Plan to open Student Center

24 hours is in the works

by Anthony Guadagnino

Stu Weissman, General Manager of WMSC, is developing a plan to keep the Student Center open 24 hours. Presently, the Student Center is open Monday through Friday, between 7:15 am and 11 pm; Saturday, between 8 am and 6 pm; and Sunday, between 3 pm and 10 pm.

"It will give a chance for other organizations to run longer meetings," Weissman said. "The clubs could spend more needed time in their offices."

In addition to longer meetings, the radio station will be on 24 hours, Weissman said. The station is under contract to be on 24 hours, and with the Student Center open, it can be done, Weissman said. Plus, the station can play "questionable" music between midnight and 6 am and begin to program radio shows, which are high in demand, Weissman said.

Weissman gave a survey to every organization to find out how they feel. The response has been positive, Tony Floreno, music director of WMSC said. Every survey returned so far has been for the idea, Floreno said.

Paul Emil Safar, recording secretary of the Conservation Club, said that he feels it is a good idea. It would give people a chance to work with their clubs, even early in the morning, if the Student Center were open all the time, Safar said.

Paul Giamboi, director of Programming of SGA and head of security at Class One Concernts, believes keeping the Student Center open later is beneficial to Class One Concerts. He says that due to conflicting schedules, it is hard to have all of the people at meetings. "It would make our lives easier if we could stay till 2 in the morning," said Giamboi.

For Class One Concerts, it would also help because they can be a lot more organized and efficient, said Giamboi. "We would be able to promote better, have better meetings and speak to their contacts more often," added Giamboi.

Erica Smith, Secretary of Organization of Students for African Unity (OSAUS) believes that it is a nice idea to keep the building open for the radio station, but adds, "Where would we get the money from?" Smith says that she keeps hearing how there is no money available and she doesn’t feel that the students should have to pay for it.

Weissman said he has not approached the administration with his idea yet. Weissman wants to be sure he has support from the different organizations before stepping forward.

In addition, Weissman said he wants to get estimates on security costs for the Student Center if it were to stay open all night. One question on the survey asked if the organization was willing to donate for the security system. Floreno said that every response feels that the school should cover the cost.

Weissman plans to go before the administration before the end of the school year, Floreno said. If it is passed, the new hours will go into effect immediately.

Blood drive sponsored by Greeks

by Glenn Steinberg

A blood drive, sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, took place on April 27-28 between the times of 10 am-4 pm in room 126 of the Student Center.

The blood drive, which was organized by Jennifer Jacquot, vice president of Alpha Phi Omega, was done in cooperation with the North Jersey Blood Center.

There were nine staff members assisting in the operation and six beds set up for the blood drive.

On April 27, they received 89 units of blood out of 120 people who were registered and on April 28, they received approximately 70 units of blood, said Margaret Manson, Registered Nurse for North Jersey Blood Center.

Manson said that this blood drive is an increase from last year.

Don Miller was an African-American artist and supporter of opportunities for minority artists. Miller had an art exhibit last year on campus entitled, "Painting the African Flag." The exhibit hung in the art gallery.

The reason which Montclair State was chosen for the scholarship was that it was the hometown college of Miller, and he was taken by the magnitude and excellence of the arts program, said Sue Brooks, Public Relations at Montclair State.

Penn Federal Savings Bank

The scholarship, known as the Don Miller Memorial Fund, is available for those students at the school who are majoring or minoring in Fine and Performing Arts. Dean Jeffrey Newman, associated with the Fine and Performing Arts department, is still developing the criteria necessary to apply for the scholarship.

An apparent IRA bomb hidden in a track devastated London's financial district. The group's tactic of bombing was suspended for about two months prior to this explosion. The bombings are in response to England's occupation of Northern Ireland which has officially separated Ireland from England for 70 years.

A ten person mission by the U.N. to Haiti is to keep a watch for violence by the army. Haiti's first democratically elected president was overthrown in 1991 by a military Junta. Since then, soldiers have killed, beaten and imprisoned thousands without charges.

