The Montclarion, January 13, 1960

The Montclarion
Montclair Editorial Board Elects Editors to Fill Posts

The Editorial Board of the Montclair recently held elections of editors for the spring semester to replace the seniors who will be leaving to practice teach.

Recently, newly elected editor-in-chief, Modelline Jones, will replace Marci Vander Wall. An English major and political science minor, she has worked on the Montclair in the capacity of news editor, assistant news editor, assistant copy editor and assistant typing editor. Modelline is also a president of SKAM and the Montclair Student Newspaper Association. Her other activities include the International Relations club, the English club, Aldarina and Kappa Delta Pi.

Formerly the features editor of the Montclarion, Joe Morrelli will replace Dutch Einfeldt as managing editor of the paper. Joe, an English major, is treasurer of the English club and a member of Players program committee.

Sophomore Bill Stapert who has worked on the makeup staff of the Montclarion, was elected copy editor. Bill is a member of Tau Sigma Delta.

Newly elected news editor Kathleen Minion is a sophomore math major and a photography major. Kathleen is a member of SEAM and Epsilon Mu Epsilon.

Associate editor Paula Rieder is a sophomore psychology major and a health education and physical education major. She is also the typing editor. She is a member of Theta Xi, Alpha Xi Delta and Delta Phi Epsilon. She is also a member of the class of 1960. A social studies major and a health education and physical education major, she has served as junior class president for two years. The seventh regular meeting of the New Jersey Collegiate Press Association was held at the Montclair State College campus. Editors of the various New Jersey college publications attended this forum.

Duffy Writes For IA Journal

Dr. Joseph Duffy, associate professor of industrial arts at MSC, has written an article called "Vocational-J-A-Teaching with Research Reports," which appeared in the January issue of Industrial Arts and Vocational Education.

The industrial arts laboratory at Montclair State College in New York, Queen, New York, was used in the study. Before coming to Montclair Mr. Duffy taught there. According to the article, "In this instance the data relates to subjects in dissection, models, machine shop, photoengraving, commercial photography, as well as oral and written examinations. We have found it necessary to observe in which to observe two things: the effectiveness and merit of those reports; the value to be gained as a result of this research planning and construction."

A motion was made and seconded that we congratulate Alice Whitney for the fine job they did on the telephone systems. Motion passed unanimously.

Duffy Runs for Election To Board of Education

Among the popular junior class senior, has entered the race for Board of Education. A native of Genoa.

Bovinos Runs for Election To Board of Education

Angelo Bovino is a sophomore English major and a health education major. Bovino has served as a member of the Senate Show in January. A motion was made and seconded that we congratulate Alice Whitney for the fine job they did on the telephone systems. Motion passed unanimously.

FACULTY ADOPTS NEW POLICY FOR CONDUCTING FINAL EXAMS

Recently the faculty adopted a new policy for the conduct of final examinations. This policy is summarized in the following regulations:

1. At the beginning of each semester, free from classes, every professor will give a final examination, or evaluation for each course he teaches.

2. The examination or evaluation shall be of a comprehensive nature covering the entire work that the student has covered during the course of his subject, matter, shall be at the discretion of the individual professor.

3. A two-hour block of time shall be scheduled for each course.

4. Each professor shall utilize the two hours and every student shall have the right to take the examination at that time. If a student is absent for a course in which he is enrolled, the examination shall be given in the same manner.

Duffy Writes For IA Journal

Dr. Joseph Duffy, associate professor of industrial arts at MSC, has written an article called "Vocational-J-A-Teaching with Research Reports," which appeared in the January issue of Industrial Arts and Vocational Education.

The industrial arts laboratory at Montclair State College in New York, Queen, New York, was used in the study. Before coming to Montclair Mr. Duffy taught there. According to the article, "In this instance the data relates to subjects in dissection, models, machine shop, photoengraving, commercial photography, as well as oral and written examinations. We have found it necessary to observe in which to observe two things: the effectiveness and merit of those reports; the value to be gained as a result of this research planning and construction."

NEW BUSINESS

A motion was made and seconded that we congratulate Alice Whitney for the fine job they did on the telephone systems. Motion passed unanimously.
Play of the Week

In recent weeks, WNTA-TV has seriously considered dropping their current "The Play of the Week." The reasons for such a decision were two-fold. First, the producers of the series knew that "The Play of the Week" did not appeal to the masses and, consequently, they did not believe that the audience was large enough. Second, because its audience was perceived to be small, the series lacked adequate financial backing. Since this knowledge has become known to the public, a number of letters have been arrived at WNTA-TV concerning the desirability of continuing the entertainment program. They have indeed entertained people in a variety of programs. The program has been successful in accomplishing this by sending a card or letter to: WNTA-TV Newark, N. J.

