m so glad you’re back. I missed you so much. Love, Cybil

Car A- Omega 24 - Pick me up Friday we’ll go to the Library! Love, Me

Your All That! Minus none - Yeah! you

Karen D.- (D-Phi-E) my nail buddy. You’re a great friend- I’m always here for you. Let’s hang out soon! Love, Heather

Lisette

To the sisters of D-Phi- E, Thanks so much for helping me out with Rush! You guys are awesome! Love, Kristin AH 74

Dinky (AIX)- You better ditch Bean on Saturday and come out!

Ali, Jenn, and Stacey- Thanks for listening to my problems and standing behind my decisions! I love you all! Love, Kim #46

Judy (SDT) Guys can I tell you a funny story- Nooool! Kristin and Megan

To all my roomies and Alex- You guys are the best- Thanks for dealing with me. Love you, Allison

Cristy (D-Phi-E) Good luck with you know who, just take it slow. Love your big, Jenn

To the Outstanding Women of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority Inc. - We are going to have a Great year soror. BE-1 KKEE. Love your soror, Keisha J.

L.B. (#72) Why can’t it be "---th" down? Why does everything always have to be up? N.P. (#76)

Good Luck Red Hawks “Beat the hell out of Ramapo” we know you can do it! Love, The MSCP Cheerleaders

Tomato and Ghost-you’ll never get us! Love, Sweetmates from hell

Delta Phi Epsilon and TKE- Let’s kick some ass at homecoming!

Kathleen and Laura- Next time our last man doesn’t get off that easy- Nicole

Suzy and Nat (SDT) Hey you Rabbastards- turtlemoon- 209C

I want to do the Misty Mountain Hop!

"Brenda Walsh" Get the last brush ready - we’re going out! “Donna"

Lauren (SDT) Guys can I tell you a funny story- Nooooo! Kristin and Megan

To all my roomies and Alex- You guys are the best- Thanks for dealing with me. Love you, Allison

To all my roomies and Alex- You guys are the best- Thanks for dealing with me. Love you, Allison

To the omicron class of AIX. Congrats on getting bids! #118

Deb- I’ll throw my name around and get you a SLOW ride to the x-rays! Glad your better! Sheila

Mike (D-Chi)- Thanks for the talk on Thursday night. If nothing else, we make great friends. I love ya! -Jenn (SDT)

Bleeker Baby! We need you. JSPLand M

Scott- Sorry I’m difficult at times. Be patient! Love your little sailboat

Sisters of SDT- I had a great time Thursday night! I miss all of you! Love Kim #46

Jean (D-Phi) - you are the best big- I’ll never forget about you. Love your little

Mike- I thought I’d try again. The quest of a woman for you begins! Love, Jenn

Caruso- If you don’t stop complaining about the dishes, you’ll be the first casuality! Love your housemates

Jill, How’s LP? Love, Kim

Sal (AXP)- Right about now those bickies are probably gone... Well , the visible ones - ???

D-Phi-E at the Hop- Girls, try to stay out of trouble next time!

Earn extra money. Child care needed for Wednesdays 2:30 pm - 6:30 pm for 4 year old in our Upper Montclair home. Additional hours available if interested. References required. Call 783-3908.

To all my roomies and Alex- You guys are the best- Thanks for dealing with me. Love you, Allison

To the Outstanding Women of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority Inc. - We are going to have a Great year soror. BE-1 KKEE. Love your soror, Keisha J.

L.B. (#72) Why can’t it be "---th" down? Why does everything always have to be up? N.P. (#76)

Good Luck Red Hawks “Beat the hell out of Ramapo” we know you can do it! Love, The MSCP Cheerleaders

Tomato and Ghost-you’ll never get us! Love, Sweetmates from hell

Delta Phi Epsilon and TKE- Let’s kick some ass at homecoming!

Kathleen and Laura- Next time our last man doesn’t get off that easy- Nicole

Suzy and Nat (SDT) Hey you Rabbastards- turtlemoon- 209C

I want to do the Misty Mountain Hop!

