Students participate in physical fitness seminars and activities at the weekend’s expos.

New Education Certificate Announced for Graduates

Deanna Ross
Assistant News Editor

The Department of Educational Foundations in the College of Humanities and Human Services is now offering a four-course graduate certificate program in Educational Assessment.

This program has been designed for current and aspiring educators, educational leaders and any individuals involved in educational assessment. The four informative courses provide applicable knowledge necessary for valid and critical assessment practices as well as skills which guide post-assessment informed instruction. Through their research, Dr. Helenrose Fives and Dr. Nicole Barnes discovered a major deficiency in the preparation of educators for proper classroom assessment practices. Prior to the initiation of the new program, the course requirements for teacher education included minimal instruction on assessment. Undergraduate Secondary Education majors are only required to take one-credit module on classroom assessment and at the master’s level they are only required to take a single three-credit course on this increasingly-relevant topic.

Photo courtesy of Mike Peters.

Spring Week: Come to Campus

Montclair State students celebrate warmer weather on campus.

Peter Shaver
Staff Writer

MSCU students perused Spring Week in large numbers, largely unaffected by the giant storm that persisted throughout the events on Monday. Spring Week, sponsored by the SGA and SLAM, began on Monday, April 20 during the final days of spring semester, but that did not interfere with the indoor activities for the course of the day. "We doubled in participation from last year’s events, so it’s great seeing how much we can reach out to the campus community," said Jared Lacombe, the Director of Programming for SLAM. "Spring Week is [held on the last half of the semester where SLAM executes two events every day for a week for the campus community]."

Photo courtesy of Cindy Meneghin.

Students prepare for a fun-filled weekend of activities and events to close out the spring semester.

Campus Greek Life: A Preparing for a fun-filled weekend of activities and events to close out the spring semester.

Greek Week: Annual Spring Week

Megan Spinelli
Staff Writer

A snow removal apparatus, an app for college students, a drink cooler, a reminder system and shoe covers are among the ideas student entrepreneurs are pitching at a May 6 competition in hopes of winning $50,000.

Jessica Weissberg, a senior Women and Gender Studies major, along with Ryan Allifito and Jacqueline Ruschick, make up the entrepreneurial group All-Star Tailgates. "We are tapping into a $5 billion market and hope to ultimately revolutionize tailgating," said Weissberg. All-Star Tailgates has already started doing this with their first product, The Programm, a cooler with a built-in portable and adjustable eight-foot long table that can be used for games such as beer pong, cornhole, as well as a table for food and drinks.

This past weekend, All-Star Tailgates participated in Pitches Get Noticed Nationally. A national competition in Indianapolis.

Photo courtesy of Cindy Meneghin.

Nevis, p. 2

Greek Week: Annual Spring Week

Megan Spinelli
Staff Writer

A snow removal apparatus, an app for college students, a drink cooler, a reminder system and shoe covers are among the ideas student entrepreneurs are pitching at a May 6 competition in hopes of winning $50,000.

Jessica Weissberg, a senior Women and Gender Studies major, along with Ryan Allifito and Jacqueline Ruschick, make up the entrepreneurial group All-Star Tailgates. "We are tapping into a $5 billion market and hope to ultimately revolutionize tailgating," said Weissberg. All-Star Tailgates has already started doing this with their first product, The Programm, a cooler with a built-in portable and adjustable eight-foot long table that can be used for games such as beer pong, cornhole, as well as a table for food and drinks.

This past weekend, All-Star Tailgates participated in Pitches Get Noticed Nationally. A national competition in Indianapolis.

All-Star Tailgates. "We are tapping into a $5 billion market and hope to ultimately revolutionize tailgating," said Weissberg. All-Star Tailgates has already started doing this with their first product, The Programm, a cooler with a built-in portable and adjustable eight-foot long table that can be used for games such as beer pong, cornhole, as well as a table for food and drinks.

This past weekend, All-Star Tailgates participated in Pitches Get Noticed Nationally. A national competition in Indianapolis.

Photo courtesy of Cindy Meneghin.

News, p. 2

Greek Week: Annual Year-End Celebration

Megan Spinelli
Staff Writer

A snow removal apparatus, an app for college students, a drink cooler, a reminder system and shoe covers are among the ideas student entrepreneurs are pitching at a May 6 competition in hopes of winning $50,000.

Jessica Weissberg, a senior Women and Gender Studies major, along with Ryan Allifito and Jacqueline Ruschick, make up the entrepreneurial group All-Star Tailgates. "We are tapping into a $5 billion market and hope to ultimately revolutionize tailgating," said Weissberg. All-Star Tailgates has already started doing this with their first product, The Programm, a cooler with a built-in portable and adjustable eight-foot long table that can be used for games such as beer pong, cornhole, as well as a table for food and drinks.

This past weekend, All-Star Tailgates participated in Pitches Get Noticed Nationally. A national competition in Indianapolis.

Photo courtesy of Cindy Meneghin.

News, p. 2

Greek Week: Annual Year-End Celebration

Megan Spinelli
Staff Writer

A snow removal apparatus, an app for college students, a drink cooler, a reminder system and shoe covers are among the ideas student entrepreneurs are pitching at a May 6 competition in hopes of winning $50,000.

Jessica Weissberg, a senior Women and Gender Studies major, along with Ryan Allifito and Jacqueline Ruschick, make up the entrepreneurial group All-Star Tailgates. "We are tapping into a $5 billion market and hope to ultimately revolutionize tailgating," said Weissberg. All-Star Tailgates has already started doing this with their first product, The Programm, a cooler with a built-in portable and adjustable eight-foot long table that can be used for games such as beer pong, cornhole, as well as a table for food and drinks.

This past weekend, All-Star Tailgates participated in Pitches Get Noticed Nationally. A national competition in Indianapolis.

Photo courtesy of Cindy Meneghin.

News, p. 2

Greek Week: Annual Year-End Celebration

Megan Spinelli
Staff Writer

A snow removal apparatus, an app for college students, a drink cooler, a reminder system and shoe covers are among the ideas student entrepreneurs are pitching at a May 6 competition in hopes of winning $50,000.

Jessica Weissberg, a senior Women and Gender Studies major, along with Ryan Allifito and Jacqueline Ruschick, make up the entrepreneurial group All-Star Tailgates. "We are tapping into a $5 billion market and hope to ultimately revolutionize tailgating," said Weissberg. All-Star Tailgates has already started doing this with their first product, The Programm, a cooler with a built-in portable and adjustable eight-foot long table that can be used for games such as beer pong, cornhole, as well as a table for food and drinks.

This past weekend, All-Star Tailgates participated in Pitches Get Noticed Nationally. A national competition in Indianapolis.

Photo courtesy of Cindy Meneghin.

News, p. 2

Greek Week: Annual Year-End Celebration

Megan Spinelli
Staff Writer

A snow removal apparatus, an app for college students, a drink cooler, a reminder system and shoe covers are among the ideas student entrepreneurs are pitching at a May 6 competition in hopes of winning $50,000.

Jessica Weissberg, a senior Women and Gender Studies major, along with Ryan Allifito and Jacqueline Ruschick, make up the entrepreneurial group All-Star Tailgates. "We are tapping into a $5 billion market and hope to ultimately revolutionize tailgating," said Weissberg. All-Star Tailgates has already started doing this with their first product, The Programm, a cooler with a built-in portable and adjustable eight-foot long table that can be used for games such as beer pong, cornhole, as well as a table for food and drinks.

This past weekend, All-Star Tailgates participated in Pitches Get Noticed Nationally. A national competition in Indianapolis.

Photo courtesy of Cindy Meneghin.
THE MONTCLARION

Student Center Annex, Room 113
Montclair, N.J. 07043

Editor-in-Chief: (973)-655-5230
Managing Editor: (973)-655-5282
Operations Manager: (973)-655-5237 / (267)-981-9909

The Montclarion is a publication of Montclair Publishing, Inc. published weekly, except during examinations, summer and winter sessions. The Montclarion is funded by student fees distributed by Montclair State University and incoming advertising revenue. The views expressed in the Opinion section, with the exception of the Main Editorial, do not necessarily reflect the views of The Montclarion.

The first issue of The Montclarion, then named The Pelican, was published on Nov. 28, 1928.

The Montclarion willingly corrects its factual errors. If you think there is mistake in a story, please call Editor-in-Chief Catherine e at ext. 5230.