Hi Society

by Joan McMullan

QUESTION: Do you think the ovations which President Eisenhower received from various countries during his recent tour were of a sincere nature?

by Phyllis Yorke

English

The ovations which President Eisenhower planned and the tour in advance of this recent date, he would not have aroused the acclaim that has been received by him. Furthermore, the ovations which he received from the people of some of these countries, were not truly sincere; he can not promise things which he in no way can necessarily be considered as indicative of the course of action that the United States was giving aid to them, we would then surmise that these ovations were for the personality and in this respect they are purely emotional fervor. In my estimation, only time will prove the ovations which the President received on his recent tour were sincere. The people of some of these countries respect the Presid- ent's tour helped give a feeling of security to our people through this world that Mr. McGee received his BA and his Navy nurse who, by the way, was a Phi Lambda Pi and a Sigma Delta Pi. Mrs. McGee is the only because they wish to continue to receive aid from the United States.

Morris McGee Named Montclairian's Adviser

The new adviser for the Montclairian is Mr. Morris McGee, an assistant professor of English. In addition, he is chairman of the Public Relations, director of the College of English and chairman of the Alumni Association and editor of the Alumni News. Mr. McGee is a member of the National Paraplegia Association.

Orchestra To Give Assembly

On Tuesday, January 19, during the Assembly period, the College Orchestra, under the direction of Richard Beloff, will present a concert in the University Auditorium.

Phyllis Yorke

QUESTION: Do you think the ovations which President Eisenhower received from various countries during his recent tour were of a sincere nature?

by Phyllis Yorke

English

The ovations which President Eisenhower planned and the tour in advance of this recent date, he would not have aroused the acclaim that has been received by him. Furthermore, the ovations which he received from the people of some of these countries, were not truly sincere; he can not promise things which he in no way can necessarily be considered as indicative of the course of action that the United States was giving aid to them, we would then surmise that these ovations were for the personality and in this respect they are purely emotional fervor. In my estimation, only time will prove the ovations which the President received on his recent tour were sincere. The people of some of these countries respect the Presid- ent's tour helped give a feeling of security to our people through this world that Mr. McGee received his BA and his Navy nurse who, by the way, was a Phi Lambda Pi and a Sigma Delta Pi. Mrs. McGee is the only because they wish to continue to receive aid from the United States.

Morris McGee Named Montclairian's Adviser

The new adviser for the Montclairian is Mr. Morris McGee, an assistant professor of English. In addition, he is chairman of the Public Relations, director of the College of English and chairman of the Alumni Association and editor of the Alumni News. Mr. McGee is a member of the National Paraplegia Association.

Orchestra To Give Assembly

On Tuesday, January 19, during the Assembly period, the College Orchestra, under the direction of Richard Beloff, will present a concert in the University Auditorium.

Phyllis Yorke

QUESTION: Do you think the ovations which President Eisenhower received from various countries during his recent tour were of a sincere nature?

by Phyllis Yorke

English

The ovations which President Eisenhower planned and the tour in advance of this recent date, he would not have aroused the acclaim that has been received by him. Furthermore, the ovations which he received from the people of some of these countries, were not truly sincere; he can not promise things which he in no way can necessarily be considered as indicative of the course of action that the United States was giving aid to them, we would then surmise that these ovations were for the personality and in this respect they are purely emotional fervor. In my estimation, only time will prove the ovations which the President received on his recent tour were sincere. The people of some of these countries respect the Presid- ent's tour helped give a feeling of security to our people through this world that Mr. McGee received his BA and his Navy nurse who, by the way, was a Phi Lambda Pi and a Sigma Delta Pi. Mrs. McGee is the only because they wish to continue to receive aid from the United States.

Morris McGee Named Montclairian's Adviser

The new adviser for the Montclairian is Mr. Morris McGee, an assistant professor of English. In addition, he is chairman of the Public Relations, director of the College of English and chairman of the Alumni Association and editor of the Alumni News. Mr. McGee is a member of the National Paraplegia Association.

Orchestra To Give Assembly

On Tuesday, January 19, during the Assembly period, the College Orchestra, under the direction of Richard Beloff, will present a concert in the University Auditorium.

Phyllis Yorke

QUESTION: Do you think the ovations which President Eisenhower received from various countries during his recent tour were of a sincere nature?

by Phyllis Yorke

English

The ovations which President Eisenhower planned and the tour in advance of this recent date, he would not have aroused the acclaim that has been received by him. Furthermore, the ovations which he received from the people of some of these countries, were not truly sincere; he can not promise things which he in no way can necessarily be considered as indicative of the course of action that the United States was giving aid to them, we would then surmise that these ovations were for the personality and in this respect they are purely emotional fervor. In my estimation, only time will prove the ovations which the President received on his recent tour were sincere. The people of some of these countries respect the Presid-ent's tour helped give a feeling of security to our people through this world that Mr. McGee received his BA and his Navy nurse who, by the way, was a Phi Lambda Pi and a Sigma Delta Pi. Mrs. McGee is the only because they wish to continue to receive aid from the United States.