Bosnian Serb leaders rejected a U.N. peace plan. Britain also announced that its planes would fire on Serbs if they attacked U.N. peace keepers. The plan that was rejected was to divide Yugoslavia into ten semi-autonomous regions based on ethnicity.

National

No official cause to the fire at the Branch Davidian Compound in Waco, Texas has been proven but some independent investigators have agreed with the FBI's claim that the fire which killed around 80 people was started by the cult members.

A prison siege in Ohio ended peacefully when 407 prisoners surrendered. Nine inmates and one guard were killed in the initial riot. The standoff lasted 11 days, and according to one guard, no hostages would have been killed if negotiations had granted the prisoners their demands. Inhumane conditions, racism and abuse were what sparked the revolt.

NASA called off the launch of the Space Shuttle Columbia on Saturday. The "science mission" was scrubbed because of navigation system trouble, the latest in a series of technical problems.

A Dallas man won a libel suit against Procter and Gamble. The jury found that the company's posting of him on a bulletin board as a thief after his firing was libel. He was fired for taking a $35 phone later proven to be his own as he had claimed. He won $14 million in punitive damages.

"The bedrock of my campaign has been to make New Jersey work again by reducing taxes now, creating private sector jobs and fixing state government," Edwards said in a meeting of the Essex, Union, and Hudson Employers' legislative committees. Under Florio's program, New Jersey will have fallen to 49 in growth since 1993, predicts Edwards. Under Edward's economic plan, funds already in the state budget will be used to reduce income taxes, provide investment tax credits and end double taxation of small businesses. Dr. George Zilbergeld, of the Political Science Department called Edwards, "An extremely capable person" and said, "Small businesses create a lot of our jobs. These are the people we want on our side."

"Only through growth can New Jersey be whole, not through taxes," said Edwards. "Jim Florio has turned his back on all taxes," said Edwards. "Jim Florio has turned his back on all tax payers through a massive tax hike that caused a recession that has been deeper and longer standing than the national slump." Edwards proposed a municipal conversion program that would give grants allowing local governments to foreclose on abandoned properties and give private entities ownership to bring these sites back into private use. With his tax and economic policies Edwards hopes to assure New Jersey of a strong tourism and protection plan. He has called for an increase in funding for the New Jersey Division of Travel and Tourism from a $3.7 million budget to a $10 million annually.

In an extensive plan to put the "you" back into the "New Jersey and You" program, Edwards hopes to resuscitate New Jersey pride and build a public relations program that will extended to the entire country and to the world. New Jersey's diverse tourist attractions employ 350,000 people. Edwards estimated that for every $1 million spent on tourism $70 million is returned in new business revenues and an additional 1,316 new jobs are created. He urges the governor and the legislature to fund the $10 million in order to protect New Jersey tourism.

Edwards concern with women's rights plays a personal role in his platform. He would like to see women overcome the obstacles his mother had to deal with as a single parent living in East Paterson. As Chief Counsel to former Governor Tom Kean, Edwards appointed more women judges then anyone in the state's history. "The only faults Edwards has," said Zilbergeld, "are that he has a detailed plan instead of a catchy slogan and that he is not well known. Other than that he has the most administrative experience and is an extremely capable person."

A Closer Look At Our Town: Yesterday and Today

by Sandra Cammilli

Beginning tonight, Mainstage Theatre Series of Montclair State proudly wraps up its 1992-1993 season with a spectacular showing of Thornton Wilder's Our Town. This is a special production, for it commemorates the first ever show that was presented in Memorial Auditorium back in 1957.

On Saturday May 1, the original alumni cast from the 1957 Player's Production of Our Town will reunite with the present cast to celebrate and join in the festivities of Alumni Weekend.