"Brenda Walsh" Get the last brush ready - we’re going out! “Donna"

Lauren (SDT) Guys can I tell you a funny story- Nooooo! Kristin and Megan

To all my roomies and Alex- You guys are the best- Thanks for dealing with me. Love you, Allison

To the omicron class of AIX. Congrats on getting bids! #118

Deb- I’ll throw my name around and get you a SLOW ride to the x-rays! Glad your better! Sheila

Mike (D-Chi)- Thanks for the talk on Thursday night. If nothing else, we make great friends. I love ya! -Jenn (SDT)

Bleeker Baby! We need you. JSPLand M

Scott- Sorry I’m difficult at times. Be patient! Love your little sailboat

Sisters of SDT- I had a great time Thursday night! I miss all of you! Love Kim #46

Jean (D-Phi) - you are the best big- I’ll never forget about you. Love your little

Mike- I thought I’d try again. The quest of a woman for you begins! Love, Jenn

Caruso- If you don’t stop complaining about the dishes, you’ll be the first casuality! Love your housemates

Jill, How’s LP? Love, Kim

Sal (AXP)- Right about now those bickies are probably gone... Well , the visible ones - ???

D-Phi-E at the Hop- Girls, try to stay out of trouble next time!

Join the Montclarion
MSC's Davis and Culver know all about meaning of "pride"

by Michael Frasco

Don't ask Keith Davis if he was intimidated last week when the junior traveled up to Ithaca College for the annual Illini National championships. At best, you would receive a shrug, or a smirk to your questions. Intimidation to those two does not exist. Those people were filled with enough hard football players are rarely intimidated enough by violence and car theft, and drugs were everywhere. I laugh when someone asks if I was ever scared on the football field. Those people don't know what scared is.

"I grew up in the worst section of town, in the South Ward section," said Davis, and All-ECAC selection at cornerback last year as a sophomore. "I was raised by violence and car theft, and drugs were everywhere. I laugh when someone asks if I was ever scared on the football field. Those people don't know what scared is."
Dear Mom,

My first day at MSC was awful! Since my Walls broke, I missed my 8 o'clock class. There was no hot water left in the showers. Then I tripped and fell down the stairs in front of the entire Submission Deadline. During Oct. 9th, I spilled my Room 113 A all over the front of my StudGr Annex.

Then I walked into the wrong classroom and got yelled at by some Poetry professor. When I finally found my Short Stories class, I was 15 minutes late.

The worst Drama of it all was waiting two hours in line in the Drawings store and then realizing I had left my money back in the dorm room.

By the time I reached my Paintings, my keys were nowhere to be found and my Photography had left for the weekend.

Please Submit beer money...

Love, Undergrad Student

Name of person in room
Cross country looks for big things from All-Americans

by Mark Alan Belnay

This past week the MSC cross country team kicked off its season at the Monmouth Invitational with both the men's and women's teams showing the talent needed to be successful in the upcoming season. The men's team is led by All-Americans Wayne Dennis, a junior transfer from Essex Community College, and first-year runner Ernest Johnson, an All-American in both Indoor and Outdoor Track and Field this past year. The women are led by the combination of All-Americans Sherine Titus, Carla Roberts, and Sharon Linda, all of whom gained their All-American status in Track and Field last year.

Dennis and Johnson are joined by junior transfer Hector Rivera, who is coming off a serious knee injury to run cross country for the first time, senior John Brennan of JFK Memorial High School who is coming off a serious knee injury to run cross country for the first time, senior John Brennan of JFK Memorial High School who has recuperated from a knee problem, as well as freshmen Jenaba Williams of Clifford Scott High School and Barry Cambi of Cedar Ridge. This team has the experience and talent to reach any goals they may set for themselves and as long as everyone stays healthy this could be a season of impressive performances for many any member of the team.

In addition to the three track and field All-Americans, Titus, Linda, and Roberts, the women's team boasts some sparkling new talent in freshmen Kara Ramberger of Bridgeton High School, East Orange High School's Rhonda Westbrook, and the team's sixth runner Maria Tchinchinian out of Dover High School. Despite finishing with an incomplete this past week at the Monmouth Invitational, the team shows promise. Head coach John Blanton who is looking forward to an improved performance this week at the New Jersey College Championships says, "Hopefully all butterflies were left on the track this past week."