Morris McGee Named Montclairian's Adviser

The new adviser for the Montclairian is Mr. Morris McGee, an assistant professor of English. In addition, he is chairman of the Public Relations, director of the College of English and chairman of the Alumni Association and editor of the Alumni News. Mr. McGee is a member of the National Paraplegia Association.
What Happened to Debating? Discussion and Our Ideals

by Don Shandler

Upon reading current issues of Enquirer Magazine, I came across several articles which I felt would be of interest to my fellow students. These articles, "New Mood in Politics," by Arthur Schlesinger, Jr., and "Why Hitler Puts the Human Race," by Harvey Swados (September), will appeal not to those individual who are concerned to be one of the mass in today's materialistic world, but rather to the intelligentsia, or young intellectuals, here at Montclair State College.

The first of these two articles concerns itself with the educational faculties of the United States and the students who attend them. Primarily, it seems that the United States is spending more money on advertising than education. And this, the wealthiest nation in the world, is falling behind in its educational and technological, but worst of all, in the capacity to stir the minds of our youth. "The rise of the Best Generation is plainly in part the result of the failure of our present society to provide ideals inspiring the youth of our nation."

Secondly, Schlesinger deals with the result, or end-product of this lack of educational facilities and low standard of education. Today's college students have experienced a generation of mediocrity. They know, a generation of smallness of mind, and as we are all well aware of mediocrity. Furthermore, the result of this educational inadequacy is more disastrous when we consider the original purpose of our nation. Such individuals, as the Schlesinger points out, "are not more important than wisdom, virtue, purpose, or man's ability to down self-indulgence, of primitive, crude, and spiritual fulfillment. This is the end-product of educational inadequacy."

Many students will disagree with this assertion. I will leave it as an open question for us to consider.

MONTCLAIRON

January 13, 1960

Page Three

January 13, 1960

Page Three

GAIL MORITZ CHOSSEN LAMBDA PI Elected as their Girl of the Month

Gail Moritz in December, the men of Phi Lambda Pi elected as their girl of the month Gail Moritz, a sophomore English major. Gail was presented with the traditional rose bouquet and a handkerchief. Gail is a member of the Immaculatachoir and of course the Immaculata Golf Club. Gail also teaches Sunday school and is active as the soloist in her church choir. She is also a member of the Immaculata Players Guild.

GAIL MORITZ CHOSSEN LAMBDA PI Elected as their Girl of the Month

STALAG 17 cast members shown are Bill Toomey, Chuck Walsh, John Pietrovec, Bill Lalanne, Bruce Laihur and Richard Goldberger.

STALAG 17 cast members shown are Bill Toomey, Chuck Walsh, John Pietrovec, Bill Lalanne, Bruce Laihur and Richard Goldberger.

Of all the surprising results in this year's Down Beat Readers Poll, the most startling was the list of combos chalked up by the Microtones band, favorite of the eastern colleges and universities. Ferguson, whose band had proved strong in last year's poll, moved up to second place in the jazz band category, right behind Count Basie and ahead of Duke Ellington. Ferguson proved strong in the dance band category, too, placed fourth, following Lee Brown, Lee Savary and Count Basie.

Another upbeat was staged by Lambert-Hendricks-Ross. The vocal trio, which two years ago didn't even score in the voting for vocal groups, had moved so far into popularity that this year it took first place, with double the number of votes of their nearest competitor, the Four Freshmen. The Dave Brubeck Quartet, which had won several years in a row the first place among combos, lost to the Modern Jazz Quartet, did what Dave himself thought was impossible: regained the top spot.

Needless to say, Frank Sinatra and Ella Fitzgerald had won in walk over all other singers by the time the poll results were tabulated and announced.

In an exclusive story in the Down Beat, the magazine outlines how papaya works: "The record company executive draws his checks by burning up the money paid off in those cities. Then he notifies the distributor in a chosen city and specify which job to get the money on. The distributor arranges the payroll, delivers the sums agreed upon and then remunerates by the record company in the form of a shipment of free records equal in value to the $10 cash."

"In the label's books," the magazine says, "the shipment of five 45 discs is written off under the heading promotional records, which will make it exceedingly difficult for the congressional probe to find anything incriminating in the ledger..."

DISC DISCOURAGED: The Down Beat record reviewers are particularly recommending these LPs:

The score to the film "Odds Against Tomorrow," which was composed and conducted by John Lewis and released on disc by United Artists. Given five stars in the review, the score stands up even above music... The group headed by Shelly Manne does a better than usual job on some of the TV detective soundtrack music in the four-star Contemporary album, "Son of Gun"... Bob McEver, "Baxx, Inc." is also very much worth hearing... the variety is vast. The five LPs that you can purchase separately or as a package, Ella and Ridge really do justice to the 53 Gershwin tunes.

