Engel Appoints Committee to Ease Traffic Problems

A Commuters’ Coordinating Committee has recently been formed by Earl Engel, president of Montclair State College. The purpose of this committee will be to keep the student body informed about efforts which are being made to ease their traffic problem on campus. The five members of the new committee are: Charles Barragato, junior English major and editor-in-chief of The Montclarion; Richard Fedor- chet, sophomore science major; William Fowler, junior social studies major; Sanford Galloch, junior speech major; and Leonard Scolia, sophomore. The administration of the SGA committee was suggested by Dr. Thomas Riebold, assistant dean, and Mr. Vincent Calabrese.

The college administration, in coordination with the Municipal Auditorium, is attempting to ease the traffic problem on campus. One suggestion under consideration is the provision of a second exit on the rear of the auditorium. The exact physical location of this proposed exit is in relation to the college property. It will be necessary for the approval of the Municipal Auditorium. Szabo and Bachman to Present Recital of Beethoven Sonatas

Edward J. Szabo, assistant professor of music at Montclair State College, and Mary Beth Bachman of New York City will present a recital of violin-cello-clarinet sonatas by Ludwig van Beethoven, January 14, 1966, at 8:00 p.m. in the Recital Hall of the Montclair State College Music Building. Admission is free to students, $1.00 to non-students.

Mr. Szabo received his training and degrees from the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music, Juilliard School of Music and the Berkshire Music Center in Massachusetts. He has studied with Leonard Rose, member of the Juilliard String Quartet, Julius Baker, and Paul Zukofsky. Miss Bachman resides in New York City and is actively engaged as an accompanist and chamber music performer. She has appeared as an accompanist with the Boston Pops Orchestra. Miss Bachman is a graduate of the Juilliard School of Music and studied in Paris with a Fullbright scholar.

LIFE HALL REOVED: MORE CHANGES PLANNED

Students returning from Christmas vacation immediately took notice of the new changes made in Life Hall. Over the holidays several renovations were made in order to improve the interior of the building. Because of the war, the Municipal Auditorium was left nearly unused and was thus appropriated by the college. The Municipal Auditorium has been completely renovated and has been opened to students and faculty. The new auditorium is the site of a number of events which will take place throughout the year. The auditorium will be used for lectures, concerts, and other cultural events. The renovation of the auditorium has been carried out in a professional manner and has resulted in a beautiful and functional space.

Edmond Casarella's Works Shown In Library Foyer

Newmont College Art Department holdings were expanded last semester with the donation of a book titled "Rockledge" by Edmond Casarella. The book is a collection of works done by Edmond Casarella, a renowned artist of the "Op" art movement. "Op" art is a movement that extends beyond national borders and has achieved international recognition.

Mr. Casarella, a graduate of New Jersey, is an impressive artist whose unique features attest to his charm. He has been able to fulfill a number of important international art commissions.

A curious quality pervades his exhibit, making it exciting and full of glories of things to come. The graphic work is done in a newly executed manner.

New Publications Arise On Campus

The Student Government Apprentice of Montclair State College supports various organized publications, which include the Arrowhead, La Cam, and The Newman Club. Agora, the Montclairian, and the SGA-supported publications are all produced by the Montclair campus. Various types of printed literature, including newspapers, newsletters, and pamphlets, are produced by these organizations.

Young Republican Club puts out a mimeographed newsletter approximately six times a year. This is supposed to be a sounding board for Republican opinion. Many clubs put out a mimeographed newsletter, but the Republican opinion tends to be more conservative and fiscally sound.

The Newman Club provides, as do many other clubs on campus, a mimeographed newsletter for its members and also makes additional copies available to the general student body.

Encore, now for practical teaching-related paid experience, the writing course is open to students who teach in the public schools in the Montclair State College's Department of School Cooperation Program. You can gain experience in teaching, learning, and earning.

Get your applications from Mr. Neuner's office and prepare to begin your assignment during the spring semester.

At last winter's Annual Report, "Rockledge" had a different type of cover, a separate block for each color, and running through it there was a different color scheme. "Op" art, however, has a number of different colors and colors involved in producing this piece makes one appreciate the craftmanship of the artist.

"Lyric Mountain" and "Color Richting" are some of the most interesting works from the original blocks from which they were printed. This was done mainly with students in mind, bringing in Mr. Casarella's educational instinct — how he previously taught at Cooper Union, Pratt, and Yale Universities and many other schools of artistic names.