Returning to join the cast are Howard Fox, the production's former director, and a recent professor Emeritus at Montclair State; and some 1957 players- Jim Andrews, Nancy Elting, Shirley Hunter, John Sullivan, Dwight Baud, P.E. Woodford, and Mary Ann Bond. The original Player's club officers, Helene Zerold and Roxy Akillian will also be there.

The Play takes place in Grover's Corners, New Hampshire and depicts the lives of ordinary people experiencing the cycle of human existence. Wilder, through dialogue, expressively affirms the true values of life and offers insight towards understanding this value. Thus, the small town life is beautifully rendered as we take a closer look at Our Town.

In the current production, Joseph R. Patenamde, visiting theatre specialist, resides as director. Faculty theatre members, Jose Kenderish designed the costumes and sets in collaboration with John Figola who designed the lighting. Two BFA students helped to achieve these designs. Sharon Mayerchak co-designed the sets and Matt Novak is the assistant lighting director.

As a whole, the cast renders some fine talent. We can feel the unity and cohesiveness that binds a small town as well as the soft pulsating rhythm that sustains the community.

Actor Joe Dalo who holds the principle role of the stage manager, is particularly strong and intriguing as he narrates the happenings at Grover's Corners. Equally as profound and eloquent in their portrayals are Kimberly Monion as Emily Webb and Mark Jameson as George Gibbs. As we watch them grow up, fall in love and marry, these two characters realistically portray the emotions of life. Finally, Matthew Horohoe, though a minor character in the production, gives a typical enigmatic and surreal "Horoboian" quality to his performance.

Wilder's picturesque legacy of people continues to breathe life and meaning today. Dalo's characters sums it all up beautifully when he states: "You gotta love life to have life and you gotta have life to love life." This timeless classic is a worthwhile production featuring a gifted cast and crew. Performances run April 29, 30, May 1, 6, 7, 8 at 8pm and April 30 and May 9 at 2pm. For further information, call 893-5112.

In order to make it in this world you have to work with people in a team fashion. But, from time to time, you will run across people who can't work with the team. Let's call them Loner-Yahoos. They are the arts section, who can't work with the team. You have to work with people.

Let's call them Loner-Yahoos. They are the arts section, who can't work with the team. You have to work with people. For more educational programming with a new formula for Coke, or television, television that supposes that our children are watching and is completely worthless, besides the positive portrayal, how does Roseanne's sarcastic remarks to her children, the real-life children, better? In short, how do they educate? You know what the answer is.

Another batch of television shows that our children are watching and is completely worthless are the daytime dramas, better known as soap operas. These melodramatic chapters in the lives of unredeeming characters who you wouldn't hit your favorite show date do not exist. You're like a father's bedtime. What do these shows teach? What do not to do in a relation-ship? Safe sex practices? How to screw with married couples on the sly when everyone knows about it but the "other" person? Of course, they don't teach anything. But it's just entertainment. Bingo! You have just hit the nail on the head. It's entertainment. In and and if who's feeling up Laura, or who Lake is feeling up. Watch the coyote run off the cliff again. It's all the same thing: entertainment. Watch Roseanne throw her collective weight around the set. See some cop slap a suspect aside-ways on one of the reality shows. It's entertaining, and we like it. Yet you don't see soap operas come under the gun. Nick at Nites doesn't fllinch when it airs old reruns, which aren't educational either. All these shows on the lovely boob tube, and none are educational.

All these television advo-cates are attempting to do the right thing, and I can't fault them for that. Like everything else in the world, the good ideas get distorted by extremism. In this case, if the powers that be want to trash a cartoon or two or for not having educational value, they should look at the big picture and be willing to torch the whole shebang. What's good for one must be good for all. Here's a funny situation for you to chew on. One of the advocates for educational television gets his/her voice heard, and the television gods answer and decide to trash Nor-thern Exposure. What happens to be his/her favorite show, Sorry. You said to trash anything with no educational value, remember? Soon, in the networks aren't making money, the shows' fans are upset, and everyone turns to, say, comic books for entertainment. Then, someone says something about comic books' educational value, then they kill Superman... for good, along with the X-Men, Batman, and everyone else.