OUR STAFF

Executive Board

Editor-in-Chief
Catherine Baxter
montclarionchief@gmail.com

Managing Editor
Monika Bujas
montclairionmanaging@gmail.com

Production Editor
Tiffany Saez
montclarionproduction@gmail.com

Assistants

News
Deanna Rosa
Entertainment
Samantha King
Opinion
Emily Rovner
Feature
Bridget Gonzalez
Sports
Jenna Bussiere
Copy
Zachary Case
Faculty

Faculty Advisor
Steve Johnson
johnsomaj@montclair.edu

Operations Manager
Don Spineti
montclarionsales@gmail.com

Writers and Contributors

Lindsay Curran, Dan Falkenheim, Alex Hand, Jessica Mahmood, Matt Monaco, Mike Panepinto, Victoria Rosas, Peter Shaver, Natalie Smyth, Megan Spinelli, Jacqueline Stiles, Michelle Strothers

Greek Week: Annual Year-End Celebration

The Greek community prepares for a week full of events.

Alison Facenda
Contributing Writer

Greek Week, a fun-filled week of events, activities and fun, is organized by the Greek community on campus, is quickly approaching.

This week for the Greeks will begin on April 27 and end on May 1 with Relay for Life. Emily Cordero, the advisor for the entire Greek community, has experienced several Greek weeks of her own as an alumna of Zeta Tau Alpha at Sacred Heart University. This prepared her for planning this year’s Greek Week alongside the assistant director of Greek Life and activities, Tiffany Stark.

“Steak is a sophomore and sister of Sigma Sigma Sigma and has worked closely with Conde to make the Greek community aware of the Greek Week success.” I meet with Emily every Monday morning to go over new tasks that need to be completed,” said Steak. “We also have spent numerous hours brainstorming ideas that can benefit this year’s Greek Week.”

Greek Week is an annual event that occurs in the spring semester and is open to anyone to come and watch the various events that take place. “It’s so close to the end of the year, so it’s a great opportunity for the Greeks to get together and socialize but also to have that healthy competition,” said Conde.

“It’s a privilege for Greeks to spend time with their brothers and sisters and the rest of the community.” -Emily Cordero, Greek Community Advisor

The week was planned according to previous events with this year’s Greek Week.

Friday, April 17

Relay for Life: In support of Relay for Life, Greek Life hosted a relay event on the Montclair campus. This event was open to all students and faculty. Greek Life members donated t-shirts and directed participants, as well as other Greek organizations. They encouraged everyone to participate instead of skipping the fun. “It’s essentially an end of the year hoorah - a great opportunity for the community to get together and socialize but also to have that healthy competition. It’s a privilege for Greeks to spend time with their brothers and sisters and the rest of the community.” -Emily Cordero, Greek Community Advisor

Saturday, April 18

Sinatra Hall: A student reported an incident of harassment. Tuesday, April 14

Schmitt Hall: A student reported an incident of theft. This case is under investigation.

Wednesday, April 15

Social Media Manager
Samantha Amminati

Thursday, April 16

Sinatra Hall: A student reported an incident of harassment from another student. At this time, the reporting student declined to pursue charges.

Friday, April 17

University Hall: A student reported an incident of criminal sexual contact. At this time, the reporting student declined to pursue charges.

Friday, April 17

Lot 60: Student Jonathan David 16, of New Jersey, was arrested and charged with disorderly conduct. This arrest is scheduled to appear in Little Falls Municipal court.

Saturday, April 18

The Village: A student reported an incident of criminal mischief. The case is under investigation.

Saturday, April 18

Sinatra Hall: Two students reported an incident of criminal mischief. This case is under investigation.

Pelican Police Report

Monday, April 13

Sammie Hall: A student reported an incident of theft. This case is under investigation.

Tuesday, April 14

Schmitt Hall: A student reported an incident of theft. This case is under investigation.

Wednesday, April 15

Drea Rjabicki, 19, of Totowa, NJ, was charged with arrest and charged with harassment for involvement in an incident that occurred on campus. This case is under investigation.

Wednesday, April 15

A student reported an incident of theft by deception while on campus. This case is under investigation.

Thursday, April 16
Blanton Hall: Two students reported an incident of harassment from a non-student party. At this time, the reporting party declined to pursue charges.

Thursday, April 16

Sinatra Hall: A student reported an incident of harassment from another student. At this time, the reporting student declined to pursue charges.

Friday, April 17

University Hall: A student reported an incident of criminal sexual contact. At this time, the reporting student declined to pursue charges.

Anyone who has information regarding these incidents is urged to call the police station at TIPS (8477). All calls are strictly confidential.
In addition to having such a broad spectrum of viewpoints from people who are actually in those in attendance could hope to learn philosophical insight into their own drives as well as paths of life; in other words, the reasons behind their choice of education and how it will influence their options in the future. More so than before, the idea of ‘self-reliance’ behind learning itself has made its way into the spotlight and will assert them as a real viable medium for improving the average collegiate lifestyle. "It's an especially important topic of discussion in today's society since more people than ever before are either self-employed or feeling obligated to prolong their education and take it to higher levels," said Larson.

Larson notes the success of similar events in the past, the Institute was able to turn the same amount of attendees as well as inquiring discussions and visits eagerly in anticipation of the event. Both of the previous iterations of this event have sparked wonderful discussions and brought people of different backgrounds together, said Larson. "Let's hope for the same outcome this year."

"Why Learn..." will be held on Tuesday, April 28, at 7 p.m. in Bahr Hall with Dinner Hall.

"I spent a little in the way of resources to help them understand," said Larson. "What it takes to be prepared and how to show off her idea."

A senior marketing major and her team is an all-in-one wing service business, created PicLow, an app for college students be used to put into their businesses and continue to grow as a team. Top attorneys editing their pitch deck, her team, Woda Rain Gear, an anthropology major who created Woda Shoe Covers, a stylish shoe cover is a perfect accessory to make snow and ice removal convenient and efficient. In the first ten minutes of her team forming, they discussed their favorite nuances about winter and what it takes to be prepared and how to show off her idea."

"I am constantly thinking about our product, how we are doing what we are not doing," said Larson. Besides preparing in class from six a.m. to six p.m., Land- ers’ team meets for at least three additional hours, researches in their spare time and walks around Larson’s to analyze their competition. "I am excited to see where all our hard work will take us," said Landers.

Banda, a full-time student and business major, created PicLow, an app for college students be used to put into their businesses and continue to grow as a team. Top attorneys editing their pitch deck, her team, Woda Rain Gear, an anthropology major who created Woda Shoe Covers, a stylish shoe cover is a perfect accessory to make snow and ice removal convenient and efficient. In the first ten minutes of her team forming, they discussed their favorite nuances about winter and what it takes to be prepared and how to show off her idea."

"I am constantly thinking about our product, how we are doing what we are not doing," said Larson. Besides preparing in class from six a.m. to six p.m., Land- ers’ team meets for at least three additional hours, researches in their spare time and walks around Larson’s to analyze their competition. "I am excited to see where all our hard work will take us," said Landers.

Banda, a full-time student and business major, created PicLow, an app for college students be used to put into their businesses and continue to grow as a team. Top attorneys editing their pitch deck, her team, Woda Rain Gear, an anthropology major who created Woda Shoe Covers, a stylish shoe cover is a perfect accessory to make snow and ice removal convenient and efficient. In the first ten minutes of her team forming, they discussed their favorite nuances about winter and what it takes to be prepared and how to show off her idea."

"I am constantly thinking about our product, how we are doing what we are not doing," said Larson. Besides preparing in class from six a.m. to six p.m., Land- ers’ team meets for at least three additional hours, researches in their spare time and walks around Larson’s to analyze their competition. "I am excited to see where all our hard work will take us," said Landers.

Banda, a full-time student and business major, created PicLow, an app for college students be used to put into their businesses and continue to grow as a team. Top attorneys editing their pitch deck, her team, Woda Rain Gear, an anthropology major who created Woda Shoe Covers, a stylish shoe cover is a perfect accessory to make snow and ice removal convenient and efficient. In the first ten minutes of her team forming, they discussed their favorite nuances about winter and what it takes to be prepared and how to show off her idea."

"I am constantly thinking about our product, how we are doing what we are not doing," said Larson. Besides preparing in class from six a.m. to six p.m., Land- ers’ team meets for at least three additional hours, researches in their spare time and walks around Larson’s to analyze their competition. "I am excited to see where all our hard work will take us," said Landers.
MASTER YOUR PROFESSION

Business
Master of Business Administration (MBA)

Education
Master of Arts in Education: Educational Leadership
Master of Arts in Education: Instructional Leadership
Master of Arts in Special Education
Master of Education in Educational Practice
Master of Education in Reading with a NJ Reading Specialist Certification

Leadership & Public Administration
Master of Arts in Leadership & Public Administration

Health Administration
Master of Health Administration (MHA)

Counseling
Master of Arts in Counseling
Master of Arts in Clinical Counseling
Master of Arts in School Counseling

*Licensures and certifications also available

Open House
Saturday, April 25th
9AM • Hackettstown

CentenaryCollege.edu/Graduate
Spring Styles

Jessica Mahmoud
Staff Writer

Shirt: Brandy Melville
Shorts: thrifted
Belt: H&M
Tights: Forever 21
Boots: Doc Martens

Tights and shorts will forever be the epitome of any style. The look is versatile. Since it can still be a little chilly as we head into spring, thin tights are perfect. They come in so many different patterns and colors that are great to pair with fun crop tops and maybe a light cardigan. Finish the look with your favorite combat boots.

