Montclarion Elects New Editorial Staff

With student voting taking seniors away from MBC's campus next semester, annual elections to replace the senior members of the Montclarion staff were held Thursday, November 29, by the Executive Board of the Montclarion.

In the absence of the Editor-in-Chief, "Chief," who is now touring the English-speaking world with the Delegation of the English Language, the Student Body of Montclair College invited a number of upperclassmen to assume the responsibilities and duties of the Montclarion staff. The purpose of the editorial board is to see that the Montclarion is published regularly and the work of the paper is handled in the best possible manner.

The members of the new editorial board are:

Charmaine Petrush, JoAnn Yurchuck, and Sam Galucci.

Music Organization Commission To Present Leon Fleisher

On Wednesday, December 12, in Memorial Auditorium, the outstanding American pianist, Leon Fleisher will give a recital. This concert will be presented by the Music Organization Commission.

Since 1932, when he became the first American to win a major foreign piano competition, The Queen Elizabeth of Belgium Competition, he has had a triumphant career. In the years following, that memorable occasion, he has made concert appearances throughout the world.

Today, he is considered one of the first artists asked to represent the United States in the Brussels World Fair. A more recent honor was in the form of an invitation from President Eisenhower to play "Command Performance" at the White House honoring the visiting King Raudolph of Bulgaria.

Fleisher is today also a major concert artist. Both in our country and in Europe he has appeared in recital and in all schools of music he visits. He is considered a living legend.

Seniors Direct One-Act Plays

The senior majorists will present five one-act plays at 7:30 p.m. in Memorial Auditorium on December 13, 1962.

The plays are requirements of Dr. Par's plus direction class. Each student must select and direct one play of his own. The cast is chosen from the senior body and should include the undergraduates.

The technical classes and with props and lights.

The seniors directing the plays are: Sandie Cohen, Pat Peters, Nacy West, Kathy Kramer, and Barbara Carroll.

Two of the five plays will be performed "on the round" where the cast and the audience are on the stage together.

MONTCLAIR

Hoosters Open Season
Overwhelm First Rivals

By Ken Villant

Montclair, Dec. 1—The students of Montclair State College have their first chance in a series of basketball games to show what they have, and what they like them to show. They saw the Varsity team beat Bloomfield College 64-51. The Indians, second in the New York area scoring 39 goals for the Area #3, National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics title, scored a record during 1962 of seven wins, five losses and one tie.

The individual scoring is as mentioned. Sam Turner, a very good athlete, a versatile performer, a determined leader, Sam knows how to play soccer and how he does play.

At fullback position, Sam possessed a formidable threat to any opponent. His big left hand has covered countless operators, and his speed and stamina have earned him a place among the top backs in the country. Sam Turner is not as unassuming as he looks. A quiet but thoughtful figure who works hard, contributes much, and somehow remains unrecognized, Sam is a big man, a talented athlete, a versatile performer, a determined leader, Sam knows how to play soccer and how he does play.