Don't you just love ex-tremes?
EDITORIAL

Opening options at MSC

Stuart Weissman, the General Manager of WMSC, has addressed all Class One organizations as to the idea of petitioning the administration to keep the Student Center open twenty four hours. This would be an advancement for our new dead campus.

All residents of MSC can empathize with the tumbleweed atmosphere left for us come Friday night. By eleven o’clock on Friday, everything is shut down and all students are left to a darkened campus.

If the Student Center was left open all night, this would be step toward a campus that is there for it’s students. Why shouldn’t the Student Center be open? MSC should have a twenty four hour radio station, those involved with clubs and organizations should be able to meet and produce work, whenever they want.

Beyond the few, yet relative, needs the Student Center holds, having a building open twenty four hours may start a needed trend. Perhaps decadence will prevail and MSC could have a library that extends its hours past that of ten o’clock. It is inane that our library is not open twenty four hours.

Most colleges are set up for the pursuit of education. Having a library close before even most part time jobs are over is pathetic. Most students have plenty of energy past ten. In fact, those after-hours are irreplaceable moments when quiet succumbs the usual noisy hallways and real studying can occur.

After the library branches to twenty four hours, we, as a campus, could move on to pressure the administration to spending money for our business, for our needs. The access road was a gallant try. Although it adds so much to many students’ lives here, the thought that perhaps that money would have been better spent with educating the students (some more computers, extended computer lab hours) does cross one’s mind.

The shafty school store closes at eight. The Rat closes at ten. The computer lab at Richardson closes at ten and is unavailable on weekends. The Student Center and our beloved radio station are shut down at eleven. What’s going on with this school? People live here, students study here. The object of college is to explore possibilities. How is that possible when nothing after-hours are irreplaceable moments when quiet succumbs the usual noisy hallways and real studying can occur.

In hopes that this will set a precedent for other facilities also to be available for students, The Montclarion is unanimous with their support for the Student Center being left open twenty four hours. MSC is a boring, uneventful college blinded with grandeur at becoming university status. In the process for reaching this ultimate ideal, the campus has become inaccessible.

Leave decisions unmandated, nothing will be made for students. If you want a campus built for status. In the process for reaching this ultimate ideal, the campus has become inaccessible.

To say that boys will be boys is a total insult to myself and the majority of men who believe these convictions should be put away for a while. To all the women out there, let me assure you, what these actions did, does not go through the minds of all boys. These four convicts are a bunch of pampered, spoiled brats. They thought they could get away with anything, and they did, for most of their lives. But then they had to push it too far. They sexually as-saulted a retarded girl and got caught.

If the story ended there, all is fine. But no, it's not that simple. These sentences are an insult to every single person out there. How can you sentence these convicts as youths? People have been tried and convicted as young as 14 years old. These convicts were 16 & 18 years old at the time of the attack. By that age, you know right from wrong. The three that received prison terms will probably be released in 22 months.

Reading this article, I hope you feel as opposed to the people who get their guns illegally. Why would I file for an ownership permit, register with the state, wait God knows how long, and pay $200-$300 dollars for an unregistered gun “on the street?” Plus, I’d have same day service! All that is achieved by banning guns in giving criminals more of an edge than they already have. In New York City, criminals al-ready carry fully automatic machine guns as opposed to the police’s revolvers. What a match-up! When guns are banned, the only people who will own them, besides the police, are the criminals. And if a person just has a gun to protect his/her law abiding family, then he or she is a criminal also.

