At a meeting of the college food committee last Thursday plans were made for a picnic supper on May 18, a special dinner honoring seniors on May 26, visits to two other comparable college cafeterias for comparison of the quality of the dishes in the cafeteria during the noon hours.

In opening the meeting Dr. Partridge said within the framework of limitations of state regulations of the purchase of food and the number of cafeteria workers available, I am confident that by working together we can continue to vary the menus and improve the service in the cafeteria.

Some suggestions were proposed to encourage students to clear the dishes and put included a prize winning lim-

into Tin Pan Alley

"Tin Pan Alley," this year's Carnival, will be presented Friday and Saturday. On Friday it will be held from seven o'clock until midnight and on Saturday from two o'clock until ten o'clock.

The Green Fields of the area in front of College Hall will be transformed into something but a quiet Village Green, as the various organizations set up their booths.

The Sound of Music will be heard throughout the Carnival, and a variety show will be held on the stage.

A visitor to Carnival, if his name is Mr. Lucky, may slip the bingo ball, catch a falling star or roll around the clock. As the Edd Tide comes out visitors may go strolling through the Park or have a picnic in the woods. Since these same visitors have had around the world in 80 days, they will be using "I've Green Acres" to find your way.

If hungry, they may go to booth where there will be told "We Have No Bananas, but we have a Lovely Bunch of Cocktails with One Meat Ball."

When the Wheel of Fortune spins and some lucky person wins a Buick and a pack of groceries, they are Big Apple will be among them. At 11 times every two hours in the Houston cafeteria students can dance to either Strose, Register and Rolf or Skipper and Tenth Avenue as they go to their favorite girl. You Go to My Head.

Snack Bar Complaint

For quite some time we have been hearing complaints about the snack bar. The most frequent complaint is that it is not open long enough.

Let's examine this statement. The snack bar opens every morning at 8 o'clock. On Mondays and Wednesdays it stays open until five o'clock, on Tuesdays and Thursdays until seven, and on Fridays until one-thirty. It is closed on Saturdays and Sundays.

Is this sufficient time for it to be open? No, it is not!

Fridays

There are several other times when the snack bar should be open. The first of these is Friday afternoon. Friday is about the only day when many students can stay after school for a leisurely hour. With an enrollment of 2150, everyone cannot possibly make it to the lounges, and finally on Saturday mornings. A graduated program like this should work. If the event is publicized enough, people will come. We strongly urge that the snack bar be opened the extra hours. Last year, for a period of several weeks, the snack bar was open on Saturday from 10:30 a.m. and the cafeteria at 11:00 a.m.

Chi Chai: We are writing this from the cafeteria. We are on our terrarium bench shelter below the campus. The only reason we have resorted to the alleys and areas of the campus is that we have resorted to the available seating. We think it is a disservice to our friends who helped build the lounge on the first floor.

Third, the snack bar should be open evenings until at least 10:30 p.m.

No, it is not!

Elevens

Second, the snack bar should definitely be open on Saturdays, if not for the entire day, then at least for the amount of time that the library is open. Some students come to work in the library on Saturday mornings. Many more would do so if the snack bar were open. True, there are vending machines in lower center, but who enjoys drinking his coffee while standing in front of a vending machine?

Fridays

Third, the snack bar should be open evenings until at least 10:30 p.m., and if possible, over the weekends also. How nice it would be if, after a hard week of classes, one could sit in the snack bar and chat with a friend. And how nice it would be if a student could go to the snack bar for an evening for a cup of coffee and a sandwich, after he has spent several hours working in the library.

Saturdays

Second, the snack bar should definitely be open on Saturdays, if not for the entire day, then at least for the amount of time that the library is open. Some students come to work in the library on Saturday mornings. Many more would do so if the snack bar were open. Assembly Hour

Fourth, the snack bar should be open during the assembly hour. With an enrollment of 2150, everyone cannot possibly attend the assembly in an auditorium which will hold only 100 persons. Conceivably, the other 1150 persons must have a place to go. Finding the snack bar, cafeteria and library closed, these extra persons either overflow the lounges or go to West's Diner. Some of this overflow could be absorbed by the snack bar at extra persons either overflow the lounges or go to West's Diner.

Letters to the Editor

An Open Letter to the Student Body and Faculty

Why is it that there is such a limit on the amount of students that the buildings on this campus can hold? In the Administration building, the total number of students, is only serving to kill the school spirit and does not support it. This is only serving to kill the school spirit and bring the students closer together.

Ronald A. Nolan

Business education

It seems to me that the present time there is an adequate amount of amenities and that the new buildings are the true reason to overcrowd.

New Jazz Sound: Scores a Success

by Diane Morris

"The theatre that will be built to house Shakespeare's plays will be a replica of the Old Globe Theatre in San Diego," said Lawrence Langeno as he began to plan for an American Shakespeare Festival to be held in Montclair.

Mr. Langeno, who is a member of the SGA board, was in the midst of planning for the new theatre when he noticed that there was a lack of interest in Shakespearean plays. He decided to fill this gap by creating a new theatre that would be patterned after the Old Globe Theatre.

Mr. Langeno, who has always been interested in American literature, felt that the world needed a place where it could experience Shakespeare's plays in a new way. He felt that the new theatre would provide just such an opportunity.

The theatre will be built on a site located on the Montclair College campus. It will be a replica of the Old Globe Theatre in San Diego, and will be designed by the renowned architect, Philip Johnson.

The theatre will have a seating capacity of 2,000, and will be equipped with state-of-the-art lighting and sound systems. It will also have a large outdoor garden area that will be used for educational programs and community events.

The theatre will be completed in time for the opening of the American Shakespeare Festival, which is scheduled for the summer of 1961.

Mr. Langeno is confident that the theatre will be a success, and that it will fill a much-needed gap in the Montclair College community.

He says, "I believe that this theatre will provide a much-needed opportunity for all of us to experience Shakespeare's plays in a new way. I am confident that it will be a success, and that it will become a cherished part of the Montclair College community."

SMOKE SIGNALS

An unusual thing happened in the Montclair State track team. A scholarship offer with a seventh year winning streak failed to show up for a scheduled meet at a mat of principle.

This word might be interpreted in many ways but track manager Jerry Edwards stated that he felt the only principle involved was the fact that Central College's State's 41 meet winning streak was dangerously on the line. Montclair continued to press Central State at the last minute of the 880-yard run.

The Indian squad has been growing in strength and power and will be favored to win both meets this season.

A great new movement has been developed on the tennis courts. In number one doubles, Dave Ruffman and Bruce Morgan have recently returned from an unofficial meet. They are both highly skilled players and have already won several matches.