Top: Pacsun
Pants: Urban Outfitters
Shoes: Arizona Birkenstocks
Sunglasses: American Eagle

Fun, printed pants like these are often seem as bohemian for their flowy, goddess-like appearance. They are often high-waisted and paired with crop tops. They’re perfect for staying cool as the temperatures rise. If you pair them with a short sleeve top, try opting for a long, flowing cardigan to layer over to enhance the Bohemian style. Finish the look off with sandals and sunglasses.

Top, skirt and belt: Francesca’s
Shoes and hat: Target

Another style to try out is vintage. Try checking out your parents’ or grandparents’ old things or venture out to a thrift store for some one-of-a-kind pieces. These ones, like a hat and skirt, give a vintage look, especially with the belt added. Other ideas could be old heels, unique jackets and fun headbands.

Top, skirt and belt: Francesca’s
Shoes and hat: Target

With the sun out and the temperatures rising, it’s becoming okay to skip the tights and just throw on a dress. Bright colors like this shade of orange are beautiful for this time of year. If it is a little chilly, instead of covering your legs in tights, opt for knee-high boots and a denim jacket. The boots will add even more style to your look and demin jackets are always trendy.

Dress: Forever 21
Jacket: Mom’s
Sock: The Paper Store
Boots: DSW
Watch: Charming Charlie
Jewelry: Alex and Ani
Backpack: Amazon

Every style can incorporate knee-high socks, but this look would probably be more indie than anything else. The socks and sandals are unique and definitely give the look originality. Opting for colored thigh-highs to match a fun dress is the perfect way to stay warm along with adding a fashionable touch. If needed, finish the look off with a light jacket.

Dress: thrifted
Jacket: Forever 21
Sock: Sockdreams.com
Shoes: DSW
Sunglasses: Uniqlo

I would describe “classic” as fun pieces that were just meant to go together. While it’s not always as unique as the others, it’s definitely a look to try out once in a while. An example would be a patterned piece, like this floral skirt paired with more neutrals like a white top. Classic looks definitely make you look more put together while still looking fashionable and trendy as we head into the summer.
Spotlight: Jacqueline Mroz

She thought she wanted to work for magazines, but after writing for her college newspaper, she changed her mind. “I really liked it,” said Mroz. “I got the bug and went into newspaper writing.” She began her career in 1989, writing at a weekly paper in New Jersey and soon moved to Boston to work for a newspaper there.

About a year later, her story began to take some adventurous turns. After working in Boston, Mroz decided she wanted to live abroad. “I just quit my job, got a waitressing job, saved some money and moved to Argentina,” she said.

Like family, being from Argentina, made it possible for her to live with some family friends while working at an English newspaper down there. While in Argentina, Mroz was able to brush up on her Spanish as well as meet her husband. The couple then moved to London in 1992 when her husband was offered a job there. Mroz began working for the BBC World Service as a radio journalist. “Radio was fun,” she said. “It was interesting because it was so different.”

Today, Mroz is a freelance writer for the New York Times as well as numerous other publications. As a freelance writer poses a lot of challenges when it comes to getting stories published and staying on top of editors to get back to her, it also gives her a lot of freedom. This is essential to her since she has to balance her busy career while also raising her three sons.

Professor Mroz is an excellent role model for students that want to get into the field of journalism. At a time people are saying journalism is a dying field, she is a true inspiration to them. She especially enjoys writing about writers and has done profile stories on Mary Higgins Clark and Harlan Coben. “I just think people are so interesting.”

She enjoys writing about writers and has done profile stories on Mary Higgins Clark and Harlan Coben. “I just think people are so interesting.”

The Montclarion

“I America, the President reigns for four years, but Journalism governs forever.” – Oscar Wilde

WRITERS WANTED FOR:

NEWS

FEATURE ENTERTAINMENT OPINION SPORTS

Come Help Us Out!

Room 113 Student Center Annex
In Upper Montclair, NJ 07043

Phone 973.655.5230
Fax 973.655.7804
Email Montclarionchief@gmail.com

Photo courtesy of montclair.edu

Lindsay Curran
Contributing Writer

Jacqueline Mroz is an adjunct professor here at Montclair State who is bringing realism journalism careers into the classroom. She has worked with everything from newspaper to radio and is even planning on writing a book. Mroz is a prime example of why adjuncts and their experience are so valuable to students, especially as some of us prepare to go out into the “real world.”

Mroz always liked writing when she was in high school and she was a big reader, so she knew early on that she wanted to do something with writing.

She wrote for the New Jersey Monthly magazine. In addition, she teaches writing for her college newspaper down there. While in Argentina, Mroz was able to brush up on her Spanish as well as meet her husband. The couple then moved to London in 1992 when her husband was offered a job there. Mroz began working for the BBC World Service as a radio journalist. “Radio was fun,” she said. “It was interesting because it was so different.”

Today, Mroz is a freelance writer for the New York Times as well as numerous other publications. As a freelance writer poses a lot of challenges when it comes to getting stories published and staying on top of editors to get back to her, it also gives her a lot of freedom. This is essential to her since she has to balance her busy career while also raising her three sons.

Professor Mroz is an excellent role model for students that want to get into the field of journalism. At a time people are saying journalism is a dying field, she is a true inspiration to them. She especially enjoys writing about writers and has done profile stories on Mary Higgins Clark and Harlan Coben. “I just think people are so interesting.”

She enjoys writing about writers and has done profile stories on Mary Higgins Clark and Harlan Coben. “I just think people are so interesting.”

PASSAIC COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Meet with Faculty and Students about Public Health Degrees and Careers

WHERE SUCCESS STARTS

Visiting Students:

Earn Credits While You’re Home This Summer.

Passaic County Community College offers extensive summer classes on campus and online, including business, math, writing, computers, and much more.

Affordable tuition

Passaic County residents: $104.50/credit*

Oblong-County residents: $125.50/credit*

Day, evening, weekend, and online classes

INFO: 973.684.6608

For more information and to RSVP call 973.917.3210 or email barrettsp@pccnj.edu

sph.rutgers.edu • facebook.com/RutgersSPH • @RutgersSPH

Rutgers School of Public Health

One school, three campuses, eight departments—numerous opportunities to meet your education goals.

Come To A

SPRING 2015 OPEN HOUSE

April 25, 2015

11:00am-2:00pm

At Rutgers School of Dental Medicine
Delta Dental Education Conf. Center
12th Avenue
Newark, NJ 07101 (Free Parking)

Take Your Passion and Enthusiasm for Protecting and Improving the Lives and Well-Being of Communities to the Next Level

Make a Difference With a Graduate Degree or Certificate in Public Health

For more information and to RSVP call 973.917.3210 or email barrettsp@pccnj.edu

sph.rutgers.edu • facebook.com/RutgersSPH • @RutgersSPH

Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey
UNIVCENTRE.COM

LOCK IN YOUR EARLY BIRD RATES AS LOW AS $714

SAVE $200 WITH ZERO DEPOSIT THROUGH 4/30

REFER A FRIEND TO SIGN A LEASE & YOU BOTH GET $50

APPLY TODAY FOR FALL 2015

GREAT LOCATION—WALK TO CLASS • PRIVATE BEDROOMS & BATHROOMS AVAILABLE • FULLY FURNISHED

UPDATED COMPUTER CENTER WITH ARCHITECTURAL PLOTTER • FITNESS CENTER • THEATER ROOM

ALL UTILITIES INCLUDED (ELECTRICITY UP TO A MONTHLY CAP) • INDIVIDUAL LEASES • ROOMMATE MATCHING AVAILABLE

BRING IN NEWSPAPER AD FOR A TOUR & RECEIVE A $50 GIFT CARD
There is finally an app that allows users to make quick and easy money. Developed in 2009, Shopkick is designed around advertising participating stores and their products and rewarding its users with free gift cards to stores with the app. With more than 11 million users, Shopkick is the most used shopping app. Earning rewards is as easy as walking into any store partnered with Shopkick; partnered stores include Target, Macy’s, Best Buy, American Eagle, Aerie and Sports Authority, among others.

Each time a user walks into a participating store and her Shopkick app is open, she automatically earns “kicks,” the Shopkick term for points. As a user generates more kicks, the kicks add up towards redeeming a gift card of her choice. Gift cards are available from all participating stores. Shopkick does not require users to connect their credit card to their account, which is a secure indication that this app is not a scam. While connecting a credit card is not required, there is an option to connect, which allows users to earn kicks for each dollar spent in participating stores.