With an improved performance from the women and Brennan and Dennis improving upon their previous marks, as both did this past week at the Invitational by nearly four minutes in their 5-mile races who the MSC team should put up an impressive performance this week. The team's sole home meet is October 17 at the Red Hawk Invitational. Following that week at the New Jersey College Championships says, "Hopefully all butterflies were left on the track this past week."

MSC Sports Schedule

Thursday, Oct. 1: Volleyball (home) vs. Bloomfield, 7 p.m.

Friday Oct. 2: Cross Country, New Jersey College Championships
Men's soccer (home) vs. Vassar, 8 p.m.
Women's tennis, NJIAAW, TBA.

Saturday Oct. 3: Field hockey (home) vs. Trenton State, 1 p.m.
Football (home) vs. Ramapo, 7 p.m. (Pride Bowl)
Volleyball (home) vs. NYU, 12 p.m.
Women's soccer (away) vs. Scranton, 2 p.m.

Tuesday, Oct. 6: Field hockey (home) vs. Rowan, 8 p.m.
Volleyball (away) vs. Stockton, 7 p.m.
Women's soccer (away) vs. Upsilon, 4 p.m.
Women's tennis (away) vs. Kutztown, 3:30 p.m.

Wednesday Oct. 7: Men's soccer (home) vs. Ramapo, 8 p.m.

N.F.L. Picks: Week 5

George Calle, Managing Editor:

1. x-L.A. Raiders -2 over N.Y. Giants. Would you want to face Coach Shell Monday wildness?

3. Miami + 10 1/2 over x-Buffalo. Omin, 10 1/2 and Marino? Preview of AFC Championship.

4. x-Atlanta -8 1/2 over Green Bay. Neon don't fail me now...

5. x-Denver -1 1/2 over Kansas City. Chiefs overrated.

Rob Campos, Editor-In-Chief of the Anarchist Syndicate

2. New England +1 1/2 over x-N.Y. Jets. The Jets are trying for 0-16.

3. Washington -10 1/2 over x-Phoenix. There are no Cardinals in Phoenix.

4. x-Atlanta -7 1/2 over Green Bay. Because Green Bay drafted someone from North Bergen.

5. x-Philadelphia -4 over Dallas. I need the 50 "points."

Michael Frasco, Sportswriter:

1. N.Y. Giants +4 over x-L.A. Raiders. Simms factor will lead the Giants.

2. N.Y. Jets -8 1/2 over New England. Can't go 0-5, can they?

3. x-Tampa Bay -9 over Indianapolis. Bucs will keep rolling.

4. x-Minnesota -4 over Chicago. Vikings too strong.

5. Kansas City +1 1/2 over x-Denver. Chiefs Elways beat up on the Broncos.

Steve Garufi, Editorial Page Editor:

4. x-Atlanta -7 1/2 over Green Bay. The Falcons are simply better.

5. x-Philadelphia -4 over Dallas.

Keith A. Idee, Sports Editor:

1. N.Y. Giants +2 over x-L.A. Raiders. Week off should help Giants to victory.

2. x-N.Y. Jets -8 1/2 over New England. 0-7 I couldn't take the ridicule from my creditors.

3. x-Atlanta -7 1/2 over Green Bay. Falcons should bust out of slump in Georgia Dome.

4. Kansas City +1 1/2 over x-Denver. Elways should take a beating again this week.

5. New Orleans over x-Detroit. Tough Saints "D" tames the Lions.

Kevin Schwoebel, Prophet Bigg:

1. N.Y. Giants +2 over x-L.A. Raiders. The youth of America need to wear new hats and coats.

3. Seattle + 3 1/2 over x-San Diego. I like their helmets.

4. Kansas City + 1 1/2 over x-Denver. The Chiefs are rolling.

5. x-Buffalo -11 1/2 over Miami. Buffalo's 4-0.

x-denotes home team

JFK Medical Center's 10th Annual Heart & Sole Race

Sunday, October 18, 1992

1 mile walk/run, 9:00 a.m.
Entry Fee: $9.00
10K run, 9:30 a.m.
Entry Fee: $10.00

All proceeds will benefit the JFK Cardiopulmonary Rehabilitation Department. T-shirts will be awarded to all runners. Winners will be awarded cash prizes.