This waiting period stuff is for the birds too. With today’s technology, we should be able to punch up someone’s record in an instant. I agree that first time buyers should have to apply and maybe wait a little for a background check. But a gun permit should be like a driver’s license; once you get it, it is yours, provided that you renew it and avoid revocation. Anyone who comes into a gun shop to buy a rifle, shotgun, etc. is not the root of the problem. Banning assault rifles (thereby making other-wise law abiding citizens, who got theirs legally, criminals) is not going to solve the problem, either. The fact is that, as a people, we have the right to bear arms. Granted, the author’s of the Constitution did not intend for 250 million Americans to be running around with AK-47’s.

However, because of the interpretations throughout history, we do have that right. So far.

Here is where the misconception lies. Just because a person wants to own a gun does not make him a threat to anyone. How many legal gun owners commit murders and other crimes with guns? The real problem is the people who get their guns illegally. Why would I file for an ownership permit, register with the state, wait God knows how long, and pay $200-$300 dollars for an unregistered gun “on the street?” Plus, I’d have same day service! All that is achieved by banning guns in giving criminals more of an edge than they already have. Calvin and Hobbes by Bill Watterson

Calvin and Hobbes

Dear Mr. Hobbes, I'm doing a traffic safety poster. Do you have any ideas for a slogan?

Sure. I'll do it for free. Autocorrect.

Our traffic safety poster needs a catchy slogan that promotes awareness and caution. Any ideas?

I'll check my dictionary, but I know it will say "Mind your own business." That's a great one.

Calvin and Hobbes

Calvin: "I think I can make a fortune by selling safety products. I've already patented a line of safety books and a helmet."

Hobbes: "That's a great idea, Calvin."

Calvin: "I'm doing a traffic safety poster. Do you have any ideas for a slogan?"

Sure, I'll do it for free. Autocorrect.

Calvin: "No, this is the first prize. I'll give you 25% of the winnings."

Calvin: "We need a slogan that promotes awareness and caution. Any ideas?"

Sure, I'll do it for free. Autocorrect.

Calvin: "I suppose that lends itself more to your particular brand of illustration."

Hobbes: "I prefer great Slovak and our great artwork. Our traffic safety poster is a shot in the arm for first prize."

Calvin: "What's the prize?"

Hobbes: "It's a grand slam."

Calvin: "The winner gets one thousand dollars."

Hobbes: "That's not bad at all."

Calvin: "It's a school contest. We're supposed to draw a traffic safety poster."

Hobbes: "I'm doing it for free. Autocorrect."

Calvin: "It says we should be careful, or we'll blow it."

Hobbes: "I hope I can win something."

Calvin: "I hope I don't win something."

Hobbes: "I hope I can win something."

Calvin: "I have, I have some camera bias."

Hobbes: "I have, I have some camera bias."

MSC breaks school records at Penn Relays

Men's track stars take second place in sprint medley, 800-meter races

When expectations are placed upon a team to excel and the pressures to meet those lofty heights becomes difficult to handle, results are often disappointing.

Track Talk

by Mark Alan BeInay

For the MSC track and field team, at this past weekend's Penn Relays at the University of Pennsylvania, those expectations were nowhere to be found. Thus, the team responded to the pressure-free atmosphere and broke two school records in front of 38,592 at Franklin Field.

The sprint medley team consisting of Wayne Dennis, Neal Ruiz, Jacinto Alayon and Dewayne Stevens once again provided the highlight of the Penn Relays for MSC.

The Red Hawks took second place in this race that went right down to the wire. Dennis, who ran the 400-meter anchor, was edged out by James Madison University's Matt Holthaus by just less than one second (3:19.87-JMU, 3:20.66-MSC).

"Our guys could have won race," said MSC head coach John Blanton. "We just didn't get Dennis a big enough lead," he added. Although the team finished second, the time did break a 14-year-old MSC record by just over 13 seconds.

The men's 800-meter team of Stevens, Alayon, Ruiz and Ernest Johnson made it to the IC4A Finals and placed second behind New York Tech. The time of 1:26.22 was also a school record for MSC.

Also, the men's 1600-meter relay team of Alayon, Johnson, Stevens and Dennis took second in its race, finishing just behind Morgan State University. This race also went right down to the wire, with MSC coming up just short again.