At some stores, such as Walmart and Target, there is also an option to earn kicks by scanning featured items. Each week, the store chooses to advertise new products through Shopkick. All the Shopkick user has to do is find the promoted item, scan its bar code and answer a five-question survey. To make an account, it is as easy as downloading the app to your smartphone or tablet and connecting it to your Facebook account. Once connected, users are encouraged to connect with friends. Users earn 500 kicks for each friend they suggest the app to.

Earning money has never been so easy thanks to Shopkick. Kicks add up rather quickly for committed users and there is no limit to the amount of gift cards to redeem.

WANT TO BE A FEATURE WRITER?
The Montclarion Feature section includes a variety of topics from fashion trends of the season to health and fitness to money-saving tips.

Contact MontclarionFeature@gmail.com for more information.

Shopkick does not require users to connect their credit card to their account, which is a secure indication that this app is not a scam. While connecting a credit card is not required, there is an option to connect, which allows users to earn kicks for each dollar spent in participating stores.

At some stores, such as Walmart and Target, there is also an option to earn kicks by scanning featured items. Each week, the store chooses to advertise new products through Shopkick. All the Shopkick user has to do is find the promoted item, scan its bar code and answer a five-question survey.

To make an account, it is as easy as downloading the app to your smartphone or tablet and connecting it to your Facebook account. Once connected, users are encouraged to connect with friends. Users earn 500 kicks for each friend they suggest the app to.

Earning money has never been so easy thanks to Shopkick. Kicks add up rather quickly for committed users and there is no limit to the amount of gift cards to redeem.

WANT TO BE A FEATURE WRITER?
The Montclarion Feature section includes a variety of topics from fashion trends of the season to health and fitness to money-saving tips.

Contact MontclarionFeature@gmail.com for more information.

Shopkick does not require users to connect their credit card to their account, which is a secure indication that this app is not a scam. While connecting a credit card is not required, there is an option to connect, which allows users to earn kicks for each dollar spent in participating stores.

At some stores, such as Walmart and Target, there is also an option to earn kicks by scanning featured items. Each week, the store chooses to advertise new products through Shopkick. All the Shopkick user has to do is find the promoted item, scan its bar code and answer a five-question survey.

To make an account, it is as easy as downloading the app to your smartphone or tablet and connecting it to your Facebook account. Once connected, users are encouraged to connect with friends. Users earn 500 kicks for each friend they suggest the app to.

Earning money has never been so easy thanks to Shopkick. Kicks add up rather quickly for committed users and there is no limit to the amount of gift cards to redeem.

WANT TO BE A FEATURE WRITER?
The Montclarion Feature section includes a variety of topics from fashion trends of the season to health and fitness to money-saving tips.

Contact MontclarionFeature@gmail.com for more information.

Shopkick does not require users to connect their credit card to their account, which is a secure indication that this app is not a scam. While connecting a credit card is not required, there is an option to connect, which allows users to earn kicks for each dollar spent in participating stores.

At some stores, such as Walmart and Target, there is also an option to earn kicks by scanning featured items. Each week, the store chooses to advertise new products through Shopkick. All the Shopkick user has to do is find the promoted item, scan its bar code and answer a five-question survey.

To make an account, it is as easy as downloading the app to your smartphone or tablet and connecting it to your Facebook account. Once connected, users are encouraged to connect with friends. Users earn 500 kicks for each friend they suggest the app to.

Earning money has never been so easy thanks to Shopkick. Kicks add up rather quickly for committed users and there is no limit to the amount of gift cards to redeem.
Help Wanted

Posible. Email ecrarkin@hotmail.com - Must have a car, be responsive and responsible. 7088 or email Mlisdona@yahoo.com. For more info Email MontclairAdSales@gmail.com or call Don Spielvogel 973-655-5237 or 215-860-5533.

Livingston family seeks P/T nanny for two kids ages 4 & 2. Mon-Fri, 4:00-7:30 PM. Pick-up from school, homework help & dinner prep. Email betheanny@hotmail.com.

Babysitter wanted 24-32 hours a week to care for a 3 year old girl and 6 year old boy in Montclair, NJ. All About Cleaning New Jersey is looking for a student to clean every Thursday 9 AM – 4 PM or until job is completed up until 5:00 PM. $10.00 / hr. Must be able to drive to West Caldwell, need to pass a background check, have a positive attitude, be in good health & be able to move furniture on occasion. Call Jasmine 908-264-3884.

If you are a native speaker of American English and have 30 minutes to spare, contact us at mosa.pros@gmail.com to sign up for a linguistic experiment. You will be recorded, reading English sentences. We pay cash! $100 / half hour. Please note that this study is not eligible for adults. Current students of Dr. Howell are not eligible. The study title is “Acoustics of Linguistic Prominence” (IRB #001470).

Established local Pet Care Service is seeking a responsible & honest animal lover. Vacation week/daycare, may also include some weekend, holidays & evenings. Must have reliable car: Good source of supplemental income. Email goodpets4u@gmail.com or call Dr. Howell 973-452-2033 9 AM - 1 PM Mon. - Fri.

All About Cleaning New Jersey is looking for a student to clean every Thursday 9 AM – 4 PM or until job is completed up until 5:00 PM. $10.00 / hr. Must be able to drive to West Caldwell, need to pass a background check, have a positive attitude, be in good health & be able to move furniture on occasion. Call Jasmine 908-264-3884.

Babysitter wanted 24-32 hours a week to care for a 3 year old girl and 6 year old boy in Montclair, NJ. All About Cleaning New Jersey is looking for a student to clean every Thursday 9 AM – 4 PM or until job is completed up until 5:00 PM. $10.00 / hr. Must be able to drive to West Caldwell, need to pass a background check, have a positive attitude, be in good health & be able to move furniture on occasion. Call Jasmine 908-264-3884.

If you are a native speaker of American English and have 30 minutes to spare, contact us at mosa.pros@gmail.com to sign up for a linguistic experiment. You will be recorded, reading English sentences. We pay cash! $100 / half hour. Please note that this study is not eligible for adults. Current students of Dr. Howell are not eligible. The study title is “Acoustics of Linguistic Prominence” (IRB #001470).

Established local Pet Care Service is seeking a responsible & honest animal lover. Vacation week/daycare, may also include some weekend, holidays & evenings. Must have reliable car: Good source of supplemental income. Email goodpets4u@gmail.com or call Dr. Howell 973-452-2033 9 AM - 1 PM Mon. - Fri.

All About Cleaning New Jersey is looking for a student to clean every Thursday 9 AM – 4 PM or until job is completed up until 5:00 PM. $10.00 / hr. Must be able to drive to West Caldwell, need to pass a background check, have a positive attitude, be in good health & be able to move furniture on occasion. Call Jasmine 908-264-3884.

If you are a native speaker of American English and have 30 minutes to spare, contact us at mosa.pros@gmail.com to sign up for a linguistic experiment. You will be recorded, reading English sentences. We pay cash! $100 / half hour. Please note that this study is not eligible for adults. Current students of Dr. Howell are not eligible. The study title is “Acoustics of Linguistic Prominence” (IRB #001470).

Established local Pet Care Service is seeking a responsible & honest animal lover. Vacation week/daycare, may also include some weekend, holidays & evenings. Must have reliable car: Good source of supplemental income. Email goodpets4u@gmail.com or call Dr. Howell 973-452-2033 9 AM - 1 PM Mon. - Fri.

All About Cleaning New Jersey is looking for a student to clean every Thursday 9 AM – 4 PM or until job is completed up until 5:00 PM. $10.00 / hr. Must be able to drive to West Caldwell, need to pass a background check, have a positive attitude, be in good health & be able to move furniture on occasion. Call Jasmine 908-264-3884.

If you are a native speaker of American English and have 30 minutes to spare, contact us at mosa.pros@gmail.com to sign up for a linguistic experiment. You will be recorded, reading English sentences. We pay cash! $100 / half hour. Please note that this study is not eligible for adults. Current students of Dr. Howell are not eligible. The study title is “Acoustics of Linguistic Prominence” (IRB #001470).

Established local Pet Care Service is seeking a responsible & honest animal lover. Vacation week/daycare, may also include some weekend, holidays & evenings. Must have reliable car: Good source of supplemental income. Email goodpets4u@gmail.com or call Dr. Howell 973-452-2033 9 AM - 1 PM Mon. - Fri.

All About Cleaning New Jersey is looking for a student to clean every Thursday 9 AM – 4 PM or until job is completed up until 5:00 PM. $10.00 / hr. Must be able to drive to West Caldwell, need to pass a background check, have a positive attitude, be in good health & be able to move furniture on occasion. Call Jasmine 908-264-3884.

