JOHNNY APPLESEEDERS
To Beautify Campus

Very soon construction on the proposed new buildings will begin and the hill behind Fisher Hall will be leveled. In order to preserve some of the trees which are growing there, Barry Brothers, sophomore Industrial Arts major, is organizing a committee to aid in the removal of certain designated trees to other spots.

The name which has been given to the drive which will be involved in this program is "Johnny Appleseed Day" and it will take place sometime around the first of October. Barry Brothers announced that approval of Johnny Appleseed Day by Dr. Draper is certain, and that all the students who will support this event. Dr. Draper has given his assistance by designating these trees which have been selected suitable for other parts of the campus.

The student body can make this day a success by signing up to help. Those who are interested are: Regina Barron, Barry Brothers and the bulletin board.

MONTCLARION Fills Editorial Positions

The last meeting of the MONTCLARION Editorial Board has brought about the following changes in the staff: Barry Brothers has been promoted to photography editor; Paula Stedler has moved to the position of copy editor and Ken Villant to the position of assistant sports editor. The office of assistant features editor has been left open until a capable person can be found to fill the position.

The resignations of the following offices were announced: Don Shindler, assistant features editor; Benny Hinkle, copy editor; and Dave Sargent, co-photography editor.

First prize in this year's Homecoming Float Parade, which was awarded by Delta Theta Pi sorority, Second and third prize were awarded by Lambda Chi Delta fraternity and the Class of 1961, respectively. After the half-time ceremonies, the winners were announced and Queen Joan Coppola presented the gold palm leaves. The entries were judged on the basis of originality, art work and adherence to the "Robuston's Day" theme, Mrs. Dean Peckett, wife of Professor Montclair State College, Richard Hagan, president of the Amalgamated Federation, George Bond, co-chair of Bond's Fund Campaign, and Charles McCormick, co-ordinator of MSC athletic, did the judging.

The winning entry was entitled "You'd Always Win With Us Alumni!" and it represented the various sports connected with the 1960 Olympics such as fencing, dancing, swimming, basketball and horsemanship. In addition, one girl in the old style newspaper costume.

Lambda Chi Delta's entry depicting "Why One Palm-Rote" featured four members of the fraternity in complete American Indians costumes, which they made themselves, which represented the MSC Indians' team. In addition, they had a "Robuston" satellite, a large helium-filled balloon, which said "You November Fifth." The third place entry of the Student Council was entitled "Election Behold—It's 1960!" The main idea was to show what if you Van Winkle who would see on Montclair's campus if he were waking up in 1960. Besides a huge inflatable model of a man with a flail the float included a tiger being trapped by an Indian, two surveyors with their instruments, and two students who represented the American Indian and Jack Kennedy respectively.

The men of Phi Lambda Pi have been given the Industrial Arts Guild float, which is to be a pathway to the fountain of knowledge. The chief feature of the float was a fountain which sprang from the heart of the statue. Lambda Omega Tau security was given the job of deciding the color of the float depicting the entry of Hawaii into the union.

For the first parade, parts of the float itself were to decorate the Homecoming Dance which was held on Saturday night by the Junior Class, the chairman of the float was placed on the roof extension which overhangs the entrance of Life Hall and it was highlighted. In addition, the Senate float was placed as a campaign along the walk to Life Hall entrance. The interior of the cafeteria was decorated with Senior's symbol, the Van Winkle, and one of Hawaii's palms in addition to other float paraphernalia.

Epsylon Pi Tau Founder To Be Guest Speaker At MSC Chapter Meeting

Dr. William E. Warner, founder of the Epsilon Pi Tau chapter at Ohio State University, will be the guest speaker at the Epsylon Pi Tau chapter meeting at the Owen Chapter house on November 28 in the Memorial Auditorium. Dr. Warner is professor of education at Ohio State University.

MONTCLARION STATE COLLEGE
October 21, 1960

Montclair State College will be represented on the television show "Governor Reports by Madeline Jones, editor-in-chief of the Montclarion." The show, which was taped yesterday at the WNTA-TV studios, featured a discussion about the Anti-War Movement.

Editorials:

Recently, after a meeting of the SGA Finance Committee, there was much talk on the campus as to how the finances for the coming academic year may be handled.

Particularly discussed was the fact that, due to a lack of funds, certain sports such as junior varsity basketball, might have to be discontinued. Students were interested and wished to know how it had come about that there were supposed not enough funds to support a full athletic program which we have had in the past. Many students said that the SGA had no right to curtail major sports. Others said that such a decision should be put before a vote of the student body in a referendum.