Anthology Will Contain MSC Students' Poetry

Six Montclair State College students have had their poems chosen to appear in the publication Anthology of American College Poetry. The poems of senator, J. Charlie McGreavy, junior; Hathaway Tremaine; sophomores, Michael Lucinielle, Victor Marple and Dean Dixon, and freshman, William Schluck were chosen from the thousands submitted in this nationwide contest. The contest was open to all college students throughout the United States and Canada. The anthology will soon be published.

MONTCLAIR

January 13, 1960

Page Three

Senator Scores With Stalag 17

Last Friday and Saturday night Stalag 17 was presented by the men of Senate. The play concerns itself with life in a German concentration camp. The group of 32 American POWs was obviously one of the many men. The play was filled with all the comedy and pathos that one might expect in a play of this type. All the action took place in three days in a barracks of Stalag 17 situated in Austria, 1944, and the exposition and conclusion of the drama is centered around discovering who the spy is, capturing him, and punishing him.

Since we realize the limitations with regard to cut, we believe the acting was unusually adequate. There were some interesting characterizations: namely, Bill Cromie as the (American) guard, Shna, Richard Goldberger as a German woman (Frau), who did improvisations; and John Pietrovec as the not too vulgar "animal."
The fencing team will have its first meet of the season at Jersey City State College on January 13. The future of Montclair's fencing team is in the hands of its president, Irene Salvi, who will be accompanied by Miss Julia Carver, the faculty adviser.

The club has expanded from three varsity players to four varsity and three JV members. The Montclair team has expanded from three varsity players to four varsity and three JV members, so that at least seven women will be competing in all matches.

Montclair's school record for the mile relay handicap won second place individual trophies and in the mile relay handicap won first place individual trophies and in the mile relay handicap won second place individual trophies.

The schedule for the remainder of the season will be as follows:

Montclair Relay Team Sparkles At Early Development Meets

Montclair State's current indoor relay team, which includes runners Bruce Morgan, Jim Sokoloski, Jim Weissinger, and Bruce Morgan, has earned a first and second place in the two meets held in the holiday AAI development meet.

The men's and women's gymnastics team competed in both the men's and women's gymnastics team, and Montclair State's current indoor relay team, which includes runners Bruce Morgan, Jim Sokoloski, Jim Weissinger, and Bruce Morgan, has earned a first and second place in the two meets held in the holiday AAI development meet.

The good fathers of St. Michael's Church in Union City had a training mission to which they had attended in mid-May. They had been attending the Mission Club in the Union City training center, and in the late evening of May 26, they were afforded an opportunity to play basketball and running track. Pictures are available.

The good fathers of St. Michael's Church in Union City had a training mission to which they had attended in mid-May. They had been attending the Mission Club in the Union City training center, and in the late evening of May 26, they were afforded an opportunity to play basketball and running track. Pictures are available.

Through the auspices of Uncle Sam, Jim conducted an international experiment in regimentation. During the period of rooming with his brother, he interrupted his European tour by placing basketball and running track. Pictures are available.

Gymnastics Results

Recently, the men's and women's gymnastics team competed in the men's and women's gymnastics tournament. Jim Sokoloski was victorious in the men's and women's gymnastics tournament. Jim Sokoloski was victorious in the men's and women's gymnastics tournament.

Montclair's men will compete in the men's and women's gymnastics tournament. Jim Sokoloski was victorious in the men's and women's gymnastics tournament. Jim Sokoloski was victorious in the men's and women's gymnastics tournament.

Sports Album

Montclair's men will compete in the men's and women's gymnastics tournament. Jim Sokoloski was victorious in the men's and women's gymnastics tournament. Jim Sokoloski was victorious in the men's and women's gymnastics tournament.

The inauguration of wrestling as a varsity sport at Montclair met with a defeat at the hands of East Stroudsburg team, 19-11. The following week, however, the grapplers rolled over the Brooklyn Polytechnic Institution, 36-3. Standouts in both these meets were Chuck Whick and Bob Mezerek.

Montclair's hopes in the NAIA Holiday Basketball tourney were stilled by loss in Glassboro in the first round. This came as a surprise to Montclair's followers, but it has not affected Montclair's first place standing in the State College Conference.

Now that the gym is open again to all college athletes, I'm trying to get the representative sports. It was distance discovering that the gym was unavailable for a good part of the season.

Montclair's track athletes are receiving recognition. The relay team should give added prestige to MSU's already respected track program. Also on the eastern and southwestern courses, they have shown its fames in recent development meets. The agency of the U.S., D.C. on January 23 where there is every indication of a successful season for last year's successful performances.