If you are a native speaker of American English and have 30 minutes to spare, contact us at mosa.pros@gmail.com to sign up for a linguistic experiment. You will be recorded, reading English sentences. We pay cash! $100 / half hour. Please note that this study is not eligible for adults. Current students of Dr. Howell are not eligible. The study title is “Acoustics of Linguistic Prominence” (IRB #001470).
PLEASE JOIN US!

Guantánamo Diary Reading and Conversation

The first and only diary by a still-imprisoned Guantánamo Bay detainee, Mohamedou Ould Slahi

Panel Moderator: Leonard Lopate – WNYC
Readers include: Wallace Shawn, Joshua Ferris, Francine Prose, and Elissa Schappell

Sponsored by School of Communication & Media and PEN American Center

7:30PM – 9:00PM

Limited Seating
Register by contacting 973.655.3601, by Thursday, April 23
High school is not a pleasant time. It was filled with terrible fashion choices, hateful comments from classmates and awkward moments of self-discovery. Although everyone believes their high school experience was worse than the next, it is the McGuffey High School students who have truly had the worst high school experience.

On April 15, McGuffey High School in Clayville, Pa., was a safe and supportive educational institution. The school’s Gay-Straight Alliance organized a “Day of Silence,” a day which brings much needed attention to the bullying and harassment that LGBTQ textbooks, the Day of Silence provides an opportunity for them to stand in solidarity. It is a day of support and love for all those who struggle in high school.

Overnight, McGuffey High School transformed from a supportive community into a place of harassment and hate. When as many as 150 students participated in an anti-gay day in response to the Day of Silence, “Students who took part in the event were flannel shirts and wrote “anti-gay” on the palms of their hands. As if their response to the Day of Silence was not offensive enough, they slapped biblical verses on the lockers of members of the LGBTQ community as well as their supporters. Unfortunately, that was not all that occurred. Some of the students even got into physical altercations and participants in the anti-gay day had allegedly created a lynching list.

National news media quickly took an interest in the events that occurred at the McGuffey High School for the obvious reason; it was repulsive. The school’s superintendent, Eric Kolat, said that the school “ensures[ ] that all children can grow and learn in a safe, supportive environment free from discrimination.” Yet, that is not what occurred on April 16 at McGuffey High School. Students at the high school did not feel like they could grow. They did not feel like they could learn. They did not feel safe. They did not feel supported.

Students were discriminated against. They were personally targeted for either supporting or being part of the LGBTQ community. The anti-gay day was a planned attack on the LGBTQ community and its supporters that should never have occurred. Although students need to be able to share their ideas and beliefs with the rest of the student body, it should have never been done in this manner. The Day of Silence was a peaceful event and did not force itself onto people who did not agree with it. The event focused on promoting an understanding among students. The anti-gay day was forced onto students who did not wish to engage in an event where Bible verses were placed onto people’s lockers. Also, students were harassed and bullied by the message of the event. This anti-gay day advocated an agenda of hate toward those who make up the LGBTQ community. Instead of encouraging the school to be a safe space for all, students were physically beaten due to their beliefs.

Students not only deserve to be in school where they feel they can grow and learn in a supportive environment without discrimination, but they must be in a school that provides such an environment.

High school is a hard enough time for teens. They need to be in an atmosphere that lets them be who they are.
Societal Norms Create Gender Divide

Gender norms discourage women from achieving their full potential

If Christie is looking to re-form social security and reign back entitlements, then he is missing the point entirely. On his first point, raising the retirement age is a reason to spend less, not to simply cut spending. This idea must be considered seriously, as it does cut spending; however, it does almost nothing to reduce the number of people entering into the workforce.

The average age of people that listened to the information presented, or those who make over $20,000 a year, is about 37. This is due to the fact that many people meticulously looking at the information failed to scrutinize. Is this because we trust people too much with providing us with truthful information? Is this truly a fault of the reporters? Are people too lazy to figure things out on their own? Or is this simply a matter of their desire for entertainment?

We live lives that are surrounded by normality and predictability, which brings a sense of disinterest and complacency to them. From day to day we see the same people, eat similar foods and even take the same paths to work. But the truth is that human interest and curiosity are reignited when we see the same people, eat similar foods and even take the same paths to work. But the truth is that human interest and curiosity is reawakened by normality and predictability.

This excitement contributes to the public overemphasizing aspects that make a piece’s credibility lack. Although the report was held accountable for not reaching out to potential suspects or reaching out to the supposed victim “Jackie” from the public eye, it is important to listen to the music while it is still popular and play the song as often as possible.

When information is skewed or sensationalized, people get upset due to the falseness of the information presented, yet many of those same people, for instance, are unaware that their minds are being conditioned by that information. When information is skewed or sensationalized, people get upset due to the falseness of the information presented, yet many of those same people, for instance, are unaware that their minds are being conditioned by that information. When information is skewed or sensationalized, people get upset due to the falseness of the information presented, yet many of those same people, for instance, are unaware that their minds are being conditioned by that information. When information is skewed or sensationalized, people get upset due to the falseness of the information presented, yet many of those same people, for instance, are unaware that their minds are being conditioned by that information.
WHERE SUMMER IS YOUR CHANCE TO ADVANCE

REGISTER NOW FOR SUMMER SESSIONS

- May, June, July, and August sessions
- More than 800 courses
- On campus and online
- Undergraduate and graduate

View the course schedule online

Montclair State University montclair.edu/summer
Since 2008, Marvel Studios has shown time and again that putting great stories on a risky project can deliver in spades. With films like Iron Man, Thor and Captain America: The First Avenger, Marvel Studios showed that B-level superheroes could produce critically and commercially successful movies as long as the movies had a sense of fun and loyalty to their source material.

With The Avengers, many people doubted that a multi superhero crossover movie would be a success, with some even feeling it would be downright cataclysmic for all involved. However, it went on to become one of the most critically acclaimed films of 2012, as well as one of the highest grossing movies of all time.

The final Aryan of Marvel Studios were announced in late 2013 that they had made a deal with Netflix. The deal was just released on Netflix last week. Daredevil is simply fantastic and is the most well-received of the group.

The plan for these four television series was to create a spin-off Netflix series called The Defenders, which would essentially be a TV version of The Avengers.

The first entry in the ambitious new project, Daredevil, was just released on Netflix last week. Daredevil is, by far, the lead crime-fighting vigilante to help free New York from the corruption that has all but consumed it.

Lawyer by day, masked avenger by night, his allies stem from both of his identities, although most of them are unknown that Murdock is the man who is referred to as “The Devil From Hell’s Kitchen.” As a lawyer, he is aided by his long-time friend and law partner Foggy Nelson (Elden Henson) and Karen Page (Deborah Ann Woll), a young woman who joins the Murdock and Nelson’s firm after they take up her case in the pilot episode.

When under the mask, Murdock finds help through a struggling nurse named Clair Temple (Rosario Dawson) and an investigative journalist for the New York Bulletin named Ben Urich (Vincent D’Onofrio), who is the main comic book fans know better by the name of Kingpin. The struggles and development of Murdock and Fisk interweave throughout the season and by season’s end, the pieces are put in place that make the two bitter enemies battling for the soul of Hell’s Kitchen.

The biggest strength of Daredevil is its excellent storytelling and character development that is on display throughout all 13 episodes of this first season. This is easily the darkest and most violent piece of the Marvel Universe to date, feeling far more in the tone of something like Batman Begins than The Avengers.

In spite of this though, the show is a powerful parable of brooding, as it still manages to maintain the sense of fun and humor that has helped make all of the Marvel movies accessible and successful. Daredevil exists in an already established Marvel Universe, but the show puts that universe in the far background in order to make this series capable of standing on its own rather than just feeling like a lesser for future outings with other Marvel characters. What the show does instead is take its time to not only establish its own environment, but properly develop and flesh out all of our protagonists as well as the primary antagonist.

As a result, the protagonists are relatable and are easy to get emotionally invested in, while Fisk is a sadistic but complex and three dimensional villain. The twists and turns in the narrative keep things from getting mundane and the show properly builds the overarching storyline of the season to a very tense and very satisfying conclusion.

The cast all across the board is uniformly excellent, with the stand-outs being Cox and D’Onofrio. Nobody is hampering it up or chewing the scenery; instead, all the actors bring great gravitas and pathos to their characters.

The direction is also stellar, managing to ground this superhero in a manner that makes this feel more like a crime drama than it does a Marvel comic book adventure. All of the action sequences are clearly shot and coherently edited so that you can properly see all of the well-choreographed moments, especially one incredible hallway fight sequence that was done in one shot. There are also some very subtle nods to the Marvel universe that will make the die-hard fans happy but not distract or confuse the casual viewer.