Other relay teams for MSC weren't as successful. The men's 400-meter relay team of Anthony Williams, Ruiz, Alayon and Stevens continued to have its difficulties. Fundamentals have become a problem for this team, but Blanton is confident that a return to basics could put them back to a respectable level.

Overall, the MSC team performed at quite a respectable level. The performances of the 800-meter, 1600-meter and sprint medley relay teams brought back memories of levels of excellence that these athletes have attained in the past.

The Red Hawks are a different situation than most of the teams that they faced this past weekend. Ruiz, an instrumental part of the relay teams, addressed MSC's position. "This team isn't about the amount of scholarships we have. It's about the pride that each athlete has concerning his or her performance on the track," Ruiz said.

If the MSC track and field team has fully accepted this slice of reality, it could be the turning point in a season that thus far has been unevenful for the outdoor track and field team.

RED HAWK NOTES

MSC will participate in the CTC Championships this weekend (April 31-May 1).

Men's tennis nets two of three

by Maureen K. McLeod

In its quest to finish the 1993 season with a winning record, the MSC men's tennis team came up with victories in two out of three matches last week.

After starting out the week with a loss to Kutztown on April 21, the Red Hawks responded with wins over the United States Merchant Marine Academy and New Jersey Tech.

MSC picked up two of its easiest wins of the season by freezing out the United States Merchant Marine Academy on Saturday, April 24 and NJIT on Sunday, April 25, both by the score of 9-0.

The Red Hawks have now improved their record to 7-6. Head coach Barri Pollner is confident that her team will be victorious in its final two regular season matches this week against Rutgers-Camden and Steven's Institute. Wins in these two matches would leave the Red Hawks with a final record of 9-6.

After the regular season matches, MSC will participate in the NJAC tournament this weekend. Pollner is confident that her team will do well in the tournament. "We can place quite a few guys in the top four," said the first-year coach.

Jeff Clemente of MSC has the best record in the conference with 9 wins and only 4 losses. Incidentally, Jason Cuomo, also from MSC, has the second best record at 8-5. These two players are expected to place high in the tournament.

The third doubles team consisting of Wade Whitehead and John Moroils will be one of the top teams in their bracket in the upcoming tournament.

A little bit of this and a little bit of that makes for an exciting week

It has just been one of those weeks. The New York metropolitan area has been quite a little hotbed for professional sports. So, let’s just consider this a grab-bag week for this column.

-First and foremost, the Knicks wrapped up home court throughout the NBA Playoffs. Some may not see that as being overly important, but think about it. It’s Game 7 of the Eastern Conference Finals, the Knicks and Bulls are tied entering the fourth quarter, the Knicks would have none of it. It's Madison Square Garden or Chicago Stadium. Get the point?

Where would the Knicks rather be, in the first half as he stopped 13 of 16 Cougars shots? The Cougars, who won for the first time ever at Sprague Field, 20-8. The penalty seemed to throw the Red Hawks false hope of salvaging their season. Instead, MSC managed to pull within 19-18. This is direct proof that Kean proved to be too much for the Red Hawks to 4-5 on the season. Kean head coach Doug Alsofrom.

MSC loses (New Jersey) War; chances for future battles taken away by ECAC
by Nicole Festa

The MSC lacrosse team lost its opportunity to be crowned the Kings of the NJAC when the New Jersey Athletic Conference Tournament begins Saturday afternoon as the Red Hawks play host to sixth-seeded Kean College at 1 p.m.

The victory gave Kean its fourth decision in the first round of the playoffs. Without Kenny Anderson and Chris Dudley the Nets simply can’t match up with the Cavs. The Nets would have had problems with the tall but soft Cavs anyway, but now the order is simply too large to fit. Stranger things have happened, but this series goes beyond four games it would be shocking.

