Richardson Releases Honor Student List

On Wednesday afternoon, October 9, the following students were honored at a reception and tea in Chapel Hall for having qualified for the Dean's Honor List for the spring semester of 1963-64. The Dean's List is composed of those students who attain an average of 3.5 or better. As mentioned earlier, there were 4.0 average.

DANCE. The affair was insti­tened several years ago as the traditional "Early Autumn Weekend." The dance will be the concluding event of this year's "Autumn Weekend." The purpose is to foster, administer and encourage the use of individual tal­ents on campus.

MOC to Present Israeli Group

The Israel National Youth Sym­phony, Gallus, will make its ap­pearance in Montclair on October 12. The concert will be sponsored by Montclair's Music Organization Commission, an affiliate of the National College Music Commission. The Commission's primary purpose is to foster students in the music of Israel, and its activities include the sponsorship of the Seren­dity Singers and George Sherman Quartet in Packer Gym. Composed of the four elected vice-presidents, the stu­dent-at-large, the assistant treasurer of the SCA, two faculty members, and the Director, the SCA Student Government will be fe­atured on Montclair student at least two major events in the month of October by the Scho­oler Student Activities Department of the Student Government. The sponsorship of the Seren­dity Singers and George Sherman Quartet is a joint event, to be run by the SCA Student Activities Department.

Senate Dance

On Saturday evening, October 10, The Men of Senate will present the traditional "Early Autumn Dance." This dance has included several years ago as the first major dance of the year. The dance will be the concluding event of this year's "Autumn Weekend." The purpose is to foster, administer and encourage the use of individual talents on campus.

Emlyn Williams Returns to Portray Dickens

Emlyn Williams, one of the English-speaking world's most distinguished actors, will appear in his celebrated performance as Charles Dickens on October 10 at Montclair State College. Players announced today, Mr. Williams will be portraying the great novelist in some eighty North American cities during the forthcoming tour under the aegis of "Night Must Fall," which has been trying for some time to per­suade the actor to repeat his record-breaking success of two years ago.

This symphony has raised world throughout the world in the last few years and has increased in international interest.

Emlyn Williams, who recently starred on Broadway as Pope Pio XII in the controversial play, "The Pope," is probably as famous as an author and playwright as he is as an actor. His autobiography, "George," was a bestseller of last season and his plays, "The Corn is Green" and "Night Must Fall" particularly, have been re­viewed on both sides of the Atlantic and in their film versions. The new version of "Night Must Fall," starring Albert Finney, is in current release.

Last season Williams appeared on Broadway as Sir Thomas More in one of his year's finest plays, "A Man For All Seasons." His "Morals, Daniel Jacobson, Ber­hard Beacher, and Frank Kelland of the Geography Department will display their talents in their re­spective areas and incorporate much of this work into their teaching at Montclair.

Mr. Jacobson, who has com­pleted a book on the Lapite-Lugnu Indians will publish a new book, "New Jersey—Past and Pre­sent," which he has worked on with a group of people from the Social Science Department at Jersey City College. It will be used as a basic text in history for high school seniors and col­lege freshmen. In addition, Mr. Jacobson has also written the articles on the Indians of North America and on geography in the Schools of America. He has been teaching history at Montclair College since 1961.

Mr. Beacher has previously authored "Guide to New Jersey Geography in the Schools of America," and "New Jersey—Past and Present." His new book will be published in the fall of 1964.

The Geography Department and the College Life Union (MOC) will be sponsoring a book signing at Mont­clair's chapter of the National Geography Teachers Association to be held in the Music Organization Commission, an affiliate of the National College Music Commission. The Commission's primary purpose is to foster students in the music of Israel, and its activities include the sponsorship of the Seren­dity Singers and George Sherman Quartet in Packer Gym.

The legislation behind the bond issue was passed by a vote of 53 to 4 in the As­sembly and by 42 to 2 in the Senate. The Governor signed the bill on July 15.

Mr. Jacobson has also written the articles on the geography in the Schools of America. He has been teaching history at Montclair College since 1961.

Mr. Beacher has previously authored "Guide to New Jersey Geography in the Schools of America," and "New Jersey—Past and Present." His new book will be published in the fall of 1964.

The Geography Department and the College Life Union (MOC) will be sponsoring a book signing at Mont­clair's chapter of the National Geography Teachers Association to be held in the Music Organization Commission, an affiliate of the National College Music Commission. The Commission's primary purpose is to foster students in the music of Israel, and its activities include the sponsorship of the Seren­dity Singers and George Sherman Quartet in Packer Gym.
Montclair State University

INDIANS SCALP UPSALA VIKINGS 19-0; ZIMMERMAN, GORALCZYK SCORE TD'S; ZULEWSKI BOOTS

By J.W. Duffy

On Saturday, October 3, Montclair's runners faced the strong teams of Southern and Central Connecticut in a triangular meet, in which Montclair was severely handicapped on both the Varsity and Freshman levels. Southern Connecticut, which was 4-5 miles long, two men, Ed List and Charles Beck; failed to finish. That left MSC with four runners. During the race, Bob Pedoulakis visited his ankle and did not finish.

On Saturday, October 3, Montclair's runners faced the strong teams of Southern and Central Connecticut in a triangular meet, in which Montclair was severely handicapped on both the Varsity and Freshman levels. Southern Connecticut, which was 4-5 miles long, two men, Ed List and Charles Beck; failed to finish. That left MSC with four runners. During the race, Bob Pedoulakis visited his ankle and did not finish.

On Saturday, October 3, Montclair's runners faced the strong teams of Southern and Central Connecticut in a triangular meet, in which Montclair was severely handicapped on both the Varsity and Freshman levels. Southern Connecticut, which was 4-5 miles long, two men, Ed List and Charles Beck; failed to finish. That left MSC with four runners. During the race, Bob Pedoulakis visited his ankle and did not finish.

On Saturday, October 3, Montclair's runners faced the strong teams of Southern and Central Connecticut in a triangular meet, in which Montclair was severely handicapped on both the Varsity and Freshman levels. Southern Connecticut, which was 4-5 miles long, two men, Ed List and Charles Beck; failed to finish. That left MSC with four runners. During the race, Bob Pedoulakis visited his ankle and did not finish.

On Saturday, October 3, Montclair's runners faced the strong teams of Southern and Central Connecticut in a triangular meet, in which Montclair was severely handicapped on both the Varsity and Freshman levels. Southern Connecticut, which was 4-5 miles long, two men, Ed List and Charles Beck; failed to finish. That left MSC with four runners. During the race, Bob Pedoulakis visited his ankle and did not finish.

On Saturday, October 3, Montclair's runners faced the strong teams of Southern and Central Connecticut in a triangular meet, in which Montclair was severely handicapped on both the Varsity and Freshman levels. Southern Connecticut, which was 4-5 miles long, two men, Ed List and Charles Beck; failed to finish. That left MSC with four runners. During the race, Bob Pedoulakis visited his ankle and did not finish.