Simply put, Daredevil is impressive television on both a technical and storytelling level that manages to blend drama and emotion with thrilling action. This is a great season of television that makes you want the few months of next season that seems in the far background in order to make this series capable of standing on its own rather than just feeling like a lesser for future outings with other Marvel characters. What the show does instead is take its time to not only establish its own environment, but properly develop and flesh out all of our protagonists as well as the primary antagonist.

As a result, the protagonists are relatable and are easy to get emotionally invested in, while Fisk is a sadistic but complex and three dimensional villain. The twists and turns in the narrative keep things from getting mundane and the show properly builds the overarching storyline of the season to a very tense and very satisfying conclusion.

The cast all across the board is uniformly excellent, with the stand-outs being Cox and D’Onofrio. Nobody is hampering it up or chewing the scenery; instead, all the actors bring great gravitas and pathos to their characters.

The direction is also stellar, managing to ground this superhero in a manner that makes this feel more like a crime drama than it does a Marvel comic book adventure. All of the action sequences are clearly shot and coherently edited so that you can properly see all of the well-choreographed moments, especially one incredible hallway fight sequence that was done in one shot. There are also some very subtle nods to the Marvel universe that will make the die-hard fans happy but not distract or confuse the casual viewer.

Simply put, Daredevil is impressive television on both a technical and storytelling level that manages to blend drama and emotion with thrilling action. This is a great season of television that makes you want the few months of next season that seems in the far background in order to make this series capable of standing on its own rather than just feeling like a lesser for future outings with other Marvel characters. What the show does instead is take its time to not only establish its own environment, but properly develop and flesh out all of our protagonists as well as the primary antagonist.

As a result, the protagonists are relatable and are easy to get emotionally invested in, while Fisk is a sadistic but complex and three dimensional villain. The twists and turns in the narrative keep things from getting mundane and the show properly builds the overarching storyline of the season to a very tense and very satisfying conclusion.

The cast all across the board is uniformly excellent, with the stand-outs being Cox and D’Onofrio. Nobody is hampering it up or chewing the scenery; instead, all the actors bring great gravitas and pathos to their characters.

The direction is also stellar, managing to ground this superhero in a manner that makes this feel more like a crime drama than it does a Marvel comic book adventure. All of the action sequences are clearly shot and coherently edited so that you can properly see all of the well-choreographed moments, especially one incredible hallway fight sequence that was done in one shot. There are also some very subtle nods to the Marvel universe that will make the die-hard fans happy but not distract or confuse the casual viewer.

Simply put, Daredevil is impressive television on both a technical and storytelling level that manages to blend drama and emotion with thrilling action. This is a great season of television that makes you want the few months of next season that seems in the far background in order to make this series capable of standing on its own rather than just feeling like a lesser for future outings with other Marvel characters. What the show does instead is take its time to not only establish its own environment, but properly develop and flesh out all of our protagonists as well as the primary antagonist.

As a result, the protagonists are relatable and are easy to get emotionally invested in, while Fisk is a sadistic but complex and three dimensional villain. The twists and turns in the narrative keep things from getting mundane and the show properly builds the overarching storyline of the season to a very tense and very satisfying conclusion.
Hair
Nudity and shock tactics
Victoria Rosas
Contributing Writer

It’s the late 1960s and the Vietnam War has ignited a rebellion from a tribe of flowing-haired hippies living in New York City. As they come into their own selves, emotionally, physically and mentally, there is one big question: do we fight with them or do we fight back? This is the story of the incredibly popular and controversial rock musical Hair.

The Department of Theatre and Dance is now taking on this show, opening April 29. As they rehearse in Memorial Auditorium, there is a visible electricity on each cast member’s face and a desire to give it their all. Beautiful harmonies fill the room from wall to wall as they sing songs of sorrow that burst into gospel-ensemble, getting the chance to create ourselves and, as a tribe, we are one.

This spirit of unity is magnetic even in rehearsal as the cast jokes with one another during breaks and wishes each other a good night on their way out as the evening comes to a close. Perhaps this love is a reminder that despite living in different times, we share similarities. The job and journey aren’t over and we still have issues with racial inequalities of the show are that we’re still fighting the same fights. The feelings of unrest and protest by people of that time. We still have issues with racial inequality that isn’t right with the world.

As they rehearse in Memorial Auditorium, there is a visible electricity on each cast member’s face and a desire to give it their all. Beautiful harmonies fill the room from wall to wall as they sing songs of sorrow that burst into gospel-ensemble, getting the chance to create ourselves and, as a tribe, we are one.

This spirit of unity is magnetic even in rehearsal as the cast jokes with one another during breaks and wishes each other a good night on their way out as the evening comes to a close. Perhaps this love is a reminder that despite living in different times, we share similarities. The job and journey aren’t over and we still have issues with racial inequalities of the show are that we’re still fighting the same fights. The feelings of unrest and protest by people of that time. We still have issues with racial inequality that isn’t right with the world.

It’s the late 1960s and the Vietnam War has ignited a rebellion from a tribe of flowing-haired hippies living in New York City. As they come into their own selves, emotionally, physically and mentally, there is one big question: do we fight with them or do we fight back? This is the story of the incredibly popular and controversial rock musical Hair.

The Department of Theatre and Dance is now taking on this show, opening April 29. As they rehearse in Memorial Auditorium, there is a visible electricity on each cast member’s face and a desire to give it their all. Beautiful harmonies fill the room from wall to wall as they sing songs of sorrow that burst into gospel-ensemble, getting the chance to create ourselves and, as a tribe, we are one.

This spirit of unity is magnetic even in rehearsal as the cast jokes with one another during breaks and wishes each other a good night on their way out as the evening comes to a close. Perhaps this love is a reminder that despite living in different times, we share similarities. The job and journey aren’t over and we still have issues with racial inequalities of the show are that we’re still fighting the same fights. The feelings of unrest and protest by people of that time. We still have issues with racial inequality that isn’t right with the world.

It’s the late 1960s and the Vietnam War has ignited a rebellion from a tribe of flowing-haired hippies living in New York City. As they come into their own selves, emotionally, physically and mentally, there is one big question: do we fight with them or do we fight back? This is the story of the incredibly popular and controversial rock musical Hair.

The Department of Theatre and Dance is now taking on this show, opening April 29. As they rehearse in Memorial Auditorium, there is a visible electricity on each cast member’s face and a desire to give it their all. Beautiful harmonies fill the room from wall to wall as they sing songs of sorrow that burst into gospel-ensemble, getting the chance to create ourselves and, as a tribe, we are one.

This spirit of unity is magnetic even in rehearsal as the cast jokes with one another during breaks and wishes each other a good night on their way out as the evening comes to a close. Perhaps this love is a reminder that despite living in different times, we share similarities. The job and journey aren’t over and we still have issues with racial inequalities of the show are that we’re still fighting the same fights. The feelings of unrest and protest by people of that time. We still have issues with racial inequality that isn’t right with the world.

It’s the late 1960s and the Vietnam War has ignited a rebellion from a tribe of flowing-haired hippies living in New York City. As they come into their own selves, emotionally, physically and mentally, there is one big question: do we fight with them or do we fight back? This is the story of the incredibly popular and controversial rock musical Hair.

The Department of Theatre and Dance is now taking on this show, opening April 29. As they rehearse in Memorial Auditorium, there is a visible electricity on each cast member’s face and a desire to give it their all. Beautiful harmonies fill the room from wall to wall as they sing songs of sorrow that burst into gospel-ensemble, getting the chance to create ourselves and, as a tribe, we are one.

This spirit of unity is magnetic even in rehearsal as the cast jokes with one another during breaks and wishes each other a good night on their way out as the evening comes to a close. Perhaps this love is a reminder that despite living in different times, we share similarities. The job and journey aren’t over and we still have issues with racial inequalities of the show are that we’re still fighting the same fights. The feelings of unrest and protest by people of that time. We still have issues with racial inequality that isn’t right with the world.
Peak Performances

John J. Cali School of Music

Spring Music Weekend!

Friday, April 24 @ 7:30 p.m.
MSU Wind Symphony and MSU Symphonic Band
Our Thing
Thomas McCauley, conductor

Saturday, April 25 @ 8:00 p.m.
MSU Singers and MSU Chorale
From Darkness - Light
Heather J. Buchanan, conductor

Sunday, April 26 @ 3:00 p.m.
MSU Jazz Ensemble
Jeffrey Kunkel, director

All Seats $15
No charge for undergraduates with valid MSU ID at Kasser Box Office

973-655-5112 | peakperfs.org
Alexander Kasser Theater
Convenient parking in the Red Hawk Deck

Photo provided by Montclair State University/Mike Peters
Despite their 2-1 loss to D.C. United on Nov. 8, the New York Red Bulls have advanced to the Eastern Conference Finals.

Midfielder Péguy Luyindula netted the only Red Bulls’ goal. Luyindula, who scored once in the Red Bulls’ 2-0 win against D.C. United in the first leg of the conference semifinals, sent his side to the conference finals on a 3-2 aggregate.