It would appear that the real issue is not the financial condition of the SGA, but rather the anger and questions of the student body. Why didn’t the students know what was taking place, where were they supposed to have learned that some major sports might be dropped this year?

The answer to that is that most students take no interest whatever in the decisions of the SGA. They never bother to find out what the minutes of the last meeting were, how their class representatives voted, or what the current issues are before the SGA. But, let one rumor of something unfavorable reach their ears, and they have half a dozen opinions on the subject.

We are not saying that the possible action of the SGA would be unwarranted; instead, we are saying that if students are really interested in how their $18 and semester is being spent, they should talk to their representatives, read their constitution, attend the SGA meetings and express their opinions, acquaint themselves with student problems.

Otherwise, we have no right to condemn any possible or approved SGA decisions.

(Footnotes: Since this editorial was written, it has been learned that the Finance Committee acting against some things really are going to be tough against the parking department. Several of the present parking areas will be eliminated. Workmen will be driving on to campus and taking away space. Trunks will be delivering materials. All in all it will be a busy place.

In anticipation of the parking problem, plans have been drawn to extend the parking area next to Machine shop and the west side of the campus. A new temporary area is to be developed beyond Stone Hall. These will relieve parking problems but traffic coming and going will be a real headache.

Cooperation Desired

Strict compliance with traffic and parking rules will do much to reduce the parking problem. Anyone who can leave his car home and take a bus will be making a real contribution to his fellowmen.

Car pools can reduce the number of vehicles coming to Valparaiso University. Workmen are urging Parking Space.

Cafeteria Director forth Describes Saga's Goals by Diane Morris

Perhaps you've seen a cheerful, dauntless figure wandering the halls of the Sigma Gamma Rho sorority who, in a way, unashamedly直销了the message of the sorority. And chances are that he was Mr. Donald Forth, chairman of the Cafeteria Committee and member of the sorority under the recently set up Board of Directors.

Mr. Forth hails from Syracuse, New York, where he was bom and educated. He is a graduate of Princeton's College in New York for two years and then transferred to the University of Denver to continue his education.

Before coming to MSC, Mr. Forth has held various positions of responsibility in Cape Cod, his home town, and Barnegat, New Jersey. Then, working for the government in the traveling service, he spent three and a half years in the Office of Language Study in New York. Mr. Forth was a member of the Board of Directors of the Brotherhood of Union-ers with his four and child-

When asked what is Saga's poltical and religious belief, Mr. Forth replied, "We try to keep in such a high moral style as we can. We also try to find out what the candidates like and dislike by keeping a record of their preferences." It was found that in most cases, the predominant political is the bustion public, and religious is the Anglican.

Saga, now in its third year at Montclair College in East Orange begins its first year at Palisades College, New Jersey in the fall. It was not possible to get out of its main offices in New York. A contract for this service was made in the State of New Jersey and Saga, now in its third year at Palisades College, New Jersey.

Through these programs retarded students may develop their talents and the competent readers are even more likely to read.

This year, a new feature, an acceptance program, has been added to the last year's programs. Through this system, any Montclair college student may observe any of the high school or the junior high school lab classes whether or not he has registered for a reading class. Through this program, any Montclair's Reading Conservation system, has been added to the system. Students can help themselves by introducing easily accessible programs of significant value to the entire area. Last year's phenomenal success has insured the continuation of this program.

It was inevitable that the Trenton—MSC football game would be the highlight of the fall sports season. The intense rivalry between the two colleges, in football, has recorded itself in history. This year’s game was played under the shadow of the ever-present drummers and cymbalists, whose enthusiasm was at times almost overpowering. The game was a real battle, with both teams giving their best to win. The Indians seemed to be the favorites, but the Mounties were not to be underestimated. The game ended with a Mountie victory, 19-12.

The game was played on a beautiful fall day, with the leaves changing colors and the air crisp. The crowd was enthusiastic, with many fans cheering on their favorite team. The stadium was packed, with people standing on bleachers and in the stands. The atmosphere was electric, with the sound of the crowd and the cheers of the fans filling the air.

The game started with both teams playing defense, trying to prevent the other from scoring. The Mounties started off strong, with a touchdown early in the game. The Indians responded with a field goal, but the Mounties were not to be outdone, with another touchdown and a field goal to take the lead. The Indians tried to catch up, with a touchdown and a field goal, but the Mounties held on, with a final score of 19-12.

Throughout the game, the Mounties showed their strength and determination, with their powerful defense and offense. The Indians fought hard, but the Mounties were the better team that day. The game was a real battle, with the crowd cheering on both sides. The Mounties came out on top, with a well-deserved victory.