For further information, please either write or call:

JFK Medical Center Department of Public Relations and Marketing
65 James Street (P.O. Box 3059)
Edison, N.J. 08818
(908) 632-1530
The Pride Bowl: More than a football game

by Michael Frasco

After losses to Cortland State and Ithaca College in its first two contests, the Red Hawk football team is in need of a victory to keep its playoff hopes alive. MSC will get that chance against NJAC rival Ramapo College this Saturday night at Sprague Field at 7 p.m. The contest marks the 14th annual Pride Bowl.

The Roadrunners will be seeking their first victory as well, after dropping a 7-6 decision to Kean this past weekend and falling to 0-3 in the process. And although this game is critical for each team, the fact that the two teams will convene, means the real winner will come off the field in the name of the kids from Project Pride.

The game is the sole fundraiser of this all-volunteer non-profit Project Pride Inc., which funds over 15,000 youths in New Jersey on Sept. 24 in a non-conference matchup that would take place during the day night during the 14th Annual Pride Bowl, or any other game.

MSC Director of Athletics, Greg Lockard said, "It's a wonderful game, we're pleased to be part of it because of the kids in Newark."

"We have a better tradition in the contest than anybody else, so we've been good for the Pride Bowl and the Pride Bowl has been good for us."

Project Pride was the brainchild of Jerry Izenberg, Star-Ledger columnist and President as a way to give something back to the youth of Newark, the city he grew up in.

MSC Assistant Director of Athletics, Olive Goldston is one who can relate to Izenberg's struggles regarding the inner city, as he was raised in Jersey City. He said, "Anyone that came out of the inner city who was in my generation, has great admiration for anyone trying to do something for the youth of the inner city."

Rick Giancola, MSC's head football coach, is also familiar with the inner city. Giancola is from the Ironbound section of Newark and he has seen the streets and what can happen without guidance. He offered this perspective on MSC's participation in the event. "It's nice to think that there are people that we can help in some fashion, to give some monies to help fund the programs that go to the kids of Newark. So from that standpoint we're happy we can help."

Giancola also voiced his opinion on what this means to the team. "We have had our team work on during MSC's off week, in preparation for the contest itself. He said, "Last week, we emphasized fundamentals and let's try to regroup and correct some of those mistakes."

One of the central reasons for MSC's 0-2 record is due to the team's overall lack of game experience. "Because of our youth, we may have tried to do too many things in terms of X's and O's, and maybe our inexperience is not ready to handle that yet," Giancola said.

Looking ahead to this week's contest, MSC and Giancola will need very little motivation, as the painful memory from last year's loss is still strong. He said, "The sting of last year and how last year's game ended is still there."

A win Saturday for MSC, would certainly relieve much of the sting from last season, and more importantly, it would also alleviate much of the worry of the team's third year of wireless campaigning so far.

Men's soccer wins pair behind Neubart

by Craig Berarsh

The Red Hawks offensive attack was as relentless as the rain Friday night during the 14th Annual Pride Bowl, and one of them actually had to do with football. John Walker, MSC's All-American candidate at tailback, needs just 84 yards to become the all-time leading rusher in MSC history, surpassing Leroy Horn who raked up 2,942 yards. Walker currently has 2,858 yards on a record 594 carries.

Walker is currently adding on to his record of all-purpose yardage every time he touched the ball. Interestingly enough, however, that Walker has not done well traditionally against Ramapo in three career games. Last year, as a junior, he carried the ball 24 times for 72 yards. As a sophomore, at Ramapo, he gained just 50 yards.

One of the main reasons for MSC's loss was, let's get back to the fundamentals and let's try to regroup and correct some of those mistakes.

There is a lot at stake this Saturday night and during the 14th Annual Pride Bowl, and one of them actually has to do with football. John Walker, MSC's All-American candidate at tailback, needs just 84 yards to become the all-time leading rusher in MSC history, surpassing Leroy Horn who raked up 2,942 yards. Walker currently has 2,858 yards on a record 594 carries.

"Anyone that came out of the inner city who was in my generation, has great admiration for anyone trying to do something for the youth of the inner city," Giancola said.

Looking ahead to this week's contest, MSC and Giancola will need very little motivation, as the painful memory from last year's loss is still strong. He said, "The sting of last year and how last year's game ended is still there."