Inside the six-yard box, Luyindula slotted a cross from captain Thierry Henry into the bottom right corner of United’s goal in the 57th minute.

D.C. United’s first goal came late in the first half when midfielder Nick DeLeon headed a cross from Taylor WomensLacrosse

Red Hawk Round Up

Women’s Lacrosse

The women’s lacrosse team suffered from its first conference loss of the season when they took on TCNJ this weekend. The Red Hawks were defeated by the #6 team in the country 13-7, but will still advance to the NJAC Semifinals, which will be played on April 29.

This Saturday is Senior Day for the Red Hawks and will recognize four senior friends as they host Rutgers-Camden at 1 p.m.

Men’s Lacrosse

Two victories this week advanced the men’s lacrosse team to a 4-0 record in the Skyline Conference. The Red Hawks defeated both Farmingdale State and Maritime college, outscoring their opponents 37-14.

The Red Hawks will host their last regular game of the season on April 25 at 3 p.m.

Baseball

The Red Hawks stretched their winning streak to five as they rolled past York College 12-5 on April 21. The win pushed the team to the first winning record they have seen this season.

Among the team’s leading scorers were three sophomores. Ryan Long tallied three RBIs with Richard Burner and Ivan Olivera bringing in two runs. They face Rutgers-Camden on April 23 and 24 in Camden.

Track & Field

The men’s outdoor track and field team captured second place, with the women’s team taking third at the CTC Outdoor Track and Field Championships this weekend.

Rashed Amilcar took home first place in two events, including the 200 and 400 meter events. Amilcar joined with teammates Najee Rasul, Tray-vonne Jones and James Cherm to win the 4x400 relay.

Women’s Lacrosse

April 25 vs. Rutgers-Camden - 1 p.m.
April 29 @ TBA NJAC Semifinals

Men’s Lacrosse

April 25 vs. Mount St. Vincent - 3 p.m.
April 26 @ TBA Skyline Semifinals

Baseball

April 23/24 @ Rutgers-Camden - 3:30 p.m.
April 25 vs. TCNJ - 11:30 a.m.

Softball

April 25 @ Kean University
1 & 2:30 p.m.

WHO’S HOT THIS WEEK

Ceelea Graham
Women’s Outdoor Track and Field

Graham took home third place in the 400 hurdles at the CTC outdoor championships this weekend. She received conference honors by being named the NJAC Rookie of the Week.

Robert Kessler
Men’s Outdoor Track and Field

Kessler joined his teammate in conference recognition by being named the NJAC Track and Field Athlete of the Week. Kessler captured an individual first place win in the javelin.

CURRENT STATS
- 400 HURDLES: 1:04.38
- 4X100 TEAM EVENT: 49.65
- 4X400 TEAM EVENT: 3:57.47

UPCOMING EVENTS
European Soccer Roundup

Barclays Premier League

In a week that began with West Brom, Everton, Stoke City and Leicester coming away with three points and ended with Tottenham taking care of Newcastle United, it was the high-profile clash between Chelsea and Manchester United that took center stage. Both teams have played one less game than the majority of the league and if Chelsea were to take one point, let alone all of them, the title is as good as theirs. Manchester United is firmly holding on to the last Champions League Group Stage position. With Leicester’s win over eight-place Swansea, they now find themselves just two points away from climbing out of the relegation zone. Manchester City kept pace at two points away from climbing out of the relegation zone.

Liga BBVA

Barcelona, Real Madrid and Atletico Madrid kept the pace in the top of the Spanish league standings with wins over Valencia (fourth), Malaga (seventh) and Deportivo (18th) respectively. Luckily for Valencia, who sit for Champions League Qualification position, Sevilla drew in their match against Granada (19th) and held a two point lead over the reigning Europa League Champions.

In a week that began with West Brom, Everton, Stoke City and Leicester coming away with three points and ended with Tottenham taking care of Newcastle United, it was the high-profile clash between Chelsea and Manchester United that took center stage. Both teams have played one less game than the majority of the league and if Chelsea were to take one point, let alone all of them, the title is as good as theirs. Manchester United is firmly holding on to the last Champions League Group Stage position. With Leicester’s win over eight-place Swansea, they now find themselves just two points away from climbing out of the relegation zone. Manchester City kept pace at two points away from climbing out of the relegation zone.

Liga BBVA

Barcelona, Real Madrid and Atletico Madrid kept the pace in the top of the Spanish league standings with wins over Valencia (fourth), Malaga (seventh) and Deportivo (18th) respectively. Luckily for Valencia, who sit for Champions League Qualification position, Sevilla drew in their match against Granada (19th) and held a two point lead over the reigning Europa League Champions.

After Sevilla, there is a tremendous drop off as Villarreal holds the Europa League Qualification position, 11 points behind Sevilla. Their closest competitors are Malaga who are six points back. Deportivo’s loss, coupled with Almeria’s loss to Rayo Vallecano makes them tied for relegation.

Cordoba and Athletic Bilbao will kick off Round 30 on April 24 at 2:45 p.m. EST and end with Valencia taking on Granada on April 27 at 2:45 p.m. EST. The race for first will continue as Barcelona faces Espanyol on April 25 at 10 a.m. EST and Real Madrid faces Club Vigo at 3 p.m. EST on April 26.

Series A TIM

Juventus continue to run through the Italian competition with their 2-0 win over second place Lazio. Lazio and AC Roma are currently tied in points, with Lazio winning the tiebreaker and if the season ended today, the Champions League Group Stage position. Napoli won their game against potential relegation candidates Cagliari to separate themselves from fifth-place Sampdoria, who drew against another relegation candidate in Genoa. Napoli is currently three points ahead of Sampdoria and hold the Europa League Group Stage position while Sampdoria could enter into the competition in the Qualification rounds.

In 18th place, Genoa is still pushing to be clear of dropping down to Serie B, but find themselves in a seven point hole. AC Milan and Udinese will kick off Round 31 on April 25 at 11 a.m. EST, they now find themselves just two points away from climbing out of the relegation zone.

UEFA Europa League

The Europa League will learn its semifinalists as the second leg of the Quarterfinals take place on April 23. Napoli will face off against Sevilla (Spain) with Sampdoria making their 2-1 aggregate lead. Zenit’s away goal in the first leg could prove to be crucial if the deciding factor comes down to a tiebreaker. Sevilla’s title last season is the third in their history and is tied with Juventus (Italy), Inter (Italy) and Liverpool (England) for the all-time lead.

Africa Cup

Nepal had a scare against second divisioninding in their semifinal clash, but won with a goal in extra time. Aston Villa pulled off the surprise win over Liverpool to seal their English domestic cup title as they will face Arsenal at Wembley Stadium on May 30.

Professional Standings

Fussball-Bundesliga

1. Bayern Munich - 73 points
2. Borussia Dortmund - 61 points
3. Schalke - 54 points
4. Bayern Munich - 54 points
5. Wolfsburg - 52 points
6. Augsburg - 42 points
7. Hannover - 38 points
8. Hoffenhuem - 37 points
9. Mainz - 34 points
10. Freiburg - 30 points
11. Hertha Berlin - 30 points
12. Frankfurt - 27 points
13. Paderborn - 22 points
14. Darmstadt - 20 points
15. Bremen - 20 points
16. Paderborn - 15 points
17. Ingolstadt - 14 points
18. Hamburg SV - 12 points

MLS

1. New York Red Bulls - 11 points
2. D.C. United - 10 points
3. Columbus Crew - 8 points
4. Orlando City - 6 points
5. New York City - 6 points
6. Chicago Fire - 5 points
7. Philadelphia Union - 5 points
8. New York City FC - 4 points
9. St. Louis Blues (5)
10. Minnesota United (5)
11. New England Revolution (5)
12. Montreal Impact (5)
13. Toronto FC (4)
14. Philadelphia Union (4)
15. New York Red Bulls (4)
16. D.C. United (4)

Eastern Conference

1. New York Red Bulls - 11 points
2. D.C. United - 10 points
3. Columbus Crew - 8 points
4. Orlando City - 6 points
5. New York City - 6 points
6. Chicago Fire - 5 points
7. Philadelphia Union - 5 points
8. New York City FC - 4 points
9. St. Louis Blues (5)
10. Minnesota United (5)
11. New England Revolution (5)
12. Montreal Impact (5)
13. Toronto FC (4)
14. Philadelphia Union (4)
15. New York Red Bulls (4)
16. D.C. United (4)