Some of the sculptural work of wall-like steel seems to rise vertically into the air, dividing space geometrically and organically. Because it is a "Take Me To Your Leader," due to its aura by a curious contrast, a broadly deep, accompanying black rod ebulliency called "Barrier." This exhibit continues until well into the early spring. This is full of depth for the road, and the stage is set for an interesting growth.

The exhibit is of great interest and full of depth for the road.

The Montclarion is published bi-weekly by the Bureau of Publications, Office of Student Government Association, of the Montclair State College, under the Student Government Association, of the Montclair State College, now boasts a circulation of over 3,000 students, faculty and advertisers. This we dare to say is a circulation far superior to those of our competitors. We therefore invite these competitors who have shown journalistic promise to join us in the showing, selling, lending or giving to "children" under eighteen years of age, a material that may be described in any form. The bill considers as obscenity any material that may "arouse the curiosity of young persons" as to sex or the anatomical differences between the sexes. There is nothing in the bill that is not the stifling of education, but the wording of the bill leaves it open to interpretation and could lead to serious consequences. The State Board of Education feels that biological textbooks should be exempted, but art and poetry books which include sketches and drawings of nudes fall under the jurisdiction of the bill. Among the books which will ultimately be banned may be because of the stipulations of the bill will be the Bible. "The Bible is a book of religious ideas, but the words of the book are the word of God, and the words of the book are the words of the Bible."

The members of the Legislature are the representatives of the people. If they believe that intelligent persons under eighteen years of age are not aware of sexual differences, has the Legislature become obsessed with obscenity? It appears that the governing body, with all good intentions, has failed to consider the consequences of such action. Morality cannot be legislated, it can only be taught by parents and religious institutions.

On the campus there is currently a spate of independent news sheets issued by dissatisfied rights, leftist, Seamen, and freshmen publishers. The freshmen, New Jersey News, for one thing, has been carrying underclassman as to their reaction to Montclair. It quotes the freshman as saying: "I think there is a parental interference to worry about. I can make up my own mind." The Montclair might be tempted to quote such a young lady but for the peace of her family, it would be truly ridiculous enough to omit her name and the name of her home town. However, we are certain that the Unity News and Mr. Semmons' handouts do not enjoy a very wide circulation in the students of the freshman class.

Tough Opponents And Lack of Height Cause Indians To Drop Five In A Row

Montclair’s basketball fortunes have taken a turn for the worse with 18 points in recent games. After edging Newark State College 79 to 70 on December 12, coach Dave Watkins’ Indians dropped five games in a row. In the Central Thanksgiving tournament on December 19 and 20 in New Haven, the “Big Reds” were blanked both nights by strong teams from Central Connecticut (115-108) and Westminster College (70-58). The Knights of Fairleigh Dickinson blanked the Indians both nights after edging Newark State College 73 to 70 on December 28 and 29 in New Haven, the “Big Reds” were blanked both in recent games. After edging Newark State College 73 to 70 on December 28 and 29 in New Haven, the “Big Reds” were blanked both in recent games.

Montclair’s offense is limited, although centered by the Squaws, MSC stood out a 75-20 and wiped its conference record to two and two. One ale, Bloomington continued to supply offensive punch with five points and Tommy Lametta had 20 points. Also in double figures for Montclair was 6’7” John McVeigh with 17 points.

The Big Reds threw a score into Central Connecticut State, the tourney winner, before faltering in the final seconds. At halftime, the Indians had one point, 46-45, but were unable to contain Central Connecticut in the last seven minutes of the half. The Indians were outscored 15 to 9 in the last seven minutes and were unable to contain the Big Reds’ height.

Both teams played hotly for double figures. Tom “Guts” Reilly had 28 points for CCS. Trini Minn had 10 points. Gene Fantanella was big scorer with 23 points for Montclair, was Jackie Apgar and big Mike Oakes scored 19 points, 14 in the second half. Next to pace State, Keith Neigel had 19, Tom Lametta 15, and Luther Brown had 10 points.

Newark College-of-Engineering, 70 to 58, was Westminster’s big scorer, with 23 points. The Indians had Fairleigh Dickinson blanked the Red and White to contend with. Mike Oakes was game-high scorer with 13 points, Randy “Shull” Heidemann had 14. Billy Filyczyk added 13 and John “Brute” Mathews and Alvin Purdy had 11 each. Pete Jerould and Lisi Calabrese looked good in reserve roles and