-The Yankees finally have three top-flight starters in their rotation. Doesn’t figure that now the once-dominant bullpen has come apart at the seams?

-Has Dick Steinberg finally come around after some weeks. The New York metropolitan area has been quite a little hotbed for professional sports. So, let’s just consider this a grab-bag week for this column.

MSC (24-6, 5-3 NJAC), shutout the visiting Pioneers, 5-0. Once again Warnock was brilliant as she tossed her second shutout of the season. The Kearny native raised her record to an outstanding 14-1 and pitched herself out of three bases loaded jams without giving up a run.

The New Jersey Athletic Conference Tournament begins Saturday afternoon as the Red Hawks play host to sixth-seeded Kean College at 1 p.m.

Lacrosse

The victory gave Kean its first Knicked victory in the title in 13 years. The win also gave Kean its fourth decision over MSC in their last six meetings.

With plenty of time left in the game, the Red Hawks looked as if they were to actually make the game into a "war" like it was supposed to be. But an unpensummarylike conduct penalty on MSC opened the floodgates for Kean.

"The penalty hurt us pretty bad, but it was our overall lack of discipline that really hurt us," said MSC head coach Doug Alsofrom.

Temple, Kuchinski and Shannon Malone all added RBI singles for MSC. The sweep gave the Red Hawks a final NJAC record of 5-3, their best conference mark under Kubicka.

The New Jersey Athletic Conference Tournament begins Saturday afternoon as the Red Hawks play host to sixth-seeded Kean College at 1 p.m.

The major obstacle for MSC will be adjusting to Kean’s slower pitchers. “We’re better at the plate against fast pitching, but I think we’ll be able to adjust,” said Kubicka. It would be hard to argue with her philosophy since MSC swept Kean in a double-header on April 20.

Lack of focus shouldn’t be a problem in this single-elimination tournament for MSC either. “We know what’s at stake. It’s do or die and obviously we’d like to win,” said Kubicka.

Red Hawk Notes... Kuchinski leads the team in batting average (.461), home runs (3), RBIs (33), hits (41), doubles (11), total bases (65) and slugging percentage (.708). She has also not made an error behind the plate this season...MSC has outscored opponents 198-94. This is direct proof that the new optic yellow polyurethane balls that are being used have benefited the Red Hawks more than it has hurt them...Rowan (No. 3 in Division III) and Trenton State (No. 5 in Division III) received the first and second seeds respectively in the NJAC tournament...The second round of the tournament begins on Friday (5/7). If MSC beats Kean, it advances to this round.

MSC (24-6, 5-3 NJAC), shutout the visiting Pioneers, 5-0. Once again Warnock was brilliant as she tossed her second shutout of the season. The Kearny native raised her record to an outstanding 14-1 and pitched herself out of three bases loaded jams without giving up a run.

The Islanders have change. The Islanders have changed and Chris Dudley the Nets simply can’t match up with the Cavs. The Nets would have had problems with the tall but soft Cavs anyway, but now the order is simply too large to fit. Stranger things have happened, but this series goes beyond four games it would be shocking.

It was 10-7 and we were on a roll. But an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty on MSC opened the door for future battles taken away by ECAC.

Despite its unflattering record, MSC received the third seed in conference play. Despite its unflattering record, MSC received the third seed in conference play. The Islanders have brought back memories of days gone by with their recent surge against the Capitals. And wasn’t it nice to see the Devils win one against the almighty Penguins? Sorry, couldn’t resist that.

-The Giants’ take, Dave Brown sure better be worth it.

-Nobody expects the Cougars, who won for the first time ever at Sprague Field, 20-8. The penalty seemed to throw the Red Hawks false hope of salvaging their season. Instead, MSC managed to pull within 19-18. This is direct proof that Kean proved to be too much for the Red Hawks to 4-5 on the season. Kean raised its mark to an impressive 14-1, including an undefeated mark in conference play.