Western Conference

1. New York Red Bulls - 11 points
2. D.C. United - 10 points
3. Columbus Crew - 8 points
4. Orlando City - 6 points
5. New York City - 6 points
6. Chicago Fire - 5 points
7. Philadelphia Union - 5 points
8. New York City FC - 4 points
9. St. Louis Blues (5)
10. Minnesota United (5)
11. New England Revolution (5)
12. Montreal Impact (5)
13. Toronto FC (4)
14. Philadelphia Union (4)
15. New York Red Bulls (4)
16. D.C. United (4)

NHL

1. New York Rangers (2)
2. New York Islanders (2)
3. Philadelphia Flyers - 6 points
4. Tampa Bay Lightning (1)
5. Detroit Red Wings (2)
6. Western Conference Playoffs
7. Philadelphia Union - 5 points
8. New York City FC - 4 points
9. St. Louis Blues (5)
10. Minnesota United (5)

Red Sea

1. New York Rangers - 2 points
2. New York Islanders - 2 points
3. Philadelphia Flyers - 2 points
4. Tampa Bay Lightning - 2 points
5. Detroit Red Wings - 2 points
6. Western Conference Playoffs
7. Philadelphia Union - 5 points
8. New York City FC - 4 points
9. St. Louis Blues (5)
10. Minnesota United (5)

NBA

1. Golden State Warriors (2)
2. Denver Nuggets (2)
3. Utah Jazz (2)
4. Portland Trail Blazers (2)
5. Memphis Grizzlies (1)

Playoffs

1. Cleveland Cavaliers (2)
2. Philadelphia 76ers - 6 points
3. Toronto Raptors (0)
4. Boston Celtics (0)
5. Milwaukee Bucks (0)
6. Western Conference Playoffs
7. Golden State Warriors (2)
8. Denver Nuggets (2)
9. Utah Jazz (2)
10. Portland Trail Blazers (2)

Eastern Conference Playoffs

1. Brooklyn Nets (0)
2. Cleveland Cavaliers (2)
3. Milwaukee Bucks (0)
4. Atlanta Hawks (1)
5. Toronto Raptors (0)

Atlantic

1. Boston Red Sox - 0 GB
2. Atlanta Braves - 2 GB
3. Washington Nationals - 4 GB
4. Philadelphia Phillies - 6 points
5. Miami Marlins - 8 GB

Western Conference Playoffs

1. Houston Rockets (2)
2. Dallas Mavericks (1)
3. San Antonio Spurs (0)
4. Los Angeles Clippers (1)
5. Portland Trail Blazers (2)

NL East

1. New York Mets - 0 GB
2. Atlanta Braves - 2 GB
3. Washington Nationals - 4 GB
4. Philadelphia Phillies - 6 points
5. Miami Marlins - 8 GB

Western Conference Playoffs

1. Houston Rockets (2)
2. Dallas Mavericks (1)
3. San Antonio Spurs (0)
4. Los Angeles Clippers (1)
5. Portland Trail Blazers (2)

FA Cup

Aston Villa pulled off the surprise win over Liverpool to seal their English domestic cup title as they will face Arsenal at Wembley Stadium on May 30.
Kean University’s College of Business and Public Management is entering into a new and exciting phase of development with the creation of its Global Business School. Located in a new, state-of-the-art facility, this program will prepare students for careers in the new global economy and will emphasize a curriculum focused on:

INNOVATION – CREATIVITY – ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Qualified students will have the chance to engage in a global business practicum, leadership activities, networking and internships, plus interact with world-class faculty.

The global business program will:

• Prepare you for a career in international business
• Provide you with a global perspective and cultural interaction
• Develop your leadership skills in the global arena
• Enable you to assimilate and assess information from around the world

Vital elements of this new Global Business School include:

• Internship opportunities with international companies
• Easy access to the global business community in Manhattan
• Study at Kean’s campus in Wenzhou, China
• Faculty with global business experience
• New curriculum that prepares students for the global workforce
• Small classes
• Executive Fellows Program

Learn More >> globalbusiness.kean.edu
CONTACT the Kean Global Business School
globalbusiness@kean.edu
Eagles Sign Tim Tebow
Alex Hand
Contributing Writer

Once you extinguish the flames that are Tebow-mania and start to see what kind of a football player the man actually is, you start to see that Tim Tebow was one of the top five quarterbacks in the NFL last season. In a year when he started in what will be Montclair State’s #24 jersey. The tradition to pass down the #24 number is something that has become a part of Greco’s legacy at Montclair State going unmemorized.

However, when a senior at the time of Greco’s passing, Robert Sinicola, asked if he could wear the #24 in recognition of his late coach, it was an idea that the Red Hawks decided to make an annual tradition. "The key has been educating our team about coach Greco’s passion for MSU lacrosse," said first year head coach Michael Schambach. He knew Greco as both a rival coach and a friend since his passing and an abundance of young, new athletes on the team, which could have led to Greco’s legacy at Montclair State going unmemorized.

"Coach loved MSU so much that they chose to bury him in MSU colors, but never had the opportunity to coach there," Schambach said. "Guerrino’s passion was MSU lacrosse, we don’t want that to be forgotten."

It was not just his winning statistics that were important to Greco’s peers and players, but also his great decision to come to Montclair State that made his time here so important and memo-

able one.

It started in 2006, when he was a senior at Aunderson Central and Greco on the sidelines. Schreck. "Coach loved MSU so much that they chose to bury him in MSU colors, but never had the opportunity to coach there," Schambach said. "Guerrino’s passion was MSU lacrosse, we don’t want that to be forgotten."

It was not just his winning statistics that were important to Greco’s peers and players, but also his great decision to come to Montclair State that made his time here so important and memo-

able one.

It started in 2006, when he was a senior at Aunderson Central and Greco on the sidelines. Schreck. "Coach loved MSU so much that they chose to bury him in MSU colors, but never had the opportunity to coach there," Schambach said. "Guerrino’s passion was MSU lacrosse, we don’t want that to be forgotten."

It was not just his winning statistics that were important to Greco’s peers and players, but also his great decision to come to Montclair State that made his time here so important and memo-

able one.

It started in 2006, when he was a senior at Aunderson Central and Greco on the sidelines. Schreck. "Coach loved MSU so much that they chose to bury him in MSU colors, but never had the opportunity to coach there," Schambach said. "Guerrino’s passion was MSU lacrosse, we don’t want that to be forgotten."

It was not just his winning statistics that were important to Greco’s peers and players, but also his great decision to come to Montclair State that made his time here so important and memo-

able one.

It started in 2006, when he was a senior at Aunderson Central and Greco on the sidelines. Schreck. "Coach loved MSU so much that they chose to bury him in MSU colors, but never had the opportunity to coach there," Schambach said. "Guerrino’s passion was MSU lacrosse, we don’t want that to be forgotten."

It was not just his winning statistics that were important to Greco’s peers and players, but also his great decision to come to Montclair State that made his time here so important and memo-

able one.

It started in 2006, when he was a senior at Aunderson Central and Greco on the sidelines. Schreck. "Coach loved MSU so much that they chose to bury him in MSU colors, but never had the opportunity to coach there," Schambach said. "Guerrino’s passion was MSU lacrosse, we don’t want that to be forgotten."

It was not just his winning statistics that were important to Greco’s peers and players, but also his great decision to come to Montclair State that made his time here so important and memo-

able one.

It started in 2006, when he was a senior at Aunderson Central and Greco on the sidelines. Schreck. "Coach loved MSU so much that they chose to bury him in MSU colors, but never had the opportunity to coach there," Schambach said. "Guerrino’s passion was MSU lacrosse, we don’t want that to be forgotten."

It was not just his winning statistics that were important to Greco’s peers and players, but also his great decision to come to Montclair State that made his time here so important and memo-

able one.

It started in 2006, when he was a senior at Aunderson Central and Greco on the sidelines. Schreck. "Coach loved MSU so much that they chose to bury him in MSU colors, but never had the opportunity to coach there," Schambach said. "Guerrino’s passion was MSU lacrosse, we don’t want that to be forgotten."

It was not just his winning statistics that were important to Greco’s peers and players, but also his great decision to come to Montclair State that made his time here so important and memo-

able one.

It started in 2006, when he was a senior at Aunderson Central and Greco on the sidelines. Schreck. "Coach loved MSU so much that they chose to bury him in MSU colors, but never had the opportunity to coach there," Schambach said. "Guerrino’s passion was MSU lacrosse, we don’t want that to be forgotten."

It was not just his winning statistics that were important to Greco’s peers and players, but also his great decision to come to Montclair State that made his time here so important and memo-

able one.

It started in 2006, when he was a senior at Aunderson Central and Greco on the sidelines. Schreck. "Coach loved MSU so much that they chose to bury him in MSU colors, but never had the opportunity to coach there," Schambach said. "Guerrino’s passion was MSU lacrosse, we don’t want that to be forgotten."

It was not just his winning statistics that were important to Greco’s peers and players, but also his great decision to come to Montclair State that made his time here so important and memo-

able one.