A win Saturday for MSC, would certainly relieve much of the sting from last season, and more importantly, it would also alleviate much of the worry of the team's third year of wireless campaigning so far.

The Red Hawks offensive attack was as relentless as the rain Friday night during the 14th Annual Pride Bowl, and one of them actually had to do with football. John Walker, MSC's All-American candidate at tailback, needs just 84 yards to become the all-time leading rusher in MSC history, surpassing Leroy Horn who raked up 2,942 yards. Walker currently has 2,858 yards on a record 594 carries.

Walker is currently adding on to his record of all-purpose yardage every time he touched the ball. Interestingly enough, however, that Walker has not done well traditionally against Ramapo in three career games. Last year, as a junior, he carried the ball 24 times for 72 yards. As a sophomore, at Ramapo, he gained just 50 yards.

There is a lot at stake this Saturday night and during the 14th Annual Pride Bowl, and one of them actually has to do with football. John Walker, MSC's All-American candidate at tailback, needs just 84 yards to become the all-time leading rusher in MSC history, surpassing Leroy Horn who raked up 2,942 yards. Walker currently has 2,858 yards on a record 594 carries.

Walker is currently adding on to his record of all-purpose yardage every time he touched the ball. Interestingly enough, however, that Walker has not done well traditionally against Ramapo in three career games. Last year, as a junior, he carried the ball 24 times for 72 yards. As a sophomore, at Ramapo, he gained just 50 yards.

There is a lot at stake this Saturday night and during the 14th Annual Pride Bowl, and one of them actually has to do with football. John Walker, MSC's All-American candidate at tailback, needs just 84 yards to become the all-time leading rusher in MSC history, surpassing Leroy Horn who raked up 2,942 yards. Walker currently has 2,858 yards on a record 594 carries.

Walker is currently adding on to his record of all-purpose yardage every time he touched the ball. Interestingly enough, however, that Walker has not done well traditionally against Ramapo in three career games. Last year, as a junior, he carried the ball 24 times for 72 yards. As a sophomore, at Ramapo, he gained just 50 yards.

There is a lot at stake this Saturday night and during the 14th Annual Pride Bowl, and one of them actually has to do with football. John Walker, MSC's All-American candidate at tailback, needs just 84 yards to become the all-time leading rusher in MSC history, surpassing Leroy Horn who raked up 2,942 yards. Walker currently has 2,858 yards on a record 594 carries.

Walker is currently adding on to his record of all-purpose yardage every time he touched the ball. Interestingly enough, however, that Walker has not done well traditionally against Ramapo in three career games. Last year, as a junior, he carried the ball 24 times for 72 yards. As a sophomore, at Ramapo, he gained just 50 yards.

There is a lot at stake this Saturday night and during the 14th Annual Pride Bowl, and one of them actually has to do with football. John Walker, MSC's All-American candidate at tailback, needs just 84 yards to become the all-time leading rusher in MSC history, surpassing Leroy Horn who raked up 2,942 yards. Walker currently has 2,858 yards on a record 594 carries.

Walker is currently adding on to his record of all-purpose yardage every time he touched the ball. Interestingly enough, however, that Walker has not done well traditionally against Ramapo in three career games. Last year, as a junior, he carried the ball 24 times for 72 yards. As a sophomore, at Ramapo, he gained just 50 yards.

Women's tennis moves to 5-2 with fourth straight win

by Karen Plumstead

The MSC Women's Tennis team has become unbeatable. The Red Hawks continued their winning streak this week with their fourth win in a row, upping their record to an impressive 5-2. The Red Hawks outstanding play put them over the edge to victory. Also, freshman Catherine Grosvenor staged a comeback in the second set, winning 7-5, after being down 5-2. Without her contribution, the MSC Women would have been defeated.

The tight contest also proved victorious over Ursinus on Thursday, Sept. 24, 6-3. Freshman Traci Szymbanski, proved to be Montclair's most valuable player for the day when she defeated both opponents in her singles match and then teamed with fellow freshman Alison Vort to win a doubles match.

Upcoming events include the New Jersey State Tournament in Trenton on Oct. 2-3. The Red Hawks will compete against all New Jersey state schools. The team will be on the road with Kutztown University on Oct. 6 and with Rowan College on Oct. 10.