Red Hawks soar again in NJAC play

Offense explodes on conference foes as MSC primes for post-season

After his team's 17-13 victory over Kean College on Sunday, you can just picture MSC head coach Norm Schoenig rubbing his eyes and wondering if what he just seen had actually happened. Trailng 1-0 after one inning, MSC (29-5, 10-2 NJAC) erupted for 13 runs in the next four innings.

off of Kean starter Pat Migliore (2-3) to take a seemingly commanding 1-1 lead. However, Kean pushed five runs across to cut the Red Hawk lead to 13-6. The Red Hawks, who were led by junior John Pallino (.417, 8 HRs, 44k's), who allowed only four hits while pitching into the ninth.

Offensive again was Pallino, who had two hits and drove in two runs. Joe Critelli drove in the third MSC run that turned out to be the game-winner.

The nightcap was a laugher, as Critelli, Pallino, and Scavalla all hit home runs enroute to the 19-3 massacre.

On Friday, Freshman T.J. Costello turned in a virtuoso performance, letting up four hits and striking out five while hurling a complete game in a 19-1 romp over Ramapo College.

Costello (3-2, 2.50 ERA), locked on the verge of a shutout until the ninth, when Ramapo put the loneblemish on an otherwise brilliant performance. The solid outing also gave the bullpen some much-needed rest.

The Roadrunners, er, Roodkill, did nothing to help their plight as their pitchers allowed 10 walks, hit five batters with pitches and threw seven wild pitches.

Other than that, it was a game best used for padding statistics, as 12 Red Hawks had hits. The most notable contributions were those of Critelli (2 for 5, RBI), Di Lorenzo (2 for 4, 3RBI), Scavalla (2 for 3, 3RBI), Pallino (2 for 4), and junior catcher Ralph Yezza (2 for 3, 2RBI, 2R, 2RBIs).

MSC tops Trenton State for first time under Kubicka

Recent tear gives No. 6 team in Division III third seed in NJAC tourney

by Keith A. Idee

They say that the first time you do something is always the hardest.

For MSC head softball coach Anita Kubicka, that first time couldn't have come at a better time.

After all, the monkey is finally off MSC's back. During the first meeting between the teams last month, Kubicka and the Red Hawks were mercy-handed.

The win was significant for several reasons. Kubicka, in her third season at MSC, is a 1984 graduate of Trenton State and is a former Lions' player. Thus, the first win over her former coach and mentor is quite special.

But more importantly, the win gave MSC a confidence booster. If the Red Hawks are going to make a return trip to the Division III College World Series, the road will likely have to go through Trenton State,

"This was a moral victory for us," said Kubicka of the first victory in eight attempts. "It was also real nice to finally beat my former coach," she added.

After dropping the first game of the double-header 9-3, MSC responded with a hard-fought 2-1 win. Junior catcher Kristi Kuchinski delivered the game-winning hit as she drove in Jennifer Flinn in the bottom of the fifth inning. Freshman Denise Warnock picked up the victory for the Red Hawks.

The win also earned MSC some respect in the Division III national poll. This week the Red Hawks moved to No. 6, up four spots (No. 10) from last week.

Considering that MSC has won 10 of its last 11 games, it comes as no surprise that the Red Hawks received the third seed in the upcoming NJAC tournament.

MSC used the momentum gained in the Trenton win to sweep rival William Paterson this week in a double-header. Well, it was sort of a double-header.

The Red Hawks edged the Pioneers, 4-3 with a two-run seventh in the first game of the twin-bill. MSC won the game on a wild pitch by WPCs Dana Napoli's that allowed Kim Drager to score from third base. Warnock again picked up the win, this time in relief of starter Michelle Serio.

In the second game, MSC got off to a hot start with a 3-0 lead. However, then came the rain. The inclement weather that included heavy rain and lightning forced the tail-end of the two-game set to be postponed.

The entire game was re-played yesterday afternoon at the Quarry Fields. Yet, William Paterson's luck did not change.
